INTRODUCTION

Litigation is not complete without court documents. In many cases, all procedures before court or even out of court will require an advocate to draft documents. This chapter therefore provides more standard court documents that you might find helpful in your quest to become an outstanding advocate.

A total of [NUMBER] payments have been made through and including the payment due on [DATE]. This loan is current in all respects and the Affiant is not in default.
3. The remaining unpaid principal balance owing on said Note and Mortgage is [AMOUNT], as of [DATE], and there remain scheduled monthly payments due in the amount of [AMOUNT] each, and a balloon payment of [AMOUNT] due on [DATE], with [AMOUNT] then remaining unpaid after said balloon. The next payment in the amount of [AMOUNT] is due on [DATE]. Interest continues to accrue on said Note and Mortgage at the fixed annual rate of [%].
4. No lump sum payments have been made against said balance, nor are there any claims, defenses or offsets against said Mortgage or Note.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

6. Affiant has no knowledge of any action or proceeding whatever, which is now pending in any state or federal court in [COUNTRY] in which the Affiant is a party which affects the real property or the Note or Mortgage, nor does the Affiant know of any federal or state court judgment, tax lien or any other lien of any kind or nature whatever which now constitutes a lien or charge upon the property, Note, or Mortgage, except taxes for the current year and the lien of those certain mortgages of record in the County and State where the property is located.

10. Affiant understands that this affidavit may be relied upon by any third-party for the purpose of assuming, holding, purchasing, assigning, or satisfying the Promissory Note and Mortgage presently owed by the Affiant.
11. That said Agreement is intended to be and is an absolute conveyance of the title to said property to Mortgagor named therein, and was not and is not now intended as a mortgage, trust conveyance or security of any kind.
12. That it was the intention of Affiant as grantors in said Affidavit to convey, and by said Affidavit Affiant did convey, to Mortgagor therein, all their right, title and interest absolutely in and to said property and that possession of said property has been surrendered to Mortgagor.
13. That in the execution and delivery of said Affidavit Affiant was not acting under misapprehension as to the effect thereof, and acted freely and voluntarily and were not acting under coercion or duress.
14. That at the time of making said Affidavit Affiant believed and now believe that the aforesaid consideration therefore represented the fair value of said property.

OBJECTION MY LORD

OBJECT: APOLOGY FOR ACCOUNTING ERRORS AND PAST DUE NOTICE

Dear [Contact name],

We are very much concerned that due to our mistake, you had to deal with unnecessary problems. Unfortunately, it has taken some time to find out exactly what occurred, and, therefore, please accept our apologies for the delay in this response. You definitely deserve an explanation for what went wrong in our accounting department. I hope that this letter will help to resolve some recent difficulties.

For what I've been told on this issue, your payment was received in time but it had been credited to an account which bears a similar name to yours. As a result, we began sending you our standard notices requesting payment, according to our collection policy. Even after the posting error was rectified, our accounting department failed to notify our credit department, which is why you continued to receive our correspondence asking for payment.

I understand how exasperating this has been for you and I am deeply sorry that it has taken so long to straighten out this problem. While there is a procedure within our firm to prevent this type of error from happening, we are reinforcing this procedure.

You have been a valued customer for a long time and we appreciate the opportunity to continue to serve you. You may rest assured that this problem will not occur again.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

4. Compensation

- a. Agency shall receive an amount equal to [Media Commission Rate] of the gross charges levied by media for advertising placed therewith by Agency pursuant to this Agreement; and [Non-Media Commission Rate] after volume discount, of the charges of suppliers of services or properties, such as finished art, comprehensive layouts, type composition, photostats, engravings, printing, radio and television programs, talent, literary, dramatic and musical works, records and exhibits, purchased by Agency on Advertiser's authorization during the term of this Agreement; provided that:

Company hereby appoints Distributor as Company's nonexclusive distributor of Products in the Territory, and Distributor accepts that position. It is understood that Company cannot lawfully prevent its distributors located elsewhere from supplying Products for sale or use within the Territory and that it has no obligation to do so.

OR

Company hereby appoints Distributor as Company's exclusive distributor of Products in the Territory, and Distributor accepts that position.

- a. Company, to the extent that it is legally Permitted to do so, (i) shall not appoint any distributor or servicer in the Territory for the Products other than Distributor, (ii) shall not, and shall cause any Affiliate not to, knowingly sell Products to any person other than Distributor or a party designated by Distributor for use or resale within the Territory (except pursuant to any agreement effective at the time this Agreement became applicable to the service so provided), and (iii) shall use its best efforts to prevent any party other than Distributor from seeking customers for the Products in the Territory, from establishing any branch related to the distribution of Products in the Territory, or from maintaining any distribution depot with respect to the Products in the Territory.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- b. Company, or any Affiliate, sells any Product which is eventually resold in the Territory (other than a sale to Distributor or a party designated by Distributor) and Company, or that Affiliate, had reason to know at the time of its sale of that Product that such resale was likely to occur, Company shall, immediately after the trigger sale (which shall be the resale of the Product in the territory or the sale immediately preceding the use of the Product in the Territory) is contracted, pay to the Distributor [PERCENT] % of the price of that Product under this Agreement at the time that the trigger sale was contracted, which payment shall represent a recapture of certain advertising and capital expenditures made by Distributor. Nothing contained in this Section shall affect any other right or remedy which Distributor may have pursuant to this Agreement.

2. Referrals

If Company or any Affiliate is contacted by any party inquiring about the purchase of Products in the Territory (other than Distributor or a party designated by Distributor), Company shall, or shall cause that Affiliate to, refer such party to Distributor for handling.

3. Relationship of Parties

- a. Distributor is an independent contractor and is not the legal representative or agent of Company for any purpose and shall have no right or authority (except as expressly provided in this Agreement) to incur, assume or create in writing or otherwise, any warranty over any of Company's employees, all of whom are entirely under the control of Company, who shall be responsible for their acts and omissions.
- b. Distributor shall, at its own expense, during the term of this Agreement and any extension thereof, maintain full insurance under any Workmen's Compensation Laws effective in the state or other applicable jurisdiction covering all persons employed by and working for it in connection with the performance of this Agreement, and upon request shall furnish Company with satisfactory evidence of the maintenance of such insurance.
- c. Distributor accepts exclusive liability for all contributions and payroll taxes required under Federal Social Security Laws and State Unemployment Compensation Laws or other payments under any laws of similar character in any applicable jurisdiction as to all persons employed by and working for it.
- d. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to create any partnership or joint venture relationship between the parties.

4. Sale of Products by Distributor

Distributor agrees to exercise its best efforts to develop the largest possible market for the Products in the Territory and shall continuously offer, advertise, demonstrate and otherwise promote the sale of Products in the Territory.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- a. The parties have consulted together and now agree that if Distributor's best efforts are used as provided in this Section, a minimum of [SPECIFY] Products ("Annual Market Potential") will be purchased and distributed in the Territory during the first year of this Agreement.
- b. At the beginning of each subsequent year hereunder the parties will consult together in good faith and agree on the Annual Market Potential applicable to that year; provided, however, that if they cannot agree, the Annual Market Potential for the immediately Preceding year will apply to the current year.

5. Competing Products

Distributor agrees that it will not distribute or represent any Products in the Territory which compete with the Products during the term of this Agreement or any extensions thereof.

6. Advertising

Distributor shall be entitled, during the term of the distributorship created by this Agreement and any extension thereof, to advertise and hold itself out as an authorized Distributor of the Products. At all times during the term of the distributorship created by this Agreement and any extension thereof, Distributor shall use the Trademarks in all advertisements and other activities conducted by Distributor to promote the sale of the Products.

- a. Distributor shall submit examples of all proposed advertisements and other promotional materials for the Products to Company for inspection and Distributor shall not use any such advertisements or promotional materials without having received the prior written consent of Company to do so.
- b. Distributor shall not, pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, have or acquire any right, title or interest in or to Company's Trademarks.

7. New Products

If Company or any Affiliate now or hereafter manufactures or distributes, or proposes to manufacture or distribute, any product other than the Products, Company shall immediately notify, or cause such Affiliate to notify, Distributor of that fact and of all details concerning that product. Distributor may request from Company distribution rights for that product in the Territory, or any portion thereof, and if so requested, Company shall grant, or shall cause the subject Affiliate to grant, such distribution rights to Distributor on terms and conditions no less favorable than those provided in this Agreement with respect to Products.

OBJECTION MY LORD

If Distributor does not obtain those distribution rights or obtains them only for a portion of the Territory, and Company or an Affiliate later desires to offer those distribution rights for the Territory or any portion thereof to another party, Company shall first, or shall cause such Affiliate to first, make that offer in writing to Distributor on terms and conditions which shall be specified fully in that offer. That offer shall contain a full description of the subject product and its operation.

Distributor may request, and Company shall promptly provide, or shall cause such Affiliate promptly to provide, further information concerning the product or the offer. If Distributor fails to accept such offer, Company or the Affiliate may then offer the product to another party for distribution in the Territory, but may not offer it on terms and conditions more favorable than those offered to Distributor. If Company or the Affiliate desires to make a better offer to another party, Company shall first, or shall cause the affiliate first to, make such better offer to Distributor in accordance with the procedure set forth above.

8. Distributor Sales, Service and Storage Facilities

- a. Distributor shall, at its expense, engage and maintain a sales, service and parts handling organization in the Territory, staffed with such experienced personnel as are necessary to enable distributor to perform its obligations under this Agreement.
- b. Any commission to be received under this agreement shall not be credited to Agent's account on Principal's books until the purchaser has made settlement in full with Principal, either by cash or acceptable notes [SPECIFY] [if appropriate, add: and has delivered to Principal or an authorized Agent of Principal any returnable products]. If settlement is made wholly or in part by purchaser's notes, Principal may withhold payment of the commission in whole or in part until the notes are paid.
- b. Agent's account may be charged with the amount of any commission previously paid to Agent or credited to Agent's account for the unpaid part of the purchase price of [product], or the unpaid part of any note given in payment.
- c. When Principal repossesses a product, Agent shall receive commission only on the amount of money paid by purchaser prior to repossession.

9. COMMISSIONS ON TRADE-INS

Principal shall have the right to fix the amount to be allowed for products taken in exchange, and a commission will not be paid on the amount so allowed.

10. SALES THROUGH OTHER SALES CHANNELS

Agent waives any claim to a commission on any sales made in Agent's territory other than through Principal's offices or regular sales agencies when, in the opinion of Principal, the general conditions of the business in any part of the [COUNTRY] necessitate the sale of Principal's product through other sales channels.

11. SALES IN OR FROM OTHER TERRITORIES

- a. Agent agrees not to enter the territory of any other Sales Agent of Principal for the purpose of selling Principal's product, or to endeavor, directly or indirectly, to make sales of Principal's product for use outside of Agent's territory. Should a purchaser call on Agent voluntarily and purchase Principal's product for use outside of Agent's territory, Agent shall receive commissions as follows: [DESCRIBE].
- b. Agent further agrees that, when any other authorized sales Agent of Principal sells Principal's product for use in Agent's territory, Agent's account shall be credited with the regular commission, less the commission paid Agent making the sale.

12. DISPUTES ON COMMISSIONS

Principal shall have the right to determine, in any dispute arising between Agent and any other sales Agent of Principal, the right to commission on any sale, and Agent shall abide by and be bound by Principal's decision.

13. LIMITATION ON COMMISSION CLAIMS

Agent waives all claim for commission on sales of Principal's product, whether made by Agent or others, and all other claims of any nature whatever, if the claim is not made within [MONTHS] from the date of termination of this agreement.

14. AGENT NOT TO SHARE COMMISSION

Under no circumstances, without permission of Principal, may Agent give any part of Agent's commission to any assistant, local Agent or other person to assist Agent in making a sale.

15. CONTENTS OF ORDERS

- a. All orders for Principal's product shall be taken on printed forms furnished by Principal, and all such orders shall be sent to Principal immediately after being signed by purchasers. The orders shall contain all conditions and agreements of every nature whatsoever between the parties to the sale, it being agreed that Principal shall not be responsible for promises or conditions not specified on the orders. Principal's product shall not be sold for more or less than the list price established by Principal.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- b. If Principal is compelled to make any concessions to customers or incur any expense by reason of a violation of these requirements, the amount of the expense may be charged to Agent's account.

16. ACCEPTANCE OF ORDERS BY PRINCIPAL

Orders taken by Agent shall not be binding until accepted by Principal. Principal reserves the right to reject any order when, in the judgment of Principal, the product ordered may not be suitable to the business of the customer.

17. AGENT NOT TO COMPETE

Agent, having agreed to devote Agent's whole time to Principal's business, shall not purchase or deal in [product] on Agent's own account in any way during the continuance of this agreement. Agent will not engage, directly or indirectly, either for Agent or as employee of any other party, in manufacturing, buying, selling or dealing in [product], in the territory described, for a period of [period of time], after the termination of the agency created by this agreement, without the written consent of Principal.

18. REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE OF PRODUCT

Agent shall promptly and properly make necessary repairs on Principal's product in Agent's territory if such repairs can be made by Agent, and to cooperate with and aid Principal in making all other such repairs in Agent's territory, in such manner as Principal may direct.

19. COMPROMISE AND COLLECTION OF ACCOUNTS

A. Principal shall have full control of and discretion as to the collection, adjustment or compromise of any or all accounts for Principal's products sold by Agent. If Principal requests Agent to make any collection, or to obtain possession of Principal's product or other property, whether the request relates to a sale made by Agent or any Agent that preceded Agent in the territory, Agent shall do so promptly.

B. Principal shall determine whether to take a lien on Principal's product sold by Agent. Principal shall not be liable to Agent for any loss of commission or other claim, by reason of failure to take such lien, or by reason of any compromise or adjustment of any account or accounts or notes for products sold by Agent, or any failure for any reason to collect any part of the account or notes.

20. REMITTALS BY AGENT

Agent agrees to remit [daily/weekly] to Principal, in the manner prescribed by [the treasurer], of Principal or to deposit [daily/weekly] in a bank or other financial institution designated by Principal's [treasurer], all money, checks and drafts received by Agent for Principal, including any received for repair parts and supplies sold. In no event will Agent use any money collected for Principal to defray the expenses of the agency, or for any other purpose, or deposit the funds in any bank or other financial institution to Agent's own credit.

21. AGENT'S EXPENSES

All expenses for traveling, entertainment, office, clerical, office and equipment maintenance, and general selling expenses that may be incurred by Agent in connection with this agreement will be borne wholly by Agent. In no case shall Principal be responsible or liable for such expenses.

22. ACCOUNTING ON TERMINATION

- a. Agent authorizes Principal, on termination of the agency created by this agreement, to pay any outstanding indebtedness, including amounts due Agent and Agent's employees incurred in the management of the agency, and to charge the amount to Agent's account. Principal shall not be bound to pay any such indebtedness, unless Principal shall elect to do so. Payment of part of Agent's indebtedness by Principal shall not raise any obligation on Principal's part to pay the whole of the indebtedness. An assignment of Agent's account, or any part of it, shall not be binding on Principal unless accepted in writing by Principal's [treasurer].
- b. On termination of this agreement, Principal shall proceed in the customary manner to collect notes and open accounts for purchases of Principal's product sold by Agent and shall charge against Agent's account the commission previously credited on such amounts of notes and accounts as are uncollected. Principal also shall charge Agent's account with Agent's proportion of any collection expense. This provision shall continue in force until a final account can be stated; no money shall be due Agent under this agreement after its termination until the final account can be stated.

23. OBJECTIONS TO ACCOUNTING; LIMITATIONS

Agent agrees that all objections to statements of account rendered by Principal are waived, unless written notice is given by Agent and unless such notice reaches Principal within [NUMBER] days after rendition of the statement by Principal.

24. SURETY BOND OF AGENT

Agent agrees to furnish Principal with a fidelity bond of [AMOUNT], to be issued by a responsible surety company and conditioned on the faithful performance of Agent's duties in the agency created by this agreement. All premiums on such bond shall be paid by Agent.

25. EXAMINATION OF AGENT'S ACCOUNTS

Agent agrees that officers or authorized representatives of Principal shall have, on demand, access to and the right to examine and make copies of all books of accounts, vouchers and papers of Agent, in order to ascertain whether the business of Agent is being conducted in a manner satisfactory to Principal.

26. DISPOSITION OF PRODUCTS; CONSIGNMENT

OBJECTION MY LORD

- a. Agent agrees, on demand, to account for and deliver to Principal, in good condition, all products charged to Agent's consignment account. If Agent fails to deliver any product, the product may be charged to Agent's account at list price, if Principal so elects, but nothing contained in this agreement shall prevent Principal from exercising other legal remedies to recover possession of such products.
- b. In the event any of Principal's products shall have been kept on consignment by Agent for such period of time that they have become unsaleable as new, Principal may order their return to the factory, in which event the freight charges from Agent's office to the factory shall be paid by Agent.

27. INSURANCE PREMIUMS; TAXES

Principal shall insure against loss by fire all products delivered on consignment to Agent, charging the premium paid for the insurance to Agent's account. Agent shall pay all personal property taxes levied on consigned products, or shall pay such tax as may be levied in lieu of a personal property tax.

28. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

Agent agrees, for the benefit of Agent's employees and subagents, to comply in all respects with the workers' compensation laws of any state or states of which Agent's territory may be a part, and to pay the premiums and other costs and expenses incident to such coverage.

29. CUSTOMER LIST; SALES CALLS

- a. Agent agrees to keep a list of probable purchasers, and also a list of users, of Principal's products in Agent's territory. Both lists shall show the name, nature and address of each business concern listed. The user's list shall also show the style and factory number of Principal's product in use.
- b. Agent agrees to send to Principal, on the form furnished by Principal, a list of all persons called on by Agent or Agent's employees in connection with Principal's business. The list shall show the name, nature and address of each business concern called on, and the object and results of the call.

30. DEPRECIATION OF AGENCY PROPERTY

The office furniture, personal property and fixtures used by Agent in Principal's business shall be invoiced and appraised at least once each year by Agent and a representative of Principal, and a deduction of not less than [%] per year shall be made to cover wear and tear in ordinary depreciation.

31. PURCHASE OF AGENCY PROPERTY

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Principal shall have an option of purchase of all or any part of the supplies, repair parts, vehicles and sundries in stock or on hand at the time of termination of the agency, at the current price, less proper deductions for obsolescence and depreciation, if any. Such price shall be paid to Agent or credited on Agent's account with Principal, as Principal may elect.

32. EMPLOYMENT OF SUBAGENTS

Agent agrees not to employ any salespersons to assist in the agency, except under written agreement by the terms of which Principal shall be released from all liability for any indebtedness from Agent to such salespersons. Agent agrees not to employ any person until Agent has supplied Principal with full particulars regarding such person, on the form furnished by Principal, giving the person's name, record, previous occupation, etc., and until Principal's assent to such employment has been received.

33. MODIFICATION AND TERMINATION

Principal at any time may alter and change the boundaries and territory covered by this agency agreement. The agency created by this agreement may be terminated by either party by written notice mailed or delivered to the last known address of the other party. This agreement covers all agreements between Agent and Principal relating to the employment of Agent for the handling of Principal's product.

34. GOVERNING LAW

BY-LAWS OF [CORPORATION]

These By-Laws of [CORPORATION] (the “Agreement”) are made and effective [DATE].

1. CORPORATE OFFICES

1.1. Principal Office

The Board of Directors shall fix the location of the principal executive office of the corporation at any place within or outside the State of [STATE/PROVINCE]. If the principal executive office is located outside [STATE/PROVINCE] and the corporation has one or more business offices in [STATE/PROVINCE], then the Board of Directors shall fix and designate a principal business office in [STATE/PROVINCE].

1.2. Other Offices

The Board of Directors may at any time establish branch or subordinate offices at any place or places.

2. MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

2.1. Place Of Meetings

All meetings of shareholders shall be held at any place within or outside the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] designated by the Board of Directors. In the absence of any such designation, shareholders' meetings shall be held at the principal executive office of the corporation or at any place consented to in writing by all persons entitled to vote at such meeting, given before or after the meeting and filed with the Secretary of the corporation.

2.2. Annual Meeting

An annual meeting of shareholders shall be held each year on a date and at a time designated by the Board of Directors. At that meeting, directors shall be elected. Any other proper business may be transacted at the annual meeting of shareholders.

2.3. Special Meetings

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time, subject to the provisions of Sections 2.4 and 2.5 of these By-Laws, by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the President or the holders of shares entitled to cast not less than [%] of the votes at that meeting.

If a special meeting is called by anyone other than the Board of Directors or the President or the Chairman of the Board, then the request shall be in writing, specifying the time of such meeting and the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted, and shall be delivered personally or sent by registered mail or by other written communication to the Chairman of the Board, the President, any

Vice President or the Secretary of the corporation. The officer receiving the request forthwith shall cause notice to be given to the shareholders entitled to vote, in accordance with the provisions of Sections 2.4 and 2.5 of these By-Laws, that a meeting will be held at the time requested by the person or persons calling the meeting, so long as that time is not less than [NUMBER] nor more than [NUMBER] days after the receipt of the request. If the notice is not given within [NUMBER] days after receipt of the request, then the person or persons requesting the meeting may give the notice. Nothing contained in this paragraph of this Section 2.3 shall be construed as limiting, fixing or affecting the time when a meeting of shareholders called by action of the Board of Directors may be held.

2.4. Notice Of Shareholders' Meetings

All notices of meetings of shareholders shall be sent or otherwise given in accordance with Section 2.5 of these By-Laws not less than [NUMBER] (or, if sent by third-class mail pursuant to Section 2.5 of these By-Laws, not less than [NUMBER] nor more than [NUMBER] days before the date of the meeting to each shareholder entitled to vote thereat. Such notice shall state the place, date, and hour of the meeting and (i) in the case of a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted, and no business other than that specified in the notice may be transacted, or (ii) in the case of the annual meeting, those matters which the Board of Directors, at the time of the mailing of the notice, intends to present for action by the shareholders, but, subject to the provisions of the next paragraph of this Section 2.4, any proper matter may be presented at the meeting for such action. The notice of any meeting at which Directors are to be elected shall include the names of nominees intended at the time of the notice to be presented by the Board for election.

If action is proposed to be taken at any meeting for approval of (i) a contract or transaction in which a director has a direct or indirect financial interest, (ii) an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation, , (iii) a reorganization of the corporation, (iv) a voluntary dissolution of the corporation, or (v) a distribution in dissolution other than in accordance with the rights of any outstanding preferred shares, then the notice shall also state the general nature of that proposal.

2.5. Manner Of Giving Notice; Affidavit Of Notice

Notice of a shareholders' meeting shall be given either personally or by first-class mail, or, if the corporation has outstanding shares held of record by [NUMBER] or more persons on the record date for the shareholders' meeting, notice may be sent by third-class mail, or other means of written communication, addressed to the shareholder at the address of the shareholder appearing on the books of the corporation or given by the shareholder to the corporation for the purpose of notice; or if no such address appears or is given, at the place where the principal executive office of the corporation is located or by publication at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal executive office is located. The notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time when delivered personally or deposited in the mail or sent by other means of written communication.

OBJECTION MY LORD

If any notice (or any report referenced in Article VII of these By-Laws) addressed to a shareholder at the address of such shareholder appearing on the books of the corporation is returned to the corporation by the [COUNTRY] Postal Service marked to indicate that the [COUNTRY] Postal Service is unable to deliver the notice to the shareholder at that address, all future notices or reports shall be deemed to have been duly given without further mailing if the same shall be available to the shareholder upon written demand of the shareholder at the principal executive office of the corporation for a period of [NUMBER] year from the date of the giving of the notice.

An affidavit of mailing of any notice or report in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.5, executed by the Secretary, Assistant Secretary or any transfer agent, shall be prima facie evidence of the giving of the notice or report.

2.6. Quorum

Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation, a majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. The shareholders present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum, if any action taken (other than adjournment) is approved by at least a majority of the shares required to constitute a quorum.

In the absence of a quorum, any meeting of shareholders may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of the shares represented either in person or by proxy, but no other business may be transacted, except as provided in the last sentence of the preceding paragraph.

2.7. Adjourned Meeting; Notice

Any shareholders' meeting, annual or special, whether or not a quorum is present, may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of the majority of the shares represented at that meeting, either in person or by proxy.

When any meeting of shareholders, either annual or special, is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if its time and place are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. However, if the adjournment is for more than [NUMBER] days from the date set for the original meeting or if a new record date for the adjourned meeting is fixed, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting in accordance with the provisions of Sections 2.4 and 2.5 of these By-Laws. At any adjourned meeting the corporation may transact any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting.

2.8. Voting

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

The shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.11 of these By-Laws. Elections for directors and voting on any other matter at a shareholders' meeting need not be by ballot unless a shareholder demands election by ballot at the meeting and before the voting begins.

Except as provided in the last paragraph of this Section 2.8, or as may be otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the shareholders. Any holder of shares entitled to vote on any matter may vote part of the shares in favor of the proposal and refrain from voting the remaining shares or may vote them against the proposal other than elections to office, but, if the shareholder fails to specify the number of shares such shareholder is voting affirmatively, it will be conclusively presumed that the shareholder's approving vote is with respect to all shares which the shareholder is entitled to vote. The affirmative vote of the majority of the shares represented and voting at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present (which shares voting affirmatively also constitute at least a majority of the required quorum) shall be the act of the shareholders, unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by the [CODE] or by the Articles of Incorporation.

At a shareholders' meeting at which directors are to be elected, a shareholder shall be entitled to cumulate votes either (i) by giving one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of votes to which that shareholder's shares are normally entitled or (ii) by distributing the shareholder's votes on the same principle among as many candidates as the shareholder thinks fit, if the candidate or candidates' names have been placed in nomination prior to the voting and the shareholder has given notice prior to the voting of the shareholder's intention to cumulate the shareholder's votes. If any one shareholder has given such a notice, then every shareholder entitled to vote may cumulate votes for candidates in nomination. The candidates receiving the highest number of affirmative votes, up to the number of directors to be elected, shall be elected; votes against any candidate and votes withheld shall have no legal effect.

2.9. Validation Of Meetings; Waiver Of Notice; Consent

The transactions of any meeting of shareholders, either annual or special, however called and noticed, and wherever held, are as valid as though they had been taken at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum be present either in person or by proxy, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the persons entitled to vote, not present in person or by proxy, signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to the holding of the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any annual or special meeting of shareholders need be specified in any written waiver of notice or consent to the holding of the meeting or approval of the minutes thereof, except that if action is taken or proposed to be taken for approval of any of those matters specified in the second paragraph of Section 2.4 of these By-Laws, the waiver of notice or consent or approval shall state the general nature of the proposal. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

OBJECTION MY LORD

Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of and presence at that meeting, except when the person objects, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and except that attendance at a meeting is not a waiver of any right to object to the consideration of matters required by the [CODE] to be included in the notice of such meeting but not so included, if such objection is expressly made at the meeting.

2.10. Shareholder Action By Written Consent Without A Meeting

Any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

Directors may not be elected by written consent except by unanimous written consent of all shares entitled to vote for the election of directors. However, a director may be elected at any time to fill any vacancy on the Board of Directors, provided that it was not created by removal of a director and that it has not been filled by the directors, by the written consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote for the election of directors.

All such consents shall be maintained in the corporate records. Any shareholder giving a written consent, or the shareholder's proxy holders, or a transferee of the shares, or a personal representative of the shareholder, or their respective proxy holders, may revoke the consent by a writing received by the Secretary of the corporation before written consents of the number of shares required to authorize the proposed action have been filed with the Secretary.

If the consents of all shareholders entitled to vote have not been solicited in writing, the Secretary shall give prompt notice of any corporate action approved by the shareholders without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent to those shareholders entitled to vote who have not consented in writing. Such notice shall be given in the manner specified in Section 2.5 of these By-Laws. In the case of approval of (i) a contract or transaction in which a director has a direct or indirect financial interest, (ii) indemnification of a corporate agent, (iii) a reorganization of the corporation, and (iv) a distribution in dissolution other than in accordance with the rights of outstanding preferred shares, the notice shall be given at least [NUMBER] days before the consummation of any action authorized by that approval, unless the consents of all shareholders entitled to vote have been solicited in writing.

2.11. Record Date For Shareholder Notice; Voting; Giving Consents

In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of any meeting or to vote, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than [NUMBER] days nor less than [NUMBER] days prior to the date of such meeting nor more than

[NUMBER] days before any other action. Shareholders at the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice and to vote, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any shares on the books of the corporation after the record date, except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation or the [CODE].

A determination of shareholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting unless the Board of Directors fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting, but the Board of Directors shall fix a new record date if the meeting is adjourned for more than [NUMBER] days from the date set for the original meeting.

If the Board of Directors does not so fix a record date:

- i. The record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall be at the close of business on the business day next preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the business day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held.
- ii. The record date for determining shareholders entitled to give consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, (i) when no prior action by the Board has been taken, shall be the day on which the first written consent is given, or (ii) when prior action by the Board has been taken, shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board adopts the resolution relating thereto, or the [NUMBER] day prior to the date of such other action, whichever is later.

The record date for any other purpose shall be as provided in Section 8.1 of these By-Laws.

2.12. Proxies

Every person entitled to vote for directors, or on any other matter, shall have the right to do so either in person or by one or more agents authorized by a written proxy signed by the person and filed with the Secretary of the corporation. A proxy shall be deemed signed if the shareholder's name or other authorization is placed on the proxy (whether by manual signature, typewriting, telegraphic or electronic transmission or otherwise) by the shareholder or the shareholder's attorney-in-fact. A validly executed proxy which does not state that it is irrevocable shall continue in full force and effect unless (i) the person who executed the proxy revokes it prior to the time of voting by delivering a writing to the corporation stating that the proxy is revoked or by executing a subsequent proxy and presenting it to the meeting or by attendance at such meeting and voting in person, or (ii) written notice of the death or incapacity of the maker of that proxy is received by the corporation before the vote pursuant to that proxy is counted; provided, however, that no proxy shall be valid after the expiration of [NUMBER] months from the date thereof, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. The dates contained on the forms of proxy presumptively determine the order of execution, regardless of the postmark dates on the envelopes in which they are mailed.

2.13. Inspectors Of Election

In advance of any meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors may appoint inspectors of election to act at the meeting and any adjournment thereof. If inspectors of election are not so appointed or designated or if any persons so appointed fail to appear or refuse to act, then the Chairman of the meeting may, and on the request of any shareholder or a shareholder's proxy shall, appoint inspectors of election (or persons to replace those who so fail to appear) at the meeting. The number of inspectors shall be either [NUMBER] or [NUMBER]. If appointed at a meeting on the request of [NUMBER] or more shareholders or proxies, the majority of shares represented in person or by proxy shall determine whether [NUMBER] or [NUMBER] inspectors are to be appointed.

The inspectors of election shall determine the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each, the shares represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, and the authenticity, validity, and effect of proxies, receive votes, ballots or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions in any way arising in connection with the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes or consents, determine when the polls shall close, determine the result and do any other acts that may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all shareholders.

3. DIRECTORS

3.1. Powers

Subject to the provisions of the [CODE] and any limitations in the Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws relating to action required to be approved by the shareholders or by the outstanding shares, the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board may delegate the management of the day-to-day operation of the business of the corporation to a management company or other person provided that the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board.

3.2. Number Of Directors

The authorized number of directors of the corporation shall be [NUMBER].

3.3. Election And Term Of Office Of Directors

At each annual meeting of shareholders, directors shall be elected to hold office until the next annual meeting. Each director, including a director elected to fill a vacancy, shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which elected and until a successor has been elected and qualified, except in the case of the death, resignation, or removal of such a director.

3.4. Removal

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

The entire Board of Directors or any individual director may be removed from office without cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on such removal; provided, however, that unless the entire Board is removed, no individual director may be removed when the votes cast against such director's removal, or not consenting in writing to such removal, would be sufficient to elect that director if voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes cast were cast (or, if such action is taken by written consent, all shares entitled to vote were voted) and the entire number of directors authorized at the time of such director's most recent election were then being elected.

3.5. Resignation And Vacancies

Any director may resign effective upon giving oral or written notice to the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Secretary or the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. If the resignation of a director is effective at a future time, the Board of Directors may elect a successor to take office when the resignation becomes effective.

Vacancies on the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, or if the number of directors then in office is less than a quorum by (i) unanimous written consent of the directors then in office, (ii) the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office at a meeting held pursuant to notice or waivers of notice, or (iii) a sole remaining director; however, a vacancy created by the removal of a director by the vote or written consent of the shareholders or by court order may be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented and voting at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present (which shares voting affirmatively also constitute at least a majority of the required quorum), or by the unanimous written consent of all shares entitled to vote thereon. Each director so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the shareholders and until a successor has been elected and qualified, or until his or her death, resignation or removal.

A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist (i) in the event of the death, resignation or removal of any director, (ii) if the Board of Directors by resolution declares vacant the office of a director who has been declared of unsound mind by an order of court or convicted of a felony, (iii) if the authorized number of directors is increased, or (iv) if the shareholders fail, at any meeting of shareholders at which any director or directors are elected, to elect the full authorized number of directors to be elected at that meeting.

The shareholders may elect a director or directors at any time to fill any vacancy or vacancies not filled by the directors, but any such election by written consent, other than to fill a vacancy created by removal, shall require the consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon. A director may not be elected by written consent to fill a vacancy created by removal except by unanimous consent of all shares entitled to vote for the election of directors.

OBJECTION MY LORD

3.6. Place Of Meetings; Meetings By Telephone

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any place within or outside the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] that has been designated from time to time by resolution of the Board. In the absence of such a designation, regular meetings shall be held at the principal executive office of the corporation. Special meetings of the Board may be held at any place within or outside the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] that has been designated in the notice of the meeting or, if not stated in the notice or if there is no notice, at the principal executive office of the corporation.

Members of the Board may participate in a meeting through the use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as all directors participating in such meeting can hear one another. Participation in a meeting pursuant to this paragraph constitutes presence in person at such meeting.

3.7. Regular Meetings

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice if the time and place of such meetings are fixed by the Board of Directors.

3.8. Special Meetings; Notice

Subject to the provisions of the following paragraph, special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, the President, any Vice President, the Secretary or any [NUMBER] directors.

Notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be delivered personally or by telephone to each director or sent by first-class mail, telegram, charges prepaid, or by fax, addressed to each director at that director's address as it is shown on the records of the corporation. If the notice is mailed, it shall be deposited in the [COUNTRY] mail at least [NUMBER] days before the time of the holding of the meeting. If the notice is delivered personally or by telephone or by fax or telegram, it shall be delivered personally or by telephone or by fax or to the telegraph company at least [NUMBER] hours before the time of the holding of the meeting. Any oral notice given personally or by telephone may be communicated either to the director or to a person at the office of the director who the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the director. The notice need not specify the purpose of the meeting.

3.9. Quorum

A majority of the authorized number of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except to adjourn as provided in Section 3.11 of these By-Laws. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board of Directors, subject to the provisions of [SPECIFY] (as to approval of contracts or transactions in which a director has a direct or indirect material financial interest), [SECTION OF

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

[CODE] OR LAW] (as to appointment of committees), [SECTION OF [CODE] OR LAW] (as to indemnification of directors), the Articles of Incorporation, and other applicable law.

A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

3.10. Waiver Of Notice

Notice of a meeting need not be given to any director who signs a waiver of notice or a consent to holding the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof, whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to such director. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. A waiver of notice need not specify the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors.

3.11. Adjournment

A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place.

3.12. Notice Of Adjournment

If the meeting is adjourned for more than [NUMBER] hours, notice of any adjournment to another time and place shall be given prior to the time of the adjourned meeting to the directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.

3.13. Board Action By Written Consent Without A Meeting

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Board of Directors.

3.14. Fees And Compensation Of Directors

Directors and members of committees may receive such compensation, if any, for their services and such reimbursement of expenses as may be fixed or determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. This Section 3.14 shall not be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity as an officer, agent, employee or otherwise and receiving compensation for those services.

3.15. Approval Of Loans To Officers

OBJECTION MY LORD

If these By-Laws have been approved by the corporation's shareholders in accordance with the [CODE] , the corporation may, upon the approval of the Board of Directors alone, make loans of money or property to, or guarantee the obligations of, any officer of the corporation or of its parent, if any, whether or not a director, or adopt an employee benefit plan or plans authorizing such loans or guaranties provided that (i) the Board of Directors determines that such a loan or guaranty or plan may reasonably be expected to benefit the corporation, (ii) the corporation has outstanding shares held of record by [NUMBER] or more persons (determined as provided in [SECTION OF [CODE]]) on the date of approval by the Board of Directors, and (iii) the approval of the Board of Directors is by a vote sufficient without counting the vote of any interested director or directors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the corporation shall have the power to make loans permitted by the [CODE] .

4. COMMITTEES

4.1. Committees Of Directors

The Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the authorized number of directors, designate one or more committees, each consisting of [NUMBER] or more directors, to serve at the pleasure of the Board. The Board may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent member at any meeting of the committee. The appointment of members or alternate members of a committee requires the vote of a majority of the authorized number of directors. Any such committee shall have authority to act in the manner and to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board and may have all the authority of the Board, except with respect to:

- i. The approval of any action which, under the [CODE] , also requires shareholders' approval or approval of the outstanding shares.
- ii. The filling of vacancies on the Board of Directors or in any committee.
- iii. The fixing of compensation of the directors for serving on the Board or on any committee.
- iv. The amendment or repeal of these By-Laws or the adoption of new By-Laws.
- v. The amendment or repeal of any resolution of the Board of Directors which by its express terms is not so amendable or repealable.
- vi. A distribution to the shareholders of the corporation, except at a rate, in a periodic amount or within a price range set forth in the Articles of Incorporation or determined by the Board of Directors.
- vii. The appointment of any other committees of the Board of Directors or the members thereof.

4.2. Meetings And Action Of Committees

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Meetings and actions of committees shall be governed by, and held and taken in accordance with, the provisions of Article III of these By-Laws, Section 3.6 (place of meetings), Section 3.7 (regular meetings), Section 3.8 (special meetings and notice), Section 3.9 (quorum), Section 3.10 (waiver of notice), Section 3.11 (adjournment), Section 3.12 (notice of adjournment), and Section 3.13 (action without meeting), with such changes in the context of those By-Laws as are necessary to substitute the committee and its members for the Board of Directors and its members; provided, however, that the time of regular meetings of committees may be determined either by resolution of the Board of Directors or by resolution of the committee, that special meetings of committees may also be called by resolution of the Board of Directors, and that notice of special meetings of committees shall also be given to all alternate members, who shall have the right to attend all meetings of the committee. The Board of Directors may adopt rules for the government of any committee not inconsistent with the provisions of these By-Laws.

5. OFFICERS

5.1. Officers

The officers of the corporation shall be a President, a Secretary, and a Chief Financial Officer. The corporation shall, to the maximum extent and in the manner permitted by the [CODE], indemnify each of its directors against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding (as defined in [SECTION OF [CODE] OR LAW]), arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director of the corporation. For purposes of this Article VI, a director of the corporation includes any person (i) who is or was a director of the corporation, (ii) who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or (iii) who was a director of a corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation.

6.2. Indemnification Of Others

The corporation shall have the power, to the extent and in the manner permitted by the [CODE] , to indemnify each of its employees, officers, and agents (other than directors) against expenses (as defined in [SECTION OF [CODE] OR LAW]), judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding (as defined [SECTION OF [CODE] OR LAW]), arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was an employee, officer, or agent of the corporation. For purposes of this Article VI, an employee or officer or agent of the corporation (other than a director) includes any person (i) who is or was an employee, officer, or agent of the corporation, (ii) who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as an employee, officer, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or (iii) who was an employee, officer, or agent of a corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation.

6.3. Payment Of Expenses In Advance

Expenses and attorneys' fees incurred in defending any civil or criminal action or proceeding for which indemnification is required pursuant to Section 6.1, or if otherwise authorized by the Board of Directors, shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the indemnified party to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that the indemnified party is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this Article VI.

6.4. Indemnity Not Exclusive

The indemnification provided by this Article VI shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any By-Law, agreement, vote of shareholders or directors or otherwise, both as to action in an official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. The rights to indemnity hereunder shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of the person.

6.5. Insurance Indemnification

The corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by such person in such capacity or arising out of that person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify that person against such liability under the provisions of this Article VI.

6.6. Conflicts

No indemnification or advance shall be made under this Article VI, except where such indemnification or advance is mandated by law or the order, judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, in any circumstance where it appears:

- i. That it would be inconsistent with a provision of the Articles of Incorporation, these By-Laws, a resolution of the shareholders or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of the action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification; or
- ii. That it would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

6.7. Right To Bring Suit

If a claim under this Article is not paid in full by the corporation within [NUMBER] days after a written claim has been received by the corporation (either because the claim is denied or because no determination is made), the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall also be entitled to be paid the expenses of prosecuting such claim. The corporation shall be entitled to raise as a defense to any such action that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct that make it permissible under the [CODE] for the corporation to indemnify the claimant for the claim. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is permissible in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct, if any, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to such action or create a presumption for the purposes of such action that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

6.8. Indemnity Agreements

The Board of Directors is authorized to enter into a contract with any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or any person who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including employee benefit plans, or any person who was a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation, providing for indemnification rights equivalent to or, if the Board of Directors so determines and to the extent permitted by applicable law, greater than, those provided for in this Article VI.

6.9. Amendment, Repeal Or Modification

The list shall be made available on or before the later of [NUMBER] business days after the demand is received or the date specified therein as the date as of which the list is to be compiled.

7.2. Maintenance And Inspection Of By-Laws

The minutes and accounting books and records shall be open to inspection upon the written demand on the corporation of any shareholder or holder of a voting trust certificate at any reasonable time during usual business hours, for a purpose reasonably related to such holder's interests as a shareholder or as the holder of a voting trust certificate. The annual report shall contain a balance sheet as of the end of the fiscal year and an income statement and statement of changes in financial position for the fiscal year, accompanied by any report thereon of independent accountants or, if there is no such report, the certificate of an authorized officer of the corporation that the statements were prepared without audit from the books and records of the corporation.

The foregoing requirement of an annual report shall be waived so long as the shares of the corporation are held by fewer than [NUMBER] holders of record.

OBJECTION MY LORD

7.6. Financial Statements

If no annual report for the fiscal year has been sent to shareholders, then the corporation shall, upon the written request of any shareholder made more than [NUMBER] days after the close of such fiscal year, deliver or mail to the person making the request, within [NUMBER] days thereafter, a copy of a balance sheet as of the end of such fiscal year and an income statement and statement of changes in financial position for such fiscal year.

A shareholder or shareholders holding at least [%] of the outstanding shares of any class of the corporation may make a written request to the corporation for an income statement of the corporation for the three-month, six-month or nine-month period of the current fiscal year ended more than [NUMBER] days prior to the date of the request and a balance sheet of the corporation as of the end of that period. The authority herein granted may be exercised either by such person directly or by any other person authorized to do so by proxy or power of attorney duly executed by such person having the authority.

8. GENERAL MATTERS

8.1. Record Date For Purposes Other Than Notice And Voting

For purposes of determining the shareholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any other lawful action (other than with respect to notice or voting at a shareholders meeting or action by shareholders by written consent without a meeting), the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than [NUMBER] days prior to any such action. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on the record date are entitled to receive the dividend, distribution or allotment of rights, or to exercise the rights, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any shares on the books of the corporation after the record date, except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation or the [CODE] .

If the Board of Directors does not so fix a record date, then the record date for determining shareholders for any such purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board adopts the resolution relating thereto or the [NUMBER] day prior to the date of that action, whichever is later.

8.2. Checks; Drafts; Evidences Of Indebtedness

From time to time, the Board of Directors shall determine by resolution which person or persons may sign or endorse all checks, drafts, other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness that are issued in the name of or payable to the corporation, and only the persons so authorized shall sign or endorse those instruments.

8.3. Corporate Contracts And Instruments: How Executed

The Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws, may authorize any officer or officers, or agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation; such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Unless so authorized or ratified by the Board of Directors or within the agency power of an officer, no officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or for any amount.

8.4. Certificates For Shares

A certificate or certificates for shares of the corporation shall be issued to each shareholder when any of such shares are fully paid. The Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of certificates for shares partly paid provided that these certificates shall state the total amount of the consideration to be paid for them and the amount actually paid. All certificates shall be signed in the name of the corporation by the Chairman of the Board or the Vice Chairman of the Board or the President or a Vice President and by the Chief Financial Officer or an Assistant Treasurer or the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary, certifying the number of shares and the class or series of shares owned by the shareholder. Any or all of the signatures on the certificate may be by facsimile.

In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on a certificate has ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if that person were an officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

8.5. Lost Certificates

OBJECTION MY LORD

Except as provided in this Section 8.5, no new certificates for shares shall be issued to replace a previously issued certificate unless the latter is surrendered to the corporation or its transfer agent or registrar and cancelled at the same time. The Board of Directors may, in case any share certificate or certificate for any other security is lost, stolen or destroyed (as evidenced by a written affidavit or affirmation of such fact), authorize the issuance of replacement certificates on such terms and conditions as the Board may require; the Board may require indemnification of the corporation secured by a bond or other adequate security sufficient to protect the corporation against any claim that may be made against it, including any expense or liability, on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of the certificate or the issuance of the replacement certificate.

8.6. Construction; Definitions

Unless the context requires otherwise, the general provisions, rules of construction, and definitions in the [CODE] shall govern the construction of these By-Laws. Without limiting the generality of this provision, the singular number includes the plural, the plural number includes the singular, and the term person includes both a corporation and a natural person.

9. AMENDMENTS

9.1. Amendment By Shareholders

New By-Laws may be adopted or these By-Laws may be amended or repealed by the vote or written consent of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote; provided, however, that if the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation set forth the number of authorized Directors of the corporation, then the authorized number of Directors may be changed only by an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation.

9.2. Amendment By Directors

Subject to the rights of the shareholders as provided in Section 9.1 of these By-Laws, By-Laws, other than a By-Law or an amendment of a By-Law changing the authorized number of directors (except to fix the authorized number of directors pursuant to a By-Law providing for a variable number of directors), may be adopted, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors.

9.3. Record Of Amendments

Whenever an amendment or new By-Law is adopted, it shall be copied in the book of minutes with the original By-Laws. If any By-Law is repealed, the fact of repeal, with the date of the meeting at which the repeal was enacted or written consent was filed, shall be stated in said book.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement on the date first above written.

"Buyer" means the Company or those Continuing Shareholders who purchase an Offering Shareholder's Shares pursuant to this Agreement.

"Management Shareholder" means First Shareholder, Second Shareholder and Third Shareholder.

2. Purchase for Investment

Each Shareholder represents and warrants that he is acquiring and has acquired his Shares for his own account for investment and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any distribution thereof or with any present intent of selling any portion thereof.

3. Transfers of Shares

A Shareholder may not transfer, give, convey, sell, pledge, bequeath, donate, assign, encumber or otherwise dispose of any Shares except pursuant to this Agreement.

3.1. Transfers to the Company

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, a Shareholder may give, sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any of his Shares to the Company at such price and on such terms and conditions as such Shareholder and the Board of Directors of the Company may agree.

3.2. Transfer to Others

Except as provided for in Paragraph 3.1 above, a Shareholder desiring to dispose of some or all of his Shares may do so only pursuant to a bona fide offer to purchase (the "Offer") and after compliance with the following provisions. Such Shareholder shall first give written notice to the Company and the other Shareholders of his intention to dispose of his Shares, identifying the number of Shares he desires to dispose of, the proposed purchase price per Share and the name of the proposed purchaser and attaching an exact copy of the Offer received by such Shareholder.

3.3. The Company's Right to Purchase

The Company shall have the exclusive right to purchase all of the Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell at the proposed purchase price per Share. The Company shall exercise this right to purchase by giving written notice to the Offering Shareholder (with a copy thereof to each of the Continuing Shareholders) within [NUMBER] days after receipt of the notice from the Offering Shareholder (the "[NUMBER] Day Period") that the Company elects to purchase the Shares subject to the Offer and setting forth a date and time for closing which shall be not later than [NUMBER] days after the date of such notice from the Company. At the time of closing, the Offering Shareholder shall deliver to the Company certificates representing the Shares to be sold, together with stock powers duly endorsed in blank. The Shares shall be delivered by the Offering Shareholder free of any and all liens and encumbrances. All transfer taxes and documentary stamps shall be paid by the Offering Shareholder.

3.4. The Continuing Shareholders Right to Purchase

If the Company fails to exercise its right to purchase pursuant to subparagraph (i) above, the Continuing Shareholders shall have the right for an additional period of [NUMBER] days (the "Additional [NUMBER] Day Period") commencing at the expiration of the [NUMBER] Day Period to purchase the Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell at the proposed purchase price per Share. The Continuing Shareholders shall exercise this right to purchase by giving written notice to the Offering Shareholder prior to the expiration of the Additional [NUMBER] Day Period that they elect to purchase his Shares and setting forth a date and time for closing which shall be not later than [NUMBER] days after the expiration of the Additional [NUMBER] Day Period. Any purchase of Shares by all or some of the Continuing Shareholders shall be made in such proportion as they might agree among themselves or, in the absence of any such agreement, pro rata in proportion to their ownership of Shares of the Company (excluding the Offering Shareholder's Shares) at the time of such offer, but in any event one or more of the Continuing Shareholders must agree to purchase all the Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell. At the time of closing, the Offering Shareholder shall deliver to Buyer certificates representing the Shares to be sold, together with stock powers duly endorsed in blank. Said Shares shall be delivered by the offering Shareholder free and clear of any and all liens and encumbrances. All transfer taxes and documentary stamps shall be paid by the Offering Shareholder.

3.5. Performance of Acceptance

When exercising the rights granted in Paragraphs 3.2 hereof, Buyer must elect to purchase all Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell for the price and upon the same terms for payment of the price as are set forth in the Offer; provided, however, that if said offer received by the Offering Shareholder shall provide for any act or action to be done or performed by the party making such Offer at any time before or within [NUMBER] days after the last day for exercise of Buyer's right to purchase pursuant to Paragraphs 3.2 hereof, then the Buyer shall be deemed to have complied with the terms and conditions of such Offer if Buyer does or performs such act or action within [NUMBER] days after the last day for exercise of Buyer's right to purchase pursuant to Paragraphs 3.2 hereof.

3.6. Sale to Third Party

If either the Company or some or all of the Continuing Shareholders do not elect to purchase all of the Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell, the Offering Shareholder may accept the Offer which the Offering Shareholder mailed with his notice to the Company pursuant to Paragraph 3.2 hereof and transfer all (but not less than all) of the Shares which he proposes to sell pursuant thereto on the same terms and conditions set forth in such Offer, provided that any transferee of such Shares shall be bound by this Agreement, and further provided that if such sale is not completed within [NUMBER] days after the date notice is received by the Company under Paragraph 3.2 hereof, all such Shares shall again become subject to the restrictions and provisions of this Agreement.

3.7. Right of Co-Sale

OBJECTION MY LORD

Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, in the event the Offering Shareholder receives an Offer from an unaffiliated third party (the "Offeror") to purchase from such Shareholder not less than [%] of the Shares owned by such Shareholder and such Shareholder intends to accept such Offer, the Offering Shareholder shall, after complying with the provisions of Paragraph 3.2 above and before accepting such Offer, forward a copy of such Offer to the Company and each of the Continuing Shareholders. The Offering Shareholder shall not sell any such Shares to the Offeror unless the terms of the Offer are extended by the Offeror to the Continuing Shareholders pro rata in proportion to their ownership of Shares of the Company (excluding the Offering Shareholder's Shares) at the time of such Offer. The Continuing Shareholders shall have [NUMBER] days from the date of the foregoing Offer to accept such Offer.

First Shareholder, Second Shareholder and Third Shareholder may each during their lifetimes transfer all, but not less than all, of their Shares to said Shareholder's spouse or a lineal descendant of such Shareholder, so long as prior to such transfer (i) such person, the Company, and all the Shareholders amend this Agreement to the reasonable satisfaction of such person, the Company and all the Shareholders to provide the parties to this Agreement with the rights, remedies and effect provided in this Agreement as if no such transfer had occurred, and (ii) the proposed transferee agrees in a writing satisfactory to the Company and all Shareholders that such person shall vote for First Shareholder, Second Shareholder and Third Shareholder (or their nominees) as directors of the Company and shall be bound by all the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

4. Right of First Refusal

- a. Except in the case of Excluded Securities (as defined below), the Company shall not issue, sell or exchange, agree to issue, sell or exchange, or reserve or set aside for issuance, sale or exchange, any (i) shares of Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company which is convertible into Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company, (ii) any debt security of the Company which is convertible into Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company, or (iii) any option, warrant or other right to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire any equity security or any such debt security of the Company, unless in each case the Company shall have first offered to sell to each Shareholder, pro rata in proportion to such Shareholder's then ownership of Shares of the Company, such securities (the "Offered Securities") (and to sell thereto such Offered Securities not subscribed for by the other Shareholders as hereinafter provided), at a price and on such other terms as shall have been specified by the Company in writing delivered to such Shareholder (the "Stock Offer"), which Stock Offer by its terms shall remain open and irrevocable for a period of [NUMBER] days (subject to extension pursuant to the last sentence of subsection (b) below) from the date it is delivered by the Company to the Shareholder.

end of the [NUMBER]-day period of such Stock Offer, setting forth such portion of the Offered Securities as such Shareholder elects to purchase (the "Notice of Acceptance"). If any Shareholder shall subscribe for less than his pro rata share of the Offered Securities to be sold, the other subscribing Shareholders shall be entitled to purchase the balance of that Shareholder's pro rata share in the same proportion in which they were entitled to purchase the Offered Securities in the first instance (excluding for such purposes such Shareholder), provided any such other Shareholder elected by a Notice of Acceptance to purchase all of his pro rata share of the Offered Securities. The Company shall notify each Shareholder within [NUMBER] days following the expiration of the [NUMBER]-day period described above of the amount of Offered Securities which each Shareholder may purchase pursuant to the foregoing sentence, and each Shareholder shall then have [NUMBER] days from the delivery of such notice to indicate such additional amount, if any, that such Shareholder wishes to purchase.

- c. In the event that Notices of Acceptance are not given by the Shareholders in respect of all the Offered Securities, the Company shall have [NUMBER] days from the expiration of the foregoing [NUMBER]-day or [NUMBER]-day period, whichever is applicable, to sell all or any part of such Offered Securities as to which a Notice of Acceptance has not been given by the Shareholders (the "Refused Securities") to any other person or persons, but only upon terms and conditions in all respects, including, without limitation, unit price and interest rates, which are no more favorable, in the aggregate, to such other person or persons or less favorable to the Company than those set forth in the Stock Offer. Upon the closing, which shall include full payment to the Company, of the sale to such other person or persons of all the Refused Securities, the Shareholders shall purchase from the Company, and the Company shall sell to the Shareholders the Offered Securities in respect of which Notices of Acceptance were delivered to the Company by the Shareholders, at the terms specified in the Stock Offer.
- d. In each case, any Offered Securities not purchased by the Shareholders or other person or persons in accordance with Section 4(c) may not be sold or otherwise disposed of until they are again offered to the Shareholders under the procedures specified in Sections 4(a), (b) and (c).
- e. The rights of the Shareholders under this Section 4 shall not apply to the following securities (the "Excluded Securities"):
 - i. Any (A) shares of Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company which is convertible into Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company, (B) debt security of the Company which is convertible into Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company, or (C) option, warrant or other right to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire any equity security or any such debt security of the Company (collectively, an "Equity Security") if the issuance of such Equity Security does not alter the respective proportions of ownership (on a fully diluted basis) by First Shareholder,

OBJECTION MY LORD

Second Shareholder and Third Shareholder, as among themselves, of Equity Securities immediately prior to the issuance of such Equity Security;

- ii. Common Stock issued as a stock dividend or upon any stock split or other subdivision or combination of the outstanding shares of Common Stock;
- iii. Securities issued pursuant to the acquisition by the Company of another corporation to the stockholders of such other corporation by merger or purchase of substantially all of the assets whereby the Company owns not less than [%] of the voting power of such other corporation; and

5. Sale Or Redemption Upon Termination of Employment, Disability Or Death

Upon the termination of a Management Shareholder's employment or other relationship with the Company (including without limitation, any position as an officer, director, consultant, joint venturer, independent contractor, or promoter to or of the Company) for whatever reason, the Disability (as defined below) of a Management Shareholder, or the death of a Management or Non-management Shareholder (any such event hereinafter a "Triggering Event"), such Shareholder (or his heirs, executors, guardian or personal representative) within [NUMBER] days after the Triggering Event shall offer to sell all, but not less than all, of the Shares owned by the Shareholder. Each offer shall be made to the Company in writing and shall exist for a period of [NUMBER] days after such offer has been received by the Company. If the Company fails to purchase all of the Shares offered, the offer to sell shall be made in writing to all of the Continuing Shareholders in such proportion as the Continuing Shareholders may agree among themselves, or in the absence of agreement, pro rata in proportion to their then ownership of Shares of the Company (excluding the Offering Shareholder's (Shares), and shall exist for a period of [NUMBER] days after the offer has been received by all of the Continuing Shareholders. For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" of a particular person means the inability, due to a physical or mental condition, of such person to maintain his employment or other relationship with the Company (including without limitation, fulfilling his duties in any position as an officer, director, consultant, joint venturer, independent contractor, or promoter to or of the Company) or to conduct his normal daily activities on behalf of the Corporation for any [NUMBER] consecutive month period.

6. Purchase Price

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

In the event the Offering Shareholder objects to the purchase price established in accordance with Paragraph 6(a) above, the Offering Shareholder shall have the right to solicit offers to buy the Shares in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 3.2. The right to solicit offers shall be subject to the terms and conditions of Section 3.2 and 3.3 hereof, including without limitation, the rights of first refusal and co-sale and the period during which any right of first refusal must be exercised but shall not be subject to the [NUMBER] day period referred to in Paragraph 3.2 of this Agreement.

The put and call rights granted to each Shareholder under this Paragraph 8 are independent of the other rights granted to the Shareholders and the Company under the other terms of this Agreement and such rights are not mutually exclusive or inconsistent.

8.3. Exercise of Option

The Continuing Shareholders shall exercise any option provided for in this Paragraph 8 within [NUMBER] days after receipt of a declaration. Any closing of the sale of Shares pursuant to such exercise shall occur within [NUMBER] days after receipt of a Declaration.

Said Shareholders Agreement restricts the ability of the Shareholder to sell, give, pledge, bequeath or otherwise transfer or dispose of this stock certificate and the shares of capital stock represented by it."

15.3. Marital Dissolution

OBJECTION MY LORD

Any decree of dissolution, separate maintenance agreement or other property settlement between a Shareholder and his or her Spouse shall provide that the entire marital property interest of the Spouse in the Shares of the Shareholder shall be granted to the Shareholder as part of the division of the property of the marriage and the Spouse shall release and the Shareholder shall accept any marital property interest of such Spouse in the Shares. WHEREAS, as used herein, the term "shares" shall mean all shares of common stock, at [VALUE] par share, of the Corporation now owned or hereafter acquired by the parties, and

OBJECTION MY LORD

WHEREAS, the Stockholders are actively engaged in the conduct of the business of the Corporation, and it is contemplated that success or failure of the corporate enterprise will at all times depend in large measure on the personal abilities of the Stockholders, and

WHEREAS, there is not now, nor is there likely in the future to be a substantial market for the shares of the Corporation, and

WHEREAS, for the foregoing reasons, the parties desire to provide for the purchase by another Stockholder or by the Corporation of the stock of any party desiring to sell the same; and for the purchase by the Corporation of the stock of a deceased party.

IT IS THEREFORE AGREED, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants hereinafter set forth, as follows:

1. Restriction During Life

No stockholder shall transfer or encumber any of his shares of capital stock of the Corporation during his lifetime to any person, firm or corporation, without the consent of the Corporation and the other Stockholder, unless the Stockholder desiring to make the transfer or encumber (hereinafter referred to also as the "Transferor") shall have first made the offer hereinafter described and such offer shall not have been accepted.

a) Offer by the Transferor

The offer shall be given pro rata initially to the other Stockholder(s) and shall consist of an offer to sell or encumber all of the shares of the capital stock of the Corporation owned by the Transferor, to which shall be attached a statement of intention to transfer, the name and address of such prospective transferee, the number of shares of capital stock involved, and the terms of such transfer or encumbrance.

b) Acceptance of Offer

Within [NUMBER] days after the receipt of such offer the other Stockholder(s) may, at their option, elect to accept the offer. If such offer is not accepted by the other Stockholder(s), the Corporation may within [NUMBER] days after the rejection of such offer, at its option, elect to accept the offer. The Corporation shall exercise its election to purchase by giving notice thereof to the Transferor and to the other Stockholder(s). The other Stockholder(s) shall exercise the election to purchase by giving notice thereof to the Transferor and to the Corporation. In either event, the notice shall specify a date for the closing of the transaction, which shall not be more than [NUMBER] days after the date of the giving of such notice.

c) Purchase Price

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

The purchase price for, or the consideration for the encumbrance of the shares of the capital stock of the Corporation owned by the Transferor shall be set forth in paragraph 3 hereof.

d) Closing of Transaction

The closing of the transaction shall take place at the principal office of the Corporation. The consideration shall be paid as provided for in paragraph 3 hereof. Certificates for all shares sold or encumbered hereunder, property endorsed to Corporation or to the purchasing Stockholder, as the case may be, shall be delivered by transferor not later than the date of closing.

e) Release from Restriction

If the offer is neither accepted by the Corporation nor by the other Stockholder(s), the Transferor may make a bona fide transfer to the prospective transferee named in the statement attached to the offer, such transfer to be made only in strict accordance with the terms therein stated. However, if the Transferor shall fail to make such transfer within [NUMBER] days following the expiration of the election period by the other Stockholder(s), such shares of capital stock shall again become subject to all of the restrictions of this Agreement, provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be construed as releasing any shares of this Corporation from any restriction or requirement of law concerning transfer of such shares.

f) Termination of Employment

Any Stockholder whose employment in any capacity with the company or its subsidiaries terminates for any reason whatsoever, voluntarily or involuntarily, shall be considered as of the date of such termination of employment to have made an offer of all of his shares of stock subject to the terms of this Agreement, at the purchase price stated in paragraph 3 hereof.

g) Subchapter "S" Election

If at the time of a transfer of stock permitted hereunder, the Corporation then is an "S" corporation, the transferee and new stockholder shall be required to consent in writing not to revoke such "S" election without the unanimous approval of all other stockholders.

2. Purchase Upon Death

Upon the death of a Stockholder (hereinafter referred to as Decedent), all of the shares of the capital stock of the Corporation owned by him, and to which he or his estate shall be entitled, shall be sold and purchased as hereinafter provided:

a) Obligation of the Corporation to Purchase

It shall be for the Corporation to purchase from the Decedent's Personal Representative, and the Decedent's Personal Representative shall be obligated to sell to the Corporation, all of the shares of the capital stock of the Corporation owned by the Decedent and to which the Decedent or his Personal Representative shall be entitled, at the price set forth in paragraph 3 hereof.

b) Closing

The closing of such purchase and sale shall take place at the offices of the Corporation, at a date selected by the Corporation upon [NUMBER] days notice to the Transferor which date shall be not more than [NUMBER] days following the date of the qualification of the Personal Representative and not less than [NUMBER] days following such date.

c) Insurance

To insure or partially insure its obligation under this Agreement to purchase from the estate of a deceased Stockholder the shares owned by him prior to his death, the Corporation shall have the option to purchase policies of insurance covering the lives of each Stockholder in any amount deemed desirable. In the event any Stockholder ceases to be a Stockholder of the Corporation, the Corporation shall terminate any such insurance on such Stockholder's life and in the event any Stockholder increases his holdings of the shares of the Corporation, the Corporation shall procure and maintain, if so desired by it, additional insurance on the life of such Stockholder proportionate to the increase in the holdings of such Stockholder.

If the corporation shall receive any proceeds of any policy on the life of the Decedent, such proceeds shall be used by the Corporation to pay the Decedent's Personal Representative to the extent of the purchase price of the Decedent's stock, such payment to be deemed made on account of such purchase price.

d) Balance of Purchase Price

If the amount of any insurance proceeds is insufficient to pay the purchase price of any Decedent's shares, then the balance of the purchase price remaining after credit for any insurance proceeds shall be payable as follows: [%] of the balance due to be paid shall be paid in cash, and the balance shall be represented by a promissory note executed by the purchaser payable in [NUMBER] installments, which note shall be secured by the stock of the deceased Stockholder.

e) "S" Election

If the corporation is an "S" corporation at the time of the transfer and sale of its stock, the transferee and new stockholder shall be required to consent in writing not to revoke such "S" election without the unanimous approval of all other stockholders. Such written consent shall be submitted prior to the delivery of the shares to the transferee.

3. Consideration

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Unless the parties agree to another price in writing, the price for each share of capital stock to be sold under this Agreement shall be equal to its fair market value as an on-going business concern as determined in the sole discretion of the company's Certified Public Accountant, (CPA) and such determination by the CPA shall be binding and conclusive upon the parties hereto.

Unless the parties agree otherwise, the purchase price shall be paid as follows:

- i. [%] of the amount determined to be due as the price to be paid at the closing in addition to any insurance proceeds and the balance to be payable by the execution of a promissory note in such amount to be repaid in [number] installments, such note to be secured by the stock being sold.
- ii. The promissory note shall bear interest until paid in full at the prime rate as determined from time to time by [BANK NAME] or any other bank as determined by and agreed upon by the Stockholders.
- iii. In the event that suit shall be required to collect on the promissory notes above referred to, then in such event, the defaulting Stockholder or the Corporation shall pay for attorney fees, and courts costs, incurred in such action.

4. Limitation on Stockholder's Right to Pledge Stock

The restrictions of paragraph 1 above shall not apply to encumbrances as collateral for a note or notes in favor of the company or any one or more of the other Stockholders or in favor of a recognized lending institution, but only if the proceeds of such loan are used in their entirety to purchase shares of the Corporation and the borrowing Stockholder delivers to the Corporation and the other Stockholder(s) the written commitment of the lender, in form acceptable to the Corporation that such lender will not dispose of such shares without first affording the Corporation and the other Stockholder(s) the right for a period of [NUMBER] days to purchase shares at a price satisfactory to the Corporation and the other Stockholder(s).

5. Corporate Restrictions After Purchase

So long as any part of the purchase price of shares of capital stock sold in accordance with this Agreement remains unpaid, the Corporation shall not:

- i. declare or pay dividends on its capital stock;
- ii. reorganize its capital structure;
- iii. merge or consolidate with any other corporation, or sell any of its assets except in the regular course of business;
- iv. increase the salary of any officer or executive employee of the Corporation;

OBJECTION MY LORD

- v. allow any of its obligations to become in default; or
- vi. allow any judgments against the Corporation or any liens against the Corporation's property to remain unsatisfied.

So long as any part of such purchase price remains unpaid, the Transferor, or the Personal Representative of the Decedent shall have the right to examine the books and records of the Corporation from time to time and to receive copies of all accounting reports and tax returns prepared for the Corporation. If the Corporation breaches any of its obligations under this paragraph, the Transferor or the Personal Representative, in addition to any other remedies available, may elect to declare the entire unpaid purchase price due and payable forthwith.

6. Purchase By Stockholder

Whenever a Stockholder purchases shares of capital stock under this Agreement, such purchaser (unless he shall have paid the entire purchase price in cash) shall, following the delivery of the purchased stock, endorse the new certificates of stock issued to such purchaser, and deliver the same to the Seller as collateral security for the payment of the unpaid purchase price; and such capital stock shall be so held until the entire purchase price shall be paid. While such capital shall be so held as collateral security and so long as the Purchaser is not in default, the Purchaser shall be entitled to all voting rights with respect thereto. Dividends paid shall be applied to the indebtedness.

7. Purchase By Corporation

Whenever the Corporation shall, pursuant to this Agreement, be required to purchase shares of the capital stock of the Corporation, the Stockholders and the Personal Representative of any Decedent shall do all things and execute and deliver all papers as may be necessary to consummate such purchase. Any note required to be given hereunder by the Corporation as part of the purchase price shall be endorsed and guaranteed by the remaining or surviving Stockholders, who shall not be discharged from such liability by reason of the subsequent extension, modification or renewal of any such note. Until all amounts due are paid, the stock certificates shall be delivered to Seller.

8. Endorsement On Stock Certificates

Each certificate representing shares of capital stock of the Corporation now or hereafter held by the Stockholders shall contain with a legend insubstantially the following form: "The transfer or encumbrance of the shares of stock represented by the within certificate is restricted under the terms of an Agreement dated [DATE] a copy of which is on file at the Corporation office."

9. Value of Purchase Price for Tax Purposes

It is understood that the purchase price, determined as set forth hereinabove, shall be the value of the purchased shares for all tax purposes. In the event such value is later increased by any federal or state taxing authority, any tax liability resulting from such increase shall be borne by the selling Stockholder or his Personal Representative, as the case may be.

10. Amendments

This Agreement may be amended or altered by execution of a written agreement authorized by corporate resolution and signed by all the parties hereto.

11. Notices

Any and all notices, designations, consents, offers, acceptances, or any other communication provided for herein, shall be given in writing by registered or certified mail addressed, in the case of the Stockholders, to his address appearing on the stock books of the Corporation, or to his residence, or to such other address as may be designated by him, and in the case of the Corporation, to the principal office of the Corporation, postage prepaid, by United States Mail, and shall be considered to have been delivered on the [DAY] day following the date stamped by the post office.

12. Invalid Provision

The invalidity or unenforceability of any particular provision of this Agreement shall not affect the other provisions hereof and the Agreement shall be construed in all respects as if such invalid or unenforceable provision had been omitted.

13. Modification

It is understood between the parties that this Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties and no change or modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless the same be in writing and signed by all the parties hereto.

14. Binding Effect

This Agreement shall bind and, unless inconsistent with its provisions, shall inure to the benefit of the Executor, Administrator or Personal Representative, and the heirs and assigns of each of the Stockholders.

15. Prior Agreement

This Agreement supersedes any prior Agreement of the parties.

16. Deadlock

If at any time the Stockholders cannot agree on the Certified Public Accountant of the company and therefore are unable to establish an acceptable price for purchase, the matter shall be submitted to arbitration in the following manner:

OBJECTION MY LORD

- i. Each Stockholder shall, within [NUMBER] days after notice of such deadlock, appoint a Certified Public Accountant, and the two accountants shall then appoint a third Certified Public Accountant within [NUMBER] days after the two accountants are selected, and the average of purchase price determined by them shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the Stockholders, their executors, administrators and personal representatives, and a judgment on such determination may be obtained in any court of proper jurisdiction. The cost of such accounting shall be borne equally by the parties unable to reach agreement hereunder.
- ii. In the event any one of the Stockholders shall fail within the given time to select a Certified Public Accountant to represent him to resolve the dispute, then and in such event, the remaining Stockholder shall have the right to institute suit for specific performance under this Agreement, and the defaulting Stockholder shall pay for all attorney fees and court costs of such action.

17. Indebtedness of a Stockholder

In the event that there is a purchase and sale of shares of stock or interest therein, pursuant to the provisions hereinabove, and there is any indebtedness owed by the selling Stockholder or his estate to any party to this Agreement, then, notwithstanding the said provisions relating to the payment of the purchase price, and any amount to be paid for the stock being purchased shall be applied first to reduce and satisfy any indebtedness owed by the Selling Stockholder or his estate to any party under this Agreement.

18. Default

In the event of a default in the payment of any installment of the purchase price, the covenants and conditions of this Agreement, or any Security Agreement given to Sellers, Sellers may declare the entire unpaid portion of the purchase price to be immediately due and payable, and may proceed to enforce payment of same and to exercise any and all rights and remedies provided by the Uniform Commercial Code as well as any other rights and remedies either at law or in equity available to them, and Seller may assign, sell or transfer all or any part of the collateral in such manner, at such price, and on such terms and conditions as Sellers, in their sole and absolute discretion, may determine. Sellers or the Corporation shall have the right to purchase any or all of the collateral, apply any unpaid indebtedness on account thereof, and have a claim against Purchaser for the balance of such indebtedness in addition to any and all remedies available to them at law or in equity.

19. Voting

It is understood and agreed that until the purchase price shall have been paid in full, the Purchaser shall have no voting rights whatsoever.

20. Termination of Agreement

This Agreement shall terminate upon the occurrence of one of the following events:

- i. The written agreement of the parties hereto or their successors in interest to that effect;
- ii. The bankruptcy, receivership, or dissolution of the Corporation;
- iii. The disposal of all the shares of stock of any Stockholder during his lifetime or by his Personal Representative or estate upon his death, shall terminate this Agreement as to such retiring or deceased Stockholder; or

The purchase price for the shares to be paid by the Corporation and terms of payment therefore shall be as set forth in Paragraph 3 hereof.

For the purposes of this paragraph, the net book value of the Corporation means the dollar book value of the assets of the Corporation minus the dollar book value of the liabilities,

CHECKLIST FOR EVALUATION TO BUY A BUSINESS

When you find a business that you would like to buy, you will need to consider a number of points before deciding whether to purchase it. Take a good, close look at the business and answer the following questions. They will help you determine whether the business is a sound investment.

- Why does the current owner want to sell the business?
- What type of growth potential does this business have?
- If the business is in decline, will you be able to save it and make it successful?
- Is the business in sound financial condition? Have you seen audited year-end financial statements for the business? Have you reviewed the most recent statements? Have you reviewed the business's last five tax returns?
- Have you seen copies of all of the business's current contracts?
- Is the business now, or has it ever been, under investigation by any government agency? If so, what is the status of any current investigation? What were the results of any past investigation?
- Is the business currently involved in a lawsuit, or has it ever been involved in one? If so, what is the status or result?
- Does the business have any debts or liens against it? If so, what are they for, and in what amounts?
- What percentage of the business's accounts are past due? How much does the business write off each year for bad debts?
- How many customers does the business serve on a regular basis?
- Who makes up the market for this business? Where are your customers located? Do they all come from your community or from across the state, or are they spread across the globe?
- Does the amount business vary from season to season?
- Does any single customer account for a large portion of the sales volume? If so, would the business be able to survive without this customer? Remember, the larger the customer base is, the more easily you will be able to survive the loss of any customers. If, on the other hand, the business exists mainly to serve a single client, the loss of that client could be catastrophic.

CHECKLIST FOR BUY/SELL AGREEMENTS

Critical What If's?

The time to prevent disputes is before they occur. Experience proves that owners' anxieties created in dealing with one another are inversely proportional to the effort they spend addressing business problems in the event that they should happen. Dealing with these contingencies before they manifest themselves is the secret to a harmonious business relationship with other owners. Legal fees as well as sleepless nights will be minimized if you agree to the "What If's" now.

Use the checklist below to determine areas where you may need assistance. Answer Yes or No to each question.

Applicability

- Should the agreement apply only to the current owners or should it be binding on all owners throughout the life of the business entity?
- Should the agreement provide that it supersedes all other agreements to redeem a business interest?
- Is the agreement being reviewed annually? (Changes of price or terms should require a unanimous vote of the owners.)

Type of Agreement

- Should the agreement be structured as a redemption agreement or as a cross-purchase agreement?
- Should the agreement be structured:
 - To require the seller to sell and the buyer to buy?
 - To give the buyer an option to require the seller to sell?
 - To give the seller an option to require the buyer to buy?
 - To give a right of first refusal to the buyer?
- Should the death of an owner cause an automatic buyout of the owner's interest or should his/her family be allowed to remain as an owner?

Buyout Price and Time for Payout

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- Should the buyout price from the estate or heirs of a deceased owner be addressed? If yes, when should it be paid? What interest rate should the obligation bear?
- Should the buyout price to a disabled owner be addressed? If yes, when would it be paid?
- Should the buyout price to an owner who resigns or is dismissed be addressed? If yes, when should it be paid?
- Should there be a difference in price if there is an amiable parting of ways? If yes, when should it be paid?
- Should the buyout price to an owner who goes bankrupt be addressed? If yes, when should it be paid?
- Should the price reflect the fact that you are selling to a long time business associate rather than an outsider?

Funding

- Should the agreement provide that the buyout be funded by life insurance or some other investment vehicle?
- If funded with life insurance: Should the type of life insurance used be addressed (i.e. term life, ordinary life, last to die, paid-up life, universal life or an endowment policy?)
- Should a life insurance trust be used?
- Should all of the policy proceeds be required to be used to redeem the interest?
- Can part of the proceeds be used to help the entity recover from the loss of the owner?
- Should whole life insurance policies with cash values be transferred to the owner at termination or retirement?

Security

- Should the agreement be guaranteed or secured?
- If so, should the security be in the form of:
 - A pledge of business assets?
 - A personal guarantee by the other owners?
 - An agreement obligating the entity to refrain from increasing salaries, paying dividends or making loans until all outstanding liabilities to the beneficiaries are paid?

OBJECTION MY LORD

Loans

- Should the disposition of owners' loans, whether receivables or payables, in the event of termination because of death or disability be addressed?
- Should the disposition of owners' loans in the event of termination other than because of death or disability be addressed?

Covenant Not to Compete

- Should there be a covenant not to compete? If so, should there be geographic and time limitations?

Other

- Should there be a period of disability before the other owners of the business have the right to buy out a disabled owner?
- Should an owner have the right to transfer or assign to a trust, for estate-tax planning purposes, their rights and interests in the business?
- Should the spouses of the owners sign the buy/sell agreement?
- Do other family members presently own any stock?

LEGENDS FOR STOCK CERTIFICATES

1. Securities Act Legend

In typical start-up companies where the shares are issued under the private placement exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the following legend (or a variation thereof) should be placed on the front of the stock certificate or on the back with a notice on the front referring to the legend:

THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE BEEN ACQUIRED FOR INVESTMENT AND HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933. SUCH SHARES MAY NOT BE SOLD OR TRANSFERRED OR PLEDGED IN THE ABSENCE OF SUCH REGISTRATION UNLESS THE COMPANY RECEIVES AN OPINION OF COUNSEL REASONABLY ACCEPTABLE TO THE COMPANY STATING THAT SUCH SALE OR TRANSFER IS EXEMPT FROM THE REGISTRATION AND PROSPECTUS DELIVERY REQUIREMENTS OF SAID ACT. COPIES OF THE AGREEMENT, IF ANY, COVERING THE PURCHASE OF THESE SHARES AND RESTRICTING THEIR TRANSFER MAY BE OBTAINED AT NO COST BY WRITTEN REQUEST MADE BY THE HOLDER OF RECORD OF THIS CERTIFICATE TO THE SECRETARY OF THE CORPORATION AT THE PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE OFFICES OF THE CORPORATION.

2. Intrastate Offering Legend

If the securities have been issued in a transaction exempted from the federal registration requirements pursuant to the intrastate offering exemptions from the Securities Act of 1933, then the following legend should be placed on the stock certificate:

FOR A PERIOD OF NINE MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THE LAST SALE OF SECURITIES BY THE ISSUER IN CONNECTION WITH THE OFFERING WHEREBY THESE SHARES WERE PURCHASED, ALL REALES OF THESE SECURITIES, BY ANY PERSON, SHALL BE MADE ONLY TO BONA FIDE PERMANENT RESIDENTS OF THE STATE OF [name of state].

3. STATE Securities Legend

State securities laws may require the imposition of additional legends. For example, in California, if securities are qualified with the Department of Corporations, the following legend is sometimes required by the Department of Corporations on the certificate:

IT IS UNLAWFUL TO CONSUMMATE A SALE OR TRANSFER OF THE SECURITIES, OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN OR TO RECEIVE ANY CONSIDERATION THEREFOR, WITHOUT THE PRIOR WRITTEN CONSENT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF

OBJECTION MY LORD

CORPORATIONS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, EXCEPT AS PERMITTED IN THE COMMISSIONER'S RULES.

4. Restrictions on Transfer

If the company and the shareholders have entered into an agreement imposing restrictions on transfer of the shares or placing rights of first refusal on sale of the shares, a form of the following legend is appropriate. Restrictions on transfer may not be valid as against a purchaser without actual knowledge of the restriction unless the restriction is conspicuously noted on the certificate.

THE SHARE, TRANSFER, OR HYPOTHECATION OF THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE IS RESTRICTED BY THE PROVISIONS OF AN AGREEMENT AMONG THE ISSUER OF THESE SHARES AND ITS SHAREHOLDERS, A COPY OF WHICH IS ON FILE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF THE ISSUER.

5. Employee Restricted Stock

If the shares are issued pursuant to an Employee Restricted Stock Purchase Agreement that provides for vesting of the shares dependent upon continued employment with the company, or if the company or other shareholders have certain repurchase rights in connection with the shares, a variation of the following provision will be appropriate:

THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO REPURCHASE PROVISIONS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TERMS OF AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE ISSUER AND THE SHAREHOLDER, A COPY OF WHICH IS ON FILE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF THE ISSUER.

6. Preferred Stock

If the stock to be issued is preferred stock, consider the following legend:

THE RIGHTS, PREFERENCES, PRIVILEGES AND RESTRICTIONS GRANTED TO OR IMPOSED UPON EACH CLASS OR SERIES OF SHARES OF THE CORPORATION ARE CONTAINED IN THE CORPORATION'S ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION, A COPY OF WHICH IS OBTAINABLE FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE CORPORATION UPON REQUEST AND WITHOUT CHARGE.

7. Other Legends

It may also be required by law or be otherwise appropriate that the share certificate reflect rights or liabilities attendant to the shares such as assessment rights, preemptive rights, special qualifications of persons who may be shareholders, restrictions on or assignment of voting rights, or rights of co-sale and the like.

The foregoing shall not restrict in any respect your or our ability to communicate information concerning this letter of intent and the transactions contemplated hereby to your and our, and your and our respective affiliates', officers, directors, employees and professional advisers, and, to the extent relevant, to third parties whose consent is required in connection with the transaction contemplated by this letter of intent.

4. Broker's Fees

You and we have represented to each other that no brokers or finders have been employed who would be entitled to a fee by reason of the transaction contemplated by this letter of intent.

5. Exclusive Negotiating Rights

In order to induce us to commit the resources, forego other potential opportunities, and incur the legal, accounting and incidental expenses necessary properly to evaluate the possibility of acquiring the assets and business described above, and to negotiate the terms of, and consummate, the transaction contemplated hereby, you agree that for a period of [number of days] days after the date hereof, you, your affiliates and your and their respective officers, directors, employees and agents shall not initiate, solicit, encourage, directly or indirectly, or accept any offer or proposal, regarding the possible acquisition by any person other than us, including, without limitation, by way of a purchase of shares, purchase of assets or merger, of all or any substantial part of your equity securities or assets, and shall not (other than in the ordinary course of business as heretofore conducted) provide any confidential information regarding your assets or business to any person other than us and our representatives.

6. Miscellaneous

This letter shall be governed by the substantive laws of the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] without regard to conflict of law principles. This letter constitutes the entire understanding and agreement between the parties hereto and their affiliates with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous agreements, representations, warranties and understandings of such parties (whether oral or written). Representations and Warranties of Seller

The Seller represents and warrants to the Buyer that:

The Seller has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, and this Agreement is a valid and binding agreement enforceable against the Seller in accordance with its terms;

Neither the execution of this Agreement nor the sale of the Shares will constitute a violation of, or conflict with, or default under, any contract, commitment, agreement, understanding or arrangement to which the Seller is a party or by which Seller is bound or of any law, decree, or judgment;

Now and up to the time of exercise of the Option, the Seller will have valid title to the Shares, free and clear of all claims, liens, charges, encumbrances and security interests, and will transfer such Shares upon exercise of the Option to the Buyer free and clear of all claims, liens, charges, encumbrances and security interests;

The Purchase Price may or may not reflect the actual value of the Shares, that the Seller has investigated the value independently, that he has been represented by independent counsel, and that he understands that the value of the Shares when and if the Option is exercised may be significantly higher than the Purchase Price; and

Prior to [DATE], Seller shall not sell, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber any of the Shares.

Cooperation

Each party shall, upon request of the other party, promptly execute and deliver all additional documents reasonably deemed by the requesting party to be necessary, appropriate or desirable to complete and evidence the sale, assignment and transfer of the Shares pursuant to this Agreement.

Representations and Warranties of the Buyer

Buyer represents and warrants to the Seller that (a) this Agreement is a valid and binding agreement enforceable against Buyer in accordance with its terms and (b) Buyer, if he exercises the option, will be purchasing the Shares for his own account and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of such Shares in violation of applicable securities laws.

Purchase and Sale

If Buyer exercises the Option, at a closing (the “Closing”), the Seller shall sell, transfer and deliver the Shares, represented by certificates duly endorsed in blank or accompanied by stock powers duly executed, to the Buyer, and the Buyer shall purchase the Shares in exchange for the Purchase Price.

Dividends and Voting Rights

Until the Option is exercised, if at all, all dividends and voting rights attendant to the Shares shall remain with Seller.

Buyer May Exercise Option For Less Than All Shares

Notwithstanding any other provision herein to the contrary, the Buyer may exercise the Option with respect to less than all of the Shares.

Survival

All representations, warranties and agreements made by the Seller and by the Buyer in this Agreement shall survive the execution of this Agreement and any Closing and any investigation at any time made by or on behalf of any party hereto.

Modification; Assignment

This Agreement may not be modified, amended, altered or supplemented except upon the execution and delivery of a written agreement executed by the parties hereto. Buyer may assign his rights under this Agreement with the consent of Seller.

Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all agreements, understanding, representations, or warranties, whether oral or written, by or among the parties, previously or contemporaneously made or given.

In consideration of the mutual promises, covenants and conditions herein contained and for other good and valuable consideration, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Definitions

Certain terms used herein are defined as follows:

“Shares” means any shares of capital stock of the Company or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for any class of capital stock of the Company and all securities into which such Shares may be converted or reclassified as a result of any merger, consolidation, stock split, stock dividend, or other recapitalization of the Company, whether now owned or hereafter acquired.

2. Restrictions on Transfer

No Holder may sell or engage in any transaction which has resulted in or will result in a change in the beneficial or record ownership of any Shares held by the Holder, including without limitation a voluntary or involuntary sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation, encumbrance, disposal, loan, gift, attachment or levy (a “Transfer”), except as provided in this Agreement, and any such Transfer of Shares or attempted Transfer of Shares in contravention of this Agreement shall be void and ineffective for any purpose or confer on any transferee or purported transferee any rights whatsoever.

3. Right of First Refusal

OBJECTION MY LORD

- a. Each time a Holder proposes to Transfer (or is required by operation of law or other involuntary transfer) any or all of the Shares standing in such Holder's name or owned by him or her during the term of this Agreement, such Holder shall first offer such Shares to the Company in accordance with the following provisions:
- b. Such Holder shall deliver a written notice (a "Notice") to the Company stating (a) such Holder's bona fide intention to Transfer such Shares, (b) the name and the address of the proposed transferee, (c) the number of Shares to be transferred, and (d) the purchase price per Share and terms of payment for which the Holder proposes to Transfer such Shares.
- c. Within [NUMBER] days after receipt of the Notice, the Company or its designee shall have the first right to purchase or obtain such Shares, upon the price and terms of payment designated in the Notice. If the Notice provides for the payment of non-cash consideration, the Company at its option may pay the consideration in cash equal to the Company's good faith estimate of the present fair market value of the non-cash consideration offered.
- d. If the Company or its designee elects not to purchase or obtain all of the Shares designated in the selling Holder's Notice, then the Holder may Transfer the Shares referred to in the Notice to the proposed transferee, providing such Transfer (a) is completed within 30 days after the expiration of the Company's right to purchase or obtain such Shares, (b) is made at the price and terms designated in the Notice, and (c) the proposed Transferee agrees to be bound by the terms and provisions of this Agreement and to become a party to this Agreement immediately upon receipt of such Shares. If such Shares are not so transferred, the selling Holder must give notice in accordance with this paragraph prior to any other or subsequent Transfer of such Shares.
- e. Notwithstanding Section 3(a), a Holder may Transfer Shares: (i) to a member of the Holder's Immediate Family or to a trust established for the benefit of a member or members of the Holder's Immediate Family, (ii) to an affiliate or equity holder of the Holder, (iii) to a person who is a constituent partner of the Holder on the date hereof, or (iv) to the estate of any of the foregoing by gift, will or intestate succession; provided that the Holder or his representative notifies the Company of such Transfer not less than [NUMBER] nor more than [NUMBER] days prior to the Transfer and that the proposed transferee agrees to be bound by the terms and provisions of this Agreement and to become a party to this Agreement immediately upon the receipt of such Shares.

4. No Transfer to Competitors

A Holder may not Transfer any Shares to a competitor of the Company, or to any shareholder, partner or other beneficial holder of an equity ownership interest in a competitor, other than pursuant to a merger, combination, or other transaction approved by the Board of Directors.

5. Governing Law

Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company's obligations to pay or complete payment for any Shares to be purchased by it under this Agreement is subject to its being legally permitted to do so under the tests contained in Sections [NUMBER] of the [STATE/PROVINCE/COUNTRY] General Corporation Law or any successor statute applicable thereto.

6. Legend on Stock Certificates

Each certificate representing shares owned of record or beneficially by a party to this Agreement shall be endorsed with the following legend:

THE SHARES EVIDENCED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO A RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL AGREEMENT BETWEEN [NAME OF COMPANY] (THE COMPANY) AND THE HOLDERS THAT ARE SIGNATORIES THERETO, PROVIDING FOR, AMONG OTHER MATTERS, THE COMPANY'S RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL TO PURCHASE THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE. A COPY OF SUCH AGREEMENT IS ON FILE AT THE PRINCIPAL BUSINESS OFFICE OF THE COMPANY.

Under no circumstances shall any Transfer of any Shares subject hereto be valid until the proposed transferee thereof shall have executed and become a party to this Agreement and thereby shall have become subject to all of the provisions hereof; and notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, no such Transfer of any kind shall in any event result in the non-applicability of the provisions hereof at any time to any of the Shares subject hereto.

7. Term of Agreement

The restrictions on Transfer of Shares set forth in this Agreement shall terminate upon any of the following:

- a. The determination of the Board of Directors that this Agreement shall be terminated.

Each party hereto agrees to perform any and all further acts and to execute and deliver any documents which may reasonably be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

10. Modification

This Agreement as applied to any Holder may be amended at any time by the written agreement of the Company and a Holder affected thereby.

11. Will Provisions

12. Notice

Any notice required or permitted hereunder shall be delivered in person or sent by telecopier, air courier or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage and fees prepaid in all cases; in the case of the Company, to the then current address of its then principal business office, to the attention of the Chairman of its Board of Directors, and, in the case of a Holder, to the address of such Holder shown on the signature page hereto, or to such other address as will have been specified by prior written notice to the sending party. 13. Succession

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and upon their permitted successors in interest of any kind whatsoever, their heirs, executors, administrators, and personal representatives.

14. Governing Law

This Agreement will be governed in all respects by the laws of the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] as such laws are applied to agreements between [STATE/PROVINCE] residents entered into and to be performed entirely within [STATE/PROVINCE], without regard to conflicts of law [principles]. The parties hereby consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state or federal courts located in the State of [STATE/PROVINCE], for the resolution of any disputes arising out of this Agreement.

15. Counterparts

This Agreement may be signed in any number of counterparts, each of which will be an original, but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument.

16. Sole Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior or contemporaneous agreements and understandings pertaining thereto whether oral or written.

17. Construction

The titles of the sections of this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and are not to be considered in construing this Agreement. The language of this Agreement shall be construed as to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against any party.

18. Severability

If one or more provisions of this Agreement are held to be unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be excluded from this Agreement and the balance of this Agreement shall be enforceable in accordance with its terms and interpreted as if such provisions were as excluded.

19. Attorney Fees

In the event that any dispute among the parties hereto should result in litigation or arbitration, the prevailing party in such dispute shall be entitled to recover from the other party all reasonable fees, costs and expenses of enforcing any right of the prevailing party, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement on the date first above written.

STOCK AGREEMENT

This Stock Agreement (the "Agreement") is made and effective [DATE]

BETWEEN: [CORPORATION NAME] (the "Corporation"), an individual having is principal place of living located at:

AND: [STOCKHOLDER NAME] (the "First Stockholder"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the [STATE/PROVINCE], with its head office located at:

AND: [STOCKHOLDER NAME] (the "Second Stockholder"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the [STATE/PROVINCE], with its head office located at:

RECITALS

- A. The above-named stockholders desire to assure continuity of ownership of the corporation.
- B. The stockholders, after mutual consultations, have agreed, in order to insure such continuity, to restrict the sale or transfer of shares of the corporation, both during the lifetime and at the death of any of the stockholders.

For the reasons above set forth, and in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises of the parties hereto, the corporation and the stockholders agree as follows:

1. FIRST RIGHT OF PURCHASE IN CORPORATION

If any stockholder shall, during the stockholder's lifetime, desire to sell or transfer all or any part of the stockholder's shares of stock in the corporation, the stockholder shall first offer to sell the above-mentioned shares to the corporation at a price per share equal to the then book value of each of the shares as of the last day of the calendar month next preceding the date the shares are offered for sale. Book value shall be determined by the independent certified accountants for the corporation and such valuation shall be in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistent with the method of accounting then employed by the corporation and shall be binding on the parties.

2. OFFER TO OTHER STOCKHOLDERS IF CORPORATION DOES NOT PURCHASE

The offer to sell shall be communicated in writing by the selling stockholder to the board of directors of the corporation and to all other stockholders, and the corporation shall have a period of [NUMBER] days after receipt of such notice in which to exercise its rights to purchase the shares at a price determined as specified in Section One. If the corporation shall refuse or neglect to notify the selling stockholder in writing of its intention to purchase the shares within the [NUMBER]-day period, or if the corporation is prohibited by law from making such a purchase or redemption, the selling stockholder shall then notify in writing the other stockholders of the stockholder's intention to sell and the number of shares offered for sale and the other stockholders shall have an additional period of [NUMBER] days within which to accept the offer to sell on the same terms and conditions as offered to the corporation, each of the other stockholders having the right to purchase the number of shares owned by the selling stockholder equal to such purchasing stockholders' proportionate ownership of the corporation immediately prior to the receipt of such offer to sell.

3. STOCKHOLDER'S RIGHTS IF NEITHER CORPORATION NOR OTHER STOCKHOLDERS EXERCISE OPTION

If neither the corporation nor the other stockholders elect to purchase the shares within the time limited on the terms set forth above, the stockholder desiring to sell or transfer his or her shares shall be free to do so to any other person or corporation free of any restrictions provided herein; provided, however, that such sale or transfer shall not be on terms less favorable to the selling stockholder unless the less favorable terms are re-offered to the corporation and/or the other stockholders as herein provided. If the sale or transfer to any other such person or corporation is not completed within [NUMBER] days after the expiration of the periods of time set forth in this agreement, the selling stockholder must, before making any subsequent sale or transfer, re-offer the shares to the corporation and/or the other stockholders as provided in this agreement.

4. CLOSING OF SALE

The closing of the sale and transfer of such shares to the corporation or to the other stockholders of the corporation shall take place within [NUMBER] days after the acceptance of the selling stockholders' offer to sell and the purchase price so determined shall be paid by the purchasers to the seller by means of a promissory note due [NUMBER] years from date, bearing interest at the rate of [%] per annum on the unpaid principal balance, principal payable in full at the end of the [NUMBER]-year term, plus interest. Such promissory note shall permit prepayment at any time without penalty.

Simultaneously with such payments, the stock of the selling stockholder shall be delivered to the purchaser in such form as to effectively transfer such shares, at which time such selling stockholder's rights as a shareholder of the corporation shall cease to exist as to the shares so transferred.

5. DEATH OF STOCKHOLDER

On the death of a stockholder named above, the corporation shall purchase and the estate or personal representative of the deceased stockholder shall sell the decedent's stock in the corporation for a consideration equal to the book value of such stock as established by the accountants for the corporation as herein provided above. In the event the corporation is then prohibited by law from making such purchase or redemption of the decedent's shares of stock in the corporation, the then surviving stockholders of the corporation shall purchase and the decedent's estate shall sell all of the shares of stock owned by the decedent on the date of his or her death at the same price and on the same terms and conditions as set forth above. In the event of the survival of two or more stockholders of the corporation; each shall be jointly and severally liable to the decedent's estate for the purchase price, but as between them they shall share such liability in the ratio that the number of the shares of stock respectively owned by them at the time of the decedent's death bears to the aggregate number of such shares and the shares of stock owned by the decedent's estate shall, in like manner, be apportioned between them based on their proportionate ownership of the shares of stock of the corporation at the date of the decedent's death. The closing of the sale and purchase of the shares by the corporation or, in the event of its inability to complete the purchase by the surviving stockholders shall be made within [NUMBER] months after the date of the deceased stockholder's death. In making the valuation of the shares, the accountants for the corporation shall determine the book value as herein provided as of the end of the calendar month next preceding the date of the decedent's death.

6. LEGEND ON STOCK CERTIFICATE

No stockholder of the corporation shall sell or offer to sell to a person not a party to this agreement, nor transfer or assign any of his or her right, title, or interest in or to any stock owned by the stockholder during the stockholder's lifetime nor shall a stockholder's heirs, personal representatives, successors, or assigns make any such sale or transfer of such shares after the death of any of the stockholders except in accordance with the terms and conditions of this agreement. Certificates of stock subject to this agreement shall be endorsed as follows: "This certificate of stock is subject to a stock purchase agreement between its owners, the issuing corporation, and the other stockholders thereof, dated [DATE] and is transferable only in accordance with the agreement."

7. TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT.

This agreement shall terminate and become null and void on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- A. Cessation of the corporate business or enterprise during the lifetime of the stockholders;
- B. Bankruptcy or receivership or dissolution of the corporation;
- C. Death of the stockholders simultaneously or within a period of [NUMBER] days, one from the other; or
- D. Mutual agreement of termination executed by all of the stockholders of the corporation and shown in the minute book.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement on the date first above written.

Statutory Stock Option

1. Grant of Option

The Company hereby grants to Optionee an option (the “Option”) to purchase the total number of shares of Common Stock of the Company set forth above (the “Shares”) at the Exercise Price Per Share set forth above (the “Exercise Price”), subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Plan. If designated as an Incentive Stock Option above, the Option is intended to qualify as an “incentive stock option” (“ISO”) within the meaning of Section [number] of the [CODE], as amended (the “Code”). Only Employees of the Company shall receive ISOs.

2. Exercise Price

The Exercise Price, is not less than the fair market value per share of Common Stock on the date of grant, as determined by the Board; provided, however, in the event Optionee is an Employee and owns stock representing more than [%] of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or of its Parent or Subsidiary corporations immediately before this Option is granted, said exercise price is not less than one hundred ten percent [%] of the fair market value per share of Common Stock on the date of grant as determined by the Board.

3. Exercise of Option

This Option shall be exercisable during its term in accordance with the provisions of [PLAN] as follows:

a. Vesting

- i. This Option shall not become exercisable as to any of the number of the Shares as follows (check one):

Four Year Vesting:

Until the date that is [NUMBER] year from the date of grant of the Option (the "Anniversary Date"). On the Anniversary Date, this Option may be exercised to the extent of [%] of the Shares. Upon the expiration of each calendar month from the Anniversary Date, this Option may be exercised to the extent of the product of (a) the total number of Shares set forth at the beginning of this Agreement and (b) the fraction the numerator of which is [NUMBER] and the denominator of which is [NUMBER] (the "Monthly Vesting Amount"), plus the shares as to which the right to exercise the Option has previously accrued but has not been exercised; provided, however, that notwithstanding any of the above, the [%] exercisable on the Anniversary Date and the Monthly Vesting Amount with respect to any calendar month shall become exercisable only if the Employee was an employee of the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company as of the Anniversary Date and the last day of such month, respectively. Any time that the Optionee is on leave or is absent from performing services for the Company shall not be counted towards the vesting provided herein.

Alternate Vesting Schedule: As follows:

- ii. This Option may not be exercised for a fraction of a Share.
- iii. In the event of Optionee's death, disability or other termination of employment, the exercisability of the Option is governed by Sections 7, 8 and 9 below, subject to the limitations contained in subsection 3(i)(d).
- iv. In no event may this Option be exercised after the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below.

OBJECTION MY LORD

b. Method of Exercise

This Option shall be exercisable by written notice which shall state the election to exercise the Option, the number of Shares in respect of which the Option is being exercised, and such other representations and agreements as to the holder's investment intent with respect to such shares of Common Stock as may be required by the Company pursuant to the provisions of the Plan. Such written notice shall be signed by Optionee and shall be delivered in person or by certified mail to the President, Secretary or Chief Financial Officer of the Company. The written notice shall be accompanied by payment of the exercise price.

No Shares will be issued pursuant to the exercise of an Option unless such issuance and such exercise shall comply with all relevant provisions of law and the requirements of any stock exchange upon which the Shares may then be listed. Assuming such compliance, for income tax purposes the Shares shall be considered transferred to the Optionee on the date on which the Option is exercised with respect to such Shares.

- c. Adjustments, Merger, etc. The number and class of the Shares and/or the exercise price specified above are subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of changes in the capital stock of the Company by reason of stock dividends, split-ups or combinations of shares, reclassifications, mergers, consolidations, reorganizations or liquidations. Subject to any required action of the shareholders of the Company, if the Company shall be the surviving corporation in any merger or consolidation, this Option (to the extent that it is still outstanding) shall pertain to and apply to the securities to which a holder of the same number of shares of Common Stock that are then subject to this Option would have been entitled. A dissolution or liquidation of the Company, or a merger or consolidation in which the Company is not the surviving corporation, will cause this Option to terminate, unless the agreement or merger or consolidation shall otherwise provide, provided that the Optionee shall, if the Board expressly authorizes, in such event have the right immediately prior to such dissolution or liquidation, or merger or consolidation, to exercise this Option in whole or part. To the extent that the foregoing adjustments relate to stock or securities of the Company, such adjustments shall be made by the Board, whose determination in that respect shall be final, binding and conclusive.

4. Optionee's Representations

- a. By receipt of this Option, by its execution, and by its exercise in whole or in part, Optionee represents to the Company that Optionee understands that:
- b. Both this Option and any Shares purchased upon its exercise are securities, the issuance by the Company of which requires compliance with federal and state securities laws;

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- c. These securities are made available to Optionee only on the condition that Optionee makes the representations contained in this Section 4 to the Company;
- d. Optionee has made a reasonable investigation of the affairs of the Company sufficient to be well informed as to the rights and the value of these securities;
- e. Optionee understands that the securities have not been registered under the [ACT], as amended (the "Act") in reliance upon one or more specific exemptions contained in the Act, which may include reliance on [RULE] promulgated under the Act, if available, or which may depend upon (a) Optionee's bona fide investment intention in acquiring these securities; (b) Optionee's intention to hold these securities in compliance with federal and state securities laws; (c) Optionee having no present intention of selling or transferring any part thereof (recognizing that the Option is not transferable) in violation of applicable federal and state securities laws; and (d) there being certain restrictions on transfer of the Shares subject to the Option;
- f. Optionee understands that the Shares subject to this Option, in addition to other restrictions on transfer, must be held indefinitely unless subsequently registered under the Act, or unless an exemption from registration is available; that [RULE], the usual exemption from registration, is only available after the satisfaction of certain holding periods and in the presence of a public market for the Shares; that there is no certainty that a public market for the Shares will exist, and that otherwise it will be necessary that the Shares be sold pursuant to another exemption from registration which may be difficult to satisfy; and
- g. Optionee understands that the certificate representing the Shares will bear a legend prohibiting their transfer in the absence of their registration or the opinion of counsel for the Company that registration is not required, and a legend prohibiting their transfer in compliance with applicable state securities laws unless otherwise exempted.

5. Method of Payment

Payment of the purchase price shall be made by cash, check or, in the sole discretion of the Board at the time of exercise, promissory notes or other Shares of Common Stock having a fair market value on the date of surrender equal to the aggregate purchase price of the Shares being purchased.

6. Restrictions on Exercise

This Option may not be exercised if the issuance of such Shares upon such exercise or the method of payment of consideration for such Shares would constitute a violation of any applicable law or regulation. As a condition to the exercise of this Option, the Company may require Optionee to make any representation and warranty to the Company as may be required by any applicable law or regulation.

7. Termination of Status as an Employee

OBJECTION MY LORD

In the event of termination of Optionee's Continuous Status as an Employee for any reason other than death or disability, Optionee may, but only within [NUMBER] days after the date of such termination (but in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), exercise this Option to the extent that Optionee was entitled to exercise it at the date of such termination. To the extent that Optionee was not entitled to exercise this Option at the date of such termination, or if Optionee does not exercise this Option within the time specified herein, this Option shall terminate.

8. Disability of Optionee

In the event of termination of Optionee's Continuous Status as an Employee as a result of Optionee's disability, Optionee may, but only within [NUMBER] months from the date of termination of employment (but in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), exercise this Option to the extent Optionee was entitled to exercise it at the date of such termination; provided, however that if the disability is not total and permanent and the Optionee exercises the option within the period provided above but more than three months after the date of termination, this Option shall automatically be deemed to be a Non-statutory Stock Option and not an Incentive Stock Option; and provided, further, that if the disability is total and permanent then the Optionee may, but only within [NUMBER] year from the date of termination of employment (but in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), exercise this Option to the extent Optionee was entitled to exercise it at the date of such termination. To the extent that Optionee was not entitled to exercise this Option at the date of termination, or if Optionee does not exercise such Option within the time periods specified herein, this Option shall terminate.

9. Death of Optionee

In the event of the death of Optionee:

- a. During the term of this Option while an Employee of the Company and having been in Continuous Status as an Employee since the date of grant of this Option, this Option may be exercised, at any time within [NUMBER] year following the date of death (but, in case of an Incentive Stock Option, in no event later than the date of expiration of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), by Optionee's estate or by a person who acquired the right to exercise the Option by bequest or inheritance, but only to the extent of the right to exercise that had accrued at the time of death of the Optionee. To the extent that such Employee was not entitled to exercise the Option at the date of death, or if such Employee, estate or other person does not exercise such Option (which such Employee, estate or person was entitled to exercise) within the [NUMBER] years time period specified herein, the Option shall terminate; or

- b. During the [NUMBER] day period specified in Section 7 or the [NUMBER] year period specified in Section 8, after the termination of Optionee's Continuous Status as an Employee, this Option may be exercised, at any time within [NUMBER] year following the date of death (but, in the case of an Incentive Stock Option, in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), by Optionee's estate or by a person who acquired the right to exercise this Option by bequest or inheritance, but only to the extent of the right to exercise that had accrued at the date of termination. To the extent that such Employee was not entitled to exercise this Option at the date of death, or if such Employee, estate or other person does not exercise such Option (which such Employee, estate or person was entitled to exercise) within the [NUMBER] year time period specified herein, this Option shall terminate.

10. Non-Transferability of Option

This Option may not be transferred in any manner otherwise than by will or by the laws of descent or distribution and may be exercised during the lifetime of Optionee, only by Optionee. The terms of this Option shall be binding upon the executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns of Optionee.

11. Term of Option

This Option may not be exercised more than [Number of years] years from the date of grant of this Option, and may be exercised during such term only in accordance with the Plan and terms of this Option; provided, however, that the term of this option, if it is a Non-statutory Stock Option, may be extended for the period set forth in Section 9(a) or Section 9(b) in the circumstances set forth in such Sections.

12. Early Disposition of Stock; Taxation Upon Exercise of Option

If Optionee is an Employee and the Option qualifies as an ISO, Optionee understands that, if Optionee disposes of any Shares received under this Option within [NUMBER] years after the date of this Agreement or within [NUMBER] year after such Shares were transferred to Optionee, Optionee will be treated for federal income tax purposes as having received ordinary income at the time of such disposition in any amount generally measured as the difference between the price paid for the Shares and the lower of the fair market value of the Shares at the date of exercise or the fair market value of the Shares at the of disposition. Any gain recognized on such premature sale of the Shares in excess of the amount treated as ordinary income will be characterized as capital gain. Optionee hereby agrees to notify the Company in writing within [NUMBER] days after the date of any such disposition. Optionee understands that if Optionee disposes of such Shares at any time after the expiration of such two-year and one-year holding periods, any gain on such sale will be treated as long-term capital gain laws subject to meeting various qualifications. If Optionee is a Consultant or this is a Non-statutory Stock Option, Optionee understands that, upon exercise of this Option, Optionee will recognize income for tax purposes in an amount equal to the excess of the then fair market value of the Shares over the exercise price. Upon a resale of such shares by the Optionee, any difference between the sale price and the fair market value of the Shares on the date of exercise of the Option will be treated as capital gain or loss. Optionee understands that the Company will be required to withhold tax from Optionee's current compensation in some of the circumstances described above; to the extent that Optionee's current compensation is insufficient to satisfy the withholding tax liability, the Company may require the Optionee to make a cash payment to cover such liability as a condition to exercise of this Option.

13. Tax Consequences

The Optionee understands that any of the foregoing references to taxation are based on federal income tax laws and regulations now in effect, and may not be applicable to the Optionee under certain circumstances. The Optionee may also have adverse tax consequences under state or local law. The Optionee has reviewed with the Optionee's own tax advisors the federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Optionee is relying solely on such advisors and not on any statements or representations of the Company or any of its agents. The Optionee understands that the Optionee (and not the Company) shall be responsible for the Optionee's own tax liability that may arise as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

14. Severability; Construction

In the event that any provision in this Option shall be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be severable from, and such invalidity or unenforceability shall not be construed to have any effect on, the remaining provisions of this Option. This Option shall be construed as to its fair meaning and not for or against either party.

15. Damages

The parties agree that any violation of this Option (other than a default in the payment of money) cannot be compensated for by damages, and any aggrieved party shall have the right, and is hereby granted the privilege, of obtaining specific performance of this Option in any court of competent jurisdiction in the event of any breach hereunder.

16. Governing Law

This Option shall be deemed to be made under and governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of [State]. Jurisdiction for any disputes hereunder shall be solely in [City], [State].

17. Delay

No delay or failure on the part of the Company or the Optionee in the exercise of any right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise by any of them of any right, power or remedy preclude other or further exercise thereof, or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy.

18. Restrictions

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Optionee understands and agrees that Optionee shall not dispose of any of the Shares, whether by sale, exchange, assignment, transfer, gift, devise, bequest, mortgage, pledge, encumbrance or otherwise, except in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Section 18, and Optionee shall not take or omit any action which will impair the absolute and unrestricted right, power, authority and capacity of Optionee to sell Shares in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

Any purported transfer of Shares by Optionee that violates any provision of this Section 18 shall be wholly void and ineffectual and shall give to the Company or its designee the right to purchase from Optionee all but not less than all of the Shares then owned by Optionee for a period of [NUMBER] days from the date the Company first learns of the purported transfer at the Agreement Price and on the Agreement Terms. If the Shares are not purchased by the Company or its designee, the purported transfer thereof shall remain void and ineffectual and they shall continue to be subject to this Agreement.

The Company shall not cause or permit the transfer of any Shares to be made on its books except in accordance with the terms hereof.

a. 1) Permitted Transfers

- i. Optionee may sell, assign or transfer any Shares held by the Optionee but only by complying with the provisions of subsection (b)(1) of this Section 18.
- ii. Optionee may sell, assign or transfer any Shares held by the Optionee without complying with the provisions of subsection (b)(1) by obtaining the prior written consent of the Company's shareholders owning [%] of the then issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock (determined on a fully diluted basis) or a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company, provided that the transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the provisions of this Option and the transfer is made in accordance with any other restrictions or conditions contained in the written consent and in accordance with applicable federal and state securities laws.
- iii. Upon the death of Optionee, Shares held by the Optionee may be transferred to the personal representative of the Optionee's estate without complying with the provisions of subsection (b)(1). Shares so transferred shall be subject to the other provisions of this Option, including in particular subsection (b)(2).

OBJECTION MY LORD

a. 2) No Pledge

Unless a majority of the members of the Board of Directors consent, Shares may not be pledged, mortgaged or otherwise encumbered to secure indebtedness for money borrowed or any other obligation for which the Optionee is primarily or secondarily liable.

a. 3) Stock Certificate Legend

Each stock certificate for Shares issued to the Optionee shall have conspicuously written, printed, typed or stamped upon the face thereof, or upon the reverse thereof with a conspicuous reference on the face thereof, one or both of the following legend:

- i. THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE BEEN ISSUED WITHOUT REGISTRATION UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, AND MAY NOT BE TRANSFERRED IN THE ABSENCE OF REGISTRATION THEREUNDER OR AN APPLICABLE EXEMPTION FROM THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF SUCH ACT. SUCH SHARES MAY NOT BE SOLD, ASSIGNED, TRANSFERRED, OR OTHERWISE DISPOSED OF IN ANY MANNER EXCEPT IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT, A COPY OF WHICH IS ON FILE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF THE COMPANY. UNLESS A MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS CONSENT, SUCH STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT PROHIBITS ANY PLEDGE, MORTGAGE OR OTHER ENCUMBRANCE OF SUCH SHARES TO SECURE ANY OBLIGATION OF THE HOLDER HEREOF. EVERY CREDITOR OF THE HOLDER HEREOF AND ANY PERSON ACQUIRING OR PURPORTING TO ACQUIRE THIS CERTIFICATE OR THE SHARES HEREBY EVIDENCED OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN IS HEREBY NOTIFIED OF THE EXISTENCE OF SUCH STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT, AND ANY ACQUISITION OR PURPORTED ACQUISITION OF THIS CERTIFICATE OR THE SHARES HEREBY EVIDENCED OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN SHALL BE SUBJECT TO ALL RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES TO SUCH STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT AS THEREIN SET FORTH.
- ii. IT IS UNLAWFUL TO CONSUMMATE A SALE OR TRANSFER OF THIS SECURITY, OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN, OR TO RECEIVE ANY CONSIDERATION THEREFOR, WITHOUT

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

THE PRIOR WRITTEN CONSENT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF CORPORATIONS OF THE STATE OF [STATE/PROVINCE], EXCEPT AS PERMITTED IN THE COMMISSIONER'S RULES.

b. 1) Sales of Shares

- i. Company's Right of First Refusal. In the event that the Optionee shall desire to sell, assign or transfer any Shares held by the Optionee to any other person (the "Offered Shares") and shall be in receipt of a bona fide offer to purchase the Offered Shares ("Offer"), the following procedure shall apply. The Optionee shall give to the Company written notice containing the terms and conditions of the Offer, including, but not limited to (a) the number of Offered Shares; (b) the price per Share; (c) the method of payment; and (d) the name(s) of the proposed purchaser(s).

An offer shall not be deemed bona fide unless the Optionee has informed the prospective purchaser of the Optionee's obligation under this Option and the prospective purchaser has agreed to become a party hereunder and to be bound hereby. The Company is entitled to take such steps as it reasonably may deem necessary to determine the validity and bona fide nature of the Offer.

Until [NUMBER] days after such notice is given, the Company or its designee shall have the right to purchase all of the Offered Shares at the price offered by the prospective purchaser and specified in such notice. Such purchase shall be on the Agreement Terms, as defined in subsection (b)(4).

- ii. Failure of Company or its Designee to Purchase Offered Shares. If all of the Offered Shares are not purchased by the Company and/or its designee within the [NUMBER]-day period granted for such purchases, then any remaining Offered Shares may be sold, assigned or transferred pursuant to the Offer; provided, that the Offered Shares are so transferred within [NUMBER] days of the expiration of the [NUMBER]-day period to the person or persons named in, and under the terms and conditions of, the bona fide Offer described in the notice to the Company; and provided further, that such persons agree to execute and deliver to the Company a written agreement, in form and content satisfactory to the Company, agreeing to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Option.

b. 2) Manner of Exercise

Any right to purchase hereunder shall be exercised by giving written notice of election to the Optionee, the Optionee's personal representative or any other selling person, as the case may be, prior to the expiration of such right to purchase.

b. 3) Agreement Price

OBJECTION MY LORD

The "Agreement Price" shall be the higher of (A) the fair market value of the Shares to be purchased determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company and (B) the original exercise price of the Shares to be purchased.

b. 4) Agreement Terms

"Agreement Terms" shall mean and include the following:

- i. Delivery of Shares and Closing Date. At the closing, the Optionee, the Optionee's personal representative or such other selling person, as the case may be, shall deliver certificates representing the Shares, properly endorsed for transfer, and with the necessary documentary and transfer tax stamps, if any, affixed, to the purchaser of such Shares. Payment of the purchase price therefore shall concurrently be made to the Optionee, the Optionee's personal representative or such other selling person, as provided in subsection (ii) of this subsection (b)(4). Such delivery and payment shall be made at the principal office of the Company or at such other place as the parties mutually agree.
- ii. Payment of Purchase Price. The Company shall pay the purchase price to the Optionee at the closing.

b. 5) Right to Purchase Upon Certain Other Events

The Company or its designee shall have the right to purchase all, but not less than all, of the Shares held by the Optionee at the Agreement Price and on the Agreement Terms for a period of [NUMBER] days after any of the following events:

- i. an attempt by a creditor to levy upon or sell any of the Optionee's Shares;
- ii. the filing of a petition by the Optionee under the [COUNTRY] Bankruptcy Code or any insolvency laws;
- iii. the filing of a petition against Optionee under any insolvency or bankruptcy laws by any creditor of the Optionee if such petition is not dismissed within [NUMBER] days of filing;
- iv. the entry of a decree of divorce between the Optionee and the Optionee's spouse; or
- v. If Optionee is an employee of the Company, upon the termination of Optionee's services as an employee.

The Optionee shall provide the Company written notice of the occurrence of any such event within [NUMBER] days of such event.

c. 1) Termination

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

The provisions of this Section 18 shall terminate and all rights of each such party hereunder shall cease except for those which shall have theretofore accrued upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- i. cessation of the Company's business;
- ii. bankruptcy, receivership or dissolution of the Company;
- iii. ownership of all of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company by a single shareholder of the Company;
- iv. written consent or agreement of the shareholders of the Company holding 50% of the then issued and outstanding shares of the Company;
- v. consent or agreement of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company; or
- vi. registration of any class of equity securities of the Company pursuant to Section [NUMBER] of the [ACT], as amended.

c. 2) Amendment

This Section 18 may be modified or amended in whole or in part by a written instrument signed by shareholders of the Company holding [%] of the outstanding shares of Common Stock or a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company.

19. Market Standoff

Unless the Board of Directors otherwise consents, Optionee agrees hereby not to sell or otherwise transfer any Shares or other securities of the Company during the [NUMBER]-day period following the effective date of a registration statement of the Company filed under the Act; provided, however, that such restriction shall apply only to the first two registration statements of the Company to become effective under the Act which includes securities to be sold on behalf of the Company to the public in an underwritten public offering under the Act. The Company may impose stop-transfer instructions with respect to securities subject to the foregoing restrictions until the end of such [NUMBER]-day period.

20. Complete Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter, and supersedes all other prior or contemporaneous agreements and understandings both oral or written; subject, however, that in the event of any conflict between this Agreement and the Plan, the Plan shall govern. This Agreement may only be amended in a writing signed by the Company and the Optionee.

OBJECTION MY LORD

21. Privileges of Stock Ownership

Participant shall not have any of the rights of a shareholder with respect to any Shares until Optionee exercises the Option and pay the Exercise Price.

22. Notices

Any notice required to be given or delivered to the Company under the terms of this Agreement shall be in writing and addressed to the Corporate Secretary of the Company at its principal corporate offices. Any notice required to be given or delivered to Optionee shall be in writing and addressed to Optionee at the address indicated above or to such other address as such party may designate in writing from time to time to the Company. All notices shall be deemed to have been given or delivered upon: personal delivery; [NUMBER] days after deposit in the [COUNTRY] mail by certified or registered mail (return receipt requested); [NUMBER] business day after deposit with any return receipt express courier (prepaid); or [NUMBER] business day after transmission by fax.

OBJECTION MY LORD

In consideration of the mutual promises, covenants and conditions herein contained and for other good and valuable consideration, the parties hereto agree as follows:

20. Definitions

Certain terms used herein are defined as follows:

“Shares” means any shares of capital stock of the Company or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for any class of capital stock of the Company and all securities into which such Shares may be converted or reclassified as a result of any merger, consolidation, stock split, stock dividend, or other recapitalization of the Company, whether now owned or hereafter acquired.

21. Restrictions on Transfer

No Holder may sell or engage in any transaction which has resulted in or will result in a change in the beneficial or record ownership of any Shares held by the Holder, including without limitation a voluntary or involuntary sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation, encumbrance, disposal, loan, gift, attachment or levy (a “Transfer”), except as provided in this Agreement, and any such Transfer of Shares or attempted Transfer of Shares in contravention of this Agreement shall be void and ineffective for any purpose or confer on any transferee or purported transferee any rights whatsoever.

22. Right of First Refusal

- a. Each time a Holder proposes to Transfer (or is required by operation of law or other involuntary transfer) any or all of the Shares standing in such Holder's name or owned by him or her during the term of this Agreement, such Holder shall first offer such Shares to the Company in accordance with the following provisions:
- b. Such Holder shall deliver a written notice (a “Notice”) to the Company stating (a) such Holder's bona fide intention to Transfer such Shares, (b) the name and the address of the proposed transferee, (c) the number of Shares to be transferred, and (d) the purchase price per Share and terms of payment for which the Holder proposes to Transfer such Shares.

If the Notice provides for the payment of non-cash consideration, the Company at its option may pay the consideration in cash equal to the Company's good faith estimate of the present fair market value of the non-cash consideration offered.
- d. If the Company or its designee elects not to purchase or obtain all of the Shares designated in the selling Holder's Notice, then the Holder may Transfer the Shares referred to in the Notice to the proposed transferee, providing such Transfer (a) is completed within 30 days after the expiration of the Company's right to purchase or obtain such Shares, (b) is made at the price and terms designated in the Notice, and (c) the proposed Transferee agrees to be bound by the terms and provisions of this Agreement and to become a party to this Agreement immediately upon receipt of such Shares. If such Shares are not so transferred, the selling Holder must give notice in accordance with this paragraph prior to any other or subsequent Transfer of such Shares.
- e. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

CHECKLIST FOR HANDLING WORKERS' COMPENSATION CLAIMS

The initial period is critical in handling workers' compensation claims. So, you must be sure to:

Immediately

- Administer first aid
- Accompany injured worker to a selected medical provider
- Report incident within company
- Notify family
- Assign responsible person to follow claim

First day

- Report to claim handler outside company (insurance company or third-party administrator)
- Determine, on a preliminary basis, whether the injury is covered by workers' compensation
- Counsel employee and/or family on claims procedures, available benefits, company's continuing interest in employee's welfare, etc.
- Follow up with the employee or family

First week

- Coordinate payment of initial benefits
- Talk to treating physician to learn diagnosis and treatment plan
- Evaluate whether medical rehabilitation is necessary or appropriate
- Develop return-to-work plan

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

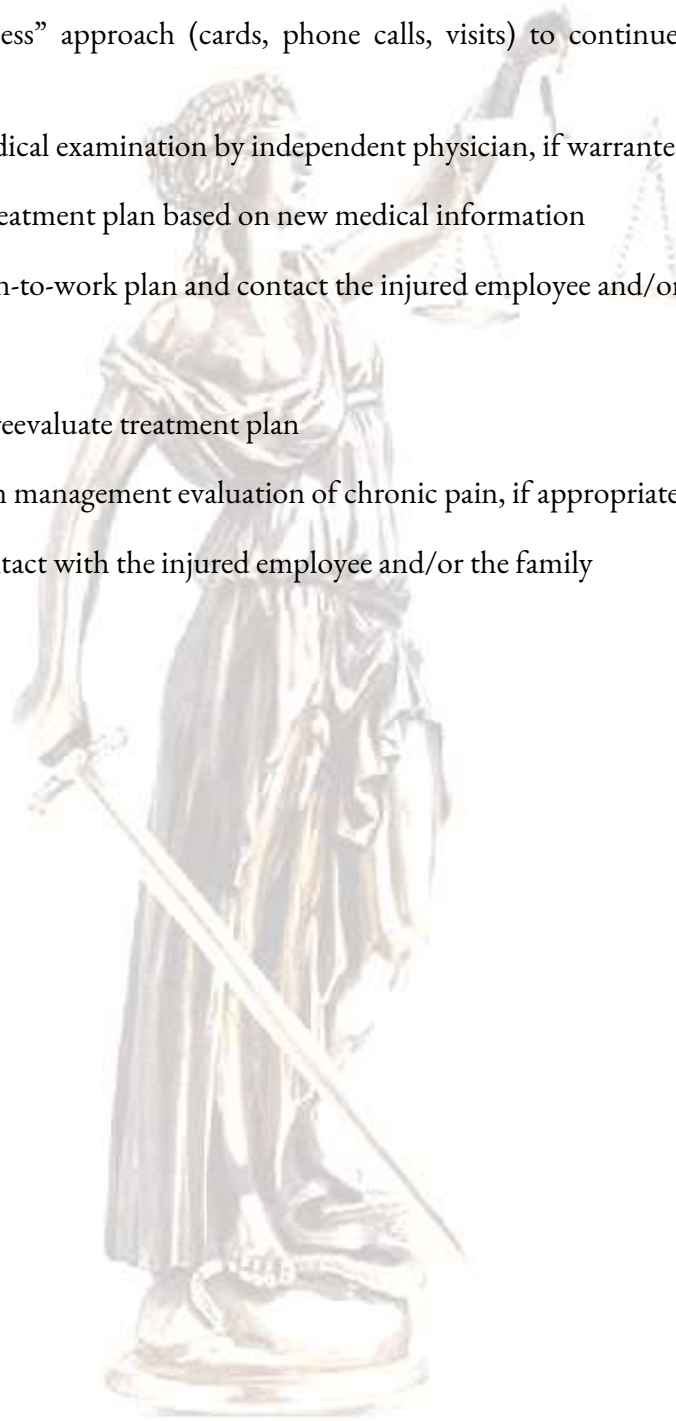

- Contact the injured employee and/or the family and forward mail

First month

- Use a “wellness” approach (cards, phone calls, visits) to continue to reinforce company’s concern
- Consider medical examination by independent physician, if warranted
- Reevaluate treatment plan based on new medical information
- Update return-to-work plan and contact the injured employee and/or the family

Ongoing

- Continually reevaluate treatment plan
- Refer for pain management evaluation of chronic pain, if appropriate
- Maintain contact with the injured employee and/or the family

CHECKLIST FOR COLLECTING INFORMATION FOR A CLAIM

Whether it's the business owner, or someone assigned by the business owner to keep track of the claim, here's some advice for the types of information the person overseeing the claim should be gathering:

About the employee

OBJECTION MY LORD

- Date of first payment
- Projected return-to-work date
- Date case closed
- Date of maximum medical improvement
- Impairment rating
- Lost days
- Total benefits paid
- Vocational rehabilitation activity
- Subrogation (Is some third party responsible?)
- Second injury fund potential

Oral statement from injured worker

- Conduct the interview in a non-adversarial setting
- Demonstrate concern and empathy
- Allow the worker to talk
- Do not rush the worker
- Reenact the accident
- Check for photos and/or video of the accident

Written statement from injured worker

- Note the location where the statement is taken
- Let the employee write the statement, if possible
- Statement is taken ASAP after the injury
- Describe the worker' preinjury and postinjury actions

WARNING SIGNALS OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION FRAUD

You may not discriminate against a worker who has filed previous workers' compensation claims. However, when you have several of the following suspect behaviors present or you observe an emerging pattern, don't be afraid to investigate further for possible fraud or to forward your suspicions to the appropriate authority.

About the worker

- The injured worker has an unstable work history; i.e., an employee who often changes jobs
- The claimant has a history of reporting subjective injuries which may include workers' compensation or liability claims
- The claimant is consistently uncooperative
- The injured worker has been recently terminated, demoted, or passed over for a promotion
- The injured worker is in line for early retirement
- The injured worker is making excessive demands
- The injured worker calls soon after the injury and presses for a quick settlement of the case
- The injured worker moves out of state soon after the injury
- The injured worker changes his address to a post office box or receives mail via friend or relative

About the workplace

- The injured worker's workplace is experiencing labor difficulties
- The accident occurs just prior to job termination, layoff, after formal discipline of the employee, or near the end of the employee's probationary period

About the injury

- The injured worker was not injured in the presence of witnesses
- The injury is a subjective one, like stress, emotional trauma, or is hard to prove, like back pain, headache, insomnia, etc.
- The accident is not promptly reported by the employee to the employer

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- The employers' first notice of the injury is from an attorney or a medical clinic, and not from the injured worker
- Physicians who have examined the injured worker have vastly differing opinions regarding the injured worker's disability
- There is no sound medical basis for the disability; all physicians' reports indicate a full recovery
- The injured worker is claiming disability exceeding that which is normally consistent with such an injury
- The accident occurs late Friday afternoon or shortly after the employee reported on Monday
- The claimant has the accident at an odd time, such as at lunch hour
- The accident occurs in an area where the injured employee would not normally be
- The task that caused the accident is not the type that the employee should be involved in; i.e., an office worker who is lifting heavy objects on a loading dock
- The details of the accident are vague or contradictory

About the medical relationship

- The claimant frequently changes physicians or medical providers
- The claimant changes physicians when a release for work has been issued
- A review of medical reports provides information that is inconsistent with the appearance or behavior of an injured person; i.e., a rehabilitation report describes the claimant as being muscular, with callused hands and grease under the fingernails
- The employer's first report of injury contrasts with the description of the accident set forth in the medical history
- The injured worker develops a pattern of missing physician's appointments

About the claim itself or the claimant's attorney

- The injured worker's attorney requests that all checks and correspondence be sent to the attorney's office
- The claimant's attorney is known for handling suspicious claims
- The attorney lien or representation letter is dated the day of the reported accident

OBJECTION MY LORD

- The same doctor/lawyer combination previously known to handle the same kind of injury is handling this claim
- The claimant is unusually familiar with workers' compensation claims procedures and laws
- The claimant initially wants to settle with the insurer but later retains an attorney and files increasingly subjective complaints
- The claimant's attorney threatens further legal action unless a quick settlement is made
- There is a high number of applications from a specific firm
- The claimant's attorney inquires about a settlement or buyout early in the life of the claim
- The claimant writes unsolicited statements about how much better he/she is, but treatment continues and the claimant doesn't return to work

About outside activities

- There are tips from fellow employees, friends, or relatives suggesting that the injured worker is either working or is active in sports
- The injured worker's rehabilitation report shows evidence of other activity
- The injured worker is in a trade that would make it possible to otherwise work while collecting compensation
- The injured worker is exaggerating an injury in order to get time off to work on personal interests; i.e., the injured worker is remodeling or building a home concurrently with the injury
- The injured worker is in a seasonal business that would make it attractive to be "injured" during the off-season; i.e., occupations in fields such as roofing, landscaping, plumbing, farming, masonry, etc.
- The injured worker leaves different daytime and evening telephone numbers
- The injured worker is never home when called or is always "sleeping and can't be disturbed" (especially during work hours)
- Return calls to the claimant's residence have strange or unexpected background noises that indicate it may not be a residence
- The claimant has several other family members also receiving workers' compensation benefits or other "social insurance" benefits, such as unemployment

PROFIT-SHARING PLAN FOR SELF-EMPLOYED INDIVIDUALS OF [COMPANE NAME]

Preamble

[COMPANE NAME] , organized and existing under the laws of the State of [state/PROVINCE], hereby establishes a profit-sharing plan for its employees as hereinafter defined, effective [the effective date].

Said organization, as part of the aforesaid Plan, adopts concurrently herewith a Trust agreement creating a Trust Fund (hereinafter at times referred to as the "Fund"), to which contributions shall be made and from which benefits shall be paid in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof.

The Plan hereby established is conditioned upon its qualification under [SECTION] of [CODE] , as amended from time to time, with employer contributions being deductible under [SECTION] of [CODE] or any other applicable sections thereof, as amended from time to time. The Plan is intended to qualify as a profit-sharing plan.

1. Purpose and Definitions

1.1 Purpose:

The purpose of this Plan is to encourage Employees to save and invest, systematically, a portion of their current Compensation in order that they may have a source of additional income upon their Retirement or Disability, or for their family in the event of death. The benefits provided by this Plan will be paid from the Trust Fund and will be in addition to the benefits Employees are entitled to receive under any other programs of the Employer.

OBJECTION MY LORD

This Plan and the separate related Trust forming a part hereof are established and shall be maintained for the exclusive benefit of the eligible Employees of the Employer and their Beneficiaries. ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO purposes of federal income tax and the deductions properly allocable to or chargeable against such items, and determined after deduction for contributions on behalf of said Owner-Employee and all other Employees. Earned Income also includes gains which are not treated under the Code as gains from the sale or exchange of capital assets and net earnings derived from the sale or other disposition of, the transfer of any interest in, or the licensing of the use of property (other than goodwill) by an individual whose efforts created such property. It is the intent of the foregoing to incorporate the definition of earned income as set forth in [CODE SECTION].

As to any other Employee, the total cash remuneration paid to the Employee for a calendar year by an Employer (or predecessor company) for personal services as reported on the Employee's federal income tax withholding statement or statements. Effective for the Plan Year beginning in [year], this Plan shall not take into consideration compensation in excess of [AMOUNT], as indexed under [CODE SECTION], in computing any Plan benefits.

- g) Covered Employment: The employment category for which the Plan is maintained, which includes any employment with the Employer.

This Plan shall not cover leased employees. For this purpose, a "leased employee" means any person who on or after [DATE], and pursuant to an agreement between the Employer and any other person

OBJECTION MY LORD

1.3 Construction:

OBJECTION MY LORD

The masculine gender, where appearing in the Plan, shall be deemed to include the feminine gender, unless the context indicates to the contrary.

2. Service Credit and Participation

2.1 Hour of Service:

- a) Hours of Service Credit Used for All Purposes: An Hour of Service is any hour for which an Employee is directly or indirectly paid or entitled to payment for the performance of duties (irrespective of whether the employment relationship has terminated) or for certain reasons other than the performance of duties, including any hour for which back pay (irrespective of mitigation of damages) is due, by the Employer or Affiliated Employer.

Such payment for reasons other than the performance of duties must be due to vacation, holiday, illness, incapacity (including disability), lay-off, jury duty, military duty, or Leave of Absence; provided, however, that no Hour of Service need be credited for payments received solely for the purpose of complying with applicable workers' compensation or unemployment or disability insurance laws or for payments received solely for reimbursing the Employee for medical or medically related expenses. It is further provided that no more than [NUMBER] Hours of Service credit need be given for each single continuous period for which an Employee is paid for reasons other than the performance of duties. The determination of such Hours of Service for the nonperformance of duties shall be in accordance with [CODE].

Hours of Service credit at the rate of [NUMBER] hours per week shall also be granted for any non-paid period of absence authorized by the Employer in accordance with its uniform Leave of Absence policy for granting such credit or for military duty to the extent required under federal law.

Each Hour of Service earned by any Employee shall be credited to him as of the time when he actually earned such Hour except as otherwise permissible or required under [CODE SECTION]. In no event an Employee receive credit for the same Hours more than once.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- b) Hours of Service Credit Used Only for Purposes of Determination of Breaks in Service: Solely for purposes of determining whether an Employee has incurred a [NUMBER] year Break in Service, Hours of Service Credit shall be given (if not already given under (a) above in this Section) for any absence, beginning after [DATE], by reason of pregnancy of the Employee, birth of the Employee's child, placement of a child with the Employee in connection with the adoption of such child by said Employee, and absence for purposes of caring for such child for a period beginning immediately following such birth or placement.

No more than [NUMBER] Hours of Service Credit need be given for such periods of absence, and the credit given shall be the Hours of Service which otherwise would normally have been credited to such Employee but for such absence. In any case in which hourly records are not maintained, Hours of Service credit shall be given at the rate of [NUMBER] hours for each day of such absence.

Said Hours of Service shall be credited in the [NUMBER] month computation period specified under Section 2.2 hereof during which said absence began only if the Employee would be prevented from incurring a Break in Service in said period by treating said periods of absence as Hours of Service; however, if said Employee would not incur a Break in Service during said period, such Hours of Service shall be credited in the immediately following period.

2.2 Service:

Service is the period of employment used in determining eligibility for participation in this Plan, as well as in determining eligibility for benefits. Subject to the loss of service rules below in this Article, a year of Service is the [NUMBER] month period beginning with the date of the Employee's first Hour of Service if he completes at least [NUMBER] Hours of Service during such [NUMBER] month period, and is any Plan Year following such date during which he completes at least [NUMBER] Hours of Service.

2.3 Break in Service:

For purposes of determining Service, an Employee shall have a year of Break in Service for the [NUMBER] month period beginning with the date of his first Hour of Service and for any Plan Year following such date if during such [NUMBER] month period of such Plan Year he completes [NUMBER] or fewer Hours of Service.

OBJECTION MY LORD

2.4 Loss of Service:

If an Employee who does not have any vested benefit hereunder has a termination of employment that results in at least [NUMBER] consecutive years of Breaks in Service that are equal to or greater than the total years of Service, then he shall lose all such prior Service previously accrued hereunder.

2.5 Multiple Trades and Businesses:

If this Plan provides contributions or benefits for one or more Owner-Employees who control both the business with respect to which this Plan is established and one or more other trades or businesses, this Plan and the plan established with respect to such other trades or businesses must, when looked at as a single plan, satisfy [CODE SECTION] with respect to the Employees of this and all such other trades or businesses.

If this Plan provides contributions or benefits for one or more Owner-Employees who control one or more other trades or businesses, the Employees of each such other trade or business must be included in a plan which satisfies [CODE SECTION] and which provides contributions and benefits not less favorable than provided for such Owner-Employees under this Plan.

If an individual is covered as an Owner-Employee under the plans of two or more trades or businesses which he does not control, and such individual controls a trade or business, then the contributions or benefits of the Employees under the plan of the trade or business which he does control must be as favorable as those provided for him under the most favorable plan of the trade or business which he does not control.

For purposes of the preceding paragraphs, an Owner-Employee, or [NUMBER] or more Owner-Employees, shall be considered to control a trade or business if such Owner-Employee, or such [NUMBER] or more Owner-Employees together:

- a) own the entire interest in an unincorporated trade or business; or
- b) in the case of a partnership, own more than [%] of either the capital interest or the profits interest in such partnership.

2.6 Participation Originating Under This Plan:

Each Employee shall become a member in this Plan on the first day of the month (i.e., "entry date") on which he:

- a) is in Covered Employment;
- b) has attained his [NUMBER] birthday; and
- c) has completed a year of Service.

2.7 Cessation of Participation Service and Reentry:

If an Employee has a year or more of Breaks in Service, or if he leaves Covered Employment, before he has become a Member hereunder, he will, following such Break in Service or interruption of Covered Employment, become a Member on the first entry date specified in Section 2.6 hereof after he meets the requirements for participation specified in Section 2.6 hereof. For purposes of determining whether an Employee's prior Participation Service is to be counted toward such requirements, the provisions of Section 2.4 hereof shall be applicable.

If an Employee has a year or more of Breaks in Service, or if he leaves Covered Employment, after he has become a Member hereunder but before he has any vested benefit hereunder, he will cease his participation in this Plan, but will, immediately following such Break in Service or interruption of Covered Employment, again become a Member provided he then meets the requirements for participation specified above in this Article. If the Employee does not then meet such requirements, he shall become a Member on the first entry date specified in Section 2.6 hereof after he does meet such requirements. For purposes of determining whether an Employee's prior Participation Service is to be counted toward such requirements, the provisions of Section 2.4 hereof shall be applicable.

If an Employee has a year or more of Breaks in Service, or if he leaves Covered Employment, after he has a vested benefit hereunder, he will cease his participation in this Plan, but will, immediately following such Break in Service or interruption of Covered Employment, again become a Member hereunder, provided he is in Covered Employment.

3. Contributions

3.1 Contributions by Employer:

The Employer shall, during a Plan Year, contribute to the Trust an amount determined at the Employer's discretion. Such contribution is for allocation, in accordance with Section 4.2 hereof, among Employer Contribution Accounts of Members who: (i) are employed by the Employer on the Allocation Date and (ii) have completed at least [NUMBER] Hours of Service during such Plan Year, or (iii) ceased employment due to Retirement, Death or Disability since the last Allocation Date.

Notwithstanding the above, such contributions shall be made only from the Employer's current or retained earnings or profits and shall be limited to the amount deductible by the Employer under [CODE SECTION]. Such contributions shall be transmitted to the Trustee as soon as practicable after such contributions are made.

3.2 Member Voluntary Contributions:

When he becomes a Member hereunder and as of the beginning of each Plan Year thereafter, a Member may, through payroll deduction, elect to make voluntary contributions hereunder (on an after-tax basis) in a whole amount or a whole percentage of his Compensation.

An election to make such contributions shall be made on such forms and at such times as the Committee may prescribe and shall be effective on a Plan Year basis, provided that changes, suspensions or discontinuance of contributions may be made by the Member during a Plan Year only if permitted by the Committee.

A Member's contributions shall be transmitted to the Trustee of the Trust Fund by the Employer as soon as reasonably practicable, but no later than [NUMBER] days after the date on which the contribution was made.

A Member may withdraw all or any part of his Employee Contribution Account by filing a written application on a form to be prescribed by the Committee, with at least [NUMBER] days' advance notice, no more than once in any Plan Year.

The employee contributions permissible under this Section shall be subject to the nondiscrimination tests set forth in [CODE SECTION]. The provisions of [CODE SECTION] and the regulations, there under, are hereby incorporated by reference.

3.3 No Contributions by Members:

Members are not required or permitted to make any contributions under this Plan.

4. Individual Accounts and Allocations

4.1 Establishment of Individual Accounts:

The Committee shall create and maintain adequate records to reflect at all times the interest in the Trust Fund of each Member. Such records shall be in the form of separate Individual Accounts for each Member who has an interest in the Trust Fund, such accounts to be referred to as follows:

- a) Employer Contribution Account: The account representing contributions made by the Employer under Section 3.1 hereof and gains or losses allocable thereto.
- b) Employee Contribution Account: The account representing contributions made by Members under Section 3.2 hereof and gains or losses allocable thereto.

Credits and charges shall be made to such accounts in the manner herein described. The Individual Accounts are primarily for accounting purposes, and a segregation of the assets of the Trust Fund to each account by the Trustee shall not be required. Distributions and withdrawals made from an account shall be charged to the account as of the date when paid.

OBJECTION MY LORD

4.2 Allocation of Employer Contributions:

Each contribution for Members eligible under Section 3.1 hereof shall be allocated among eligible Members' Employer Contribution Accounts as of the Allocation Date which falls on the last day of the Plan Year for which such contribution is made hereunder. Allocations to any Member shall be made on the basis of Compensation received during the Plan Year while he was a Member hereunder. Such allocations shall be made to each such Member in the ratio that such Compensation for the Plan Year bears to the total of all such Compensation of all Members for the Plan Year.

4.3 Allocation of Gains and Losses:

Gains or losses of the Trust Fund shall be allocated as of each Valuation Date as follows:

- a) The Committee shall, before taking into account the contributions and the forfeitures for the period since the last preceding Valuation Date, determine the then market value of the Fund and the net gain or loss of the Fund from the preceding valuation, including expenses of administration and charges against such Fund.
- b) The Committee shall determine the total aggregate value of all Individual Accounts as shown in its records for the preceding Valuation Date. The balance of any such Individual Account shall be reduced by any amounts paid there from since the last Valuation Date. The balance shall be the value used in (c) below.
- c) The Committee shall then adjust the value of each Individual Account by crediting each such Individual Account with its proportion of the net gain if there is a gain or charging it with its proportion of the net loss if there is a loss; the proportion to be so credited or charged to each Individual Account shall be calculated by multiplying such gain or loss by a fraction, the numerator of which is the then value of said Individual Account and the denominator of which is the then aggregate value of all Individual Accounts within the Trust Fund.

4.4 Allocation of Forfeitures:

Forfeitures shall be allocated as of the Allocation Date falling on the last day of the Plan Year. Any forfeiture shall be allocated as of the first such Allocation Date which occurs after such forfeiture is available, in accordance with Section 8.3 hereof, for allocation. In order to be entitled to receive an allocation of a forfeiture to be allocated at the end of any Plan Year a Member must (i) be employed by the Employer on such Allocation Date, and (ii) have completed [NUMBER] Hours of Service during such Plan Year, or (iii) have ceased employment due to Retirement, Death or Disability since the last Allocation Date.

The allocation to each such Member shall be in the ratio that such Member's Compensation received during such Plan Year while he was a Member hereunder bears to the total of all such Compensation of all Members for such Plan Year; provided, however, if forfeitures available for allocation would cause the limitation ([CODE SECTION]) described in Section 10.1 hereof to be exceeded, then the amount by which such forfeitures exceed the limitation shall be credited to and held unallocated in a suspense account until the next succeeding Allocation Date when such amounts can be allocated without exceeding such limitation.

4.5 Notification to Members:

At least once annually the Committee shall advise each Member for whom an Individual Account is held hereunder of the then value of such account.

5. Retirement

5.1 Benefit:

Upon his Normal Retirement Date, a Member shall have a fully vested and non-forfeitable interest in his Individual Accounts hereunder. Distribution will be made upon his Retirement. The amount of his Individual Accounts shall be the balance as of the Valuation Date concurrent with or next preceding the date of his Retirement, plus any contributions allocated to his Individual Accounts since such Valuation Date, except that, if a retired Member who retired other than on a Valuation Date so elects, his balance shall be determined as of the Valuation Date next following the date of his Retirement, including allocation of any contribution then being allocated hereunder, as if he met any applicable employment and service requirements for such contribution. Payment shall be made at the time and in the manner provided in Article IX hereof, subject, however, to the distribution provisions of the following paragraph.

OBJECTION MY LORD

Notwithstanding the above, if, at any time during the Plan Year ending in the calendar year a Member attains age [AGE], then in no event shall distribution of his Individual Accounts be delayed beyond April 1st of the calendar year following the calendar year in which such Member attains age [AGE] regardless of whether he had actually retired, provided, however, that such restriction shall only apply to [%] owners.

6. Death

6.1 Designation of Beneficiary:

Each Member and former Member may, from time to time, designate [NUMBER] or more primary Beneficiaries and contingent Beneficiaries to receive benefits payable hereunder in the event of the death of such Member or former Member. If a married Employee wishes to designate someone other than his spouse to be a primary Beneficiary, such designation will not become effective unless his spouse (if his spouse can be located) consents in writing to such designation, acknowledges the effect of such designation and has such consent and acknowledgment witnessed by the Plan representative or a notary public. A spouse's consent shall be valid under this Plan only with respect to the specified Beneficiary or Beneficiaries designated by the Participant. If the Beneficiary or Beneficiaries are subsequently changed by the Member, a new consent by the spouse will be required. Such designation shall be made in writing upon a form provided by the Committee and shall be filed with the Committee. The last such designation filed with the Committee shall control.

6.2 Benefit:

Upon the death of an Employee who is a Member, his designated Beneficiary, or Beneficiaries, shall be fully vested with respect to the balance of his Individual Accounts as of the Valuation Date concurrent with or next preceding the date of his death, plus any contributions allocated to the Member's Individual Accounts since such Valuation Date, except that, if the Beneficiary of a Member who died other than on a Valuation Date so elects, such balance shall be determined as of the Valuation Date next following the date of death, including allocation of any contribution then being allocated hereunder as if the Member had met any applicable employment and service requirements for such contribution. Payment shall be made at the time and in the manner provided in Article IX hereof.

6.3 No Beneficiary:

If a Member or former Member dies without a Beneficiary surviving him, or if all his Beneficiaries die before receiving the payment to which they are entitled, then the amount, if any, remaining in each Member's Individual Account shall be paid to the following, with priority as follows:

- a) the Member's surviving spouse;
 - b) the Member's children and children of deceased children, per strips;
 - c) the Member's parents;
 - d) the Member's brothers and sisters, or if deceased, the children of such brothers and sisters, per strips;
 - e) the Member's estate.

A certified copy of a death certificate shall be sufficient evidence of death and the Committee shall be fully protected in relying thereon. The Committee may accept other evidence of death at its own discretion

6.4 Benefit:

In the event of the Disability of a Member, he shall be fully vested with respect to the balance of his Individual Accounts as of the Valuation Date concurrent with or next preceding the date of his Disability, plus any contributions allocated to his Individual Accounts since such Valuation Date, except that, if a Member whose date of Disability is other than on a Valuation Date so elects, such balance shall be determined as of the Valuation Date next following the date of Disability, including allocation of any contribution then being allocated hereunder, as if he met any applicable employment and service requirements for such contribution. Payments shall be made at the time and in the manner provided in Article IX hereof.

7. Termination of Employment, and Forfeitures

7.1 Eligibility:

If a Member's employment with all Affiliated Employers shall terminate for any reason other than his Retirement under Article V, death under Article VI, or Disability under Article VII, such Member shall be entitled to such benefits as are hereinafter provided by Section 8.2.

7.2 Benefit:

A Member to whom the provisions of Section 8.1 are applicable shall be entitled to:

- a) The balance in the Member's Employee Contribution Account, as of the Valuation Date concurrent with or next preceding the date of termination, plus any contributions allocated to any such accounts since such Valuation Date.
- b) The "vested percentage" of his Employer Contribution Account. Such amount shall be equal to a percentage of the balance in such Individual Account as of the Valuation Date concurrent with or next preceding the date of such termination. The percentage to which he shall be so vested and entitled shall be determined in accordance with the following schedule:

Completed Years of Service	Vested Percentage
Less than 3 years	[%]
3 years	[%]

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

4 years	[%]
5 years	[%]
6 years	[%]
7 years	[%]

If, before he was fully vested, a Member has previously received any amount from his Employer Contribution Account due to a prior termination of employment, but received restoration of an otherwise forfeitable amount due to his resumption of employment within the time period specified in Section 8.2 hereof, then his vested Employer Contribution Account shall, upon any subsequent termination of employment under this Article, be equal to the sum of (1) and (2), multiplied by (3), minus (1), where said (1), (2) and (3) are determined as follows:

- 1) The sum of all such amounts previously received from such Individual Account.
- 2) The balance of such Individual Account as of the date of his latest termination of employment.
- 3) The vested percentage applicable to the Member in accordance with the above schedule as of the date of his latest termination of employment.

7.3 Forfeitures:

A Member to whom this Article is applicable shall forfeit that portion of the amount in his Employer Contribution Account to which he is not entitled under Section 8.2 hereof and the amount thus forfeited shall remain in the Trust Fund and shall, as of the Allocation Date following the Member's termination of employment, be released for reallocation hereunder. If such former Member resumes Covered Employment before having a [NUMBER] year Break in Service and makes the repayment described in the following paragraph, a special contribution, equal to the forfeited amount, will be made to restore such forfeited amount to his Employer Contribution Account. Such special contribution shall, to the extent possible, be made from any other Members' forfeitures then available for allocation hereunder and, to the extent such other forfeitures are not sufficient, such special contribution shall be made by the Employer.

In order to receive the restoration described in the above paragraph, the Member must, within [NUMBER] years of his reentry into Covered Employment, repay to this Plan the amount of any distribution he received here from on account of such Break in Service, except for the amount of such distribution attributable to voluntary Employee contributions.

7.4 Early Retirement:

A Member may commence "early retirement" on or after age [AGE] provided he has completed [insert maximum years necessary to vest [%] in benefits] years of service with the Employer.

8. Distribution Notices and Methods of Payment

8.1 Notice to Trustee:

As soon as practicable after a Member becomes entitled to a distribution hereunder the Committee shall give written notice to the Trustee, which notice shall include such of the following information and directions as are necessary or advisable under the circumstances:

- a) Name and address of the Member.
- b) Reason for the distribution.
- c) Name and address of the Beneficiary or Beneficiaries in case of a Member's death.
- d) Time, manner and amount of payments to be made pursuant to Section 9.3 hereof.

8.2 Subsequent Notices:

At any time after giving the notice as provided for in Section 9.1 hereof, the Committee may modify such original notice or any subsequent notice, by means of a further written notice to the Trustee, but any action taken or payments made by the Trustee pursuant to a prior notice shall not be affected by a subsequent notice.

8.3 Time and Methods of Payment:

Payments of a benefit shall commence as soon as practicable after such benefit becomes distributable hereunder, subject to the following:

- a) In no event (unless requested by the payee) shall payments commence later than as of a date [NUMBER] days after the close of the Plan Year in which a Member's employment with all Affiliated Employers terminates (for whatever reason) or, if later, in which the Member attains his Normal Retirement Date.
- b) A former Employee may elect to delay his distribution; however, in no event shall his distribution be delayed beyond [DATE] of the calendar year following the calendar year in which such former Employee attains age [AGE].

When benefits become payable, the Member shall direct that such benefits shall be paid in one (1) of the following ways, or a combination thereof:

- i) Lump sum, payable in cash, or in kind.
- ii) Substantially level periodic installments, with any balance, upon the Member's death, payable to his Beneficiary.

In the event distribution is delayed or in the event distribution is in installments, the allocation of gains or losses described in Section 4.3 hereof shall continue to be applicable to the Individual Accounts until fully distributed (unless the payee elects to have the Trustee deposit the payee's Individual Account balances in a federally insured savings account in a bank or savings and loan association, in the Trustee's name, in which case, such balances shall, until completely paid, receive such earnings as shall be earned by said savings account).

OBJECTION MY LORD

8.4 Limitations on Payment:

All benefits payable under Section 9.3 hereof shall be made over a period no longer than the life expectancy of the Member or the joint life and last survivor expectancy of the Member and his Beneficiary.

8.5 Minority or Disability Payments:

During the minority or incompetency of any person entitled to received benefits hereunder, the Committee may direct the Trustee to make payments or distributions to the guardian of such person, or other persons as may be directed by the Committee. Neither the Committee nor the Trustee shall be required to see to the application of any payments so made, and the receipt of the payee (including the endorsement of a check or checks) shall be conclusive as to all interested parties.

9. Special Governmental Requirements

9.1 Limit on Annual Additions:

Contributions hereunder shall be subject to the limitations of [CODE SECTION], as provided in this Section.

a) Definitions: For purposes of this Section the following definitions shall apply:

- 1) "Annual Addition" shall mean the sum of the following additions to a Member's Individual Account for the Limitation Year:
 - i) Employer contributions;
 - ii) Employee after-tax contributions; and
 - iii) Forfeitures, if any.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- 2) "Earnings" for an Limitation Year shall be the Employee's earned income, wages, salaries, and fees for professional services, and other amounts received for personal services actually rendered in the course of employment with the Employer (including, but not limited to, commissions paid salesmen, compensation for services on the basis of a percentage of profits, commissions on insurance premiums, tips and bonuses), provided such amounts are actually paid or includible in gross income during such year. Earnings shall exclude the following:
- i) Employer contributions to a plan of deferred compensation which are not included in the Employee's gross income for the taxable year in which contributed or Employer contributions under a simplified employee pension plan to the extent such contributions are deductible by the Employer or any distributions from a plan of deferred compensation;
 - ii) Amounts realized from the exercise of a nonqualified stock option, or when restricted stock (or property) held by the Employee either becomes freely transferable or is no longer subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture;
 - iii) Amounts realized from the sale, exchange or other disposition of stock acquired under a qualified stock option; and
 - iv) Other amounts which received special tax benefits, or contributions made by the Employer (whether or not under a salary reduction agreement) towards the purchase of an annuity described in [CODE SECTION] (whether or not the amounts are actually excludable from the gross income of the Employee).
- b) Defined Contribution Plan(s) Only: The Annual Addition to a Member's Individual Account hereunder (together with the Annual Additions to the Member's account(s) under any other defined contribution plan(s) maintained by an Affiliated Employer) for any Limitation Year may not exceed the lesser of:

OBJECTION MY LORD

- 1) [AMOUNT], and for each year thereafter the amount prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, to take into account any cost-of-living adjustment under [CODE SECTION]; or
 - 2) [%] of the Member's Earnings for the Limitation Year.
- c) Defined Contribution and Defined Benefit Plans: If, in any Limitation Year, a Member also participates in one (1) or more defined benefit plans maintained by any Affiliated Employer (whether or not terminated), then for such Limitation Year, the sum of the Defined Benefit Plan Fraction (as defined below) for such Limitation Year and Defined Contribution Plan Fraction (as defined below) for such Limitation Year shall not exceed one (1.0).

The Defined Benefit Fraction for any Limitation Year shall mean a fraction (a) the numerator of which is the projected annual benefit of the member under the defined benefit plan(s) (determined as of the close of the Limitation Year), and (b) the denominator of which is the lesser of [%] of the limitation under [CODE SECTION] or [%] of the percentage limitation under [CODE SECTION] for the year of determination (taking into account the effect of [CODE SECTION]).

The Defined Contribution Fraction for any Limitation Year shall mean a fraction (a) the numerator of which is the sum of the Annual Additions to the member's accounts under all defined contribution plans maintained by an Affiliated Employer as of the close of the Limitation Year (subject to reduction to the extent permitted under the transition rule in [CODE SECTION], and (b) the denominator of which is the sum of the lesser of [%] of the limitation under [CODE SECTION] or [%] of the percentage limitation under [CODE SECTION], for such Limitation Year and for all prior Limitation Years during which the Employee was employed by an Affiliated Employer (provided, however, at the election of the Committee, the denominator shall be increased by using for Limitation Years ending prior to [DATE], an amount equal to the denominator in effect for the Limitation Year ending in [YEAR], multiplied by the transition fraction provided in [CODE SECTION]).

If, in any Limitation Year, the sum of the Defined Benefit Plan Fraction and Defined Contribution Plan Fraction for a Member would exceed one (1.0) without adjustment of the amount of Annual Additions that can be allocated to such Member under paragraph (b) of this Section, then the amount of maximum annual benefit that can be paid to such Member under any defined benefit plan(s) maintained by an Affiliated Employer, shall be reduced to the extent necessary to reduce the sum of the Defined Benefit Plan Fraction and Defined Contribution Plan Fraction for such Member to one (1.0), or the Committee may take such other action as will cause the sum to equal one (1.0) or less.

9.2 Top-Heavy Restrictions:

- a) Determination of Top-Heaviness: Subject to (b) of this Section, this Plan will be considered to be top-heavy in any Plan Year if the aggregate value of the account balances of key Employees hereunder is greater than [%] of the aggregate value of all account balances hereunder. For purposes of determining whether such top-heaviness exists in any such Plan Year the following provisions shall be applicable:
- 1) A key Employee is an individual (whether or not deceased) who, at any time during the [NUMBER] Plan Years immediately preceding the current Plan Year, was:
 - i) an officer of the Employer of Affiliated Employer having an annual Compensation from the Employer and/or Affiliated Employer greater than [%] of the defined contribution plan limitation in effect under [CODE SECTION] for any such Plan Year (except that no more than [NUMBER] Employees or, if less, the greater of [NUMBER] and [%] of the Employees, shall be treated as officers), or
 - ii) one of the [NUMBER] Employees having an annual Compensation from the Employer and/or Affiliated Employer greater than the defined contribution plan limitation in effect under [CODE SECTION] and owning (or considering as owning under [CODE SECTION] the largest interests in the Employer, or
 - iii) a [%] owner of the Employer (taking into account ownership he would be considered to have under [CODE SECTION]), or

OBJECTION MY LORD

- iv) a [%] owner of the Employer (taking into account ownership he would be considered to have under [CODE SECTION] having annual Compensation from the Employer and/or an Affiliated Employer during any calendar year of more than [NUMBER].
- 2) For purposes of this Section, if a former Employee has not received any Compensation from the Employer at any time during the [NUMBER] Plan Years immediately preceding the current Plan Year, any account balance remaining hereunder for such former Employee shall not be taken into account. Also, any account balance attributable to deductible employee contributions or attributable to a rollover initiated by an Employee from the plan of an employer that is not an Affiliated Employer shall not be taken into account under this Section.
- 3) The value of any account balance shall be determined as of the most recent Valuation Date within the preceding Plan Year, except that in the first Plan Year hereunder such account balance shall be determined as of the most recent Valuation Date within such first Plan Year. Such value shall include any contributions allocable as of such date.
- 4) The value of any account balance shall be increased to include any payment thereof made hereunder prior to the Valuation Date as of which such value is being determined, provided any such payment was made within the [NUMBER] Plan Years immediately preceding the current Plan Year. If an account balance has been fully paid out prior to such Valuation Date, but within the [NUMBER] Plan Years immediately preceding the current Plan Year, the amount thereof shall be taken into account, except that such amount shall not be taken into account hereunder if the paid out amount was either (i) rolled over or transferred to another plan of the Employer or Affiliated Employer or (ii) rolled over or transferred to any other plan but not at the direction of the Employee who had accrued such account.
- 5) If an Employee or former Employee for whom an account balance was maintained hereunder died prior to such Valuation Date, the value, if any, taken into account hereunder with respect to such individual shall include the sum of any payments made to him prior to such Valuation Date and within the [NUMBER] Plan Years immediately preceding the current Plan Year, together with the amount, as of such Valuation Date, of any remaining account balance payable hereunder to the Beneficiary of such individual plus the sum of any payments made to such Beneficiary hereunder prior to such Valuation Date and within the [NUMBER] Plan Years immediately preceding the current Plan Year.

- 6) If an Employee or former Employee (whether or not deceased) with respect to whom an account balance would be taken into account, as described above, was previously a key Employee, but as of the last day of the immediately preceding Plan Year was no longer a key Employee, then no account balance or payments thereof with respect to him or his Beneficiary shall be taken into account in making the top heavy determinations described in this Section.
- b) Aggregation with Other Plans: The aggregation of this Plan with other plans for purposes of determining top heavy status shall be in accordance with the following:
- 1) Required Aggregation: If a key employee under this Plan also participates in another plan of the Employer or Affiliated Employer which is qualified under [CODE SECTION] or which is a simplified employee pension plan under [CODE SECTION], or if this Plan and another plan must be aggregated so that either this Plan or the other plan will meet the antidiscrimination and coverage requirements of [CODE SECTION], then this Plan and any such other plan will be aggregated for purposes of determining top heaviness. This Plan will automatically be deemed top heavy if such required aggregation of plans is top heavy as a group and will automatically be deemed not top heavy if such required aggregate of plans is not top heavy as a group.
 - 2) Permissive Aggregation: Any other plan of the Employer or Affiliated Employer which is qualified under [CODE SECTION] or which is a simplified employee pension plan under [CODE SECTION], and which is not in the required aggregation referenced in (1) above, may be aggregated with this Plan (and with any other plan(s) in the required aggregation group in (1) above) for purposes of determining top heaviness if such aggregation would continue to meet the antidiscrimination and coverage requirements of [CODE SECTION]. This Plan will automatically be deemed not top heavy if such permissive aggregation of plans is not top heavy as a group.

OBJECTION MY LORD

3) Determining Aggregate Top Heavy Status: The top heavy status of the plans as a group is determined by aggregating the plans' respective top heavy determinations that are made as of determination dates that fall within the same calendar year.

c) Effects of Top Heaviness: If this Plan becomes top heavy, the following special provisions shall apply except (i) in the case of an Employee hereunder who is also covered by another top heavy qualified defined contribution plan of an Affiliated Employer, the top heavy minimum allocation in (2) below shall not apply if the top heavy minimum allocation under such other plan is applied to such Employee there under, and (ii) in the case of an Employee hereunder who is also covered by a top heavy qualified defined benefit plan of an Affiliated Employer, the top heavy minimum allocation in (2) below shall not apply if the top heavy minimum benefit under such other plan is applied to such Employee there under, but if such top heavy minimum benefit is not applied to such Employee, then the top heavy minimum allocation in (2) below shall be applied except that the percentage shall be [%].

1) Minimum Vesting: If any Employee is covered under this Plan during any Plan Year when the Plan is top heavy, he shall, upon his termination of employment, have his vested percentage determined to be the greater of (i) and (ii) below, but subject to (iii) below:

- i) The vested percentage applicable to the Employee under the regular vesting provision of this Plan, as hereinbefore set forth, as of the date of his termination of employment, and
- ii) The vested percentage applicable to the Employee under the following schedule as of the date of his termination of employment:

Employee's Years of Vesting Service	Employee's Vested Percentage
--	-------------------------------------

Less than 2 [%]

- 2..... [%]
- 3..... [%]
- 4..... [%]
- 5..... [%]
- 6 or more [%]

iii) In the event the Employee's employment is terminated when the Plan is no longer top heavy, his vested percentage shall be determined in accordance with the regular vesting provisions of this Plan, as hereinbefore set forth, except that in no event will his vested benefit be less than his vested benefit determined as if his employment had terminated as of the date when the Plan was last top heavy, and the application of the greater of (i) and (ii) as described above shall be made if the Employee had at least [NUMBER] years of Vesting Service when the Plan was last top heavy.

2) Minimum Allocation: If any Employee is covered under this Plan during any Plan Year when the Plan is top heavy, he shall, during such Plan Year, receive an allocated Employer contribution (subject to the vesting requirements of this Plan) at least equal to a percentage of his considered Compensation (defined below) for such Plan Year, which percentage shall be the lesser of:

- i) [%], and
- ii) the actual percentage that the allocation, received for such Plan Year by the key Employee receiving the largest such allocation represented as a percentage of such key Employee's considered compensation (defined below).

An Employee's considered Compensation is the amount of Compensation he received from the Employer of such Plan Year not in excess of [AMOUNT].

OBJECTION MY LORD

- 3) Limit on Compensation: If this Plan is top heavy at any time during a year when an Employee received Compensation that is to be taken into account for purposes of computing his allocation hereunder, such amount of Compensation actually taken into account hereunder for such year shall not exceed [AMOUNT], subject to cost-of-living adjustments in accordance with [CODE SECTION].
- 4) Adjustments to [CODE SECTION] Limits: If this Plan is top heavy during any Plan Year, the combined plan limitations of [CODE SECTION], as described in Section 10.1 hereof, shall be applied for such Plan Year by substituting "One Hundred Percent (100%)" for "One Hundred Twenty-Five Percent (125%)" wherever the latter term appears in said Section 10.1 hereof.

10. Administration

10.1 Appointment of Committee:

Responsibility for administration of this Plan shall be with the Employer, which shall be the Plan Administrator hereunder. The Employer, as Plan Administrator, shall appoint a Committee consisting of at least [NUMBER] persons who shall assist the Plan Administrator in the administration of this Plan. All action taken by the Committee shall be deemed actions taken by the Plan Administrator and the Plan Administrator shall, alone, have fiduciary responsibility in connection with such actions, except with respect to willful misconduct or gross negligence. All usual and reasonable expenses of the Committee may be paid in whole or in part by the Plan Administrator, and any expenses not paid by the Plan Administrator shall be paid by the Trustee out of the principal or income of the Trust.

The members of the Committee shall not receive compensation with respect to their services for the Committee. The members of the Committee shall serve without bond or security for the performance of their duties hereunder unless the applicable law makes the furnishing of such bond or security mandatory or unless required by the Plan Administrator. The Plan Administrator may pay the premiums on any bond secured under this Section including the purchase of fiduciary liability insurance for any person who becomes a fiduciary under this Plan.

10.2 Committee Powers and Duties:

The Committee shall have such powers as may be necessary to discharge its duties hereunder, including, but not by way of limitation, the following powers and duties:

- a) to construe and interpret the Plan, decide all questions of eligibility and determine the amount, manner and time of payment of any benefits hereunder;
 - b) to prescribe rules for the operation of the Plan;
 - c) to receive from the Employer and from Employees such information as shall be necessary for the proper administration of the Plan;
 - d) to employ an independent qualified public accountant to examine the books, records, and any financial statements and schedules which are required to be included in the annual report;
 - e) to file with the appropriate government agency (or agencies) the annual report, plan description, summary plan description, and other pertinent documents which may be duly requested;
 - f) to file such terminal and supplementary reports as may be necessary in the event of the termination of the Plan;
 - g) to furnish each Employee and each beneficiary receiving benefits hereunder a summary plan description explaining the Plan;
 - h) to furnish any Employee or beneficiary, who requests in writing, statements indicating such Employee's or beneficiary's total account balances and non-forfeitable benefits, if any;
 - i) to furnish to an Employee a statement containing information contained in a registration statement required by [SECTION] of [CODE] prior to the time prescribed by law to file such registration if such statement contains information regarding the Employee;

OBJECTION MY LORD

- j) to maintain all records necessary for verification of information required to be filed with the appropriate government agency (or agencies);
- k) to report to the Trustee all available information regarding the amount of benefits payable to each Employee, the computations with respect to the allocation of assets, and any other information which the Trustee may require in order to terminate the Plan;
- l) to delegate to one or more of the members of the Committee the right to act in its behalf in all matters connected with the administration of the Plan and Trust;
- m) to delegate to any individual(s) such of the above powers and duties as the Committee deems appropriate; and
- n) to appoint or employ for the Plan any agents it deems advisable, including, but not limited to, legal counsel.

The Committee shall have no power to add to, subtract from or modify any of the terms of the Plan, nor to change or add to any benefits provided by the Plan, nor to waive or fail to apply any requirements of eligibility for benefits under the Plan. All rules and decisions of the Committee shall be uniformly and consistently applied to all Employees in similar circumstances.

A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. No action shall be taken except upon a majority vote of the Committee members. An individual shall not vote or decide upon any matter relating solely to himself or vote in any case in which his individual right or claim to any benefit under the Plan is particularly involved. If, in any case in which a Committee member is so disqualified to act, and the remaining members cannot agree, the Employer will appoint a temporary substitute member to exercise all the powers of the disqualified member concerning the matter in which he is disqualified.

10.3 Claims Procedure:

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

The Committee may prescribe procedures for obtaining benefits and is required to provide a notice in writing to any person whose claim for benefits under this Plan has been denied, setting forth (1) the specific reasons for such denial, (2) the specific reference to pertinent Plan provisions on which the denial is based, (3) a description of any additional material or information necessary to the claimant to perfect the claim and an explanation of why such material or information is necessary, and (4) an explanation of the Plan's claim review procedure as described below, including the name and address of the party to whom an appeal should be sent.

A claimant has the right to appeal a denial of claim by written application to the Committee within [NUMBER] days of notice of denial or, if no such notice has been given, at the end of the expiration of a reasonable period of time after the claim was filed. The claimant, or a duly authorized representative, may review pertinent documents and may submit issues and comments in writing to the Committee.

After the Committee reviews the claims appeal, a final decision shall be made and communicated to the claimant within [NUMBER] days of receipt of the appeal by the Committee, unless special circumstances require an extension. Such extension cannot extend beyond [NUMBER] days after receipt of the appeal by the Committee. The communication shall be set forth in writing in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant and shall identify the reasons for the denial and shall reference any pertinent Plan provisions upon which the denial is based.

10.4 Committee Procedures:

The Committee shall adopt such bylaws as it deems desirable. The Committee shall elect one of its members as chairman and shall elect a secretary who may, but need not, be a member of the Committee. The Committee shall advise the Trustee of such elections in writing. The Secretary of the Committee shall keep a record of all meetings and forward all necessary communications to the Trustee.

10.5 Authorization of Benefit Payments:

The Committee shall issue directions to the Trustee concerning all benefits which are to be paid from the Trust Fund pursuant to the provisions of the Plan. The Committee shall keep on file, in such manner, as it may deem convenient or proper, all reports from the Trustee.

OBJECTION MY LORD

10.6 Payment of Expenses:

All expenses incident to the administration, termination or protection of the Plan and Trust, including but not limited to, actuarial, legal, accounting, and Trustee's fees, shall be paid by the Employer, or if not paid by the Employer, shall be paid by the Trustee from the Trust Fund and, until paid, shall constitute a first and prior claim and lien against the Trust Fund.

10.7 Unclaimed Benefits:

11. During the time when a benefit hereunder is payable to any distributee, the Committee, upon request by the Trustee, or at its own instance, shall mail by registered or certified mail to such distributee, at his last known address, a written demand for his then address, or for satisfactory evidence of his continued life, or both. If such information is not furnished to the Committee within three (3) months from the mailing of such demand, then the Committee may, in its sole discretion, determine that such distributee is deceased and may declare such benefit, or any unpaid portion thereof, suspended as if the death of the distributee (with no surviving beneficiary) had occurred on the date of the last payment made thereon or the date such distributee first became entitled to receive benefit payments, whichever is later. Failure to furnish such information shall not result in the forfeiture of any non-forfeitable benefits and any such declaration by the Committee shall later be revoked upon a receipt of the requested information by the Committee. All such unclaimed benefits shall be and remain assets of the Trust and in no event shall they escheat to any governmental unit under any escheat law.

12. Trust Fund

12.1 Establishment of Trust Fund:

A Trust Fund shall be established for the purpose of receiving contributions, and paying benefits, under this Plan. A Trustee (or Trustees) shall be appointed under the terms of a trust agreement to administer the Trust Fund in accordance with the terms of such trust agreement.

12.2 Payment of Contributions to Trust Fund:

All contributions under this Plan shall be paid to the Trustee and shall be held, invested and reinvested by the Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Trust agreement. All property and funds of the Trust Fund, including income from investments and from all other sources, shall be retained for the exclusive benefit of Employees, as provided in the Plan, and shall be used to pay benefits to Employees or their beneficiaries, or to pay expenses of administration of the Plan and Trust Fund, except as provided in Section 15.4 hereof.

13. Amendments

13.1 Right to Amend:

The Employer reserves the right to make from time to time any amendment or amendments to this Plan which do not permit reversion of any part of the Trust Fund to the Employer except as provided in Section 15.4 hereof and which do not cause any part of the Trust Fund to be used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than the exclusive benefit of Employees included in this Plan.

14. Withdrawal and Termination

14.1 Transfers of Plan Assets and Plan Mergers:

The Plan and Trust shall not be merged or consolidated with, nor shall any Plan assets or liabilities be transferred to, any other plan, unless either (i) each Participant in the Plan (if the Plan had then terminated) receives a benefit immediately after such merger, consolidation, or transfer, which is equal to or greater than the benefit he would have been entitled to receive immediately before such merger, consolidation, or transfer (if the Plan had then terminated) or (ii) the conditions in (i) are deemed to be met due to compliance with the procedures set forth in [SECTION] of [CODE] regarding plan mergers and transfers.

14.2 Plan Termination:

The Employer may at any time, by adoption of a resolution, terminate this Plan. This Plan shall automatically terminate if the Employer ceases to exist and no successor continues the Plan.

A partial termination of this Plan will occur if required under the qualification requirements of [SECTION OF CODE].

OBJECTION MY LORD

14.3 Suspension and Discontinuance of Contributions and Plan Termination:

If the Employer decides it is impossible or inadvisable to continue to make its contributions hereunder, it shall have the power to:

- d) suspend contributions to the Plan; or
- c) discontinue contributions to the Plan; or
- d) terminate the Plan as to its Employees.

Suspension shall be temporary cessation of contributions and such a suspension which has not ripened into a complete and permanent discontinuance shall not require any vesting of Individual Accounts.

A discontinuance of contributions, unless considered complete and permanent, shall also not require any vesting of Individual Accounts. In such event, Employees who become eligible to enter the Plan subsequent to the discontinuance shall receive no benefit, and no additional benefits attributable to Employer contributions shall accrue to any of the Members unless contributions are resumed. After the date of discontinuance of contributions, the Trust shall remain in existence as provided in this Section, and the provisions of the Plan and Trust shall remain in force as may be necessary in the sole opinion of the Committee. A certified copy of such decision or resolution shall be delivered to the Trustee, and as soon as possible thereafter, the Trustee shall send or deliver to each Member or Beneficiary concerned a copy thereof.

Upon termination, partial termination, or complete discontinuance of contributions to the Plan, the Individual Accounts of each affected Member not theretofore fully vested shall be and become fully vested and non-forfeitable in each such Member.

14.4 Liquidation of Trust Fund:

Upon termination, or partial termination, of the Plan, the proportionate interests of the affected Members and their Beneficiaries shall be liquidated after provision is made for the expenses of administration, termination and liquidation. Thereafter, the Trustee shall distribute as soon as administratively feasible the amount to the credit of each such Member and Beneficiary as the Committee shall direct.

15. General Provisions

15.1 Non-guarantee of Employment:

Nothing contained in this Plan shall be construed as a contract of employment between the Employer and Employee, or as a right of any Employee to be continued in the employment of the Employer, or as a limitation of the right of the Employer to discharge any of its Employees, with or without cause.

15.2 Manner of Payment:

Wherever and whenever it is herein provided for payments or distributions to be made, whether in money or otherwise, said payments or distributions shall be made directly into the hands of the Member, his Beneficiary, his administrator, executor or guardian, as the case may be. Deposit to the credit of a Member in any bank or trust company selected by the Member or Beneficiary hereunder shall be deemed payment into his hands, and provided further, that in the event any person otherwise entitled to receive any payment or distribution shall be a minor or an incompetent, such payment or distribution may be made to his guardian or other person as may be determined by the Committee.

OBJECTION MY LORD

15.3 Non-alienation of Benefits:

Benefits payable under this Plan shall not be subject in any manner to anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, charge, garnishment, execution, or levy of any kind, either voluntary or involuntary, prior to being received by the person entitled to the benefit under the terms of the Plan. Any attempt to anticipate, alienate, sell, transfer, assign, pledge, encumber, charge or otherwise dispose of any right to benefits payable hereunder shall be void. The Trust Fund shall not in any manner be liable for, or subject to, the debts, contracts, liabilities, engagements, or torts of any person entitled to benefits hereunder. None of the unpaid Plan benefits or Trust assets shall be considered an asset of the Member in the event of his insolvency or bankruptcy.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee may approve payment to an alternate payee based upon any "qualified domestic relations order" as defined in [SECTION OF CODE], and such payment shall not be deemed a prohibited alienation of benefits.

15.4 Amounts Returnable to the Employer:

In no event shall the Employer receive any amounts from the Trust, except such amounts, if any, as set forth below:

- a) In the event of a contribution made by the Employer by a mistake of fact, such contribution may be returned to such Employer within one year after payment thereof.

- b) If the Employer's determination letter issued by the District Director of Internal Revenue is an initial determination letter as to such Employer and is to the effect that the Plan and Trust herein set forth or as amended prior to the receipt of such letter do not meet the requirements of the [SECTION] of [CODE] of 1954, such Employer shall be entitled at its option to withdraw, within one year of the receipt of such letter, all contributions made on and after its effective date, in which event the Plan and Trust shall then terminate as if the Plan had never been adopted.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- c) Each contribution hereunder is conditioned upon the deductibility of such contribution under [SECTION] of [CODE] and may be returned to the Employer within one year if such deduction is disallowed (to the extent of the disallowance).

15.5 Governing Law:

This Plan and each of its provisions shall be construed and their validity determined by the application of the laws of the State of [name of state] except to the extent such law is preempted by Federal statute.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and as conclusive evidence of the adoption of the foregoing instrument comprising [name of document], the Employer has caused its seal to be affixed hereto and these presents to be duly executed in its name and behalf this [DAY] day of [MONTH], [year].

Article and Section headings are for convenience of reference and not intended to add to or subtract from the terms of this Plan.

3. Participation and Notifications

3.1 Participation:

Except for an Employee who, for the entire Year was covered by a collective bargaining agreement which does not provide for his inclusion hereunder, an Employee shall participate in the Plan for any Year in which he meets the following requirements:

- a) he attains age [AGE] or older
- b) he has performed services for the Employer at some time during the Year
- c) his Compensation for the Year is [AMOUNT] or greater, and

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- d) the given Year is preceded by a [NUMBER]-year period that includes at least three Years in each of which he has performed services for the Employer at some time during the Year

3.2 Notifications:

The Committee shall notify an Employee in writing when he first becomes a Participant. Such notification shall include information required to be furnished by [AGENCY]. Such notification shall also advise the Participant that he should establish a Simplified Employee Pension and the date by which the establishment should be accomplished. If the Participant fails to notify the Committee of the establishment of a Simplified Employee Pension as of the prescribed date, the Committee shall choose a Simplified Employee Pension for such Participant and execute such forms and documents as may be necessary to establish a Simplified Employee Pension for and on behalf of such Participant.

If the Participant's Simplified Employee Pension does not accept contributions for the Year in which the Participant attains age [AGE], the Committee shall choose a Simplified Employee Pension for such Participant, for such Year and succeeding Years unless the Participant notifies the Committee that he has chosen an alternate Simplified Employee Pension.

4. Contributions

NOTE: The following Section 4.1 incorporates the requirements of [CODE] regarding the permitted disparity in plan contributions. The contribution percentage for compensation above a certain level cannot exceed the contribution percentage on compensation below a certain level by more than the lesser of:

- a) the contribution percentage on compensation below a certain level, or
- b) the greater of:
 - i) [%], or

OBJECTION MY LORD

- ii)* the percentage equal to the portion of the rate under [CODE] (in effect as of the beginning of the year) which is attributable to old-age insurance.

4.1 Employer Contributions On and After [DATE]:

Each Year the Employer shall determine whether or not a contribution will be made under the Plan for that Year. If the Employer determines that a contribution will be made for a Year, then, subject to the provisions of Section 4.4, the contribution made on behalf of each Employee who is a Participant for that Year shall be equal to:

- a) a percentage of Compensation, as determined by the Employer, payable to all Participants;
- b) to the extent any contribution has not been allocated under (a) above, an additional allocation shall be made to all Participants considering only their compensation in excess of the social security wage base for the Year. The percentage for any additional allocation under this Section 4.1(b) shall not exceed the lesser of:
 - i) the percentage used under Section 4.1(a) above, or
 - ii) the greater of:
 - a) [%], or
 - b) the percentage equal to the portion of the rate under [CODE] (in effect as of the beginning of the Year) which is solely attributable to old-age insurance.
 - c) to the extent any contribution remains after the allocations under Sections 4.1(a) and (b) above, the remainder shall be allocated to all Participants based on their Compensation for the Year.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

However, the contribution made on behalf of any Participant for any Year may not exceed [AMOUNT] (*minus any Employer contribution made on the Employee's behalf pursuant to Section 4.2). Except to the extent provided in this Section 4.1, contributions to any one Participant shall bear a uniform relationship to the Compensation of each Participant receiving a contribution under this Plan.

The [AMOUNT] limitation referred to above shall be increased in accordance with the increases made to the limit defined under [CODE].

The contributions of the Employer made on behalf of each Participant shall be paid directly to, and deposited in, the Simplified Employee Pension of each such Participant and shall be paid no later than [NUMBER] months after the close of the Year.

4.2 Contributions by Participants:

Participants are not permitted to make contributions under this Plan. However, the Simplified Employee Pension chosen by the Participant may allow for additional contributions by the Participant, but such contributions shall not be deemed to be made under this Plan.

If the Committee chooses a Simplified Employee Pension for the Participant pursuant to the provisions of Section 3.2, such Simplified Employee Pension shall not provide for Participant contributions there under.

4.3 Excess Contributions:

An excess Employer contribution on behalf of a Participant shall exist for a Year if it exceeds one of the following:

- a) the lesser of [AMOUNT] or [%] of the Participant's Compensation for such Year, or

OBJECTION MY LORD

- b) the amount determined by the Employer to be contributed for the Participant for such Year pursuant to the provisions of Section 4.1.

Except as provided by the remaining provisions of this Section, if an excess contribution is made by the Employer on behalf of a Participant, such excess shall be used as payment or partial payment of the Employer's contribution to such Participant's Simplified Employee Pension for the next succeeding Year.

If, by [DATE] immediately following the Year for which an excess contribution is made, it cannot be determined by the Employer whether the excess contribution will cause yet another excess contribution for the current Year, then the Committee shall notify the Participant that an excess contribution has been made on his behalf.

Upon receipt of notification of an excess contribution, the Participant may either withdraw the excess contribution prior to the due date (not including extensions) for filing his tax return for the Year for which the excess contribution was made or he may treat it as a Participant contribution if his Simplified Employee Pension allows for such treatment. If the Participant does not withdraw the excess contribution within such time period, he shall be responsible to pay the [%] penalty tax, if any, associated with such excess contribution until such time as the excess is eliminated by withdrawal or by treating it as a Participant contribution to his Simplified Employee Pension, if allowed. If such withdrawal is subject to a [%] tax for early withdrawal, the Participant shall be responsible to pay such tax.

4.4 Maximum Employer Contributions:

Notwithstanding anything contained herein, the Employer contribution to be made on behalf of any Participant for any Year shall be reduced to the extent necessary to prevent disqualification of the Plan under Section [NUMBER] of the [CODE].

If the Participant was a participant at any time in [Name of Plan] Defined Benefit Plan which was maintained by the Employer prior to its termination on [Date], the sum of his Defined Benefit Plan Fraction and his Defined Contribution Plan Fraction for any Year may not exceed [AMOUNT]. The "Defined Benefit Plan Fraction" for any Year is a fraction, the numerator of which is the Participant's projected annual benefit under the [Name of Plan] Defined Benefit Plan (determined at the close of the Year) and the denominator of which is the Participant's projected annual benefit (determined as of the close of the Year) if such plan provided the maximum benefit allowable under Section [NUMBER] of the [CODE]. The "Defined Contribution Plan Fraction" for any Year is a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the Employer's contribution to be made under Section 4.1 for such Participant for such Year, plus the Employer's contributions made under this Plan for the Participant for all prior Years and the denominator of which is the maximum amount of annual contributions which could have been made under Section [NUMBER] of the [CODE] for such Year and for all prior Years of such Participant's employment (assuming for this purpose that said Section [NUMBER] had been in effect during such prior Years). If the Participant's Defined Benefit Plan Fraction for any Year plus the Defined Contribution Plan Fraction for such Year exceeds [AMOUNT], then the Employer's contribution for the Participant for such Year shall be reduced to the extent necessary to eliminate the excess. The Committee shall advise affected Participants of any limitation on their Employer contributions hereunder required by this Section.

5. Benefits

NOTE: Unlike a qualified retirement plan, a participant can withdrawal SEP contributions without having to show a financial hardship. The Participant would owe federal and possibly state income taxes, plus, unless certain conditions are satisfied, a [%] additional income tax.

All contributions made to this Plan by the Employer on behalf of a Participant shall be fully vested and non-forfeitable at all times.

The right of a Participant to withdraw amounts contributed by the Employer on his behalf shall not in any way be restricted by the Employer, the Plan, or the Simplified Employee Pension chosen for a Participant by the Committee.

If a Participant does withdraw amounts from his Simplified Employee Pension, the Participant shall be responsible to pay the [%] penalty tax, if any, which may be associated with the Participant's withdrawal.

OBJECTION MY LORD

In the event of a Participant's death, disposition of the Participant's Simplified Employee Pension shall be governed by the terms of his Simplified Employee Pension.

6. Administration

6.1 Fiduciary Responsibility:

The Fiduciaries shall have only those specific powers, duties, responsibilities and obligations as are specifically given them under this Plan. The Employer shall have the sole responsibility for making the contributions provided for under Section 4.1 and Section 4.2, and shall have the sole authority to appoint and remove members of the Committee, to choose the Simplified Employee Pension that will be utilized for Participants who either fail to choose their own or choose a Simplified Employee Pension that will not accept certain contributions made hereunder, and to amend or terminate this Plan. The Committee shall have the sole responsibility for the administration of this Plan, which responsibility is specifically described in this Plan.

6.2 Appointment of Committee:

The Plan shall be administered by a Committee consisting of at least one person who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors of the Employer. All usual and reasonable expenses of the Committee shall be paid by the Employer. Any members of the Committee who are Employees shall not receive compensation with respect to their services for the Committee.

6.3 Claims Procedure:

The Committee shall make all determinations as to the eligibility of any Employee for Plan Participation or an Employer contribution. Any denial by the Committee of the claim for benefits under the Plan by an Employee shall be stated in writing by the Committee and delivered or mailed to the Employee; and such notice shall set forth the specific reasons for the denial, written to the best of the Committee's ability in a manner that may be understood without legal or actuarial counsel. In addition, the Committee shall afford a reasonable opportunity to any Employee whose claim for benefits has been denied for a review of the decision denying the claim.

6.4 Records and Reports:

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

The Committee shall exercise such authority and responsibility as it deems appropriate in order to comply with governmental regulations relating to records of Employer contributions made hereunder, notifications to Participants, and reports, if any, to the [GOVERNMENT AGENCY] or to the [LABOR DEPARTMENT].

6.5 Other Committee Powers and Duties:

The Committee shall have such duties and powers as may be necessary to discharge its duties hereunder, including, but not by way of limitation, the following:

- a) to construe and interpret the Plan and decide all questions of eligibility;
 - b) to prepare and distribute, in such manner as the Committee determines to be appropriate, information explaining the Plan;
 - c) to receive from the Employer and from Participants such information as shall be necessary for the proper administration of the Plan;
 - d) to furnish the Employer, upon request, such annual reports with respect to the administration of the Plan as are reasonable and appropriate;
 - e) to appoint or employ individuals to assist in the administration of the Plan and any other agents it deems advisable, including legal counsel;
 - f) to follow the Employer's choice of Simplified Employee Pension when it is the responsibility of the Committee hereunder to establish a Simplified Employee Pension for a Participant.

The Committee shall have no power to add to, subtract from or modify any of the terms of the Plan, or to change or add to any benefits provided by the Plan, or to waive or fail to apply any requirements of eligibility under the Plan.

OBJECTION MY LORD

6.6 Rules and Decisions:

The Committee may adopt such rules as it deems necessary, desirable or appropriate. All rules and decisions of the Committee shall be uniformly and consistently applied to all Participants in similar circumstances. When making a determination or calculation, the Committee shall be entitled to rely upon information furnished by a Participant, the Employer or the legal counsel of the Employer.

6.7 Notifications and Forms:

The Committee may require a Participant to complete and file with the Committee any and all forms approved by the Committee, and to furnish all pertinent information requested by the Committee. The Committee may rely upon all such information so furnished it, including the Participant's current mailing address.

6.8 Indemnification of the Committee:

The Committee and the individual members thereof shall be indemnified by the Employer against any and all liabilities arising by reason of any act or failure to act made in good faith pursuant to the provisions of the Plan, including expenses reasonably incurred in the defense of any claim relating thereto.

7. Employer Rights

7.1 Non-guarantee of Employment:

Nothing contained in this Plan shall be construed as a contract of employment between the Employer and any Employee, or as a right of any Employee to be continued in the employment of the Employer, or as a limitation of the right of the Employer to discharge any of its Employees, with or without cause.

7.2 Action by Employer:

Any action by the Employer under this Plan may be by any person or persons duly authorized to take such action.

7.3 Choice of Simplified Employee Pension:

The Employer shall choose the particular Simplified Employee Pension which will be utilized by the Committee for establishing individual Simplified Employee Pensions for Participants who fail to do so or for Participants whose Simplified Employee Pensions do not accept contributions made by the Employer hereunder.

The Simplified Employee Pension chosen by the Employer shall provide for the following:

- a) no restrictions on withdrawals
- b) acceptance of Employer contributions from and after the Year in which the Participant attains age [AGE]
- c) no contributions by a Participant
- d) no rollover contributions, as defined in the Code, by a Participant, and
- e) such other terms and conditions as may be chosen by the Employer.

7.4 Amendments:

The Employer reserves the right to make from time to time any amendment or amendments to this Plan which do not cause any part of Employer contributions hereunder to be used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than the exclusive benefit of Participants, provided however, that the Employer may make any amendment it determines necessary or desirable, with or without retroactive effect, to comply with the Code or any other federal law and regulations issued pursuant thereto.

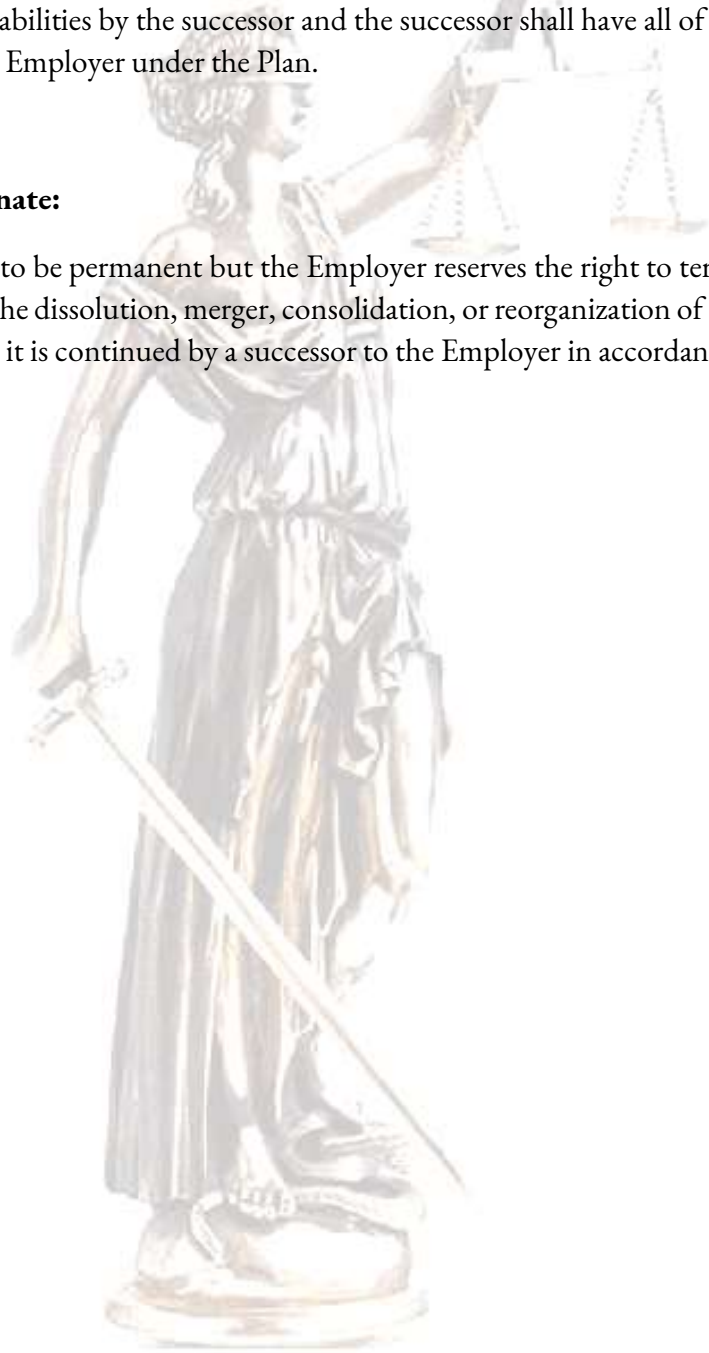

OBJECTION MY LORD

7.5 Successor Employer:

In the event of the dissolution, merger, consolidation or reorganization of the Employer, provision may be made by which the Plan will be continued by the successor; and, in that event, such successor shall be substituted for the Employer under the Plan. The substitution of the successor shall constitute an assumption of Plan liabilities by the successor and the successor shall have all of the powers, duties and responsibilities of the Employer under the Plan.

7.6 Right to Terminate:

The Plan is intended to be permanent but the Employer reserves the right to terminate the Plan at any time. In the event of the dissolution, merger, consolidation, or reorganization of the Employer, the Plan shall terminate unless it is continued by a successor to the Employer in accordance with Section 7.5.

Only Employees of the Company shall receive ISOs.

24. Exercise Price

The Exercise Price, is not less than the fair market value per share of Common Stock on the date of grant, as determined by the Board; provided, however, in the event Optionee is an Employee and owns stock representing more than [%] of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or of its Parent or Subsidiary corporations immediately before this Option is granted, said exercise price is not less than one hundred ten percent [%] of the fair market value per share of Common Stock on the date of grant as determined by the Board.

25. Exercise of Option

This Option shall be exercisable during its term in accordance with the provisions of [PLAN] as follows:

- a. Vesting

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- i. This Option shall not become exercisable as to any of the number of the Shares as follows (check one):

Four Year Vesting:

Until the date that is [NUMBER] year from the date of grant of the Option (the "Anniversary Date"). On the Anniversary Date, this Option may be exercised to the extent of [%] of the Shares. Upon the expiration of each calendar month from the Anniversary Date, this Option may be exercised to the extent of the product of (a) the total number of Shares set forth at the beginning of this Agreement and (b) the fraction the numerator of which is [NUMBER] and the denominator of which is [NUMBER] (the "Monthly Vesting Amount"), plus the shares as to which the right to exercise the Option has previously accrued but has not been exercised; provided, however, that notwithstanding any of the above, the [%] exercisable on the Anniversary Date and the Monthly Vesting Amount with respect to any calendar month shall become exercisable only if the Employee was an employee of the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company as of the Anniversary Date and the last day of such month, respectively. Any time that the Optionee is on leave or is absent from performing services for the Company shall not be counted towards the vesting provided herein.

Alternate Vesting Schedule: As follows:

- ii. This Option may not be exercised for a fraction of a Share.
- iii. In the event of Optionee's death, disability or other termination of employment, the exercisability of the Option is governed by Sections 7, 8 and 9 below, subject to the limitations contained in subsection 3(i)(d).
- iv. In no event may this Option be exercised after the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below.

b. Method of Exercise

OBJECTION MY LORD

This Option shall be exercisable by written notice which shall state the election to exercise the Option, the number of Shares in respect of which the Option is being exercised, and such other representations and agreements as to the holder's investment intent with respect to such shares of Common Stock as may be required by the Company pursuant to the provisions of the Plan. Such written notice shall be signed by Optionee and shall be delivered in person or by certified mail to the President, Secretary or Chief Financial Officer of the Company. The written notice shall be accompanied by payment of the exercise price.

No Shares will be issued pursuant to the exercise of an Option unless such issuance and such exercise shall comply with all relevant provisions of law and the requirements of any stock exchange upon which the Shares may then be listed. Assuming such compliance, for income tax purposes the Shares shall be considered transferred to the Optionee on the date on which the Option is exercised with respect to such Shares.

- c. Adjustments, Merger, etc. The number and class of the Shares and/or the exercise price specified above are subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of changes in the capital stock of the Company by reason of stock dividends, split-ups or combinations of shares, reclassifications, mergers, consolidations, reorganizations or liquidations. Subject to any required action of the shareholders of the Company, if the Company shall be the surviving corporation in any merger or consolidation, this Option (to the extent that it is still outstanding) shall pertain to and apply to the securities to which a holder of the same number of shares of Common Stock that are then subject to this Option would have been entitled. A dissolution or liquidation of the Company, or a merger or consolidation in which the Company is not the surviving corporation, will cause this Option to terminate, unless the agreement or merger or consolidation shall otherwise provide, provided that the Optionee shall, if the Board expressly authorizes, in such event have the right immediately prior to such dissolution or liquidation, or merger or consolidation, to exercise this Option in whole or part. To the extent that the foregoing adjustments relate to stock or securities of the Company, such adjustments shall be made by the Board, whose determination in that respect shall be final, binding and conclusive.

26. Optionee's Representations

- a. By receipt of this Option, by its execution, and by its exercise in whole or in part, Optionee represents to the Company that Optionee understands that:

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- b. Both this Option and any Shares purchased upon its exercise are securities, the issuance by the Company of which requires compliance with federal and state securities laws;
- c. These securities are made available to Optionee only on the condition that Optionee makes the representations contained in this Section 4 to the Company;
- d. Optionee has made a reasonable investigation of the affairs of the Company sufficient to be well informed as to the rights and the value of these securities;
- e. Optionee understands that the securities have not been registered under the [ACT], as amended (the "Act") in reliance upon one or more specific exemptions contained in the Act, which may include reliance on [RULE] promulgated under the Act, if available, or which may depend upon (a) Optionee's bona fide investment intention in acquiring these securities; (b) Optionee's intention to hold these securities in compliance with federal and state securities laws; (c) Optionee having no present intention of selling or transferring any part thereof (recognizing that the Option is not transferable) in violation of applicable federal and state securities laws; and (d) there being certain restrictions on transfer of the Shares subject to the Option;
- f. Optionee understands that the Shares subject to this Option, in addition to other restrictions on transfer, must be held indefinitely unless subsequently registered under the Act, or unless an exemption from registration is available; that [RULE], the usual exemption from registration, is only available after the satisfaction of certain holding periods and in the presence of a public market for the Shares; that there is no certainty that a public market for the Shares will exist, and that otherwise it will be necessary that the Shares be sold pursuant to another exemption from registration which may be difficult to satisfy; and
- g. Optionee understands that the certificate representing the Shares will bear a legend prohibiting their transfer in the absence of their registration or the opinion of counsel for the Company that registration is not required, and a legend prohibiting their transfer in compliance with applicable state securities laws unless otherwise exempted.

27. Method of Payment

Payment of the purchase price shall be made by cash, check or, in the sole discretion of the Board at the time of exercise, promissory notes or other Shares of Common Stock having a fair market value on the date of surrender equal to the aggregate purchase price of the Shares being purchased.

28. Restrictions on Exercise

OBJECTION MY LORD

This Option may not be exercised if the issuance of such Shares upon such exercise or the method of payment of consideration for such Shares would constitute a violation of any applicable law or regulation. As a condition to the exercise of this Option, the Company may require Optionee to make any representation and warranty to the Company as may be required by any applicable law or regulation.

29. Termination of Status as an Employee

In the event of termination of Optionee's Continuous Status as an Employee for any reason other than death or disability, Optionee may, but only within [NUMBER] days after the date of such termination (but in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), exercise this Option to the extent that Optionee was entitled to exercise it at the date of such termination. To the extent that Optionee was not entitled to exercise this Option at the date of such termination, or if Optionee does not exercise this Option within the time specified herein, this Option shall terminate.

30. Disability of Optionee

In the event of termination of Optionee's Continuous Status as an Employee as a result of Optionee's disability, Optionee may, but only within [NUMBER] months from the date of termination of employment (but in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), exercise this Option to the extent Optionee was entitled to exercise it at the date of such termination; provided, however that if the disability is not total and permanent and the Optionee exercises the option within the period provided above but more than three months after the date of termination, this Option shall automatically be deemed to be a Non-statutory Stock Option and not an Incentive Stock Option; and provided, further, that if the disability is total and permanent then the Optionee may, but only within [NUMBER] year from the date of termination of employment (but in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), exercise this Option to the extent Optionee was entitled to exercise it at the date of such termination. To the extent that Optionee was not entitled to exercise this Option at the date of termination, or if Optionee does not exercise such Option within the time periods specified herein, this Option shall terminate.

31. Death of Optionee

In the event of the death of Optionee:

- c. During the term of this Option while an Employee of the Company and having been in Continuous Status as an Employee since the date of grant of this Option, this Option may be exercised, at any time within [NUMBER] year following the date of death (but, in case of an Incentive Stock Option, in no event later than the date of expiration of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), by Optionee's estate or by a person who acquired the right to exercise the Option by bequest or inheritance, but only to the extent of the right to exercise that had accrued at the time of death of the Optionee. To the extent that such Employee was not entitled to exercise the Option at the date of death, or if such Employee, estate or other person does not exercise such Option (which such Employee, estate or person was entitled to exercise) within the [NUMBER] years time period specified herein, the Option shall terminate; or

- d. During the [NUMBER] day period specified in Section 7 or the [NUMBER] year period specified in Section 8, after the termination of Optionee's Continuous Status as an Employee, this Option may be exercised, at any time within [NUMBER] year following the date of death (but, in the case of an Incentive Stock Option, in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), by Optionee's estate or by a person who acquired the right to exercise this Option by bequest or inheritance, but only to the extent of the right to exercise that had accrued at the date of termination. To the extent that such Employee was not entitled to exercise this Option at the date of death, or if such Employee, estate or other person does not exercise such Option (which such Employee, estate or person was entitled to exercise) within the [NUMBER] year time period specified herein, this Option shall terminate.

32. Non-Transferability of Option

This Option may not be transferred in any manner otherwise than by will or by the laws of descent or distribution and may be exercised during the lifetime of Optionee, only by Optionee. The terms of this Option shall be binding upon the executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns of Optionee.

33. Term of Option

This Option may not be exercised more than [Number of years] years from the date of grant of this Option, and may be exercised during such term only in accordance with the Plan and terms of this Option; provided, however, that the term of this option, if it is a Non-statutory Stock Option, may be extended for the period set forth in Section 9(a) or Section 9(b) in the circumstances set forth in such Sections.

34. Early Disposition of Stock; Taxation Upon Exercise of Option

If Optionee is an Employee and the Option qualifies as an ISO, Optionee understands that, if Optionee disposes of any Shares received under this Option within [NUMBER] years after the date of this Agreement or within [NUMBER] year after such Shares were transferred to Optionee, Optionee will be treated for federal income tax purposes as having received ordinary income at the time of such disposition in any amount generally measured as the difference between the price paid for the Shares and the lower of the fair market value of the Shares at the date of exercise or the fair market value of the Shares at the of disposition. Any gain recognized on such premature sale of the Shares in excess of the amount treated as ordinary income will be characterized as capital gain. Optionee hereby agrees to notify the Company in writing within [NUMBER] days after the date of any such disposition. Optionee understands that if Optionee disposes of such Shares at any time after the expiration of such two-year and one-year holding periods, any gain on such sale will be treated as long-term capital gain laws subject to meeting various qualifications. If Optionee is a Consultant or this is a Non-statutory Stock Option, Optionee understands that, upon exercise of this Option, Optionee will recognize income for tax purposes in an amount equal to the excess of the then fair market value of the Shares over the exercise price. Upon a resale of such shares by the Optionee, any difference between the sale price and the fair market value of the Shares on the date of exercise of the Option will be treated as capital gain or loss. Optionee understands that the Company will be required to withhold tax from Optionee's current compensation in some of the circumstances described above; to the extent that Optionee's current compensation is insufficient to satisfy the withholding tax liability, the Company may require the Optionee to make a cash payment to cover such liability as a condition to exercise of this Option.

35. Tax Consequences

The Optionee understands that any of the foregoing references to taxation are based on federal income tax laws and regulations now in effect, and may not be applicable to the Optionee under certain circumstances. The Optionee may also have adverse tax consequences under state or local law. The Optionee has reviewed with the Optionee's own tax advisors the federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Optionee is relying solely on such advisors and not on any statements or representations of the Company or any of its agents. The Optionee understands that the Optionee (and not the Company) shall be responsible for the Optionee's own tax liability that may arise as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

36. Severability; Construction

In the event that any provision in this Option shall be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be severable from, and such invalidity or unenforceability shall not be construed to have any effect on, the remaining provisions of this Option. This Option shall be construed as to its fair meaning and not for or against either party.

37. Damages

The parties agree that any violation of this Option (other than a default in the payment of money) cannot be compensated for by damages, and any aggrieved party shall have the right, and is hereby granted the privilege, of obtaining specific performance of this Option in any court of competent jurisdiction in the event of any breach hereunder.

38. Governing Law

This Option shall be deemed to be made under and governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of [State]. Jurisdiction for any disputes hereunder shall be solely in [City], [State].

39. Delay

No delay or failure on the part of the Company or the Optionee in the exercise of any right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise by any of them of any right, power or remedy preclude other or further exercise thereof, or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy.

40. Restrictions

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Optionee understands and agrees that Optionee shall not dispose of any of the Shares, whether by sale, exchange, assignment, transfer, gift, devise, bequest, mortgage, pledge, encumbrance or otherwise, except in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Section 18, and Optionee shall not take or omit any action which will impair the absolute and unrestricted right, power, authority and capacity of Optionee to sell Shares in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

Any purported transfer of Shares by Optionee that violates any provision of this Section 18 shall be wholly void and ineffectual and shall give to the Company or its designee the right to purchase from Optionee all but not less than all of the Shares then owned by Optionee for a period of [NUMBER] days from the date the Company first learns of the purported transfer at the Agreement Price and on the Agreement Terms. If the Shares are not purchased by the Company or its designee, the purported transfer thereof shall remain void and ineffectual and they shall continue to be subject to this Agreement.

The Company shall not cause or permit the transfer of any Shares to be made on its books except in accordance with the terms hereof.

a. 1) Permitted Transfers

- iv. Optionee may sell, assign or transfer any Shares held by the Optionee but only by complying with the provisions of subsection (b)(1) of this Section 18.
- v. Optionee may sell, assign or transfer any Shares held by the Optionee without complying with the provisions of subsection (b)(1) by obtaining the prior written consent of the Company's shareholders owning [%] of the then issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock (determined on a fully diluted basis) or a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company, provided that the transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the provisions of this Option and the transfer is made in accordance with any other restrictions or conditions contained in the written consent and in accordance with applicable federal and state securities laws.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- vi. Upon the death of Optionee, Shares held by the Optionee may be transferred to the personal representative of the Optionee's estate without complying with the provisions of subsection (b)(1). Shares so transferred shall be subject to the other provisions of this Option, including in particular subsection (b)(2).

a. 2) No Pledge

Unless a majority of the members of the Board of Directors consent, Shares may not be pledged, mortgaged or otherwise encumbered to secure indebtedness for money borrowed or any other obligation for which the Optionee is primarily or secondarily liable.

a. 3) Stock Certificate Legend

Each stock certificate for Shares issued to the Optionee shall have conspicuously written, printed, typed or stamped upon the face thereof, or upon the reverse thereof with a conspicuous reference on the face thereof, one or both of the following legend:

- iii. THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE BEEN ISSUED WITHOUT REGISTRATION UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, AND MAY NOT BE TRANSFERRED IN THE ABSENCE OF REGISTRATION THEREUNDER OR AN APPLICABLE EXEMPTION FROM THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF SUCH ACT. SUCH SHARES MAY NOT BE SOLD, ASSIGNED, TRANSFERRED, OR OTHERWISE DISPOSED OF IN ANY MANNER EXCEPT IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT, A COPY OF WHICH IS ON FILE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF THE COMPANY. UNLESS A MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS CONSENT, SUCH STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT PROHIBITS ANY PLEDGE, MORTGAGE OR OTHER ENCUMBRANCE OF SUCH SHARES TO SECURE ANY OBLIGATION OF THE HOLDER HEREOF. EVERY CREDITOR OF THE HOLDER HEREOF AND ANY PERSON ACQUIRING OR PURPORTING TO ACQUIRE THIS CERTIFICATE OR THE SHARES HEREBY EVIDENCED OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN IS HEREBY NOTIFIED OF THE EXISTENCE OF SUCH STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT, AND ANY ACQUISITION OR PURPORTED ACQUISITION OF THIS CERTIFICATE OR THE SHARES HEREBY EVIDENCED OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN

SHALL BE SUBJECT TO ALL RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES TO SUCH STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT AS THEREIN SET FORTH.

- iv. IT IS UNLAWFUL TO CONSUMMATE A SALE OR TRANSFER OF THIS SECURITY, OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN, OR TO RECEIVE ANY CONSIDERATION THEREFOR, WITHOUT THE PRIOR WRITTEN CONSENT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF CORPORATIONS OF THE STATE OF [STATE/PROVINCE], EXCEPT AS PERMITTED IN THE COMMISSIONER'S RULES.

b. 1) Sales of Shares

- iii. Company's Right of First Refusal. In the event that the Optionee shall desire to sell, assign or transfer any Shares held by the Optionee to any other person (the "Offered Shares") and shall be in receipt of a bona fide offer to purchase the Offered Shares ("Offer"), the following procedure shall apply. The Optionee shall give to the Company written notice containing the terms and conditions of the Offer, including, but not limited to (a) the number of Offered Shares; (b) the price per Share; (c) the method of payment; and (d) the name(s) of the proposed purchaser(s).

An offer shall not be deemed bona fide unless the Optionee has informed the prospective purchaser of the Optionee's obligation under this Option and the prospective purchaser has agreed to become a party hereunder and to be bound hereby. The Company is entitled to take such steps as it reasonably may deem necessary to determine the validity and bona fide nature of the Offer.

Until [NUMBER] days after such notice is given, the Company or its designee shall have the right to purchase all of the Offered Shares at the price offered by the prospective purchaser and specified in such notice. Such purchase shall be on the Agreement Terms, as defined in subsection (b)(4).

- iv. Failure of Company or its Designee to Purchase Offered Shares. If all of the Offered Shares are not purchased by the Company and/or its designee within the [NUMBER]-day period granted for such purchases, then any remaining Offered Shares may be sold, assigned or transferred pursuant to the Offer; provided, that the Offered Shares are so transferred within [NUMBER] days of the expiration of the [NUMBER]-day period to the person or persons named in, and under the terms and conditions of, the bona fide Offer described in the notice to the Company; and provided further, that such persons agree to execute and deliver to the Company a written agreement, in form and content satisfactory to the Company, agreeing to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Option.

OBJECTION MY LORD

b. 2) Manner of Exercise

Any right to purchase hereunder shall be exercised by giving written notice of election to the Optionee, the Optionee's personal representative or any other selling person, as the case may be, prior to the expiration of such right to purchase.

b. 3) Agreement Price

The "Agreement Price" shall be the higher of (A) the fair market value of the Shares to be purchased determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company and (B) the original exercise price of the Shares to be purchased.

b. 4) Agreement Terms

"Agreement Terms" shall mean and include the following:

- iii. Delivery of Shares and Closing Date. At the closing, the Optionee, the Optionee's personal representative or such other selling person, as the case may be, shall deliver certificates representing the Shares, properly endorsed for transfer, and with the necessary documentary and transfer tax stamps, if any, affixed, to the purchaser of such Shares. Payment of the purchase price therefore shall concurrently be made to the Optionee, the Optionee's personal representative or such other selling person, as provided in subsection (ii) of this subsection (b)(4). Such delivery and payment shall be made at the principal office of the Company or at such other place as the parties mutually agree.
- iv. Payment of Purchase Price. The Company shall pay the purchase price to the Optionee at the closing.

b. 5) Right to Purchase Upon Certain Other Events

The Company or its designee shall have the right to purchase all, but not less than all, of the Shares held by the Optionee at the Agreement Price and on the Agreement Terms for a period of [NUMBER] days after any of the following events:

- vi. an attempt by a creditor to levy upon or sell any of the Optionee's Shares;
- vii. the filing of a petition by the Optionee under the [COUNTRY] Bankruptcy Code or any insolvency laws;
- viii. the filing of a petition against Optionee under any insolvency or bankruptcy laws by any creditor of the Optionee if such petition is not dismissed within [NUMBER] days of filing;

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- ix. the entry of a decree of divorce between the Optionee and the Optionee's spouse; or
- x. If Optionee is an employee of the Company, upon the termination of Optionee's services as an employee.

The Optionee shall provide the Company written notice of the occurrence of any such event within [NUMBER] days of such event.

c. 1) Termination

The provisions of this Section 18 shall terminate and all rights of each such party hereunder shall cease except for those which shall have theretofore accrued upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- vii. cessation of the Company's business;
- viii. bankruptcy, receivership or dissolution of the Company;
- ix. ownership of all of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company by a single shareholder of the Company;
- x. written consent or agreement of the shareholders of the Company holding 50% of the then issued and outstanding shares of the Company;
- xi. consent or agreement of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company; or
- xii. registration of any class of equity securities of the Company pursuant to Section [NUMBER] of the [ACT], as amended.

c. 2) Amendment

This Section 18 may be modified or amended in whole or in part by a written instrument signed by shareholders of the Company holding [%] of the outstanding shares of Common Stock or a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company.

41. Market Standoff

Unless the Board of Directors otherwise consents, Optionee agrees hereby not to sell or otherwise transfer any Shares or other securities of the Company during the [NUMBER]-day period following the effective date of a registration statement of the Company filed under the Act; provided, however, that such restriction shall apply only to the first two registration statements of the Company to become effective under the Act which includes securities to be sold on behalf of the Company to the public in an underwritten public offering under the Act. The Company may impose stop-transfer instructions with respect to securities subject to the foregoing restrictions until the end of such [NUMBER]-day period.

OBJECTION MY LORD

42. Complete Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter, and supersedes all other prior or contemporaneous agreements and understandings both oral or written; subject, however, that in the event of any conflict between this Agreement and the Plan, the Plan shall govern. This Agreement may only be amended in a writing signed by the Company and the Optionee.

43. Privileges of Stock Ownership

Participant shall not have any of the rights of a shareholder with respect to any Shares until Optionee exercises the Option and pay the Exercise Price.

44. Notices

Any notice required to be given or delivered to the Company under the terms of this Agreement shall be in writing and addressed to the Corporate Secretary of the Company at its principal corporate offices. Any notice required to be given or delivered to Optionee shall be in writing and addressed to Optionee at the address indicated above or to such other address as such party may designate in writing from time to time to the Company. All notices shall be deemed to have been given or delivered upon: personal delivery; [NUMBER] days after deposit in the [COUNTRY] mail by certified or registered mail (return receipt requested); [NUMBER] business day after deposit with any return receipt express courier (prepaid); or [NUMBER] business day after transmission by fax.

In addition, Shares issued under this Plan and later repurchased or otherwise reacquired by the Company shall, unless this Plan shall have been terminated, become available for future grant or sale under this Plan.

5. Administration of this Plan

4.1 Procedure

This Plan shall be administered by the Board of Directors of the Company unless and until the Board of Directors delegates administration to a Committee, as provided in this Section 4(a). Subject to Section 4(a)(ii), the Board of Directors may appoint a Committee consisting of not less than two persons to administer this Plan on behalf of the Board of Directors, subject to such terms and conditions not inconsistent with this Plan as the Board of Directors may prescribe. Once appointed, the Committee shall continue to serve until otherwise directed by the Board of Directors. Members of the Board who are either eligible for Options and/or Stock Purchase Rights or have been granted Options and/or Stock Purchase Rights may vote on any matters affecting the administration of this Plan or the grant of any Options and/or Stock Purchase Rights pursuant to this Plan, except that no such member shall act upon the granting of an option to such member, but any such member may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board during which action is taken with respect to the granting of Options and/or Stock Purchase Rights to such member.

Notwithstanding the foregoing Section 4(a)(i), if the Company registers any class of any equity security pursuant to Section [NUMBER] of the [ACT], from the effective date of such registration until [NUMBER] months after the termination of such registration, any grants of Options and/or Stock Purchase Rights to directors or officers who are subject to Section 16 of the [ACT] shall be made only by a Committee consisting of two or more persons, each of whom shall be a Disinterested Person (if necessary to meet the requirements of [RULE] promulgated under the [ACT]). The Board shall otherwise comply with the requirements of [RULE] promulgated under the [ACT], as from time to time in effect, unless the Board expressly declares that any such requirement shall not apply.

Subject to the foregoing Sections 4(a)(i) and 4(a)(ii), from time to time the Board of Directors may increase the size of the Committee and appoint additional members thereof, remove members (with or without cause) and appoint new members in substitution therefore, fill vacancies however caused, or remove all members of the Committee and thereafter directly administer this Plan. Once appointed, the Committee shall continue to serve until otherwise directed by the Board of Directors.

4.2 Powers of the Board.

- 5 Subject to the provisions of this Plan, the Board shall have plenary authority, in its discretion and without limitation, to do the following: (i) to grant Incentive Stock Options, Non-statutory Stock Options or Stock Purchase Rights; (ii) to determine, upon review of relevant information and in accordance with Section 7 of this Plan, the fair market value of the Common Stock; (iii) to determine the exercise price per share of Options or Stock Purchase Rights to be granted, which exercise price shall be determined in accordance with Section 7 hereof; (iv) to determine the Employees or Consultants to whom, and the time or times at which, Options or Stock Purchase Rights shall be granted and the number of Shares to be represented by each Option or Stock Purchase Right; (v) to interpret this Plan; (vi) to prescribe, amend and rescind rules and regulations relating to this Plan, and in the exercise of this power, to correct any defect, omission or inconsistency in this Plan or in any agreement relating to an Option or Stock Purchase Right, in a manner and to the extent the Board shall deem necessary or expedient to make this Plan fully effective; (vii) to determine the terms and provisions of each Option or Stock Purchase Right granted (which need not be identical) and, with the consent of the holder thereof, modify or amend each Option or Stock Purchase Right; (viii) to authorize any person to execute on behalf of the Company any instrument required to effectuate the grant of an Option or Stock Purchase Right previously granted by the Board; and (ix) to make all other determinations deemed necessary or advisable for the administration of this Plan.

5.1 Board Determinations

In making determinations under this Plan, the Board may take into account the nature of the services rendered by the respective Employees and Consultants, their present and potential contributions to the success of the Company, or its Subsidiaries, as the case may be, and such other factors as the Board in its discretion shall deem relevant. All decisions, determinations and interpretations of the Board shall be final and binding on all Optionees, Purchasers and any other holders of any Options and/or Stock Purchase Rights granted under this Plan.

6. Eligibility

Options and Stock Purchase Rights may be granted to Employees and Consultants, provided that Incentive Stock Options may only be granted to Employees. An Employee or Consultant who has been granted an Option or Stock Purchase Right may, if such Employee or Consultant is otherwise eligible, be granted additional Option(s) or Stock Purchase Right(s).

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

No Incentive Stock Option may be granted to an Employee which, when aggregated with all other Incentive Stock Options granted to such Employee by the Company or by any Parent or Subsidiary, would result in Shares having an aggregate fair market value (determined for each Share as of the date of grant of the Option covering such Share) in excess of [AMOUNT] (or such different amount as provided for under the Code requirements for Incentive Stock Options) becoming first available for purchase upon exercise of one or more incentive stock options during any calendar year.

Section 5(b) of this Plan shall apply only to an Incentive Stock Option evidenced by a stock option agreement which sets forth the intention of the Company and the Optionee that such Option shall qualify as an Incentive Stock Option. Section 5(b) of this Plan shall not apply to any Option evidenced by a stock option agreement which sets forth the intention of the Company and the Optionee that such Option shall be a Non-statutory Stock Option.

On and after the effective date of the registration of any class of equity security of the Company pursuant to Section [NUMBER] of the [ACT], a member of the Board of Directors who is not an Employee shall not be eligible for the benefits of this Plan unless at the time an Option or Stock Purchase Right is granted to such member, the Board expressly declares that such exclusion will not apply.

7. Term of Plan

This Plan shall become effective upon the earlier to occur of its adoption by the Board of Directors or its approval by vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company entitled to vote on the adoption of this Plan. It shall continue in effect for a term of [NUMBER] years unless sooner terminated under Section 16 of this Plan.

8. Exercise Price and Consideration

OBJECTION MY LORD

The per share exercise price for the Shares to be issued pursuant to exercise of an Option or Stock Purchase Right shall be such price as is determined by the Board, but shall be subject to the following provisions:

In the case of an Incentive Stock Option:

- a) granted to an Employee who, at the time of the grant of such Incentive Stock Option, owns stock representing more than [%] of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary, the per share exercise price shall be no less than [%] of the fair market value per share on the date of grant.
- b) granted to any Employee other than an Employee described in Section 7(a)(i)(A), the per share exercise price shall be no less than [%] of the fair market value per Share on the date of grant.

In the case of a Non-statutory Stock Option:

- a) granted to an Employee or Consultant who, at the time of the grant of such Option, owns stock representing more than [%] of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary, the per share exercise price shall be no less than [%] of the fair market value per share on the date of the grant.
- b) granted to any Employee or Consultant, other than an Employee or Consultant described in Section 7(a)(ii)(A), the per share exercise price shall be no less than [%] of the fair market value per share on the date of grant.

In the case of a Stock Purchase Right granted to any person, the per share exercise price shall be no less than [%] of the fair market value per share on the date of grant; provided, however, that if such person at the time of the grant of such Stock Purchase Right, owns stock representing more than [%] of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary, the per share exercise price shall be no less than [%] of the fair market value per share on the date of the grant.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Fair market value shall be determined by the Board in its discretion; provided, however, that where there is an active public market for the Common Stock, the fair market value per share shall be determined as follows:

- a) If the Company's Common Stock is traded on an exchange or is quoted on the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Automated Quotation ("NASDAQ") National Market System, then the closing or last sale price, respectively, on the date of grant, as reported in the Wall Street Journal (or, if not so reported, as otherwise reported by the NASDAQ System).
- b) If the Company's Common Stock is not traded on an exchange or on the NASDAQ National Market System but is traded in the over-the-counter market, then the mean of the closing bid and asked prices on the date of grant as reported in the Wall Street Journal (or, if not so reported, as otherwise reported by the NASDAQ System).

The consideration to be paid for the Shares to be issued upon exercise of an Option or Stock Purchase Right, including the method of payment, shall be determined by the Board and may consist entirely of cash, check, promissory note or other deferred payment arrangement, other Shares of Common Stock having a fair market value on the date of surrender equal to the aggregate exercise price of the Shares as to which said Option or Stock Purchase Right shall be exercised, or any combination of such methods of payment, or such other consideration and method of payment for the issuance of Shares to the extent permitted under applicable law. In making its determination as to the type of consideration to accept, the Board shall consider if acceptance of such consideration may be reasonably expected to benefit the Company.

9. Options

8.1 Term of Option

The term of each Option shall be [NUMBER] years from the date of grant thereof or such longer term (up to 10 years) as may be provided in the stock option agreement relating to such Option; provided that the term of a Non-statutory Stock Option may, as provided in Section 8(b)(iv), be extended for a period of up to [NUMBER] months. However, in the case of an Option granted to an Employee who,

OBJECTION MY LORD

at the time the Option is granted, owns stock representing more than [%] of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any Parent or Subsidiary, the term of the Option shall be [NUMBER] years from the date of grant thereof or such shorter time as may be provided in the stock option agreement relating to such Option.

8.2 Exercise of Option

a) Procedure for Exercise; Rights as a Shareholder

Any Option granted under this Plan shall be exercisable at such times and under such conditions as determined by the Board, such as vesting conditions and/or performance criteria with respect to the Company and/or the Optionee, and as shall be permissible under the terms of this Plan. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no Option granted hereunder shall have a vesting period in excess of [NUMBER] years.

An Option may, but need not, include a provision whereby at any time prior to termination of the Optionee's Continuous Status as an Employee, the Optionee may elect to exercise the Option as to all or any part of the Shares subject to the Option prior to the stated vesting date of the Option or of any vesting installment or installments specified in the Option. Any shares so purchased from any unvested installment or Option may be subject to a repurchase right in favor of the Company or to any restriction the Board determines to be appropriate.

Exercise of an Option in any manner shall result in a decrease in the number of Shares which thereafter may be available, both for purposes of this Plan and for sale under the Option, by the number of Shares as to which the Option is exercised.

An Option shall be deemed to be exercised when written notice of such exercise has been given to the Company in accordance with the terms of the Option by the person entitled to exercise the Option and full payment for the Shares with respect to which the Option is exercised has been received by the Company. An Option may not be exercised for a fraction of a Share. Full payment may, as authorized by the Board, consist of any consideration and method of payment allowable under Section 7 of this Plan. Until the issuance (as evidenced by the appropriate entry on the books of the Company or of a duly authorized transfer agent of the Company) of the stock certificate evidencing such Shares, no right to vote or receive dividends or any other rights as a shareholder shall exist with respect to the Optioned

Stock, notwithstanding the exercise of the Option. The Company shall issue (or cause to be issued) such stock certificate promptly upon exercise of the Option. No adjustment will be made for a dividend or other right for which the record date is prior to the date the stock certificate is issued, except as provided in Section 11 of this Plan.

b) Termination of Status as an Employee

In the event of termination of an Optionee's Continuous Status as an Employee, such Optionee may, but only within [NUMBER] days after the date of such termination (but in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of such Option as set forth in the Option Agreement), exercise the Option to the extent that such Employee was entitled to exercise it at the date of such termination. To the extent that such Employee was not entitled to exercise the Option at the date of such termination, or if such Employee does not exercise such Option (which such Employee was entitled to exercise) within such [NUMBER] day time period, the Option shall terminate.

c) Disability of Optionee

To the extent that such Employee was not entitled to exercise the Option at the date of termination, or if such Employee does not exercise such Option (which such Employee was entitled to exercise) within the time periods specified above, as the case may be, the Option shall terminate.

d) Death of Optionee

In the event of the death of an Optionee: (A) while the Optionee is an Employee or Consultant, (B) during the [NUMBER] day period described in Section 8(b)(ii), or (C) during the [NUMBER] year period described in Section 8(b)(iii), the Option may be exercised, at any time within [NUMBER] year following the date of death (but, in the case of an Incentive Stock Option, in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of such Incentive Stock Option as set forth in the Option Agreement), by the Optionee's estate or by a person who acquired the right to exercise the Option by bequest or inheritance, but only to the extent of the right to exercise that had accrued at the time of death of the Optionee. To the extent that such Employee or Consultant was not entitled to exercise the Option at the date of death, or if such Employee, Consultant, estate or other person does not exercise such Option (which such Employee, Consultant, estate or person was entitled to exercise) within the [NUMBER] year time period specified in this Plan, the Option shall terminate.

OBJECTION MY LORD

10. Stock Purchase Rights

9.1 Rights to Purchase

After the Board determines that it will offer an Employee or Consultant a Stock Purchase Right, it shall deliver to the offeree a stock purchase agreement or stock bonus agreement, as the case may be, setting forth the terms, conditions and restrictions relating to the offer, including the number of Shares which such person shall be entitled to purchase, and the time within which such person must accept such offer, which shall in no event exceed [NUMBER] months from the date upon which the Board made the determination to grant the Stock Purchase Right. The offer shall be accepted by execution of a stock purchase agreement or stock bonus agreement in the form approved by the Board.

9.2 Issuance of Shares

Forthwith after payment therefore, the Shares purchased shall be duly issued; provided, however, that the Board may require that the Purchaser make adequate provision for any federal and state withholding obligations of the Company as a condition to the Purchaser purchasing such Shares.

9.3 Other Provisions

The stock purchase agreement or stock bonus agreement shall contain such other terms, provisions and conditions not inconsistent with this Plan as may be determined by the Board, including rights of first refusal as set forth in Section 23 hereof.

11. Stock Appreciation Rights

10.1 Grants of SARs

Tandem SARs may be awarded by the Committee in connection with any Option granted under the Plan, either on the Date of Grant of the Option or thereafter at any time prior to the exercise, termination or expiration of the Option. Non-tandem SARs may also be granted by the Committee at any time. On the Date of Grant of a Non-tandem SAR, the Committee shall specify the number of shares of Common Stock covered by such right and the base price of shares of Common Stock to be used in connection with the calculation described in Section 10.3 below. SARs shall be subject to such terms and conditions not inconsistent with the other provisions of this Plan as the Committee shall determine.

10.2 Exercise of Tandem SARs

A Tandem SAR shall be exercisable only to the extent that the related Option is exercisable and shall be exercisable only for such period as the Committee may determine (which period may expire prior to the expiration date of the related Option). Upon the exercise of all or a portion of a Tandem SAR, the related Option shall be canceled with respect to an equal number of shares of Common Stock. A Tandem SAR shall entitle the Grantee to surrender to the Company unexercised the related Option, or any portion thereof, and to receive from the Company in exchange therefore that number of shares of Common Stock having an aggregate fair market value equal to (A) the excess of (i) the fair market value of [NUMBER] share of Common Stock as of the date the Tandem SAR is exercised over (ii) the Option price per share specified in such Option, multiplied by (B) the number of shares of Common Stock subject to the Option, or portion thereof, which is surrendered. Cash shall be delivered in lieu of any fractional shares.

10.3 Exercise of Non-tandem SARs

A Non-tandem SAR shall be exercisable during such period as the Committee shall determine prior to the Date of Grant. The exercise of a Non-tandem SAR shall entitle the Grantee to receive from the Company that number of shares of Common Stock having an aggregate fair market value equal to (A) the excess of (i) the fair market value of [NUMBER] share of Common Stock as of the date on which the Non-tandem SAR is exercised over (ii) the base price of the shares covered by the Non-tandem SAR, multiplied by (B) the number of shares of Common Stock covered by the Non-tandem SAR, or the portion thereof being exercised. Cash shall be delivered in lieu of any fractional shares.

10.4 Settlement of SARs

As soon as is reasonably practicable after the exercise of a SAR, the Company shall (i) issue, in the name of the Grantee, stock certificates representing the total number of full shares of Common Stock to which the Grantee is entitled pursuant to Section 10.2 or 10.3 hereof and cash in an amount equal to the fair market value, as of the date of exercise, of any resulting fractional shares, and (ii) if the Committee causes the Company to elect to settle all or part of its obligations arising out of the exercise of the SAR in cash pursuant to Section 10.5, deliver to the Grantee an amount in cash equal to the fair market value, as of the date of exercise, of the shares of Common Stock it would otherwise be obligated to deliver.

OBJECTION MY LORD

10.5 Cash Settlement

The Committee, in its discretion, may cause the Company to settle all or any part of its obligation arising out of the exercise of a SAR by the payment of cash in lieu of all or part of the shares of Common Stock it would otherwise be obligated to deliver in an amount equal to the fair market value of such shares on the date of exercise.

12. Restricted Shares

11.1 Grant of Restricted Shares

The Committee may from time to time cause the Company to issue Restricted Shares under the Plan, subject to such restrictions, conditions and other terms as the Committee may determine in addition to those set forth herein.

11.2 Restrictions

At the time a grant of Restricted Shares is made, the Committee shall establish a period of time (the “Restricted Period”) applicable to such Restricted Shares. Each grant of Restricted Shares may be subject to a different Restricted Period. The Committee may, in its sole discretion, at the time a grant is made, prescribe restrictions in addition to or other than the expiration of the Restricted Period, including the satisfaction of corporate or individual performance objectives, which shall be applicable to all or any portion of the Restricted Shares. Except with respect to grants of Restricted Shares intended to qualify as performance-based compensation for purposes of [SECTION OF THE CODE], the Committee may also, in its sole discretion, shorten or terminate the Restricted Period or waive any other restrictions applicable to all or a portion of such Restricted Shares. None of the Restricted Shares may be sold, transferred, assigned, pledged or otherwise encumbered or disposed of prior to the date on which such Restricted Shares vest in accordance with Section 11.3.

11.3 Restricted Stock Certificates

The Company shall issue, in the name of each Grantee, stock certificates with proper legends representing the total number of Restricted Shares granted to the Grantee, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Date of Grant. The Secretary of the Company shall hold such certificates, properly endorsed for transfer, after the Grantee's benefit until such time as the Restricted Shares are forfeited to the Company or until the Restricted Shares vest. In lieu of the foregoing, Restricted Shares awarded to a Grantee may be held under the Grantee's name in a book entry account maintained by or on behalf of the Company.

11.4 Rights of Holders of Restricted Shares

Except as otherwise determined by the Committee either at the time Restricted Shares are awarded or at any time thereafter prior to the lapse of the restrictions, holders of Restricted Shares shall not have the right to vote such shares or the right to receive any dividends with respect to such shares. All distributions, if any, received by an employee or consultant with respect to Restricted Shares as a result of any stock split-up, stock distribution, combination of shares, or other similar transaction shall be subject to the restrictions of this Section 11.

11.5 Termination of Employment Relationship

Any Restricted Shares granted pursuant to the Plan shall be forfeited if the Grantee terminates employment with the Company or its subsidiaries for reasons other than death or disability prior to the expiration or termination of the Restricted Period and the satisfaction of any other conditions applicable to such Restricted Shares. Upon such forfeiture, the Secretary of the Company shall either cancel or retain in its treasury the Restricted Shares that are forfeited to the Company. Upon the death of a Grantee prior to his termination of employment, or upon a Grantee's termination of employment as a result of disability, all Restricted Shares previously awarded to such Grantee which have not previously vested shall be forfeited unless the Committee in its sole discretion shall determine otherwise.

11.6 Delivery of Restricted Shares

Subject to the provisions of this Section, at such time as the Grantee shall become vested in his Restricted Shares, the restrictions applicable to the Restricted Shares shall lapse and a stock certificate for the number of Restricted Shares with respect to which the restrictions have lapsed shall be delivered, free of all such restrictions, to the Grantee or the Grantee's beneficiary or estate, as the case may be.

13. Performance Units and Performance Shares

OBJECTION MY LORD

12.1 Grant of Performance Units/Shares

Subject to the terms of the Plan, Performance Units and Performance Shares may be granted to eligible Employees and Consultants at any time and from time to time, as shall be determined by the Committee, in its sole discretion. The Committee shall have complete discretion in determining the number of Performance Units and Performance Shares granted to each Participant.

12.2 Value of Performance Units/Shares

Each Performance Unit shall have an initial value that is established by the Committee at the time of the grant. Each Performance Share shall have an initial value equal to the Fair Market Value of a Share on the date of grant. The Committee shall set performance goals in its discretion which, depending on the extent to which they are met, will determine the number and/or value of Performance Units/Shares that will be paid out to the Participants. The time period during which the performance goals must be met shall be called a "Performance Period." Performance Periods of Awards granted to Insiders shall, in all cases, exceed [NUMBER] months in length.

12.3 Earning of Performance Units/Shares

After the applicable Performance Period has ended, the holder of Performance Units/Shares shall be entitled to receive a payout of the number of Performance Unit/Shares earned by the Participant over the Performance Period, to be determined as a function of the extent to which the corresponding performance goals have been achieved. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, after the grant of a Performance Unit/Share, the Committee, in its sole discretion, may waive the achievement of any performance goals for such Performance Unit/Share.

12.4 Form and Timing of Payment of Performance Units/Shares

Payment of earned Performance Units/Shares shall be made in a single lump sum, within [NUMBER] calendar days following the close of the applicable Performance Period. The Committee, in its sole discretion, may pay earned Performance Units/Shares in the form of cash, in Shares (which have an aggregate Fair Market Value equal to the value of the earned Performance Units/Shares at the close of the applicable Performance Period) or in combination thereof. Prior to the beginning of each Performance Period, Participants may, in the discretion of the Committee, elect to defer the receipt of any Performance Unit/Share payout upon such terms as the Committee shall determine.

12.5 Cancellation of Performance Units/Shares

Subject to the applicable Award Agreement, upon the earlier of (a) the Participant's termination of employment, or (b) the date set forth in the Award Agreement, all remaining Performance Units/Shares shall be forfeited by the Participant to the Company, the Shares subject thereto shall again be available for grant under the Plan.

12.6 Non-transferability

Performance Units/Shares may not be sold, transferred, pledged, assigned, or otherwise alienated or hypothecated, other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. Further a Participant's rights under the Plan shall be exercisable during the Participant's lifetime only by the Participant or the Participant's legal representative.

14. Non-Transferability of Options and Stock Purchase Rights

Options and Stock Purchase Rights may not be sold, pledged, assigned, hypothecated, transferred, or disposed of in any manner other than by will or by the laws of descent or distribution and may be exercised, during the lifetime of the Optionee or Purchaser, only by the Optionee or Purchaser.

15. Adjustments Upon Changes in Capitalization, Merger or Other Events

Subject to any required action by the shareholders of the Company, the number of shares of Common Stock covered by each outstanding Option and Stock Purchase Right, and the number of shares of Common Stock which have been authorized for issuance under this Plan but as to which no Options or Stock Purchase Rights have yet been granted or which have been returned to this Plan upon cancellation or expiration of an Option or Stock Purchase Right, or repurchase of Shares from a Purchaser or Optionee upon termination of employment or otherwise, as well as the price per share of Common Stock covered by each such outstanding Option or Stock Purchase Right, shall be proportionately adjusted for any increase or decrease in the number of issued shares of Common Stock resulting from a stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, combination or reclassification of the Common Stock of the Company or the payment of a stock dividend with respect to the Common Stock. Such adjustment shall be made by the Board, whose determination in that respect shall be final, binding and conclusive. Except as expressly provided herein, no issuance by the Company of shares of stock of any class, or securities convertible into shares of stock of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the number or price of shares of Common Stock subject to an Option or Stock Purchase Rights.

In the event of the dissolution or liquidation of the Company, all Options and Stock Purchase Rights will terminate immediately prior to the consummation of such proposed action if not previously exercised. The Board, at its option, may provide for one or more of the following from time to time or in any stock option agreement or stock purchase agreement that, in the event of a Major Event, then (A) all Options and Stock Purchase Rights will be assumed or equivalent options or stock purchase rights will be substituted by such surviving corporation (or other entity) or a parent or subsidiary of such surviving corporation (or other entity), (B) all Options and Stock Purchase Rights will continue in full force and effect, or (C) all Options and Stock Purchase Rights will terminate if not exercised prior to the consummation of the transaction.

The foregoing adjustments shall be made by the Board, whose determination in that respect shall be final, binding and conclusive.

The grant of an Option or Stock Purchase Right pursuant to this Plan shall not affect in any way the right or power of the Company to make adjustments, reclassifications, reorganizations or changes of its capital or business structure or to merge or to consolidate or to dissolve, liquidate or sell, or transfer all or any part of its business or assets.

16. Time of Grant

The date of grant of an Option or Stock Purchase Right shall, for all purposes, be the date on which the Board makes the determination granting such Option or Stock Purchase Right. Notice of the determination shall be given to each Employee or Consultant to whom an Option or Stock Purchase Right is so granted within a reasonable time after the date of such grant.

17. Amendment and Termination

16.1 Amendment

The Board may amend this Plan from time to time in such respects as the Board may deem advisable; provided that the shareholders of the Company must approve the following amendments or revisions within [NUMBER] months before or after the adoption of such revision or amendment:

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- a) any increase in the number of Shares subject to this Plan, other than in connection with an adjustment under Section 14 of this Plan;
- b) any change in the designation of the class of persons eligible to be granted Options (to the extent such modification requires shareholder approval in order for the Plan to satisfy the requirements of [SECTION OF CODE] or to comply with the requirements of [RULE] promulgated under the [ACT]); or
- c) any other revision or amendment if such revision or amendment requires shareholder approval in order for this Plan to satisfy the requirements of [SECTION OF CODE] or to comply with the requirements of [RULE] promulgated under the [ACT] if applicable.

16.2 Shareholder Approval

If any amendment requiring shareholder approval under Section 16(a) of this Plan is made subsequent to the first registration of any class of equity securities by the Company under Section [NUMBER] of the [ACT], such shareholder approval shall be solicited as described in Section 20 of this Plan.

16.3 Suspension and Termination

The Board may suspend or terminate this Plan at any time. No Options or Stock Purchase Rights may be granted while this Plan is suspended or after it is terminated.

16.4 Effect of Amendment; Termination or Suspension

Any such amendment, termination or suspension of this Plan shall not affect Options or Stock Purchase Rights already granted and such Options or Stock Purchase Rights shall remain in full force and effect as if this Plan had not been amended, terminated or suspended, unless mutually agreed otherwise between the Optionee or Purchaser (as the case may be) and the Company, which agreement must be in writing and signed by the Optionee or Purchaser (as the case may be) and the Company.

OBJECTION MY LORD

18. Conditions Upon Issuance of Shares

Shares shall not be issued pursuant to the exercise of an Option or Stock Purchase Right unless the exercise of such Option or Stock Purchase Right and the issuance and delivery of such Shares pursuant thereto shall comply with all relevant provisions of law, including, without limitation, and the requirements of any stock exchange or other stock trading system upon which the Shares may then be listed. As a condition to the exercise of an Option or Stock Purchase Right, the Company may require the person exercising such Option or Stock Purchase Right to make such representations and warranties at the time of any such exercise as the Company may at that time determine, including without limitation, representations and warranties that (i) the Shares are being purchased only for investment and without any present intention to sell or distribute such Shares in violation of applicable federal or state securities laws, and (ii) such person is knowledgeable and experienced in financial and business matters and is capable of evaluating the merits and the risks associated with purchasing the Shares.

19. Reservation of Shares

The Company, during the term of this Plan, will at all times reserve and keep available such number of Shares as shall be sufficient to satisfy the requirements of this Plan. The inability of the Company to obtain authority from any regulatory body having jurisdiction, which authority is deemed by the Company's counsel to be necessary to the lawful issuance and sale of any Shares under this Plan, shall relieve the Company of any liability in respect of the failure to issue or sell such Shares as to which such requisite authority shall not have been obtained.

20. Option, Stock Purchase and Stock Bonus Agreements

Options shall be evidenced by written stock option agreements in such form as the Board shall approve. Upon the exercise of Stock Purchase Rights, the Purchaser shall sign a stock purchase agreement or stock bonus agreement in such form as the Board shall approve.

21. Shareholder Approval

The shareholders of the Company shall have approved this Plan within [NUMBER] months before or after this Plan is adopted. Any shares purchased before shareholder approval is obtained shall be rescinded if shareholder approval is not obtained within [NUMBER] months before or after this Plan is adopted. Such shares shall not be counted in determining whether such approval is obtained.

If the Company registers any class of equity securities pursuant to Section [NUMBER] of the [ACT], any required approval of the shareholders of the Company obtained after such registration shall be solicited substantially in accordance with Section [NUMBER] of the [ACT] and the rules and regulations promulgated there under.

If the Company registers any class of equity securities pursuant to Section [NUMBER] of the [ACT] and if prior to such time either the shareholders of the Company did not approve this Plan or the Company did not solicit shareholder approval substantially in accordance with [NUMBER] of the [ACT] and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, then the Company shall take all necessary actions to qualify the Plan under [RULE] promulgated under the [ACT] at or prior to the later of (A) the first annual meeting of shareholders held subsequent to the first registration of any class of equity securities of the Company under Section [NUMBER] of the [ACT] or (B) the granting of an Option hereunder to an officer or director after such registration.

22. Information to Optionees and Purchasers

The Company shall provide annually to each Optionee and Purchaser, during the period that such Optionee or Purchaser has one or more Options or Stock Purchase Rights outstanding, copies of the annual financial statements of the Company.

23. Right of Company to Terminate Employment or Consulting Services

This Plan shall not confer upon any Optionee or holder of a Stock Purchase Right any right with respect to continuation of employment by or the rendition of consulting services to the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or its Parent, nor shall it interfere in any way with his or her right or the Company's, any of its Subsidiaries' or its Parent's right to terminate his or her employment or services at any time, with or without cause.

24. Rights of First Refusal and Repurchase

The written agreements evidencing Options or Stock Purchase Rights may contain such provisions as the Board shall determine (or pursuant to a separate agreement) to the effect that if an Optionee or Purchaser elects to sell all or any Shares that the Optionee or Purchaser acquired upon the exercise of an Option or Stock Purchase Right, then any proposed sale of such Shares by such Optionee or Purchaser shall be subject to a right of first refusal in favor of the Company.

OBJECTION MY LORD

The Board may require, at its option, that a stock purchase agreement, stock option agreement, stock bonus agreement, or other agreement pursuant to this Plan grant the Company a repurchase option exercisable upon the voluntary or involuntary termination of the Purchaser's employment with the Company for any reason (including death or disability). The repurchase price shall be at the higher of the original purchase price or fair value of the Shares on the date of termination of employment. If the Board so determines, the purchase price for shares repurchased may be paid by cancellation of any indebtedness of the Purchaser to the Company. The repurchase option must be exercised by the Company within [NUMBER] days of termination of employment for cash or cancellation of money indebtedness for the Shares and the right shall terminate when the Company's Common Stock becomes publicly traded. The Board may require such a repurchase right in other events.

Certificates representing shares issued upon exercise of Options or Stock Purchase Rights shall bear a restrictive legend to the effect that the transferability of such shares is subject to the restrictions contained in this Plan and the applicable written agreement between the Optionee or Purchaser and the Company.

25. Withholding

The Company's obligation to deliver shares of Common Stock under this Plan shall be subject to applicable federal, state and local tax withholding requirements. To the extent provided by the terms of the stock option agreement relating to an Option, the Optionee may satisfy any federal, state or local tax withholding obligation relating to the exercise of such Option by any or a combination of the following means: (i) cash payment or wage withholding; (ii) authorizing the Company to withhold from the Shares otherwise issuable to the Optionee upon exercise of the Option the number of Shares having a fair market value less than or equal to the amount of the withholding tax obligation; or (iii) delivering to the Company unencumbered shares of Common Stock owned by the Optionee having a fair market value less than or equal to the amount of the withholding tax obligation; provided, however, that with respect to clauses (ii) and (iii) above the Board in its sole discretion may disapprove such payment and require that such taxes be paid in cash.

26. Separability

At a time when the Company has a class of equity securities registered pursuant to Section [NUMBER] of the [ACT], if any of the terms or provisions of this Plan conflict with the requirements of [RULE] promulgated under the [ACT] and/or [SECTION OF CODE], then such terms or provisions shall be deemed inoperative to the extent they so conflict with the requirements of [RULE] promulgated under the [ACT], and/or with respect to Incentive Stock Options, [SECTION OF CODE]. The foregoing sentence shall not apply with respect to the requirements of [RULE] promulgated under the [ACT] if the Board has expressly declared that such requirements shall not apply. With respect to Incentive Stock Options, if this Plan does not contain any provision required to be included herein under [SECTION OF CODE], such provision shall be deemed to be incorporated herein with the same force and effect as if such provision had been set out at length herein. To the extent any Option that is intended to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option cannot so qualify, such Option, to that extent, shall be deemed to be a Non-statutory Stock Option for all purposes of this Plan.

27. Non-Exclusivity of this Plan

The adoption of this Plan by the Board shall not be construed as creating any limitations on the power of the Board to adopt such other incentive arrangements as it may deem desirable, including, without limitation, the granting of stock options and the awarding of stock and cash otherwise than under this Plan, and such arrangements may be either generally applicable or applicable only in specific cases.

28. Governing Law

This Plan shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of [STATE/PROVINCE].

29. Cancellation of and Substitution for Nonstatutory Options

The Company shall have the right to cancel any Non-statutory Stock Option at any time before it otherwise would have expired by its terms and to grant to the same Optionee in substitution therefore a new Non-statutory Stock Option stating an option price which is lower (but not higher) than the option price stated in the cancelled Option. Any such substituted option shall contain all the terms and conditions of the cancelled Option; provided, however, that such substituted Option shall not be exercisable after the expiration of [NUMBER] years and one day from the date of grant of the cancelled Option.

30. Market Standoff.

Unless the Board determines otherwise, each Optionee or Purchaser shall not sell or otherwise transfer any Shares or other securities of the Company during the [NUMBER]-day period following the effective date of a registration statement of the Company filed under the [ACT]; provided, however, that such restriction shall apply only to the first two registration statements of the Company to become effective under the [ACT] which includes securities to be sold on behalf of the Company to the public in an underwritten public offering under the [ACT]. The Company may impose stop-transfer instructions with respect to securities subject to the foregoing restrictions until the end of such [NUMBER]-day period

STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT

THE SECURITY REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAS BEEN ACQUIRED FOR INVESTMENT AND NOT WITH A VIEW TO, OR IN CONNECTION WITH, THE SALE OR DISTRIBUTION THEREOF. NO SUCH SALE OR DISPOSITION MAY BE EFFECTED WITHOUT AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT RELATED THERETO OR AN OPINION OF COUNSEL SATISFACTORY TO THE COMPANY THAT SUCH REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED UNDER THE [ACT], AS AMENDED.

Statutory Stock Option

1. Grant of Option

The Company hereby grants to Optionee an option (the “Option”) to purchase the total number of shares of Common Stock of the Company set forth above (the “Shares”) at the Exercise Price Per Share set forth above (the “Exercise Price”), subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Plan. If designated as an Incentive Stock Option above, the Option is intended to qualify as an “incentive stock option” (“ISO”) within the meaning of Section [number] of the [CODE], as amended (the “Code”). Only Employees of the Company shall receive ISOs.

2. Exercise Price

The Exercise Price, is not less than the fair market value per share of Common Stock on the date of grant, as determined by the Board; provided, however, in the event Optionee is an Employee and owns stock representing more than [%] of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or of its Parent or Subsidiary corporations immediately before this Option is granted, said exercise price is not less than one hundred ten percent [%] of the fair market value per share of Common Stock on the date of grant as determined by the Board.

3. Exercise of Option

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

This Option shall be exercisable during its term in accordance with the provisions of [PLAN] as follows:

a. Vesting

- i. This Option shall not become exercisable as to any of the number of the Shares as follows (check one):

Four Year Vesting:

Until the date that is [NUMBER] year from the date of grant of the Option (the "Anniversary Date"). On the Anniversary Date, this Option may be exercised to the extent of [%] of the Shares. Upon the expiration of each calendar month from the Anniversary Date, this Option may be exercised to the extent of the product of (a) the total number of Shares set forth at the beginning of this Agreement and (b) the fraction the numerator of which is [NUMBER] and the denominator of which is [NUMBER] (the "Monthly Vesting Amount"), plus the shares as to which the right to exercise the Option has previously accrued but has not been exercised; provided, however, that notwithstanding any of the above, the [%] exercisable on the Anniversary Date and the Monthly Vesting Amount with respect to any calendar month shall become exercisable only if the Employee was an employee of the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company as of the Anniversary Date and the last day of such month, respectively. Any time that the Optionee is on leave or is absent from performing services for the Company shall not be counted towards the vesting provided herein.

Alternate Vesting Schedule: As follows:

- ii. This Option may not be exercised for a fraction of a Share.
- iii. In the event of Optionee's death, disability or other termination of employment, the exercisability of the Option is governed by Sections 7, 8 and 9 below, subject to the limitations contained in subsection 3(i)(d).
- iv. In no event may this Option be exercised after the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below.

OBJECTION MY LORD

b. Method of Exercise

This Option shall be exercisable by written notice which shall state the election to exercise the Option, the number of Shares in respect of which the Option is being exercised, and such other representations and agreements as to the holder's investment intent with respect to such shares of Common Stock as may be required by the Company pursuant to the provisions of the Plan. Such written notice shall be signed by Optionee and shall be delivered in person or by certified mail to the President, Secretary or Chief Financial Officer of the Company. The written notice shall be accompanied by payment of the exercise price.

No Shares will be issued pursuant to the exercise of an Option unless such issuance and such exercise shall comply with all relevant provisions of law and the requirements of any stock exchange upon which the Shares may then be listed. Assuming such compliance, for income tax purposes the Shares shall be considered transferred to the Optionee on the date on which the Option is exercised with respect to such Shares.

- c. Adjustments, Merger, etc. The number and class of the Shares and/or the exercise price specified above are subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of changes in the capital stock of the Company by reason of stock dividends, split-ups or combinations of shares, reclassifications, mergers, consolidations, reorganizations or liquidations. Subject to any required action of the shareholders of the Company, if the Company shall be the surviving corporation in any merger or consolidation, this Option (to the extent that it is still outstanding) shall pertain to and apply to the securities to which a holder of the same number of shares of Common Stock that are then subject to this Option would have been entitled. A dissolution or liquidation of the Company, or a merger or consolidation in which the Company is not the surviving corporation, will cause this Option to terminate, unless the agreement or merger or consolidation shall otherwise provide, provided that the Optionee shall, if the Board expressly authorizes, in such event have the right immediately prior to such dissolution or liquidation, or merger or consolidation, to exercise this Option in whole or part. To the extent that the foregoing adjustments relate to stock or securities of the Company, such adjustments shall be made by the Board, whose determination in that respect shall be final, binding and conclusive.

4. Optionee's Representations

- a. By receipt of this Option, by its execution, and by its exercise in whole or in part, Optionee represents to the Company that Optionee understands that:
 - b. Both this Option and any Shares purchased upon its exercise are securities, the issuance by the Company of which requires compliance with federal and state securities laws;
 - c. These securities are made available to Optionee only on the condition that Optionee makes the representations contained in this Section 4 to the Company;
 - d. Optionee has made a reasonable investigation of the affairs of the Company sufficient to be well informed as to the rights and the value of these securities;
 - e. Optionee understands that the securities have not been registered under the [ACT], as amended (the "Act") in reliance upon one or more specific exemptions contained in the Act, which may include reliance on [RULE] promulgated under the Act, if available, or which may depend upon (a) Optionee's bona fide investment intention in acquiring these securities; (b) Optionee's intention to hold these securities in compliance with federal and state securities laws; (c) Optionee having no present intention of selling or transferring any part thereof (recognizing that the Option is not transferable) in violation of applicable federal and state securities laws; and (d) there being certain restrictions on transfer of the Shares subject to the Option;
 - f. Optionee understands that the Shares subject to this Option, in addition to other restrictions on transfer, must be held indefinitely unless subsequently registered under the Act, or unless an exemption from registration is available; that [RULE], the usual exemption from registration, is only available after the satisfaction of certain holding periods and in the presence of a public market for the Shares; that there is no certainty that a public market for the Shares will exist, and that otherwise it will be necessary that the Shares be sold pursuant to another exemption from registration which may be difficult to satisfy; and

- g. Optionee understands that the certificate representing the Shares will bear a legend prohibiting their transfer in the absence of their registration or the opinion of counsel for the Company that registration is not required, and a legend prohibiting their transfer in compliance with applicable state securities laws unless otherwise exempted.

5. Method of Payment

Payment of the purchase price shall be made by cash, check or, in the sole discretion of the Board at the time of exercise, promissory notes or other Shares of Common Stock having a fair market value on the date of surrender equal to the aggregate purchase price of the Shares being purchased.

6. Restrictions on Exercise

This Option may not be exercised if the issuance of such Shares upon such exercise or the method of payment of consideration for such Shares would constitute a violation of any applicable law or regulation. As a condition to the exercise of this Option, the Company may require Optionee to make any representation and warranty to the Company as may be required by any applicable law or regulation.

7. Termination of Status as an Employee

In the event of termination of Optionee's Continuous Status as an Employee for any reason other than death or disability, Optionee may, but only within [NUMBER] days after the date of such termination (but in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), exercise this Option to the extent that Optionee was entitled to exercise it at the date of such termination. To the extent that Optionee was not entitled to exercise this Option at the date of such termination, or if Optionee does not exercise this Option within the time specified herein, this Option shall terminate.

8. Disability of Optionee

In the event of termination of Optionee's Continuous Status as an Employee as a result of Optionee's disability, Optionee may, but only within [NUMBER] months from the date of termination of employment (but in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), exercise this Option to the extent Optionee was entitled to exercise it at the date of such termination; provided, however that if the disability is not total and permanent and the Optionee exercises the option within the period provided above but more than three months after the date of termination, this Option shall automatically be deemed to be a Non-statutory Stock Option and not an Incentive Stock Option; and provided, further, that if the disability is total and permanent then the Optionee may, but only within [NUMBER] year from the date of termination of employment (but in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), exercise this Option to the extent Optionee was entitled to exercise it at the date of such termination. To the extent that Optionee was not entitled to exercise this Option at the date of termination, or if Optionee does not exercise such Option within the time periods specified herein, this Option shall terminate.

9. Death of Optionee

In the event of the death of Optionee:

- e. During the term of this Option while an Employee of the Company and having been in Continuous Status as an Employee since the date of grant of this Option, this Option may be exercised, at any time within [NUMBER] year following the date of death (but, in case of an Incentive Stock Option, in no event later than the date of expiration of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), by Optionee's estate or by a person who acquired the right to exercise the Option by bequest or inheritance, but only to the extent of the right to exercise that had accrued at the time of death of the Optionee. To the extent that such Employee was not entitled to exercise the Option at the date of death, or if such Employee, estate or other person does not exercise such Option (which such Employee, estate or person was entitled to exercise) within the [NUMBER] years time period specified herein, the Option shall terminate; or
- f. During the [NUMBER] day period specified in Section 7 or the [NUMBER] year period specified in Section 8, after the termination of Optionee's Continuous Status as an Employee, this Option may be exercised, at any time within [NUMBER] year following the date of death (but, in the case of an Incentive Stock Option, in no event later than the date of expiration of the term of this Option as set forth in Section 11 below), by Optionee's estate or by a person who acquired the right to exercise this Option by bequest or inheritance, but only to the extent of the right to exercise that had accrued at the date of termination. To the extent that such Employee was not entitled to exercise this Option at the date of death, or if such Employee, estate or other person does not exercise such Option (which such Employee, estate or person was entitled to exercise) within the [NUMBER] year time period specified herein, this Option shall terminate.

10. Non-Transferability of Option

This Option may not be transferred in any manner otherwise than by will or by the laws of descent or distribution and may be exercised during the lifetime of Optionee, only by Optionee. The terms of this Option shall be binding upon the executors, administrators, heirs, successors and assigns of Optionee.

11. Term of Option

This Option may not be exercised more than [Number of years] years from the date of grant of this Option, and may be exercised during such term only in accordance with the Plan and terms of this Option; provided, however, that the term of this option, if it is a Non-statutory Stock Option, may be extended for the period set forth in Section 9(a) or Section 9(b) in the circumstances set forth in such Sections.

12. Early Disposition of Stock; Taxation Upon Exercise of Option

If Optionee is an Employee and the Option qualifies as an ISO, Optionee understands that, if Optionee disposes of any Shares received under this Option within [NUMBER] years after the date of this Agreement or within [NUMBER] year after such Shares were transferred to Optionee, Optionee will be treated for federal income tax purposes as having received ordinary income at the time of such disposition in any amount generally measured as the difference between the price paid for the Shares and the lower of the fair market value of the Shares at the date of exercise or the fair market value of the Shares at the of disposition. Any gain recognized on such premature sale of the Shares in excess of the amount treated as ordinary income will be characterized as capital gain. Optionee hereby agrees to notify the Company in writing within [NUMBER] days after the date of any such disposition. Optionee understands that if Optionee disposes of such Shares at any time after the expiration of such two-year and one-year holding periods, any gain on such sale will be treated as long-term capital gain laws subject to meeting various qualifications. If Optionee is a Consultant or this is a Non-statutory Stock Option, Optionee understands that, upon exercise of this Option, Optionee will recognize income for tax purposes in an amount equal to the excess of the then fair market value of the Shares over the exercise price. Upon a resale of such shares by the Optionee, any difference between the sale price and the fair market value of the Shares on the date of exercise of the Option will be treated as capital gain or loss. Optionee understands that the Company will be required to withhold tax from Optionee's current compensation in some of the circumstances described above; to the extent that Optionee's current compensation is insufficient to satisfy the withholding tax liability, the Company may require the Optionee to make a cash payment to cover such liability as a condition to exercise of this Option.

13. Tax Consequences

The Optionee understands that any of the foregoing references to taxation are based on federal income tax laws and regulations now in effect, and may not be applicable to the Optionee under certain circumstances. The Optionee may also have adverse tax consequences under state or local law. The Optionee has reviewed with the Optionee's own tax advisors the federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Optionee is relying solely on such advisors and not on any statements or representations of the Company or any of its agents. The Optionee understands that the Optionee (and not the Company) shall be responsible for the Optionee's own tax liability that may arise as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

14. Severability; Construction

In the event that any provision in this Option shall be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be severable from, and such invalidity or unenforceability shall not be construed to have any effect on, the remaining provisions of this Option. This Option shall be construed as to its fair meaning and not for or against either party.

15. Damages

The parties agree that any violation of this Option (other than a default in the payment of money) cannot be compensated for by damages, and any aggrieved party shall have the right, and is hereby granted the privilege, of obtaining specific performance of this Option in any court of competent jurisdiction in the event of any breach hereunder.

16. Governing Law

This Option shall be deemed to be made under and governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of [State]. Jurisdiction for any disputes hereunder shall be solely in [City], [State].

OBJECTION MY LORD

17. Delay

No delay or failure on the part of the Company or the Optionee in the exercise of any right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise by any of them of any right, power or remedy preclude other or further exercise thereof, or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy.

18. Restrictions

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Optionee understands and agrees that Optionee shall not dispose of any of the Shares, whether by sale, exchange, assignment, transfer, gift, devise, bequest, mortgage, pledge, encumbrance or otherwise, except in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Section 18, and Optionee shall not take or omit any action which will impair the absolute and unrestricted right, power, authority and capacity of Optionee to sell Shares in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof.

Any purported transfer of Shares by Optionee that violates any provision of this Section 18 shall be wholly void and ineffectual and shall give to the Company or its designee the right to purchase from Optionee all but not less than all of the Shares then owned by Optionee for a period of [NUMBER] days from the date the Company first learns of the purported transfer at the Agreement Price and on the Agreement Terms. If the Shares are not purchased by the Company or its designee, the purported transfer thereof shall remain void and ineffectual and they shall continue to be subject to this Agreement.

The Company shall not cause or permit the transfer of any Shares to be made on its books except in accordance with the terms hereof.

a. 1) Permitted Transfers

- i. Optionee may sell, assign or transfer any Shares held by the Optionee but only by complying with the provisions of subsection (b)(1) of this Section 18.
- ii. Optionee may sell, assign or transfer any Shares held by the Optionee without complying with the provisions of subsection (b)(1) by obtaining the prior written consent of the Company's shareholders owning [%] of the then issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock (determined on a fully diluted basis) or a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company, provided that the transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the provisions of this Option and the transfer is made in accordance with any other restrictions or conditions contained in the written consent and in accordance with applicable federal and state securities laws.

- iii. Upon the death of Optionee, Shares held by the Optionee may be transferred to the personal representative of the Optionee's estate without complying with the provisions of subsection (b)(1). Shares so transferred shall be subject to the other provisions of this Option, including in particular subsection (b)(2).

a. 2) No Pledge

Unless a majority of the members of the Board of Directors consent, Shares may not be pledged, mortgaged or otherwise encumbered to secure indebtedness for money borrowed or any other obligation for which the Optionee is primarily or secondarily liable.

a. 3) Stock Certificate Legend

Each stock certificate for Shares issued to the Optionee shall have conspicuously written, printed, typed or stamped upon the face thereof, or upon the reverse thereof with a conspicuous reference on the face thereof, one or both of the following legend:

- v. THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE BEEN ISSUED WITHOUT REGISTRATION UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, AND MAY NOT BE TRANSFERRED IN THE ABSENCE OF REGISTRATION THEREUNDER OR AN APPLICABLE EXEMPTION FROM THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF SUCH ACT. SUCH SHARES MAY NOT BE SOLD, ASSIGNED, TRANSFERRED, OR OTHERWISE DISPOSED OF IN ANY MANNER EXCEPT IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT, A COPY OF WHICH IS ON FILE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF THE COMPANY. UNLESS A MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS CONSENT, SUCH STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT PROHIBITS ANY PLEDGE, MORTGAGE OR OTHER ENCUMBRANCE OF SUCH SHARES TO SECURE ANY OBLIGATION OF THE HOLDER HEREOF. EVERY CREDITOR OF THE HOLDER HEREOF AND ANY PERSON ACQUIRING OR PURPORTING TO ACQUIRE THIS CERTIFICATE OR THE SHARES HEREBY EVIDENCED OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN

IS HEREBY NOTIFIED OF THE EXISTENCE OF SUCH STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT, AND ANY ACQUISITION OR PURPORTED ACQUISITION OF THIS CERTIFICATE OR THE SHARES HEREBY EVIDENCED OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN SHALL BE SUBJECT TO ALL RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES TO SUCH STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT AS THEREIN SET FORTH.

- vi. IT IS UNLAWFUL TO CONSUMMATE A SALE OR TRANSFER OF THIS SECURITY, OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN, OR TO RECEIVE ANY CONSIDERATION THEREFOR, WITHOUT THE PRIOR WRITTEN CONSENT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF CORPORATIONS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, EXCEPT AS PERMITTED IN THE COMMISSIONER'S RULES.

b. 1) Sales of Shares

- v. Company's Right of First Refusal. In the event that the Optionee shall desire to sell, assign or transfer any Shares held by the Optionee to any other person (the "Offered Shares") and shall be in receipt of a bona fide offer to purchase the Offered Shares ("Offer"), the following procedure shall apply. The Optionee shall give to the Company written notice containing the terms and conditions of the Offer, including, but not limited to (a) the number of Offered Shares; (b) the price per Share; (c) the method of payment; and (d) the name(s) of the proposed purchaser(s).

An offer shall not be deemed bona fide unless the Optionee has informed the prospective purchaser of the Optionee's obligation under this Option and the prospective purchaser has agreed to become a party hereunder and to be bound hereby. The Company is entitled to take such steps as it reasonably may deem necessary to determine the validity and bona fide nature of the Offer.

Until [NUMBER] days after such notice is given, the Company or its designee shall have the right to purchase all of the Offered Shares at the price offered by the prospective purchaser and specified in such notice. Such purchase shall be on the Agreement Terms, as defined in subsection (b)(4).

- vi. Failure of Company or its Designee to Purchase Offered Shares. If all of the Offered Shares are not purchased by the Company and/or its designee within the [NUMBER]-day period granted for such purchases, then any remaining Offered Shares may be sold, assigned or transferred pursuant to the Offer; provided, that the Offered Shares are so transferred within [NUMBER] days of the expiration of the [NUMBER]-day period to the person or persons named in, and under the terms and conditions of, the bona fide Offer described in the notice to the Company; and provided further, that such persons agree to execute and deliver to the Company a written agreement, in form and content satisfactory to the Company, agreeing to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Option.

b. 2) Manner of Exercise

Any right to purchase hereunder shall be exercised by giving written notice of election to the Optionee, the Optionee's personal representative or any other selling person, as the case may be, prior to the expiration of such right to purchase.

b. 3) Agreement Price

The "Agreement Price" shall be the higher of (A) the fair market value of the Shares to be purchased determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company and (B) the original exercise price of the Shares to be purchased.

b. 4) Agreement Terms

"Agreement Terms" shall mean and include the following:

- v. Delivery of Shares and Closing Date. At the closing, the Optionee, the Optionee's personal representative or such other selling person, as the case may be, shall deliver certificates representing the Shares, properly endorsed for transfer, and with the necessary documentary and transfer tax stamps, if any, affixed, to the purchaser of such Shares. Payment of the purchase price therefore shall concurrently be made to the Optionee, the Optionee's personal representative or such other selling person, as provided in subsection (ii) of this subsection (b)(4). Such delivery and payment shall be made at the principal office of the Company or at such other place as the parties mutually agree.
- vi. Payment of Purchase Price. The Company shall pay the purchase price to the Optionee at the closing.

b. 5) Right to Purchase Upon Certain Other Events

The Company or its designee shall have the right to purchase all, but not less than all, of the Shares held by the Optionee at the Agreement Price and on the Agreement Terms for a period of [NUMBER] days after any of the following events:

- xi. an attempt by a creditor to levy upon or sell any of the Optionee's Shares;
- xii. the filing of a petition by the Optionee under the [COUNTRY] Bankruptcy Code or any insolvency laws;

OBJECTION MY LORD

- xiii. the filing of a petition against Optionee under any insolvency or bankruptcy laws by any creditor of the Optionee if such petition is not dismissed within [NUMBER] days of filing;
- xiv. the entry of a decree of divorce between the Optionee and the Optionee's spouse; or
- xv. If Optionee is an employee of the Company, upon the termination of Optionee's services as an employee.

The Optionee shall provide the Company written notice of the occurrence of any such event within [NUMBER] days of such event.

c. 1) Termination

This Agreement does not create any form of continued business relationship other than as set forth in a separate written agreement signed and dated by all parties.

CHECKLIST TEMPORARY HELP AGENCY SCREENING

Before you call the temporary help agency, ask yourself what you need

- Do you need a last-minute fill-in for an absent employee?
- How long will you need the temporary? If the need is long term, estimate the length of time.
- What hours will the temporary need to work?
- What particular skills will your temporary worker need to have? Consider:
 - Specific computer and software skills
 - Public contact skills (in person or on the phone)

Once you know what you need, pick a few agencies from the phone book and assess their:

- Responsiveness and professionalism
- How many times did the phone ring before it was answered?
- Was the person courteous and helpful?
- Did the person ask meaningful questions, give you clear answers to your questions, and make sure you were fully informed?
- Ability to meet your needs
 - Does the firm specialize in placing the kinds of workers you need?
 - Does the firm have workers in your geographic location?
 - What customer service and satisfaction features does the firm have?
 - Are the agency's rates competitive for the kind of worker you need?

After you've called a few agencies and have narrowed your selection to a few possibilities, make an appointment to visit those agencies to discuss more specifically what you need. When you visit, be sure to cover the following points:

- How are temporary workers tested and screened?
 - What benefits are offered to workers (better benefits attract better workers)?
 - Pricing information:
 - What are the billing rates?
 - How are workers categorized into skill levels and corresponding pay rates?
 - Payment information
 - What methods of payment are acceptable?
 - When is payment due for the services provided?
 - If you want to permanently hire the temp worker, how much you will have to pay the temporary agency?
 - Does the agency carry workers' comp, liability insurance, and errors and omission insurance?
 - Are employees and workers bonded?

After you have collected this information, you should be able to make a more informed decision about which agency will be able to help you. In making your decision, be sure to:

- Check the agency's references
- Contact the Better Business Bureau and Chamber of Commerce for information on the agencies
- Check with other business owners and colleagues

3. Proprietary Rights, Inventions and New Ideas

3.1. Definition

The term "Subject Ideas or Inventions" includes any and all ideas, processes, trademarks, service marks, inventions, designs, technologies, computer hardware or software, original works of authorship, formulas, discoveries, patents, copyrights, copyrightable works products, marketing and business ideas, and all improvements, know-how, data, rights, and claims related to the foregoing that, whether or not patentable, which are conceived, developed or created which: (1) relate to the Company's current or contemplated business; (2) relate to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development; (3) result from any work performed by the Consultant for the Company; (4) involve the use of the Company's equipment, supplies, facilities or trade secrets; (5) result from or are suggested by any work done by the Company or at the Company's request, or any projects specifically assigned to the Consultant; or (6) result from the access to any of the Company's memoranda, notes, records, drawings, sketches, models, maps, customer lists, research results, data, formulae, specifications, inventions, processes, equipment or other materials (collectively, "Company Materials").

3.2. Company Ownership

All right, title and interest in and to all Subject Ideas and Inventions, including but not limited to all registrable and patent rights which may subsist therein, shall be held and owned solely by the Company, and where applicable, all Subject Ideas and Inventions shall be considered works made for hire. The Consultant shall mark all Subject Ideas and Inventions with the Company's copyright or other proprietary notice as directed by the Company and shall take all actions deemed necessary by the Company to protect the Company's rights therein. In the event that the Subject Ideas and Inventions shall be deemed not to constitute works made for hire, or in the event that the Consultant should otherwise, by operation of law, be deemed to retain any rights (whether moral rights or otherwise) to any Subject Ideas and Inventions, the Consultant agrees to assign to the Company, without further consideration, its entire right, title and interest in and to each and every such Subject Idea and Invention.

3.3. Disclosure

The Consultant agrees to disclose promptly to the Company full details of any and all Subject Ideas and Inventions.

3.4. Maintenance of Records

The Consultant agrees to keep and maintain adequate and current written records of all Subject Ideas and Inventions and their development made by the Consultant (solely or jointly with others) during the term of the relationship with the Company. These records will be in the form of notes, sketches, drawings, and any other format that may be specified by the Company. These records will be available to and remain the sole property of the Company at all times.

3.5. Determination of Subject Ideas and Inventions

The Consultant further agrees that all information and records pertaining to any idea, process, trademark, service mark, invention, technology, computer hardware or software, original work of authorship, design, formula, discovery, patent, copyright, product, and all improvements, know-how, rights, and claims related to the foregoing ("Intellectual Property"), that the Consultant does not believe to be a Subject Idea or Invention, but that is conceived, developed, or reduced to practice by the Company (alone by the Consultant or with others) during the relationship with the Company and for one (1) year thereafter, shall be disclosed promptly by the Consultant to the Company. The Company shall examine such information to determine if in fact the Intellectual Property is a Subject Idea or Invention subject to this Agreement.

3.6. Access

Because of the difficulty of establishing when any Subject Ideas or Inventions are first conceived by the Consultant, or whether it results from the access to Confidential Information or Company Materials, the Consultant agrees that any Subject Idea and Invention shall, among other circumstances, be deemed to have resulted from its access to Company Materials if: (1) it grew out of or resulted from the work with the Company or is related to the business of the Company, and (2) it is made, used, sold, exploited or reduced to practice, or an application for patent, trademark, copyright or other proprietary protection is filed thereon, by the Consultant or with its significant aid, within one year after termination of the relationship with the Company.

OBJECTION MY LORD

3.7. Assistance

The Consultant further agrees to assist the Company in every proper way (but at the Company's expense) to obtain and from time to time enforce patents, copyrights or other rights or registrations on said Subject Ideas and Inventions in any and all countries, and to that end will execute all documents necessary:

- a. To apply for, obtain and vest in the name of the Company alone (unless the Company otherwise directs) letters patent, copyrights or other analogous protection in any country throughout the world and when so obtained or vested to renew and restore the same; and;
- b. To defend any opposition proceedings in respect of such applications and any opposition proceedings or petitions or applications for revocation of such letters patent, copyright or other analogous protection; and;
- c. To cooperate with the Company (but at the Company's expense) in any enforcement or infringement proceeding on such letters patent, copyright or other analogous protection.

3.8. Authorization to Company

In the event the Company is unable, after reasonable effort, to secure the Consultant's signature on any patent, copyright or other analogous protection relating to a Subject Idea and Invention, whether because of the Consultant's physical or mental incapacity or for any other reason whatsoever, the Consultant hereby irrevocably designate and appoint the Company and its duly authorized officers and agents as its agent and attorney-in-fact, to act for and on its behalf and stead to execute and file any such application, applications or other documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the prosecution, issuance, and enforcement of letters patent, copyright or other analogous rights or protections thereon with the same legal force and effect as if executed by the Consultant. The Consultant's obligation to assist the Company in obtaining and enforcing patents and copyrights for Subject Ideas and Inventions in any and all countries shall continue beyond the termination of the relationship with the Company, but the Company shall compensate the Consultant at a reasonable rate after such termination for time actually spent by the Consultant at the Company's request on such assistance.

3.9. Acknowledgement

The Consultant acknowledges that there are no currently existing ideas, processes, inventions, discoveries, marketing or business ideas or improvements which I desire to exclude from the operation of this Agreement. To the best of the Consultant's knowledge, there is no other contract to assign inventions, trademarks, copyrights, ideas, processes, discoveries or other intellectual property that is now in existence between the Consultant and any other person (including any business or governmental entity).

3.10. No Use of Name

4. Competitive Activity

4.1. Acknowledgment

The Consultant acknowledges that the pursuit of the activities forbidden by Section 4.2 below would necessarily involve the use, disclosure or misappropriation of Confidential Information.

4.2. Prohibited Activity

To prevent the above-described disclosure, misappropriation and breach, the Consultant agrees that during the relationship and for a period of one (1) year thereafter, without the Company's express written consent, the Consultant shall not, directly or indirectly, (i) employ, solicit for employment, or recommend for employment any person employed by the Company (or any Affiliate); and (ii) engage in any present or contemplated business activity that is or may be competitive with the Company (or any Affiliate) in any state where the Company conducts its business, unless the Consultant can prove that any action taken in contravention of this subsection (ii) was done without the use in any way of Confidential Information.

5. Representations and Warranties

OBJECTION MY LORD

The Consultant represents and warrants (i) that it has no obligations, legal or otherwise, inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement or with its undertaking a relationship with the Company; (ii) that the performance of the services called for by this Agreement do not and will not violate any applicable law, rule or regulation or any proprietary or other right of any third party; (iii) that the Consultant will not use in the performance of its responsibilities for the Company any confidential information or trade secrets of any other person or entity; and (iv) that the Consultant has not entered into or will enter into any agreement (whether oral or written) in conflict with this Agreement.

6. Termination Obligations

- a. Upon the termination of the relationship with the Company or promptly upon the Company's request, the Consultant shall surrender to the Company all equipment, tangible Proprietary Information, documents, books, notebooks, records, reports, notes, memoranda, drawings, sketches, models, maps, contracts, lists, computer disks (and other computer-generated files and data), any other data and records of any kind, and copies thereof (collectively, "Company Records"), created on any medium and furnished to, obtained by, or prepared by the Consultant in the course of or incident to the relationship with the Company, that are in its possession or under its control.
- b. The consultant's representations, warranties, and obligations contained in this Agreement shall survive the termination of the relationship with the Company.
- c. Following any termination of the relationship with the Company, the Consultant will fully cooperate with the Company in all matters relating to its continuing obligations under this Agreement.
- d. The Consultant hereby grants consent to notification by the Company to any of its future companies the Consultant consults with about its rights and obligations under this Agreement.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- e. Upon termination of its relationship with the Company, the Consultant will execute a Certificate acknowledging compliance with this Agreement in the form reasonably requested by the Company.

7. Injunctive Relief

The Consultant acknowledges that its failure to carry out any obligation under this Agreement, or a breach by the Consultant of any provision herein, will constitute immediate and irreparable damage to the Company, which cannot be fully and adequately compensated in money damages and which will warrant preliminary and other injunctive relief, an order for specific performance, and other equitable relief. The Consultant further agrees that no bond or other security shall be required in obtaining such equitable relief and hereby consents to the issuance of such injunction and to the ordering of specific performance. The Consultant also understand that other action may be taken and remedies enforced against the Consultant.

8. Modification

No modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by both parties.

9. Binding Effect

This Agreement shall be binding upon the Consultant, its heirs, executors, assigns and administrators and is for the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns.

10. Governing Law

It is intended to be the final, complete, and exclusive statement of the terms of the parties' agreements regarding these subjects. This Agreement supersedes all other prior and contemporaneous agreements and statements on these subjects, and it may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous statements or agreements. To the extent that the practices, policies, or procedures of the Company, now or in the future, apply to the Consultant and are inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement shall control unless changed in writing by the Company.

12. Not Employment

This Agreement is not an employment agreement as the Consultant is an independent consultant. The Consultant understand that the Company may terminate its association with it at any time, with or without cause, subject to the terms of any separate written consulting agreement executed by a duly authorized officer of the Company.

13. Construction

This Agreement shall be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning, and not in favor of or against any party. By way of example and not limitation, this Agreement shall not be construed against the party responsible for any language in this Agreement. The headings of the paragraphs hereof are inserted for convenience only, and do not constitute part of and shall not be used to interpret this Agreement.

14. Attorneys' Fees

Should either the Consultant or the Company, or any heir, personal representative, successor or permitted assign of either party, resort to legal proceedings to enforce this Agreement, the prevailing party in such legal proceeding shall be awarded, in addition to such other relief as may be granted, attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with such proceeding.

15. Severability

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

If any term, provision, covenant or condition of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, place or circumstance, shall be held to be invalid, unenforceable or void, the remainder of this Agreement and such term, provision, covenant or condition as applied to other persons, places and circumstances shall remain in full force and effect.

16. Rights Cumulative

The rights and remedies provided by this Agreement are cumulative, and the exercise of any right or remedy by either the Company or the Consultant (or by that party's successor), whether pursuant hereto, to any other agreement, or to law, shall not preclude or waive that party's right to exercise any or all other rights and remedies. This Agreement will inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns.

17. Nonwaiver

The failure of either the Company or the Consultant, whether purposeful or otherwise, to exercise in any instance any right, power or privilege under this Agreement or under law shall not constitute a waiver of any other right, power or privilege, nor of the same right, power or privilege in any other instance. Any waiver by the Company or by the Consultant must be in writing and signed by either the Consultant, if the Consultant is seeking to waive any of its rights under this Agreement, or by an officer of the Company or some other person duly authorized by the Company.

18. Notices

Any notice, request, consent or approval required or permitted to be given under this Agreement or pursuant to law shall be sufficient if it is in writing, and if and when it is hand delivered or sent by regular mail, with postage prepaid, to the Consultant's principal office, or to the Company's principal office, as the case may be.

19. Agreement to Perform Necessary Acts

The Consultant agree to perform any further acts and execute and deliver any documents that may be reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

OBJECTION MY LORD

OBJECTION MY LORD

7. Termination of Consulting Relationship

7.1. By the Company or the Consultant

At any time, either the Company or the Consultant may terminate, without liability, the Consulting Period for any reason, with or without cause, by giving [agreed upon number of days] days advance written notice to the other party. If the Consultant terminates its consulting relationship with the Company pursuant to this Section 4(d), the Company shall have the option, in its complete discretion, to terminate Consultant immediately without the running of any notice period. The Company shall pay Consultant the compensation to which the Consultant is entitled pursuant to Section 3(a) through the end of the Consulting Period, and thereafter all obligations of the Company shall terminate.

7.2. Termination Due to Bankruptcy, Receivership

The Consulting Period shall terminate and the Company's obligations hereunder (including the obligation to pay Consultant compensation under Section 3(a)) shall cease upon the occurrence of: (i) the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, or trustee for the Company by decree of competent authority in connection with any adjudication or determination by such authority that the Company is bankrupt or insolvent; (ii) the filing by the Company of a petition in voluntary bankruptcy, the making of an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or the entering into of a composition with its creditors; or (iii) any formal action of the Board to terminate the Company's existence or otherwise to wind up the Company's affairs.

Any purported assignment, transfer, or delegation shall be null and void. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the consolidation of the Company with, or its merger into, any other corporation, or the sale by the Company of all or substantially all of its properties or assets, or the assignment by the Company of this Agreement and the performance of its obligations hereunder to any successor in interest or any Affiliated Company. Except to the extent that the Consultant's work must be performed on or with Company's computers or Company's existing software, all materials used in providing the services shall be provided by Consultant. OBJECTION MY LORD

Paragraph 10 hereof. Company shall not provide any insurance coverage of any kind for Consultant or Consultant's staff, and Company will not withhold any amount that would normally be withheld from an employee's pay. Consultant shall take appropriate measures to insure that Consultant's staff is competent and that they do not breach Section 4 hereof.

The final arbitration decision shall be enforceable through the courts of the state of Consultant's address or any other state in which the Company resides or may be located. In the event that this arbitration provision is held unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, then this contract shall be as binding and enforceable as if this section 8 were not a part hereof.

19. Taxes

Any and all taxes, except income taxes, imposed or assessed by reason of this contract or its performance, including but not limited to sales or use taxes, shall be paid by the Client. Consultants shall be responsible for any taxes or penalties assessed by reason of any claims that Consultant is an employee of Company and Company and Consultant specifically agree that Consultant is not an employee of Client.

20. Liability

Special requirements for format or standards to be followed shall be attached as an additional Exhibit and executed by both Company and Consultant. Consultant makes no other warranties, whether written, oral or implied, including without limitation, warranty of fitness for purpose or merchantability. In no event shall Consultant be liable for special or consequential damages, either in contract or tort, whether or not the possibility of such damages has been disclosed to Consultant in advance or could have been reasonably foreseen by Consultant, and in the event this limitation of damages is held unenforceable then the parties agree that by reason of the difficulty in foreseeing possible damages all liability to Company shall be limited to [AMOUNT] as liquidated damages and not as a penalty.

21. Non-Competition

If this Consulting Agreement with the Company terminates for any reason, the Consultant will not, for a period of two years from the date of termination, have any business dealings whatsoever, either directly or indirectly through associates with any customer or client of the Company or its subsidiaries or any person or firm with whom the Consultant has made contact in connection with his consulting activities for the Company; and the Consultant will keep in strictest confidence, both during the term of this Agreement and subsequent to termination of this Agreement, and will not during the term of this Agreement or thereafter disclose or divulge to any person, firm or corporation, or use directly or indirectly, for his own benefit or the benefit of others, any information which in good faith and good conscience ought to be treated as confidential information including, without limitation, information relating to the software developed by the Company, information as to sources of, and arrangements for, hardware

In the event of an actual or threatened breach by the Consultant of the provisions of this paragraph, the Company shall be entitled to injunctive relief restraining the Consultant from the breach or threatened breach. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the Company from pursuing any other remedies available to the Company for such breach or threatened breach, including the recovery of damages from the Consultant.

22. Enforceable

The provisions of this Agreement shall be enforceable notwithstanding the existence of any claim or cause of action of the Consultant against the Company whether predicated on this Agreement or otherwise.

23. Representations and Warranties

Consultant represents and warrants (i) that Consultant has no obligations, legal or otherwise, inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement or with Consultant's undertaking this relationship with the Company, (ii) that the performance of the services called for by this Agreement do not and will not violate any applicable law, rule or regulation or any proprietary or other right of any third party, (iii) that Consultant will not use in the performance of his responsibilities under this Agreement any confidential information or trade secrets of any other person or entity and (iv) that Consultant has not entered into or will enter into any agreement (whether oral or written) in conflict with this Agreement.

24. Injunctive Relief

The Consultant acknowledges that disclosure of any Confidential Information by him will give rise to irreparable injury to the Company or the owner of such information, inadequately compensable in damages. Accordingly, the Company or such other party may seek and obtain injunctive relief against the breach or threatened breach of the foregoing undertakings, in addition to any other legal remedies which may be available. The Consultant further acknowledges and agrees that in the event of the termination of this Agreement his experience and capabilities are such that he can obtain a consulting arrangement or employment in business activities which are either (1) of a different or non-competing nature with his activities as a consultant for the Company, or (2) are carried on in a different geographic location; and that the enforcement of a remedy hereunder by way of injunction will not prevent him from earning a reasonable livelihood.

The Consultant further acknowledges and agrees that the covenants contained herein are necessary for the protection of the Company's legitimate business interests and are reasonable in scope and content.

25. Complete Agreement

This agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the matters covered herein. No other agreements, representations, warranties or other matters, oral or written, purportedly agreed to or represented by or on behalf of Consultant by any of its employees or agents, or contained in any sales materials or brochures, shall be deemed to bind the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. Company acknowledges that it is entering into this Agreement solely on the basis of the representations contained herein.

26. Indemnification

Consultant hereby indemnifies and agrees to defend and hold harmless the Company from and against any and all claims, demands and actions, and any liabilities, damages or expenses resulting there from, including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of or relating to the services performed by Consultant under this Agreement or the representations and warranties made by Consultant pursuant to paragraph 7 hereof. Consultant's obligations under this paragraph 8 hereof shall survive the termination, for any reason, of this Agreement.

27. Attorney's Fees

Should either party hereto, or any heir, personal representative, successor or assign of either party hereto, resort to litigation to enforce this Agreement, the party or parties prevailing in such litigation shall be entitled, in addition to such other relief as may be granted, to recover its or their reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in such litigation from the party or parties against whom enforcement was sought.

28. Nonwaiver

No failure or neglect of either party hereto in any instance to exercise any right, power or privilege hereunder or under law shall constitute a waiver of any other right, power or privilege or of the same right, power or privilege in any other instance. All waivers by either party hereto must be contained in a written instrument signed by the party to be charged and, in the case of the Company, by an executive officer of the Company or other person duly authorized by the Company

OBJECTION MY LORD

29. Remedy for Breach

The parties hereto agree that, in the event of breach or threatened breach of this Agreement, the damage or imminent damage to the value and the goodwill of the Company's business will be inestimable, and that therefore any remedy at law or in damages shall be inadequate. Accordingly, the parties hereto agree that the Company shall be entitled to injunctive relief against Consultant in the event of any breach or threatened breach by Consultant, in addition to any other relief (including damages and the right of the Company to stop payments hereunder which is hereby granted) available to the Company under this Agreement or under law.

30. Applicable Law

Consultant shall comply with all applicable laws in performing Services but shall be held harmless for violation of any governmental procurement regulation to which it may be subject but to which reference is not made in Exhibit A. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State indicated by the Consultant's address.

31. Severability; Enforcement

If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, place, or circumstance, shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, unenforceable, or void, the remainder of this Agreement and such provisions as applied to other persons, places, and circumstances shall remain in full force and effect. It is the intention of the parties that the covenants contained in Sections 6 and 7 shall be enforced to the greatest extent (but to no greater extent) in time, area, and degree of participation as is permitted by the law of that jurisdiction whose law is found to be applicable to any acts allegedly in breach of these covenants. It being the purpose of this Agreement to govern competition by Consultant anywhere throughout the world, these covenants shall be governed by and construed according to that law (from among those jurisdictions arguably applicable to this Agreement and those in which a breach of this Agreement is alleged to have occurred or to be threatened) which best gives them effect.

32. Scope of Agreement

If the scope of any of the provisions of the Agreement is too broad in any respect whatsoever to permit enforcement to its full extent, then such provisions shall be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law, and the parties hereto consent and agree that such scope may be judicially modified accordingly and that the whole of such provisions of this Agreement shall not thereby fail, but that the scope of such provisions shall be curtailed only to the extent necessary to conform to law.

33. Additional Work

After receipt of an order which adds to the Services, Consultant may, at its discretion, take reasonable action and expend reasonable amounts of time and money based on such order. Company agrees to pay Consultant for such action and expenditure as set forth in Exhibit B of this Agreement for payments related to Services.

34. Notices

OBJECT: CANCELLATION OF CREDIT LINE

Dear [Contact name],

I have been asked to review your seriously past due account. You have been one of our most valued customers for many years, and we can only hope that this non-payment is an error or oversight.

If you have mailed your check, please disregard this notice. If not, please advise us if any discrepancy exists which would explain your lack of response.

Unless payment is received within [NUMBER] days, I will have no option but to recommend cancellation of your existing lines of credit to my management.

CHECKLIST FOR ACTIONS TO IMPROVE COLLECTION OF ACCOUNTS

Unfortunately, if your company extends credit to your customers, it is inevitable that some of those customers are not going to pay you on time. In fact, you can rest assured that some of those customers are not going to pay you at all! The following actions can help improve your chances of collecting your accounts.

- Require payment by cash or credit card whenever possible.
- Encourage customers to pay sooner by offering discounts for payment within a specific period of time. For example, you could offer a 2 percent discount if an account is paid within ten days rather than thirty. Discourage customers from paying late by charging interest or late fees on delinquent accounts. Be sure to consult with your attorney first to be sure you are complying with your state's usury statutes and applicable federal laws!
- Make a personal visit to your customer to discuss a past-due bill, or talk to your customer when he or she visits your business, whenever possible.
- Make a phone call to your customer about the past-due bill in cases where a personal visit is not possible.
- Send a series of "reminder" letters to your customer if talking to him or her personally is impractical, or if the amount owed is relatively small. The first letter can simply be a friendly reminder. The second letter can be a little more forceful. The third letter can be a "final" demand before you turn the account over to a collection agency or to your attorney.
- Use a collection agency to collect a past-due account if trying to collect the account is too time consuming or if you have not been successful in collecting it. A collection agency usually charges a significant percentage of the amount of the debt as its fee.
- File suit in small claims (conciliation) court if the dollar amount of the past due account is under the maximum amount allowed for such claims.
- If the amount owed by your customer is more than the amount allowed by your local small claims or conciliation court, ask your attorney to file a lawsuit to collect the account.

OBJECT: COLLECTION LETTER

Dear [Name of debtor],

Your name was brought to our attention to collect from you the entire balance of a debt you owed to [Name of creditor]. As of [Date], the amount of the debt is [Amount].

If you want to resolve this matter without a lawsuit, you must, within [NUMBER] month(s) of the date of this letter, either pay [Amount] against the balance that you owe (unless you have paid since your last statement) or call [Name of creditor] at [Creditor's telephone number] and work out arrangements for payment with it. If you do neither of these things, we will refer this matter to an attorney to file a lawsuit against you for the collection of this debt.

Federal law gives you thirty days after you receive this letter to dispute the validity of the debt or any part of it. If you do not dispute it within that period, we will assume that it is valid. If you do dispute it – by notifying us in writing to that effect – we will, as required by the law, obtain and mail to you proof of the debt. And if, within the same period, you request in writing the name and address of your original creditor, if the original creditor is different from the current creditor [Name of creditor], we will furnish you that information also. The law does not require us to wait until the end of the thirty-day period before suing you to collect this debt. If, however, you request proof of the debt or the name and address of the original creditor within the thirty-day period that begins with your receipt of this letter, the law requires us to suspend our efforts.

Sincerely,

OBJECT: DENIAL OF REQUEST FOR ADDITIONAL DISCOUNT

Dear [Contact name],

We recently received a request from you regarding our flexibility in the discount rate we offer for early settlement of accounts. Following are our policies on these issues.

At [COMPANY], our established discount is [%] of the total invoiced amount when payment is received within [NUMBER] days of delivery. Please note that this policy has not been arbitrarily determined, but instead is based on cost, overhead and profit. Increasing this discount rate for all of our accounts would seriously jeopardize our profitability – to increase the rate for an individual account would be both unfair and unethical. I think that you will find that the [%] discount rate we offer our customers is standard in the industry.

I hope that you can understand our position in this matter. We consider you a most valued customer so if we are able to accommodate you in any way that is within our company policy, we will be most happy to do so. Do not hesitate to contact me if I can be of any help.

OBJECT: DENIAL OF REQUEST FOR QUARTERLY BILLING

Dear [Contact name],

This letter is to confirm that we received your request to bill you quarterly rather than monthly. I must admit that it presents us with somewhat of a problem.

Inasmuch as we would like to welcome you as a new customer of [COMPANY], we wish to accommodate you in any way we can. However, there are some limits we can't cross. Your request would result in preferential treatment and would be unfair to all of our customers who must settle their accounts within [NUMBER] days. To be quite honest, if we were to offer the terms you have requested to all our clients, we would soon be out of business completely. I am sure you can appreciate our position in this matter. We would welcome your account on our regular terms basis and hope that we will have the opportunity to serve you in a near future.

OBJECT: APOLOGY FOR ACCOUNTING ERRORS AND PAST DUE NOTICE

Dear [Contact name],

We are very much concerned that due to our mistake, you had to deal with unnecessary problems. Unfortunately, it has taken some time to find out exactly what occurred, and, therefore, please accept our apologies for the delay in this response. You definitely deserve an explanation for what went wrong in our accounting department. I hope that this letter will help to resolve some recent difficulties.

For what I've been told on this issue, your payment was received in time but it had been credited to an account which bears a similar name to yours. As a result, we began sending you our standard notices requesting payment, according to our collection policy. Even after the posting error was rectified, our accounting department failed to notify our credit department, which is why you continued to receive our correspondence asking for payment.

I understand how exasperating this has been for you and I am deeply sorry that it has taken so long to straighten out this problem. While there is a procedure within our firm to prevent this type of error from happening, we are reinforcing this procedure.

You have been a valued customer for a long time and we appreciate the opportunity to continue to serve you. You may rest assured that this problem will not occur again.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

BY-LAWS OF [CORPORATION]

These By-Laws of [CORPORATION] (the “Agreement”) are made and effective [DATE].

1. CORPORATE OFFICES

1.1. Principal Office

The Board of Directors shall fix the location of the principal executive office of the corporation at any place within or outside the State of [STATE/PROVINCE]. If the principal executive office is located outside [STATE/PROVINCE] and the corporation has one or more business offices in [STATE/PROVINCE], then the Board of Directors shall fix and designate a principal business office in [STATE/PROVINCE].

1.2. Other Offices

The Board of Directors may at any time establish branch or subordinate offices at any place or places.

2. MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

2.1. Place Of Meetings

Meetings of shareholders shall be held at any place within or outside the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] designated by the Board of Directors. In the absence of any such designation, shareholders' meetings shall be held at the principal executive office of the corporation or at any place consented to in writing by all persons entitled to vote at such meeting, given before or after the meeting and filed with the Secretary of the corporation.

2.2. Annual Meeting

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

An annual meeting of shareholders shall be held each year on a date and at a time designated by the Board of Directors. At that meeting, directors shall be elected. Any other proper business may be transacted at the annual meeting of shareholders.

2.3. Special Meetings

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time, subject to the provisions of Sections 2.4 and 2.5 of these By-Laws, by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the President or the holders of shares entitled to cast not less than [%] of the votes at that meeting.

If a special meeting is called by anyone other than the Board of Directors or the President or the Chairman of the Board, then the request shall be in writing, specifying the time of such meeting and the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted, and shall be delivered personally or sent by registered mail or by other written communication to the Chairman of the Board, the President, any Vice President or the Secretary of the corporation. The officer receiving the request forthwith shall cause notice to be given to the shareholders entitled to vote, in accordance with the provisions of Sections 2.4 and 2.5 of these By-Laws, that a meeting will be held at the time requested by the person or persons calling the meeting, so long as that time is not less than [NUMBER] nor more than [NUMBER] days after the receipt of the request. If the notice is not given within [NUMBER] days after receipt of the request, then the person or persons requesting the meeting may give the notice. Nothing contained in this paragraph of this Section 2.3 shall be construed as limiting, fixing or affecting the time when a meeting of shareholders called by action of the Board of Directors may be held.

2.4. Notice Of Shareholders' Meetings

All notices of meetings of shareholders shall be sent or otherwise given in accordance with Section 2.5 of these By-Laws not less than [NUMBER] (or, if sent by third-class mail pursuant to Section 2.5 of these By-Laws, not less than [NUMBER] nor more than [NUMBER] days before the date of the meeting to each shareholder entitled to vote thereat. Such notice shall state the place, date, and hour of the meeting and (i) in the case of a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted, and no business other than that specified in the notice may be transacted, or (ii) in the case of the annual meeting, those matters which the Board of Directors, at the time of the mailing of the notice, intends to present for action by the shareholders, but, subject to the provisions of the next paragraph of this Section 2.4, any proper matter may be presented at the meeting for such action. The notice of any meeting at which Directors are to be elected shall include the names of nominees intended at the time of the notice to be presented by the Board for election.

OBJECTION MY LORD

If action is proposed to be taken at any meeting for approval of (i) a contract or transaction in which a director has a direct or indirect financial interest, (ii) an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation, pursuant to Section 902 of the Code, (iii) a reorganization of the corporation, (iv) a voluntary dissolution of the corporation, or (v) a distribution in dissolution other than in accordance with the rights of any outstanding preferred shares, then the notice shall also state the general nature of that proposal.

2.5. Manner Of Giving Notice; Affidavit Of Notice

Notice of a shareholders' meeting shall be given either personally or by first-class mail, or, if the corporation has outstanding shares held of record by [NUMBER] or more persons on the record date for the shareholders' meeting, notice may be sent by third-class mail, or other means of written communication, addressed to the shareholder at the address of the shareholder appearing on the books of the corporation or given by the shareholder to the corporation for the purpose of notice; or if no such address appears or is given, at the place where the principal executive office of the corporation is located or by publication at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal executive office is located. The notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time when delivered personally or deposited in the mail or sent by other means of written communication.

If any notice (or any report referenced in Article VII of these By-Laws) addressed to a shareholder at the address of such shareholder appearing on the books of the corporation is returned to the corporation by the [COUNTRY] Postal Service marked to indicate that the [COUNTRY] Postal Service is unable to deliver the notice to the shareholder at that address, all future notices or reports shall be deemed to have been duly given without further mailing if the same shall be available to the shareholder upon written demand of the shareholder at the principal executive office of the corporation for a period of [NUMBER] year from the date of the giving of the notice.

An affidavit of mailing of any notice or report in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.5, executed by the Secretary, Assistant Secretary or any transfer agent, shall be prima facie evidence of the giving of the notice or report.

2.6. Quorum

Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation, a majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. The shareholders present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum, if any action taken (other than adjournment) is approved by at least a majority of the shares required to constitute a quorum.

In the absence of a quorum, any meeting of shareholders may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of the shares represented either in person or by proxy, but no other business may be transacted, except as provided in the last sentence of the preceding paragraph.

2.7. Adjourned Meeting; Notice

Any shareholders' meeting, annual or special, whether or not a quorum is present, may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of the majority of the shares represented at that meeting, either in person or by proxy.

When any meeting of shareholders, either annual or special, is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if its time and place are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. However, if the adjournment is for more than [NUMBER] days from the date set for the original meeting or if a new record date for the adjourned meeting is fixed, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting in accordance with the provisions of Sections 2.4 and 2.5 of these By-Laws. At any adjourned meeting the corporation may transact any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting.

2.8. Voting

The shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.11 of these By-Laws. Elections for directors and voting on any other matter at a shareholders' meeting need not be by ballot unless a shareholder demands election by ballot at the meeting and before the voting begins.

Except as provided in the last paragraph of this Section 2.8, or as may be otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the shareholders. Any holder of shares entitled to vote on any matter may vote part of the shares in favor of the proposal and refrain from voting the remaining shares or may vote them against the proposal other than elections to office, but, if the shareholder fails to specify the number of shares such shareholder is voting affirmatively, it will be conclusively presumed that the shareholder's approving vote is with respect to all shares which the shareholder is entitled to vote. The affirmative vote of the majority of the shares represented and voting at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present (which shares voting affirmatively also constitute at least a majority of the required quorum) shall be the act of the shareholders, unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by the Code or by the Articles of Incorporation.

At a shareholders' meeting at which directors are to be elected, a shareholder shall be entitled to cumulate votes either (i) by giving one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of votes to which that shareholder's shares are normally entitled or (ii) by distributing the shareholder's votes on the same principle among as many candidates as the shareholder thinks fit, if the candidate or candidates' names have been placed in nomination prior to the voting and the shareholder has given notice prior to the voting of the shareholder's intention to cumulate the shareholder's votes. If any one shareholder has given such a notice, then every shareholder entitled to vote may cumulate votes for candidates in nomination. The candidates receiving the highest number of affirmative votes, up to the number of directors to be elected, shall be elected; votes against any candidate and votes withheld shall have no legal effect.

2.9. Validation Of Meetings; Waiver Of Notice; Consent

The transactions of any meeting of shareholders, either annual or special, however called and noticed, and wherever held, are as valid as though they had been taken at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum be present either in person or by proxy, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the persons entitled to vote, not present in person or by proxy, signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to the holding of the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any annual or special meeting of shareholders need be specified in any written waiver of notice or consent to the holding of the meeting or approval of the minutes thereof, except that if action is taken or proposed to be taken for approval of any of those matters specified in the second paragraph of Section 2.4 of these By-Laws, the waiver of notice or consent or approval shall state the general nature of the proposal. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of and presence at that meeting, except when the person objects, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and except that attendance at a meeting is not a waiver of any right to object to the consideration of matters required by the Code to be included in the notice of such meeting but not so included, if such objection is expressly made at the meeting.

2.10. Shareholder Action By Written Consent Without A Meeting

Any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

Directors may not be elected by written consent except by unanimous written consent of all shares entitled to vote for the election of directors. However, a director may be elected at any time to fill any vacancy on the Board of Directors, provided that it was not created by removal of a director and that it has not been filled by the directors, by the written consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote for the election of directors.

All such consents shall be maintained in the corporate records. Any shareholder giving a written consent, or the shareholder's proxy holders, or a transferee of the shares, or a personal representative of the shareholder, or their respective proxy holders, may revoke the consent by a writing received by the Secretary of the corporation before written consents of the number of shares required to authorize the proposed action have been filed with the Secretary.

If the consents of all shareholders entitled to vote have not been solicited in writing, the Secretary shall give prompt notice of any corporate action approved by the shareholders without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent to those shareholders entitled to vote who have not consented in writing. Such notice shall be given in the manner specified in Section 2.5 of these By-Laws. In the case of approval of (i) a contract or transaction in which a director has a direct or indirect financial interest, (ii) indemnification of a corporate agent, (iii) a reorganization of the corporation, and (iv) a distribution in dissolution other than in accordance with the rights of outstanding preferred shares, the notice shall be given at least [NUMBER] days before the consummation of any action authorized by that approval, unless the consents of all shareholders entitled to vote have been solicited in writing.

2.11. Record Date For Shareholder Notice; Voting; Giving Consents

OBJECTION MY LORD

In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of any meeting or to vote, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than [NUMBER] days nor less than [NUMBER] days prior to the date of such meeting nor more than [NUMBER] days before any other action. Shareholders at the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice and to vote, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any shares on the books of the corporation after the record date, except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation or the Code.

A determination of shareholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting unless the Board of Directors fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting, but the Board of Directors shall fix a new record date if the meeting is adjourned for more than [NUMBER] days from the date set for the original meeting.

If the Board of Directors does not so fix a record date:

- i. The record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall be at the close of business on the business day next preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the business day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held.
- ii. The record date for determining shareholders entitled to give consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, (i) when no prior action by the Board has been taken, shall be the day on which the first written consent is given, or (ii) when prior action by the Board has been taken, shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board adopts the resolution relating thereto, or the [NUMBER] day prior to the date of such other action, whichever is later.

The record date for any other purpose shall be as provided in Section 8.1 of these By-Laws.

2.12. Proxies

Every person is entitled to vote for directors, or on any other matter, shall have the right to do so either in person or by one or more agents authorized by a written proxy signed by the person and filed with the Secretary of the corporation. A proxy shall be deemed signed if the shareholder's name or other authorization is placed on the proxy (whether by manual signature, typewriting, telegraphic or electronic transmission or otherwise) by the shareholder or the shareholder's attorney-in-fact.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

A validly executed proxy which does not state that it is irrevocable shall continue in full force and effect unless (i) the person who executed the proxy revokes it prior to the time of voting by delivering a writing to the corporation stating that the proxy is revoked or by executing a subsequent proxy and presenting it to the meeting or by attendance at such meeting and voting in person, or (ii) written notice of the death or incapacity of the maker of that proxy is received by the corporation before the vote pursuant to that proxy is counted; provided, however, that no proxy shall be valid after the expiration of [NUMBER] months from the date thereof, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. The dates contained on the forms of proxy presumptively determine the order of execution, regardless of the postmark dates on the envelopes in which they are mailed.

2.13. Inspectors Of Election

In advance of any meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors may appoint inspectors of election to act at the meeting and any adjournment thereof. If inspectors of election are not so appointed or designated or if any persons so appointed fail to appear or refuse to act, then the Chairman of the meeting may, and on the request of any shareholder or a shareholder's proxy shall, appoint inspectors of election (or persons to replace those who so fail to appear) at the meeting. The number of inspectors shall be either [NUMBER] or [NUMBER]. If appointed at a meeting on the request of [NUMBER] or more shareholders or proxies, the majority of shares represented in person or by proxy shall determine whether [NUMBER] or [NUMBER] inspectors are to be appointed.

The inspectors of election shall determine the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each, the shares represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, and the authenticity, validity, and effect of proxies, receive votes, ballots or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions in any way arising in connection with the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes or consents, determine when the polls shall close, determine the result and do any other acts that may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all shareholders.

3.1. Powers

Subject to the provisions of the Code and any limitations in the Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws relating to action required to be approved by the shareholders or by the outstanding shares, the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board may delegate the management of the day-to-day operation of the business of the corporation to a management company or other person provided that the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board.

3.2. Number Of Directors

The authorized number of directors of the corporation shall be [NUMBER].

3.3. Election And Term Of Office Of Directors

At each annual meeting of shareholders, directors shall be elected to hold office until the next annual meeting. Each director, including a director elected to fill a vacancy, shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which elected and until a successor has been elected and qualified, except in the case of the death, resignation, or removal of such a director.

3.4. Removal

The entire Board of Directors or any individual director may be removed from office without cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on such removal; provided, however, that unless the entire Board is removed, no individual director may be removed when the votes cast against such director's removal, or not consenting in writing to such removal, would be sufficient to elect that director if voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes cast were cast (or, if such action is taken by written consent, all shares entitled to vote were voted) and the entire number of directors authorized at the time of such director's most recent election were then being elected.

3.5. Resignation And Vacancies

Any director may resign effective upon giving oral or written notice to the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Secretary or the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. If the resignation of a director is effective at a future time, the Board of Directors may elect a successor to take office when the resignation becomes effective.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Vacancies on the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, or if the number of directors then in office is less than a quorum by (i) unanimous written consent of the directors then in office, (ii) the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office at a meeting held pursuant to notice or waivers of notice, or (iii) a sole remaining director; however, a vacancy created by the removal of a director by the vote or written consent of the shareholders or by court order may be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented and voting at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present (which shares voting affirmatively also constitute at least a majority of the required quorum), or by the unanimous written consent of all shares entitled to vote thereon. Each director so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the shareholders and until a successor has been elected and qualified, or until his or her death, resignation or removal.

A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist (i) in the event of the death, resignation or removal of any director, (ii) if the Board of Directors by resolution declares vacant the office of a director who has been declared of unsound mind by an order of court or convicted of a felony, (iii) if the authorized number of directors is increased, or (iv) if the shareholders fail, at any meeting of shareholders at which any director or directors are elected, to elect the full authorized number of directors to be elected at that meeting.

The shareholders may elect a director or directors at any time to fill any vacancy or vacancies not filled by the directors, but any such election by written consent, other than to fill a vacancy created by removal, shall require the consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon. A director may not be elected by written consent to fill a vacancy created by removal except by unanimous consent of all shares entitled to vote for the election of directors.

3.6. Place Of Meetings; Meetings By Telephone

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any place within or outside the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] that has been designated from time to time by resolution of the Board. In the absence of such a designation, regular meetings shall be held at the principal executive office of the corporation. Special meetings of the Board may be held at any place within or outside the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] that has been designated in the notice of the meeting or, if not stated in the notice or if there is no notice, at the principal executive office of the corporation.

OBJECTION MY LORD

Members of the Board may participate in a meeting through the use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as all directors participating in such meeting can hear one another. Participation in a meeting pursuant to this paragraph constitutes presence in person at such meeting.

3.7. Regular Meetings

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice if the time and place of such meetings are fixed by the Board of Directors.

3.8. Special Meetings; Notice

Subject to the provisions of the following paragraph, special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, the President, any Vice President, the Secretary or any [NUMBER] directors.

Notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be delivered personally or by telephone to each director or sent by first-class mail, telegram, charges prepaid, or by telecopier, addressed to each director at that director's address as it is shown on the records of the corporation. If the notice is mailed, it shall be deposited in the [COUNTRY] mail at least [NUMBER] days before the time of the holding of the meeting. If the notice is delivered personally or by telephone or by telecopier or telegram, it shall be delivered personally or by telephone or by telecopier or to the telegraph company at least [NUMBER] hours before the time of the holding of the meeting. Any oral notice given personally or by telephone may be communicated either to the director or to a person at the office of the director who the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the director. The notice need not specify the purpose of the meeting.

3.9. Quorum

A majority of the authorized number of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except to adjourn as provided in Section 3.11 of these By-Laws. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board of Directors, subject to the provisions of [SPECIFY] (as to approval of contracts or transactions in which a director has a direct or indirect material financial interest), [SECTION OF CODE OR LAW] (as to appointment of committees), [SECTION OF CODE OR LAW] (as to indemnification of directors), the Articles of Incorporation, and other applicable law.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

3.10. Waiver Of Notice

Notice of a meeting need not be given to any director who signs a waiver of notice or a consent to holding the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof, whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to such director. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. A waiver of notice need not specify the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors.

3.11. Adjournment

A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place.

3.12. Notice Of Adjournment

If the meeting is adjourned for more than [NUMBER] hours, notice of any adjournment to another time and place shall be given prior to the time of the adjourned meeting to the directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.

3.13. Board Action By Written Consent Without A Meeting

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Board of Directors.

3.14. Fees And Compensation Of Directors

Directors and members of committees may receive such compensation, if any, for their services and such reimbursement of expenses as may be fixed or determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. This

OBJECTION MY LORD

Section 3.14 shall not be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity as an officer, agent, employee or otherwise and receiving compensation for those services.

3.15. Approval Of Loans To Officers

If these By-Laws have been approved by the corporation's shareholders in accordance with the Code, the corporation may, upon the approval of the Board of Directors alone, make loans of money or property to, or guarantee the obligations of, any officer of the corporation or of its parent, if any, whether or not a director, or adopt an employee benefit plan or plans authorizing such loans or guaranties provided that (i) the Board of Directors determines that such a loan or guaranty or plan may reasonably be expected to benefit the corporation, (ii) the corporation has outstanding shares held of record by [NUMBER] or more persons (determined as provided in [SECTION OF CODE]) on the date of approval by the Board of Directors, and (iii) the approval of the Board of Directors is by a vote sufficient without counting the vote of any interested director or directors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the corporation shall have the power to make loans permitted by the Code.

4. COMMITTEES

4.1. Committees Of Directors

The Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the authorized number of directors, designate one or more committees, each consisting of [NUMBER] or more directors, to serve at the pleasure of the Board. The Board may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent member at any meeting of the committee. The appointment of members or alternate members of a committee requires the vote of a majority of the authorized number of directors. Any such committee shall have authority to act in the manner and to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board and may have all the authority of the Board, except with respect to:

- viii. The approval of any action which, under the Code, also requires shareholders' approval or approval of the outstanding shares.
- ix. The filling of vacancies on the Board of Directors or in any committee.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- x. The fixing of compensation of the directors for serving on the Board or on any committee.
- xi. The amendment or repeal of these By-Laws or the adoption of new By-Laws.
- xii. The amendment or repeal of any resolution of the Board of Directors which by its express terms is not so amendable or repealable.
- xiii. A distribution to the shareholders of the corporation, except at a rate, in a periodic amount or within a price range set forth in the Articles of Incorporation or determined by the Board of Directors.
- xiv. The appointment of any other committees of the Board of Directors or the members thereof.

4.2. Meetings And Action Of Committees

Meetings and actions of committees shall be governed by, and held and taken in accordance with, the provisions of Article III of these By-Laws, Section 3.6 (place of meetings), Section 3.7 (regular meetings), Section 3.8 (special meetings and notice), Section 3.9 (quorum), Section 3.10 (waiver of notice), Section 3.11 (adjournment), Section 3.12 (notice of adjournment), and Section 3.13 (action without meeting), with such changes in the context of those By-Laws as are necessary to substitute the committee and its members for the Board of Directors and its members; provided, however, that the time of regular meetings of committees may be determined either by resolution of the Board of Directors or by resolution of the committee, that special meetings of committees may also be called by resolution of the Board of Directors, and that notice of special meetings of committees shall also be given to all alternate members, who shall have the right to attend all meetings of the committee. The Board of Directors may adopt rules for the government of any committee not inconsistent with the provisions of these By-Laws.

5. OFFICERS

5.1. Officers

OBJECTION MY LORD

The officers of the corporation shall be a President, a Secretary, and a Chief Financial Officer. The corporation may also have, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, a Chairman of the Board, one or more Vice Presidents, one or more Assistant Secretaries, one or more Assistant Treasurers, and such other officers as may be appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.3 of these By-Laws. Any number of offices may be held by the same person.

5.2. Appointment Of Officers

The officers of the corporation, except such officers as may be appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.3 or Section 5.5 of these By-Laws, shall be chosen by the Board and serve at the pleasure of the Board, subject to the rights, if any, of an officer under any contract of employment.

5.3. Subordinate Officers

The Board of Directors may appoint, or may empower the Chairman of the Board or the President to appoint, such other officers as the business of the corporation may require, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority, and perform such duties as are provided in these By-Laws or as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

5.4. Removal And Resignation Of Officers

Subject to the rights, if any, of an officer under any contract of employment, all officers serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting of the Board or, except in case of an officer chosen by the Board of Directors, by any officer upon whom such power of removal may be conferred by the Board of Directors.

Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. The corporation shall, to the maximum extent and in the manner permitted by the Code, indemnify each of its directors against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding (as defined in [SECTION OF CODE OR LAW]), arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director of the corporation. For purposes of this Article VI, a director of the corporation includes any person (i) who is or was a director of the corporation, (ii) who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or (iii) who was a director of a corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation.

6.2. Indemnification Of Others

The corporation shall have the power, to the extent and in the manner permitted by the Code, to indemnify each of its employees, officers, and agents (other than directors) against expenses (as defined in [SECTION OF CODE OR LAW]), judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding (as defined [SECTION OF CODE OR LAW]), arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was an employee, officer, or agent of the corporation. For purposes of this Article VI, an employee or officer or agent of the corporation (other than a director) includes any person (i) who is or was an employee, officer, or agent of the corporation, (ii) who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as an employee, officer, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or (iii) who was an employee, officer, or agent of a corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation.

6.3. Payment Of Expenses In Advance

Expenses and attorneys' fees incurred in defending any civil or criminal action or proceeding for which indemnification is required pursuant to Section 6.1, or if otherwise authorized by the Board of Directors, shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the indemnified party to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that the indemnified party is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this Article VI.

6.4. Indemnity Not Exclusive

The indemnification provided by this Article VI shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any By-Law, agreement, vote of shareholders or directors or otherwise, both as to action in an official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. The rights to indemnity hereunder shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of the person.

OBJECTION MY LORD

6.5. Insurance Indemnification

The corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by such person in such capacity or arising out of that person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify that person against such liability under the provisions of this Article VI.

6.6. Conflicts

No indemnification or advance shall be made under this Article VI, except where such indemnification or advance is mandated by law or the order, judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, in any circumstance where it appears:

- iii. That it would be inconsistent with a provision of the Articles of Incorporation, these By-Laws, a resolution of the shareholders or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of the action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification; or
- iv. That it would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

6.7. Right To Bring Suit

If a claim under this Article is not paid in full by the corporation within [NUMBER] days after a written claim has been received by the corporation (either because the claim is denied or because no determination is made), the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall also be entitled to be paid the expenses of prosecuting such claim. The corporation shall be entitled to raise as a defense to any such action that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct that make it permissible under the Code for the corporation to indemnify the claimant for the claim. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is permissible in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct, if any, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to such action or create a presumption for the purposes of such action that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

6.8. Indemnity Agreements

The Board of Directors is authorized to enter into a contract with any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or any person who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including employee benefit plans, or any person who was a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation, providing for indemnification rights equivalent to or, if the Board of Directors so determines and to the extent permitted by applicable law, greater than, those provided for in this Article VI.

6.9. Amendment, Repeal Or Modification

Any amendment, repeal or modification of any provision of this Article VI shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or agent of the corporation existing at the time of such amendment, repeal or modification.

The corporation shall keep either at its principal executive office or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar (if either be appointed), as determined by resolution of the Board of Directors, a record of its shareholders listing the names and addresses of all shareholders and the number and class of shares held by each shareholder.

7.2. Maintenance And Inspection Of By-Laws

The corporation shall keep at its principal executive office or, if its principal executive office is not in the State of [STATE/PROVINCE], at its principal business office in [STATE/PROVINCE], the original or a copy of these By-Laws as amended to date, which shall be open to inspection by the shareholders at all reasonable times during office hours. The annual report shall contain a balance sheet as of the end of the fiscal year and an income statement and statement of changes in financial position for the fiscal year, accompanied by any report thereon of independent accountants or, if there is no such report, the certificate of an authorized officer of the corporation that the statements were prepared without audit from the books and records of the corporation.

The foregoing requirement of an annual report shall be waived so long as the shares of the corporation are held by fewer than [NUMBER] holders of record.

7.6. Financial Statements

OBJECTION MY LORD

If no annual report for the fiscal year has been sent to shareholders, then the corporation shall, upon the written request of any shareholder made more than [NUMBER] days after the close of such fiscal year, deliver or mail to the person making the request, within [NUMBER] days thereafter, a copy of a balance sheet as of the end of such fiscal year and an income statement and statement of changes in financial position for such fiscal year.

A shareholder or shareholders holding at least [%] of the outstanding shares of any class of the corporation may make a written request to the corporation for an income statement of the corporation for the three-month, six-month or nine-month period of the current fiscal year ended more than [NUMBER] days prior to the date of the request and a balance sheet of the corporation as of the end of that period. The authority herein granted may be exercised either by such person directly or by any other person authorized to do so by proxy or power of attorney duly executed by such person having the authority.

8. GENERAL MATTERS

8.1. Record Date For Purposes Other Than Notice And Voting

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

For purposes of determining the shareholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any other lawful action (other than with respect to notice or voting at a shareholders meeting or action by shareholders by written consent without a meeting), the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than [NUMBER] days prior to any such action. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on the record date are entitled to receive the dividend, distribution or allotment of rights, or to exercise the rights, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any shares on the books of the corporation after the record date, except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation or the Code.

If the Board of Directors does not so fix a record date, then the record date for determining shareholders for any such purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board adopts the resolution relating thereto or the [NUMBER] day prior to the date of that action, whichever is later.

8.2. Checks; Drafts; Evidences Of Indebtedness

From time to time, the Board of Directors shall determine by resolution which person or persons may sign or endorse all checks, drafts, other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness that are issued in the name of or payable to the corporation, and only the persons so authorized shall sign or endorse those instruments.

8.3. Corporate Contracts And Instruments: How Executed

The Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws, may authorize any officer or officers, or agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation; such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Unless so authorized or ratified by the Board of Directors or within the agency power of an officer, no officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or for any amount.

8.4. Certificates For Shares

A certificate or certificates for shares of the corporation shall be issued to each shareholder when any of such shares are fully paid. The Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of certificates for shares partly paid provided that these certificates shall state the total amount of the consideration to be paid for them and the amount actually paid. All certificates shall be signed in the name of the corporation by the Chairman of the Board or the Vice Chairman of the Board or the President or a Vice President and by the Chief Financial Officer or an Assistant Treasurer or the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary, certifying the number of shares and the class or series of shares owned by the shareholder. Any or all of the signatures on the certificate may be by facsimile.

In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on a certificate has ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if that person were an officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

8.5. Lost Certificates

Except as provided in this Section 8.5, no new certificates for shares shall be issued to replace a previously issued certificate unless the latter is surrendered to the corporation or its transfer agent or registrar and cancelled at the same time. The Board of Directors may, in case any share certificate or certificate for any other security is lost, stolen or destroyed (as evidenced by a written affidavit or affirmation of such fact), authorize the issuance of replacement certificates on such terms and conditions as the Board may require; the Board may require indemnification of the corporation secured by a bond or other adequate security sufficient to protect the corporation against any claim that may be made against it, including any expense or liability, on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of the certificate or the issuance of the replacement certificate.

8.6. Construction; Definitions

Unless the context requires otherwise, the general provisions, rules of construction, and definitions in the Code shall govern the construction of these By-Laws. Without limiting the generality of this provision, the singular number includes the plural, the plural number includes the singular, and the term person includes both a corporation and a natural person.

9. AMENDMENTS

9.1. Amendment By Shareholders

New By-Laws may be adopted or these By-Laws may be amended or repealed by the vote or written consent of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote; provided, however, that if the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation set forth the number of authorized Directors of the corporation, then the authorized number of Directors may be changed only by an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation.

9.2. Amendment By Directors

Subject to the rights of the shareholders as provided in Section 9.1 of these By-Laws, By-Laws, other than a By-Law or an amendment of a By-Law changing the authorized number of directors (except to fix the authorized number of directors pursuant to a By-Law providing for a variable number of directors), may be adopted, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors.

9.3. Record Of Amendments

Whenever an amendment or new By-Law is adopted, it shall be copied in the book of minutes with the original By-Laws. If any By-Law is repealed, the fact of repeal, with the date of the meeting at which the repeal was enacted or written consent was filed, shall be stated in said book.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the present distribution of shares of the Corporation is as follows:

Name	Number of Shares
------	------------------

WHEREAS, in order to insure the harmonious and successful management and control of the Company, and to provide for an orderly and fair disposition of shares of common stock of the Company now or hereafter owned by any Shareholder;

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises of the parties hereto, and intending to be legally bound, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Definitions

"Offering Shareholder" means any Shareholder, or his personal representatives, heirs, administrators, and executors, as the case may be, who pursuant to this Agreement must or does offer all or any of his Shares to the Company or the Continuing Shareholders.

"Continuing Shareholders" means all Shareholders other than an Offering Shareholder.

"Shares" means shares of Common Stock of the Company now or hereafter owned by any Shareholder.

"Buyer" means the Company or those Continuing Shareholders who purchase an Offering Shareholder's Shares pursuant to this Agreement.

"Management Shareholder" means First Shareholder, Second Shareholder and Third Shareholder.

2. Purchase for Investment

Each Shareholder represents and warrants that he is acquiring and has acquired his Shares for his own account for investment and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any distribution thereof or with any present intent of selling any portion thereof.

3. Transfers of Shares

A Shareholder may not transfer, give, convey, sell, pledge, bequeath, donate, assign, encumber or otherwise dispose of any Shares except pursuant to this Agreement.

3.1. Transfers to the Company

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, a Shareholder may give, sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any of his Shares to the Company at such price and on such terms and conditions as such Shareholder and the Board of Directors of the Company may agree.

OBJECTION MY LORD

3.2. Transfer to Others

Except as provided for in Paragraph 3.1 above, a Shareholder desiring to dispose of some or all of his Shares may do so only pursuant to a bona fide offer to purchase (the "Offer") and after compliance with the following provisions. Such Shareholder shall first give written notice to the Company and the other Shareholders of his intention to dispose of his Shares, identifying the number of Shares he desires to dispose of, the proposed purchase price per Share and the name of the proposed purchaser and attaching an exact copy of the Offer received by such Shareholder.

3.3. The Company's Right to Purchase

The Company shall have the exclusive right to purchase all of the Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell at the proposed purchase price per Share. The Company shall exercise this right to purchase by giving written notice to the Offering Shareholder (with a copy thereof to each of the Continuing Shareholders) within [NUMBER] days after receipt of the notice from the Offering Shareholder (the "[NUMBER] Day Period") that the Company elects to purchase the Shares subject to the Offer and setting forth a date and time for closing which shall be not later than [NUMBER] days after the date of such notice from the Company. At the time of closing, the Offering Shareholder shall deliver to the Company certificates representing the Shares to be sold, together with stock powers duly endorsed in blank. The Shares shall be delivered by the Offering Shareholder free of any and all liens and encumbrances. All transfer taxes and documentary stamps shall be paid by the Offering Shareholder.

3.4. The Continuing Shareholders Right to Purchase

If the Company fails to exercise its right to purchase pursuant to subparagraph (i) above, the Continuing Shareholders shall have the right for an additional period of [NUMBER] days (the "Additional [NUMBER] Day Period") commencing at the expiration of the [NUMBER] Day Period to purchase the Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell at the proposed purchase price per Share. The Continuing Shareholders shall exercise this right to purchase by giving written notice to the Offering Shareholder prior to the expiration of the Additional [NUMBER] Day Period that they elect to purchase his Shares and setting forth a date and time for closing which shall be not later than [NUMBER] days after the expiration of the Additional [NUMBER] Day Period. Any purchase of Shares by all or some of the Continuing Shareholders shall be made in such proportion as they might agree among themselves or, in the absence of any such agreement, pro rata in proportion to their ownership of Shares of the Company (excluding the Offering Shareholder's Shares) at the time of such offer, but in any event one or more of the Continuing Shareholders must agree to purchase all the Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell. At the time of closing, the Offering Shareholder shall deliver to Buyer certificates representing the Shares to be sold, together with stock powers duly endorsed in blank. Said Shares shall be delivered by the offering Shareholder free and clear of any and all liens and encumbrances. All transfer taxes and documentary stamps shall be paid by the Offering Shareholder.

3.5. Performance of Acceptance

When exercising the rights granted in Paragraphs 3.2 hereof, Buyer must elect to purchase all Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell for the price and upon the same terms for payment of the price as are set forth in the Offer; provided, however, that if said offer received by the Offering Shareholder shall provide for any act or action to be done or performed by the party making such Offer at any time before or within [NUMBER] days after the last day for exercise of Buyer's right to purchase pursuant to Paragraphs 3.2 hereof, then the Buyer shall be deemed to have complied with the terms and conditions of such Offer if Buyer or performs such act or action within [NUMBER] days after the last day for exercise of Buyer's right to purchase pursuant to Paragraphs 3.2 hereof.

3.6. Sale to Third Party

If either the Company or some or all of the Continuing Shareholders do not elect to purchase all of the Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell, the Offering Shareholder may accept the Offer which the Offering Shareholder mailed with his notice to the Company pursuant to Paragraph 3.2 hereof and transfer all (but not less than all) of the Shares which he proposes to sell pursuant thereto on the same terms and conditions set forth in such Offer, provided that any transferee of such Shares shall be bound by this Agreement, and further provided that if such sale is not completed within [NUMBER] days after the date notice is received by the Company under Paragraph 3.2 hereof, all such Shares shall again become subject to the restrictions and provisions of this Agreement.

3.7. Right of Co-Sale

Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, in the event the Offering Shareholder receives an Offer from an unaffiliated third party (the "Offeror") to purchase from such Shareholder not less than [%] of the Shares owned by such Shareholder and such Shareholder intends to accept such Offer, the Offering Shareholder shall, after complying with the provisions of Paragraph 3.2 above and before accepting such Offer, forward a copy of such Offer to the Company and each of the Continuing Shareholders. The Offering Shareholder shall not sell any such Shares to the Offeror unless the terms of the Offer are extended by the Offeror to the Continuing Shareholders pro rata in proportion to their ownership of Shares of the Company (excluding the Offering Shareholder's Shares) at the time of such Offer. The Continuing Shareholders shall have [NUMBER] days from the date of the foregoing Offer to accept such Offer.

OBJECTION MY LORD

First Shareholder, Second Shareholder and Third Shareholder may each during their lifetimes transfer all, but not less than all, of their Shares to said Shareholder's spouse or a lineal descendant of such Shareholder, so long as prior to such transfer (i) such person, the Company, and all the Shareholders amend this Agreement to the reasonable satisfaction of such person, the Company and all the Shareholders to provide the parties to this Agreement with the rights, remedies and effect provided in this Agreement as if no such transfer had occurred, and (ii) the proposed transferee agrees in a writing satisfactory to the Company and all Shareholders that such person shall vote for First Shareholder, Second Shareholder and Third Shareholder (or their nominees) as directors of the Company and shall be bound by all the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

4. Right of First Refusal

- f. Except in the case of Excluded Securities (as defined below), the Company shall not issue, sell or exchange, agree to issue, sell or exchange, or reserve or set aside for issuance, sale or exchange, any (i) shares of Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company which is convertible into Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company, (ii) any debt security of the Company which is convertible into Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company, or (iii) any option, warrant or other right to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire any equity security or any such debt security of the Company, unless in each case the Company shall have first offered to sell to each Shareholder, pro rata in proportion to such Shareholder's then ownership of Shares of the Company, such securities (the "Offered Securities") (and to sell thereto such Offered Securities not subscribed for by the other Shareholders as hereinafter provided), at a price and on such other terms as shall have been specified by the Company in writing delivered to such Shareholder (the "Stock Offer"), which Stock Offer by its terms shall remain open and irrevocable for a period of [NUMBER] days (subject to extension pursuant to the last sentence of subsection (b) below) from the date it is delivered by the Company to the Shareholder.
- g. Notice of each Shareholder's intention to accept, in whole or in part, a Stock Offer shall be evidenced by a writing signed by such Shareholder and delivered to the Company prior to the end of the [NUMBER]-day period of such Stock Offer, setting forth such portion of the Offered Securities as such Shareholder elects to purchase (the "Notice of Acceptance"). If any Shareholder shall subscribe for less than his pro rata share of the Offered Securities to be sold, the other subscribing Shareholders shall be entitled to purchase the balance of that Shareholder's pro rata share in the same proportion in which they were entitled to purchase the Offered Securities in the first instance (excluding for such purposes such Shareholder), provided any such other Shareholder elected by a Notice of Acceptance to purchase all of his pro rata share of the Offered Securities. The Company shall notify each Shareholder within [NUMBER] days following the expiration of the [NUMBER]-day period described above of the amount of Offered Securities which each Shareholder may purchase pursuant to the foregoing sentence, and each Shareholder shall then have [NUMBER] days from the delivery of such notice to indicate such additional amount, if any, that such Shareholder wishes to purchase.

- h. In the event that Notices of Acceptance are not given by the Shareholders in respect of all the Offered Securities, the Company shall have [NUMBER] days from the expiration of the foregoing [NUMBER]-day or [NUMBER]-day period, whichever is applicable, to sell all or any part of such Offered Securities as to which a Notice of Acceptance has not been given by the Shareholders (the "Refused Securities") to any other person or persons, but only upon terms and conditions in all respects, including, without limitation, unit price and interest rates, which are no more favorable, in the aggregate, to such other person or persons or less favorable to the Company than those set forth in the Stock Offer. Upon the closing, which shall include full payment to the Company, of the sale to such other person or persons of all the Refused Securities, the Shareholders shall purchase from the Company, and the Company shall sell to the Shareholders the Offered Securities in respect of which Notices of Acceptance were delivered to the Company by the Shareholders, at the terms specified in the Stock Offer.
- i. In each case, any Offered Securities not purchased by the Shareholders or other person or persons in accordance with Section 4(c) may not be sold or otherwise disposed of until they are again offered to the Shareholders under the procedures specified in Sections 4(a), (b) and (c).
- j. The rights of the Shareholders under this Section 4 shall not apply to the following securities (the "Excluded Securities"):
 - i. Any (A) shares of Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company which is convertible into Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company, (B) debt security of the Company which is convertible into Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company, or (C) option, warrant or other right to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire any equity security or any such debt security of the Company (collectively, an "Equity Security") if the issuance of such Equity Security does not alter the respective proportions of ownership (on a fully diluted basis) by First Shareholder, Second Shareholder and Third Shareholder, as among themselves, of Equity Securities immediately prior to the issuance of such Equity Security;

OBJECTION MY LORD

- ii. Common Stock issued as a stock dividend or upon any stock split or other subdivision or combination of the outstanding shares of Common Stock;
- iii. Securities issued pursuant to the acquisition by the Company of another corporation to the stockholders of such other corporation by merger or purchase of substantially all of the assets whereby the Company owns not less than [%] of the voting power of such other corporation; and

5. Sale Or Redemption Upon Termination of Employment, Disability Or Death

Upon the termination of a Management Shareholder's employment or other relationship with the Company (including without limitation, any position as an officer, director, consultant, joint venturer, independent contractor, or promoter to or of the Company) for whatever reason, the Disability (as defined below) of a Management Shareholder, or the death of a Management or Nonmanagement Shareholder (any such event hereinafter a "Triggering Event"), such Shareholder (or his heirs, executors, guardian or personal representative) within [NUMBER] days after the Triggering Event shall offer to sell all, but not less than all, of the Shares owned by the Shareholder. Each offer shall be made to the Company in writing and shall exist for a period of [NUMBER] days after such offer has been received by the Company. If the Company fails to purchase all of the Shares offered, the offer to sell shall be made in writing to all of the Continuing Shareholders in such proportion as the Continuing Shareholders may agree among themselves, or in the absence of agreement, pro rata in proportion to their then ownership of Shares of the Company (excluding the Offering Shareholder's (Shares), and shall exist for a period of [NUMBER] days after the offer has been received by all of the Continuing Shareholders. For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" of a particular person means the inability, due to a physical or mental condition, of such person to maintain his employment or other relationship with the Company (including without limitation, fulfilling his duties in any position as an officer, director, consultant, joint venturer, independent contractor, or promoter to or of the Company) or to conduct his normal daily activities on behalf of the Corporation for any [NUMBER] consecutive month period.

6. Purchase Price

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

The purchase price for all Shares purchased pursuant to Paragraph 5 hereof shall be determined as follows:

- c. The Company or the Continuing Shareholders, as the case may be, within [NUMBER] days after receipt of any offer referred to in Paragraph 5 above, shall notify the Offering Shareholder of the price at which the Company or the Continuing Shareholders, are willing to purchase the Shares.
- d. In the event the Offering Shareholder objects to the purchase price established in accordance with Paragraph 6(a) above, the Offering Shareholder shall have the right to solicit offers to buy the Shares in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 3.2. The right to solicit offers shall be subject to the terms and conditions of Section 3.2 and 3.3 hereof, including without limitation, the rights of first refusal and co-sale and the period during which any right of first refusal must be exercised but shall not be subject to the [NUMBER] day period referred to in Paragraph 3.2 of this Agreement.

7. Payment of Purchase Price

The purchase price for all Shares purchased pursuant to Paragraph 5 hereof shall be paid at the closing of the sale.

8. Put and Call Options

8.1. Put and Call Options

Each Shareholder shall have the right and option upon the written declaration (a "Declaration") by such Shareholder to the other Shareholders and the Company of the occurrence of an "impasse" (as defined below) to sell to the Continuing Shareholders all of his Shares, and the Continuing Shareholders shall have the obligation to either (i) purchase all of such Shares owned by the offering Shareholder in such proportion as the Continuing Shareholders may agree upon, and if they cannot so agree, pro rata in proportion to their then ownership of Shares of the Company (excluding the Offering Shareholder's Shares) or (ii) if the Continuing Shareholders are unable or unwilling to purchase all of the Shares owned by the Offering Shareholder, sell all of their Shares to the Offering Shareholder, and the Offering Shareholder shall have the obligation to buy such Shares.

8.2. Impasse

OBJECTION MY LORD

An "impasse" shall be conclusively evidenced by (i) either First Shareholder, Second Shareholder or Third Shareholder or their respective representative, voting opposite the others at a vote at a shareholders meeting or at a vote at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company (or failing to attend such meetings upon due notice if such failure results in the lack of a quorum making such vote impossible), which vote is on a material issue, not in the ordinary course of business, and affecting the business, assets or operations of the Company, including, but not limited to, a proposal to merge, liquidate, consolidate or dissolve the Company, or to sell, lease or dispose of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company or to amend the substantive provisions of the Company's bylaws or articles of incorporation, or to issue or redeem stock, or to declare dividends of any kind, and (ii) either First Shareholder, Second Shareholder or Third Shareholder notifying the others and the Company and any other Shareholders within [NUMBER] days after such meeting, proposed meeting or vote than an "impasse" has occurred. The put and call rights granted to each Shareholder under this Paragraph 8 are independent of the other rights granted to the Shareholders and the Company under the other terms of this Agreement and such rights are not mutually exclusive or inconsistent.

8.3. Exercise of Option

The Continuing Shareholders shall exercise any option provided for in this Paragraph 8 within [NUMBER] days after receipt of a declaration. Any closing of the sale of Shares pursuant to such exercise shall occur within [NUMBER] days after receipt of a Declaration.

8.4. Purchase Price

Any purchase or sale of Shares sold pursuant to this Paragraph 8 shall be at the price as set forth in the Declaration delivered by the Shareholder exercising his right to sell his shares and shall be paid at the closing of the sale of the Shares.

9. Rights Upon Registration

In the event that the Company shall register or qualify any or all of the common stock of the Company under the [CODE OR LAW], as amended (or any similar statute then in force), on an appropriate registration statement, the Company shall give the Shareholders written notice thereof, and upon written request of a Shareholder, received by the Company not later than [NUMBER] days after receipt by the Shareholder of such notice, the Company will include in the registration statement filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission all Shares held by such Shareholder with respect to which the Shareholder shall have so requested registration.

10. Agreement Binding on All Persons Interested in Shares

Each person who now or hereafter acquires any legal or equitable interest in any Shares shall be bound by the terms of this Agreement. No issuance or transfer of Shares shall be effective and the Company shall not enter any issue or transfer upon the stock books of the Company or issue a certificate in the name of any person unless the Company is satisfied that such person is, and in a manner satisfactory to the Company has acknowledged being, bound by this Agreement.

11. Closing

Except as otherwise agreed to or expressly provided for herein, closing pursuant to the exercise of a right to purchase or sell Shares pursuant to this Agreement shall be held at the principal executive offices of the Company.

12. Entry of Legend Upon Stock Certificates

The following legend shall be immediately entered on each stock certificate representing Shares owned by the Shareholders:

"The gift, sale, mortgage, pledge, hypothecation or other encumbering or transfer of the shares of the capital stock represented by this certificate is restricted in accordance with the terms and conditions of a Shareholders Agreement dated [DATE], a copy of which is on file at the principal executive offices of the Company. Said Shareholders Agreement restricts the ability of the Shareholder to sell, give, pledge, bequeath or otherwise transfer or dispose of this stock certificate and the shares of capital stock represented by it."

13. After Acquired Shares - Subsequent Shareholders

OBJECTION MY LORD

The terms and conditions of this Agreement shall specifically apply not only to Shares owned by Shareholders at the time of execution of this Agreement, but also to any Shares acquired by any Shareholder subsequent to such execution.

14. Board of Directors

At each election of the Board of Directors of the Company, the Shareholders shall vote their Shares to elect three directors of the Company, one director being First Shareholder, or his nominee, one director being Second Shareholder, or his nominee, and one director being Third Shareholder, or his nominee.

15. Community and Marital Property Laws

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the following terms shall control to the extent community property laws or other marital property laws apply to the Shares of any Shareholder:

15.1. Lifetime Transfers

The provisions of this Agreement regarding restrictions against the transfer of Shares shall apply to any interest of the spouse of any Shareholder in such Shares (said spouse is hereinafter referred to as a "Spouse").

15.2. Transfers Upon Death of Spouse

If the Spouse of a Shareholder predeceases such Shareholder and has failed to bequeath to such Shareholder the deceased Spouse's entire marital property interest, if any, in the Shares held by the Shareholder, or if the Spouse of a Shareholder is adjudicated to be bankrupt or insolvent, or makes an assignment for the benefit of his or her creditors (collectively referred to herein as an "Event"), then to the extent necessary to divest the Spouse of any interest in the Shares of such Stockholder, within three months after the date of the occurrence of the Event, the Shareholder shall have the option to and must purchase such marital property interest of his or her Spouse or the estate of the deceased Spouse, as the case may be, in the Shares held by the Shareholder at a price equal to the lesser of either the value of the spouse's marital property interest in such Shares or the book value of such Shares.

15.3. Marital Dissolution Any decree of dissolution, separate maintenance agreement or other property settlement between a Shareholder and his or her Spouse shall provide that the entire marital property interest of the Spouse in the Shares of the Shareholder shall be granted to the Shareholder as part of the division of the property of the marriage and the Spouse shall release and the Shareholder shall accept any marital property interest of such Spouse in the Shares. If payment for such Shares is ordered by the Court or demanded by the Spouse, no consideration shall be required, but if the Shareholder volunteers consideration for said release of interest it shall be no greater than the lesser of either the value of the Spouse's marital property interest in such Shares or the book value of the Spouse's marital property interest in such Shares.

15.4. Inclusion of Marital Property

Any purchase of the Shares of a Shareholder pursuant to any provision of this Agreement shall include without limitation or condition the entire marital property interest of the Spouse of such Shareholder in the Shares being purchased.

15.5. Determination of Value

Book value and the value of a Spouse's interest in the Shares of a Shareholder for purposes of this Paragraph 15 shall be determined by the Shareholder. The Company and the other Shareholders shall not be responsible for the determination of the value of the marital property interest of any Spouse of a Shareholder, the determination of book value, or the purchase of or payment for such Spouse's marital property interest in the Shares of a Shareholder.

16. Insurance

The Company may, if it so desires, purchase insurance policies on the life of any Management Shareholder for the purpose of payment for stock purchases or as key man insurance. If any Shareholder on whose life the Company owns an insurance policy shall at any time during his lifetime sell all of his Shares, then that Shareholder shall have the right to purchase from the Company the insurance policy or policies on his life at the cash surrender value, if any. The Company shall deliver the policy or policies on the life of such Shareholder upon payment of the cash surrender value, if any, and shall execute any necessary instruments of transfer and change of beneficiary forms.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual agreements and covenants herein contained the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. RECITALS

- a. Principal is a manufacturer of [product] and desires to appoint Agent as general sales Agent for the sale of Principal's product [if appropriate, add: and other regular-line products and accessories of Principal] in the following territory: [describe territory].
- b. Agent desires to accept such appointment and to perform all the provisions of this agreement.

2. DURATION

The term of the agency created shall be [period of time], beginning [date], unless sooner terminated.

3. AGENT'S BEST EFFORTS

Agent agrees to devote Agent's whole time and best efforts to the business of Principal in the described territory under the direction of Principal's officers or representatives, and to conform to the best of Agent's ability with the rules, regulations and instructions of Principal now in force or that may be adopted and mailed to Agent's address. Agent shall employ salespersons to assist Agent, on such terms and conditions as Principal may require, as set forth in this agreement.

4. NONDISCLOSURE OF PRINCIPAL'S AFFAIRS

Agent agrees to keep confidential such information as Principal may from time to time impart to Agent regarding Principal's business affairs and customers. Agent will not, in whole or in part, now or at any time, disclose such information.

5. ASSIGNMENT OF AGENT'S INVENTIONS

Agent agrees, in view of the confidential information regarding Principal's business affairs, plans and necessities, that Agent will be in a position to obtain from time to time, and in partial consideration of the commissions agreed to be paid to Agent under this agreement, that Agent, on demand, will assign to Principal, or Principal's successors or assigns, any inventions or improvements Agent may make during the agency with Principal that relate to Principal's product. Agent also will sign any papers and do any acts that may be needed to secure to Principal, or Principal's successors or assigns, any rights relating to such inventions and improvements, including patents in [COUNTRY] and foreign countries.

6. COMMISSIONS

- a. Agent, during the term of the agreement, shall receive a commission from the sale of Principal's product [if appropriate, add: and other regular-line products and accessories] sold for use in Agent's territory, whether sold by Agent or by Principal, or others, except as provided in this agreement.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- b. Agent's commission on sales made pursuant to this agreement shall be as follows:
[DESCRIBE].

7. SALES SUBJECT TO COMMISSIONS

This agreement shall apply to business procured at the time of visits to Agent's territory by Principal's superintendent, and also to all business subsequently procured either by Agent, Principal's superintendent or other representative of Principal, from customers previously worked within [NUMBER] months from the date of the latest visit of Principal's superintendent or other representative.

8. WHEN COMMISSIONS ARE PAID

- a. Any commission to be received under this agreement shall not be credited to Agent's account on Principal's books until the purchaser has made settlement in full with Principal, either by cash or acceptable notes [SPECIFY] [if appropriate, add: and has delivered to Principal or an authorized Agent of Principal any returnable products]. If settlement is made wholly or in part by purchaser's notes, Principal may withhold payment of the commission in whole or in part until the notes are paid.
- b. Agent's account may be charged with the amount of any commission previously paid to Agent or credited to Agent's account for the unpaid part of the purchase price of [product], or the unpaid part of any note given in payment.
- c. When Principal repossesses a product, Agent shall receive commission only on the amount of money paid by purchaser prior to repossession.

9. COMMISSIONS ON TRADE-INS

Principal shall have the right to fix the amount to be allowed for products taken in exchange, and a commission will not be paid on the amount so allowed.

10. SALES THROUGH OTHER SALES CHANNELS

Agent waives any claim to a commission on any sales made in Agent's territory other than through Principal's offices or regular sales agencies when, in the opinion of Principal, the general conditions of the business in any part of the [COUNTRY] necessitate the sale of Principal's product through other sales channels.

11. SALES IN OR FROM OTHER TERRITORIES

- a. Agent agrees not to enter the territory of any other Sales Agent of Principal for the purpose of selling Principal's product, or to endeavor, directly or indirectly, to make sales of Principal's product for use outside of Agent's territory. Should a purchaser call on Agent voluntarily and purchase Principal's product for use outside of Agent's territory, Agent shall receive commissions as follows: [DESCRIBE].
- b. Agent further agrees that, when any other authorized sales Agent of Principal sells Principal's product for use in Agent's territory, Agent's account shall be credited with the regular commission, less the commission paid Agent making the sale.

12. DISPUTES ON COMMISSIONS

Principal shall have the right to determine, in any dispute arising between Agent and any other sales Agent of Principal, the right to commission on any sale, and Agent shall abide by and be bound by Principal's decision.

13. LIMITATION ON COMMISSION CLAIMS

Agent waives all claim for commission on sales of Principal's product, whether made by Agent or others, and all other claims of any nature whatever, if the claim is not made within [MONTHS] from the date of termination of this agreement.

14. AGENT NOT TO SHARE COMMISSION

Under no circumstances, without permission of Principal, may Agent give any part of Agent's commission to any assistant, local Agent or other person to assist Agent in making a sale.

OBJECTION MY LORD

15. CONTENTS OF ORDERS

- a. All orders for Principal's product shall be taken on printed forms furnished by Principal, and all such orders shall be sent to Principal immediately after being signed by purchasers. The orders shall contain all conditions and agreements of every nature whatsoever between the parties to the sale, it being agreed that Principal shall not be responsible for promises or conditions not specified on the orders. Principal's product shall not be sold for more or less than the list price established by Principal.
- b. If Principal is compelled to make any concessions to customers or incur any expense by reason of a violation of these requirements, the amount of the expense may be charged to Agent's account.

16. ACCEPTANCE OF ORDERS BY PRINCIPAL

Orders taken by Agent shall not be binding until accepted by Principal. Principal reserves the right to reject any order when, in the judgment of Principal, the product ordered may not be suitable to the business of the customer.

17. AGENT NOT TO COMPETE

Agent, having agreed to devote Agent's whole time to Principal's business, shall not purchase or deal in [product] on Agent's own account in any way during the continuance of this agreement. Agent will not engage, directly or indirectly, either for Agent or as employee of any other party, in manufacturing, buying, selling or dealing in [product], in the territory described, for a period of [period of time], after the termination of the agency created by this agreement, without the written consent of Principal.

18. REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE OF PRODUCT

Agent shall promptly and properly make necessary repairs on Principal's product in Agent's territory if such repairs can be made by Agent, and to cooperate with and aid Principal in making all other such repairs in Agent's territory, in such manner as Principal may direct.

19. COMPROMISE AND COLLECTION OF ACCOUNTS

A. Principal shall have full control of and discretion as to the collection, adjustment or compromise of any or all accounts for Principal's products sold by Agent. If Principal requests Agent to make any collection, or to obtain possession of Principal's product or other property, whether the request relates to a sale made by Agent or any Agent that preceded Agent in the territory, Agent shall do so promptly.

B. Principal shall determine whether to take a lien on Principal's product sold by Agent. Principal shall not be liable to Agent for any loss of commission or other claim, by reason of failure to take such lien, or by reason of any compromise or adjustment of any account or accounts or notes for products sold by Agent, or any failure for any reason to collect any part of the account or notes.

20. REMITTALS BY AGENT

Agent agrees to remit [daily/weekly] to Principal, in the manner prescribed by [the treasurer], of Principal or to deposit [daily/weekly] in a bank or other financial institution designated by Principal's [treasurer], all money, checks and drafts received by Agent for Principal, including any received for repair parts and supplies sold. In no event will Agent use any money collected for Principal to defray the expenses of the agency, or for any other purpose, or deposit the funds in any bank or other financial institution to Agent's own credit.

21. AGENT'S EXPENSES

All expenses for traveling, entertainment, office, clerical, office and equipment maintenance, and general selling expenses that may be incurred by Agent in connection with this agreement will be borne wholly by Agent. In no case shall Principal be responsible or liable for such expenses.

22. ACCOUNTING ON TERMINATION

- a. Agent authorizes Principal, on termination of the agency created by this agreement, to pay any outstanding indebtedness, including amounts due Agent and Agent's employees incurred in the management of the agency, and to charge the amount to Agent's account. Principal shall not be bound to pay any such indebtedness, unless Principal shall elect to do so. Payment of part of Agent's indebtedness by Principal shall not raise any obligation on Principal's part to pay the whole of the indebtedness. An assignment of Agent's account, or any part of it, shall not be binding on Principal unless accepted in writing by Principal's [treasurer].
- b. On termination of this agreement, Principal shall proceed in the customary manner to collect notes and open accounts for purchases of Principal's product sold by Agent and shall charge against Agent's account the commission previously credited on such amounts of notes and accounts as are uncollected. Principal also shall charge Agent's account with Agent's proportion of any collection expense. This provision shall continue in force until a final account can be stated; no money shall be due Agent under this agreement after its termination until the final account can be stated.

23. OBJECTIONS TO ACCOUNTING; LIMITATIONS

Agent agrees that all objections to statements of account rendered by Principal are waived, unless written notice is given by Agent and unless such notice reaches Principal within [NUMBER] days after rendition of the statement by Principal.

24. SURETY BOND OF AGENT

Agent agrees to furnish Principal with a fidelity bond of [AMOUNT], to be issued by a responsible surety company and conditioned on the faithful performance of Agent's duties in the agency created by this agreement. All premiums on such bond shall be paid by Agent.

25. EXAMINATION OF AGENT'S ACCOUNTS

Agent agrees that officers or authorized representatives of Principal shall have, on demand, access to and the right to examine and make copies of all books of accounts, vouchers and papers of Agent, in order to ascertain whether the business of Agent is being conducted in a manner satisfactory to Principal.

26. DISPOSITION OF PRODUCTS; CONSIGNMENT

- a. Agent agrees, on demand, to account for and deliver to Principal, in good condition, all products charged to Agent's consignment account. If Agent fails to deliver any product, the product may be charged to Agent's account at list price, if Principal so elects, but nothing contained in this agreement shall prevent Principal from exercising other legal remedies to recover possession of such products.
- b. In the event any of Principal's products shall have been kept on consignment by Agent for such period of time that they have become unsaleable as new, Principal may order their return to the factory, in which event the freight charges from Agent's office to the factory shall be paid by Agent.

27. INSURANCE PREMIUMS; TAXES

Principal shall insure against loss by fire all products delivered on consignment to Agent, charging the premium paid for the insurance to Agent's account. Agent shall pay all personal property taxes levied on consigned products, or shall pay such tax as may be levied in lieu of a personal property tax.

28. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

Agent agrees, for the benefit of Agent's employees and subagents, to comply in all respects with the workers' compensation laws of any state or states of which Agent's territory may be a part, and to pay the premiums and other costs and expenses incident to such coverage.

29. CUSTOMER LIST; SALES CALLS

- a. Agent agrees to keep a list of probable purchasers, and also a list of users, of Principal's products in Agent's territory. Both lists shall show the name, nature and address of each business concern listed. The user's list shall also show the style and factory number of Principal's product in use.
- b. Agent agrees to send to Principal, on the form furnished by Principal, a list of all persons called on by Agent or Agent's employees in connection with Principal's business. The list shall show the name, nature and address of each business concern called on, and the object and results of the call.

30. DEPRECIATION OF AGENCY PROPERTY

The office furniture, personal property and fixtures used by Agent in Principal's business shall be invoiced and appraised at least once each year by Agent and a representative of Principal, and a deduction of not less than [%] per year shall be made to cover wear and tear in ordinary depreciation.

31. PURCHASE OF AGENCY PROPERTY

Principal shall have an option of purchase of all or any part of the supplies, repair parts, vehicles and sundries in stock or on hand at the time of termination of the agency, at the current price, less proper deductions for obsolescence and depreciation, if any. Such price shall be paid to Agent or credited on Agent's account with Principal, as Principal may elect.

OBJECTION MY LORD

32. EMPLOYMENT OF SUBAGENTS

Agent agrees not to employ any salespersons to assist in the agency, except under written agreement by the terms of which Principal shall be released from all liability for any indebtedness from Agent to such salespersons. Agent agrees not to employ any person until Agent has supplied Principal with full particulars regarding such person, on the form furnished by Principal, giving the person's name, record, previous occupation, etc., and until Principal's assent to such employment has been received.

33. MODIFICATION AND TERMINATION

Principal at any time may alter and change the boundaries and territory covered by this agency agreement. The agency created by this agreement may be terminated by either party by written notice mailed or delivered to the last known address of the other party. This agreement covers all agreements between Agent and Principal relating to the employment of Agent for the handling of Principal's product.

34. GOVERNING LAW

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Stockholders together own [%] of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation, and

OBJECTION MY LORD

WHEREAS, as used herein, the term "shares" shall mean all shares of common stock, at [VALUE] par share, of the Corporation now owned or hereafter acquired by the parties, and

WHEREAS, the Stockholders are actively engaged in the conduct of the business of the Corporation, and it is contemplated that success or failure of the corporate enterprise will at all times depend in large measure on the personal abilities of the Stockholders, and

WHEREAS, there is not now, nor is there likely in the future to be a substantial market for the shares of the Corporation, and

WHEREAS, for the foregoing reasons, the parties desire to provide for the purchase by another Stockholder or by the Corporation of the stock of any party desiring to sell the same; and for the purchase by the Corporation of the stock of a deceased party.

IT IS THEREFORE AGREED, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants hereinafter set forth, as follows:

1. Restriction During Life

No stockholder shall transfer or encumber any of his shares of capital stock of the Corporation during his lifetime to any person, firm or corporation, without the consent of the Corporation and the other Stockholder, unless the Stockholder desiring to make the transfer or encumber (hereinafter referred to also as the "Transferor") shall have first made the offer hereinafter described and such offer shall not have been accepted.

a) Offer by the Transferor

The offer shall be given pro rata initially to the other Stockholder(s) and shall consist of an offer to sell or encumber all of the shares of the capital stock of the Corporation owned by the Transferor, to which shall be attached a statement of intention to transfer, the name and address of such prospective transferee, the number of shares of capital stock involved, and the terms of such transfer or encumbrance.

b) Acceptance of Offer

Within [NUMBER] days after the receipt of such offer the other Stockholder(s) may, at their option, elect to accept the offer. If such offer is not accepted by the other Stockholder(s), the Corporation may within [NUMBER] days after the rejection of such offer, at its option, elect to accept the offer. The Corporation shall exercise its election to purchase by giving notice thereof to the Transferor and to the other Stockholder(s). The other Stockholder(s) shall exercise the election to purchase by giving notice thereof to the Transferor and to the Corporation. In either event, the notice shall specify a date for the closing of the transaction, which shall not be more than [NUMBER] days after the date of the giving of such notice.

c) Purchase Price

The purchase price for, or the consideration for the encumbrance of the shares of the capital stock of the Corporation owned by the Transferor shall be set forth in paragraph 3 hereof.

d) Closing of Transaction

The closing of the transaction shall take place at the principal office of the Corporation. The consideration shall be paid as provided for in paragraph 3 hereof. Certificates for all shares sold or encumbered hereunder, property endorsed to Corporation or to the purchasing Stockholder, as the case may be, shall be delivered by transferor not later than the date of closing.

e) Release from Restriction

If the offer is neither accepted by the Corporation nor by the other Stockholder(s), the Transferor may make a bona fide transfer to the prospective transferee named in the statement attached to the offer, such transfer to be made only in strict accordance with the terms therein stated. However, if the Transferor shall fail to make such transfer within [NUMBER] days following the expiration of the election period by the other Stockholder(s), such shares of capital stock shall again become subject to all of the restrictions of this Agreement, provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be construed as releasing any shares of this Corporation from any restriction or requirement of law concerning transfer of such shares.

OBJECTION MY LORD

f) Termination of Employment

Any Stockholder whose employment in any capacity with the company or its subsidiaries terminates for any reason whatsoever, voluntarily or involuntarily, shall be considered as of the date of such termination of employment to have made an offer of all of his shares of stock subject to the terms of this Agreement, at the purchase price stated in paragraph 3 hereof.

g) Subchapter "S" Election

If at the time of a transfer of stock permitted hereunder, the Corporation then is an "S" corporation, the transferee and new stockholder shall be required to consent in writing not to revoke such "S" election without the unanimous approval of all other stockholders.

2. Purchase Upon Death

Upon the death of a Stockholder (hereinafter referred to as Decedent), all of the shares of the capital stock of the Corporation owned by him, and to which he or his estate shall be entitled, shall be sold and purchased as hereinafter provided:

a) Obligation of the Corporation to Purchase

It shall be for the Corporation to purchase from the Decedent's Personal Representative, and the Decedent's Personal Representative shall be obligated to sell to the Corporation, all of the shares of the capital stock of the Corporation owned by the Decedent and to which the Decedent or his Personal Representative shall be entitled, at the price set forth in paragraph 3 hereof.

b) Closing

The closing of such purchase and sale shall take place at the offices of the Corporation, at a date selected by the Corporation upon [NUMBER] days notice to the Transferor which date shall be not more than [NUMBER] days following the date of the qualification of the Personal Representative and not less than [NUMBER] days following such date.

c) Insurance

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

To insure or partially insure its obligation under this Agreement to purchase from the estate of a deceased Stockholder the shares owned by him prior to his death, the Corporation shall have the option to purchase policies of insurance covering the lives of each Stockholder in any amount deemed desirable. In the event any Stockholder ceases to be a Stockholder of the Corporation, the Corporation shall terminate any such insurance on such Stockholder's life and in the event any Stockholder increases his holdings of the shares of the Corporation, the Corporation shall procure and maintain, if so desired by it, additional insurance on the life of such Stockholder proportionate to the increase in the holdings of such Stockholder.

If the corporation shall receive any proceeds of any policy on the life of the Decedent, such proceeds shall be used by the Corporation to pay the Decedent's Personal Representative to the extent of the purchase price of the Decedent's stock, such payment to be deemed made on account of such purchase price.

d) Balance of Purchase Price

If the amount of any insurance proceeds is insufficient to pay the purchase price of any Decedent's shares, then the balance of the purchase price remaining after credit for any insurance proceeds shall be payable as follows: [%] of the balance due to be paid shall be paid in cash, and the balance shall be represented by a promissory note executed by the purchaser payable in [NUMBER] installments, which note shall be secured by the stock of the deceased Stockholder.

e) "S" Election

If the corporation is an "S" corporation at the time of the transfer and sale of its stock, the transferee and new stockholder shall be required to consent in writing not to revoke such "S" election without the unanimous approval of all other stockholders. Such written consent shall be submitted prior to the delivery of the shares to the transferee.

3. Consideration

Unless the parties agree to another price in writing, the price for each share of capital stock to be sold under this Agreement shall be equal to its fair market value as an on-going business concern as determined in the sole discretion of the company's Certified Public Accountant, (CPA) and such determination by the CPA shall be binding and conclusive upon the parties hereto.

OBJECTION MY LORD

Unless the parties agree otherwise, the purchase price shall be paid as follows:

- iv. [%] of the amount determined to be due as the price to be paid at the closing in addition to any insurance proceeds and the balance to be payable by the execution of a promissory note in such amount to be repaid in [number] installments, such note to be secured by the stock being sold.
- v. The promissory note shall bear interest until paid in full at the prime rate as determined from time to time by [BANK NAME] or any other bank as determined by and agreed upon by the Stockholders.
- vi. In the event that suit shall be required to collect on the promissory notes above referred to, then in such event, the defaulting Stockholder or the Corporation shall pay for attorney fees, and courts costs, incurred in such action.

4. Limitation on Stockholder's Right to Pledge Stock

The restrictions of paragraph 1 above shall not apply to encumbrances as collateral for a note or notes in favor of the company or any one or more of the other Stockholders or in favor of a recognized lending institution, but only if the proceeds of such loan are used in their entirety to purchase shares of the Corporation and the borrowing Stockholder delivers to the Corporation and the other Stockholder(s) the written commitment of the lender, in form acceptable to the Corporation that such lender will not dispose of such shares without first affording the Corporation and the other Stockholder(s) the right for a period of [NUMBER] days to purchase shares at a price satisfactory to the Corporation and the other Stockholder(s).

5. Corporate Restrictions After Purchase

So long as any part of the purchase price of shares of capital stock sold in accordance with this Agreement remains unpaid, the Corporation shall not:

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- vii. declare or pay dividends on its capital stock;
- viii. reorganize its capital structure;
- ix. merge or consolidate with any other corporation, or sell any of its assets except in the regular course of business;
- x. increase the salary of any officer or executive employee of the Corporation;
- xi. allow any of its obligations to become in default; or
- xii. allow any judgments against the Corporation or any liens against the Corporation's property to remain unsatisfied.

So long as any part of such purchase price remains unpaid, the Transferor, or the Personal Representative of the Decedent shall have the right to examine the books and records of the Corporation from time to time and to receive copies of all accounting reports and tax returns prepared for the Corporation. If the Corporation breaches any of its obligations under this paragraph, the Transferor or the Personal Representative, in addition to any other remedies available, may elect to declare the entire unpaid purchase price due and payable forthwith.

6. Purchase By Stockholder

Whenever a Stockholder purchases shares of capital stock under this Agreement, such purchaser (unless he shall have paid the entire purchase price in cash) shall, following the delivery of the purchased stock, endorse the new certificates of stock issued to such purchaser, and deliver the same to the Seller as collateral security for the payment of the unpaid purchase price; and such capital stock shall be so held until the entire purchase price shall be paid. While such capital shall be so held as collateral security and so long as the Purchaser is not in default, the Purchaser shall be entitled to all voting rights with respect thereto. Dividends paid shall be applied to the indebtedness.

7. Purchase By Corporation

Whenever the Corporation shall, pursuant to this Agreement, be required to purchase shares of the capital stock of the Corporation, the Stockholders and the Personal Representative of any Decedent shall do all things and execute and deliver all papers as may be necessary to consummate such purchase. Any note required to be given hereunder by the Corporation as part of the purchase price shall be endorsed and guaranteed by the remaining or surviving Stockholders, who shall not be discharged from such liability by reason of the subsequent extension, modification or renewal of any such note. Until all amounts due are paid, the stock certificates shall be delivered to Seller.

8. Endorsement On Stock Certificates

Each certificate representing shares of capital stock of the Corporation now or hereafter held by the Stockholders shall contain with a legend insubstantially the following form: "The transfer or encumbrance of the shares of stock represented by the within certificate is restricted under the terms of an Agreement dated [DATE] a copy of which is on file at the Corporation office."

9. Value of Purchase Price for Tax Purposes

It is understood that the purchase price, determined as set forth hereinabove, shall be the value of the purchased shares for all tax purposes. In the event such value is later increased by any federal or state taxing authority, any tax liability resulting from such increase shall be borne by the selling Stockholder or his Personal Representative, as the case may be.

10. Amendments

This Agreement may be amended or altered by execution of a written agreement authorized by corporate resolution and signed by all the parties hereto.

11. Notices

Any and all notices, designations, consents, offers, acceptances, or any other communication provided for herein, shall be given in writing by registered or certified mail addressed, in the case of the Stockholders, to his address appearing on the stock books of the Corporation, or to his residence, or to such other address as may be designated by him, and in the case of the Corporation, to the principal office of the Corporation, postage prepaid, by United States Mail, and shall be considered to have been delivered on the [DAY] day following the date stamped by the post office.

12. Invalid Provision

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

The invalidity or unenforceability of any particular provision of this Agreement shall not affect the other provisions hereof and the Agreement shall be construed in all respects as if such invalid or unenforceable provision had been omitted.

13. Modification

It is understood between the parties that this Agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties and no change or modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless the same be in writing and signed by all the parties hereto.

14. Binding Effect

This Agreement shall bind and, unless inconsistent with its provisions, shall inure to the benefit of the Executor, Administrator or Personal Representative, and the heirs and assigns of each of the Stockholders.

15. Prior Agreement

This Agreement supersedes any prior Agreement of the parties.

16. Deadlock

If at any time the Stockholders cannot agree on the Certified Public Accountant of the company and therefore are unable to establish an acceptable price for purchase, the matter shall be submitted to arbitration in the following manner:

- i. Each Stockholder shall, within [NUMBER] days after notice of such deadlock, appoint a Certified Public Accountant, and the two accountants shall then appoint a third Certified Public Accountant within [NUMBER] days after the two accountants are selected, and the average of purchase price determined by them shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the Stockholders, their executors, administrators and personal representatives, and a judgment on such determination may be obtained in any court of proper jurisdiction. The cost of such accounting shall be borne equally by the parties unable to reach agreement hereunder.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- ii. In the event any one of the Stockholders shall fail within the given time to select a Certified Public Accountant to represent him to resolve the dispute, then and in such event, the remaining Stockholder shall have the right to institute suit for specific performance under this Agreement, and the defaulting Stockholder shall pay for all attorney fees and court costs of such action.

22. Indebtedness of a Stockholder

In the event that there is a purchase and sale of shares of stock or interest therein, pursuant to the provisions hereinabove, and there is any indebtedness owed by the selling Stockholder or his estate to any party to this Agreement, then, notwithstanding the said provisions relating to the payment of the purchase price, and any amount to be paid for the stock being purchased shall be applied first to reduce and satisfy any indebtedness owed by the Selling Stockholder or his estate to any party under this Agreement

23. Default

In the event of a default in the payment of any installment of the purchase price, the covenants and conditions of this Agreement, or any Security Agreement given to Sellers, Sellers may declare the entire unpaid portion of the purchase price to be immediately due and payable, and may proceed to enforce payment of same and to exercise any and all rights and remedies provided by the Uniform Commercial Code as well as any other rights and remedies either at law or in equity available to them, and Seller may assign, sell or transfer all or any part of the collateral in such manner, at such price, and on such terms and conditions as Sellers, in their sole and absolute discretion, may determine. Sellers or the Corporation shall have the right to purchase any or all of the collateral, apply any unpaid indebtedness on account thereof, and have a claim against Purchaser for the balance of such indebtedness in addition to any and all remedies available to them at law or in equity.

24. Voting

It is understood and agreed that until the purchase price shall have been paid in full, the Purchaser shall have no voting rights whatsoever.

25. Termination of Agreement

This Agreement shall terminate upon the occurrence of one of the following events:

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- v. The written agreement of the parties hereto or their successors in interest to that effect;
- vi. The bankruptcy, receivership, or dissolution of the Corporation;
- vii. The disposal of all the shares of stock of any Stockholder during his lifetime or by his Personal Representative or estate upon his death, shall terminate this Agreement as to such retiring or deceased Stockholder; or
- viii. All of the issued and outstanding stock of the Corporation becoming owned by one of the Stockholders of the Corporation.

Such written notice shall specify a date for the closing of the purchase, which shall not be more than [NUMBER] days after the date of the giving of such notice. The purchase price for the shares to be paid by the Corporation and terms of payment therefore shall be as set forth in Paragraph 3 hereof.

OBJECTION MY LORD

If the Corporation fails to exercise said option within said [NUMBER] day period, then for a [NUMBER] day period thereafter the other Stockholder(s) of the Corporation shall have the option to purchase such shares, such option to be exercised in the same manner as that of the Corporation, and the purchase price and terms of payment to be the same for the Stockholder(s) as for the Corporation as set forth in Paragraph 3 hereof. The option may be exercised by the Stockholders pro rata (based on that proportion which the number of shares owned by each other Stockholder bears to the total number of shares then outstanding, not counting the shares proposed to be sold), and if one (or more) of the Stockholders does not desire to exercise his option, then his option shall be exercisable on a pro rata basis by the other Stockholders (not counting for any purpose, the shares proposed to be sold or the shares owned by any Stockholder who does not desire to exercise his option); or the option may be exercised by the other Stockholders on such basis as they may agree upon.

In the event that neither the Corporation nor the other Stockholder(s) purchase the shares of the Withdrawing Stockholder, the other Stockholder(s) agree to execute a consent voluntarily dissolving the Corporation. In addition, the Stockholder(s) agree to liquidate the assets of the Corporation as soon as practicable thereafter.

- b. Company, or any Affiliate, sells any Product which is eventually resold in the Territory (other than a sale to Distributor or a party designated by Distributor) and Company, or that Affiliate, had reason to know at the time of its sale of that Product that such resale was likely to occur, Company shall, immediately after the trigger sale (which shall be the resale of the Product in the territory or the sale immediately preceding the use of the Product in the Territory) is contracted, pay to the Distributor [PERCENT] % of the price of that Product under this Agreement at the time that the trigger sale was contracted, which payment shall represent a recapture of certain advertising and capital expenditures made by Distributor. Nothing contained in this Section shall affect any other right or remedy which Distributor may have pursuant to this Agreement.

12. Referrals

If Company or any Affiliate is contacted by any party inquiring about the purchase of Products in the Territory (other than Distributor or a party designated by Distributor), Company shall, or shall cause that Affiliate to, refer such party to Distributor for handling.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- b. Distributor shall, at its own expense, during the term of this Agreement and any extension thereof, maintain full insurance under any Workmen's Compensation Laws effective in the state or other applicable jurisdiction covering all persons employed by and working for it in connection with the performance of this Agreement, and upon request shall furnish Company with satisfactory evidence of the maintenance of such insurance.
- c. Distributor accepts exclusive liability for all contributions and payroll taxes required under Federal Social Security Laws and State Unemployment Compensation Laws or other payments under any laws of similar character in any applicable jurisdiction as to all persons employed by and working for it.

If Distributor does not obtain those distribution rights or obtains them only for a portion of the Territory, and Company or an Affiliate later desires to offer those distribution rights for the Territory or any portion thereof to another party, Company shall first, or shall cause such Affiliate to first, make that offer in writing to Distributor on terms and conditions which shall be specified fully in that offer. That offer shall contain a full description of the subject product and its operation.

Distributor may request, and Company shall promptly provide, or shall cause such Affiliate promptly to provide, further information concerning the product or the offer. If Distributor fails to accept such offer, Company or the Affiliate may then offer the product to another party for distribution in the Territory, but may not offer it on terms and conditions more favorable than those offered to Distributor. 4. NONDISCLOSURE OF PRINCIPAL'S AFFAIRS

Agent agrees to keep confidential such information as Principal may from time to time impart to Agent regarding Principal's business affairs and customers. Agent will not, in whole or in part, now or at any time, disclose such information.

5. ASSIGNMENT OF AGENT'S INVENTIONS

Agent agrees, in view of the confidential information regarding Principal's business affairs, plans and necessities, that Agent will be in a position to obtain from time to time, and in partial consideration of the commissions agreed to be paid to Agent under this agreement, that Agent, on demand, will assign to Principal, or Principal's successors or assigns, any inventions or improvements Agent may make during the agency with Principal that relate to Principal's product. Agent also will sign any papers and do any acts that may be needed to secure to Principal, or Principal's successors or assigns, any rights relating to such inventions and improvements, including patents in [COUNTRY] and foreign countries.

6. COMMISSIONS

- a. Agent, during the term of the agreement, shall receive a commission from the sale of Principal's product [if appropriate, add: and other regular-line products and accessories] sold for use in Agent's territory, whether sold by Agent or by Principal, or others, except as provided in this agreement.
- b. Agent's commission on sales made pursuant to this agreement shall be as follows: [DESCRIBE].

8. WHEN COMMISSIONS ARE PAID

- a. Any commission to be received under this agreement shall not be credited to Agent's account on Principal's books until the purchaser has made settlement in full with Principal, either by cash or acceptable notes [SPECIFY] [if appropriate, add: and has delivered to Principal or an authorized Agent of Principal any returnable products]. If settlement is made wholly or in part by purchaser's notes, Principal may withhold payment of the commission in whole or in part until the notes are paid.
- b. Agent's account may be charged with the amount of any commission previously paid to Agent or credited to Agent's account for the unpaid part of the purchase price of [product], or the unpaid part of any note given in payment.
- c. When Principal repossesses a product, Agent shall receive commission only on the amount of money paid by purchaser prior to repossession.

9. COMMISSIONS ON TRADE-INS

Principal shall have the right to fix the amount to be allowed for products taken in exchange, and a commission will not be paid on the amount so allowed.

10. SALES THROUGH OTHER SALES CHANNELS

Agent waives any claim to a commission on any sales made in Agent's territory other than through Principal's offices or regular sales agencies when, in the opinion of Principal, the general conditions of the business in any part of the [COUNTRY] necessitate the sale of Principal's product through other sales channels.

11. SALES IN OR FROM OTHER TERRITORIES

- a. Agent agrees not to enter the territory of any other Sales Agent of Principal for the purpose of selling Principal's product, or to endeavor, directly or indirectly, to make sales of Principal's product for use outside of Agent's territory. Should a purchaser call on Agent voluntarily and purchase Principal's product for use outside of Agent's territory, Agent shall receive commissions as follows: [DESCRIBE].

- b. Agent further agrees that, when any other authorized sales Agent of Principal sells Principal's product for use in Agent's territory, Agent's account shall be credited with the regular commission, less the commission paid Agent making the sale.

12. DISPUTES ON COMMISSIONS

Principal shall have the right to determine, in any dispute arising between Agent and any other sales Agent of Principal, the right to commission on any sale, and Agent shall abide by and be bound by Principal's decision.

13. LIMITATION ON COMMISSION CLAIMS

Agent waives all claim for commission on sales of Principal's product, whether made by Agent or others, and all other claims of any nature whatever, if the claim is not made within [MONTHS] from the date of termination of this agreement.

14. AGENT NOT TO SHARE COMMISSION

Under no circumstances, without permission of Principal, may Agent give any part of Agent's commission to any assistant, local Agent or other person to assist Agent in making a sale.

15. CONTENTS OF ORDERS

- a. All orders for Principal's product shall be taken on printed forms furnished by Principal, and all such orders shall be sent to Principal immediately after being signed by purchasers. The orders shall contain all conditions and agreements of every nature whatsoever between the parties to the sale, it being agreed that Principal shall not be responsible for promises or conditions not specified on the orders. Principal's product shall not be sold for more or less than the list price established by Principal.
- b. If Principal is compelled to make any concessions to customers or incur any expense by reason of a violation of these requirements, the amount of the expense may be charged to Agent's account.

16. ACCEPTANCE OF ORDERS BY PRINCIPAL

Orders taken by Agent shall not be binding until accepted by Principal. Principal reserves the right to reject any order when, in the judgment of Principal, the product ordered may not be suitable to the business of the customer.

17. AGENT NOT TO COMPETE

Agent, having agreed to devote Agent's whole time to Principal's business, shall not purchase or deal in [product] on Agent's own account in any way during the continuance of this agreement. Agent will not engage, directly or indirectly, either for Agent or as employee of any other party, in manufacturing, buying, selling or dealing in [product], in the territory described, for a period of [period of time], after the termination of the agency created by this agreement, without the written consent of Principal.

18. REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE OF PRODUCT

19. COMPROMISE AND COLLECTION OF ACCOUNTS

A. Principal shall have full control of and discretion as to the collection, adjustment or compromise of any or all accounts for Principal's products sold by Agent. If Principal requests Agent to make any collection, or to obtain possession of Principal's product or other property, whether the request relates to a sale made by Agent or any Agent that preceded Agent in the territory, Agent shall do so promptly.

B. Principal shall determine whether to take a lien on Principal's product sold by Agent. Principal shall not be liable to Agent for any loss of commission or other claim, by reason of failure to take such lien, or by reason of any compromise or adjustment of any account or accounts or notes for products sold by Agent, or any failure for any reason to collect any part of the account or notes.

20. REMITTALS BY AGENT

Agent agrees to remit [daily/weekly] to Principal, in the manner prescribed by [the treasurer], of Principal or to deposit [daily/weekly] in a bank or other financial institution designated by Principal's

OBJECTION MY LORD

[treasurer], all money, checks and drafts received by Agent for Principal, including any received for repair parts and supplies sold. In no event will Agent use any money collected for Principal to defray the expenses of the agency, or for any other purpose, or deposit the funds in any bank or other financial institution to Agent's own credit.

21. AGENT'S EXPENSES

All expenses for traveling, entertainment, office, clerical, office and equipment maintenance, and general selling expenses that may be incurred by Agent in connection with this agreement will be borne wholly by Agent. In no case shall Principal be responsible or liable for such expenses.

22. ACCOUNTING ON TERMINATION

- a. Agent authorizes Principal, on termination of the agency created by this agreement, to pay any outstanding indebtedness, including amounts due Agent and Agent's employees incurred in the management of the agency, and to charge the amount to Agent's account. Principal shall not be bound to pay any such indebtedness, unless Principal shall elect to do so. Payment of part of Agent's indebtedness by Principal shall not raise any obligation on Principal's part to pay the whole of the indebtedness. An assignment of Agent's account, or any part of it, shall not be binding on Principal unless accepted in writing by Principal's [treasurer].
- b. On termination of this agreement, Principal shall proceed in the customary manner to collect notes and open accounts for purchases of Principal's product sold by Agent and shall charge against Agent's account the commission previously credited on such amounts of notes and accounts as are uncollected. Principal also shall charge Agent's account with Agent's proportion of any collection expense. This provision shall continue in force until a final account can be stated; no money shall be due Agent under this agreement after its termination until the final account can be stated.

23. OBJECTIONS TO ACCOUNTING; LIMITATIONS

Agent agrees that all objections to statements of account rendered by Principal are waived, unless written notice is given by Agent and unless such notice reaches Principal within [NUMBER] days after rendition of the statement by Principal.

24. SURETY BOND OF AGENT

Agent agrees to furnish Principal with a fidelity bond of [AMOUNT], to be issued by a responsible surety company and conditioned on the faithful performance of Agent's duties in the agency created by this agreement. All premiums on such bond shall be paid by Agent.

25. EXAMINATION OF AGENT'S ACCOUNTS

Agent agrees that officers or authorized representatives of Principal shall have, on demand, access to and the right to examine and make copies of all books of accounts, vouchers and papers of Agent, in order to ascertain whether the business of Agent is being conducted in a manner satisfactory to Principal.

26. DISPOSITION OF PRODUCTS; CONSIGNMENT

- a. Agent agrees, on demand, to account for and deliver to Principal, in good condition, all products charged to Agent's consignment account. If Agent fails to deliver any product, the product may be charged to Agent's account at list price, if Principal so elects, but nothing contained in this agreement shall prevent Principal from exercising other legal remedies to recover possession of such products.
- b. In the event any of Principal's products shall have been kept on consignment by Agent for such period of time that they have become unsaleable as new, Principal may order their return to the factory, in which event the freight charges from Agent's office to the factory shall be paid by Agent.

27. INSURANCE PREMIUMS; TAXES

Principal shall insure against loss by fire all products delivered on consignment to Agent, charging the premium paid for the insurance to Agent's account. Agent shall pay all personal property taxes levied on consigned products, or shall pay such tax as may be levied in lieu of a personal property tax.

28. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

Agent agrees, for the benefit of Agent's employees and subagents, to comply in all respects with the workers' compensation laws of any state or states of which Agent's territory may be a part, and to pay the premiums and other costs and expenses incident to such coverage.

OBJECTION MY LORD

29. CUSTOMER LIST; SALES CALLS

- a. Agent agrees to keep a list of probable purchasers, and also a list of users, of Principal's products in Agent's territory. Both lists shall show the name, nature and address of each business concern listed. The user's list shall also show the style and factory number of Principal's product in use.
- b. Agent agrees to send to Principal, on the form furnished by Principal, a list of all persons called on by Agent or Agent's employees in connection with Principal's business. The list shall show the name, nature and address of each business concern called on, and the object and results of the call.

30. DEPRECIATION OF AGENCY PROPERTY

The office furniture, personal property and fixtures used by Agent in Principal's business shall be invoiced and appraised at least once each year by Agent and a representative of Principal, and a deduction of not less than [%] per year shall be made to cover wear and tear in ordinary depreciation.

31. PURCHASE OF AGENCY PROPERTY

Principal shall have an option of purchase of all or any part of the supplies, repair parts, vehicles and sundries in stock or on hand at the time of termination of the agency, at the current price, less proper deductions for obsolescence and depreciation, if any. Such price shall be paid to Agent or credited on Agent's account with Principal, as Principal may elect.

32. EMPLOYMENT OF SUBAGENTS

Agent agrees not to employ any salespersons to assist in the agency, except under written agreement by the terms of which Principal shall be released from all liability for any indebtedness from Agent to such salespersons. Agent agrees not to employ any person until Agent has supplied Principal with full particulars regarding such person, on the form furnished by Principal, giving the person's name, record, previous occupation, etc., and until Principal's assent to such employment has been received.

33. MODIFICATION AND TERMINATION

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Principal at any time may alter and change the boundaries and territory covered by this agency agreement. The agency created by this agreement may be terminated by either party by written notice mailed or delivered to the last known address of the other party. THE EMPLOYMENT

NATURE OF EMPLOYMENT

Employment with [COMPANY NAME] is voluntarily entered into, and the employee is free to resign at any time, with or without cause. Similarly, [COMPANY NAME] may terminate the employment relationship at will at any time, with or without notice or cause, so long as there is no violation of applicable federal or provincial law.

Policies set forth in this handbook are not intended to create a contract, nor are they to be construed to constitute contractual obligations of any kind or a contract of employment between [COMPANY NAME] and any of its employees. The provisions of the handbook have been developed at the discretion of management and, except for its policy of employment-at-will, may be amended or cancelled at any time, at [COMPANY NAME] sole discretion.

These provisions supersede all existing policies and practices and may not be amended or added to without the express written approval of the [NAME OF THE EXECUTIVE GROUP OR TITLE AND NAME OF THE PERSON RESPONSIBLE].

2.2 EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

[COMPANY NAME] believes that the work conditions, wages, and benefits it offers to its employees are competitive with those offered by other employers in this area and in this industry. If employees have concerns about work conditions or compensation, they are strongly encouraged to voice these concerns openly and directly to their supervisors.

Our experience has shown that when employees deal openly and directly with supervisors, the work environment can be excellent, communications can be clear, and attitudes can be positive. We believe that [COMPANY NAME] amply demonstrates its commitment to employees by responding effectively to employee concerns.

In an effort to protect and maintain direct employer/employee communications, we will do anything we can to protect the right of employees to speak for themselves.

2.3 EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

In order to provide equal employment and advancement opportunities to all individuals, employment decisions at [COMPANY NAME] will be based on merit, qualifications, and abilities. [COMPANY

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

NAME] does not discriminate in employment opportunities or practices based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, or any other characteristic protected by law.

This policy governs all aspects of employment, including selection, job assignment, compensation, discipline, termination, and access to benefits and training.

Any employees with questions or concerns about any type of discrimination in the workplace are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of their immediate supervisor or the [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER]. Employees can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal. Anyone found to be engaging in any type of unlawful discrimination will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

2.4 BUSINESS ETHICS AND CONDUCT

The successful business operation and reputation of [COMPANY NAME] is built upon the principles of fair dealing and ethical conduct of our employees. Our reputation for integrity and excellence requires careful observance of the spirit and letter of all applicable laws and regulations, as well as a scrupulous regard for the highest standards of conduct and personal integrity.

The continued success of [COMPANY NAME] is dependent upon our customers' trust and we are dedicated to preserving that trust. Employees owe a duty to [COMPANY NAME], its customers, and shareholders to act in a way that will merit the continued trust and confidence of the public.

[COMPANY NAME] will comply with all applicable laws and regulations and expects its directors, officers, and employees to conduct business in accordance with the letter, spirit, and intent of all relevant laws and to refrain from any illegal, dishonest, or unethical conduct.

In general, the use of good judgment, based on high ethical principles, will guide you with respect to lines of acceptable conduct. If a situation arises where it is difficult to determine the proper course of action, the matter should be discussed openly with your immediate supervisor and, if necessary, with the President, [NAME], for advice and consultation.

Compliance with this policy of business ethics and conduct is the responsibility of every [COMPANY NAME] employee. Disregarding or failing to comply with this standard of business ethics and conduct could lead to disciplinary action, up to and including possible termination of employment.

2.5 PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS IN THE WORKPLACE

The employment of relatives or individuals involved in a dating relationship in the same area of an organization may cause serious conflicts and problems with favoritism and employee morale. In addition to claims of partiality in treatment at work, personal conflicts from outside the work environment can be carried over into day-to-day working relationships.

For purposes of this policy, a relative is any person who is related by blood or marriage, or whose relationship with the employee is similar to that of persons who are related by blood or marriage. A dating relationship is defined as a relationship that may be reasonably expected to lead to the formation of a consensual "romantic" or sexual relationship. This policy applies to all employees without regard to the gender or sexual orientation of the individuals involved.

Although [COMPANY NAME] has no prohibition against employing relatives of current employees or individuals involved in a dating relationship with current employees, we are committed to monitoring situations in which such relationships exist in the same area. In case of actual or potential problems, [COMPANY NAME] will take prompt action, and this can include reassignment. Employees in a close personal relationship should refrain from public workplace displays of affection or excessive personal conversation.

2.6 CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Employees have an obligation to conduct business within guidelines that prohibit actual or potential conflicts of interest. This policy establishes only the framework within which [COMPANY NAME] wishes the business to operate. The purpose of these guidelines is to provide general direction so that employees can seek further clarification on issues related to the subject of acceptable standards of operation. Contact the President for more information or questions about conflicts of interest.

Transactions with outside firms must be conducted within a framework established and controlled by the executive level of [COMPANY NAME]. Business dealings with outside firms should not result in unusual gains for those firms. Unusual gain refers to bribes, product bonuses, special fringe benefits, unusual price breaks, and other windfalls designed to ultimately benefit the employer, the employee, or both. Promotional plans that could be interpreted to involve unusual gain require specific executive-level approval.

An actual or potential conflict of interest occurs when an employee is in a position to influence a decision that may result in a personal gain for that employee or for a relative because of [COMPANY NAME] business dealings. For the purposes of this policy, a relative is any person who is related by blood or marriage, or whose relationship with the employee is similar to that of persons who are related by blood or marriage.

No "presumption of guilt" is created by the mere existence of a relationship with outside firms. However, if employees have any influence on transactions involving purchases, contracts, or leases, it is imperative that they disclose to an officer of [COMPANY NAME] as soon as possible the existence of any actual or potential conflict of interest so that safeguards can be established to protect all parties.

Personal gain may result not only in cases where an employee or relative has a significant ownership in a firm with which [COMPANY NAME] does business, but also when an employee or relative receives any kickback, bribe, substantial gift, or special consideration as a result of any transaction or business dealings involving [COMPANY NAME].

2.7 OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT

Employees may hold outside jobs as long as they meet the performance standards of their job with [COMPANY NAME]. All employees will be judged by the same performance standards and will be subject to [COMPANY NAME] scheduling demands, regardless of any existing outside work requirements.

If [COMPANY NAME] determines that an employee's outside work interferes with performance or the ability to meet the requirements of [COMPANY NAME] as they are modified from time to time, the employee may be asked to terminate the outside employment if he or she wishes to remain with [COMPANY NAME].

Outside employment that constitutes a conflict of interest is prohibited. Employees may not receive any income or material gain from individuals outside [COMPANY NAME] for materials produced or services rendered while performing their jobs.

2.8 NON-DISCLOSURE

The protection of confidential business information and trade secrets is vital to the interests and the success of [COMPANY NAME]. Such confidential information includes, but is not limited to, the following examples:

- * compensation data
- * Computer processes
- * Computer programs and codes
- * Customer lists
- * Customer preferences
- * financial information
- * Labor relations strategies
- * Marketing strategies
- * New materials research
- * Pending projects and proposals
- * Proprietary production processes
- * Research and development strategies
- * Scientific data
- * Scientific formulae
- * scientific prototypes
- * Technological data
- * Technological prototypes

All employees are required to sign a non-disclosure agreement as a condition of employment. Employees who improperly use or disclose trade secrets or confidential business information will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment and legal action, even if they do not actually benefit from the disclosed information.

2.9 DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION

[COMPANY NAME] is ensuring equal opportunity in employment for qualified persons with disabilities. All employment practices and activities are conducted on a non-discriminatory basis.

Hiring procedures have been reviewed and provide persons with disabilities meaningful employment opportunities. Upon request, job applications are available in alternative, accessible formats, as is assistance in completing the application. Pre-employment inquiries are made only regarding an applicant's ability to perform the duties of the position.

Reasonable accommodation is available to all disabled employees, where their disability affects the performance of job functions. All employment decisions are based on the merits of the situation in accordance with defined criteria, not the disability of the individual.

Qualified individuals with disabilities are entitled to equal pay and other forms of compensation (or changes in compensation) as well as in job assignments, classifications, organizational structures, position descriptions, lines of progression, and seniority lists. Leave of all types will be available to all employees on an equal basis.

[COMPANY NAME] is also committed to not discriminating against any qualified employees or applicants because they are related to or associated with a person with a disability. [COMPANY NAME] will follow any provincial or local law that provides individuals with disabilities greater protection.

This policy is neither exhaustive nor exclusive. [COMPANY NAME] is committed to taking all other actions necessary to ensure equal employment opportunity for persons with disabilities in accordance with all applicable federal, provincial, and local laws.

2.10 JOB POSTING AND EMPLOYEE REFERRALS

[COMPANY NAME] provides employees an opportunity to indicate their interest in open positions and advance within the organization according to their skills and experience. In general, notices of all regular, full-time job openings are posted, although [COMPANY NAME] reserves its discretionary right to not post a particular opening.

Job openings will be posted on the employee bulletin board and/or in the e-mail system, and normally remain open for 15 days. Each job posting notice will include the dates of the posting period, job title, department, location, grade level, job summary, essential duties, and qualifications (required skills and abilities).

To be eligible to apply for a posted job, employees must have performed competently for at least 90 calendar days in their current position. Employees who have a written warning on file, or are on probation or suspension are not eligible to apply for posted jobs. Eligible employees can only apply for those posted jobs for which they possess the required skills, competencies, and qualifications.

To apply for an open position, employees should submit a job posting application to the [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER] listing job-related skills and accomplishments. It should also describe how their current experience with [COMPANY NAME] and prior work experience and/or education qualifies them for the position.

[COMPANY NAME] recognizes the benefit of developmental experiences and encourages employees to talk with their supervisors about their career plans. Supervisors are encouraged to support employees' efforts to gain experience and advance within the organization.

An applicant's supervisor may be contacted to verify performance, skills, and attendance. Any staffing limitations or other circumstances that might affect a prospective transfer may also be discussed.

Job posting is a way to inform employees of openings and to identify qualified and interested applicants who might not otherwise be known to the hiring manager. Other recruiting sources may also be used to fill open positions in the best interest of the organization.

[COMPANY NAME] also encourages employees to identify friends or acquaintances that are interested in employment opportunities and refer qualified outside applicants for posted jobs. Employees should obtain permission from the individual before making a referral, share their knowledge of the organization, and not make commitments or oral promises of employment.

An employee should submit the referral's resume and/or completed application form to the [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER] for a posted job. If the referral is interviewed, the referring employee will be notified of the initial interview and the final selection decision.

3. EMPLOYMENT STATUS AND RECORDS

3.1 EMPLOYMENT CATEGORIES

It is the intent of [COMPANY NAME] to clarify the definitions of employment classifications so that employees understand their employment status and benefit eligibility.

Each employee is designated as either NONEXEMPT or EXEMPT from federal and provincial wage and hour laws. NONEXEMPT employees are entitled to overtime pay under the specific provisions of federal and provincial laws. EXEMPT employees are excluded from specific provisions of federal and provincial wage and hour laws. An employee's EXEMPT or NONEXEMPT classification may be changed only upon written notification by [COMPANY NAME] management.

OBJECTION MY LORD

In addition to the above categories, each employee will belong to one other employment category:

REGULAR FULL-TIME employees are those who are not in a temporary or probation status and who are regularly scheduled to work [COMPANY NAME] full-time schedule. Generally, they are eligible for [COMPANY NAME] benefit package, subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations of each benefit program.

REGULAR PART-TIME employees are those who are not assigned to a temporary or probation status and who are regularly scheduled to work less than 28 hours per week. While they do receive all legally mandated benefits (such as Social Security and unemployment insurance), they are ineligible for all of [COMPANY NAME] other benefit programs.

PROBATION is those whose performance is being evaluated to determine whether further employment in a specific position or with [COMPANY NAME] is appropriate. Employees who satisfactorily complete the probation period will be notified of their new employment classification.

CONTRACTUAL employees are those who are hired as interim replacements, to temporarily supplement the work force, or to assist in the completion of a specific project. Employment assignments in this category are of a limited duration. Employment beyond any initially stated period does not in any way imply a change in employment status. Temporary employees retain that status unless and until notified of a change. While temporary employees receive all legally mandated benefits (such as CSST and unemployment insurance), they are ineligible for all of [COMPANY NAME] other benefit programs.

CASUAL employees are those who have established an employment relationship with [COMPANY NAME] but who are assigned to work on an intermittent and/or unpredictable basis. While they receive all legally mandated benefits (such as CSST and unemployment insurance), they are ineligible for all of [COMPANY NAME] other benefit programs.

3.2 ACCESS TO PERSONNEL FILES

[COMPANY NAME] maintains a personnel file on each employee. The personnel file includes such information as the employee's job application, resume, records of training, documentation of performance appraisals and salary increases, and other employment records.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Personnel files are the property of [COMPANY NAME], and access to the information they contain is restricted. Generally, only supervisors and management personnel of [COMPANY NAME] who have a legitimate reason to review information in a file are allowed to do so.

Employees who wish to review their own file should contact the [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER]. With reasonable advance notice, employees may review their own personnel files in [COMPANY NAME] offices and in the presence of an individual appointed by [COMPANY NAME] to maintain the files.

3.3 PERSONNEL DATA CHANGES

It is the responsibility of each employee to promptly notify [COMPANY NAME] of any changes in personnel data. Personal mailing addresses, telephone numbers, number and names of dependents, individuals to be contacted in the event of emergency, educational accomplishments, and other such status reports should be accurate and current at all times. If any personnel data has changed, notify the [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER].

3.4 PROBATION PERIOD

The probation period is intended to give new employees the opportunity to demonstrate their ability to achieve a satisfactory level of performance and to determine whether the new position meets their expectations. [COMPANY NAME] uses this period to evaluate employee capabilities, work habits, and overall performance.

All new and rehired employees work on a probation basis for the first 90 calendar days after their date of hire. Any significant absence will automatically extend the probation period by the length of the absence. If [COMPANY NAME] determines that the designated probation period does not allow sufficient time to thoroughly evaluate the employee's performance, the probation period may be extended for a specified period.

Upon satisfactory completion of the probation period, employees enter the "regular" employment classification.

During the probation period, new employees are eligible for those benefits that are required by law, such as unemployment insurance and Social Security. After becoming regular employees, they may also be eligible for other [COMPANY NAME]-provided benefits, subject to the terms and conditions of each benefits program. Employees should read the information for each specific benefits program for the details on eligibility requirements.

OBJECTION MY LORD

3.5 EMPLOYMENT APPLICATIONS

[COMPANY NAME] relies upon the accuracy of information contained in the employment application, as well as the accuracy of other data presented throughout the hiring process and employment. Any misrepresentations, falsifications, or material omissions in any of this information or data may result in the exclusion of the individual from further consideration for employment or, if the person has been hired, termination of employment.

3.6 PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

Supervisors and employees are strongly encouraged to discuss job performance and goals on an informal, day-to-day basis. Additional formal performance evaluations are conducted to provide both supervisors and employees the opportunity to discuss job tasks, identify and correct weaknesses, encourage and recognize strengths, and discuss positive, purposeful approaches for meeting goals.

After the employee has completed his probation period of 3 months, the immediate supervisor evaluates the performance of the employee and makes necessary adjustments if necessary.

The annual salary review of all employees is based on performance and is evaluated beginning the month of [MONTH] and effective [MONTH] [DAY] of the current year.

3.7 JOB DESCRIPTIONS

[COMPANY NAME] makes every effort to create and maintain accurate job descriptions for all positions within the organization. Each description includes a job information section, a job summary section (giving a general overview of the job's purpose), an essential duties and responsibilities section, a supervisory responsibilities section, a qualifications section (including education and/or experience, language skills, mathematical skills, reasoning ability, and any certification required), a physical demands section, and a work environment section.

[COMPANY NAME] maintains job descriptions to aid in orienting new employees to their jobs, identifying the requirements of each position, establishing hiring criteria, setting standards for employee performance evaluations, and establishing a basis for making reasonable accommodations for individuals with disabilities.

The [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER] and the hiring manager prepare job descriptions when new positions are created. Existing job descriptions are also reviewed and revised in order to ensure that they are up to date. Job descriptions may also be rewritten periodically to reflect any changes in the position's duties and responsibilities. All employees will be expected to help ensure that their job descriptions are accurate and current, reflecting the work being done.

Employees should remember that job descriptions do not necessarily cover every task or duty that might be assigned, and that additional responsibilities may be assigned as necessary. Contact the [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER] if you have any questions or concerns about your job description.

3.8 SALARY ADMINISTRATION

The salary administration program at [COMPANY NAME] was created to achieve consistent pay practices, comply with federal and provincial laws, mirror our commitment to Equal Employment Opportunity, and offer competitive salaries within our labor market. Because recruiting and retaining talented employees is critical to our success, [COMPANY NAME] is committed to paying its employees equitable wages that reflect the requirements and responsibilities of their positions and are comparable to the pay received by similarly situated employees in other organizations in the area.

Compensation for every position is determined by several factors, including job analysis and evaluation, the essential duties and responsibilities of the job, and salary survey data on pay practices of other employers. [COMPANY NAME] periodically reviews its salary administration program and restructures it as necessary. Merit-based pay adjustments may be awarded in conjunction with superior employee performance documented by the performance evaluation process. Incentive bonuses may be awarded depending on the overall profitability of [COMPANY NAME] and based on each employee's individual contributions to the organization.

Employees should bring their pay-related questions or concerns to the attention of their immediate supervisors, who are responsible for the fair administration of departmental pay practices. The accounting department is also available to answer specific questions about the salary administration program.

4. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PROGRAMS

4.1 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Eligible employees at [COMPANY NAME] are provided a wide range of benefits. A number of the programs (such as unemployment insurance) cover all employees in the manner prescribed by law.

Benefits eligibility is dependent upon a variety of factors, including employee classification. Your supervisor can identify the programs for which you are eligible. Details of many of these programs can be found elsewhere in the employee handbook.

The following benefit programs are available to eligible employees:

OBJECTION MY LORD

Eligible employees are provided with the following benefits (see the [NAME OF YOUR GROUP INSURANCE COMPANY] benefits program handbook):

- * Medical Insurance
- * Life Insurance
- * Long-Term Disability

The [NAME OF YOUR GROUP INSURANCE COMPANY] benefit programs require contributions from the employee of [PERCENT] % of the applicable premiums.

4.2 VACATION BENEFITS

Paid annual vacation is available to eligible employees to provide opportunities for rest, relaxation, and personal pursuits. All employees are eligible to earn and use vacation time as described in this policy:

The amount of paid vacation time employees receive each year increases with the length of their employment as shown in the following schedule:

- Upon initial eligibility, the employee is entitled to a maximum of [NUMBER] vacation days each year or one vacation day per month of service to a maximum of [NUMBER] days, if the employee has less than 1 year of service as of the end of the reference period, which is calculated from [FROM DATE] to [TO DATE].
- After [NUMBER] years of eligible service, the employee is entitled to [NUMBER] vacation days each year.
- After [NUMBER] years of eligible service, the employee is entitled to [NUMBER] vacation days each year.

Once employees enter an eligible employment classification, they begin to earn paid vacation time according to the schedule. However, before vacation time can be used, a waiting period of 90 calendar days must be completed. After that time, employees can request use of earned vacation time including that accrued during the waiting period.

Paid vacation time can be used in minimum increments of one day. To take vacation, employees should request advance approval from their supervisors. Requests will be reviewed based on a number of factors, including business needs and staffing requirements.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Vacation time off is paid at the employee's pay rate at the time of vacation. It includes overtime or any special forms of compensation such as incentives, commissions, bonuses, or shift differentials. It does not include Christmas bonuses or gifts.

As stated above, employees are encouraged to use available paid vacation time for rest, relaxation, and personal pursuits. In the event that available vacation is not used by the end of the reference period, the balance of unused vacation [WILL OR WILL NOT] be paid out to the employee.

Upon termination of employment, employees will be paid for unused vacation time that has been earned through the last day of work.

4.3 HOLIDAYS

[COMPANY NAME] will grant holiday time off to all employees on the holidays listed below:

- [LIST YOUR COUNTRY HOLIDAYS]

[COMPANY NAME] will grant paid holiday time off to all eligible employees immediately upon assignment to an eligible employment classification. Holiday pay will be calculated based on the employee's straight-time pay rate (as of the date of the holiday) times the number of hours the employee would otherwise have worked on that day. Eligible employee classification(s):

- All employees who have worked a minimum of 60 days.

To be eligible for holiday pay, employees must work the last scheduled day immediately preceding and the first scheduled day immediately following the holiday.

A statutory holiday that falls on a Saturday will be observed on the preceding Friday or in the case it falls on a Sunday will be observed on the following Monday.

If a statutory holiday falls during an eligible employee's paid absence (such as vacation or sick leave), holiday pay will be provided instead of the paid time off benefit that would otherwise have applied.

If eligible nonexempt employees work on a recognized holiday, they will receive holiday pay plus wages at one and one-half times their straight-time rate for the hours worked on the holiday.

Paid time off for holidays will not be counted as hours worked for the purposes of determining overtime.

OBJECTION MY LORD

4.4 WORKERS INSURANCE

[COMPANY NAME] provides [BASIC EMPLOYMENT INSURANCE] insurance program at no cost to employees. This program covers any injury or illness sustained in the course of employment that requires medical, surgical, or hospital treatment. Subject to applicable legal requirements, workers' compensation insurance provides benefits after a short waiting period or, if the employee is hospitalized, immediately.

Employees who sustain work-related injuries or illnesses should inform their supervisor immediately. No matter how minor an on-the-job injury may appear, it is important that it be reported immediately. This will enable an eligible employee to qualify for coverage as quickly as possible.

Neither [COMPANY NAME] nor the insurance carrier will be liable for the payment of workers' compensation benefits for injuries that occur during an employee's voluntary participation in any off-duty recreational, social, or athletic activity sponsored by [COMPANY NAME].

4.5 SICK LEAVE BENEFITS

[COMPANY NAME] provides paid sick leave benefits to all eligible employees for periods of temporary absence due to illnesses or injuries. Eligible employee classification(s):

* Regular full-time employees

Eligible employees will accrue on a pro-rated basis sick leave benefits at the rate of 5 days per year. Sick leave benefits are calculated based on a "calendar year," the 12-month period that begins when the employee starts to earn sick leave benefits.

Paid sick leave can be used in minimum increments of one half-day. An eligible employee may use sick leave benefits for an absence due to his or her own illness or injury, or that of a child, parent, or spouse of the employee.

Employees who are unable to report to work due to illness or injury should notify their direct supervisor before the scheduled start of their workday if possible. The direct supervisor must also be contacted on each additional day of absence. If an employee is absent for three or more consecutive days due to illness or injury, a physician's statement may need to be provided verifying the disability and its beginning and expected ending dates. Such verification may be requested for other sick leave absences as well and may be required as a condition to receiving sick leave benefits.

Sick leave benefits will be calculated based on the employee's base pay rate at the time of absence and will not include any special forms of compensation, such as incentives, commissions, bonuses, or shift differentials. As an additional condition of eligibility for sick leave benefits, an employee on an extended absence must apply for any other available compensation and benefits, such as [BASIC EMPLOYMENT INSURANCE]. Sick leave benefits will be used to supplement any payments that an employee is eligible to receive from provincial disability insurance, workers' compensation or [COMPANY NAME]-provided disability insurance programs. The combination of any such disability payments and sick leave benefits cannot exceed the employee's normal weekly earnings.

Sick leave benefits are intended solely to provide income protection in the event of illness or injury, and may not be used for any other absence. Unused sick leave benefits will be paid to the active employees at the end of the calendar year. Employees who quit or that are terminated are not entitled to be paid any unused sick days upon termination of employment.

4.6 BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

Employees who require taking time off due to the death of an immediate family member should notify their supervisor immediately.

Paid bereavement leave will be provided to employees having worked 60 calendar days for [COMPANY NAME]:

- a) Five (5) working days in the case of the death of an employee's spouse, child or the employee's spouse's child.
- b) Three (3) working days in the case of the death of an employee's father, mother, sister or brother.
- c) One (1) working day in the case of the death of an employee's grandfather, grandmother, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, grandson, grand-daughter (except the uncle, the aunt, the brother-in-law, the sister-in-law, the grandfather, the grandmother, the nephew and the niece of the spouse).

Bereavement pay is calculated based on the base pay rate at the time of absence and will not include any special forms of compensation, such as incentives, commissions, bonuses, or shift differentials. The employees on leave without balance, of maternity, disease, in preventive withdrawal, parental leave, will not be able to prevail themselves of this benefit.

OBJECTION MY LORD

Bereavement leave will normally be granted unless there are unusual business needs or staffing requirements. Employees may, with their supervisors' approval, use any available paid leave for additional time off as necessary.

4.7 RELOCATION BENEFITS

When [COMPANY NAME] asks employees to relocate to a new area, certain relocation benefits may be provided to facilitate the transition. Relocation may be available to any eligible transferred employee who must relocate in order to reside within 45 miles of the new place of work. For specific information regarding the terms and extent of relocation benefits, discuss with your immediate supervisor.

Employees must request relocation assistance for specific items in advance of the date the expenses are incurred. [COMPANY NAME] will reimburse expenses only if the employee has received advance approval, incurs reasonable expenses, and submits satisfactory proof of the expense within 30 calendar days of the date the expense was incurred.

[COMPANY NAME] extends these relocation benefits in an effort to contribute to the success of every employee's relocation. However, if an employee separates from [COMPANY NAME] service within one year of the relocation, the amount of the relocation reimbursement will be considered only a loan. Accordingly, the employee will be asked to reimburse all relocation expense.

4.8 EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE

[COMPANY NAME] recognizes that the skills and knowledge of its employees are critical to the success of the organization. The educational assistance program encourages personal development through formal education so that employees can maintain and improve job-related skills or enhance their ability to compete for reasonably attainable jobs within [COMPANY NAME].

[COMPANY NAME] will provide educational assistance to all eligible employees immediately upon assignment to an eligible employment classification. To maintain eligibility employees must remain on the active payroll and be performing their job satisfactorily through completion of each course. Only Regular full-time employees are eligible for educational assistance.

Time worked is all the time actually spent on the job performing assigned duties.

6. WORK CONDITIONS AND HOURS

6.1 WORK SCHEDULES

The normal work schedule for all employees is 8 hours a day, Monday to Friday. Supervisors will advise employees of the times their schedules will normally begin and end. Staffing needs and operational demands may necessitate variations in starting and ending times, as well as variations in the total hours that may be scheduled each day and week.

Flexible scheduling, or flextime, is available in some cases to allow employees to vary their starting and ending times each day within established limits. Flextime may be possible if a mutually workable schedule can be negotiated with the supervisor involved. However, such issues as staffing needs, the employee's performance, and the nature of the job will be considered before approval of flextime. Employees should consult their supervisor to request participation in the flextime program.

Overtime compensation is paid to all non-exempt employees in accordance with federal and provincial wage and hour restrictions. Overtime pay is based on actual hours worked. Prompt reporting of damages, defects, and the need for repairs could prevent deterioration of equipment and possible injury to employees or others. The supervisor can answer any questions about an employee's responsibility for maintenance and care of equipment used on the job. The improper, careless, negligent, destructive, or unsafe use or operation of equipment can result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

In cases where an emergency closing is not authorized, employees who fail to report for work will not be paid for the time off. Employees in essential operations may be asked to work on a day when operations are officially closed. In these circumstances, employees who work will receive regular pay.

Employees are expected to limit expenses to reasonable amounts.

Expenses that generally will be reimbursed include the following:

- Car rental fees, only for compact or mid-sized cars.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- Fares for shuttle or airport bus service, where available; costs of public transportation for other ground travel.

- Charges for one personal telephone call each day.

Employees are encouraged to use their cellular telephone or calling cards when traveling, as hotel charges are excessive.

Employees who are involved in an accident while traveling on business must promptly report the incident to their immediate supervisor. Vehicles owned, leased, or rented by [COMPANY NAME] may not be used for personal use without prior approval.

Cash advances of $250.00/day to cover reasonable anticipated expenses may be made to employees, after travel has been approved. Employees should submit a written request to their supervisor when travel advances are needed.

When travel is completed, employees should submit completed travel expense reports within 30 days. Reports should be accompanied by receipts for all individual expenses.

Employees should contact their supervisor for guidance and assistance on procedures related to travel arrangements, travel advances, expense reports, reimbursement for specific expenses, or any other business travel issues.

Abuse of this business travel expenses policy, including falsifying expense reports to reflect costs not incurred by the employee, can be grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

6.9 VISITORS IN THE WORKPLACE

The unauthorized use, installation, copying, or distribution of copyrighted, trademarked, or patented material on the Internet is expressly prohibited. As a rule, if an employee did not create the material, does not own the rights to it, or has not gotten authorization for its use, it should not be put on the Internet. Employees are also responsible for ensuring that the person sending any material over the Internet has the appropriate distribution rights.

Internet users should take the necessary anti-virus precautions before downloading or copying any file from the Internet. All downloaded files are to be checked for viruses; all compressed files are to be checked before and after decompression.

Abuse of the Internet access provided by [COMPANY NAME] in violation of law or [COMPANY NAME] policies will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. 6.13 WORKPLACE VIOLENCE PREVENTION [COMPANY NAME] is committed to preventing workplace violence and to maintaining a safe work environment. Given the increasing violence in society in general, [COMPANY NAME] has adopted the following guidelines to deal with intimidation, harassment, or other threats of (or actual) violence that may occur during business hours or on its premises.

OBJECTION MY LORD

All employees, including supervisors and temporary employees, should be treated with courtesy and respect at all times. Employees are expected to refrain from fighting, "horseplay," or other conduct that may be dangerous to others.

Conduct that threatens, intimidates, or coerces another employee, a customer, or a member of the public at any time, including off-duty periods, will not be tolerated. This prohibition includes all acts of harassment, including harassment that is based on an individual's sex, race, age, or any characteristic protected by federal, provincial, or local law.

All threats of (or actual) violence, both direct and indirect, should be reported as soon as possible to your immediate supervisor or any other member of management. This includes threats by employees, as well as threats by customers, vendors, solicitors, or other members of the public. When reporting a threat of violence, you should be as specific and detailed as possible.

All suspicious individuals or activities should also be reported as soon as possible to a supervisor. Do not place yourself in peril. If you see or hear a commotion or disturbance near your workstation, do not try to intercede or see what is happening.

[COMPANY NAME] will promptly and thoroughly investigate all reports of threats of (or actual) violence and of suspicious individuals or activities. The identity of the individual making a report will be protected as much as is practical. In order to maintain workplace safety and the integrity of its investigation, [COMPANY NAME] may suspend employees, either with or without pay, pending investigation.

Anyone determined to be responsible for threats of (or actual) violence or other conduct that is in violation of these guidelines will be subject to prompt disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

[COMPANY NAME] encourages employees to bring their disputes or differences with other employees to the attention of their supervisors or the [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER] before the situation escalates into potential violence. [COMPANY NAME] is eager to assist in the resolution of employee disputes, and will not discipline employees for raising such concerns.

7. EMPLOYEE CONDUCT & DISCIPLINARY ACTION

7.1 EMPLOYEE CONDUCT AND WORK RULES

To ensure orderly operations and provide the best possible work environment, [COMPANY NAME] expects employees to follow rules of conduct that will protect the interests and safety of all employees and the organization.

7.2 SEXUAL AND OTHER UNLAWFUL HARASSMENT

[COMPANY NAME] is committed to providing a work environment that is free from all forms of discrimination and conduct that can be considered harassing, coercive, or disruptive, including sexual harassment. Actions, words, jokes, or comments based on an individual's sex, race, color, national origin, age, religion, disability, or any other legally protected characteristic will not be tolerated.

Sexual harassment is defined as unwanted sexual advances, or visual, verbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. This definition includes many forms of offensive behavior and includes gender-based harassment of a person of the same sex as the harasser. The following is a partial list of sexual harassment examples:

- Unwanted sexual advances.
- Offering employment benefits in exchange for sexual favors.
- Making or threatening reprisals after a negative response to sexual advances.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- Verbal conduct that includes making or using derogatory comments, epithets, slurs, or jokes.
- Verbal sexual advances or propositions.
- Verbal abuse of a sexual nature, graphic verbal commentaries about an individual's body, sexually degrading words, or suggestive or obscene letters or invitations.
- Physical conduct that includes touching, assaulting, or impeding or blocking movements.

Unwelcome sexual advances (either verbal or physical), requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when:

- (2) submission or rejection of the conduct is used as a basis for making employment decisions; or,
- (3) the conduct has the purpose or effect of interfering with work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

If you experience or witness sexual or other unlawful harassment in the workplace, report it immediately to your supervisor. If the supervisor is unavailable or you believe it would be inappropriate to contact that person, you should immediately contact the [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER] or any other member of management. You can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal or retaliation.

All allegations of sexual harassment will be quickly and discreetly investigated. To the extent possible, your confidentiality and that of any witnesses and the alleged harasser will be protected against unnecessary disclosure. When the investigation is completed, you will be informed of the outcome of the investigation.

Any supervisor or manager who becomes aware of possible sexual or other unlawful harassment must immediately advise the [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER] or any member of management so it can be investigated in a timely and confidential manner. Anyone engaging in sexual or other unlawful harassment will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

7.3 ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY

To maintain a safe and productive work environment, [COMPANY NAME] expects employees to be reliable and to be punctual in reporting for scheduled work. Absenteeism and tardiness place a burden on other employees and on [COMPANY NAME]. In the rare instances when employees cannot avoid being late to work or are unable to work as scheduled, they should notify their supervisor as soon as possible in advance of the anticipated tardiness or absence. Poor attendance and excessive tardiness are disruptive. Either may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

7.4 PERSONAL APPEARANCE

Dress, grooming, and personal cleanliness standards contribute to the morale of all employees and affect the business image [COMPANY NAME] presents to customers and visitors.

During business hours or when representing [COMPANY NAME], you are expected to present a clean, neat, and tasteful appearance. You should dress and groom yourself according to the requirements of your position and accepted social standards. This is particularly true if your job involves dealing with customers or visitors in person.

Your supervisor or department head is responsible for establishing a reasonable dress code appropriate to the job you perform. Consult your supervisor if you have questions as to what constitutes appropriate appearance. Where necessary, reasonable accommodation may be made to a person with a disability. Without unduly restricting individual tastes, the following personal appearance guidelines should be followed:

- Jeans, bermudas, t-shirt, and shorts do not present appropriate professional attire.
- Unnaturally colored hair and extreme hairstyles, such as spiked hair and shaved heads, do not present an appropriate professional appearance.
- Offensive body odor and poor personal hygiene is not professionally acceptable.
- Facial jewelry, such as eyebrow rings, nose rings, lip rings, and tongue studs, is not professionally appropriate and must not be worn during business hours.
- Multiple ear piercings (more than one ring in each ear) are not professionally appropriate and must not be worn during business hours.
- Visible excessive tattoos and similar body art must be covered during business hours.

7.5 RETURN OF PROPERTY

Employees are responsible for all [COMPANY NAME] property, materials, or written information issued to them or in their possession or control. Employees must return all [COMPANY NAME] property immediately upon request or upon termination of employment. Where permitted by applicable laws, [COMPANY NAME] may withhold from the employee's check or final paycheck the cost of any items that are not returned when required. [COMPANY NAME] may also take all action deemed appropriate to recover or protect its property.

7.6 RESIGNATION

OBJECTION MY LORD

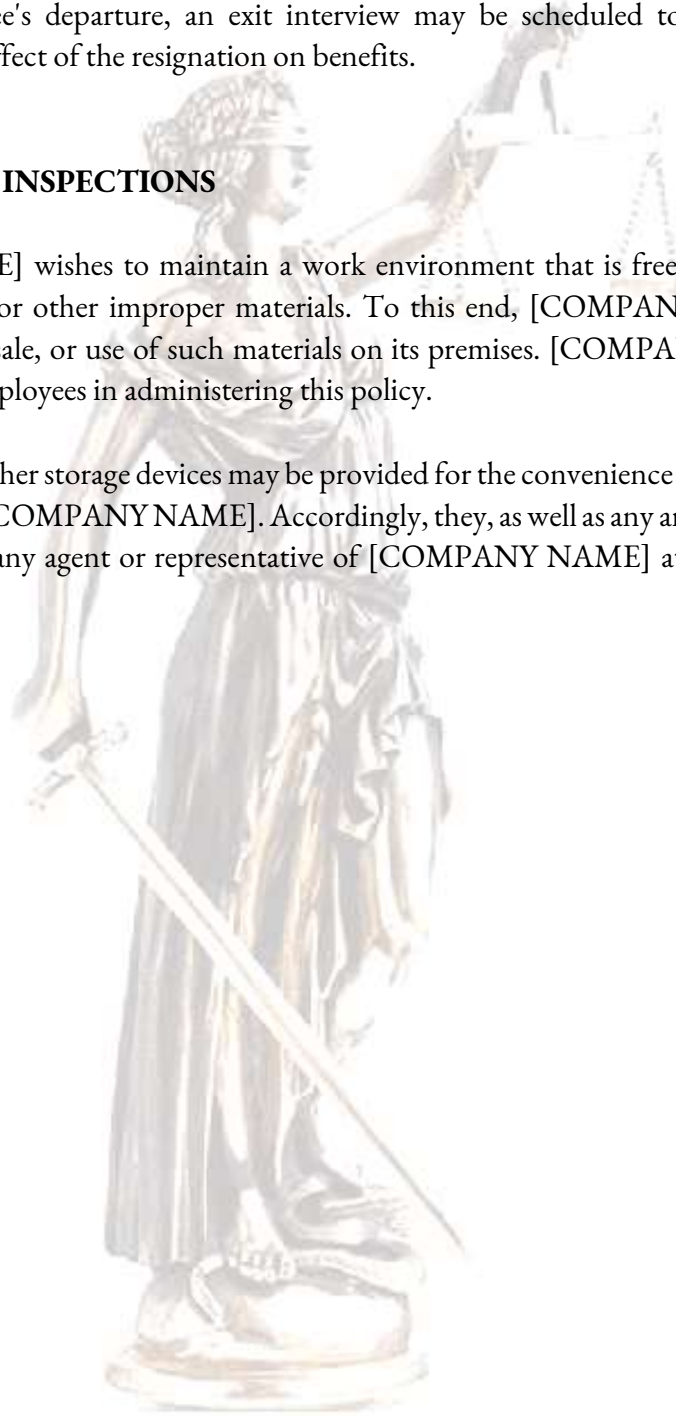

Resignation is a voluntary act initiated by the employee to terminate employment with [COMPANY NAME]. Although advance notice is not required, [COMPANY NAME] requests at least 2 weeks' written notice of resignation from employees.

Prior to an employee's departure, an exit interview may be scheduled to discuss the reasons for resignation and the effect of the resignation on benefits.

7.7 SECURITY INSPECTIONS

[COMPANY NAME] wishes to maintain a work environment that is free of illegal drugs, alcohol, firearms, explosives, or other improper materials. To this end, [COMPANY NAME] prohibits the possession, transfer, sale, or use of such materials on its premises. [COMPANY NAME] requires the cooperation of all employees in administering this policy.

Desks, lockers, and other storage devices may be provided for the convenience of employees but remains the sole property of [COMPANY NAME]. Accordingly, they, as well as any articles found within them, can be inspected by any agent or representative of [COMPANY NAME] at any time, either with or without prior notice.

7.8 PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE

The purpose of this policy is to state [COMPANY NAME] position on administering equitable and consistent discipline for unsatisfactory conduct in the workplace. The best disciplinary measure is the one that does not have to be enforced comes from good leadership and fair supervision at all employment levels.

[COMPANY NAME] own best interest lies in ensuring fair treatment of all employees and in making certain that disciplinary actions are prompt, uniform, and impartial. The major purpose of any disciplinary action is to correct the problem, prevent recurrence, and prepare the employee for satisfactory service in the future.

Although employment with [COMPANY NAME] is based on mutual consent and both the employee and [COMPANY NAME] have the right to terminate employment at will, with or without cause or advance notice, [COMPANY NAME] may use progressive discipline at its discretion.

Disciplinary action may call for any of four steps – verbal warning, written warning, suspension with or without pay, or termination of employment – depending on the severity of the problem and the number of occurrences. There may be circumstances when one or more steps are bypassed.

Progressive discipline means that, with respect to most disciplinary problems, these steps will normally be followed: a first offense may call for a verbal warning; a next offense may be followed by a written warning; another offense may lead to a suspension; and, still another offense may then lead to termination of employment.

[COMPANY NAME] recognizes that there are certain types of employee problems that are serious enough to justify either a suspension, or, in extreme situations, termination of employment, without going through the usual progressive discipline steps.

While it is impossible to list every type of behavior that may be deemed a serious offense, the Employee Conduct and Work Rules policy includes examples of problems that may result in immediate suspension or termination of employment. However, the problems listed are not all necessarily serious offenses, but may be examples of unsatisfactory conduct that will trigger progressive discipline.

By using progressive discipline, we hope that most employee problems can be corrected at an early stage, benefiting both the employee and [COMPANY NAME].

7.9 PROBLEM RESOLUTION

OBJECTION MY LORD

[COMPANY NAME] is committed to providing the best possible working conditions for its employees. Part of this commitment is encouraging an open and frank atmosphere in which any problem, complaint, suggestion, or question receives a timely response from [COMPANY NAME] supervisors and management.

[COMPANY NAME] strives to ensure fair and honest treatment of all employees. Supervisors, managers, and employees are expected to treat each other with mutual respect. Employees are encouraged to offer positive and constructive criticism.

If employees disagree with established rules of conduct, policies, or practices, they can express their concern through the problem resolution procedure. No employee will be penalized, formally or informally, for voicing a complaint with [COMPANY NAME] in a reasonable, business-like manner, or for using the problem resolution procedure.

If a situation occurs when employees believe that a condition of employment or a decision affecting them is unjust or inequitable, they are encouraged to make use of the following steps. The employee may discontinue the procedure at any step.

1. 1. Employee presents problem to immediate supervisor after incident occurs. If supervisor is unavailable or employee believes it would be inappropriate to contact that person, employee may present problem to [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER] or any other member of management.
2. Supervisor responds to problem during discussion or after consulting with appropriate management, when necessary. Supervisor documents discussion.
3. Employee presents problem to [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER] if problem is unresolved.
4. [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER] counsels and advises employee, assists in putting problem in writing and visits with employee's manager(s), if necessary.
5. Employee presents problem to the President in writing.
6. The President reviews and considers problem. The President informs employee of decision and forwards copy of written response to [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER] for employee's file. The President has full authority to make any adjustment deemed appropriate to resolve the problem.

Not every problem can be resolved to everyone's total satisfaction, but only through understanding and discussion of mutual problems can employees and management develop confidence in each other. This confidence is important to the operation of an efficient and harmonious work environment, and helps to ensure everyone's job security.

7.10 WORKPLACE ETIQUETTE

[COMPANY NAME] strives to maintain a positive work environment where employees treat each other with respect and courtesy. Sometimes issues arise when employees are unaware that their behavior in the workplace may be disruptive or annoying to others. Many of these day-to-day issues can be addressed by politely talking with a co-worker to bring the perceived problem to his or her attention. In most cases, common sense will dictate an appropriate resolution. [COMPANY NAME] encourages all employees to keep an open mind and graciously accept constructive feedback or a request to change behavior that may be affecting another employee's ability to concentrate and be productive.

The following workplace etiquette guidelines are not necessarily intended to be hard and fast work rules with disciplinary consequences. They are simply suggestions for appropriate workplace behavior to help everyone be more conscientious and considerate of co-workers and the work environment. Please contact the [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER] if you have comments, concerns, or suggestions regarding these workplace etiquette guidelines.

- Return copy machine and printer settings to their default settings after changing them.
- Replace paper in the copy machine and printer paper trays when they are empty.
- Retrieve print jobs in a timely manner and be sure to collect all your pages.
- Be prompt when using the manual feed on the printer.
- Keep the area around the copy machine and printers orderly and picked up.
- Be careful not to take or discard others' print jobs or faxes when collecting your own.
- Avoid public accusations or criticisms of other employees. Address such issues privately with those involved or your supervisor.
- Try to minimize unscheduled interruptions of other employees while they are working.
- Communicate by e-mail or phone whenever possible, instead of walking unexpectedly into someone's office or workspace.
- Be conscious of how your voice travels, and try to lower the volume of your voice when talking on the phone or to others in open areas.
- Keep socializing to a minimum, and try to conduct conversations in areas where the noise will not be distracting to others.
- Minimize talking between workspaces or over cubicle walls. Instead, conduct conversations with others in their workspace.
- Try not to block walkways while carrying on conversations.
- Refrain from using inappropriate language (swearing) that others may overhear.
- Monitor the volume when listening to music, voice mail, or a speakerphone that others can hear.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- Clean up after yourself and do not leave behind waste or discarded papers.

7.11 SUGGESTION PROGRAM

As employees of [COMPANY NAME], you have the opportunity to contribute to our future success and growth by submitting suggestions for practical work-improvement or cost-savings ideas.

All employees are eligible to participate in the suggestion program.

A suggestion is an idea that will benefit [COMPANY NAME] by solving a problem, reducing costs, improving operations or procedures, enhancing customer service, eliminating waste or spoilage, or making [COMPANY NAME] a better or safer place to work. Statements of problems without accompanying solutions, or recommendations concerning co-workers and management are not appropriate suggestions.

All suggestions should contain a description of the problem or condition to be improved, a detailed explanation of the solution or improvement, and the reasons why it should be implemented. If you have questions or need advice about your idea, contact your supervisor for help.

Submit suggestions to the President and, after review, they will be forwarded to the Direction. As soon as possible, you will be notified of the adoption or rejection of your suggestion.

Special recognition may be given to employees who submit a suggestion that is implemented.

IF YOU HAVE ANY COMMENTS OR SUGGESTIONS REGARDING THE CONTENT OF THE EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK, PLEASE DIRECT THEM TO [HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT OR OTHER].

WISHING YOU A LONG AND REWARDING CAREER AT [COMPANY NAME]!

EMPLOYMENT AT WILL POLICY

We have today a rapidly changing work environment. Both companies and workers are changing directions faster than ever. In order to remain competitive there is a greater than ever need for flexibility and managerial discretion. “At will” employment, which has been “the law of the land” for over a century, provides the flexibility and discretion we deem necessary for the benefit of everyone at this company.

Your employment with the company is “at will.” This means that your employment may be terminated at any time, with or without notice, for any reason, with or without cause. Likewise, you may terminate your employment at any time, with or without notice, for any reason, with or without cause. As you can see, “at-will” employment is a two-way street. Nothing in the employee handbook or any other company document should be understood as creating guaranteed or continued employment, termination “for cause”, or of any other guaranteed or continued benefits. Only the President has the authority to make promises with regard to guaranteed or continued employment and any such promises are only effective if placed in writing and signed by the President.

I acknowledge and understand the “at will” nature of my relationship with the Company.

2. HOURLY EMPLOYEES

All hourly employees, subject to the conditions below, will receive funeral leave in the event of a death in their immediate family. GENERAL SAFETY POLICY

1. Safety – General Policy

Providing safe working conditions and maintaining continuity of employment is of continual concern. In this regard, it is important that adequate policies and procedures be developed and adhered to in order to ensure safe, efficient operating conditions, thereby safeguarding employees and facilities.

The Company will not knowingly permit unsafe conditions to exist, nor will it permit employees to indulge in unsafe acts. Violations of Company rules and regulations will result in disciplinary action.

The Company believes that the safety of employees and physical property can best be ensured by a meaningful program.

a. Employee

Since the employee on the job is frequently more aware of unsafe conditions than anyone else, employees are encouraged to make recommendations, suggestions, and criticisms of unsafe conditions to their immediate supervisor so that they may be corrected.

b. Supervisors

Supervisors are responsible for the working conditions within their department and the plant generally. A supervisor should remain alert at all times to dangerous and unsafe conditions, so that he/she may recommend corrective action, discipline employees who habitually create or indulge in unsafe practices, assess new or changed situations for inherent dangers, and follow up on employee suggestions for corrective action so that unsafe conditions are not instituted or permitted to exist.

2. Safety Committee Meetings

Company operates in accordance with [CODE] guidelines and as such encourages the employee's involvement in company-wide safety committee meetings to be held quarterly. The committee will specify procedures and actions to be taken in the event of fires, security and other emergencies. Decisions and recommendations will be communicated via the departmental team meetings.

3. Injuries

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

All employees are required to immediately report all occupational illnesses or injuries to your supervisor, no matter how minor, and complete an occupational illness or injury form.

GENERAL SAFETY RULES

GENERAL SAFETY RULES

Your safety is the constant concern of this company. Every precaution has been taken to provide a safe workplace. [Name or title of the person in charge of safety] makes regular inspections and holds regular safety meetings. [He or she] also meets with management to plan and implement further improvements in our safety program. Common sense and personal interest in safety are still the greatest guarantees of your safety at work, on the road, and at home. We take your safety seriously and any willful or habitual violation of safety rules will be considered cause for dismissal. [Your company] is sincerely concerned for the health and well being of each member of the team.

The cooperation of every employee is necessary to make this company a safe place in which to work. Help yourself and others by reporting unsafe conditions or hazards immediately to your supervisor or to a member of the safety committee. Give earnest consideration to the rules of safety presented to you by poster signs, discussions with your supervisor, posted department rules, and regulations published in the safety booklet. Begin right by always thinking of safety as you perform your job, or as you learn a new one.

1. Accident reporting

Any injury at work – no matter how small – must be reported immediately to your supervisor and receive first aid attention. Serious conditions often arise from small injuries if they are not cared for at once.

2. Specific safety rules and guidelines

To ensure your safety, and that of your coworkers, please observe and obey the following rules and guidelines:

- Observe and practice the safety procedures established for the job.
- In case of sickness or injury, no matter how slight, report at once to your supervisor. In no case should an employee treat his own or someone else's injuries or attempt to remove foreign particles from the eye.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- In case of injury resulting in possible fracture to legs, back, or neck, or any accident resulting in an unconscious condition, or a severe head injury, the employee is not to be moved until medical attention has been given by authorized personnel.
- Do not wear loose clothing or jewelry around machinery. It may catch on moving equipment and cause a serious injury.
- Never distract the attention of another employee, as you might cause him or her to be injured. If necessary to get the attention of another employee, wait until it can be done safely.
- Where required, you must wear protective equipment, such as goggles, safety glasses, masks, gloves, hair nets, etc.
- Safety equipment such as restraints, pull backs, and two-hand devices are designed for your protection. Be sure such equipment is adjusted for you.
- Pile materials, skids, bins, boxes, or other equipment so as not to block aisles, exits, fire fighting equipment, electric lighting or power panel, valves, etc. FIRE DOORS AND AISLES MUST BE KEPT CLEAR.
- Keep your work area clean.
- Use compressed air only for the job for which it is intended. Do not clean your clothes with it and do not fool with it.
- Observe smoking regulations.
- Shut down your machine before cleaning, repairing, or leaving.
- Tow motors and lift trucks will be operated only by authorized personnel. Walk-type lift trucks will not be ridden and no one but the operator is permitted to ride the tow motors. Do not exceed a speed that is safe for existing conditions.
- Running and horseplay are strictly forbidden.
- Do not block access to fire extinguishers.
- Do not tamper with electric controls or switches.
- Do not operate machines or equipment until you have been properly instructed and authorized to do so by your supervisor.
- Do not engage in such other practices as may be inconsistent with ordinary and reasonable common sense safety rules.
- Report any UNSAFE condition or acts to your supervisor.
- HELP TO PREVENT ACCIDENTS.
- Use designated passages when moving from one place to another; never take hazardous shortcuts.
- Lift properly—use your legs, not your back. For heavier loads, ask for assistance.
- Do not adjust, clean, or oil moving machinery.
- Keep machine guards in their intended place.
- Do not throw objects.
- Clean up spilled liquid, oil, or grease immediately.
- Wear hard sole shoes and appropriate clothing. Shorts or mini dresses are not permitted.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- Place trash and paper in proper containers and not in cans provided for cigarette butts.

3. Safety checklist

It's every employee's responsibility to be on the lookout for possible hazards. If you spot one of the conditions on the following list – or any other possible hazardous situation – report it to your supervisor immediately.

- Slippery floors and walkways
- Tripping hazards, such as hose links, piping, etc.
- Missing (or inoperative) entrance and exit signs and lighting
- Poorly lighted stairs
- Loose handrails or guard rails
- Loose or broken windows
- Dangerously piled supplies or equipment
- Open or broken windows
- Unlocked doors and gates
- Electrical equipment left operating
- Open doors on electrical panels
- Leaks of steam, water, oil, etc.
- Blocked aisles
- Blocked fire extinguishers, hose sprinkler heads
- Blocked fire doors
- Evidence of any equipment running hot or overheating
- Oily rags
- Evidence of smoking in non-smoking areas
- Roof leaks
- Directional or warning signs not in place
- Safety devices not operating properly
- Machine, power transmission, or drive guards missing, damaged, loose, or improperly placed

4. Safety equipment

Your supervisor will see that you receive the protective clothing and equipment required for your job. Use them as instructed and take care of them. You will be charged for loss or destruction of these articles only when it occurs through negligence.

5. Safety shoes

The company will designate which jobs and work areas require safety shoes. Under no circumstances will an employee be permitted to work in sandals or open-toe shoes.

A reliable safety shoe vendor will visit the company periodically. Notices will be posted prior to the visits.

6. Safety glasses

The wearing of safety glasses by all shop employees is mandatory. Strict adherence to this policy can significantly reduce the risk of eye injuries.

7. Seat belts

All employees must use seat belts and shoulder restraints (if available) whenever they operate a vehicle on company business. The driver is responsible for seeing that all passengers in front and rear seats are buckled up.

8. Good housekeeping

Your work location should be kept clean and orderly. Keep machines and other objects (merchandise, boxes, shopping carts, etc.) out of the center of aisles. Clean up spills, drips, and leaks immediately to avoid slips and falls.

Place trash in the proper receptacles. Stock shelves carefully so merchandise will not fall over upon customer contact.

GRIEVANCE POLICY

[Company name] wishes to provide a comfortable, productive, legal and ethical work environment. To this end, the company wants you to bring any grievances you have about the work place to the attention of your supervisor and, if necessary, to upper-level management. In light of these concerns, we have instituted the following grievance procedure:

If you feel that there is inappropriate conduct or activity on the part of the company, management, its employees, vendors, customers, or any other persons or entities related to the company, we request that you bring this concern to the immediate attention of your supervisor. Please try to approach your supervisor at a time and place that will allow the supervisor to properly listen to your concerns. If you have discussed this matter with your supervisor previously and you do not believe that you have received a sufficient response, we request that you present your concerns to your supervisor in writing. Please indicate what the problem is, those persons involved in the problem, and any suggested solution you may have to the problem.

If you do not receive a sufficient response to your written complaint within [NUMBER] working days from providing it to your supervisor, or if your supervisor is the problem, you should contact the next level of supervision, and so on. If you consider the matter an emergency, legal, ethical or safety issue, use your best judgment to expedite the complaint process. The company may have a conference with you and your supervisor or with both of you individually. If the matter is not resolved after that conference, and you believe it still merits attention, it is requested that you immediately place your concerns in writing and bring the matter forward to upper-level management.

It is the purpose of this grievance procedure to help maintain a positive work environment with respect and responsibility towards each other. The grievance procedure is also intended to avoid unnecessary employee claims and company legal exposure. The company cannot promise that your specific grievance or complaint will result in the action you request or that you will be satisfied with the outcome of the grievance procedure.

JURY DUTY POLICY

1. Paid Absence

Time off taken for jury duty is treated as a paid absence for up to [time limit] during any one year. Employees are paid for the time they are absent for jury duty, less the amount they receive for performing jury duty service.

[The above clause for pay during jury duty should be edited to reflect the jury duty laws in your state.]

2. Advance Notice

Employees must give advance notice of the need for time off for jury duty. A copy of the summons should accompany the request.

[The above clause for notification of need for jury leave should be edited to reflect the jury duty laws in your state.]

Military leave is only granted to [COMPANY]'s permanent employees.

2. Employment Rights

The employee's employment rights will be preserved while the employee is on military leave. Pay increases, vacations, and other benefits that would have accrued had the employee not been on military leave of absence will be given to the employee upon returning to [COMPANY] after the military leave is over.

3. Reinstatement

Unless circumstances at [COMPANY] change so drastically while the employee is on annual or active duty military leave that reinstatement is impossible or impractical, when the employee returns to [COMPANY] after military leave, the employee will either be reinstated to the position the employee held before taking military leave or be given a similar position with the same seniority, status, and pay, if in either case the following conditions are met:

1. Proof of honorable discharge from duty.
2. Proof of ability to resume the position.
3. Notice of intention to return is given.

If the employee is unable to return to the same position after annual or active duty military leave, [COMPANY] will arrange for another position at the same seniority, status and pay.

5. Nondiscrimination

[COMPANY] makes it a policy not to discriminate in any way against employees who are members of the military. The employee's job will not be in jeopardy if a military leave of absence is requested or taken. OVERTIME POLICY GUIDANCE

All payments given to an employee as remuneration for employment must be included in calculating the employee's regular rate, except those which [ACT] specifically says may be excluded.

Of course, if a payment is not compensation for employment, then it is not a part of the employee's wages. On the other hand, if a payment is excludable by the [ACT], then it may be ignored when figuring the employee's regular rate and overtime pay, even though it is remuneration for employment.

This chart is not all-inclusive. 3. Overtime Policy Guidance

- Consider staggering work periods
- Communicate your staggered workweek

If you are going to adjust overtime pay to take advantage of the offsets the law provides, make that very clear in your policy and routinely communicate that information. Unless the perception is addressed, employees may challenge the practice unnecessarily as well as feel a lack of candor on the part of their employer.

- Don't treat overtime as a privilege
Your policy should stress that overtime is not a benefit – it is only to be authorized when business demands it. In no instance should overtime be authorized solely at the request of the employee or awarded as a privilege.
- Don't be casual about unreported time
Prohibit in writing and enforce actively a prohibition against “casual work time” and unreported time. Pay for all time and discipline abusers immediately after the fact.
- Don't unintentionally support unreported time
Through management development and supervisory training, aim to dispel the belief that the “good” employee is the one who comes in a little early or stays a little late just to help out and does not report the time.
- Have a clear policy on mandatory overtime

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

If overtime is to be mandatory when requested, state that fact throughout the hiring process and include a statement to be signed by the employee acknowledging an understanding of the company policy regarding mandatory overtime. Even with such a policy, there may be occasions where certain mitigating circumstances, such as illness or death in the employee's immediate family, can and should be exceptions. Document all exceptions to policy.

- Don't fail to include on-call pay in overtime calculations

Pay for time during which an employee holds himself ready for call to work must be included in the regular-rate computation.

- Don't average hours worked in two or more weeks

Each workweek must be treated as a separate unit in computing pay.

- Do not negotiate side agreements with employees to avoid paying overtime

Employees cannot waive their rights to overtime compensation granted them by the federal law, except where the government supervises the voluntary payment of wages due or sues on behalf of the employees. Employees cannot agree that their overtime hours may be paid at a lower rate. Agreements to "kick back" overtime pay and agreements to conceal overtime hours are invalid. Even though employees have agreed to such arrangements, they can still recover the overtime pay specified in the [ACT], possibly by suing you at some point in the future.

PAID TIME OFF POLICY

This company does not believe it is good business practice to pay employees for being sick. Very often sick days are abused or are the result of poor health habits. Instead, we provide regular full-time employees, who have completed their introductory period, with [NUMBER] days of personal leave for every [NUMBER] months of continuous employment without absence. This “wellness day” may be used by you at any time, for any reason, with reasonable notice to your supervisor. Accumulation of personal wellness days will be capped at [NUMBER] days per year and are not an accrued benefit. Personal wellness leave benefits do not accrue during extended leaves of absence or during vacation.

PTO banking provides you with more flexibility to use your time off to meet personal needs, while recognizing your individual responsibility to manage your paid time off.

With PTO banking, you will accumulate a specified amount of time each pay period, and you will determine how you will use it – for vacation, illness, attendance of children, school activities, medical/dental appointments, personal business or emergencies. The amount of time earned will depend on the length of your service with the company.

PTO banking does not replace the company holiday schedule; we will continue to have compensated holidays each year.

1. ELIGIBILITY

You are eligible to participate in the PTO banking program if you are a regular status employee scheduled to work at least [Number] hours per week. Part-time employees working more than [Number] hours per week accrue PTO on a prorated basis, depending on the number of hours worked.

2. DEPOSITS INTO YOUR LEAVE ACCOUNT

The amount of PTO you accrue each year is based on your length of service and accrues according to the Accrual Schedule for Full Time Employees chart below. PTO is accrued as you work. You will not accrue PTO time while you are on an unpaid leave of absence or long-term disability.

3. ACCRUAL SCHEDULE FOR FULL TIME EMPLOYEES

Years of Service	Days Accrued	Hours Accrued	Maximum Annual Accrual (Hours)

4. MAXIMUM TIME ACCUMUALTED

Although you may carry over unused PTO time from year to year, there is a maximum, or cap amount of PTO time you can accumulate. This encourages you to use your PTO and allows the company to manage its financial obligations responsibly. Once you reach your cap, you will not accumulate any more PTO until you use some of the time in your account. After your balance goes below your maximum, you begin accruing PTO again. Maximum accrual is equal to one- and one-half times the annual PTO allotment.

5. TERMINATION

You will be paid for all accrued and unused PTO when you leave the company.

6. MANAGEMENT OF PTO

You are responsible for managing your paid time off. It is important that you plan ahead for how you will use your PTO account. This means developing a plan for taking your vacations, as well as doctor's appointments and personal business. It also means holding some time in "reserve" for the unexpected, such as emergencies and illnesses. The amount you reserve for illness should depend on your personal health and sick leave history.

7. MINIMUM INCREMENTS OF PTO

The minimum amount of PTO you can take at one time depends on whether you are an exempt or non-exempt status employee. If you are non-exempt, you may not take less than [Number] hours off at a time. If you are an exempt status employee you must take PTO in increments of not less than one full day.

8. TYPES OF LEAVE TIME OFF NOT DEDUCTED

Time off taken for certain leaves of absence such as jury duty, bereavement and workers compensation, according to the company policy, will not be charged against your PTO account. Please check with your immediate supervisor regarding these circumstances.

9. NOTICE AND SCHEDULING

OBJECTION MY LORD

Unless you are ill, you are required to notify your supervisor in advance of your intent to take PTO and get approval for the time off. This allows for you and your manager/supervisor to prepare for your time off and assure our staffing needs are met.

There may be occasions, such as sudden illness, when you can not notify your supervisor in advance. In those situations, you should inform your supervisor of your circumstances as soon as possible.

10. RECORDING PAID TIME OFF

The company has instituted the use of a PTO tracking system to keep a record of your account balance and the amount of time taken off each pay period. This system requires the completion of an Absence Report for all time taken off from your regular work schedule. We are required to track absence for time off for illness, work related illness/injury, or the attendance of school related activities for legal compliance reasons. The amount of leave time accrued, used and available will appear on your paycheck stub.

11. TRANSITION PROVISIONS

Most employees will start the new PTO banking system with an account balance consisting of all accrued old sick, personal, and vacation time. You will not lose any days if you come into the plan with a balance greater than your PTO cap. Employees who have hours over the maximum will continue to accrue PTO time and have one year to use time in excess of the maximum accrual.

PERSONAL LEAVE POLICY

The following company policy statement is for personal leave. Generally, personal leave is granted without pay, but without loss of credit for the employee's length of service with the company. Not all companies allow employees to retain their service credit, however.

A personal leave of absence without pay may be granted an employee at the discretion of the company. A personal leave of absence is defined as an absence of [NUMBER] weeks or longer. It is not our general policy to grant personal leaves of absence and such leaves will be granted only under unusual circumstances. A personal leave of absence is not available instead of medical leave.

Granting of such a leave depends on the review of the merits of each case, including the effect the employee's absence will have on the workload of the other employees. Probationary employees are not generally eligible for leaves of absence. An employee must have one year of continuous employment before such a leave will be considered.

Applications for leaves of absence may be granted or rejected as dictated by the judgment of [name of person who approves requests].

Salary and benefits are not payable to an employee while the employee is on a personal leave of absence, with the exception of company-paid term life insurance that is continued for eligible employees for [NUMBER] year of a leave of absence. Health insurance may be continued if the employee pays the full premium at the group rate. Although employees do not accrue benefits while on leave, those benefits accrued up to the time the employee started the leave will be retained.

The employee's exact position, tour of duty, or work area may not be guaranteed upon return from a personal leave of absence; however, all efforts will be made to place the employee in the first available similar job with similar pay. The employee's date of initial employment will be adjusted to reflect the time spent on personal leave.

It is the employee's responsibility to return to work on the date the leave of absence expires. Should the employee fail to return and fail to notify [name of person who should receive requests] of a request for an extension, we will assume that the employee does not intend to rejoin the company and will consider the employee to have resigned from employment. A request for extension of a leave of absence must be in writing and must be received at least [NUMBER] working days prior to the expiration of a leave.

To be eligible for a pregnancy leave of absence, the employee must be a non-temporary, full-time female employee.

1. Maximum Length of Leave

The maximum length of pregnancy leave allowed is [number] weeks. If the employee needs a longer leave due to medical complications, the employee should notify [COMPANY] as soon as possible. The additional leave will be treated the same as any other medical or disability leave.

2. Written Requests

A written request for pregnancy leave must be submitted within a reasonable time. The employee must submit a written doctor's statement, indicating the anticipated delivery date. The employee should inform [COMPANY] of the expected duration of her pregnancy leave so that [COMPANY] may plan around the absence efficiently until her return.

An advance notice of a minimum of [number] week should be given, accompanied by a statement from the employee's physician attesting to the employee's incapacitation.

[COMPANY] will endeavor to return the employee to the same or equal job she had before taking pregnancy leave. Although [COMPANY] does not guarantee a return to the identical job, the employee will suffer no loss in seniority.

PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE POLICY

Purpose

1. To establish rules pertaining to employee conduct, performance, and responsibilities so that all personnel can conduct themselves according to certain rules of good behavior and good conduct.
2. The purpose of these rules is not to restrict the rights of anyone, but rather to help people work together harmoniously according to the standards we have established for efficient and courteous service for our customers.
3. Reasonable rules concerning personal conduct of employees are necessary if the facility is to function safely and effectively. You will be kept informed of department rules and changes to those rules by your supervisor or department head.
4. The company believes that you want to, and will, do a good job if you know what is required to perform your job properly. Your supervisor is responsible for ensuring that you know what is expected of you in your job. Further, it is company policy that employees be given ample opportunity to improve in their job performance.

Policy

Degrees of discipline are generally progressive and are used to ensure that the employee has the opportunity to correct his or her performance. There is no set standard of how many oral warnings must be given prior to a written warning or how many written warnings must precede termination. Factors to be considered are:

- How many different offenses are involved
- The seriousness of the offense
- The time interval and employee response to prior disciplinary action(s)
- Previous work history of the employee

Exceptions

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

For serious offenses, such as fighting, theft, insubordination, threats of violence, the sale or possession of drugs or abuse of alcohol on company property, etc., termination may be the first and only disciplinary step taken. Any step or steps of the disciplinary process may be skipped at the discretion of [company name] after investigation and analysis of the total situation, past practice, and circumstances. In general, several oral warnings should, at the next infraction, be followed by a written warning, followed at the next infraction by discharge. This is especially true in those cases where the time interval between offenses is short and the employee demonstrates a poor desire to improve his/her performance.

Penalties for Specific Offenses

Penalties for Group 1:

- First offense: Oral or written reprimand
- Second offense: Suspension or termination

Group 1 Offenses include:

- knowingly filling out time sheet of another employee
- having one's sheet filled out by another employee, or unauthorized altering of a time sheet
- being tardy habitually without reasonable cause
- being absent without notification or excuse
- leaving your job or your regular working place during working hours for any reason without authorization from your supervisor, except for lunch, rest periods and going to the restrooms
- disorderly conduct on company property
- immoral conduct or indecency on company property
- leaving work before end of shift or not being ready to go to work at the start of shift
- interfering with the work of other employees
- inefficiency or lack of application of effort on the job
- violations of company policies outlined in sections of this policy manual
- contributing to unsanitary conditions or poor housekeeping
- imperiling the safety of other employees
- malicious gossip and/or the spreading of rumors

Penalties for Group 2:

- First offense: Suspension or termination

OBJECTION MY LORD

Group 2 Offenses include:

- gambling on company property
- possession of narcotics, or consuming narcotics on company property
- reporting for work in an intoxicated condition
- responsibility for instigating fighting on company property
- dishonesty or removal of another employee's property or company property without permission
- willful destruction of company property
- insubordination (Refusal to perform service connected with an employee's immediate supervisor or refusal to obey any reasonable order given by an employee's supervisor or by management)
- misrepresentation of physical condition or other important facts in seeking employment
- refusal to perform work assigned to an employee
- absence for two consecutive working days without notification to the company or without acceptable excuse
- petty thievery
- possession of firearms, fireworks or explosives on company property without permission from management

Probation

You may be placed on probation in connection with the written warning for a period of time determined by [company name]. Wage increases, vacations and transfers will not be given during this period, but all other benefits will continue.

Investigative suspension

An investigative suspension is a period, not to exceed [NUMBER] working days, during which time an employee is relieved of his or her job because of alleged serious misconduct. An employee may be placed on investigative suspension when it is necessary to make a full investigation to determine the facts of the case, as in a fighting, insubordination or theft incident. If after the investigation:

- discharge is warranted, the employee shall not be paid for the period of investigative suspension – the discharge shall be effective on the date of the termination interview.
- misconduct is determined, but not of a sufficiently serious nature to warrant discharge, the employee shall receive a warning notice and forfeit pay lost as a result of the investigative suspension and may be placed on disciplinary suspension
- if no misconduct is determined, the employee shall return to work within the prescribed period and be paid for the time lost as a result of the investigative suspension

Disciplinary Suspension

A disciplinary suspension is a period of not more than [NUMBER] days and may be given in addition to the investigatory suspension or as punishment for the violation. The employee is relieved of his or her job assignment because of serious or repeated instances of misconduct and shall forfeit pay lost as a result of the suspension in situations where there is no specific instance of conduct that is so outrageous that justifies termination but there is a pattern of conduct where the employee has continually engaged in one minor infraction of the rules after another and has received a documented verbal and/or written warning for rule(s) infraction(s). Disciplinary suspension would generally not be used as a form of discipline for employees with attendance problems.

Crisis suspension

A crisis suspension is given at the discretion of the supervisor when action must be taken immediately.

Discharge

When the employee is discharged as a result of a serious offense, or as the final step in an accumulation of infractions for which a warning notice or notices have been written, the employee will be discharged for cause instead of being given the option to resign, be laid off, or retire.

Misconduct

[YOUR COMPANY] has a progressive discipline policy. The goal of [YOUR COMPANY]'s progressive discipline system is to give the employee an opportunity to correct employment problems that may arise, rather than to punish employees.

The employee will be kept informed of [YOUR COMPANY]'s rules and the employee is expected to follow them.

Immediate Disciplinary Action

[YOUR COMPANY] believes that engaging in certain types of misconduct should subject an employee to immediate suspension or discharge, rather than allowing opportunity for correction of behavior through progressive discipline steps. The following is a list of conduct for which immediate disciplinary action will be taken: [list of offenses that will be exempt from progressive steps (e.g., violent behavior)].

Disciplinary Steps

Should there be a problem regarding the employee's adherence to [YOUR COMPANY]'s rules, the employee will be given three opportunities to change the unwanted behavior:

OBJECTION MY LORD

1. The employee will be given a verbal explanation of the errant behavior, including a reiteration of what [YOUR COMPANY]'s rule regarding that behavior is. In addition, the employee will be advised of the consequences of further infractions of the rule in question. If no further problems occur with regard to the issue raised at the verbal warning stage, no further disciplinary action will be taken.
2. If the problem persists, the employee will be given a written explanation of the errant behavior, including a reiteration of what [YOUR COMPANY]'s rule regarding that behavior is. In addition, the employee will be advised that continuation of the problem will lead to suspension without pay for a stated period of time. As before, the employee will be given an opportunity to change the unwanted behavior and, if the behavior does not recur, no further disciplinary action will be taken.
3. If verbal and written warnings fail to bring about a change in the undesired conduct, the employee will be suspended and will be informed that further occurrences of the conduct will lead to the employee's immediate discharge, without additional warnings.

[YOUR COMPANY] reserves the right to bypass the disciplinary steps and base its disciplinary action on the severity, frequency or combination of infractions when circumstances warrant immediate action.

Documentation

[YOUR COMPANY] will document a disciplinary process beginning with the first verbal warning. A report of the disciplinary action will be retained in the employee's personnel file, however, if no further disciplinary action is required after [NUMBER] years, the report will remain as part of the employee's personnel file but will no longer be considered a part of the employee's record. Should a challenge arise regarding the disciplinary action in the report, the report may be used in the ensuing grievance proceeding or arbitration.

PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES (STANDARDS OF CONDUCT)

[Company name] wishes to create a work environment that promotes job satisfaction, respect, responsibility, and value for all of our employees, clients, customers and other stakeholders. Every employee at [Company name] has a shared responsibility toward improving the quality of the work environment. By agreeing to work at [Company name] you have agreed to follow the company's rules and to refrain from conduct which is detrimental to our goals. The prohibited conduct that is listed below is not an inclusive list, as the company cannot, with foresight, determine what inappropriate conduct under every circumstance is. Moreover, the company does not limit its right to discipline or discharge employees to the prohibited conduct listed below. Remember that, while we value our employees, the company maintains the right to terminate its employees at any time and for any reason, with or without notice.

Violation of the prohibited conduct set forth below, or any other conduct deemed inappropriate by management, may subject you to disciplinary action, including oral or written warnings, suspension without pay, transfer or possible termination. If you have any questions about your personal conduct or that of any fellow employee, immediately consult your supervisor for clarification.

The following list contains examples of conduct considered improper which may result in discipline, including termination. Again, note this is not a complete list and understand that other behaviors may also result in discipline.

2. Falsification of the hours worked by you or any other employee.
3. Falsification of any other employment related document including, but not limited to, personnel files, employment review documents, intra-company communication, communications with those outside the company, expense records, etc.

16. Failure to keep your workplace in a neat and sanitary condition.
17. Use of obscene or otherwise inappropriate language or conduct in the work place.
18. Failure to provide medical authorizations for medical absences in excess of two days.

21. Off-duty conduct which can affect the company's credibility or reputation.
22. Outside employment which interferes with your ability to perform your job at this company including, but not limited to, that with a competitor of the company.
23. Gambling on company premises.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

25. Taking unauthorized gratuities in connection with company business.
26. Lending keys to company property to unauthorized persons or allowing duplicate keys to be made.
27. Being away from the work area without prior authorization.
28. Harassment of, or discrimination against, an employee, customer or visitor because of that person's race, religion, color, sex, age, disability or national origin.
29. Bad-mouthing or spreading rumors.

Disciplinary Action

As indicated earlier, violation of company policies or procedures may result in disciplinary action, including but not limited to, demotion, transfer, suspension with or without pay, or termination. The company encourages a system of progressive discipline depending on the type of prohibited conduct. The company is not required to engage in progressive discipline and may discipline or terminate an employee where he or she violates the rules of conduct, or where the quality or value of their work fails to meet expectations. Again, our attempt at progressive discipline does not imply a contract with you or that your employment is anything other than on an "at will" basis. This means that both the company and the employee may terminate the employment relationship at any time, for any reason, or no reason at all.

As part of our progressive discipline system, and based on the nature of the employee violation, management will attempt to provide the employee first with a verbal warning, then one or more written warnings, and if the conduct is not sufficiently altered, eventual demotion, transfer, forced leave or termination. Your supervisor will make every effort possible to allow you to respond to any disciplinary action taken. Understand that the company is not obligated to follow any disciplinary or grievance procedure and that you may be disciplined or terminated without going through any procedure.

SALES COMMISSION POLICY

[Company name] pays commissions based on sales procured. The rates of commission, as well as the required [Profit margins], will be given to each new sales employee at time of hire. The company reserves the right to change commission rates and or profit margin requirements as needed to protect the financial integrity of the company.

[Company name] will make every effort to pay commissions on a monthly basis only, and only on final sales. In no event will [Company name] pay commissions later than one week from the date when the money is received for the sale. [Company name] may provide a draw paycheck on the [DAY]th day of the month. [This DRAW IS AN ADVANCE against all commissions earned, and will be deducted from the commission paycheck which will be issued on the [DAY] of the following month.] [If an employee's draw exceeds his commissions in any given month, the shortage will be carried forward, and deducted from the next available commission check.]

COMMISSIONS WILL BE CONSIDERED FINAL AFTER [NUMBER] DAYS! If you have a question, problem or disagreement with the amount of commission paid on a sale, be sure to submit, in writing, the details within [NUMBER] days of the date the sale was finalized.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

[Company name]'s position is that sexual harassment is a form of misconduct that undermines the integrity of the employment relationship. All employees have the right to work in an environment free from all forms of discrimination and conduct which can be considered harassing, coercive, or disruptive, including sexual harassment. Anyone engaging in harassing conduct will be subject to discipline, ranging from a warning to termination.

It is our policy, in accordance with providing a positive, discrimination-free work environment, that sexual harassment in the workplace is unacceptable conduct that will not be condoned.

1. What is sexual harassment?

Sexual harassment is defined as any unwanted physical, verbal or visual sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other sexually oriented conduct which is offensive or objectionable to the recipient, including, but not limited to: epithets, derogatory or suggestive comments, slurs or gestures and offensive posters, cartoons, pictures, or drawings.

[Company name] has adopted, and its policy is based on, the definition of sexual harassment set forth by the [NAME OF YOUR STATE OR FEDERAL REGULATORY COMMISSION]. The [NAME OF YOUR STATE OR FEDERAL REGULATORY COMMISSION] defines sexual harassment as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

- Submission to such conduct is either an explicit or implicit term or condition of employment (e.g., promotion, training, timekeeping or overtime assignments)
- Submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as a basis for making employment decisions (hiring, promotion, termination)
- The conduct has the purpose or effect of interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment

Sexual harassment also includes any employee conduct unreasonably interfering with another's work performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment. Sexual harassment consists of a variety of behaviors by employees directed to other employees including, but not limited to, subtle pressure for sexual activity, inappropriate touching, inappropriate language, demands for sexual favors, and physical assault.

2. What is not sexual harassment?

Sexual harassment does not refer to occasional compliments of a socially acceptable nature. It refers to behavior that is not welcome, that is personally offensive, that debilitates morale, and that, therefore, interferes with work effectiveness.

3. Harassment by Non-employees

We will endeavor to protect employees, to the extent possible, from reported harassment by non-employees such as from customers, vendors and other parties who have workplace contact with our employees.

4. Complaint Procedure

If you feel that you have been the recipient of sexually harassing behavior, report it immediately to the [HUMAN RESOURCE DEPARTMENT OR OTHER RESPONSIBLE NAME AND TITLE] or to any other supervisor. It is preferable to make a complaint in writing, but you can accompany or follow up your written complaint with a verbal complaint. All allegations of sexual harassment will be quickly investigated. To the extent possible, your confidentiality and that of any witnesses and the alleged harasser will be protected against unnecessary disclosure. When the investigation is completed, you will be informed of the outcome of that investigation.

Depending on the complexity of the investigation, you should be contacted within [number plus measure of time (e.g., four days, two weeks, one month)] about the status of your complaint and whether action is being taken.

If your supervisor is the source of the harassing conduct, report the behavior to that person's supervisor or to the owner of [company name].

5. Discipline

Any employee found to have harassed another employee or applicant for employment will be subject to appropriate disciplinary procedure action, including reprimands, suspension or termination of employment.

A person committing sexual harassment may also be held legally liable for his or her actions under applicable law.

6. Responsibility

Each manager is responsible for implementing this policy within his or her area of supervision.

[Company name] wants you to have a work environment free of sexual harassment by management personnel, by your coworkers and by others with whom you must interact in the course of your work as a [company name] employee. Sexual harassment is specifically prohibited as unlawful and as a violation of [company name]'s policy. [company name] is responsible for preventing sexual harassment in the workplace, for taking immediate corrective action to stop sexual harassment in the workplace and for promptly investigating any allegation of work-related sexual harassment

7. Reprisal Prohibited

[Company name] will permit no employment-based retaliation against anyone who brings a complaint of sexual harassment or who speaks as a witness in the investigation of a complaint of sexual harassment.

8. Written Policy

If [company name] should amend or modify its sexual harassment policy, you will receive an individual copy of the amended or modified policy.

SICK LEAVE POLICY

1. Pay for Illness

Employees will become eligible to participate in the paid time for illness program as follows:

- If employed prior to [DATE], employees will be allowed up to [NUMBER] days in the following year
- If employed between [DATE] and [DATE], employees will be allowed up to [NUMBER] days in the following year, and up to [NUMBER] days in the succeeding years.

In addition to illness, sick leave may also be granted for medical, dental, or optical examinations or when a member of your household requires your personal care and attention due to illness.

2. Pay and benefits during sick leave

Illness pay will be based on a regular eight-hour day at straight time and at the employee's base rate. Illness absence of less than [NUMBER] hours in a day will not be considered for payment. Saturdays, Sundays, daily overtime hours, paid holidays, and paid vacation time are excluded as time for which payment will be made under this program.

Weekly insurance benefits will continue to be paid commencing with the first day of certified disability due to accidents and the fourth day due to illness. Thus, in accident and illness cases, the insurance benefit will be paid rather than the paid illness allowance, and any unused illness allowance will be available for use later in the year as needed.

3. Certification of illness

Certification of illness by a physician will not normally be required to qualify for payment under this program.

4. Effect on performance

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

While the company pays you for authorized sick days, we expect you to be honest with us in taking days off only when you are actually ill. Any abuse of this benefit will be taken into account in evaluations of your performance. The company reserves the right to require a statement from your doctor.

5. At termination

When termination of employment occurs, no payment for sick leave will be made.

6. Accrual of Sick Leave

Starting with the first day of employment, sick leave will accumulate at the rate of [NUMBER] day per month. Sick leave may accumulate to a maximum of [NUMBER] days.

An employee may receive compensation for his/her sick leave that has accumulated in excess of [NUMBER] days at the rate of [NUMBER] day's pay for each two [NUMBER] of sick leave accumulated in excess of [NUMBER] days. Payment for unused sick leave will be made during the month of [MONTH] each year, or at other times as designated by [person who approves sick leave].

One day of sick leave for those employees who normally work a [NUMBER]-hour week shall be [NUMBER] hours. A day of sick leave for employees working [NUMBER] or more hours per week shall be [NUMBER] hours.

Permanent part-time employees are entitled to sick leave as earned on a pro rata basis. No sick leave shall accumulate to seasonal or temporary employees. All sick leave payments are to be approved by [person who approves sick leave]. Thus, any employee who is ill is responsible for reporting his or her absence to the appropriate person within one hour after his or her designated time for reporting to work.

[YOUR COMPANY NAME]'S SMOKING POLICY

1. Written Policy

The employee will receive a copy of this policy in the employee's orientation packet. In addition, copies of the policy are posted in various locations throughout this facility including [Name locations; e.g., the break room]. Additional copies are available upon request.

2. Smoking in the Workplace

Because [Company name] is a private building not open to the general public, smoking at [Company name] is not governed by state law or local ordinance. [Company name] allows employees who have private offices to smoke in their offices. Employees who share offices must refrain from smoking in the office if any employee in that office objects. Smoking is not allowed in [List no smoking areas]; however, smoking is allowed in [List designated smoking areas]. Please observe the posted no smoking signs.

3. Smoking/No-Smoking Signs

To support its policy of not allowing smoking in other than designated smoking areas, [Company name] has posted "No Smoking" and "Smoking" signs in the appropriate areas. Each sign posted in an area where smoking is prohibited carries the internationally recognized symbol for no smoking; a red circle containing a lit cigarette with a line drawn diagonally through the circle. Please observe these signs at all times.

4. Non-discrimination

What the employee does outside of working hours and off [Company name]'s premises will not be the basis of any disciplinary action by [Company name]. Nor will [Company name] pursue a policy of discharging employees or refusing to hire applicants because they are smokers.

STATEMENT AND POLICY PROHIBITING ILLEGAL DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

Our company is committed to the principals of Equal Employment Opportunity and is committed to making employment decisions based on merit and value. We are committed to complying with all Federal, State, and local laws providing Equal Employment Opportunities, as well as all laws related to terms and conditions of employment. We desire to keep a work environment which is free of harassment or discrimination because of sex, race, religion, color, national origin, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, marital status, age or any other status protected by Federal, State or local laws. We value diversity and are willing to employ men and women of all ethnic and racial groups, ranging in age from the teens to the sixties and older, and representing a broad spectrum of religions and national origins. The company will make every reasonable effort to accommodate those physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified employee, unless undue hardship would result for the company.

Just as the company bears a responsibility towards this policy, each of us must clearly communicate our disinterest in, or offense taken to, any perceived verbal or physical discrimination or harassment. We are all responsible for upholding this Equal Employment Opportunity policy and commitment. Equal Employment Opportunity laws afford each one of us the chance to succeed or fail based on individual merit.

Prohibited sexual harassment is defined as follows: “Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitutes sexual harassment when:

- a) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment
- b) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual or
- c) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment.

Our company will not tolerate any form of discrimination or harassment! Any employee who feels that he or she has witnessed, or been subject to, any form of discrimination or harassment should immediately notify their supervisor, personnel administrator or other manager at the company. We will promptly investigate any claim and take appropriate action. We will seek to impose appropriate sanctions against any person found to be in violation of this policy. Such sanctions may include, but are not limited to, reprimand, suspension, demotion, transfer and discharge.

OBJECTION MY LORD

Our company prohibits retaliation against any employee who brings forth any complaint or assists in the investigation of any complaint.

If you feel we have not resolved your complaint, and after you have followed the company grievance procedure, you can complain to the [ASSOCIATION], or [AGENCY] found in the local phone book.

TELECOMMUTING POLICY

Employees allowed to telecommute from home or off-site, for some or all of their employment, remain subject to the terms and conditions of employment set forth in the employee handbook and elsewhere. In addition to their existing obligations and responsibilities telecommuters must agree to do the following:

1. Maintain a regular work schedule and an accurate accounting of what they work on and when.
2. Comply with all of the safety regulations that apply to an office. That means having a safe work environment free of clutter, exposed wiring, slippery surfaces, etc. Any employee who telecommutes grants a license to the company to inspect their work premise during normal work hours.
3. Not allow business visitors to their home or off-site work location without the express written permission from their supervisor.
4. Understand that the policies and procedures relating to legal compliance and ethics obligations remain in full force and effect while off-site.
5. Be responsible for any company equipment used off-site. The employee may be responsible for the cost of repair or replacement of any equipment if handled in a careless or reckless manner. The company is not responsible for personal equipment used without express written authorization from the company.
6. Maintain their work product in a safe and secure environment. Any confidential materials, trade secrets or proprietary information should be maintained under lock and key and appropriately discarded.
7. Understand that any injuries occurred at home, or off-site, are covered by the company's worker's compensation insurance coverage. The reporting requirements for a telecommuter related to a workplace injury are the same as if they worked on company premises.
8. Arrange for proper day care or elder care services so as not to interfere with getting your job done.
9. Remember that you are a representative of this company no matter where you are. Please use your best judgment at all times.

OBJECTION MY LORD

I understand and agree to the above.

Holiday / Vacation Policy

The following sample company policy statements are for holiday leave. Generally, holidays are paid leave with no loss of credit for the employee's length of service with the company. The policy below mentions Floating Holidays, which are a couple of days you designate each year just to give your employees a little more time off. If you don't want to offer Floating Holidays, you should remove the reference. If you want your policy to differ in other ways from the policy set out below, you should change this policy to reflect those differences. If you make substantive changes to this policy, however, you should have your attorney look over the changes. A list of holidays typically provided by employers is also included.

1. Annual Holidays

[Company name] observes the following holidays:

- New Year's Day
- Memorial Day
- Independence Day
- Labor Day
- Thanksgiving Day
- Friday after Thanksgiving
- Christmas Eve
- Christmas Day
- Floating Holiday
- Personal Holiday

2. Paid Holidays

All full-time employees will receive holiday pay of eight straight time hours at their regular rate, provided the following conditions are satisfied:

OBJECTION MY LORD

1. Work a full shift on the employee's last scheduled work shift prior to the paid holiday.
2. Work a full shift on the employee's first scheduled work shift following the holiday.
3. Should the employee be unable to work either of these two days because of illness, proof of illness will be required in order to qualify for the paid holiday.

The shift differential for second and third shift employees will not be included in holiday pay.

Holiday pay will not be paid if:

1. The employee has been on the payroll for less than [NUMBER] days.
2. The employee is on lay-off status.
3. The employee is a temporary or seasonal employee.
4. The employee is on leave of absence when the holiday occurs.
5. The employee is requested to work during a paid holiday and the employee refuse to do so.

Employees who are requested to work during a paid holiday will receive holiday pay plus regular pay.

3. Paid Holidays During Vacations and Weekends

If a holiday occurs during the employee's vacation, the employee's vacation will be extended by the number of holidays falling during the vacation period or an equal number of vacation days will be carried forward for future use.

If any scheduled paid holiday falls on a Saturday, the holiday will usually be observed on the preceding Friday. If the holiday falls on a Sunday, the following Monday will usually be observed as the holiday.

4. Overtime

Holidays are not considered a day worked for purposes of calculating overtime unless work is actually performed.

[The Floating Holiday clause below may be removed if it does not apply to your circumstances.]

5. Floating Holidays

In addition to the named holidays for which eligible employees will receive paid time off, [COMPANY] will schedule two floating holidays each year. Floating holidays will be scheduled so as to provide eligible employees with extended weekends by combining them with named holidays.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

At the beginning of each calendar year, the employee will receive a complete schedule of paid holidays, including paid floating holidays.

[The Personal Holidays clause below may be removed if it does not apply to your circumstances.]

6. Personal Holidays

In addition to scheduled paid holidays, eligible employees are given two floating holidays annually to be used as personal time off. Before scheduling a personal holiday, the employee must obtain approval. Requests for personal holidays must be made in writing not less than [NUMBER] days in advance of the requested date.

7. Religious Holidays

[COMPANY] recognizes that there may be religious holidays (other than those already designated as holidays) that employees would like to observe. It may be possible to arrange these holidays as scheduled days off, authorized absences without pay or personal time off. Requests for time off to observe religious holidays must be approved.

8. Vacation Time

At the end of the employee's first year as a full-time employee of [COMPANY], an employee is entitled to [number] days of paid vacation. The employee's vacation days increase to [number] days after five years of continuous employment with [COMPANY], [number] days after [NUMBER] years of continuous employment with [COMPANY], and [number] days after [NUMBER] years of continuous employment with [COMPANY].

Vacation time may be taken in increments of one full day but in all cases must be prescheduled and pre-approved. One day of vacation for every five days that an employee is entitled to may be carried over to the following year, but must be used before [date].

[COMPANY] does not provide paid vacation time for part-time employees.

9. Vacation Pay

Vacation pay is the employee's regular rate of pay, excluding overtime or holiday premiums. If the employee's regular rate of pay varies from week to week, the employee's vacation pay will equal the employee's average weekly hours or scheduled hours in the previous calendar quarter not to exceed [NUMBER] hours.

Pay will not be granted in lieu of vacation time not taken.

10. Scheduling Vacations

OBJECTION MY LORD

[COMPANY] will attempt to grant all employees vacation at the time they desire to take it. However, [COMPANY] must maintain adequate staffing at all times. Therefore, vacations must be scheduled in advance and with prior written approval.

Where conflicts develop, they will be resolved as fairly as possible. Preference will be given to the more senior employee, the employee who can demonstrate the greater need for vacation at the conflicting time or the employee who makes the earliest request.

[The Plantwide Shutdown clause below may be removed if it does not apply to your circumstances.]

11. Plantwide Shutdown

It is [COMPANY] practice to have an annual shutdown of [period of time] during the month of [month]. All employees, with the exception of essential personnel, will take their normal vacations at this time. For those employees who are entitled to more than 10 days of vacation, the balance of that vacation must be scheduled. Employees who have been employed for less than one year receive paid vacation in the amount accrued as of the annual plant shutdown, providing they have completed six months of service at [COMPANY].

12. Holiday or Illness During Vacation

When a holiday occurs during the employee's vacation time, the employee will still receive pay for the holiday in addition to the employee's vacation pay or the employee may select another day off.

If the employee is hospitalized while on vacation, the time from the date of the employee's hospitalization until the employee's doctor releases the employee may, at the employee's option, be charged against the employee's short term disability benefits, rather than the employee's vacation time. If this happens, the employee must notify [Company]. If the employee becomes ill while on vacation, but the employee is not hospitalized, the employee's absence is charged against vacation time.

13. Termination and Vacation Pay

When employment ends for any reason, vacation time earned but not taken by the employee will be included in the employee's final paycheck. At the same time, vacation time taken in advance will be deducted from the final paycheck.

14. Vacation Accrual Methods

The following is a sample vacation accrual chart. You can modify your vacation accruals to reflect additional credit for any factor you feel deserve additional vacation as long as you are nondiscriminatory. If you make substantive changes to this policy, you should have your attorney look over the changes. Employees who have completed one year of service and who work a [NUMBER]-day, [NUMBER]-hour week, are entitled to vacation as follows:

[OR USE THE WAY TO CALCULATE ACCRUAL]

1-5 years of service: an employee earns [NUMBER] day per month up to a maximum of [NUMBER] day per year.

6-15 years of service: an employee earns [NUMBER] days per month up to a maximum of [NUMBER] days per year.

16-25 years of service: an employee earns [NUMBER] days per month up to a maximum of [NUMBER] days per year.

26 or more years of service: an employee earns [NUMBER] days per month up to a maximum of [NUMBER] days per year.

15. Vacation Accrual for New Employees

Vacation accrual based on years of service do not address new employees who are hired after the beginning of the year. Vacation to new employees during the year of hire is as schedule of vacation days based on month of hire.

The schedule could be set up as follows:

Month of Employment	Vacation Days
January	[NUMBER] days
February	[NUMBER] days

OBJECTION MY LORD

March	[NUMBER] days
April	[NUMBER] days
May	[NUMBER] days
June	[NUMBER] days
July	[NUMBER] days
August	[NUMBER] day
September-December	[NUMBER] days

16. Part-Time Accrual

Part-time employees may be eligible for vacation accrual on a pro-rata basis based upon their regular workweek.

Thus, under the accrual schedule above, a regular part-time employee (in the first through fifth year of service) who regularly works [NUMBER] hours per week could earn one vacation day per month up to a maximum of [NUMBER] days. One day of vacation would equal four hours ([NUMBER] hours per week divided by five days in the week) and the maximum vacation time that could be earned would be [NUMBER] hours ([NUMBER] days multiplied by four hours).

TIME OFF TO VOTE

It is the policy of [COMPANY] to give employees time off to vote.

1. Advance Request

Before taking time off to vote, the employee must make a written request for time off [number of days of advance notice] days before voting day.

2. Paid Absence

Time off to vote will be treated as a paid absence.

3. Voting Hours

The employee is allowed [number of hours] hours of time off to vote. Time off to vote is granted if the polls open fewer than [number of hours] hours prior to work starting time or close fewer than [number of hours] hours after quitting time. Time off to vote may be taken before coming in to work or at the end of the workday.

4. Covered Elections

This time off to vote policy applies to [types of elections – e.g., federal, state, local] elections.

VACATION POLICY

Vacation is paid by [Company name] to regular full-time employees as follows:

- First year of employment: [NUMBER] week
- Second through third year of employment: [NUMBER] weeks
- Third through tenth year of employment: [NUMBER] weeks
- Tenth through twentieth year of employment: [NUMBER] weeks
- Over twenty years of employment: [NUMBER] weeks

All employees are required to give at least [NUMBER month's] notice to their supervisor of their vacation plans. You are required to take your vacation within [NUMBER] calendar year after you earn it. You will not be eligible to receive pay instead of vacation time except with company permission or upon termination. Vacation time, which is taken prior to being earned, is considered an advancement of wages and, upon termination, will be deducted from your paycheck. Any conflict in vacation requests will be decided based on employee seniority and company needs. You will not be entitled to accrued vacation during periods when you are on personal leave of absence or if you are suspended from the company.

If a holiday occurs during your vacation period you will be granted one additional day of vacation. [If you are sick during your vacation period you may not count that day towards sick pay.] You must take vacation in a minimum of [NUMBER] week allotments unless specifically approved of by your supervisor.

You are not eligible for any paid vacation until you have completed one year of employment with the company. For example, if you leave the company after nine months of employment, you will not be eligible for any vacation pay benefits. After [NUMBER] year of employment, [NUMBER] weeks of vacation will accrue. After the second year of employment and onward, you will begin accruing vacation at subsequent anniversary dates.

Employees are encouraged to use available paid vacation time for rest, relaxation, and personal pursuits. In the event that available vacation is not used by the end of the benefit year, employees may carry unused time forward to the next benefit year. If the total amount of unused vacation time reaches a "cap" equal to [vacation amount], further vacation accrual will stop. When the employee uses paid vacation time, and brings the available amount below the cap, vacation accrual will begin again up to the cap limit.

Employees will be paid for unused vacation time that has been accrued through the last day of work upon termination of employment.

POLICY ON AIDS

1. Introduction

The following outlines [Company name]'s policy and procedures for interacting with employees who have been medically diagnosed with or who are suspected of having the AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) virus.

2. Purpose

The purpose of the AIDS policy is to reassure employees that AIDS is not spread through casual contact during normal work practices and to reduce unrealistic fears about contracting an AIDS virus-related condition. This policy also protects the legal right to work of employees who are diagnosed with an AIDS virus-related condition and provides guidelines for situations where infection with the AIDS virus is suspected. Our policy is to encourage sensitivity to and understanding for employees affected with a condition of the AIDS virus.

3. General policy

We are committed to maintaining a healthy work environment by protecting the physical and emotional health and well-being of all employees in the workplace. We also have a continuing commitment to provide employment for people with physical disabilities who are able to work. This AIDS policy is a direct outgrowth of those commitments. It provides guidelines for situations when a question as to an AIDS virus-related condition arises. There are three major points:

- Employees who are diagnosed with an AIDS virus-related condition may continue to work if they are deemed medically able to work and can meet acceptable performance standards. We will provide reasonable performance standards and reasonable accommodation if necessary to enable these employees to continue working.
- We provide AIDS education for all employees to help them understand how the AIDS virus is spread and to reduce unrealistic fears of contracting an AIDS virus-related condition.
- The term "AIDS virus-related conditions" refers to the following four medically diagnosed conditions:

1. presence of the AIDS antibody without symptoms of AIDS

OBJECTION MY LORD

2. presence of an AIDS-Related Complex (ARC)
3. AIDS
4. central nervous system infection

4. Medical overview

Medical experts on AIDS virus-related conditions have informed us that there is no known risk of AIDS transmission between an affected employee and other employees through either casual or close contact that occurs during normal work activities.

An AIDS virus-related condition is not transmitted by breathing the same air, using the same lavatories, touching a common piece of paper, or using the same telephone. Transmission of the virus through oral secretions or tears is not a recognized risk according to medical authorities. Additionally, the virus is very fragile and has been found to be transmitted only through intimate exchange of bodily fluids (for example, blood or blood-contaminated tissue fluids such as semen or vaginal fluid).

The AIDS virus attacks the immune system, causing a breakdown in a person's normal protection against infection. This leaves the body vulnerable to life-threatening illnesses. In addition, the virus by itself can affect the nervous system.

Individuals of all sexual preferences are at risk of contracting an AIDS virus-related condition. According to medical experts, the AIDS virus is transmitted in the following ways: sexual contact through transmission of semen or vaginal fluids; intravenous drug administration with contaminated needles; administration of contaminated blood or blood products; and passage of the virus from infected mothers to their fetus or newborn. However, there is no evidence to suggest that pregnant women are particularly susceptible to any AIDS virus-related illness or condition. Recent medical evidence suggests that an AIDS virus-related condition can have an incubation period of several weeks, months or years before symptoms appear. Medical findings indicate that a person who has a positive antibody test will not necessarily develop an AIDS virus-related condition. The presence of the AIDS antibody is a sign of infection, not immunity, unfortunately.

As is true for any person with a life-threatening illness, a person diagnosed with an AIDS virus-related condition deserves and requires compassion and understanding. While that person is attempting to cope with his or her own vulnerability and fears, the support and understanding of friends and colleagues can be particularly valuable.

Some people have fears about contracting AIDS based on misinformation or lack of knowledge about how AIDS is spread. Education providing accurate medical information can best alleviate fears of contracting an AIDS condition.

5. Supervisor's responsibilities

The physical and emotional health and well-being of all employees must be protected, and reasonable accommodation for the medically impaired employee with an AIDS virus-related condition must be provided, as long as the employee is able to meet acceptable performance standards. To ensure these goals are met, the following guidelines are to be followed:

- Any employee diagnosed with an AIDS condition is entitled, as is any other employee, to confidentiality of their medical condition and medical records.
- If an employee with an AIDS condition requests job accommodation for his/her medical condition, the employee must obtain a written medical opinion that he/she (a) is medically able to work and (b) needs reasonable job accommodation in order to maintain employment.
- If it is deemed medically necessary, based upon current physical impairment, [Company name] and the employee's supervisor will work to bring about any reasonable job modification or job transfer of the employee with a diagnosed condition of AIDS.
- If a healthy employee refuses to work with an employee who is diagnosed with an AIDS condition and is medically approved as able to work, job transfer or other work accommodation for the healthy employee will only occur when medically indicated by written order of his/her physician. The medical order must be a signed medical statement requesting this job change. In the absence of a medical order, normal transfer procedures will be followed.

VIOLENCE IN THE WORKPLACE PREVENTION POLICY

Zero tolerance

This company has a policy of zero tolerance for violence. If you engage in any violence in the workplace, or threaten violence in the workplace, your employment will be terminated immediately for cause. No talk of violence or joking about violence will be tolerated.

“Violence” includes physically harming another, shoving, pushing, harassing, intimidating, coercing, brandishing weapons, and threatening or talking of engaging in those activities. It is the intent of this policy to ensure that everyone associated with this business, including employees and customers, never feels threatened by any employee’s actions or conduct.

Workplace security measures

In an effort to fulfill this commitment to a safe work environment for employees, customers, and visitors, a few simple rules have been created. These are:

- Access to the company’s property is limited to those with a legitimate business interest.
- All employees and employee vehicles entering the property must display company identification.
- All visitors and visitor vehicles must register and display identification while on the property.

All weapons banned

The company specifically prohibits the possession of weapons by any employee while on company property. This ban includes keeping or transporting a weapon in a vehicle in a parking area, whether public or private. Employees are also prohibited from carrying a weapon while performing services off the company’s business premises.

Weapons include guns, knives, explosives, and other items with the potential to inflict harm. Appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including termination, will be taken against any employee who violates this policy.

Inspections

Desks, telephones, and computers are the property of the business. We reserve the right to enter or inspect your work area including, but not limited to, desks and computer storage disks, with or without notice.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

The fax, copier, and mail systems, including e-mail, are intended for business use. Personal business should not be conducted through these systems. Under conditions approved by management, telephone conversations may be monitored and voice mail messages may be retrieved in the process of monitoring customer service.

Any private conversations overheard during such monitoring, or private messages retrieved, that constitute threats against other individuals can and will be used as the basis for termination for cause.

Reporting violence

It is everyone's business to prevent violence in the workplace. You can help by reporting what you see in the workplace that could indicate that a co-worker is in trouble. You are in a better position than management to know what is happening with those you work with.

You are encouraged to report any incident that may involve a violation of any of the company's policies that are designed to provide a comfortable workplace environment. Concerns may be presented to your supervisor.

All reports will be investigated and information will be kept confidential.

[The following additional provisions deal with programs that, in general, are limited to larger businesses with a substantial workforce. They may be included, as applicable.]

Training programs

As part of its commitment to preventing workplace violence, the company has established training programs for all employees. Training will be included as part of your orientation. Thereafter, you will be scheduled for annual refresher training during the month that you initially joined the business.

Please be advised that training is mandatory and attendance will be taken. If you fail to attend training or make-up sessions, you will be subject to suspension without pay until training is completed.

1. Education offerings

In order to promote a peaceful working environment, we encourage supervisors and employees to enroll in courses to learn more about working with each other. Courses covering communication, problem solving, building effective working relationships, stress management, and related or similar course topics are supported by tuition reimbursement, offered by our training department and, where appropriate, supported for attendance at outside seminars.

Employee assistance program

The company provides an employee assistance program (EAP) for all full-time and part-time employees. This EAP offers services to these employees and their eligible dependents. While we receive periodic reports on the number and types of visits or calls made to the EAP, we do not receive information about individual contacts with the EAP.

You are encouraged to use the EAP whenever you feel the need for guidance in coping with life's difficulties. If you have difficulty handling drugs or alcohol, the EAP can provide information on treatment. The EAP is a confidential service to be used when you need help.

Violence prevention team

We have created a violence prevention team to create and implement our workplace violence prevention program. The team will also handle the consequences of any incidents of violence that we experience, providing assistance to employees and information to the media. The team will take the steps necessary to continue or resume business. We believe that a multidisciplinary approach is best suited to handle workplace violence problems.

If you have suggestions for ways to improve the safety and security at work, please pass them along to a team member or leave a suggestion in any one of their mail boxes.

Incident management

In the event of a major workplace incident that affects, or has the potential to affect, the mental health of our workforce, we will provide initial counseling and support services to you and your immediate family members.

As the crisis passes and support systems are put into place for individuals affected by the incident, the company will make every effort to return to normal business operations. A reasonable effort will be made to notify employees, customers, stockholders, and others who need to know of the status of business operations directly whenever possible. In cases where direct contact is not possible or practical, an effort will be made to communicate through the news media and other available resources.

In the event the Employee desires to publish the results of the work for the Company through literature or speeches, the Employee will submit such literature or speeches to the President of the Company at least [NUMBER] days before dissemination of such information for a determination of whether such disclosure may alter trade secret status, may be prejudicial to the interests of the Company, or may constitute an invasion of its privacy. The Employee agrees not to publish, disclose or otherwise disseminate such information without prior written approval of the President of the Company. The Employee acknowledges that the unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information of the Company may be highly prejudicial to its interests, an invasion of privacy, and an improper disclosure of trade secrets.

3.1. Definition

The term "Subject Ideas or Inventions" includes any and all ideas, processes, trademarks, service marks, inventions, designs, technologies, computer hardware or software, original works of authorship, formulas, discoveries, patents, copyrights, copyrightable works products, marketing and business ideas, and all improvements, know-how, data, rights, and claims related to the foregoing that, whether or not patentable, which are conceived, developed or created which: (1) relate to the Company's current or contemplated business; (2) relate to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development; (3) result from any work performed by the Employee for the Company; (4) involve the use of the Company's equipment, supplies, facilities or trade secrets; (5) result from or are suggested by any work done by the Company or at the Company's request, or any projects specifically assigned to the Employee; or (6) result from the access to any of the Company's memoranda, notes, records, drawings, sketches, models, maps, customer lists, research results, data, formulae, specifications, inventions, processes, equipment or other materials (collectively, "Company Materials").

OBJECTION MY LORD

3.2. Company Ownership

All right, title and interest in and to all Subject Ideas and Inventions, including but not limited to all registrable and patent rights which may subsist therein, shall be held and owned solely by the Company, and where applicable, all Subject Ideas and Inventions shall be considered works made for hire. The Employee shall mark all Subject Ideas and Inventions with the Company's copyright or other proprietary notice as directed by the Company and shall take all actions deemed necessary by the Company to protect the Company's rights therein. In the event that the Subject Ideas and Inventions shall be deemed not to constitute works made for hire, or in the event that the Employee should otherwise, by operation of law, be deemed to retain any rights (whether moral rights or otherwise) to any Subject Ideas and Inventions, the Employee agrees to assign to the Company, without further consideration, its entire right, title and interest in and to each and every such Subject Idea and Invention.

thereafter, shall be disclosed promptly by the Employee to the Company. The Company shall examine such information to determine if in fact the Intellectual Property is a Subject Idea or Invention subject to this Agreement.

3.5. Access

Because of the difficulty of establishing when any Subject Ideas or Inventions are first conceived by the Employee, or whether it results from the access to Confidential Information or Company Materials, the Employee agrees that any Subject Idea and Invention shall, among other circumstances, be deemed to have resulted from its access to Company Materials if: (1) it grew out of or resulted from the work with the Company or is related to the business of the Company, and (2) it is made, used, sold, exploited or reduced to practice, or an application for patent, trademark, copyright or other proprietary protection is filed thereon, by the Employee or with its significant aid, within one year after termination of the relationship with the Company.

3.6. Assistance

The Employee further agrees to assist the Company in every proper way (but at the Company's expense) to obtain and from time to time enforce patents, copyrights or other rights or registrations on said Subject Ideas and Inventions in any and all countries, and to that end will execute all documents necessary:

- a. To apply for, obtain and vest in the name of the Company alone (unless the Company otherwise directs) letters patent, copyrights or other analogous protection in any country throughout the world and when so obtained or vested to renew and restore the same; and;

- c. To cooperate with the Company (but at the Company's expense) in any enforcement or infringement proceeding on such letters patent, copyright or other analogous protection.

3.7. Authorization to Company

In the event the Company is unable, after reasonable effort, to secure the Employee's signature on any patent, copyright or other analogous protection relating to a Subject Idea and Invention, whether because of the Employee's physical or mental incapacity or for any other reason whatsoever, the Employee hereby irrevocably designate and appoint the Company and its duly authorized officers and agents as its agent and attorney-in-fact, to act for and on its behalf and stead to execute and file any such application, applications or other documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the prosecution, issuance, and enforcement of letters patent, copyright or other analogous rights or protections thereon with the same legal force and effect as if executed by the Employee. The Employee's obligation to assist the Company in obtaining and enforcing patents and copyrights for Subject Ideas and Inventions in any and all countries shall continue beyond the termination of the relationship with the Company, but the Company shall compensate the Employee at a reasonable rate after such termination for time actually spent by the Employee at the Company's request on such assistance.

OBJECTION MY LORD

3.8. Acknowledgement

The Employee acknowledges that there are no currently existing ideas, processes, inventions, discoveries, marketing or business ideas or improvements which I desire to exclude from the operation of this Agreement. To the best of the Employee's knowledge, there is no other contract to assign inventions, trademarks, copyrights, ideas, processes, discoveries or other intellectual property that is now in existence between the Employee and any other person (including any business or governmental entity).

OBJECTION MY LORD

15. CREATIONS AND INVENTIONS

Employee acknowledges and agrees that any and all work product of the Employee that is conceived or created during the Employee's employment with the Corporation is the exclusive property of the Corporation. This shall include any and all copyrights, trade secrets, confidential information, patents, trademarks, trade dress, ideas, concepts, plans, business plans, business concepts, techniques, inventions, drawings, artwork, logos, graphics, web pages, databases, software, programs, CGI's, plug ins, applications, brochures, inventions, marketing plans and concepts, and all other ideas and work product of the Employee. 16. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS 17.

The Employee acknowledges that the Corporation, through its employment of the Employee, has provided the Employee with confidential information, business and professional contacts, training and experience, and the ability to service and otherwise have access to the Corporation's clients. The Employee further acknowledges that such confidential information, business and professional contacts, training and experience, and the ability to service and otherwise have access to the Corporation's clients are the result of his employment by the Corporation. In consideration of the foregoing and of the benefits generally provided to the Employee by the Corporation pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and otherwise, the Employee agrees to abide and be bound by the restrictions and prohibitions of this Article, which restrictions are intended by the parties to extend to any and all activities of the Employee, whether as an independent contractor, partner or joint venturer, or as an officer, director, stockholder, agent, employee or salesman for any person, firm, partnership, corporation or other entity, or otherwise.

18. Hiring

The Employee agrees that during the Employee's employment with the Corporation and for a period of [NUMBER] years following the termination of this Agreement, whether the termination shall be voluntary or involuntary, or with or without cause, the Employee will not attempt to hire any other employee or independent contractor of the Corporation or otherwise encourage or attempt to encourage any other employee or independent contractor of the Corporation to leave the Corporation's employ.

19. Confidentiality; Disclosure; Proprietary Information

Employee recognizes and acknowledges that all records with respect to clients, business associates, customer or referral lists, contracting parties and referral sources of the Corporation, and all personal, financial and business and proprietary information of the Corporation, its employees, officers, directors and shareholders obtained by the Employee during the term of this Agreement and not generally known in the public (the "Confidential Information") are valuable, special and unique and proprietary assets of the Corporation's business. The Employee hereby agrees that during the term of this Agreement and following the termination of this Agreement, whether the termination shall be voluntary or involuntary, or with or without cause, the Employee will not at any time, directly or indirectly, disclose any Confidential Information, in full or in part, in written or other form, to any person, firm, corporation, association or other entity, or utilize the same for any reason or purpose whatsoever other than for the benefit of and pursuant to authorization granted by the Corporation.

20. Solicitation

The Employee further agrees that during the term of this Agreement and following the termination of this Agreement, whether the termination shall be voluntary or involuntary, or with or without cause, the Employee will not, in any manner or at any time, solicit or encourage any person, firm, corporation or other business entity who are clients, business associates or referral sources of the Corporation to cease doing business with the Corporation or to do business with the Employee.

21. Non-Competition With Corporation Clients

Employee agrees that during the term of the Employee's employment with the Corporation and for a period of [NUMBER] years following the cessation of the relationship with the Corporation, the Employee shall not provide any service to or lend any aid or device to any of the clients of the Corporation.

22. Covenants Independent

Each restrictive covenant on the part of the Employee set forth in this Agreement shall be construed as a covenant independent of any other covenant or provisions of this Agreement or any other agreement which the Corporation and the Employee may have, fully performed and not executory, and the existence of any claim or cause of action by the Employee against the Corporation whether predicated upon another covenant or provision of this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Corporation of any other covenant.

23. Proprietary Creations

OBJECTION MY LORD

All processes, inventions, patents, copyrights, trademarks, and other intangible rights (collectively the "Inventions") that may be conceived or developed by Employee, either alone or with others, during the term of Employee's employment, whether or not conceived or developed during Employee's working hours, and with respect to which the equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secret information of Company was used, or that relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the Invention to the business of the Corporation or to Corporation's actual or demonstrably anticipated research and development, or that result from any work performed by Employee for Corporation, will be the sole property of Corporation, and shall be considered "works for hire", and Employee hereby assigns to the Corporation all of Employee's right, title and interest in and to such Inventions. Employee must disclose to Corporation all inventions conceived during the term of employment, whether or not the invention constitutes property of Corporation under the terms of the preceding sentence, but such disclosure will be received by Corporation in confidence. Employee must execute all documents, including patent applications and assignments, required by Corporation to establish Corporation's rights under this Section.

24. Divisibility of Covenant Areas and Periods

If any portion of the restrictive covenants contained herein is held to be unreasonable, arbitrary or against public policy, each covenant shall be considered divisible both as to time and geographical area; and each [NUMBER] month of the specified period shall be deemed to be a separate period of time and each [NUMBER] mile radius segment of the geographical area shall be deemed to be a separate geographical area, so that the maximum lesser time and geographical area shall remain effective so long as the same is not unreasonable, arbitrary or against public policy.

25. Injunctive and Equitable Relief

Employee and Corporation recognize and expressly agree that the extent of damages to Corporation in the event of a breach by Employee of any restrictive covenant set forth herein would be impossible to ascertain, that the irreparable harm arising out of any breach shall be irrefutably presumed, and that the remedy at law for any breach will be inadequate to compensate the Corporation. Consequently, the Employee agrees that in the event of a breach of any such covenant, in addition to any other relief to which Corporation may be entitled, Corporation shall be entitled to enforce the covenant by injunctive or other equitable relief ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

26. Venue; Court Proceedings

The Employee and the Corporation hereby agree that the venue of any action, proceeding, counterclaim, cross claim, or other litigation relating to, involving, or resulting from the enforcement of this covenant shall be in [STATE/PROVINCE]. In any action or proceeding by Employee relating to or involving the enforcement of the covenant, and any counterclaim, cross claim or other litigation which may be asserted or brought against Corporation, the Employee hereby expressly waives any and all right to a trial by jury with respect to the action, proceeding or other litigation resulting from or involving the enforcement of this covenant. Further, in any action or proceeding by Corporation to obtain a temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunction, Employee hereby agrees that the Corporation shall not be required to post an injunction bond in excess of the principal sum of [AMOUNT] in order to obtain a temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunction. Should the Corporation's action for a temporary restraining order and/or motion for preliminary injunction be granted in whole or in part and should Corporation be ultimately unsuccessful in obtaining a permanent injunction to enforce the covenant, Employee hereby waives any and all rights Employee may have against Corporation for any injuries or damages, including consequential damages, sustained by the Employee and arising directly or indirectly from the issuance of the temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunction.

27. Indemnification

The Employee hereby agrees to indemnify and hold the Corporation and its officers, directors, shareholders and employees harmless from and against any loss, claim, damage or expense, and/or all costs of prosecution or defense of their rights hereunder, whether in judicial proceedings, including appellate proceedings, or whether out of court, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, attorneys' fees, and all costs and expenses of litigation, arising from or growing out of the Employee's breach or threatened breach of any covenant contained herein.

28. Acknowledgment

OBJECTION MY LORD

The Employee acknowledges that when this Agreement is concluded, the Employee will be able to earn a living without violating the foregoing restrictions and that the Employee's recognition and representation of this fact is a material inducement to the execution of this Agreement and to Employee's continued relationship with the Corporation.

29. Survival of Covenants

All restrictive covenants contained in this Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

30. Limitations on Authority

Without the express written consent from the Corporation, the Employee shall have no apparent or implied authority to: (i) Pledge the credit of the Corporation or any of its other employees; (ii) Bind the Corporation under any contract, agreement, note, mortgage or otherwise; (iii) Release or discharge any debt due the Corporation unless the Corporation has received the full amount thereof; or (iv) sell, mortgage, transfer or otherwise dispose of any assets of the Corporation.

31. Representation and Warranty of Employee

The Employee acknowledges and understands that the Corporation has extended employment opportunities to Employee based upon Employee's representation and warranty that Employee is in good health and able to perform the work contemplated by this Agreement for the term hereof.

32. Leave of Absence

Leave of absence for required full-time military service or any other purpose authorized by the Corporation shall not result in termination of employment, and the Employee shall retain the privilege of recommencing employment upon the Employee's return from military service or other authorized leave of absence as long as the Employee is otherwise qualified to perform the services required hereunder.

33. Invalid Provision; Severability

The invalidity or unenforceability of a particular provision of this Agreement shall not affect the other provisions hereof, and the Agreement shall be construed in all respects as if such invalid or unenforceable provisions were omitted.

34. Modification

No change or modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless the same be in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

35. Applicable Law and Binding Effect; No Waiver

This Agreement shall be construed and regulated under and by the laws of the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] and shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns; but may not be assigned except as otherwise provided elsewhere herein.

36. Entire Agreement

This Agreement contains the entire agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written, with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may be changed only by an agreement in writing signed by the party against whom any waiver, change, amendment, modification, or discharge is sought.

37. Notices

Any and all notices or other communication provided for herein, shall be given by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, in case of the Corporation to its principal office, and in the case of the Employee to the Employee's residence address set forth on the first page of this Agreement or to such other address as may be designated by the Employee.

38. Attorneys' Fees

In the event that either party is required to engage the services of legal counsel to enforce the terms and conditions of this Agreement against the other party, regardless of whether such action results in litigation, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of legal assistants, and other costs from the other party, which shall include any fees or costs incurred at trial or in any appellate proceeding, and expenses and other costs, including any accounting expenses incurred.

After notice of termination, Executive shall cooperate with the Company, as reasonably requested by the Company, to effect a transition of Executive's responsibilities and to ensure that the Company is aware of all matters being handled by Executive.

12.5 Compensation After Notice of Termination

After notice of termination has been given by either Company or Executive, as provided in this Article, Executive shall be entitled to receive the compensation provided for in this Agreement until the notice period has expired. It is understood that after the written notice is given by either Company or Executive, Executive shall continue to devote substantially all of the Executive's time to the Executive's normal services for the Company during the notice period, with sufficient time allowed, in the sole discretion of the Company, for Executive to seek new employment.

12. DISABILITY OF EXECUTIVE

The Company may terminate this Agreement without liability if Executive shall be permanently prevented from properly performing his essential duties hereunder with reasonable accommodation by reason of illness or other physical or mental incapacity for a period of more than [NUMBER] consecutive days. Upon such termination, Executive shall be entitled to all accrued but unpaid Base Salary and vacation.

OBJECTION MY LORD

13.1 Definitions

For purposes of this Agreement, whenever used in this Article 14:

"Total disability" shall mean that the Executive is unable, mentally or physically, whether it be due to sickness, accident, age or other infirmity, to engage in any aspect of the Executive's normal duties as set forth in this Agreement.

"Partial disability" shall mean that the Executive is able to perform, to some extent, on behalf of the Company, the particular services in which the Company specializes, and which the Executive previously performed for the Company, but that the Executive is unable, mentally or physically, to devote the same amount of time to such services as was devoted prior to the occurrence of such sickness or accident.

"Normal monthly salary" shall mean the salary which the Executive is being paid by the Company per month as of the commencement date of the period of disability, as specified hereinabove or as determined by the Board of Directors pursuant to the terms hereof.

13.2 Total Disability

During a single period of total disability of the Executive, the Executive shall be entitled to receive from the Company, the Executive's normal monthly salary for the shorter of first three (3) months of disability or until any disability insurance policy available through the Executive's employment begins to pay benefits. If the single period of disability should continue beyond three (3) months, the Executive shall receive only such amount as the Executive shall be entitled to receive under disability insurance coverage on the Executive, if any.

13.3 Partial Disability

During a period of partial disability of the Executive, the Executive shall receive an amount of compensation computed as follows:

That portion of the Executive's normal monthly basic compensation which bears the same ratio to the Executive's normal monthly basic compensation as the amount of time which the Executive is able to devote to the usual performance of services on behalf of the Company during such period bears to the total time the Executive devoted to performing such services prior to the commencement date of the single period of disability, and

Such amount shall be calculated by multiplying the Executive's basic compensation by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the percentage of normal services that the Executive is able to perform and the denominator which shall be the total services that the Executive is able to perform absent the partial disability.

13.4 Combination of Total and Partial Disability

If a single period of disability of the Executive consists of a combination of total disability and partial disability, the maximum total disability compensation to which the Executive shall be entitled from the Company under this disability provision shall not exceed an amount equal to one (1) times the Executive's normal monthly basic compensation.

13.5 Broken Periods of Disability

A period of disability may be continuous or broken. If broken into partial periods of disability which are separated by intervening periods of work, there shall be aggregated together all of such successive partial periods of disability except any period prior to the time when any single period of work extends for [NUMBER] months or longer; and such aggregated periods of disability shall be treated as a single period in determining the amount of disability compensation to which an Executive shall be entitled under any provision of this Section.

13.6 Termination Due to Disability

If and when the period of total or partial disability of the Executive totals [NUMBER] months, the Executive's employment with the Company shall automatically terminate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the disabled Executive and the Company agree, the disabled Executive may thereafter be employed by the Company upon such terms as may be mutually agreeable.

13.7 Commencement Date of Disability

The commencement date of a period of disability, whether it be a continuous period or the aggregate of successive partial periods, shall be the first day on which the Executive is disabled.

13.8 Dispute Regarding Existence of Disability

Any dispute regarding the existence, extent or continuance of the disability shall be resolved by the determination of a majority of three (3) competent physicians, one (1) of whom shall be selected by the Company, one (1) of whom shall be selected by the Executive and the third (3rd) of whom shall be selected by the other two (2) physicians so selected.

13.9 Death of Executive

In the event the Executive shall die during the term hereof, the Company shall pay to the Executive's surviving spouse, or if the Executive shall leave no surviving spouse, then to the Executive's estate, only such amounts as may have been earned by the Executive prior to the Executive's date of death, but which were unpaid at date of death.

13. Confidential Information and Invention Assignments

Executive recognizes and acknowledges that all records with respect to clients, business associates, customer or referral lists, contracting parties and referral sources of the Company, and all personal, financial and business and proprietary information of the Company, its Executives, officers, directors and shareholders obtained by the Executive during the term of this Agreement and not generally known in the public (the "Confidential Information") are valuable, special and unique and proprietary assets of the Company's business. The

OBJECTION MY LORD

Executive hereby agrees that during the term of this Agreement and following the termination of this Agreement, whether the termination shall be voluntary or involuntary, or with or without cause, or whether the termination is solely due to the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the Executive will not at any time, directly or indirectly, disclose any Confidential Information, in full or in part, in written or other form, to any person, firm, Company, association or other entity, or utilize the same for any reason or purpose whatsoever other than for the benefit of and pursuant to authorization granted by the Company. "Confidential Information" shall also include any information (including, but not limited to, technical or non-technical data, a formula, a pattern, a compilation, a program, a device, a method, a technique, a drawing, a process, financial data, financial plans, product plans, or a list of actual or potential customers) that: (i) derives economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use; and (ii) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy. In the case of Company's business, Company's Trade Secrets include (without limitation) information regarding names and addresses of any customers, sales personnel, account invoices, training and educational manuals, administrative manuals, prospective customer leads, in whatever form, whether or not computer or electronically accessible "on-line."

14. Exclusive Employment

During employment with the Company, Executive will not do anything to compete with the Company's present or contemplated business, nor will he or she plan or organize any competitive business activity. Executive will not enter into any agreement which conflicts with his duties or obligations to the Company. Executive will not during his employment or within [NUMBER] year after it ends, without the Company's express written consent, directly or indirectly, solicit or encourage any Executive, agent, independent contractor, supplier, customer, consultant or any other person or company to terminate or alter a relationship with the Company.

15. Hiring

The Executive agrees that during the Executive's employment with the Company and for a period of [NUMBER] years following the termination of this Agreement, whether the termination shall be voluntary or involuntary, or with or without cause, or whether the termination is solely due to the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the Executive will not attempt to hire any other Executive or independent contractor of the Company or otherwise encourage or attempt to encourage any other Executive or independent contractor of the Company to leave the Company's employ.

16. Assignment and Transfer

Executive's rights and obligations under this Agreement shall not be transferable by assignment or otherwise, and any purported assignment, transfer or delegation thereof shall be void. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon and enforceable by, any purchaser of substantially all of Company's assets, any corporate successor to Company or any assignee thereof.

17. No Inconsistent Obligations

Executive is aware of no obligations, legal or otherwise, inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement or with his undertaking employment with the Company. Executive will not disclose to the Company, or use, or induce the Company to use, any proprietary information or trade secrets of others. Executive represents and warrants that he or she has returned all property and confidential information belonging to all prior employers.

18. Attorneys' Fees

The parties hereto agree that, in the event of breach or threatened breach of any covenants of Executive, the damage or imminent damage to the value and the goodwill of the Company's business shall be inestimable, and that therefore any remedy at law or in damages shall be inadequate. Accordingly, the parties hereto agree that the Company shall be entitled to injunctive relief against Executive in the event of any breach or threatened breach of any of such provisions by Executive, in addition to any other relief (including damages) available to the Company under this Agreement or under law. The prevailing party in any action instituted pursuant to this Agreement shall be entitled to recover from the other party its reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses incurred in such action.

In the event that either party is required to engage the services of legal counsel to enforce the terms and conditions of this Agreement against the other party, regardless of whether such action results in litigation, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of legal assistants, and other costs from the other party, which shall include any fees or costs incurred at trial or in any appellate proceeding, and expenses and other costs, including any accounting expenses incurred.

19. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] without regard to conflict of law principles.

20. Amendment

This Agreement may be amended only by a writing signed by Executive and by a duly authorized representative of the Company.

21. Severability

OBJECTION MY LORD

If any term, provision, covenant or condition of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person, place or circumstance, shall be held to be invalid, unenforceable or void, the remainder of this Agreement and such term, provision, covenant or condition as applied to other persons, places and circumstances shall remain in full force and effect.

22. Construction

The headings and captions of this Agreement are provided for convenience only and are intended to have no effect in construing or interpreting this Agreement. The language in all parts of this Agreement shall be in all cases construed according to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against the Company or Executive.

23. Rights Cumulative

The rights and remedies provided by this Agreement are cumulative, and the exercise of any right or remedy by either party hereto (or by its successor), whether pursuant to this Agreement, to any other agreement, or to law, shall not preclude or waive its right to exercise any or all other rights and remedies.

24. Nonwaiver

No failure or neglect of either party hereto in any instance to exercise any right, power or privilege hereunder or under law shall constitute a waiver of any other right, power or privilege or of the same right, power or privilege in any other instance. All waivers by either party hereto must be contained in a written instrument signed by the party to be charged and, in the case of the Company, by an officer of the Company (other than Executive) or other person duly authorized by the Company.

25. Notices

Any and all notices or other communication provided for herein, shall be given by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, in case of the Company to its principal office, and in the case of the Executive to the Executive's residence address set forth on the first page of this Agreement or to such other address as may be designated by the Executive.

26. Assistance in Litigation

Executive shall, during and after termination of employment, upon reasonable notice, furnish such information and proper assistance to the Company as may reasonably be required by the Company in connection with any litigation in which it or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates is, or may become a party; provided, however, that such assistance following termination shall be furnished at mutually agreeable times and for mutually agreeable compensation.

Arbitration

Any controversy, claim or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the employment relationship, either during the existence of the employment relationship or afterwards, between the parties hereto, their assignees, their affiliates, their attorneys, or agents, shall be settled by arbitration in [City], [State]. Such arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the then prevailing commercial arbitration rules of the [ASSOCIATION] (but the arbitration shall be in front of an arbitrator, with the following exceptions if in conflict: (a) one arbitrator shall be chosen by [NAME]; (b) each party to the arbitration will pay its pro rata share of the expenses and fees of the arbitrator(s), together with other expenses of the arbitration incurred or approved by the arbitrator(s); and (c) arbitration may proceed in the absence of any party if written notice of the proceedings has been given to such party. The parties agree to abide by all decisions and awards rendered in such proceedings. Such decisions and awards rendered by the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive and may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof as a basis of judgment and of the issuance of execution for its collection. All such controversies, claims or disputes shall be settled in this manner in lieu of any action at law or equity; provided however, that nothing in this subsection shall be construed as precluding the Company from bringing an action for injunctive relief or other equitable relief or relief under the Confidential Information and Invention Assignment Agreement. The arbitrator shall not have the right to award punitive damages, consequential damages, lost profits or speculative damages to either party. The parties shall keep confidential the existence of the claim, controversy or disputes from third parties (other than the arbitrator), and the determination thereof, unless otherwise required by law or necessary for the business of the Company. The arbitrator(s) shall be required to follow applicable law.

IF FOR ANY REASON THIS ARBITRATION CLAUSE BECOMES NOT APPLICABLE, THEN EACH PARTY, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY AS TO ANY ISSUE RELATING HERETO IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING, OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER MATTER INVOLVING THE PARTIES HERETO.

27. Solicitation

The Executive further agrees that during the term of this Agreement and following the termination of this Agreement, whether the termination shall be voluntary or involuntary, or with or without cause, or whether the termination is solely due to the expiration of the term of this Agreement, the Executive will not, in any manner or at any time, solicit or encourage any person, firm, Company or other business entity who are clients, business associates or referral sources of the Company to cease doing business with the Company or to do business with the Executive.

28. Covenants Independent

OBJECTION MY LORD

Each restrictive covenant on the part of the Executive set forth in this Agreement shall be construed as a covenant independent of any other covenant or provisions of this Agreement or any other agreement which the Company and the Executive may have, fully performed and not executory, and the existence of any claim or cause of action by the Executive against the Company whether predicated upon another covenant or provision of this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Company of any other covenant.

29. Injunctive and Equitable Relief

Executive and Company recognize and expressly agree that the extent of damages to Company in the event of a breach by Executive of any restrictive covenant set forth herein would be impossible to ascertain, that the irreparable harm arising out of any breach shall be irrefutably presumed, and that the remedy at law for any breach will be inadequate to compensate the Company. Consequently, the Executive agrees that in the event of a breach of any such covenant, in addition to any other relief to which Company may be entitled, Company shall be entitled to enforce the covenant by injunctive or other equitable relief ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

30. Indemnification

The Executive hereby agrees to indemnify and hold the Company and its officers, directors, shareholders and Executives harmless from and against any loss, claim, damage or expense, and/or all costs of prosecution or defense of their rights hereunder, whether in judicial proceedings, including appellate proceedings, or whether out of court, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, attorneys' fees, and all costs and expenses of litigation, arising from or growing out of the Executive's breach or threatened breach of any covenant contained herein.

31. Acknowledgment

The Executive acknowledges that when this Agreement is concluded, the Executive will be able to earn a living without violating the foregoing restrictions and that the Executive's recognition and representation of this fact is a material inducement to the execution of this Agreement and to Executive's continued relationship with the Company.

32. Survival of Covenants

All restrictive covenants contained in this Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

33. Limitations on Authority

Without the express written consent from the Company, the Executive shall have no apparent or implied authority to: (i) Pledge the credit of the Company or any of its other Executives; (ii) Bind the Company under any contract, agreement, note, mortgage or otherwise; (iii) Release or discharge any debt due the Company unless the Company has received the full amount thereof; or (iv) sell, mortgage, transfer or otherwise dispose of any assets of the Company.

34. Representation and Warranty of Executive

The Executive acknowledges and understands that the Company has extended employment opportunities to Executive based upon Executive's representation and warranty that Executive is in good health and able to perform the work contemplated by this Agreement for the term hereof.

35. Invalid Provision; Severability

The invalidity or unenforceability of a particular provision of this Agreement shall not affect the other provisions hereof, and the Agreement shall be construed in all respects as if such invalid or unenforceable provisions were omitted.

36. Modification

No change or modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless the same be in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

37. Entire Agreement

This Agreement contains the entire agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written, with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may be changed only by an agreement in writing signed by the party against whom any waiver, change, amendment, modification, or discharge is sought.

38. Disputes

Any controversy, claim or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the employment relationship, either during the existence of the employment relationship or afterwards, between the parties hereto, their assignees, their affiliates, their attorneys, or agents, shall be litigated solely in state or federal court in [City], [State]. Each party (1) submits to the jurisdiction of such court, (2) waives the defense of an inconvenient forum, (3) agrees that valid consent to service may be made by mailing or delivery of such service to the Secretary of State (the "Agent") or to the party at the party's last known address, if personal service delivery can not be easily effected, and (4) authorizes and directs the Agent to accept such service in the event that personal service delivery can not easily be effected.

EACH PARTY, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY AS TO ANY ISSUE RELATING

Employer shall pay the premium on such bond, and such bond shall continue in force in such amounts as employer may from time to time require and in the event such bond is refused, or is ever canceled, except with the approval of employer, employee's employment may be terminated immediately and employee shall be entitled to compensation to the date of such termination only.

17. TERMINATION

- A. This Agreement may be terminated by either party on [number] days' written notice to the other. If employer shall so terminate this Agreement, employee shall be entitled to compensation for [number] days.

20. EFFECT OF PARTIAL INVALIDITY

The invalidity of any portion of this Agreement will not and shall not be deemed to affect the validity of any other provision. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, the parties agree that the remaining provisions shall be deemed to be in full force and effect as if they had been executed by both parties subsequent to the expungement of the invalid provision.

21. CHOICE OF LAW

22. NO WAIVER

The failure of either party to this Agreement to insist upon the performance of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or the waiver of any breach of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, shall not be construed as thereafter waiving any such terms and conditions, but the same shall continue and remain in full force and effect as if no such forbearance or waiver had occurred.

All of these materials and information including that relating to Company's systems and Company's clients, will be referred to below as "Proprietary Information."

3. Non-Disclosure

Employee agrees that, except as directed by Company, and in the ordinary course of Company's business, Employee will not at any time, whether during or after Employee's employment with Company, disclose to any person or use, directly or indirectly, for Employee's own benefit or the benefit of others, any Proprietary Information, or permit any person to examine or make copies of any documents which may contain or is derived from Proprietary Information, whether prepared by Employee or otherwise coming into Employee's possession or control. Employee agrees that the provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this Agreement and Employee's employment by Company.

4. Possession

Employee agrees that upon request by Company, and in any event upon termination of Employee's employment, Employee shall then over to Company all documents, papers or other material in Employee's possession or under Employee's control which may contain or be derived from Proprietary Information, together with all documents, notes or Employee's work products which are connected with or derived from Employee's services to Company and all copies of software obtained from Company shall be either returned to Company or, as appropriate, permanently deleted. Upon termination of Employee's employment with Company, Employee agrees to pay in full any amount owed Company, including but not limited to monies used to purchase computer hardware. The return of any computer hardware purchased by Employee will not be accepted in lieu of such payment.

5. Ownership

Employee hereby assigns and agrees to assign to Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates, as appropriate, its successors, assigns or nominees, Employee's entire right, title and interest in any developments, designs, patents, inventions and improvements, trade secrets, trademarks, copyrightable subject matter or proprietary information which Employee has made or conceived, or may make or conceive, either solely or jointly with others, while providing services to Company, or with the use of the time, material or facilities of Company or relating to any actual or anticipated business, research, development, product, service or activity of Company known to Employee while employed at Company, or suggested by or resulting from any task assigned to Employee or work performed by Employee for or on behalf of Company, whether or not such work was performed prior to the date of this Agreement.

It is further agreed, that without charge to Company, but at its expense, Employee will execute and deliver all such further documents as may be necessary, including original applications and applications for renewal, extension or reissue of such patents, trademark registrations or copyright registrations, in any and all countries, to vest title thereto in Company, its successors, assigns or nominees.

6. Non-Competition

Employee agrees that because of the confidential and sensitive nature of the Proprietary Information and because the use of, or even the appearance of the use of, the Proprietary Information in certain circumstances may cause irreparable damage to Company and its reputation, or to clients of Company, Employee shall not, until the expiration of [NUMBER] year after the date on which Employee's employment with Company terminates for any reason, engage, directly or indirectly, or through any corporation or associates in any business, enterprise or employment which directly solicits business, performs services or delivers goods that are competitive to those of Company to any customer or prospect of Company. Company and Employee agree that this covenant is fair and reasonable; however, in the event that a court should decline to enforce these provisions, Employee and Company agree that the provisions should be modified to restrict Employee's competition with Company to the maximum extent enforceable, but in no event will the covenants be interpreted as more restrictive to Employee.

7. Injunctive Relief

Employee acknowledges that disclosure of any Proprietary Information by Employee or breach by Employee of any of the covenants not to compete will give rise to irreparable injury to Company, or clients of Company. Employee also agrees that this injury to Company, or clients of Company, would be inadequately compensated in money damages alone. Accordingly, Company or, where appropriate the client of Company, may seek and obtain injunctive relief against the breach, or threatened breach, of the disclosure of any Proprietary Information by Employee, or breach by Employee of any of the covenants not to compete, in addition to any other legal remedies which may be available. Company further acknowledges that the enforcement of a remedy hereunder by way of injunction would not prevent Employee from earning a reasonable livelihood since Employee's experience and capabilities would be such that in the event that Employee's employment with Company terminates for any reason, Employee will be able to obtain employment in business activities which are not restricted by this Agreement.

General

This Agreement contains the entire understanding between Company and Employee relating to the subject matter of confidentiality, work product and non-competition. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of [STATE/PROVINCE], and may be modified only by a writing signed by Employee and Company. Employee hereby consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] sitting in [STATE/PROVINCE] or the Federal courts sitting in [STATE/PROVINCE]. The provisions of this Agreement relating to confidentiality and non-competition shall survive any termination of employment.

This Acknowledgment of Obligations (the "Agreement") is made and effective this [Date],

BETWEEN: [EMPLOYEE NAME] (the "Employee"), an individual with his main address at:

AND: [COMPANY NAME] (the "Company"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the [STATE/PROVINCE], with its head office located at:

WHEREAS, Company desires to employ Employee and Employee desires to be employed by Company in connection with certain aspects of the development or marketing of certain computer systems or other products for Company; and

WHEREAS, in connection with such employment, Employee may be given access to, generate, or otherwise come into contact with certain proprietary and/or confidential information of Company or clients of Company; and

WHEREAS, Employee and Company desire to prevent the dissemination or misuse of such information;

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto mutually agree as follows:

1. Employment

Company hereby employs or continues to employ Employee and Employee hereby accepts employment, upon the terms and conditions contained herein and at a compensation as shall be agreed upon from time to time by Company and Employee. This Agreement shall commence on the date hereof and shall remain in effect for an indefinite time until terminated by either party by giving the other party notice of termination at least [NUMBER] days in advance. While employed by Company, Employee shall devote his or her full working time to Company's affairs and shall faithfully and diligently serve Company's interests.

2. Confidentiality

Employee recognizes and acknowledges that the systems which Company owns, plans or develops, whether for its own use or for use by its clients, are confidential and are the property of Company. Employee further recognizes and acknowledges that in order to enable Company to perform services for its clients, such clients may furnish to Company confidential information concerning their business affairs, property, methods of operation or other data; that the goodwill afforded to Company depends upon, among other things, Company and its employees keeping such services and information confidential (collectively, including Company systems and Company client information, the "Confidential Information").

OBJECTION MY LORD

3. Non-Disclosure

Employee agrees that, except as directed by Company, the Employee will not at any time, whether during or after his employment with Company, disclose to any person or use any Confidential Information, or permit any person to examine and/or make copies of any documents which contain or are derived from Confidential Information, whether prepared by the Employee or otherwise coming into the Employee's possession or control without the prior written permission of Company.

4. Possession

Employee agrees that upon request by Company, and in any event upon termination of employment, Employee shall turn over to Company all documents, papers or other material in his possession or under his control which may contain or be derived from Confidential Information, together with all documents, notes or other work product which is connected with or derived from Employee's services to Company whether or not such material is at the date hereof in Employee's possession. Employee agrees that the Employee shall have no proprietary interest in any work product developed or used by Employee and arising out of his employment by Company. Company shall, from time to time as may be requested by Company, do all things which may be necessary to establish or document Company's ownership of any such work product, including, but not limited to execution of appropriate copyright applications or assignments.

5. Non-Competition

Employee agrees and covenants that because of the confidential and sensitive nature of the Confidential Information and because the use of, or even the appearance of the use of, the Confidential Information in certain circumstances may cause irreparable damage to Company and its reputation, or to clients of Company, Employee shall not, until the expiration of two years after the termination of the employment relationship between Company and Employee, engage, directly or indirectly, or through any corporations or associates in any business, enterprise or employment which is directly competitive with Company.

6. Saving Provision

Company and Employee agree and stipulate that the agreements and covenants not to compete contained in the preceding paragraph are fair and reasonable in light of all of the facts and circumstances of the relationship between Employee and Company; however, Employee and Company are aware that in certain circumstances courts have refused to enforce certain agreements not to compete. Therefore, in furtherance of and not in derogation of the provisions of the preceding paragraph Company and Employee agree that in the event a court should decline to enforce the provisions of the preceding paragraph, that paragraph shall be deemed to be modified to restrict Employee's competition with Company to the maximum extent, in both time and geography, which the court shall find enforceable; however, in no event shall the provisions of the preceding paragraph be deemed to be more restrictive to Employee than those contained therein.

7. Enforceable

The provisions of this Agreement shall be enforceable notwithstanding the existence of any claim or cause of action of Employee against Company whether predicated on this Agreement or otherwise.

8. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may be modified only by an instrument in writing signed by both parties hereto.

9. Injunctive Relief

The Employee acknowledges that disclosure of any Confidential Information or breach of any of the non-competitive covenants or agreements contained herein will give rise to irreparable injury to Company or clients of Company, inadequately compensable in damages. Accordingly, Company or, where appropriate a client of Company, may seek and obtain injunctive relief against the breach or threatened breach of the foregoing undertakings, in addition to any other legal remedies which may be available. The Employee further acknowledges and agrees that in the event of the termination of employment with the Company the Employee's experience and capabilities are such that the Employee can obtain employment in business activities which are of a different or non-competing nature with his or her activities as an employee of Company; and that the enforcement of a remedy hereunder by way of injunction shall not prevent the Employee from earning a reasonable livelihood. The Employee further acknowledges and agrees that the covenants contained herein are necessary for the protection of the Company's legitimate business interests and are reasonable in scope and content.

10. Company's Clients

If Employee's employment with Company terminates for any reason, the Employee shall not, for a period of one year from the date of termination, have any business dealings whatsoever, either directly or indirectly or through corporate entities or associates with any customer or client of Company or its subsidiaries or any person or firm which has contacted or been contacted by Company as a potential customer or client of Company; and Employee shall keep in strictest confidence, both during the Employee's employment and subsequent to termination of employment, and shall not during the period of employment or thereafter disclose or divulge to any person, firm or corporation, or use directly or indirectly, for the Employee's own benefit or the benefit of others, any information which in good faith and good conscience ought to be treated as confidential information including, without limitation, information relating to the software developed by Company, information as to sources of, and arrangements for, hardware supplied to customers or clients of Company, submission and proposal procedures of Company, customer or contact lists or any other Confidential Information.

EMPLOYEE PROPRIETARY INFORMATION AND INVENTIONS AGREEMENT

In consideration of my employment by [Name of company], (the “Company”), I hereby agree to the following restrictions placed on my use and development of information, technology, ideas and inventions:

1. Proprietary Information

a. Restrictions on Proprietary Information

I agree that, during my employment and after, I will hold the Proprietary Information of the Company in strict confidence and will neither use the information nor disclose it to anyone, except to the extent necessary to carry out my responsibilities as an employee of the Company or as specifically authorized in writing by a duly authorized officer of the Company. I understand that "Proprietary Information" means all information pertaining in any manner to the business of the Company or its affiliates, consultants, or business associates, unless:

- i. the information is or becomes publicly known through lawful means;
- ii. the information was part of my general knowledge prior to my employment by the Company; or
- iii. the information is disclosed to me without restriction by a third party who rightfully possesses the information and did not learn of it from the Company.

This definition includes, but is not limited to, (A) schematics, techniques, development tools, processes, computer printouts, computer programs, design drawings and manuals, electronic codes, formulas and improvements; (B) information about costs, profits, markets, sales, customers, and bids; (C) plans for business, marketing, future development and new product concepts; and (D) employee personnel files and information about employee compensation and benefits.

b. Prior Actions and Knowledge

Except as disclosed on Schedule A to this Agreement, I do not know anything about the Company's business or Proprietary Information, other than information I have learned from the Company in the course of being hired and employed.

c. Third Party Information

I recognize that the Company has received and will receive confidential or proprietary information from third parties. I will hold all such information in the strictest confidence and will not use the information or disclose it to anyone (except as necessary in carrying out my work for the Company consistent with the Company's agreement with such third party).

OBJECTION MY LORD

d. Interference with Business

I agree that during my employment with the Company and for a period of [NUMBER] year after termination of my employment with the Company, I shall not directly or indirectly (i) divert or attempt to divert from the Company (or any affiliate) any business of any kind in which it is engaged, including, without limitation, the solicitation of or interference with any of its suppliers or customers or (ii) solicit, induce, recruit or encourage any person employed by the Company to leave their employment.

2. Inventions

a. Assignment of Inventions

I agree to assign to the Company, without further consideration, my entire right, title, and interest (throughout the [COUNTRY] and in all foreign countries), free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, in and to all Inventions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may, in its discretion, agree to provide consideration for certain Inventions through a written agreement between the Company and the undersigned which specifically provides for such consideration; in all other cases, no consideration shall be paid. The Inventions shall be the sole property of the Company, whether or not copyrightable or patentable. In addition, I agree to maintain adequate and current written records on the development of all Inventions, which shall also remain the sole property of the Company. I understand that "Inventions" means all ideas, processes, inventions, technology, designs, formulas, discoveries, patents, copyrights, and trademarks, and all improvements, rights, and claims related to the foregoing, that are conceived, developed, or reduced to practice by me alone or with others except Inventions excluded in Schedule A:

Any provision in an employment agreement which provides that an employee shall assign, or offer to assign, any of his or her rights in an invention to his or her employer shall not apply to an invention that the employee developed entirely on his or her own time without using the employer's equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secret information except for those inventions that either:

- i. Relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the invention to the employer's business, or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the employer.
- ii. Result from any work performed by the employee for the employer.

b. License for Other Inventions

If, in the course of my employment, with the Company, I incorporate into Company property an invention owned by me or in which I have an interest, the Company is granted a nonexclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide license to make, modify, use and sell my invention as part of and in connection with the Company property.

c. Assist With Registration

In the event any Invention shall be deemed by the Company to be copyrightable or patentable or otherwise registrable, I will assist the Company (at its expense) in obtaining and maintaining letters patent or other applicable registrations and in vesting the Company with full title. Should the Company be unable to secure my signature on any document necessary to apply for, prosecute, obtain, or enforce any patent, copyright, or other right or protection relating to any Invention, due to my incapacity or any other cause, I hereby irrevocably designate and appoint the Company and each of its duly authorized officers and agents as my agent and attorney-in-fact to do all lawfully permitted acts to further the prosecution, issuance, and enforcement of patents, copyrights, or other rights or protection with the same force and effect as if executed and delivered by me.

d. Disclosure

I agree to disclose promptly to the Company all Inventions and relevant records. I further agree to promptly disclose to the Company any idea that I do not believe to be an Invention, but is conceived, developed, or reduced to practice by me (alone or with others) while I am employed by the Company or during the one-year period following termination of my employment. I will disclose the idea, along with all information and records pertaining to the idea, and the Company will examine the disclosure in confidence to determine if in fact it is an Invention subject to this Agreement.

e. Post-Termination Period

I agree that any idea, invention, writing, discovery, patent, copyright, or trademark or similar item, or improvement shall be presumed to be an Invention if it is conceived, developed, used, sold, exploited, or reduced to practice by me or with my aid within [NUMBER] year after my termination of employment with the Company. I can rebut the above presumption if I prove that the idea, invention, writing, discovery, patent, copyright, or trademark or similar item, or improvement is not an Invention covered by this Agreement.

3. Former or Conflicting Agreements

a. Former Agreements

I represent and warrant that my performance of the terms of this Agreement will not breach any agreement to keep in confidence proprietary information acquired by me prior to my employment by the Company. I have listed in Schedule A all other agreements concerning proprietary information or inventions to which I am a party and attached copies of any agreements in my possession. To the best of my knowledge, there is no other contract between me and any other person or entity that is in conflict with this Agreement or concerns proprietary information, inventions or assignment of ideas.

b. Obligations During Employment

During my employment with the Company, I will not disclose to the Company, or use, or induce the Company to use, any proprietary information or trade secrets of others.

4. Termination

a. Return of the Company's Property

I agree to promptly return to the Company upon termination of my employment all Proprietary Information and all personal property furnished to or prepared by me in the course of or incident to my employment. Following my termination, I will not retain any written or other tangible material containing any Proprietary Information or information pertaining to any Invention.

OBJECTION MY LORD

b. Termination Certificate

In the event of the termination of my employment, I agree, if requested by the Company, to sign and deliver the Termination Certificate attached as Schedule B.

c. Subsequent Employers

I agree that after the termination of my employment with the Company, I will not enter into any agreement that conflicts with my obligations under this Agreement and will inform any subsequent employers of my obligations under this Agreement.

5. No implied employment rights

I recognize that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to imply that my employment is guaranteed for any period of time. Unless stated in a written agreement signed by a duly authorized officer of the Company, my employment is for an indefinite duration, and either the Company or I can terminate our employment relationship at any time, without notice and for any reason, with or without cause.

6. Remedies

I recognize that nothing in this Agreement is intended to limit any remedy of the Company under any federal or state law concerning trade secrets, I recognize that my violation of this Agreement could cause the Company irreparable harm and agree that the Company shall have the right to apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for an order restraining any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement.

7. Miscellaneous Provisions

a. Assignment

I agree that the Company may assign to another person or entity any of its rights under this Agreement.

b. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State [State].

c. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement, or application thereof to any person, place, or circumstance, shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, such provision shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law and the remainder of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

d. Entire Agreement

The terms of this Agreement are the final expression of my agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof and may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous agreement. This Agreement shall constitute the complete and exclusive statement of its terms. I acknowledge that the Company has not made any other representations concerning the subject matter of this Agreement.

e. Amendment; Waivers

This Agreement can be amended or terminated only by a written agreement signed by both parties. No failure to exercise or delay in exercising any right under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof.

f. Successors and Assigns

This Agreement shall be binding upon me and my heirs, executors, administrators, and successors, and shall inure to the benefit of the Company's successors and assigns.

I HAVE READ THIS AGREEMENT CAREFULLY AND UNDERSTAND ITS TERMS. I HAVE COMPLETELY NOTED ON SCHEDULE A TO THIS AGREEMENT ANY PROPRIETARY INFORMATION, IDEAS, PROCESSES, INVENTIONS, TECHNOLOGY, WRITINGS, PROGRAMS, DESIGNS, FORMULAS, DISCOVERIES, PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS, OR TRADEMARKS, OR IMPROVEMENTS, RIGHTS, OR CLAIMS RELATING TO THE FOREGOING, THAT I DESIRE TO EXCLUDE FROM THIS AGREEMENT.

[Generally describe the projects]

EMPLOYEE RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

Following are covenants that you can copy and paste into any employment agreement. Thus, the contracts you will sign with future or actual employees will legally protect the company and employees. Remember to ask your lawyer to review any legal document you are about to sign.

Restrictive Covenants

The Employee acknowledges that the Corporation, through its employment of the Employee, has provided the Employee with confidential information, business and professional contacts, training and experience, and the ability to service and otherwise have access to the Corporation's clients. The Employee further acknowledges that such confidential information, business and professional contacts, training and experience, and the ability to service and otherwise have access to the Corporation's clients are the result of his employment by the Corporation. In consideration of the foregoing and of the benefits generally provided to the Employee by the Corporation pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and otherwise, the Employee agrees to abide and be bound by the restrictions and prohibitions of this Article, which restrictions are intended by the parties to extend to any and all activities of the Employee, whether as an independent contractor, partner or joint venturer, or as an officer, director, stockholder, agent, employee or salesman for any person, firm, partnership, corporation or other entity, or otherwise.

Hiring

The Employee agrees that during the Employee's employment with the Corporation and for a period of [NUMBER] years following the termination of this Agreement, whether the termination shall be voluntary or involuntary, or with or without cause, the Employee will not attempt to hire any other employee or independent contractor of the Corporation or otherwise encourage or attempt to encourage any other employee or independent contractor of the Corporation to leave the Corporation's employ.

Confidentiality; Disclosure; Proprietary Information

Employee recognizes and acknowledges that all records with respect to clients, business associates, customer or referral lists, contracting parties and referral sources of the Corporation, and all personal, financial and business and proprietary information of the Corporation, its employees, officers, directors and shareholders obtained by the Employee during the term of this Agreement and not generally known in the public (the "Confidential Information") are valuable, special and unique and proprietary assets of the Corporation's business. The Employee hereby agrees that during the term of this Agreement and following the termination of this Agreement, whether the termination shall be voluntary or involuntary, or with or without cause, the Employee will not at any time, directly or indirectly, disclose any Confidential Information, in full or in part, in written or other form, to any person, firm, corporation, association or other entity, or utilize the same for any reason or purpose whatsoever other than for the benefit of and pursuant to authorization granted by the Corporation.

OBJECTION MY LORD

Solicitation

The Employee further agrees that during the term of this Agreement and following the termination of this Agreement, whether the termination shall be voluntary or involuntary, or with or without cause, the Employee will not, in any manner or at any time, solicit or encourage any person, firm, corporation or other business entity who are clients, business associates or referral sources of the Corporation to cease doing business with the Corporation or to do business with the Employee.

Non-Competition With Corporation Clients

Employee agrees that during the term of the Employee's employment with the Corporation and for a period of [NUMBER] years following the cessation of the relationship with the Corporation, the Employee shall not provide any service to or lend any aid or device to any of the clients of the Employer.

Covenants Independent

Each restrictive covenant on the part of the Employee set forth in this Agreement shall be construed as a covenant independent of any other covenant or provisions of this Agreement or any other agreement which the Corporation and the Employee may have, fully performed and not executory, and the existence of any claim or cause of action by the Employee against the Corporation whether predicated upon another covenant or provision of this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Corporation of any other covenant.

Proprietary Creations

All processes, inventions, patents, copyrights, trademarks, and other intangible rights (collectively the "Inventions") that may be conceived or developed by Employee, either alone or with others, during the term of Employee's employment, whether or not conceived or developed during Employee's working hours, and with respect to which the equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secret information of Company was used, or that relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the Invention to the business of the Corporation or to Corporation's actual or demonstrably anticipated research and development, or that result from any work performed by Employee for Corporation, will be the sole property of Corporation, and shall be considered "works for hire", and Employee hereby assigns to the Corporation all of Employee's right, title and interest in and to such Inventions. Employee must disclose to Corporation all inventions conceived during the term of employment, whether or not the invention constitutes property of Corporation under the terms of the preceding sentence, but such disclosure will be received by Corporation in confidence. Employee must execute all documents, including patent applications and assignments, required by Corporation to establish Corporation's rights under this Section.

Divisibility of Covenant Areas and Periods

If any portion of the restrictive covenants contained herein is held to be unreasonable, arbitrary or against public policy, each covenant shall be considered divisible both as to time and geographical area; and each [NUMBER] month of the specified period shall be deemed to be a separate period of time and each [NUMBER] mile radius segment of the geographical area shall be deemed to be a separate geographical area, so that the maximum lesser time and geographical area shall remain effective so long as the same is not unreasonable, arbitrary or against public policy.

Injunctive and Equitable Relief

Employee and Corporation recognize and expressly agree that the extent of damages to Corporation in the event of a breach by Employee of any restrictive covenant set forth herein would be impossible to ascertain, that the irreparable harm arising out of any breach shall be irrebuttably presumed, and that the remedy at law for any breach will be inadequate to compensate the Corporation. Consequently, the Employee agrees that in the event of a breach of any such covenant, in addition to any other relief to which Corporation may be entitled, Corporation shall be entitled to enforce the covenant by injunctive or other equitable relief ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Venue; Court Proceedings

I recognize that my employees sometimes may see my delegating as a waste of their time, and I seek to clear this up with them.
I have established a framework that my employees understand and agree to.
I sometimes ask employees what I am doing that wastes their time.
I encourage my employees to take initiative as long as they keep me properly informed.
From time to time, I review my delegating style to avoid falling into the trap of over-delegating or under-delegating

JOB APPLICANT INTERVIEW SCRIPT

1. INTRODUCTION

When the applicant arrives, put him or her at ease using a friendly, businesslike attitude. Let the applicant know that you're glad that they've come and that you have set aside sufficient uninterrupted time to conduct the interview. You can start the interview with chatter about hobbies, interests, etc., if you are comfortable doing so and are confident that you can stay away from personal questions that might be considered discriminatory. Or you can simply ask one of the following questions:

- "How did you happen to become interested in our organization?"
- "How did you hear of the opening?"
- Depending on the response, you can work in an overview of what you have planned.

"Before we start, let me give you some idea of what I'd like to cover today. I want to review your background and experience so that I can decide whether the job is suited to your talents and interests. So, I'd like to hear about your job, education, interests, outside activities, and anything else you'd like to tell me. And after we have covered your background, I want to give you information about our organization and the job, and answer any questions that you might have."

2. Work Experience

A discussion of work experience should vary widely based, in part, on how long the applicant has been employed. Questions appropriate to a recent high school or college graduate will make little sense when interviewing a professional with 15 years of experience. For an applicant with substantial experience, a reasonable starting point would be a discussion of the most recent position. In addition to focusing on the jobs themselves, it might also be helpful to discuss why the applicant has changed jobs in the past, the duration of each prior employment, chronological gaps in employment, etc. The following script would be appropriate when interviewing someone who has not been working long.

- "A good place to start would be your work experience."
- "I'm interested in the jobs you've held, what your duties and responsibilities were, your likes and dislikes, and what you felt you may have gained from them."

OBJECTION MY LORD

- ❑ "Let's start with a brief review of your first work experiences, those you might have had part-time during school or during the summer, and then we'll concentrate on your more recent jobs in more detail."
- ❑ "What do you remember about your very first job?"

Select specific follow-up questions for each job and move forward chronologically. It's been suggested that you move forward chronologically because there's a more natural conversational flow and you can see patterns of behavior emerge. Your follow-up questions should ask for specific examples of behavior, not general or hypothetical responses.

Ask specific, clear questions one at a time and let the applicant answer uninterrupted. Resist filling in every lull in the conversation; wait to see if the applicant will do so. Avoid either verbally or physically giving the applicant a clue as to how you regard their answers; remain neutral.

To draw the applicant out without revealing what you're thinking, try using his or her own words. If the candidate says, "I like to work independently," you could respond with "Independently?" Of course, you could also use the opportunity to ask the applicant to give an example of what he or she did working independently.

After you have covered the applicant's work experience, you could move on to education.

3. Education

As in the case of the work experience portion of the interview, the education discussion must be tailored to suit the applicant's educational level. The sample interview that follows would be appropriate for a younger applicant who has not been out of high school for any length of time. When interviewing for a professional position, the focus would shift to the professional education.

- ❑ "You've given me a good review of your work experience – now let's talk about your education. Why don't we start with high school briefly and then cover more recent schooling and any specialized on the job training you may have had. I'm interested in the subjects you preferred, your grades, extracurricular activities, and anything else of importance."
- ❑ "What was high school like for you?"

Select specific follow-up questions for each educational experience and move forward chronologically. Don't necessarily accept answers at face value. Chronology reveals patterns. Take the information and patterns of behavior that you're being told and analyze them in terms of the performance skills you determined that you needed before the interview began.

4. Activities and Interests

"Turning to the present, I'd like to give you the opportunity to mention some of your interests and activities outside of work—hobbies, what you do for fun and relaxation, any community activities, professional associations, or anything else you'd like to mention that you think might be relevant to our job. What would you like to mention?"

Select specific follow-up questions.

Show interest and attention, as well as respect for the applicant. Don't talk down. Do use an appropriate language level.

5. Self-Assessment

Select specific follow-up questions as needed.

- "Now let's try to summarize our conversation. Thinking about all we've covered today, what would you say are some of your strengths—qualities both personal and professional that make you a good prospect for any employer?"
- "You've given me some real assets, and now I'd like to hear about areas you'd like to develop further—all of us have qualities we'd like to change or improve. What are some of yours?"

6. Transition to Information-Giving Phase

If you are still interested in the applicant, proceed to this phase of the interview. On the other hand, if you have already decided that the applicant isn't suitable, there isn't much point in describing a position that the applicant won't be filling.

- "You've given me a good review of your background and experience, and I have enjoyed talking with you. Before we turn to my review of our organization, and the job, is there anything else about your background you would like to cover?"
- "Do you have any specific questions or concerns before I give you information about the job and the opportunities here?"

OBJECTION MY LORD

All right, now I have some information I'd like to give you." Review the organization, the job, benefits, location, etc. Tailor your presentation as appropriate to your interest in the candidate.

7. Closing

Close the interview graciously. If you have already decided not to offer the applicant a job, you can let them know at this point. Do so cordially and uncritically; you needn't be specific about why you've rejected the candidate.

- "Do you have any other questions about us, the job, or anything else?"
- "I've enjoyed talking with you today, but we won't be able to offer you this position."

If you think that you would consider the applicant for another position in the future, say so. You've already spent the time on an interview.

If pressed for a reason why an applicant won't be offered a job, you always have the option of telling the applicant that you do not discuss the reasons for your hiring decisions. Or, you may explain that, for example, you have already interviewed other, more qualified applicants. Use your judgment, realizing that it can create a very awkward situation if you merely tell an applicant that he or she is "unqualified" or "lacking experience." Be honest, but don't be confrontational.

- If you've found a promising candidate, you can continue.
- "What is your level of interest in us at this point?"
- Explore any doubts or reservations the applicant might have. "Let me review what the next steps are."
- Let the applicant know what's likely to happen next, whether another interview will be needed, and how long it will be before a decision is made.
- Finish by thanking the participant: "I want to thank you for coming today...."

OBJECT: DECLINE TO INTERVIEW

Dear [Contact name],

Having been away from the office for a few days, I didn't read your letter of [Date] until today. While I am sure the young man you wrote to me about wouldn't warrant the recommendation you gave unless he is truly exceptional, I believe it would be unfair to him to set up an interview at this time.

We have just had to lay off [Number] employees and there is no way that I could justify hiring someone new under those circumstances. We anticipate that business should improve over the next six months, but for now, the timing is off. I am sorry to have to disappoint you. The operating costs shall be normalized to an assumed 100% occupancy of the Building.

2. Property Tax

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant shall not be liable (directly or indirectly) for any increase in real property taxes during the term of this Lease (as the same may be extended from time to time) that results from a change in ownership of the Building or the land upon which the Building is located.

3. Audit

Tenant shall have the right exercisable within [NUMBER] months after the receipt of any year end statement that relates to operating costs of the Building to be paid by Tenant to cause the books and records of Landlord relating to its operation and management of the Building to be audited by a certified public accountant designated by Tenant, and reasonably acceptable to Landlord, to determine if the foregoing year-end statements are accurate and correct. Such audit shall be paid for by Tenant, unless the audit discloses a discrepancy in said statement in favor of Tenant which is greater than [%] of the amount shown on the year-end statement, in which case the audit shall be paid by Landlord and the amounts due by Tenant pursuant to this paragraph shall be adjusted accordingly.

4. Condition of the Building

- A. Landlord represents that the Premises, at the time of occupation, will be in good and reasonable condition and that the Premises will be suitable, in all material respects, for Tenant's use.

- D. Landlord shall adequately supply the Premises during reasonable and usual business hours with (i) electricity for lighting and operation of office machines, (ii) heating, ventilation and cooling reasonably required for the comfortable occupation of the Premises, (iii) elevator service, either automatic or with attendants, as Landlord elects, (iv) lighting replacement (for Landlord's designated Building standard lights), (v) restroom supplies, (vi) window washing, (vii) security service, (viii) janitor service, (ix) such other services and amenities as these customarily furnished in comparable buildings in the area.

5. Compliance

Landlord shall, at its sole cost and expense, comply with all laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules or regulations now in force or which may hereafter be in force, insofar as any thereof relate to Landlord's ownership and operation of the Building.

6. Expansion

Landlord agrees to negotiate in good faith with Tenant with respect to Tenant's needs for additional expansion space which may from time to time become available in the Building.

7. Casualty

In the event of a fire or other casualty in the Premises, or a fire or other casualty in such portions of the Building other than the Premises, where Tenant's direct access to the Premises and the use thereof for the conduct of its business is adversely impaired, Tenant shall promptly give notice thereof in writing to Landlord (unless Landlord already has notice thereof). The following provisions shall apply to a fire or other casualty occurring in the Premises and/or the Building:

- A. If portions of the Building outside the Premises are damaged or destroyed (whether or not the Premises are also damaged or destroyed) to such a degree that Tenant's direct access to the Premises and the use thereof for the conduct of its business are adversely impaired and sufficient repair can be made to the Building within [NUMBER] days from the date of such damage or destruction so as to provide Tenant with direct access to the Premises and the use thereof for the conduct of Tenant's business without significant impairment, Landlord, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, shall diligently proceed to repair the same and this Lease shall remain in full force and effect.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- B. If Landlord reasonably determines that it cannot complete the repairs provided in subparagraph (a) and (b) above within the time periods therein provided, Landlord shall notify Tenant of said effect within [NUMBER] days after the date of such damage and destruction, and in such event, Tenant may terminate this Lease within [NUMBER] days after the date of such notice.
- C. If this Lease is not terminated pursuant to the terms of this paragraph 6, Landlord shall diligently proceed to repair and rebuild the Premises and the Building, as necessary, as permitted by and subject to then applicable law, ordinance and regulation, and this Lease shall remain in full force and effect; provided that Landlord shall also be required to repair any injury or damage and to make any repairs or replacements of any improvements installed in the Premises by or for Tenant.
- D. During any period when the Premises are unusable for the conduct of Tenant's ordinary business operations, and are actually not used by Tenant, provided that the casualty is not the result of the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or Tenant's employees then during the period the Premises are rendered unusable by such casualty, Tenant shall be entitled to a reduction in rent in the proportion that the area of the Premises not occupied by Tenant bears to the total area of the Premises.

Seller will cooperate fully with Purchaser with respect to the contemplated plans. If Purchaser is unable to proceed with the described project because of any adverse decision of [city], or any board, commission, or officer of [city], Purchaser shall [state agreed remedy, such as: remit [AMOUNT] of the purchase price by crediting that amount on the purchase-money mortgage to be executed by Purchaser in favor of Seller].

7. BROKER'S COMMISSION

A commission of [AMOUNT] has become due from Seller to [name of broker] by reason of the sale provided for in this agreement. That amount shall be paid to broker at close of escrow directly, from cash payable on close to Seller.

8. SURVEY

Within [NUMBER] days after the date of acceptance of this contract, the Seller will provide and deliver to Buyer or Buyer's Attorney, a new spotted certified survey having all corners staked and showing all improvements upon the Property.

9. EXAMINATION OF TITLE AND TIME OF CLOSING

If the title evidence and survey as specified above disclose that Seller is vested with fee simple title to the Property (subject only to the permitted exceptions set forth above acceptable to Buyer), this sale shall be closed and Buyer shall perform the agreements made in this contract, at the office of Buyer's Attorney, on or before [NUMBER] days after acceptance of this contract. If title evidence or survey reveal any defect or condition which is not acceptable to Buyer, the Buyer shall, within [NUMBER] days, notify the Seller of such title defects and Seller agrees to use reasonable efforts to remedy such defects and shall have [NUMBER] days to do so, in which case this sale shall be closed within [NUMBER] days after delivery of acceptable evidence to Buyer and Buyer's Attorney that such defects have been cured. Seller agrees to pay for and clear all delinquent taxes, liens, and other encumbrances, unless the parties otherwise agree. If Seller is unable to convey to Buyer a good and insurable title to the Property, the Buyer shall have the right to demand all sums deposited by Buyer and held by or for the Seller. At the same time, Buyer shall return to Seller all items, if any, received from Seller, whereupon all rights and liabilities of the parties to this contract shall cease. However, the Buyer shall have the right to accept such title as Seller may be able to convey and to close this sale upon the other terms as set forth in this contract.

10. DEFAULT BY BUYER

If Buyer fails to perform the agreements of this contract within the time set forth herein, Seller may retain, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, all of the initial deposit, it is being agreed that this is Seller's exclusive remedy.

11. DEFAULT BY SELLER

If Seller fails to perform any of the agreements of this contract, all deposits made by Buyer shall be returned to Buyer on demand, or the Buyer may bring suit against Seller for damages resulting from the breach of contract, or the Buyer may bring an action for specific performance. Buyer's remedies are cumulative and not exclusive of one another, and all other remedies shall be available in either law or equity to Buyer for Seller's breach hereof.

OBJECTION MY LORD

12. ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS

If any litigation is instituted with respect to enforcement of the terms of this contract, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover all costs incurred, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and court costs.

13. CONDITION OF THE PROPERTY

Seller agrees to deliver the Property to Buyer in its present condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted, and further certifies and represents that Seller knows of no latent defect in the Property. All heating, cooling, plumbing, electrical, sanitary systems, and appliances shall be in good working order at the time of closing. Seller represents and warrants that the personal property conveyed with the premises shall be the same property inspected by Buyer and that no substitutions will be made without the Buyer's written consent. Buyer may also inspect or cause to be inspected the foundation, roof supports, or structural member of all improvements located upon the Property. If any such system, appliance, roof, foundation, or structural member shall be found defective, Buyer shall notify Seller at or before closing and Seller shall thereupon remedy the defect forthwith at its sole expense (in which case the time for closing shall be reasonably extended as necessary). If the costs of such repairs shall exceed [%] of the total purchase price, Seller may elect not to make such repairs and the Buyer may elect to take the Property in such defective condition and deduct [%] from the purchase price or Buyer may, at his/her option, elect to terminate this contract and receive the full refund of all deposits and other sums tendered hereunder. In addition, Seller agrees to remove all debris from the Property by date of possession.

14. OCCUPANCY

Seller shall deliver possession to Buyer no later than the closing date unless otherwise stated herein. Seller represents that there are no persons occupying the Property. Seller agrees to provide true and accurate copies of all written leases to Buyer within [NUMBER] days after the date of acceptance of this contract. Said leases are subject to Buyer's approval. Seller shall provide such letters notifying tenants to pay rent to the buyer after closing as Buyer may reasonably request. Seller warrants that any rent rolls and other income and expense data provided to Buyer are complete and accurate, all of which must be acceptable to Buyer.

This Guaranty of Lease (the "Agreement") is made and effective [DATE],

BETWEEN: [LANDLORD NAME] (the "Landlord"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the [STATE/PROVINCE], with its head office located at:

AND: [GUARANTOR NAME] (the "Guarantor"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the [STATE/PROVINCE], with its head office located at:

RECITALS

Reference is made to that certain Lease herewith, dated [DATE], by and between Landlord and Tenant with respect to certain premises;

As a material inducement to, and in consideration of, Landlord entering into the Lease, Guarantor does hereby agree as follows:

1. GUARANTY

Guarantor do hereby unconditionally guarantee, as a primary obligor and not as a surety, and promise to perform and be liable for, the payment of rent by Tenant for [NUMBER] months starting [DATE] through [DATE].

2. MODIFICATIONS AND AMENDMENTS

The Lease may be amended or modified, and further agreements may be entered into between Tenant and Landlord, without further authorization from or notice to Guarantor and no such action shall terminate, release, reduce, diminish or in any way affect any of the obligations of the Guarantor hereunder or give Guarantor recourse or defense against Landlord.

Landlord may alter, compromise, accelerate, extend or change the time or manner for the performance or payment of any obligation(s) of Tenant under the Lease, waive any default by Tenant, fail to assert

any rights against Tenant, grant to Tenant any other indulgence or concession with respect to all or any part of any of the obligations of Tenant under the Lease, release, substitute or add Guarantors and may generally deal with Tenant, or any indebtedness of Tenant to Landlord, as Landlord sees fit, and no such action and no change, impairment or suspension of any right or remedy of Landlord shall terminate, release, reduce, diminish or in any way affect any of the obligations of Guarantor hereunder or give Guarantor any recourse or defense against Landlord.

3. LIABILITIES

The amount of liability of Guarantor and all rights, power and remedies of Landlord hereunder and under any other agreement now or at any time hereafter in force between Landlord and Guarantor, including any other guaranty executed by Guarantor relating to any indebtedness of Tenant to Landlord, shall be cumulative and not alternative and shall be deemed to include all rights, powers and remedies given to Landlord by law. This Guaranty is in addition to and exclusive of the guaranty of any other guarantor of any indebtedness of Tenant to Landlord.

4. OBLIGATIONS OF GUARANTOR

The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of the Lease Obligation. In the event of any default hereunder, a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against Guarantor whether or not Tenant is joined therein or a separate action or actions is brought against Tenant. Landlord may maintain successive actions for other defaults. Landlord's rights hereunder shall not be exhausted by its exercise of any of its other rights or remedies or by any such action or by any number of successive actions until and unless all of the Lease Obligation hereby guaranteed has been fully performed and the period of time has expired during which any payment made by Tenant or Guarantor to Landlord may be determined to be a Preferential Payment.

5. SEVERABILITY

Each Guarantor shall be jointly and severally liable for, and agrees to pay to Landlord without demand, attorneys' fees in such amount as the Court determines is reasonable and all costs and other expenses which Landlord expends or incurs in enforcing, collecting or compromising the Lease Obligation hereby guaranteed or in enforcing or collecting upon this Guaranty against Guarantor the Lease Obligation hereby guaranteed whether or not suit is filed.

6. ENFORCEMENT

OBJECTION MY LORD

Should any one or more provisions of this Guaranty be determined to be illegal or unenforceable, all other provisions shall nevertheless be effective and enforceable.

7. NO WAIVER

No provision of this Guaranty or right of Landlord hereunder can be waived nor can Guarantor be released from his or her obligations hereunder except by a writing duly executed by Landlord.

8. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Guarantor represents and warrants it is represented or has had full opportunity to be represented by independent legal counsel of its own choice in connection with this Guaranty, that it has personally reviewed this Guaranty, and that it fully has the requisite experience and sophistication to understand its terms and conditions and the consequences of the duties assumed and rights waived herein. In the event of an ambiguity in or dispute regarding the interpretation of this Instrument, the interpretation shall not be resolved by any rule providing for interpretation against the party who causes the uncertainty to exist or against the drafting party.

9. GOVERNING LAW

This Guaranty shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of [STATE/PROVINCE]. Except as provided in any other written agreement now or at any time hereafter in force between Landlord and Guarantor, this Guaranty shall constitute the entire agreement of the Guarantor with Landlord with respect to the subject matter hereof and no representation, understanding, promise or condition concerning the subject matter hereof shall be binding upon Landlord unless expressed herein.

10. BINDING AGREEMENT

Guarantor agree to be bound by all provisions of the Lease.

11. DEFINITIONS

The term Landlord whenever hereinabove used refers to and means the Landlord in the foregoing Lease specifically named and also any assignee of said Landlord, whether by outright assignment or by assignment for security, and also any successor to the interest of said Landlord or of any assignee of such Lease or any part thereof, whether by assignment or otherwise. 7. RESTRICTIONS ON USE

Tenant shall not use the demised premises in any manner that will increase risks covered by insurance on the demised premises and result in an increase in the rate of insurance or a cancellation of any insurance policy, even if such use may be in furtherance of Tenant's business purposes.

Tenant shall not keep, use, or sell anything prohibited by any policy of fire insurance covering the demised premises, and shall comply with all requirements of the insurers applicable to the demised premises necessary to keep in force the fire and liability insurance.

8. WASTE, NUISANCE, OR UNLAWFUL ACTIVITY

Tenant shall not allow any waste or nuisance on the demised premises, or use or allow the demised premises to be used for any unlawful purpose.

9. DELAY IN DELIVERING POSSESSION

This lease agreement shall not be rendered void or voidable by the inability of Landlord to deliver possession to Tenant on the date set forth in Section 3. Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant for any loss or damage suffered by reason of such a delay; provided, however, that Landlord does deliver possession no later than [date]. In the event of a delay in delivering possession, the rent for the period of such delay will be deducted from the total rent due under this lease agreement. No extension of this lease agreement shall result from a delay in delivering possession.

10. SECURITY DEPOSIT

The Tenant has deposited with the Landlord the sum of [AMOUNT] as security for the full and faithful performance by the Tenant of all the terms of this lease required to be performed by the Tenant. Such sum shall be returned to the Tenant after the expiration of this lease, provided the Tenant has fully and faithfully carried out all of its terms. In the event of a bona fide sale of the property of which the leased premises are a part, the Landlord shall have the right to transfer the security to the purchaser to be held under the terms of this lease, and the Landlord shall be released from all liability for the return of such security to the Tenant.

11. TAXES

- a. Property Taxes: The Tenant shall be liable for all taxes levied against any leasehold interest of the Tenant or personal property and trade fixtures owned or placed by the Tenant in the Leased Premises.
- b. Real Estate Taxes: During the continuance of this lease Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a copy of any real estate taxes and assessments against the Leased Property. From and after the Commencement Date, the Tenant shall pay to Landlord not later than [NUMBER] days after the day on which the same may become initially due, all real estate taxes and assessments applicable to the Leased Premises, together with any interest and penalties lawfully imposed thereon as a result of Tenant's late payment thereof, which shall be levied upon the Leased Premises during the term of this Lease.
- c. Contest of Taxes: The Tenant, at its own cost and expense, may, if it shall in good faith so desire, contest by appropriate proceedings the amount of any personal or real property tax. lieu thereof, be assessed, levied, or imposed wholly or in part, as a capital levy or otherwise upon the rents reserved herein or any part thereof, or as a tax, corporation franchise tax, assessment, levy or charge, or any part thereof, measured by or based, in whole or in part, upon the Leased Premises or on the rents derived therefrom and imposed upon the Landlord, then the Tenant shall pay all such taxes, assessments, levies, impositions, or charges. Nothing contained in this Lease shall require the Tenant to pay an estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, corporate franchise, gross receipts, transfer or income tax of the Landlord, nor shall any of the same be deemed real estate taxes as defined herein unless the same be imposed in lieu of the real estate taxes.

12. IMPROVEMENTS BY TENANTS

Tenant may have prepared plans and specifications for the construction of improvements, and, if so, such plans and specifications are attached hereto as Exhibit "B" and incorporated herein by reference. Tenant shall obtain all certificates, permits, licenses and other authorizations of governmental bodies or authorities which are necessary to permit the construction of the improvements on the demised premises and shall keep the same in full force and effect at Tenant's cost.

Tenant shall negotiate, let and supervise all contracts for the furnishing of services, labor, and materials for the construction of the improvements on the demised premises at its cost. All such contracts shall require the contracting party to guarantee performance and all workmanship and materials installed by it for a period of one year following the date of completion of construction. Tenant shall cause all contracts to be fully and completely performed in a good and workmanlike manner, all to the effect that the improvements shall be fully and completely constructed and installed in accordance with good engineering and construction practice.

During the course of construction, Tenant shall, at its cost, keep in full force and effect a policy of builder's risk and liability insurance in a sum equal, from time to time, to three times the amount expended for construction of the improvements. All risk of loss or damage to the improvements during the course of construction shall be on Tenant with the proceeds from insurance thereon payable to Landlord.

Upon completion of construction, Tenant shall, at its cost, obtain an occupancy permit and all other permits or licenses necessary for the occupancy of the improvements and the operation of the same as set out herein and shall keep the same in force.

Nothing herein shall alter the intent of the parties that Tenant shall be fully and completely responsible for all aspects pertaining to the construction of the improvements of the demised premises and for the payment of all costs associated therewith. Landlord shall be under no duty to investigate or verify Tenant's compliance with the provision herein. Moreover, neither Tenant nor any third party may construe the permission granted Tenant hereunder to create any responsibility on the part of the Landlord to pay for any improvements, alterations or repairs occasioned by the Tenant. The Tenant shall keep the property free and clear of all liens and, should the Tenant fail to do so, or to have any liens removed from the property within [NUMBER] days of notification to do so by the Landlord , in addition to all other remedies available to the Landlord , the Tenant shall indemnify and hold the Landlord harmless for all costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, occasioned by the Landlord in having said lien removed from the property; and, such costs and expenses shall be billed to the Tenant monthly and shall be payable by the Tenant with that month's regular monthly rental as additional reimburseable expenses to the Landlord by the Tenant.

13. Utilities

Tenant shall pay for all water, sanitation, sewer, electricity, light, heat, gas, power, fuel, janitorial, and other services incident to Tenant's use of the Leased Premises, whether or not the cost thereof be a charge or imposition against the Leased Premises.

14. OBLIGATIONS FOR REPAIRS

- a. Landlord's Repairs: Subject to any provisions herein to the contrary, and except for maintenance or replacement necessitated as the result of the act or omission of subtenants, licensees or contractors, the Landlord shall be required to repair only defects, deficiencies, deviations or failures of materials or workmanship in the building. The Landlord shall keep the Leased Premises free of such defects, deficiencies, deviations or failures during the first [NUMBER] months of the term hereof.
- b. Tenant's Repairs: The Tenant shall repair and maintain the Leased Premises in good order and condition, except for reasonable wear and tear, the repairs required of Landlord pursuant hereto, and maintenance or replacement necessitated as the result of the act or omission or negligence of the Landlord, its employees, agents, or contractors.
- c. Requirements of the Law: The Tenant agrees that if any federal, state or municipal government or any department or division thereof shall condemn the Leased Premises or any part thereof as not in conformity with the laws and regulations relating to the construction thereof as of the commencement date with respect to conditions latent or otherwise which existed on the Commencement Date, or, with respect to items which are the Landlord's duty to repair pursuant to Section a) and c) of this Article; and such federal, state or municipal government or any other department or division thereof, has ordered or required, or shall hereafter order or require, any alterations or repairs thereof or installations and repairs as may be necessary to comply with such laws, orders or requirements (the validity of which the Tenant shall be entitled to contest); and if by reason of such laws, orders or the work done by the Landlord in connection therewith, the Tenant is deprived of the use of the Leased Premises, the rent shall be abated or adjusted, as the case may be, in proportion to that time during which, and to that portion of the Leased Premises of which, the Tenant shall be deprived as a result thereof, and the Landlord shall be obligated to make such repairs, alterations or modifications at Landlord's expense. All such rebuilding, altering, installing and repairing shall be done in accordance with Plans and Specifications approved by the Tenant, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If, however, such condemnation, law, order or requirement, as in this Article set forth, shall be with respect to an item which shall be the Tenant's obligation to repair pursuant to Section b) of this Article 9 or with respect to Tenant's own costs and expenses, no abatement or adjustment of rent shall be granted; provided, however, that Tenant shall also be entitled to contest the validity thereof.

- d. TENANT'S Alterations: The Tenant shall have the right, at its sole expense, from time to time, to redecorate the Leased Premises and to make such non-structural alterations and changes in such parts thereof as the Tenant shall deem expedient or necessary for its purposes; provided, however, that such alterations and changes shall neither impair the structural soundness nor diminish the value of the Leased Premises. The Tenant may make structural alterations and additions to the Leased Premises provided that Tenant has first obtained the consent thereto of the Landlord in writing. The Landlord agrees that it shall not withhold such consent unreasonably. The Landlord shall execute and deliver upon the request of the Tenant such instrument or instruments embodying the approval of the Landlord which may be required by the public or quasi public authority for the purpose of obtaining any licenses or permits for the making of such alterations, changes and/or installations in, to or upon the Leased Premises and the Tenant agrees to pay for such licenses or permits.
- e. Permits and Expenses: Each party agrees that it will procure all necessary permits for making any repairs, alterations, or other improvements for installations, when applicable. Each Party hereto shall give written notice to the other party of any repairs required of the other pursuant to the provisions of this Article and the party responsible for said repairs agrees promptly to commence such repairs and to prosecute the same to completion diligently, subject, however, to the delays occasioned by events beyond the control of such party.

Each party agrees to pay promptly when due the entire cost of any work done by it upon the Leased Premises so that the Leased Premises at all times shall be free of liens for labor and materials. Each party further agrees to hold harmless and indemnify the other party from and against any and all injury, loss, claims or damage to any person or property occasioned by or arising out of the doing of any such work by such party or its employees, agents or contractors. Each party further agrees that in doing such work that it will employ materials of good quality and comply with all governmental requirements, and perform such work in a good and workmanlike manner.

15. TENANT'S COVENANTS

Tenant covenants and agrees as follows:

- a. To procure any licenses and permits required for any use made of the Leased Premises by Tenant, and upon the expiration or termination of this Lease, to remove its goods and effects and those of all persons claiming under it, and to yield up peaceably to Landlord the Leased Premises in good order, repair and condition in all respects; excepting only damage by fire and casualty covered by Tenant's insurance coverage, structural repairs (unless Tenant is obligated to make such repairs hereunder) and reasonable wear and tear;
- b. To permit Landlord and its agents to examine the Leased Premises at reasonable times and to show the Leased Premises to prospective purchasers of the Building and to provide Landlord, if not already available, with a set of keys for the purpose of said examination, provided that Landlord shall not thereby unreasonably interfere with the conduct of Tenant's business;
- c. To permit Landlord to enter the Leased Premises to inspect such repairs, improvements, alterations or additions thereto as may be required under the provisions of this Lease. If, as a result of such repairs, improvements, alterations, or additions, Tenant is deprived of the use of the Leased Premises, the rent shall be abated or adjusted, as the case may be, in proportion to that time during which, and to that portion of the Leased Premises of which, Tenant shall be deprived as a result thereof.

16. INDEMNITY BY TENANT

The Tenant shall save Landlord harmless and indemnify Landlord from all injury, loss, claims or damage to any person or property while on the Leased Premises, unless caused by the willful acts or omissions or gross negligence of Landlord, its employees, agents, licensees or contractors. Tenant shall maintain, with respect to the Leased Premises, public liability insurance with limits of not less than [AMOUNT] for injury or death from one accident and [AMOUNT] property damage insurance, insuring Landlord and Tenant against injury to persons or damage to property on or about the Leased Premises. A copy of the policy or a certificate of insurance shall be delivered to Landlord on or before the commencement date and no such policy shall be cancelable without [NUMBER] days prior written notice to Landlord.

OBJECTION MY LORD

17. SIGNAGE

- a. Exterior Signs: Tenant shall have the right, at its sole risk and expense and in conformity with applicable laws and ordinances, to erect and thereafter, to repair or replace, if it shall so elect signs on any portion of the Leased Premises, providing that Tenant shall remove any such signs upon termination of this lease, and repair all damage occasioned thereby to the Leased Premises.
- b. Interior Signs: Tenant shall have the right, at its sole risk and expense and in conformity with applicable laws and ordinances, to erect, maintain, place and install its usual and customary signs and fixtures in the interior of the Leased Premises.

18. INSURANCE

- a. Insurance Proceeds: In the event of any damage to or destruction of the Leased Premises, Tenant shall adjust the loss and settle all claims with the insurance companies issuing such policies. The parties hereto do irrevocably assign the proceeds from such insurance policies for the purposes hereinafter stated to any institutional first mortgagee or to Landlord and Tenant jointly, if no institutional first mortgagee then holds an interest in the Leased Premises. All proceeds of said insurance shall be paid into a trust fund under the control of any institutional first mortgagee, or of Landlord and Tenant if no institutional first mortgagee then holds an interest in the Leased Premises, for repair, restoration, rebuilding or replacement, or any combination thereof, of the Leased Premises or of the improvements in the Leased Premises. In case of such damage or destruction, Landlord shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such trust fund, from time to time, upon presentation of:
 - i. bills for labor and materials expended in repair, restoration, rebuilding or replacement, or any combination thereof;
 - ii. Landlord's sworn statement that such labor and materials for which payment is being made have been furnished or delivered on site; and
 - iii. the certificate of a supervising architect (selected by Landlord and Tenant and approved by an institutional first mortgagee, if any, whose fees will be paid out of said insurance proceeds) certifying that the work being paid for has been completed in accordance with the Plans and Specifications previously approved by Landlord, Tenant and any institutional first mortgagee in a first class, good and workmanlike manner and in accordance with all pertinent governmental requirements.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Any insurance proceeds in excess of such proceeds as shall be necessary for such repair, restoration, rebuilding, replacement or any combination thereof shall be the sole property of Landlord subject to any rights therein of Landlord's mortgagee, and if the proceeds necessary for such repair, restoration, rebuilding or replacement, or any combination thereof shall be inadequate to pay the cost thereof, Tenant shall suffer the deficiency.

- b. Subrogation: Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other, to the extent of the insurance coverage provided hereunder, from any and all liability or responsibility (to the other or anyone claiming through or under the other by way of subrogation or otherwise) for any loss to or damage of property covered by the fire and extended coverage insurance policies insuring the Leased Premises and any of Tenant's property, even if such loss or damage shall have been caused by the fault or negligence of the other party.
- c. Contribution: Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all insurance premiums connected with or applicable to the Leased Premises for whatever insurance policy the Landlord, at its sole and exclusive option, should select.

19. DAMAGE TO DEMISED PREMISES

- a. Abatement or Adjustment of Rent: If the whole or any part of the Leased Premises shall be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty after the execution of this Lease and before the termination hereof, then in every case the rent reserved in Article IV herein and other charges, if any, shall be abated or adjusted, as the case may be, in proportion to that portion of the Leased Premises of which Tenant shall be deprived on account of such damage or destruction and the work of repair, restoration, rebuilding, or replacement or any combination thereof, of the improvements so damaged or destroyed, shall in no way be construed by any person to effect any reduction of sums or proceeds payable under any rent insurance policy.
- b. Repairs and Restoration: Landlord agrees that in the event of the damage or destruction of the Leased Premises, Landlord forthwith shall proceed to repair, restore, replace or rebuild the Leased Premises (excluding Tenant's leasehold improvements), to substantially the condition in which the same were immediately prior to such damage or destruction. The Landlord thereafter shall diligently prosecute said work to completion without delay or interruption except for events beyond the reasonable control of Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Landlord does not either obtain a building permit within [number] days of the date of such damage or destruction, or complete such repairs, rebuilding or restoration within [number] months of such damage or destruction, then Tenant may at any time thereafter cancel and terminate this Lease by sending [number] days written notice thereof to Landlord, or, in the alternative, Tenant may, during said [number] day period, apply for the same and Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant in Tenant's application. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such damage or destruction shall occur during the last year of the term of this Lease, or during any renewal term, and shall amount to [%] or more of the replacement cost, (exclusive of the land and foundations), this Lease, may be terminated at the election of either Landlord or Tenant, provided that notice of such election shall be sent by the party so electing to the other within [number] days after the occurrence of such damage or destruction. Upon termination, as aforesaid, by either party hereto, this Lease and the term thereof shall cease and come to an end, any unearned rent or other charges paid in advance by Tenant shall be refunded to Tenant, and the parties shall be released hereunder, each to the other, from all liability and obligations hereunder thereafter arising.

20. CONDEMNATION

- a. Total Taking: If, after the execution of this Lease and prior to the expiration of the term hereof, the whole of the Leased Premises shall be taken under power of eminent domain by any public or private authority, or conveyed by Landlord to said authority in lieu of such taking, then this Lease and the term hereof shall cease and terminate as of the date when possession of the Leased Premises shall be taken by the taking authority and any unearned rent or other charges, if any, paid in advance, shall be refunded to Tenant.
- b. Partial Taking: If, after the execution of this Lease and prior to the expiration of the term hereof, any public or private authority shall, under the power of eminent domain, take, or Landlord shall convey to said authority in lieu of such taking, property which results in a reduction by [%] or more of the area in the Leased Premises, or of a portion of the Leased Premises that substantially interrupts or substantially obstructs the conducting of business on the Leased Premises; then Tenant may, at its election, terminate this Lease by giving Landlord notice of the exercise of Tenant's election within [number] days after Tenant shall receive notice of such taking. In the event of termination by Tenant of this Lease and the term hereof shall cease and terminate as of the date when possession shall be taken by the appropriate authority of that portion of the Entire Property that results in one of the above takings, and any unearned rent or other charges, if any, paid in advance by Tenant shall be refunded to Tenant.
- c. Restoration In the event of a taking in respect of which Tenant shall not have the right to elect to terminate this Lease or, having such right, shall not elect to terminate this Lease, this Lease and the term thereof shall continue in full force and effect and Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, forthwith shall restore the remaining portions of the

Leased Premises, including any and all improvements made theretofore to an architectural whole in substantially the same condition that the same were in prior to such taking. A just proportion of the rent reserved herein and any other charges payable by Tenant hereunder, according to the nature and extent of the injury to the Leased Premises and to Tenant's business, shall be suspended or abated until the completion of such restoration and thereafter the rent and any other charges shall be reduced in proportion to the square footage of the Leased Premises remaining after such taking.

- d. The Award: All compensation awarded for any taking, whether for the whole or a portion of the Leased Premises, shall be the sole property of the Landlord whether such compensation shall be awarded for diminution in the value of, or loss of, the leasehold or for diminution in the value of, or loss of, the fee in the Leased Premises, or otherwise. The Tenant hereby assigns to Landlord all of Tenant's right and title to and interest in any and all such compensation. However, the Landlord shall not be entitled to and Tenant shall have the sole right to make its independent claim for and retain any portion of any award made by the appropriating authority directly to Tenant for loss of business, or damage to or depreciation of, and cost of removal of fixtures, personality and improvements installed in the Leased Premises by, or at the expense of Tenant, and to any other award made by the appropriating authority directly to Tenant.
- e. Release: In the event of any termination of this Lease as the result of the provisions of this Article 20, the parties, effective as of such termination, shall be released, each to the other, from all liability and obligations thereafter arising under this lease.

21. LANDLORD'S REMEDIES

In the event that:

- a. Tenant shall on three or more occasions be in default in the payment of rent or other charges herein required to be paid by Tenant (default herein being defined as payment received by Landlord ten or more days subsequent to the due date), regardless of whether or not such default has occurred on consecutive or non-consecutive months; or
- b. Tenant has caused a lien to be filed against the Landlord's property and said lien is not removed within [NUMBER] days of recordation thereof; or
- c. Tenant shall default in the observance or performance of any of the covenants and agreements required to be performed and observed by Tenant hereunder for a period of

OBJECTION MYLORD

[NUMBER] days after notice to Tenant in writing of such default (or if such default shall reasonably take more than [NUMBER] days to cure, Tenant shall not have commenced the same within the [NUMBER] days and diligently prosecuted the same to completion); or

- d. [NUMBER] days have elapsed after the commencement of any proceeding by or against Tenant, whether by the filing of a petition or otherwise, seeking any reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under the present or future Federal Bankruptcy Act or any other present or future applicable federal, state or other statute or law, whereby such proceeding shall not have been dismissed (provided, however, that the non-dismissal of any such proceeding shall not be a default hereunder so long as all of Tenant's covenants and obligations hereunder are being performed by or on behalf of Tenant); then Landlord shall be entitled to its election (unless Tenant shall cure such default prior to such election), to exercise concurrently or successively, any one or more of the following rights:
- i. Terminate this Lease by giving Tenant notice of termination, in which event this Lease shall expire and terminate on the date specified in such notice of termination, with the same force and effect as though the date so specified were the date herein originally fixed as the termination date of the term of this Lease, and all rights of Tenant under this Lease and in and to the Premises shall expire and terminate, and Tenant shall remain liable for all obligations under this Lease arising up to the date of such termination, and Tenant shall surrender the Premises to Landlord on the date specified in such notice; or
 - ii. Terminate this Lease as provided herein and recover from Tenant all damages Landlord may incur by reason of Tenant's default, including, without limitation, a sum which, at the date of such termination, represents the then value of the excess, if any, of (a) the Minimum Rent, Percentage Rent, Taxes and all other sums which would have been payable hereunder by Tenant for the period commencing with the day following the date of such termination and ending with the date herein before set for the expiration of the full term hereby granted, over (b) the aggregate reasonable rental value of the Premises for the same period, all of which excess sum shall be deemed immediately due and payable; or
 - iii. Without terminating this Lease, declare immediately due and payable all Minimum Rent, Taxes, and other rents and amounts due and coming due under this Lease for the entire remaining term hereof, together with all other amounts previously due, at once; provided, however, that such payment shall not be deemed a penalty or liquidated damages but shall merely constitute payment in advance of rent for the remainder of said term. Upon making such payment, Tenant shall be entitled to receive from Landlord all rents received by Landlord from other assignees, tenants, and subtenants on account of said Premises during the term of this Lease, provided that the monies to which tenant shall so become entitled shall in no event exceed the entire amount actually paid by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to the preceding sentence less all costs, expenses and attorney's fees of Landlord incurred in connection with the reletting of the Premises; or

- iv. Without terminating this Lease, and with or without notice to Tenant, Landlord may in its own name but as agent for Tenant enter into and upon and take possession of the Premises or any part thereof, and, at landlord's option, remove persons and property there from, and such property, if any, may be removed and stored in a warehouse or elsewhere at the cost of, and for the account of Tenant, all without being deemed guilty of trespass or becoming liable for any loss or damage which may be occasioned thereby, and Landlord may rent the Premises or any portion thereof as the agent of Tenant with or without advertisement, and by private negotiations and for any term upon such terms and conditions as Landlord may deem necessary or desirable in order to relet the Premises. Landlord shall in no way be responsible or liable for any rental concessions or any failure to rent the Premises or any part thereof, or for any failure to collect any rent due upon such reletting. Upon such reletting, all rentals received by Landlord from such reletting shall be applied: first, to the payment of any indebtedness (other than any rent due hereunder) from Tenant to Landlord; second, to the payment of any costs and expenses of such reletting, including, without limitation, brokerage fees and attorney's fees and costs of alterations and repairs; third, to the payment of rent and other charges then due and unpaid hereunder; and the residue, if any shall be held by Landlord to the extent of and for application in payment of future rent as the same may become due and payable hereunder. In reletting the Premises as aforesaid, Landlord may grant rent concessions and Tenant shall not be credited therefor. If such rentals received from such reletting shall at any time or from time to time be less than sufficient to pay to Landlord the entire sums then due from Tenant hereunder, Tenant shall pay any such deficiency to Landlord. Such deficiency shall, at Landlord's option, be calculated and paid monthly. No such reletting shall be construed as an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease unless a written notice of such election has been given to Tenant by Landlord. Notwithstanding any such reletting without termination, Landlord may at any time thereafter elect to terminate this Lease for any such previous default provided same has not been cured; or
- v. Without liability to Tenant or any other party and without constituting a constructive or actual eviction, suspend or discontinue furnishing or rendering to Tenant any

OBJECTION MY LORD

- property, material, labor, Utilities or other service, whether Landlord is obligated to furnish or render the same, so long as Tenant is in default under this Lease; or
- vi. Allow the Premises to remain unoccupied and collect rent from Tenant as it comes due; or
 - vii. Foreclose the security interest described herein, including the immediate taking of possession of all property on or in the Premises; or
 - viii. Pursue such other remedies as are available at law or equity.
- e. Landlord's pursuit of any remedy of remedies, including without limitation, any one or more of the remedies stated herein shall not (1) constitute an election of remedies or preclude pursuit of any other remedy or remedies provided in this Lease or any other remedy or remedies provided by law or in equity, separately or concurrently or in any combination, or (2) sever as the basis for any claim of constructive eviction, or allow Tenant to withhold any payments under this Lease.

22. LANDLORD'S Self Help

If in the performance or observance of any agreement or condition in this Lease contained on its part to be performed or observed and shall not cure such default within [number] days after notice from Landlord specifying the default (or if such default shall reasonably take more than [number] days to cure, shall diligently prosecuted the same to completion), Landlord may, at its option, without waiving any claim for damages for breach of agreement, at any time thereafter cure such default for the account of Tenant, and any amount paid or contractual liability incurred by Landlord in so doing shall be deemed paid or incurred for the account of Tenant and Tenant agrees to reimburse Landlord therefore and save Landlord harmless there from. Provided, however, that Landlord may cure any such default as aforesaid prior to the expiration of said waiting period, without notice to Tenant if any emergency situation exists, or after notice to Tenant, if the curing of such default prior to the expiration of said waiting period is reasonably necessary to protect the Leased Premises or Landlord's interest therein, or to prevent injury or damage to persons or property. If Tenant shall fail to reimburse Landlord upon demand for any amount paid for the account of Tenant hereunder, said amount shall be added to and become due as a part of the next payment of rent due and shall for all purposes be deemed and treated as rent hereunder.

23. TENANT'S Self Help

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

If Landlord shall default in the performance or observance of any agreement or condition in this Lease contained on its part to be performed or observed, and if Landlord shall not cure such default within [number] days after notice from Tenant specifying the default (or, if such default shall reasonably take more than [number] days to cure, and Landlord shall not have commenced the same within [number] days and diligently prosecuted the same to completion), Tenant may, at its option, without waiving any claim for damages for breach of agreement, at any time thereafter cure such default for the account of Landlord and any amount paid or any contractual liability incurred by Tenant in so doing shall be deemed paid or incurred for the account of Landlord and Landlord shall reimburse Tenant therefore and save Tenant harmless there from. Provided, however, that Tenant may cure any such default as aforesaid prior to the expiration of said waiting period, without notice to Landlord if an emergency situation exists, or after notice to Landlord, if the curing of such default prior to the expiration of said waiting period is reasonably necessary to protect the Leased Premises or Tenant's interest therein or to prevent injury or damage to persons or property. If Landlord shall fail to reimburse Tenant upon demand for any amount paid or liability incurred for the account of Landlord hereunder, said amount or liability may be deducted by Tenant from the next or any succeeding payments of rent due hereunder; provided, however, that should said amount or the liability therefore be disputed by Landlord, Landlord may contest its liability or the amount thereof, through arbitration or through a declaratory judgment action and Landlord shall bear the cost of the filing fees therefore.

24. TITLE

- a. Subordination: Tenant shall, upon the request of Landlord in writing, subordinate this Lease to the lien of any present or future institutional mortgage upon the Leased Premises irrespective of the time of execution or the time of recording of any such mortgage. Provided, however, that as a condition to such subordination, the holder of any such mortgage shall enter first into a written agreement with Tenant in form suitable for recording to the effect that:
 - i. in the event of foreclosure or other action taken under the mortgage by the holder thereof, this Lease and the rights of Tenant hereunder shall not be disturbed but shall continue in full force and effect so long as Tenant shall not be in default hereunder
 - ii. such holder shall permit insurance proceeds and condemnation proceeds to be used for any restoration and repair required by the provisions of this Agreement, respectively. Tenant agrees that if the mortgagee or any person claiming under the mortgage shall succeed to the interest of Landlord in this Lease, Tenant will recognize said mortgagee or person as its Landlord under the terms of this Lease, provided that said mortgagee or person for the period during which said mortgagee or person respectively shall be in possession of the Leased Premises and thereafter their respective successors in interest shall assume all of the obligations of Landlord hereunder. The word "mortgage", as used herein includes mortgages, deeds of trust or other similar instruments, and modifications, and extensions thereof. The term "institutional mortgage" as used in this Article 24 means a mortgage securing a loan from a bank or trust company, insurance company or pension trust or any other lender institutional in nature and constituting a lien upon the Leased Premises.

- b. Quiet Enjoyment: Landlord covenants and agrees that upon Tenant paying the rent and observing and performing all of the terms, covenants and conditions on Tenant's part to be observed and performed hereunder, that Tenant may peaceably and quietly have, hold, occupy and enjoy the Leased Premises in accordance with the terms of this Lease without hindrance or molestation from Landlord or any persons lawfully claiming through Landlord .
- c. Zoning and Good Title: Landlord warrants and represents, upon which warranty and representation Tenant has relied in the execution of this Lease, that Landlord is the owner of the Leased Premises, in fee simple absolute, free and clear of all encumbrances, except for the easements, covenants and restrictions of record as of the date of this Lease. Such exceptions shall not impede or interfere with the quiet use and enjoyment of the Leased Premises by Tenant. Landlord further warrants and covenants that this Lease is and shall be a first lien on the Leased Premises, subject only to any Mortgage to which this Lease is subordinate or may become subordinate pursuant to an agreement executed by Tenant, and to such encumbrances as shall be caused by the acts or omissions of Tenant; that Landlord has full right and lawful authority to execute this Lease for the term, in the manner, and upon the conditions and provisions herein contained; that there is no legal impediment to the use of the Leased Premises as set out herein; that the Leased Premises are not subject to any easements, restrictions, zoning ordinances or similar governmental regulations which prevent their use as set out herein; that the Leased Premises presently are zoned for the use contemplated herein and throughout the term of this lease may continue to be so used therefore by virtue of said zoning, under the doctrine of "non-conforming use", or valid and binding decision of appropriate authority, except, however, that said representation and warranty by Landlord shall not be applicable in the event that Tenant's act or omission shall invalidate the application of said zoning, the doctrine of "non-conforming use" or the valid and binding decision of the appropriate authority. Landlord shall furnish without expense to Tenant, within [number] days after written request therefore by Tenant, a title report covering the Leased Premises showing the condition of title as of the date of such certificate, provided, however, that Landlord's obligation hereunder shall be limited to the furnishing of only one such title report.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- d. Licenses: It shall be the Tenant's responsibility to obtain any and all necessary licenses and the Landlord shall bear no responsibility therefore; the Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of the fact that it has obtained the necessary licenses in order to prevent any delay to Landlord in commencing construction of the Leased Premises.

25. EXTENSIONS/WAIVERS/DISPUTES

- a. Extension Period: Any extension hereof shall be subject to the provisions of Article c) hereof.
- b. Holding Over: In the event that Tenant or anyone claiming under Tenant shall continue occupancy of the Leased Premises after the expiration of the term of this Lease or any renewal or extension thereof without any agreement in writing between Landlord and Tenant with respect thereto, such occupancy shall not be deemed to extend or renew the term of the Lease, but such occupancy shall continue as a tenancy at will, from month to month, upon the covenants, provisions and conditions herein contained. The rental shall be the rental in effect during the term of this Lease as extended or renewed, prorated and payable for the period of such occupancy.
- c. Waivers: Failure of either party to complain of any act or omission on the part of the other party, no matter how long the same may continue, shall not be deemed to be a waiver by said party of any of its rights hereunder. No waiver by either party at any time, express or implied, of any breach of any provision of this Lease shall be deemed a waiver of a breach of any other provision of this Lease or a consent to any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision. If any action by either party shall require the consent or approval of the other party, the other party's consent to or approval of such action on any one occasion shall not be deemed a consent to or approval of said action on any subsequent occasion or a consent to or approval of any other action on the same or any subsequent occasion. Any and all rights and remedies which either party may have under this Lease or by operation of law, either at law or in equity, upon any breach, shall be distinct, separate and cumulative and shall not be deemed inconsistent with each other, and no one of them, whether exercised by said party or not, shall be deemed to be an exclusion of any other; and any two or more or all of such rights and remedies may be exercised at the same time.
- d. Disputes: It is agreed that, if at any time a dispute shall arise as to any amount or sum of money to be paid by one party to the other under the provisions hereof, the party against whom the obligation to pay the money is asserted shall have the right to make payment "under protest" and such payment shall not be regarded as a voluntary payment and there shall survive the right on the part of the said party to institute suit for the recovery of such sum. If it shall be adjudged that there was no legal obligation on the part of said party to pay such sum or any part thereof, said party shall be entitled to recover such sum or so much thereof as it was not legally required to pay under the provisions of this Lease. If at any time a dispute shall arise between the parties hereto as to any work to be performed by either of them under the provisions hereof, the party against whom the obligation to perform the work is asserted may perform such work and pay the costs thereof "under protest" and the performance of such work shall in no event be regarded as a voluntary performance and shall survive the right on the part of the said party to institute suit for the recovery of the costs of such work. If it shall be adjudged that there was no legal obligation on the part of the said party to perform the same or any part thereof, said party shall be entitled to recover the costs of such work or the cost of so much thereof as said party was not legally required to perform under the provisions of this Lease and the amount so paid by Tenant may be withheld or deducted by Tenant from any rents herein reserved.

- e. Tenant's Right to cure Landlord's Default: In the event that Landlord shall fail, refuse or neglect to pay any mortgages, liens or encumbrances, the judicial sale of which might affect the interest of Tenant hereunder, or shall fail, refuse or neglect to pay any interest due or payable on any such mortgage, lien or encumbrance, Tenant may pay said mortgages, liens or encumbrances, or interest or perform said conditions and charge to Landlord the amount so paid and withhold and deduct from any rents herein reserved such amounts so paid, and any excess over and above the amounts of said rents shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant.
- f. Notices: All notices and other communications authorized or required hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given by mailing the same by certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, and any such notice or other communication shall be deemed to have been given when received by the party to whom such notice or other communication shall be addressed. If intended for Landlord the same will be mailed to the address herein above set forth or such other address as Landlord may hereafter designate by notice to Tenant, and if intended for Tenant, the same shall be mailed to Tenant at the address herein above set forth, or such other address or addresses as Tenant may hereafter designate by notice to Landlord.

26. PROPERTY DAMAGE

- a. Loss and Damage: Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of this Lease, Landlord shall not be responsible for any loss of or damage to property of Tenant or of others located on the Leased Premises, except where caused by the willful act or omission or negligence of

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Landlord , or Landlord's agents, employees or contractors, provided, however, that if Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing of repairs which are the responsibility of Landlord under Article VII hereof, and Landlord shall fail to commence and diligently prosecute to completion said repairs promptly after such notice, and if after the giving of such notice and the occurrence of such failure, loss of or damage to Tenant's property shall result from the condition as to which Landlord has been notified, Landlord shall indemnify and hold harmless Tenant from any loss, cost or expense arising there from.

- b. Force Majeure: In the event that Landlord or Tenant shall be delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any act other than Tenant's obligation to make payments of rent, additional rent, and other charges required hereunder, by reason of strikes, lockouts, unavailability of materials, failure of power, restrictive governmental laws or regulations, riots, insurrections, the act, failure to act, or default of the other party, war or other reason beyond its control, then performance of such act shall be excused for the period of the delay and the period for the performance of such act shall be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay. Notwithstanding the foregoing, lack of funds shall not be deemed to be a cause beyond control of either party.

27. Assignment and Subletting

Under the terms and conditions hereunder, Tenant shall have the absolute right to transfer and assign this lease or to sublet all or any portion of the Leased Premises or to cease operating Tenant's business on the Leased Premises provided that at the time of such assignment or sublease Tenant shall not be in default in the performance and observance of the obligations imposed upon Tenant hereunder, and in the event that Tenant assigns or sublets this property for an amount in excess of the rental amount then being paid, then Landlord shall require as further consideration for the granting of the right to assign or sublet, a sum equal to [%] of the difference between the amount of rental to be charged by Tenant to Tenant's subtenant or assignee and the amount provided for herein, payable in a manner consistent with the method of payment by the subtenant or assignee to the Tenant, and/or [%] of the consideration paid or to be paid to Tenant by Tenant's or Sub-Tenant or assignee.

28. Fixtures

All personal property, furnishings and equipment presently and all other trade fixtures installed in or hereafter by or at the expense of Tenant and all additions and/or improvements, exclusive of structural, mechanical, electrical, and plumbing, affixed to the Leased Premises and used in the operation of the Tenant's business made to, in or on the Leased Premises by and at the expense of Tenant and susceptible of being removed from the Leased Premises without damage, unless such damage be repaired by Tenant, shall remain the property of Tenant and Tenant may, but shall not be obligated to, remove the same or any part thereof at any time or times during the term hereof, provided that Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall make any repairs occasioned by such removal.

OBJECTION MY LORD

29. OPTION TO RENEW

Landlord grants to Tenant an option to renew this lease agreement for a period of [number] years after expiration of the term of this Lease agreement at a rental of [amount] per month, with all other terms and conditions of the renewal lease to be the same as those in this lease agreement. To exercise this option to renew, Tenant must give Landlord written notice of intention to do so at least [number] days before this lease agreement expires.

30. Estoppel Certificates

At any time and from time to time, Landlord and Tenant each agree, upon request in writing from the other, to execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other or to any person designated by the other a statement in writing certifying that the Lease is unmodified and is in full force and effect, or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified (stating the modifications), that the other party is not in default in the performance of its covenants hereunder, or if there have been such defaults, specifying the same, and the dates to which the rent and other charges have been paid.

31. Invalidity of Particular Provision

If any term or provision of this Lease or the application hereof to any person or circumstance shall, to any extent, be held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease, or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each term and provision of this Lease shall be valid and be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

32. Captions and Definitions of Parties

The captions of the Sections of this Lease are for convenience only and are not a part of this Lease and do not in any way limit or amplify the terms and provisions of this Lease. The word "Landlord" and the pronouns referring thereto, shall mean, where the context so admits or requires, the persons, firm or corporation named herein as Landlord or the mortgagee in possession at any time, of the land and building comprising the Leased Premises. If there is more than one Landlord, the covenants of Landlord shall be the joint and several obligations of each of them, and if Landlord is a partnership, the covenants of Landlord shall be the joint and several obligations of each of the partners and the obligations of the firm. Any pronoun shall be read in the singular or plural and in such gender as the context may require. Except as in this Lease otherwise provided, the terms and provisions of this Lease shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

33. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed or construed by the parties hereto nor by any third party as creating the relationship of principal and agent or of partnership or of a joint venture between the parties hereto, it being understood and agreed that neither any provision contained herein, nor any acts of the parties hereto, shall be deemed to create any relationship between the parties hereto other than the relationship of Landlord and Tenant.

34. Brokerage

No party has acted as, by or through a broker in the effectuation of this Agreement, except as set out hereinafter.

35. Entire Agreement

The required payments under Article 6 and all other charges payable by Sub lessee shall be deemed to be additional rent.

7. Delinquent Payments

In the event Sub lessee shall fail to pay the rent or any installment thereof, or any other fees, costs, taxes or expenses payable under this Sublease within [number] days after the said payment has become due, Sub lessee agrees that Sub lessor will incur additional costs and expenses in the form of extra collection efforts, administrative time, handling costs, and potential impairment of credit on loans for which this Sublease may be a security. Both parties agree that in such event, Sub lessor, in addition to its other remedies shall be entitled to recover a late payment charge against Sub lessee equal to [%] of the amount not paid within said [number] day period. Additionally, any past due amounts under this Sublease shall bear interest at the rate of the lesser of [%] per month or the maximum rate permitted by applicable law. Sub lessee further agrees to pay Sub lessor any cost incurred by Sub lessor in effecting the collection of such past due amount, including but not limited to attorneys' fees and/or collection agency fees. Sub lessor shall have the right to require Sub lessee to pay monies due in the form of a cashier's check or money order. Nothing herein contained shall limit any other remedy of Sub lessor with respect to such payment delinquency.

8. Security Deposit

On execution of this Sublease, Sub lessee shall deposit with Sub lessor a sum equal to [amount] (the "Security Deposit") in order to provide security for the performance by Sub lessee of the provisions of this Sublease. If Sub lessee is in default, Sub lessor may, but shall not be obligated to use the Security

OBJECTION MY LORD

Deposit, or any portion of it, to cure the default or to compensate Sub lessor for damage sustained by Sub lessor resulting from Sub lessee's default. Sub lessee shall immediately on demand pay to Sub lessor a sum equal to the portion of the Security Deposit expended or applied by Sub lessor as provided in this paragraph so as to maintain the Security Deposit in the sum initially deposited with Sub lessor. At the expiration or termination of this Sublease, Sub lessor shall return the Security Deposit to Sub lessee or its successor, less such amounts as are reasonably necessary to remedy Sub lessee's defaults, to repair damages the Leased Premises caused by Sub lessee or to clean the Leased Premises upon such termination, as soon as practicable thereafter. In the event of the sale or other conveyance of the Leased Premises, the Security Deposit will be transferred to the purchaser or transferee and the Sub lessor will be relieved of any liability with reference to such Security Deposit. Sub lessor shall not be required to keep the Security Deposit separate from its other funds, and (unless otherwise required by law) Sub lessee shall not be entitled to interest on the Security Deposit.

Use or permit the use of the Leased Premises in any manner that will tend to create a nuisance or tend to adversely affect or injure the reputation of Sub lessor or its affiliates.

Allow any activity to be conducted on the premises or store any material on the Leased Premises which will increase premiums for or violate the terms of any insurance policy(s) maintained by or for the benefit of Sub lessor.

Operational Permits: Sub lessee, prior to the Commencement Date, shall obtain and thereafter continuously maintain in full force and effect for the Term of this Sublease or any extension thereof, at no cost or expense to Sub lessor, any and all approvals, licenses, or permits required by any lawful authority as of the Commencement Date or imposed thereafter, for the use of Leased Premises, including but not limited to business licenses.

Compliance With Laws: Sub lessee shall comply with all federal, state, county, municipal, or other statutes, laws, ordinances, regulations, rules, or orders of any governmental or quasi-governmental entity, body, agency, commission, board, or official applicable to the Leased Premises and Sub lessee's business.

UTILITIES AND TAXES

- a. Utility Charges: Sub lessee shall be responsible for and shall pay, and indemnify and hold Sub lessor and the property of Sub lessor free and harmless from, all charges for the furnishing of gas, water, electricity, telephone service, and other public utilities to the Leased Premises during the Term of this Sublease or any extension thereof and for the removal of garbage and rubbish from the Leased Premises during the Term of this Sublease or any extension thereof. Sub lessor shall not be liable in damages or otherwise for any failure or interruption of any utility service being furnished to the Leased Premises and no such failure or interruption shall entitle Sub lessee to terminate this Sublease.
- b. Personal Property Taxes: Sub lessee shall be responsible for and shall pay before they become delinquent all taxes, assessments, or other charges levied or imposed by any governmental entity on the equipment, trade fixtures, appliances, merchandise and other personal property situated in, on, or about the Leased Premises including, without limiting the generality of the other terms of this Section, any shelves, counters, vault doors, wall safes, partitions, fixtures, machinery, or office equipment on the Leased Premises, whether put there prior to or after the Commencement Date of this Sublease.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- c. Real Property Taxes and Assessments: Sub lessee shall pay directly to the charging authority all taxes (as hereinafter defined) respecting the Leased Premises. Sub lessee shall pay all taxes on or before [number] days prior to delinquency thereof. Sub lessee shall promptly after payment of any taxes deliver to Sub lessor written receipts or other satisfactory evidence of the payment thereof. As used herein, “taxes” shall mean all taxes, assessments, fees, charges, levies, and penalties (if such penalties result from Sub lessee’s delinquency in paying all or any taxes), of any kind and nature, general and special, ordinary and extraordinary, unforeseen as well as foreseen (including, without limitation, all installments of principal and interest required to pay any general or special assessments for public improvements) now or hereafter imposed by any authority having the direct or indirect power to tax, including, without limitation the federal government, and any state, county, city, or other governmental or quasi-governmental authority, and any improvement or assessment district or other agency or division thereof, whether such tax is:
- i. levied or assessed against or with respect to the value, occupancy, or use of all or any portion of the Leased Premises (as now constructed or as may at any time hereafter be constructed, altered, or otherwise changed), or any legal or equitable interest of Sub lessor in the Leased Premises or any part thereof; or
 - ii. levied or assessed against or with respect to Sub lessor’s business of leasing the Leased Premises, or with respect to the operation of the Leased Premises; or
 - iii. determined by the area of the Leased Premises or any part thereof, or by the gross receipts, income, or rent and other sums payable hereunder by Sub lessee (including, without limitation, any gross income or excise tax levied with respect to receipt of such rent and/or other sums due under this Sublease); or
 - iv. imposed upon this transaction or any document to which Sub lessee is a party creating or transferring any interest in the Leased Premises; or
 - v. imposed during the term of this Sublease or any extension thereof because of a change in ownership of the Leased Premises which results in an increase of real property taxes; or
 - vi. any tax or excise, however described, imposed (whether by reason of a change in the method of taxation or assessment, creation of a new tax or charge, or any other cause) in addition to, in substitution partially or totally of, or as an alternate to, any tax previously included within the definition of taxes, or any tax the nature of which was previously included in the definition of taxes, whether or not now customary or within the contemplation of the parties.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Taxes shall also include all charges, levies or fees imposed by reason of environmental regulation or other governmental control of the Leased Premises, and all costs and expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees paid or incurred by Sub lessor in connection with:

- (1) any proceeding to contest in whole or in part the imposition or collection of any taxes;
 - (2) negotiation with public authorities as to any taxes.
- d. Proration of Taxes: Sub lessee's liability to pay taxes shall be prorated on the basis of a 365-day year to account for any fractional portion of a fiscal tax year included in the lease Term and its commencement and expiration.
 - e. Tax Delinquency: Failure of Sub lessee to pay promptly when due any of the charges required to be paid under this Article shall constitute a default under the terms hereof in like manner as a failure to pay rental when due, and if Sub lessor shall elect to pursue an unlawful detainer action upon said default, then Sub lessor shall be entitled to claim as an amount of additional rent owed for purposes of said unlawful detainer the amount of such taxes due and payable by Sub lessee.
 - f. All Other Charges: Sub lessee shall pay to Sub lessor any and all charges, fees, taxes, and other amounts due from Sub lessor to the master lessor of the Leased Premises prior to its due date, for sums due or owing on or after the date of this Sublease.
 - g. Common Area Maintenance Charges: Sub lessee shall be responsible for, and shall pay to Sub lessor on demand, any and all costs, fees, charges, assessments, expenses or payments for which Sub lessor is obligated or liable under the Master Lease with respect to the operation, maintenance and repair of common area of the Leased Premises. "Common area" shall include, without limitation, those areas in or about the property of which the Leased Premises are a part, which have been set aside for the general use, convenience and benefit of the occupants of the property and their customers and employees, including, without limitation, the automobile parking areas, sidewalks, landscaped areas and other areas for pedestrian and vehicular use.

To the extent Sub lessor pays estimated amounts for such common area expenses, Sub lessee shall pay such amounts to Sub lessor on demand from Sub lessor and shall be entitled to reimbursements and/or offsets against future common area expenses as such reimbursements or offsets are received by Sub lessor.

MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS

- h. Maintenance by Sub lessee: Sub lessee shall, at its sole cost and expense, keep in good and safe condition, order and repair all portions of the Leased Premises and all facilities appurtenant thereto and every part thereof which Sub lessor is responsible to maintain or repair as lessee under the Master Lease, including without limitation, all plumbing, heating, air conditioning, ventilating, sprinkler, electrical and lighting facilities, interior walls, interior surfaces of exterior walls, floors, ceilings, windows, doors, entrances, all glass (including plate glass), and skylights located within the Leased Premises, walkways, parking and service areas within or adjacent to the Leased Premises. If the Leased Premises are not so maintained, and such condition continues [number] hours after notice or exists upon expiration or termination hereof, Sub lessor may cause such maintenance to be performed at Sub lessee's expense and/or may obtain maintenance contracts for the Store and charge the Sub lessee for same. Sub lessor shall, when and if it deems necessary, make any and all repairs on the Leased Premises, and Sub lessee hereby consents to such actions by Sub lessor. Sub lessor may charge the Sub lessee for any of the foregoing repairs, if, in Sub lessor's opinion, such repairs are occasioned by Sub lessee's abuse or neglect. Sub lessee shall not modify, alter, or add to the Leased Premises without the prior written consent of Sub lessor.
- i. Damage; Abatement of Rent: Notwithstanding anything in this Sublease to the contrary, Sub lessee at its own cost and expense shall repair and replace as necessary all portions of the Leased Premises damaged by Sub lessee, its employees, agents, invitees, customers or visitors. There shall be no abatement of rent or other sums payable by Sub lessee prior to or during any repairs by Sub lessee or Sub lessor hereunder.
- j. Alterations and Liens: Sub lessee shall not make or permit any other person to make any structural changes, alterations, or additions to the Leased Premises or to any improvement thereon or facility appurtenant thereto without the prior written consent of Sub lessor first had and obtained. Sub lessee shall keep the Leased Premises free and clear from any and all liens, claims, and demands for work performed, materials furnished, or operations conducted on the Leased Premises at the instance or request of Sub lessee. As a condition to giving its consent to any proposed alterations, Sub lessor may require that Sub lessee remove any or all of said alterations at the expiration or sooner termination of the Sublease term and restore the Leased Premises to its condition as of the date of Sub lessee's occupation of the Leased Premises. Prior to construction or installation of any alterations, Sub lessor may require Sub lessee to provide Sub lessor, at Sub lessee's sole cost and expense, a lien and completion bond in an amount equal to one and one-half times the estimated cost of such

- alterations, to insure Sub lessor against any Liability for mechanic's and materialmen's liens and to insure completion of the work. Should Sub lessee make any alterations without the prior written consent of Sub lessor, Sub lessee shall remove the same at Sub lessee's expense upon demand by Sub lessor.
- k. Inspection by Sub lessor: Sub lessee shall permit Sub lessor or Sub lessor's agents, representatives, designees, or employees to enter the Leased Premises at all reasonable times for the purpose of inspecting the Leased Premises to determine whether Sub lessee is complying with the terms of this Sublease and for the purpose of doing other lawful acts that may be necessary to protect Sub lessor's interest in the Leased Premises under this Sublease, or to perform Sub lessor's duties under this Sublease, or to show the Leased Premises to insurance agents, lenders, and other third parties, or as otherwise allowed by law.
- l. Plans and Permits: Any alteration that Sub lessee shall desire to make in or about the Leased Premises and which requires the consent of Sub lessor shall be presented to Sub lessor in written form, with proposed detailed plans and specifications therefor prepared at Sub lessee's sole expense. Any consent by Sub lessor thereto shall be deemed conditioned upon Sub lessee's acquisition of all permits required to make such alteration from all appropriate governmental agencies, the furnishing of copies thereof to Sub lessor prior to commencement of the work, and the compliance by Sub lessee with all conditions of said permits in a prompt and expeditious manner, all at Sub lessee's sole cost and expense.
- m. Construction Work Done by Sub lessee: All construction work required or permitted to be done by Sub lessee shall be performed by a licensed contractor in a good and workmanlike manner and shall conform in quality and design with the Leased Premises existing as of the Commencement Date, and shall not diminish the value of the Leased Premises in any way whatsoever. In addition, all such construction work shall be performed in compliance with all applicable statutes, ordinances, regulations, codes and orders of governmental authorities and insurers of the Leased Premises. Sub lessee or its agents shall secure all licenses and permits necessary therefor.
- n. Title to Alterations: Unless Sub lessor requires the removal thereof, any alterations which may be made on the Leased Premises, shall upon installation or construction thereof on the Leased Premises become the property of Sub lessor and shall remain upon and be surrendered with the Leased Premises at the expiration or sooner termination of the term of this Sublease. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, all heating, lighting, electrical (including all wiring, conduits, main and subpanels), air conditioning, partitioning, drapery, and carpet installations made by Sub lessee, regardless of how affixed to the Leased Premises, together with all other alterations that have become a part of the Leased Premises, shall be and become the property of Sub lessor upon installation, and shall not be deemed trade fixtures, and shall remain upon and be surrendered with the Leased Premises at the expiration or sooner termination of this Sublease.

- o. Removal of Alterations: In addition to Sub lessor's right to require Sub lessee at the time of installation or construction of any alteration to remove the same upon expiration or sooner termination of this Sublease, Sub lessor may elect, by notice to Sub lessee at least [number] days before expiration of the Term hereof, or within [number] days after sooner termination hereof, to acquire Sub lessee to remove any alterations that Sub lessee has made to the Leased Premises. If Sub lessor so elects, Sub lessee shall, at its sole expense, upon expiration of the Term hereof, or within [number] days after any sooner termination hereof, remove such alterations, repair any damage occasioned thereby, and restore the Leased Premises to the condition existing as of the Commencement Date or such other condition as may reasonably be designated by Sub lessor in its election.

INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

- p. Hold-Harmless Clause: Sub lessee agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Sub lessor, the property of Sub lessor, and the Leased Premises, free and harmless from any and all claims, liability, loss, damage, or expenses incurred by reason of this Sublease or resulting from Sub lessee's occupancy and use of the Leased Premises (other than as a result of the direct gross negligence of Sub lessor), specifically including, without limitation, any claim, liability, loss, or damage arising by reason of:
 - i. The death or injury of any person or persons, including Sub lessee, any person who is an employee or agent of Sub lessee, or by reason of the damage to or destruction of any property, including property owned by Sub lessee or any person who is an employee or agent of Sub lessee, and caused or allegedly caused by either the condition of the Leased Premises, or some act or omission of Sub lessee or of some agent, contractor, employee, or invitee of Sub lessee on the Leased Premises;
 - ii. Any work performed on the Leased Premises or materials furnished to the Leased Premises at the instance or request of Sub lessee or any agent or employee of Sub lessee; and
 - iii. Sub lessee's failure to perform any provision of this Sublease or to comply with any requirement of law or any requirement imposed on the use by Sub lessee of the Leased Premises by any governmental agency or political subdivision.
 - iv. Maintenance of the insurance required under this Article shall not relieve Sub lessee of the obligations of indemnification contained in this Section.

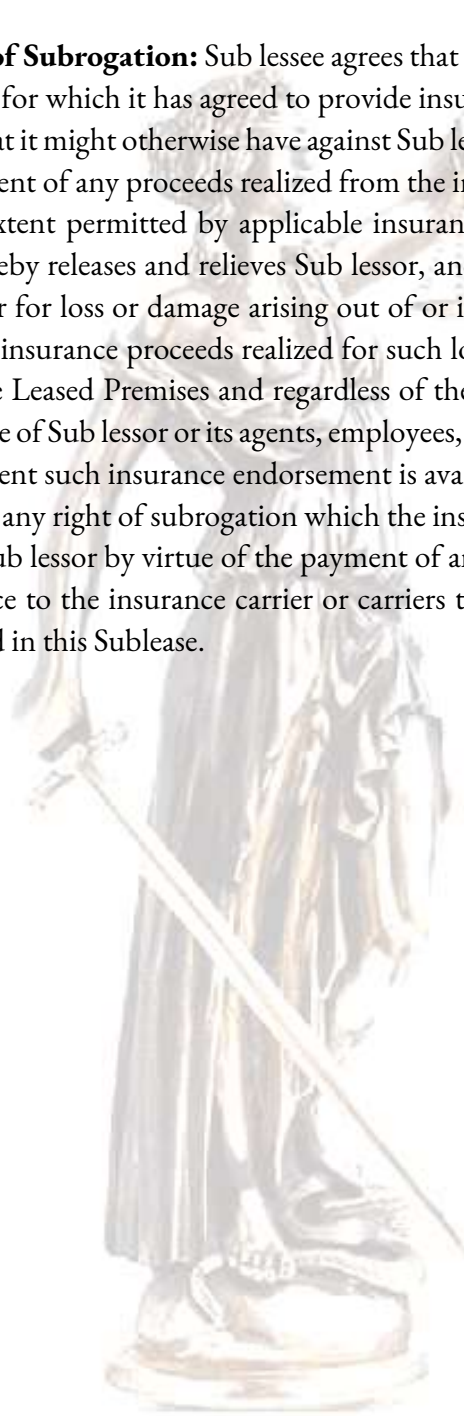

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- q. Liability Insurance: Sub lessee shall, at its own cost and expense, secure and maintain during the term of this Sublease, a comprehensive broad form policy of Combined Single Limit Bodily Injury and Property Damage Insurance issued by a reputable company authorized to conduct insurance business in the State of [state/province] insuring Sub lessee against loss or liability caused by or connected with Sub lessee's use and occupancy of the Leased Premises in an amount not less than [amount] per occurrence.
- r. Casualty and Fire Insurance: At all times during the Term hereof, Sub lessee shall keep the Leased Premises and personal property thereon insured against loss or damage by fire, windstorm, hail, explosion, damage from vehicles, smoke damage, vandalism, casualty and malicious mischief and such other risks as are customarily included in "all risk" extended insurance coverage, including coverage for business interruption, in an amount equal to not less than [number] of the actual replacement value of the Leased Premises and the personal property, fixtures, and other property on the Leased Premises.
- s. Workers' Compensation Insurance: During the term of this Sublease, Sub lessee shall comply with all Workers' Compensation laws applicable on the date hereof or enacted thereafter and shall maintain in full force and effect a Workers' Compensation Insurance policy covering all employees in any way connected with the business conducted by Sub lessee pursuant to this Sublease and shall pay all premiums, contributions, taxes and such other costs and expenses as are required to be paid incident to such insurance coverage, all at no cost to Sub lessor.
- t. Policy Form: The policies of insurance required to be secured and maintained under this Sublease shall be issued by good, responsible companies, qualified to do business in the State of [state/province], with a general policy holders' rating of at least "A". Executed copies of such policies of insurance or certificates thereof shall be delivered to Sub lessor and to the Master Lessor under the Master Lease not later than [number] days prior to the commencement of business operations of Sub lessee at the Leased Premises and thereafter, executed copies of renewal policies of insurance or certificates thereof shall be delivered to Sub lessor within [number] days prior to the expiration of the term of each such policy. All such policies of insurance shall contain a provision that the insurance company writing such policy(s) shall give Sub lessor at least [number] days' written notice in advance of any cancellation or lapse, or the effective date of any reduction in the amounts or other material changes in the provisions of such insurance. All policies of insurance required under this Sublease shall be written as primary coverage and shall list the Master Lessor under the Master Lease and the Sub lessor as loss payees and as additional insureds. If Sub lessee fails to procure or maintain in force any insurance as required by this Section or to furnish the certified copies or certificates thereof required hereunder, Sub lessor may, in addition to all other remedies it may have, procure such insurance and/or certified copies or certificates, and Sub lessee shall promptly reimburse Sub lessor for all premiums and other costs incurred in connection therewith.

- u. Waiver of Subrogation: Sub lessee agrees that in the event of loss or damage due to any of the perils for which it has agreed to provide insurance, Sub lessee hereby waives any and all claims that it might otherwise have against Sub lessor with respect to any risk insured against to the extent of any proceeds realized from the insurance coverage to compensate for a loss. To the extent permitted by applicable insurance policies without voiding coverage, Sub lessee hereby releases and relieves Sub lessor, and waives its entire right of recovery against Sub lessor for loss or damage arising out of or incident to the perils insured against to the extent of insurance proceeds realized for such loss or damage, which perils occur in, on or about the Leased Premises and regardless of the cause or origin, specifically including the negligence of Sub lessor or its agents, employees, contractors and/or invitees. Sub lessee shall to the extent such insurance endorsement is available, obtain for the benefit of Sub lessor a waiver of any right of subrogation which the insurer of such party might otherwise acquire against Sub lessor by virtue of the payment of any loss covered by such insurance and shall give notice to the insurance carrier or carriers that the foregoing waiver of subrogation is contained in this Sublease.

SIGNS AND TRADE FIXTURES

- a. Installation of Trade Fixtures: For so long as Sub lessee is not in default of any of the terms, conditions and covenants of this Sublease, Sub lessee shall have the right at any time and from time to time during the Term of this Sublease and any renewal or extension of such term, at Sub lessee's sole cost and expense, to install and affix in, to, or on the Leased Premises such items (hereinafter called "trade fixtures"), for use in Sub lessee's trade or business as Sub lessee may, in its reasonable discretion, deem advisable.
- b. Signs: Subject to any and all requirements now or hereinafter enacted by any municipal, county, or state regulatory agency having jurisdiction thereover and subject to Sub lessor's written consent, Sub lessee may erect at Sub lessee's cost, a sign on the Leased Premises identifying the Leased Premises. Sub lessee shall maintain, at Sub lessee's sole cost and expense, said sign.
- c. Removal of Signs and Trade Fixtures: In addition to Sub lessor's right to require Sub lessee at the time of installation of any sign or trade fixtures to remove the same upon expiration or sooner termination of this Sublease, Sub lessor may elect, by notice to Sub lessee at least [number] days before expiration of the Term hereof, or within [number] days after sooner termination hereof, to require Sub lessee to remove any sign or trade fixture owned by Sub lessee. If Sub lessor so elects, Sub lessee shall at its sole cost and expense, upon expiration of the Term hereof, or within [number] days after any sooner termination hereof, remove such sign or trade fixture owned by Sub lessee. If Sub lessor so elects, Sub lessee shall, at its sole cost and expense, upon expiration of the Term hereof, or within [number] days after any sooner termination hereof, remove such sign or trade fixture, repair any damage occasioned thereby, and restore the Leased Premises to the condition existing as of the Commencement Date or such other condition as may reasonably be designated by Sub lessor in its election.

CONDEMNATION AND DESTRUCTION

- a. Total Condemnation: Should, during the Term of this Sublease or any renewal or extension thereof, title and possession of all of the Leased Premises be taken under the power of eminent domain by any public or quasi-public agency or entity, this Sublease shall terminate as of the date actual physical possession of the Leased Premises is taken by the agency or entity exercising the power of eminent domain and both Sub lessor and Sub lessee shall thereafter be released from all obligations under this Sublease.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- b. Termination Option for Partial Condemnation: Should, during the Term of this Sublease or any renewal or extension thereof, title and possession of more than [%] of the floor area of the Leased Premises, and/or more than [%] of the parking area of the Leased Premises be taken under the power of eminent domain by any public or quasi-public agency or entity, Sub lessor may terminate this Sublease. The option herein reserved shall be exercised by giving written notice on or before [number] days after actual physical possession of the portion subject to the eminent domain power is taken by the agency or entity exercising that power and this Sublease shall terminate as of the date the notice is deemed given.
- c. Partial Condemnation Without Termination: Should Sub lessee or Sub lessor fail to exercise the termination option described in this Article, or should the portion of the Leased Premises taken under the power of eminent domain be insufficient to give rise to the option therein described, then, in that event:
- i. This Sublease shall terminate as to the portion of the Leased Premises taken by eminent domain as of the day (hereinafter called the “date of taking”), actual physical possession of that portion of the Leased Premises is taken by the agency or entity exercising the power of eminent domain;
 - ii. Base Minimum Rent to be paid by Sub lessee to Sub lessor pursuant to the terms of this Sublease shall, after the date of taking, be reduced by an amount that bears the same ratio to the Base Minimum Rent specified in this Sublease as the square footage of the actual floor area of the Leased Premises taken under the power of eminent domain bears to the total square footage of floor area of the Leased Premises as of the date of this Sublease; and
 - iii. Except to the extent the Master Lessor under the Master Lease is so obligated, Sub lessee, at Sub lessee’s own cost and expense shall remodel and reconstruct the building remaining on the portion of the Leased Premises not taken by eminent domain into a single efficient architectural unit in accordance with plans mutually approved by the parties hereto as soon after the date of taking, or before, as can be reasonably done.
- d. Condemnation Award: Should, during the Term of this Sublease or any renewal or extension thereof, title and possession of all or any portion of the Leased Premises be taken under the power of eminent domain by any public or quasi-public agency or entity, the compensation or damages for the taking awarded shall belong to and be the sole property of the Sub lessor.
- e. Destruction: (a) In the event the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed and the total costs and expenses for repairing or reconstructing the Leased Premises exceeds the sum of [amount], Sub lessor, at Sub lessor’s option, may:

- i. Continue this Sublease in full force and effect by restoring, repairing or rebuilding the Leased Premises at Sub lessor's own cost and expense or through insurance coverage; or
 - ii. Terminate this Sublease by serving written notice of such termination on Sub lessee no later than [number] days following such casualty, in which event this Sublease shall be deemed to have been terminated on the date of such casualty.
 - iii. In the event the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed and Sub lessee will not be able to operate any business thereon for [number] consecutive days, Sub lessee, at Sub lessee's option, may terminate this Sublease by serving written notice of such termination on Sub lessor no later than [number] days following such casualty, in which event this Sublease shall be deemed terminated on the date of such casualty; provided, however, that such termination right shall not be applicable unless Sub lessor has a similar termination right under the Master Lease.
 - iv. Should Sub lessor or the Master Lessor under the Master Lease elect to repair and restore the Leased Premises to their former condition following partial or full destruction of the Leased Premises:
 1. Sub lessee shall not be entitled to any damages for any loss or inconvenience sustained by Sub lessee by reason of the making of such repairs and restoration.
 2. Sub lessor and such Master Lessor shall have full right to enter upon and have access to the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, as may be reasonably necessary to enable such parties promptly and efficiently to carry out the work of repair and restoration.
- f. Damage by Sub lessee: Sub lessee shall be responsible for and shall pay to Sub lessor any and all losses, damages, costs, and expenses, including but not limited to attorney's fees, resulting from any casualty loss caused by the negligence or wilful misconduct of Sub lessee or its employees, agents, contractors, or invitees.

SUBLEASING, ASSIGNMENT, DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

- v. Subleasing and Assignment: Sub lessee shall not sell, assign, hypothecate, pledge or otherwise transfer this Sublease, or any interest therein, either voluntarily, involuntarily, or by operation of law, and shall not sublet the Leased Premises, or any part thereof, or any right or privilege appurtenant thereto, for any reason whatsoever, or permit the occupancy thereof by any person, persons, or entity through or under it, or grant a security interest in Sub lessee's interest in the Leased Premises or this Sublease or any fixtures located on the Leased Premises, without the prior written consent of Sub lessor first had and obtained, which may be given or withheld in the Sub lessor's sole and absolute discretion. For the purpose of this Section, any dissolution, merger, consolidation or other reorganization of Sub lessee, or any change or changes in the stock ownership of Sub lessee, which aggregates [%] or more of the capital stock of Sub lessee shall be deemed to be an assignment of this Sublease. Sub lessee shall not mortgage, hypothecate or encumber this Sublease. Sub lessor's consent to one assignment, subletting, occupancy, or use by any other person, entity or entities shall not relieve Sub lessee from any obligation under this Sublease and shall not be deemed to be a consent to any subsequent assignment, subletting, occupancy or use. Any assignment, pledge, subletting, occupancy or use without Sub lessor's written consent shall be void and shall, at the option of the Sub lessor, terminate this Sublease.

Should this Sublease be assigned, or should the Leased Premises or any part thereof be sublet or occupied by any person or persons other than the original Sub lessee hereunder, Sub lessor may collect rent from the assignee, sub lessee or occupant and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such assignment, subletting, occupancy or collection of rent shall be deemed a consent to such assignment, subletting or occupancy or a waiver of any term of this Sublease, nor shall it be deemed acceptance of the assignee, sub lessee or occupant as a tenant, or a release of Sub lessee from the full performance by Sub lessee of all the terms, provisions, conditions and covenants of this Sublease.

In the event Sub lessee wishes to assign this Sublease or sublet or allow the use of the Leased Premises or any part thereof, Sub lessee shall give Sub lessor not less than [number] days written notice thereof and shall, in such notice, provide the name of the proposed assignee or sub lessee, its proposed use of the Leased Premises, its background, such financial and credit information as Sub lessor may require to determine the business experience, financial stability and creditworthiness of the proposed assignee or sub lessee, and such additional information as Sub lessor may request. Sub lessee shall also pay Sub lessor a one-time administrative fee of [amount] to reimburse Sub lessor for its costs of reviewing, analyzing and processing the request for consent to assignment or subletting.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

In addition to its right to consent or refuse to consent to a proposed assignment Sub lessor shall have the option, exercisable by written notice to Sub lessee within the [number] days after Sub lessee gives Sub lessor written notice of its desire to assign the Sublease, to terminate this Sublease with respect to the entire Leased Premises upon a date specified in said notice to Sub lessee not less than [number] days nor more than [number] days after the date of said notice and retake the Leased Premises for its own use. If Sub lessor exercises such option, Sub lessee shall nonetheless have the right, exercisable by notice given to Sub lessor within [number] days after Sub lessor's notice of exercise is given, to withdraw the proposed assignment from consideration, in which event the exercise of Sub lessor's option shall be of no force or effect and, except for the payment of the fee provided for in Subsection (c) above, the assignment shall be deemed not to have been proposed. If Sub lessor does not elect to exercise its option to terminate this Lease and consents to the assignment or sublease, said assignee or sub lessee shall pay directly to Sub lessor all rent or other consideration payable by the assignee or sub lessee in excess of the amount of rent or other consideration payable by Sub lessee to Sub lessor hereunder (whether denominated as rent or otherwise) and shall expressly assume Sub lessee's obligations hereunder.

As a condition to Sub lessor's consent to an assignment or subletting, Sub lessor shall be entitled to receive (i) in the case of a subletting, [%] of all rent (however denominated and paid) payable by the subtenant to Sub lessee in excess of that payable by Sub lessee to Sub lessor pursuant to the other provisions of this Sublease, and (ii) in the case of an assignment, [%] of all consideration given, directly or indirectly, by the assignee to Sub lessee in connection with such assignment. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "rent" shall mean and include all consideration paid or given, directly or indirectly, for the use of the Leased Premises or any portion thereof, and the term "consideration" shall mean and include money, services, property or any other thing of value such as payment of costs, cancellation of indebtedness, discounts, rebates and the like. Any rent or other consideration which is to be passed through to Sub lessor pursuant to this paragraph shall be paid to Sub lessor promptly upon receipt by Sub lessee and shall be paid in cash, regardless of the form in which received by Sub lessee. In the event any rent or other consideration received by Sub lessee is in a form other than cash, Sub lessee shall pay to Sub lessor in cash the fair value of Sub lessor's portion of such consideration.

- w. Events of Default: Sub lessee's failure to timely pay any rent, taxes or other charges required to be paid pursuant to the terms of this Sublease shall constitute a material breach of this Sublease and an event of default if not paid by Sub lessee within [number] days of the date such rent, taxes or charges are payable. Events of default under this Sublease shall also include, without limitation, the events hereinafter set forth, each of which shall be deemed a material default of the terms of the Sublease if not fully cured within [number] days of occurrence. Such events shall include:
 - i. Sub lessee's failure to perform or observe any term, provisions, covenant, agreement or condition of this Sublease;

OBJECTION MY LORD

- ii. Sub lessee breaches this Sublease and abandons the Leased Premises before expiration of the Term of this Sublease;
 - iii. Any representation or warranty made by Sub lessee in connection with this Sublease between Sub lessee and Sub lessor proving to have been incorrect in any respect;
 - iv. Sub lessee's institution of any proceedings under the Bankruptcy Act, as such Act now exists or under any similar act relating to the subject of insolvency or bankruptcy, whether in such proceeding Sub lessee seeks to be adjudicated a bankrupt, or to be discharged of its debts or effect a plan of liquidation, composition or reorganization;
 - v. The filing against Sub lessee of any involuntary proceeding under any such bankruptcy laws;
 - vi. Sub lessee's becoming insolvent or being adjudicated a bankrupt in any court of competent jurisdiction, or the appointment of a receiver or trustee of Sub lessee's property, or Sub lessee's making an assignment for the benefit of creditors;
 - vii. The issuance of a writ of attachment by any court of competent jurisdiction to be levied on this Lease; or
 - viii. Any event which is an event of default under the Master Lease or which would become so with the passage of time or the giving of notice or both.
- x. Sub lessor's Remedies for Sub lessee's Default: Upon the occurrence of any event of default described in Section 10.02 hereof, Sub lessor may, at its option and without any further demand or notice, in addition to any other remedy or right given hereunder or by law, do any of the following:
- i. Sub lessor may terminate Sub lessee's right to possession of the Leased Premises by giving written notice to Sub lessee. If Sub lessor gives such written notice, then on the date specified in such notice, this Sublease and Sub lessee's right of possession shall terminate. No act by Sub lessor other than giving such written notice to Sub lessee shall terminate this Sublease. Acts of maintenance, efforts to relet the Leased Premises, or the appointment of a receiver on Sub lessor's initiative to protect Sub lessor's interest under this Sublease shall not constitute a termination of Sub lessee's right to possession. On termination, Sub lessor has the right to recover from Sub lessee:

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

1. The worth at the time of the award of the unpaid rent and other charges that had been earned or owed to Sub lessor at the time of termination of this Sublease;
 2. The worth at the time of the award of the amount by which (a) the unpaid rent and other charges that would have been earned or owed to Sub lessor after the date of termination of this Sublease until the time of award exceeds (b) the amount of such rental loss that Sub lessee proves could have been reasonably avoided;
 3. The worth at the time of the award of the amount by which (a) the unpaid rent and other charges for the balance of the term after the time of award exceeds (b) the amount of such rental loss that Sub lessee proves could have been reasonably avoided; and
 4. Any other amount necessary to compensate Sub lessor for all the detriment caused by Sub lessee's failure to perform its obligations under this Sublease or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result therefrom, including without limitation any costs or expenses incurred by Sub lessor in recovering possession of the Leased Premises, maintaining or preserving the Leased Premises after such default, preparing the Leased Premises for reletting to a new tenant, or any repairs or alterations to the Leased Premises for such reletting, and all leasing commissions, reasonable attorney's fees, architect's fees and any other costs incurred by Sub lessor to relet the Leased Premises or to adapt them to another beneficial use. Sub lessee shall also indemnify, defend and hold Sub lessor harmless from all claims, demands, actions, liabilities and expenses (including but not limited to reasonable attorney's fees and costs) arising prior to the termination of this Sublease or arising out of Sub lessee's use or occupancy of the Leased Premises.
- ii. Sub lessor may, in any lawful manner, re-enter and take possession of the Leased Premises without terminating this Sublease or otherwise relieving Sub lessee of any obligation hereunder. Sub lessor is hereby authorized, but not obligated (except to the extent required by law), to relet the Leased Premises or any part thereof on behalf of the Sub lessee, to use the premises for its or its affiliates' account, to incur such expenses as may be reasonably necessary to relet the Leased Premises, and relet the Leased Premises for such term, upon such conditions and at such rental as Sub lessor in its sole discretion may determine. Until the Leased Premises are relet by Sub lessor, if at all, Sub lessee shall pay to Sub lessor all amounts required to be paid by Sub lessee hereunder. If Sub lessor relets the Leased Premises or any portion thereof, such reletting shall not relieve Sub lessee of any obligation hereunder, except that Sub lessor shall apply the rent or other proceeds actually collected by it as a result of such reletting against any amounts due from Sub lessee hereunder to the extent that such rent or other proceeds compensate Sub lessor for the non-performance of any obligation of Sub lessee hereunder. Such payments by Sub lessee shall be due at such times as are provided elsewhere in this Sublease, and Sub lessor need not wait until the termination of this Sublease, by expiration of the term hereof or otherwise, to recover them by legal action or in any other manner. Sub lessor may execute any lease made pursuant hereto in its own name, and the tenant thereunder shall be under no obligation to see to the application by Sub lessor of any rent or other proceeds by Sub lessor, nor shall Sub lessee have any right to collect any such rent or other proceeds. Sub lessor shall not by any re-entry or other act be deemed to have accepted any surrender by Sub lessee of the Leased Premises or Sub lessee's interest therein, or be deemed to have otherwise terminated this Sublease, or to have relieved Sub lessee of any obligation hereunder, unless Sub lessor shall have given Sub lessee express written notice of Sub lessor's election to do so as set forth herein.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- iii. Even though Sub lessee has breached this Sublease and may have abandoned or vacated the Leased Premises, this Sublease shall continue in effect for so long as Sub lessor does not terminate Sub lessee's right to possession, and Sub lessor may enforce all its rights and remedies under this Sublease, including the right to recover the rent and other charges as they become due under this Lease.
- iv. In the event any personal property of Sub lessee remains at the Leased Premises after Sub lessee has vacated, it shall be dealt with in accordance with the statutory procedures provided by applicable law dealing with the disposition of personal property of Sub lessee remaining on the Leased Premises after Sub lessee has vacated.
- v. Sub lessor may exercise any right or remedy reserved to the Master Lessor under the Master Lease (each of which rights and remedies are hereby incorporated herein), and any other remedy or right now or hereafter available to a landlord against a defaulting tenant under applicable law or the equitable powers of its courts, whether or not otherwise specifically reserved herein.
- vi. Sub lessor shall be under no obligation to observe or perform any provision, term, covenant, agreement or condition of this Sublease on its part to be observed or performed which accrues after the date of any default by Sub lessee hereunder.
- vii. Any legal action by Sub lessor to enforce any obligation of Sub lessee or in the pursuance of any remedy hereunder shall be deemed timely filed if commenced at any time prior to [number] year after the expiration of the term hereof or prior to [number] years after the cause of action accrues, whichever period expires later.

- viii. In any action of unlawful detainer commenced by Sub lessor against Sub lessee by reason of any default hereunder, the reasonable rental value of the Leased Premises for the period of the unlawful detainer shall be deemed to be the amount of rent and additional charges reserved in this Sublease for such period.
 - ix. Sub lessee hereby waives any right of redemption or relief from forfeiture under any present or future law, if Sub lessee is evicted or Sub lessor takes possession of the Leased Premises by reason of any default by Sub lessee hereunder.
 - x. No delay or omission of Sub lessor to exercise any right or remedy shall be construed as a waiver of any such right or remedy or of any default by Sub lessee hereunder.
- y. Receiver: Upon the occurrence of any event of default as defined in Article 16 b) hereof or in any action instituted by Sub lessor against Sub lessee to take possession of the Leased Premises and/or to collect Base Minimum Rent, or any other charge due hereunder, a receiver may be appointed at the request of Sub lessor to collect such rents and profits, to conduct the business of Sub lessee then being carried on in the Leased Premises and to take possession of any property belonging to Sub lessee and used in the conduct of such business and use the same in conducting such business on the Leased Premises without compensation to Sub lessee for such use. Neither the application nor the appointment of such receiver shall be construed as an election on the Sub lessor's part to terminate this Sublease unless written notice of such intention is given by Sub lessor to Sub lessee.
- z. Attorneys' Fees: If as a result of any breach or default in the performance of any of the provisions of this Sublease, Sub lessor uses the services of an attorney in order to secure compliance with such provisions or recover damages therefor, or to terminate this Sublease or evict Sub lessee, Sub lessee shall reimburse Sub lessor upon demand for any and all attorneys' fees and expenses so incurred by Sub lessor, including without the limitation appraisers' and expert witness fees; provided that if Sub lessee shall be the prevailing party in any legal action brought by Sub lessor against Sub lessee, Sub lessee shall be entitled to recover the fees of its attorneys in such amount as the court may adjudge reasonable. Sub lessee shall advance to Sub lessor any and all attorneys' fees and expenses to be incurred or incurred by Sub lessor in connection with any modifications to this Sublease proposed by Sub lessee, any proposed assignment of this Sublease by Sub lessee or any proposed subletting of the Leased Premises by Sub lessee.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- aa. Cumulative Remedies; No Waiver: The specified remedies to which Sub lessor may resort under the terms hereof are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of any other remedy or means of redress to which Sub lessor may be lawfully entitled in case of any breach or threatened breach by Sub lessee of any provision hereof. If for any reason Sub lessor fails or neglects to take advantage of any of the terms of this Sublease providing for termination or other remedy, any such failure of Sub lessor shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any default of any of the provisions, terms, covenants, agreements or conditions of this Sublease. The waiver by Sub lessor of any breach of any term, condition or covenant herein contained shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, condition or covenant herein contained. None of the provisions, terms, covenants, agreements or conditions hereof can be waived except by the express written consent of Sub lessor. Subsequent acceptance of rent hereunder by Sub lessor shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding breach by Sub lessee of any provision, term, covenant, agreement or condition of this Sublease other than the failure of Sub lessee to pay the particular rental accepted, regardless of Sub lessor's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of acceptance of such rent.

ESTOPPEL

At any time and from time to time, upon request in writing from Sub lessor, Sub lessee agrees to execute, acknowledge, and deliver to Sub lessor a statement in writing within [number] days of request, certifying that this Sublease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or, if there have been modifications, stating the modifications), the commencement and termination dates, the Base Minimum Rent, the other charges payable hereunder the dates to which the same have been paid, and such other items as Sub lessor may reasonably request. It is understood and agreed that any such statement may be relied upon by any mortgagee, beneficiary, or grantee of any security or other interest, or any assignee of any thereof, under any mortgage or deed of trust now or hereafter made covering any leasehold interest in the Leased Premises, and any prospective purchaser of the Leased Premises.

9. Force Majeure – Unavoidable Delays

Should the performance of any act required by this Sublease to be performed by either Sub lessor or Sub lessee be prevented or delayed by reason of an act of God, war, civil commotion, fire, flood, or other like casualty, strike, lockout, labor troubles, inability to secure materials, restrictive governmental laws or regulations, unusually severe weather, or any other cause, except financial inability, not the fault of the party required to perform the act, the time for performance of the act will be extended for a period equivalent to the period of delay and performance of the act during the period of delay will be excused; provided, however, that nothing contained in this section shall excuse the prompt payment of rent or other monies due by Sub lessee as required by this Sublease or the performance of any act rendered difficult solely because of the financial condition of the party, Sub lessor or Sub lessee, required to perform the act.

10. Notices

Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, any and all notices or other communications required or permitted by this Sublease or by law to be served on or given to either party hereto by the other party hereto shall be in writing and shall be deemed duly served and given when personally delivered to the party, Sub lessor or Sub lessee, to whom it is directed or any managing employee of such party, or, in lieu of such personal service, [number] hours after deposit in the United States mail, certified or registered mail, with postage prepaid, or when transmitted by telecopy or facsimile addressed to the parties as set forth on the signature page hereof. Either party, Sub lessor or Sub lessee, may change the addresses herein contained for purposes of this Section by giving written notice of the change to the other party in the manner provided in this Section.

11. Amendments

No amendment, change or modification of this Sublease shall be valid and binding unless such is contained in a written instrument executed by the parties hereto and which instrument expresses the specific intention of the parties to amend, change or modify this Sublease.

12. Accord and Satisfaction

No payment by Sub lessee or receipt by Sub lessor of a lesser amount than the monthly rent herein stipulated shall be deemed to be other than on account of the stipulated rent earliest in time, nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check or payment as rent be deemed an accord and satisfaction and Sub lessor may accept such check or payment without prejudice to Sub lessor's right to recover the balance of such rent or pursue any other remedy provided in this Sublease or by law.

13. No Agency Created

Nothing contained in this Sublease shall be deemed or construed by the parties hereto or by any third party to create the relationship of principal and agent, or of partnership, or of joint venture, or of any association whatsoever between Sub lessor and Sub lessee other than sub lessor and sub lessee.

OBJECTION MY LORD

14. Brokerage Commission

Sub lessee represents that neither it nor any of its affiliates has engaged the services of any real estate broker, finder, or any other person or entity in connection with this lease transaction and therefore should Sub lessee be found to be in violation of such representation, Sub lessee shall indemnify Sub lessor against any and all claims for brokerage commissions or finders fees in connection with this transaction, and to indemnify, defend and hold Sub lessor free and harmless from all liabilities arising from any such claim, including without limitation, attorneys' fees in connection therewith.

15. Sole and Only Agreement

This instrument constitutes the sole and only agreement between Sub lessor and Sub lessee respecting the Leased Premises or the leasing of the Leased Premises to Sub lessee. Sub lessor shall have no obligations to Sub lessee, whether express or implied, other than those specifically set forth in this Sublease.

16. Severability and Governing Law

This Sublease shall be governed by the laws of the State of [state/province]. Whenever possible each provision of this Sublease shall be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision of this Sublease shall be prohibited, void, invalid, or unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition, invalidity, voidability, or enforceability without invalidating the remainder of such, or the remaining provisions of this Sublease.

17. Construction and Headings

All references herein in the singular shall be construed to include the plural, and the masculine, and the masculine to include the feminine or neuter gender, where applicable, and where the context shall require. Section headings are for convenience of reference only and shall not be construed as part of this Sublease nor shall they limit or define the meaning of any provision herein. The provisions of this Sublease shall be construed as to their fair meaning, and not strictly for or against Sub lessor or Sub lessee.

18. Effect of Execution

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

The submission of this Sublease for examination shall not effect any obligation on the part of the submitting or examining party and this Sublease shall become effective only upon the complete execution thereof by both Sub lessor and Sub lessee.

19. Inurement

Sub lessor shall have the full and unencumbered right to assign this Sublease. The covenants, agreements, restrictions, and limitations contained herein shall also be binding on Sub lessee's permitted successors and assigns.

20. Time of Essence

Time is expressly declared to be of the essence.

21. No Light, Air or View Easement

Any diminution or shutting off of light, air or view by any structure which may be erected on lands adjacent to the Leased Premises shall in no way affect this Sublease or impose any liability on Sub lessor.

22. Triple Net Lease

It is the purpose and intent of Sub lessor and Sub lessee that this Sublease be deemed and construed to be a "triple net lease" so that Sub lessor shall receive all rentals and other sums specified hereunder during the term of this Sublease, free from any and all charges, costs, assessments, expenses, deductions and/or set-offs of any kind or nature whatsoever, and Sub lessor shall not be expected or required to pay any such charge, assessment or expense, or be under any obligation or liability hereunder, except as herein expressly set forth. All charges, costs, expenses and obligations of any nature relating to the repair, restoration, alteration, maintenance and operation of the Leased Premises shall be paid by Sub lessee, except as otherwise herein expressly set forth, and Sub lessor shall be indemnified and held harmless by Sub lessee from and against such charges, costs, expenses and obligations.

23. Authority

Each individual executing this Sublease on behalf of Sub lessee and the Sub lessee (if Sub lessee is a corporation or other entity) does hereby covenant and warrant that (i) Sub lessee is a duly authorized and validly existing entity, (ii) Sub lessee has and is qualified to do business in California, (iii) the entity has full right and authority to enter into this Sublease, and (iv) each person executing this Sublease on behalf of the entity was authorized to do so.

OBJECTION MY LORD

24. Survival

All obligations of Sub lessee under this Sublease, including without limitation the obligations to pay Base Minimum Rent, shall survive the expiration or termination of this Sublease.

25. Waiver

Sub lessee hereby waives any rights it may have under the provisions of [law or code], if applicable, and any similar statutes regarding repair of the Leased Premises or termination of this Sublease after destruction of all or any part of the Leased Premises.

26. Recordation

Sub lessee shall not record this Sublease or a short form memorandum hereof without the prior written consent of the Sub lessor.

27. Transfer of Master Lease

In the event of any assignment or transfer of the Master Lease by Sub lessor to any other party or entity, Sub lessor shall be and is hereby entirely freed and relieved of all liability under any and all of its covenants and obligations contained in or derived from this Sublease arising out of any act, occurrence or omission occurring after the consummation of such assignment or transfer; and the assignee or such transferee shall be deemed, without any further agreement between parties or their successors in interest or between the parties and any such assignee or transferee, to have assumed and agreed to carry out any and all of the covenants and obligations of the Sub lessor under this Sublease. Sub lessee hereby agrees to attorn to any such assignee or trustee. Sub lessee agrees to execute any and all documents deemed necessary or appropriate by Sub lessor to evidence the foregoing.

28. Subordination, Attornment

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Without the necessity of any additional document being executed by Sub lessee for the purpose of effecting a subordination, this Sublease shall in all respects be subject and subordinate at all times to the lien of any mortgage or deed of trust which may now exist or hereafter be executed in any amount for which the Leased Premises or Sub lessor's interest or estate is specified as security. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sub lessor shall have the right to subordinate or cause to be subordinated any lien or encumbrance to this Sublease. In the event that any mortgage or deed of trust is foreclosed or a conveyance in lieu of foreclosure is made for any reason, Sub lessee shall, notwithstanding any subordination, attorn to and become the sub lessee of the successor in interest to Sub lessor, at the option of such successor in interest. Sub lessee covenants and agrees to execute and deliver, upon demand by Sub lessor and in the form requested by Sub lessor, any additional documents evidencing the priority or subordination of this Sublease.

29. No Merger

The voluntary or other surrender of this Sublease by Sub lessee, or a mutual cancellation hereof, shall not work a merger, and shall, at the option of Sub lessor, terminate all or any existing subleases or subtenancies or may, at the option of Sub lessor, operate as an assignment to Sub lessor of any or all such subleases or subtenancies.

30. Right of Sub lessor to Perform

All terms, covenants and conditions of this Sublease to be performed or observed by Sub lessee shall be performed or observed by Sub lessee at its sole cost and expense and without any reduction of rent of any nature payable hereunder. If Sub lessee shall fail to pay any sum of money, other than rent required to be paid by it hereunder or shall fail to perform any other term or covenant hereunder on its part to be performed, Sub lessor, without waiving or releasing Sub lessee from any obligation of Sub lessee hereunder, may, but shall not be obligated to, make any such payment or perform any such other term or covenant on Sub lessee's part to be performed. All sums so paid by Sub lessor and all necessary costs of such performance by Sub lessor, together with interest thereon from the date of payment at the rate eighteen percent (18%) or the highest rate permissible by law, whichever is less, shall be paid, and Sub lessee covenants to make such payment, to Sub lessor on demand, and Sub lessor shall have, in addition to any over right or remedy of Sub lessor, the same rights and remedies in the event of nonpayment thereof by Sub lessee as in the case of failure in the payment of rent hereunder.

31. Modification for Lender

OBJECTION MY LORD

If, in connection with obtaining any type of financing, Sub lessor's lender shall request reasonable modifications to this Sublease as a condition to such financing, Sub lessee shall not unreasonably withhold, delay or defer its consent thereto, provided such modifications do not materially adversely affect Sub lessee's rights hereunder.

32. Sub lessor's Personal Liability

The liability of Sub lessor to Sub lessee for any default by Sub lessor under the terms of this Sublease shall be limited to the interest of Sub lessor in the Leased Premises and Sub lessee agrees to look solely to Sub lessor's interest in the Leased Premises for the recovery of any judgment from Sub lessor, it being intended that Sub lessor shall not be personally liable for any judgment or deficiency.

33. Breach by Landlord

Sub lessor shall not be deemed to be in breach in the performance of any obligation required to be performed by it hereunder unless and until it has failed to perform such obligation within [number] days after written notice by Sub lessee to Sub lessor specifying wherein Sub lessor has failed to perform such obligation; provided, however, that if the nature of Sub lessor's obligation is such that more than [number] are required for its performance then Sub lessor shall not be deemed to be in breach if it shall commence such performance within such [number] day period and thereafter diligently prosecute the same to completion. In any event, Sub lessee must bring an action for breach of this Sublease within [number] year of Sub lessor's breach or be deemed to have waived the breach and not harmed thereby.

34. Survival of Indemnities

The obligations of the indemnifying party under each and every indemnification and hold harmless provision contained in this Sublease shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Sublease to and until the last to occur of (a) the last date permitted by law for bringing of any claim or action with respect to which indemnification may be claimed by the indemnified party against the indemnifying party under such provision or (b) the date on which any claim or action for which indemnification may be claimed under such provision is fully and finally resolved and, if applicable, any compromise thereof or judgment or award thereon is paid in full by the indemnifying party and the indemnified party is reimbursed by the indemnifying party for any amounts paid by the indemnified party in compromise thereof or upon a judgment or award thereon and in defense of such action or claim, including attorneys' fees incurred.

35. OPTION TO RENEW

Subject to the receipt by lessee of an extension of the original lease agreement for a sufficient duration to include this renewal, at any time before the commencement of the last calendar month of the first term of this sublease agreement, sub lessee is granted the option and privilege of extending and renewing the term of this sublease agreement for an additional [number]-year period at an annual rental to be agreed on or arbitrated as provided in this sublease agreement.

36. Meaning of Consent

Whenever an act or provision contained in this Sublease is conditioned upon the consent or approval of Sub lessor, this shall be interpreted to mean, unless otherwise specified to the contrary, that the Sub lessor has the full unconditional right and sole discretion as to whether or not to give its consent, which may only be given in writing.

37. QUIET ENJOYMENT

If sub lessee performs the terms of this sublease agreement, lessee will warrant and defend sub lessee in the enjoyment and peaceful possession of the demised premises during the term of this sublease agreement without any interruption by lessee or lessor or either of them or any person rightfully claiming under either of them.

38. Master Lease

Notwithstanding anything in this Sublease to the contrary, the rights of Sub lessee shall be subject to the terms and conditions contained in the lease (“Master Lease”) between Sub lessor and the owner of the Leased Premises (the “Master Lessor”), as it may be amended from time to time. Sub lessee shall assume and perform and comply with the obligations of the lessee under the Master Lease to the same extent as if references to the Sub lessor therein were references to Sub lessee (all of which obligations are hereby incorporated herein), including, without limitation, the payment of any and all costs, expenses, charges, fees, taxes, payments or other monetary obligations (except for minimum rent and percentage rent) for which Sub lessor is liable or responsible under the Master Lease, as such costs, expenses, charges, fees, taxes, payment or other monetary obligations come due. Sub lessee shall not commit or permit to be committed on the Leased Premises any act or omission which shall violate any term or condition of the Master Lease. Notwithstanding anything in this Sublease to the contrary, the effectiveness of this Sublease shall be conditioned upon Sub lessor obtaining the written consent of the Master Lessor (if such consent is required under the Master Lease), in form and substance satisfactory to Sub lessor,

OBJECTION MY LORD

within ten (10) days of the date hereof. If the Master Lease terminates for any reason, this Sublease shall terminate coincidentally therewith without any liability of Sub lessor to Sub lessee.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

10. Property Tax

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Lease, Tenant shall not be liable (directly or indirectly) for any increase in real property taxes during the term of this Lease (as the same may be extended from time to time) that results from a change in ownership of the Building or the land upon which the Building is located.

11. Audit

Tenant shall have the right exercisable within [NUMBER] months after the receipt of any year end statement that relates to operating costs of the Building to be paid by Tenant to cause the books and records of Landlord relating to its operation and management of the Building to be audited by a certified public accountant designated by Tenant, and reasonably acceptable to Landlord, to determine if the foregoing year-end statements are accurate and correct. Landlord shall, at its sole cost and expense, comply with all laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules or regulations now in force or which may hereafter be in force, insofar as any thereof relate to Landlord's ownership and operation of the Building.

14. Expansion

Landlord agrees to negotiate in good faith with Tenant with respect to Tenant's needs for additional expansion space which may from time to time become available in the Building.

15. Casualty

In the event of a fire or other casualty in the Premises, or a fire or other casualty in such portions of the Building other than the Premises, where Tenant's direct access to the Premises and the use thereof for the conduct of its business is adversely impaired, Tenant shall promptly give notice thereof in writing to Landlord (unless Landlord already has notice thereof). The following provisions shall apply to a fire or other casualty occurring in the Premises and/or the Building:

- B. If Landlord reasonably determines that it cannot complete the repairs provided in subparagraph (a) and (b) above within the time periods therein provided, Landlord shall notify Tenant of said effect within [NUMBER] days after the date of such damage and destruction, and in such event, Tenant may terminate this Lease within [NUMBER] days after the date of such notice.
- C. - D. During any period when the Premises are unusable for the conduct of Tenant's ordinary business operations, and are actually not used by Tenant, provided that the casualty is not the result of the negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or Tenant's employees then during the period the Premises are rendered unusable by such casualty, Tenant shall be entitled to a reduction in rent in the proportion that the area of the Premises not occupied by Tenant bears to the total area of the Premises.

Seller warrants that property is zoned for commercial purposes and that all existing uses are lawful and within such zoning. Purchaser plans the use of property for [describe purposes]. Purchaser intends to apply for a [building permit or as the case may be] for such additional use, and for appropriate amendments to the existing zoning plan for the area in which property is located. Seller will cooperate fully with Purchaser with respect to the contemplated plans. If Purchaser is unable to proceed with the described project because of any adverse decision of [city], or any board, commission, or officer of [city], Purchaser shall [state agreed remedy, such as: remit [AMOUNT] of the purchase price by crediting that amount on the purchase-money mortgage to be executed by Purchaser in favor of Seller].

7. BROKER'S COMMISSION

A commission of [AMOUNT] has become due from Seller to [name of broker] by reason of the sale provided for in this agreement. That amount shall be paid to broker at close of escrow directly, from cash payable on close to Seller.

8. SURVEY

Within [NUMBER] days after the date of acceptance of this contract, the Seller will provide and deliver to Buyer or Buyer's Attorney, a new spotted certified survey having all corners staked and showing all improvements upon the Property.

9. EXAMINATION OF TITLE AND TIME OF CLOSING

If the title evidence and survey as specified above disclose that Seller is vested with fee simple title to the Property (subject only to the permitted exceptions set forth above acceptable to Buyer), this sale shall be closed and Buyer shall perform the agreements made in this contract, at the office of Buyer's Attorney, on or before [NUMBER] days after acceptance of this contract. If title evidence or survey reveal any defect or condition which is not acceptable to Buyer, the Buyer shall, within [NUMBER] days, notify the Seller of such title defects and Seller agrees to use reasonable efforts to remedy such defects and shall have [NUMBER] days to do so, in which case this sale shall be closed within [NUMBER] days after delivery of acceptable evidence to Buyer and Buyer's Attorney that such defects have been cured. Seller agrees to pay for and clear all delinquent taxes, liens, and other encumbrances, unless the parties otherwise agree. If Seller is unable to convey to Buyer a good and insurable title to the Property, the Buyer shall have the right to demand all sums deposited by Buyer and held by or for the Seller. At the same time, Buyer shall return to Seller all items, if any, received from Seller, whereupon all rights and liabilities of the parties to this contract shall cease. However, the Buyer shall have the right to accept such title as Seller may be able to convey and to close this sale upon the other terms as set forth in this contract.

10. DEFAULT BY BUYER

If Buyer fails to perform the agreements of this contract within the time set forth herein, Seller may retain, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, all of the initial deposit, it is being agreed that this is Seller's exclusive remedy.

11. DEFAULT BY SELLER

If Seller fails to perform any of the agreements of this contract, all deposits made by Buyer shall be returned to Buyer on demand, or the Buyer may bring suit against Seller for damages resulting from the breach of contract, or the Buyer may bring an action for specific performance. Buyer's remedies are cumulative and not exclusive of one another, and all other remedies shall be available in either law or equity to Buyer for Seller's breach hereof.

12. ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS

If any litigation is instituted with respect to enforcement of the terms of this contract, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover all costs incurred, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and court costs.

13. CONDITION OF THE PROPERTY

Seller agrees to deliver the Property to Buyer in its present condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted, and further certifies and represents that Seller knows of no latent defect in the Property. All heating, cooling, plumbing, electrical, sanitary systems, and appliances shall be in good working order at the time of closing. Seller represents and warrants that the personal property conveyed with the premises shall be the same property inspected by Buyer and that no substitutions will be made without the Buyer's written consent. Buyer may also inspect or cause to be inspected the foundation, roof supports, or structural member of all improvements located upon the Property. If any such system, appliance, roof, foundation, or structural member shall be found defective, Buyer shall notify Seller at or before closing and Seller shall thereupon remedy the defect forthwith at its sole expense (in which case the time for closing shall be reasonably extended as necessary). If the costs of such repairs shall exceed [%] of the total purchase price, Seller may elect not to make such repairs and the Buyer may elect to take the Property in such defective condition and deduct [%] from the purchase price or Buyer may, at his/her option, elect to terminate this contract and receive the full refund of all deposits and other sums tendered hereunder. In addition, Seller agrees to remove all debris from the Property by date of possession.

OBJECTION MY LORD

14. OCCUPANCY

Seller shall deliver possession to Buyer no later than the closing date unless otherwise stated herein. Seller represents that there are no persons occupying the Property. Seller agrees to provide true and accurate copies of all written leases to Buyer within [NUMBER] days after the date of acceptance of this contract. Said leases are subject to Buyer's approval. Seller shall provide such letters notifying tenants to pay rent to the buyer after closing as Buyer may reasonably request. Seller warrants that any rent rolls and other income and expense data provided to Buyer are complete and accurate, all of which must be acceptable to Buyer.

BETWEEN: [LANDLORD NAME] (the "Landlord"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the [STATE/PROVINCE], with its head office located at:

AND: [GUARANTOR NAME] (the "Guarantor"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the [STATE/PROVINCE], with its head office located at:

RECITALS

Reference is made to that certain Lease herewith, dated [DATE], by and between Landlord and Tenant with respect to certain premises;

As a material inducement to, and in consideration of, Landlord entering into the Lease, Guarantor does hereby agree as follows:

1. GUARANTY

Guarantor do hereby unconditionally guarantee, as a primary obligor and not as a surety, and promise to perform and be liable for, the payment of rent by Tenant for [NUMBER] months starting [DATE] through [DATE].

2. MODIFICATIONS AND AMENDMENTS

The Lease may be amended or modified, and further agreements may be entered into between Tenant and Landlord, without further authorization from or notice to Guarantor and no such action shall terminate, release, reduce, diminish or in any way affect any of the obligations of the Guarantor hereunder or give Guarantor recourse or defense against Landlord.

Landlord may alter, compromise, accelerate, extend or change the time or manner for the performance or payment of any obligation(s) of Tenant under the Lease, waive any default by Tenant, fail to assert

OBJECTION MY LORD

any rights against Tenant, grant to Tenant any other indulgence or concession with respect to all or any part of any of the obligations of Tenant under the Lease, release, substitute or add Guarantors and may generally deal with Tenant, or any indebtedness of Tenant to Landlord, as Landlord sees fit, and no such action and no change, impairment or suspension of any right or remedy of Landlord shall terminate, release, reduce, diminish or in any way affect any of the obligations of Guarantor hereunder or give Guarantor any recourse or defense against Landlord.

3. LIABILITIES

The amount of liability of Guarantor and all rights, power and remedies of Landlord hereunder and under any other agreement now or at any time hereafter in force between Landlord and Guarantor, including any other guaranty executed by Guarantor relating to any indebtedness of Tenant to Landlord, shall be cumulative and not alternative and shall be deemed to include all rights, powers and remedies given to Landlord by law. This Guaranty is in addition to and exclusive of the guaranty of any other guarantor of any indebtedness of Tenant to Landlord.

4. OBLIGATIONS OF GUARANTOR

The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of the Lease Obligation. In the event of any default hereunder, a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against Guarantor whether or not Tenant is joined therein or a separate action or actions is brought against Tenant. Landlord may maintain successive actions for other defaults. Landlord's rights hereunder shall not be exhausted by its exercise of any of its other rights or remedies or by any such action or by any number of successive actions until and unless all of the Lease Obligation hereby guaranteed has been fully performed and the period of time has expired during which any payment made by Tenant or Guarantor to Landlord may be determined to be a Preferential Payment.

5. SEVERABILITY

Each Guarantor shall be jointly and severally liable for, and agrees to pay to Landlord without demand, attorneys' fees in such amount as the Court determines is reasonable and all costs and other expenses which Landlord expends or incurs in enforcing, collecting or compromising the Lease Obligation hereby guaranteed or in enforcing or collecting upon this Guaranty against Guarantor the Lease Obligation hereby guaranteed whether or not suit is filed.

6. ENFORCEMENT

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Should any one or more provisions of this Guaranty be determined to be illegal or unenforceable, all other provisions shall nevertheless be effective and enforceable.

7. NO WAIVER

No provision of this Guaranty or right of Landlord hereunder can be waived nor can Guarantor be released from his or her obligations hereunder except by a writing duly executed by Landlord.

8. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Guarantor represents and warrants it is represented or has had full opportunity to be represented by independent legal counsel of its own choice in connection with this Guaranty, that it has personally reviewed this Guaranty, and that it fully has the requisite experience and sophistication to understand its terms and conditions and the consequences of the duties assumed and rights waived herein. In the event of an ambiguity in or dispute regarding the interpretation of this Instrument, the interpretation shall not be resolved by any rule providing for interpretation against the party who causes the uncertainty to exist or against the drafting party.

9. GOVERNING LAW

This Guaranty shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of [STATE/PROVINCE]. Except as provided in any other written agreement now or at any time hereafter in force between Landlord and Guarantor, this Guaranty shall constitute the entire agreement of the Guarantor with Landlord with respect to the subject matter hereof and no representation, understanding, promise or condition concerning the subject matter hereof shall be binding upon Landlord unless expressed herein.

10. BINDING AGREEMENT

7. RESTRICTIONS ON USE

Tenant shall not use the demised premises in any manner that will increase risks covered by insurance on the demised premises and result in an increase in the rate of insurance or a cancellation of any insurance policy, even if such use may be in furtherance of Tenant's business purposes.

Tenant shall not keep, use, or sell anything prohibited by any policy of fire insurance covering the demised premises, and shall comply with all requirements of the insurers applicable to the demised premises necessary to keep in force the fire and liability insurance.

Tenant shall not allow any waste or nuisance on the demised premises, or use or allow the demised premises to be used for any unlawful purpose.

9. DELAY IN DELIVERING POSSESSION

Such sum shall be returned to the Tenant after the expiration of this lease, provided the Tenant has fully and faithfully carried out all of its terms. In the event of a bona fide sale of the property of which the leased premises are a part, the Landlord shall have the right to transfer the security to the purchaser to be held under the terms of this lease, and the Landlord shall be released from all liability for the return of such security to the Tenant.

11. TAXES

OBJECTION MY LORD

- f. Property Taxes: The Tenant shall be liable for all taxes levied against any leasehold interest of the Tenant or personal property and trade fixtures owned or placed by the Tenant in the Leased Premises.
- g. Real Estate Taxes: During the continuance of this lease Landlord shall deliver to Tenant a copy of any real estate taxes and assessments against the Leased Property. From and after the Commencement Date, the Tenant shall pay to Landlord not later than [NUMBER] days after the day on which the same may become initially due, all real estate taxes and assessments applicable to the Leased Premises, together with any interest and penalties lawfully imposed thereon as a result of Tenant's late payment thereof, which shall be levied upon the Leased Premises during the term of this Lease.
- h. Contest of Taxes: The Tenant, at its own cost and expense, may, if it shall in good faith so desire, contest by appropriate proceedings the amount of any personal or real property tax. In any such event, if the Landlord agrees, at the request of the Tenant, to join with the Tenant at Tenant's expense in said proceedings and the Landlord agrees to sign and deliver such papers and instruments as may be necessary to prosecute such proceedings, the Tenant shall have the right to contest the amount of any such tax and the Tenant shall have the right to withhold payment of any such tax, if the statute under which the Tenant is contesting such tax so permits.
- i. Payment of Ordinary Assessments: The Tenant shall pay all assessments, ordinary and extraordinary, attributable to or against the Leased Premises not later than [NUMBER] days after the day on which the same became initially due. The Tenant may take the benefit of any law allowing assessments to be paid in installments and in such event the Tenant shall only be liable for such installments of assessments due during the term hereof.
- j. Changes in Method of Taxation: Landlord and Tenant further agree that if at any time during the term of this Lease, the present method of taxation or assessment of real estate shall be changed so that the whole or any part of the real estate taxes, assessment or governmental impositions now levied, assessed or imposed on the Leased Premises shall, in lieu thereof, be assessed, levied, or imposed wholly or in part, as a capital levy or otherwise upon the rents reserved herein or any part thereof, or as a tax, corporation franchise tax, assessment, levy or charge, or any part thereof, measured by or based, in whole or in part, upon the Leased Premises or on the rents derived therefrom and imposed upon the Landlord, then the Tenant shall pay all such taxes, assessments, levies, impositions, or charges. Nothing contained in this Lease shall require the Tenant to pay an estate, inheritance, succession, capital levy, corporate franchise, gross receipts, transfer or income tax of the Landlord, nor shall any of the same be deemed real estate taxes as defined herein unless the same be imposed in lieu of the real estate taxes.

12. IMPROVEMENTS BY TENANTS

Tenant may have prepared plans and specifications for the construction of improvements, and, if so, such plans and specifications are attached hereto as Exhibit "B" and incorporated herein by reference. Tenant shall obtain all certificates, permits, licenses and other authorizations of governmental bodies or authorities which are necessary to permit the construction of the improvements on the demised premises and shall keep the same in full force and effect at Tenant's cost.

Tenant shall negotiate, let and supervise all contracts for the furnishing of services, labor, and materials for the construction of the improvements on the demised premises at its cost. All such contracts shall require the contracting party to guarantee performance and all workmanship and materials installed by it for a period of one year following the date of completion of construction. Tenant shall cause all contracts to be fully and completely performed in a good and workmanlike manner, all to the effect that the improvements shall be fully and completely constructed and installed in accordance with good engineering and construction practice.

During the course of construction, Tenant shall, at its cost, keep in full force and effect a policy of builder's risk and liability insurance in a sum equal, from time to time, to three times the amount expended for construction of the improvements. All risk of loss or damage to the improvements during the course of construction shall be on Tenant with the proceeds from insurance thereon payable to Landlord.

Upon completion of construction, Tenant shall, at its cost, obtain an occupancy permit and all other permits or licenses necessary for the occupancy of the improvements and the operation of the same as set out herein and shall keep the same in force.

Nothing herein shall alter the intent of the parties that Tenant shall be fully and completely responsible for all aspects pertaining to the construction of the improvements of the demised premises and for the payment of all costs associated therewith. Landlord shall be under no duty to investigate or verify Tenant's compliance with the provision herein. Moreover, neither Tenant nor any third party may construe the permission granted Tenant hereunder to create any responsibility on the part of the Landlord to pay for any improvements, alterations or repairs occasioned by the Tenant. The Tenant shall keep the property free and clear of all liens and, should the Tenant fail to do so, or to have any liens removed from the property within [NUMBER] days of notification to do so by the Landlord, in addition to all other remedies available to the Landlord, the Tenant shall indemnify and hold the Landlord harmless for all costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, occasioned by the Landlord in having said lien removed from the property; and, such costs and expenses shall be billed to the Tenant monthly and shall be payable by the Tenant with that month's regular monthly rental as additional reimbursable expenses to the Landlord by the Tenant.

13. Utilities

Tenant shall pay for all water, sanitation, sewer, electricity, light, heat, gas, power, fuel, janitorial, and other services incident to Tenant's use of the Leased Premises, whether or not the cost thereof be a charge or imposition against the Leased Premises.

14. OBLIGATIONS FOR REPAIRS

- f. Landlord's Repairs: Subject to any provisions herein to the contrary, and except for maintenance or replacement necessitated as the result of the act or omission of subtenants, licensees or contractors, the Landlord shall be required to repair only defects, deficiencies, deviations or failures of materials or workmanship in the building. The Landlord shall keep the Leased Premises free of such defects, deficiencies, deviations or failures during the first [NUMBER] months of the term hereof.
- g. Tenant's Repairs: The Tenant shall repair and maintain the Leased Premises in good order and condition, except for reasonable wear and tear, the repairs required of Landlord pursuant hereto, and maintenance or replacement necessitated as the result of the act or omission or negligence of the Landlord, its employees, agents, or contractors.
- h. Requirements of the Law: The Tenant agrees that if any federal, state or municipal government or any department or division thereof shall condemn the Leased Premises or any part thereof as not in conformity with the laws and regulations relating to the construction thereof as of the commencement date with respect to conditions latent or otherwise which existed on the Commencement Date, or, with respect to items which are the Landlord's duty to repair pursuant to Section a) and c) of this Article; and such federal, state or municipal government or any other department or division thereof, has ordered or required, or shall hereafter order or require, any alterations or repairs thereof or installations and repairs as may be necessary to comply with such laws, orders or requirements (the validity of which the Tenant shall be entitled to contest); and if by reason of such laws, orders or the work done by the Landlord in connection therewith, the Tenant is deprived of the use of the Leased Premises, the rent shall be abated or adjusted, as the case may be, in proportion to that time during which, and to that portion of the Leased Premises of which, the Tenant shall be deprived as a result thereof, and the Landlord shall be obligated to make such repairs, alterations or modifications at Landlord's expense. All such rebuilding, altering, installing and repairing shall be done in accordance with Plans and Specifications approved by the Tenant, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If, however, such condemnation, law, order or requirement, as in this Article set forth, shall be with respect to an item which shall be the Tenant's obligation to repair pursuant to Section b) of this Article 9 or with respect to Tenant's own costs and expenses, no abatement or adjustment of rent shall be granted; provided, however, that Tenant shall also be entitled to contest the validity thereof.

- i. TENANT'S Alterations: The Tenant shall have the right, at its sole expense, from time to time, to redecorate the Leased Premises and to make such non-structural alterations and changes in such parts thereof as the Tenant shall deem expedient or necessary for its purposes; provided, however, that such alterations and changes shall neither impair the structural soundness nor diminish the value of the Leased Premises. The Tenant may make structural alterations and additions to the Leased Premises provided that Tenant has first obtained the consent thereto of the Landlord in writing. The Landlord agrees that it shall not withhold such consent unreasonably. The Landlord shall execute and deliver upon the request of the Tenant such instrument or instruments embodying the approval of the Landlord which may be required by the public or quasi public authority for the purpose of obtaining any licenses or permits for the making of such alterations, changes and/or installations in, to or upon the Leased Premises and the Tenant agrees to pay for such licenses or permits.
- j. Permits and Expenses: Each party agrees that it will procure all necessary permits for making any repairs, alterations, or other improvements for installations, when applicable. Each Party hereto shall give written notice to the other party of any repairs required of the other pursuant to the provisions of this Article and the party responsible for said repairs agrees promptly to commence such repairs and to prosecute the same to completion diligently, subject, however, to the delays occasioned by events beyond the control of such party.

Each party agrees to pay promptly when due the entire cost of any work done by it upon the Leased Premises so that the Leased Premises at all times shall be free of liens for labor and materials. Each party further agrees to hold harmless and indemnify the other party from and against any and all injury, loss, claims or damage to any person or property occasioned by or arising out of the doing of any such work by such party or its employees, agents or contractors. Each party further agrees that in doing such work that it will employ materials of good quality and comply with all governmental requirements, and perform such work in a good and workmanlike manner.

15. TENANT'S COVENANTS

OBJECTION MY LORD

Tenant covenants and agrees as follows:

- d. To procure any licenses and permits required for any use made of the Leased Premises by Tenant, and upon the expiration or termination of this Lease, to remove its goods and effects and those of all persons claiming under it, and to yield up peaceably to Landlord the Leased Premises in good order, repair and condition in all respects; excepting only damage by fire and casualty covered by Tenant's insurance coverage, structural repairs (unless Tenant is obligated to make such repairs hereunder) and reasonable wear and tear;
- e. To permit Landlord and its agents to examine the Leased Premises at reasonable times and to show the Leased Premises to prospective purchasers of the Building and to provide Landlord, if not already available, with a set of keys for the purpose of said examination, provided that Landlord shall not thereby unreasonably interfere with the conduct of Tenant's business;
- f. To permit Landlord to enter the Leased Premises to inspect such repairs, improvements, alterations or additions thereto as may be required under the provisions of this Lease. If, as a result of such repairs, improvements, alterations, or additions, Tenant is deprived of the use of the Leased Premises, the rent shall be abated or adjusted, as the case may be, in proportion to that time during which, and to that portion of the Leased Premises of which, Tenant shall be deprived as a result thereof.

16. INDEMNITY BY TENANT

The Tenant shall save Landlord harmless and indemnify Landlord from all injury, loss, claims or damage to any person or property while on the Leased Premises, unless caused by the willful acts or omissions or gross negligence of Landlord, its employees, agents, licensees or contractors. Tenant shall maintain, with respect to the Leased Premises, public liability insurance with limits of not less than [AMOUNT] for injury or death from one accident and [AMOUNT] property damage insurance, insuring Landlord and Tenant against injury to persons or damage to property on or about the Leased Premises. A copy of the policy or a certificate of insurance shall be delivered to Landlord on or before the commencement date and no such policy shall be cancelable without [NUMBER] days prior written notice to Landlord.

17. SIGNAGE

- c. Exterior Signs: Tenant shall have the right, at its sole risk and expense and in conformity with applicable laws and ordinances, to erect and thereafter, to repair or replace, if it shall so elect signs on any portion of the Leased Premises, providing that Tenant shall remove any such signs upon termination of this lease, and repair all damage occasioned thereby to the Leased Premises.

- d. Interior Signs: Tenant shall have the right, at its sole risk and expense and in conformity with applicable laws and ordinances, to erect, maintain, place and install its usual and customary signs and fixtures in the interior of the Leased Premises.

18. INSURANCE

- a. Insurance Proceeds: In the event of any damage to or destruction of the Leased Premises, Tenant shall adjust the loss and settle all claims with the insurance companies issuing such policies. The parties hereto do irrevocably assign the proceeds from such insurance policies for the purposes hereinafter stated to any institutional first mortgagee or to Landlord and Tenant jointly, if no institutional first mortgagee then holds an interest in the Leased Premises. All proceeds of said insurance shall be paid into a trust fund under the control of any institutional first mortgagee, or of Landlord and Tenant if no institutional first mortgagee then holds an interest in the Leased Premises, for repair, restoration, rebuilding or replacement, or any combination thereof, of the Leased Premises or of the improvements in the Leased Premises. In case of such damage or destruction, Landlord shall be entitled to make withdrawals from such trust fund, from time to time, upon presentation of:
 - i. bills for labor and materials expended in repair, restoration, rebuilding or replacement, or any combination thereof;
 - ii. Landlord's sworn statement that such labor and materials for which payment is being made have been furnished or delivered on site; and
 - iii. the certificate of a supervising architect (selected by Landlord and Tenant and approved by an institutional first mortgagee, if any, whose fees will be paid out of said insurance proceeds) certifying that the work being paid for has been completed in accordance with the Plans and Specifications previously approved by Landlord, Tenant and any institutional first mortgagee in a first class, good and workmanlike manner and in accordance with all pertinent governmental requirements.

Any insurance proceeds in excess of such proceeds as shall be necessary for such repair, restoration, rebuilding, replacement or any combination thereof shall be the sole property of Landlord subject to any rights therein of Landlord's mortgagee, and if the proceeds necessary for such repair, restoration, rebuilding or replacement, or any combination thereof shall be inadequate to pay the cost thereof, Tenant shall suffer the deficiency.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- b. Subrogation: Landlord and Tenant hereby release each other, to the extent of the insurance coverage provided hereunder, from any and all liability or responsibility (to the other or anyone claiming through or under the other by way of subrogation or otherwise) for any loss to or damage of property covered by the fire and extended coverage insurance policies insuring the Leased Premises and any of Tenant's property, even if such loss or damage shall have been caused by the fault or negligence of the other party.
- c. Contribution: Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all insurance premiums connected with or applicable to the Leased Premises for whatever insurance policy the Landlord, at its sole and exclusive option, should select.

19. DAMAGE TO DEMISED PREMISES

- a. Abatement or Adjustment of Rent: If the whole or any part of the Leased Premises shall be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty after the execution of this Lease and before the termination hereof, then in every case the rent reserved in Article IV herein and other charges, if any, shall be abated or adjusted, as the case may be, in proportion to that portion of the Leased Premises of which Tenant shall be deprived on account of such damage or destruction and the work of repair, restoration, rebuilding, or replacement or any combination thereof, of the improvements so damaged or destroyed, shall in no way be construed by any person to effect any reduction of sums or proceeds payable under any rent insurance policy.
- b. Repairs and Restoration: Landlord agrees that in the event of the damage or destruction of the Leased Premises, Landlord forthwith shall proceed to repair, restore, replace or rebuild the Leased Premises (excluding Tenant's leasehold improvements), to substantially the condition in which the same were immediately prior to such damage or destruction. The Landlord thereafter shall diligently prosecute said work to completion without delay or interruption except for events beyond the reasonable control of Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Landlord does not either obtain a building permit within [number] days of the date of such damage or destruction, or complete such repairs, rebuilding or restoration within [number] months of such damage or destruction, then Tenant may at any time thereafter cancel and terminate this Lease by sending [number] days written notice thereof to Landlord, or, in the alternative, Tenant may, during said [number] day period, apply for the same and Landlord shall cooperate with Tenant in Tenant's application. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such damage or destruction shall occur during the last year of the term of this Lease, or during any renewal term, and shall amount to [%] or more of the replacement cost, (exclusive of the land and foundations), this Lease, may be terminated at the election of either Landlord or Tenant, provided that notice of such election shall be sent by the party so electing to the other within [number] days after the occurrence of such damage or destruction. Upon termination, as aforesaid, by either party hereto, this Lease and the term thereof shall cease and come to an end, any unearned rent or other charges paid in advance by Tenant shall be refunded to Tenant, and the parties shall be released hereunder, each to the other, from all liability and obligations hereunder thereafter arising.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

20. CONDEMNATION

- a. Total Taking: If, after the execution of this Lease and prior to the expiration of the term hereof, the whole of the Leased Premises shall be taken under power of eminent domain by any public or private authority, or conveyed by Landlord to said authority in lieu of such taking, then this Lease and the term hereof shall cease and terminate as of the date when possession of the Leased Premises shall be taken by the taking authority and any unearned rent or other charges, if any, paid in advance, shall be refunded to Tenant.
- b. Partial Taking: If, after the execution of this Lease and prior to the expiration of the term hereof, any public or private authority shall, under the power of eminent domain, take, or Landlord shall convey to said authority in lieu of such taking, property which results in a reduction by [%] or more of the area in the Leased Premises, or of a portion of the Leased Premises that substantially interrupts or substantially obstructs the conducting of business on the Leased Premises; then Tenant may, at its election, terminate this Lease by giving Landlord notice of the exercise of Tenant's election within [number] days after Tenant shall receive notice of such taking. In the event of termination by Tenant of this Lease and the term hereof shall cease and terminate as of the date when possession shall be taken by the appropriate authority of that portion of the Entire Property that results in one of the above takings, and any unearned rent or other charges, if any, paid in advance by Tenant shall be refunded to Tenant.
- c. Restoration In the event of a taking in respect of which Tenant shall not have the right to elect to terminate this Lease or, having such right, shall not elect to terminate this Lease, this Lease and the term thereof shall continue in full force and effect and Landlord, at Landlord's sole cost and expense, forthwith shall restore the remaining portions of the Leased Premises, including any and all improvements made theretofore to an architectural whole in substantially the same condition that the same were in prior to such taking. A just proportion of the rent reserved herein and any other charges payable by Tenant hereunder, according to the nature and extent of the injury to the Leased Premises and to Tenant's business, shall be suspended or abated until the completion of such restoration and thereafter the rent and any other charges shall be reduced in proportion to the square footage of the Leased Premises remaining after such taking.

- d. The Award: All compensation awarded for any taking, whether for the whole or a portion of the Leased Premises, shall be the sole property of the Landlord whether such compensation shall be awarded for diminution in the value of, or loss of, the leasehold or for diminution in the value of, or loss of, the fee in the Leased Premises, or otherwise. The Tenant hereby assigns to Landlord all of Tenant's right and title to and interest in any and all such compensation. However, the Landlord shall not be entitled to and Tenant shall have the sole right to make its independent claim for and retain any portion of any award made by the appropriating authority directly to Tenant for loss of business, or damage to or depreciation of, and cost of removal of fixtures, personality and improvements installed in the Leased Premises by, or at the expense of Tenant, and to any other award made by the appropriating authority directly to Tenant.
- e. Release: In the event of any termination of this Lease as the result of the provisions of this Article 20, the parties, effective as of such termination, shall be released, each to the other, from all liability and obligations thereafter arising under this lease.

21. LANDLORD'S REMEDIES

In the event that:

- a. Tenant shall on three or more occasions be in default in the payment of rent or other charges herein required to be paid by Tenant (default herein being defined as payment received by Landlord ten or more days subsequent to the due date), regardless of whether or not such default has occurred on consecutive or non-consecutive months; or
- b. Tenant has caused a lien to be filed against the Landlord's property and said lien is not removed within [NUMBER] days of recordation thereof; or
- c. Tenant shall default in the observance or performance of any of the covenants and agreements required to be performed and observed by Tenant hereunder for a period of [NUMBER] days after notice to Tenant in writing of such default (or if such default shall reasonably take more than [NUMBER] days to cure, Tenant shall not have commenced the same within the [NUMBER] days and diligently prosecuted the same to completion); or

- d. [NUMBER] days have elapsed after the commencement of any proceeding by or against Tenant, whether by the filing of a petition or otherwise, seeking any reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under the present or future Federal Bankruptcy Act or any other present or future applicable federal, state or other statute or law, whereby such proceeding shall not have been dismissed (provided, however, that the non-dismissal of any such proceeding shall not be a default hereunder so long as all of Tenant's covenants and obligations hereunder are being performed by or on behalf of Tenant); then Landlord shall be entitled to its election (unless Tenant shall cure such default prior to such election), to exercise concurrently or successively, any one or more of the following rights:
- ix. Terminate this Lease by giving Tenant notice of termination, in which event this Lease shall expire and terminate on the date specified in such notice of termination, with the same force and effect as though the date so specified were the date herein originally fixed as the termination date of the term of this Lease, and all rights of Tenant under this Lease and in and to the Premises shall expire and terminate, and Tenant shall remain liable for all obligations under this Lease arising up to the date of such termination, and Tenant shall surrender the Premises to Landlord on the date specified in such notice; or
 - x. Terminate this Lease as provided herein and recover from Tenant all damages Landlord may incur by reason of Tenant's default, including, without limitation, a sum which, at the date of such termination, represents the then value of the excess, if any, of (a) the Minimum Rent, Percentage Rent, Taxes and all other sums which would have been payable hereunder by Tenant for the period commencing with the day following the date of such termination and ending with the date herein before set for the expiration of the full term hereby granted, over (b) the aggregate reasonable rental value of the Premises for the same period, all of which excess sum shall be deemed immediately due and payable; or
 - xi. Without terminating this Lease, declare immediately due and payable all Minimum Rent, Taxes, and other rents and amounts due and coming due under this Lease for the entire remaining term hereof, together with all other amounts previously due, at once; provided, however, that such payment shall not be deemed a penalty or liquidated damages but shall merely constitute payment in advance of rent for the remainder of said term. Upon making such payment, Tenant shall be entitled to receive from Landlord all rents received by Landlord from other assignees, tenants, and subtenants on account of said Premises during the term of this Lease, provided that the monies to which tenant shall so become entitled shall in no event exceed the entire amount actually paid by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to the preceding sentence less all costs, expenses and attorney's fees of Landlord incurred in connection with the reletting of the Premises; or

- xii. Without terminating this Lease, and with or without notice to Tenant, Landlord may in its own name but as agent for Tenant enter into and upon and take possession of the Premises or any part thereof, and, at landlord's option, remove persons and property there from, and such property, if any, may be removed and stored in a warehouse or elsewhere at the cost of, and for the account of Tenant, all without being deemed guilty of trespass or becoming liable for any loss or damage which may be occasioned thereby, and Landlord may rent the Premises or any portion thereof as the agent of Tenant with or without advertisement, and by private negotiations and for any term upon such terms and conditions as Landlord may deem necessary or desirable in order to relet the Premises. Landlord shall in no way be responsible or liable for any rental concessions or any failure to rent the Premises or any part thereof, or for any failure to collect any rent due upon such reletting. Upon such reletting, all rentals received by Landlord from such reletting shall be applied: first, to the payment of any indebtedness (other than any rent due hereunder) from Tenant to Landlord; second, to the payment of any costs and expenses of such reletting, including, without limitation, brokerage fees and attorney's fees and costs of alterations and repairs; third, to the payment of rent and other charges then due and unpaid hereunder; and the residue, if any shall be held by Landlord to the extent of and for application in payment of future rent as the same may become due and payable hereunder. In reletting the Premises as aforesaid, Landlord may grant rent concessions and Tenant shall not be credited therefor. If such rentals received from such reletting shall at any time or from time to time be less than sufficient to pay to Landlord the entire sums then due from Tenant hereunder, Tenant shall pay any such deficiency to Landlord. Such deficiency shall, at Landlord's option, be calculated and paid monthly. No such reletting shall be construed as an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease unless a written notice of such election has been given to Tenant by Landlord. Notwithstanding any such reletting without termination, Landlord may at any time thereafter elect to terminate this Lease for any such previous default provided same has not been cured; or
- xiii. Without liability to Tenant or any other party and without constituting a constructive or actual eviction, suspend or discontinue furnishing or rendering to Tenant any property, material, labor, Utilities or other service, whether Landlord is obligated to furnish or render the same, so long as Tenant is in default under this Lease; or
- xiv. Allow the Premises to remain unoccupied and collect rent from Tenant as it comes due; or

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- xv. Foreclose the security interest described herein, including the immediate taking of possession of all property on or in the Premises; or
 - xvi. Pursue such other remedies as are available at law or equity.
- e. Landlord's pursuit of any remedy of remedies, including without limitation, any one or more of the remedies stated herein shall not (1) constitute an election of remedies or preclude pursuit of any other remedy or remedies provided in this Lease or any other remedy or remedies provided by law or in equity, separately or concurrently or in any combination, or (2) sever as the basis for any claim of constructive eviction, or allow Tenant to withhold any payments under this Lease.

22. LANDLORD'S Self Help

If in the performance or observance of any agreement or condition in this Lease contained on its part to be performed or observed and shall not cure such default within [number] days after notice from Landlord specifying the default (or if such default shall reasonably take more than [number] days to cure, shall diligently prosecuted the same to completion), Landlord may, at its option, without waiving any claim for damages for breach of agreement, at any time thereafter cure such default for the account of Tenant, and any amount paid or contractual liability incurred by Landlord in so doing shall be deemed paid or incurred for the account of Tenant and Tenant agrees to reimburse Landlord therefore and save Landlord harmless there from. Provided, however, that Landlord may cure any such default as aforesaid prior to the expiration of said waiting period, without notice to Tenant if any emergency situation exists, or after notice to Tenant, if the curing of such default prior to the expiration of said waiting period is reasonably necessary to protect the Leased Premises or Landlord's interest therein, or to prevent injury or damage to persons or property. If Tenant shall fail to reimburse Landlord upon demand for any amount paid for the account of Tenant hereunder, said amount shall be added to and become due as a part of the next payment of rent due and shall for all purposes be deemed and treated as rent hereunder.

23. TENANT'S Self Help

If Landlord shall default in the performance or observance of any agreement or condition in this Lease contained on its part to be performed or observed, and if Landlord shall not cure such default within [number] days after notice from Tenant specifying the default (or, if such default shall reasonably take more than [number] days to cure, and Landlord shall not have commenced the same within [number] days and diligently prosecuted the same to completion), Tenant may, at its option, without waiving any claim for damages for breach of agreement, at any time thereafter cure such default for the account of

OBJECTION MY LORD

Landlord and any amount paid or any contractual liability incurred by Tenant in so doing shall be deemed paid or incurred for the account of Landlord and Landlord shall reimburse Tenant therefore and save Tenant harmless there from. Provided, however, that Tenant may cure any such default as aforesaid prior to the expiration of said waiting period, without notice to Landlord if an emergency situation exists, or after notice to Landlord, if the curing of such default prior to the expiration of said waiting period is reasonably necessary to protect the Leased Premises or Tenant's interest therein or to prevent injury or damage to persons or property. If Landlord shall fail to reimburse Tenant upon demand for any amount paid or liability incurred for the account of Landlord hereunder, said amount or liability may be deducted by Tenant from the next or any succeeding payments of rent due hereunder; provided, however, that should said amount or the liability therefore be disputed by Landlord, Landlord may contest its liability or the amount thereof, through arbitration or through a declaratory judgment action and Landlord shall bear the cost of the filing fees therefore.

24. TITLE

- a. Subordination: Tenant shall, upon the request of Landlord in writing, subordinate this Lease to the lien of any present or future institutional mortgage upon the Leased Premises irrespective of the time of execution or the time of recording of any such mortgage. Provided, however, that as a condition to such subordination, the holder of any such mortgage shall enter first into a written agreement with Tenant in form suitable for recording to the effect that:
 - iii. in the event of foreclosure or other action taken under the mortgage by the holder thereof, this Lease and the rights of Tenant hereunder shall not be disturbed but shall continue in full force and effect so long as Tenant shall not be in default hereunder
 - iv. such holder shall permit insurance proceeds and condemnation proceeds to be used for any restoration and repair required by the provisions of this Agreement, respectively. Tenant agrees that if the mortgagee or any person claiming under the mortgage shall succeed to the interest of Landlord in this Lease, Tenant will recognize said mortgagee or person as its Landlord under the terms of this Lease, provided that said mortgagee or person for the period during which said mortgagee or person respectively shall be in possession of the Leased Premises and thereafter their respective successors in interest shall assume all of the obligations of Landlord hereunder. The word "mortgage", as used herein includes mortgages, deeds of trust or other similar instruments, and modifications, and extensions thereof. The term "institutional mortgage" as used in this Article 24 means a mortgage securing a loan from a bank or trust company, insurance company or pension trust or any other lender institutional in nature and constituting a lien upon the Leased Premises.

- b. Quiet Enjoyment: Landlord covenants and agrees that upon Tenant paying the rent and observing and performing all of the terms, covenants and conditions on Tenant's part to be observed and performed hereunder, that Tenant may peaceably and quietly have, hold, occupy and enjoy the Leased Premises in accordance with the terms of this Lease without hindrance or molestation from Landlord or any persons lawfully claiming through Landlord .
- c. Zoning and Good Title: Landlord warrants and represents, upon which warranty and representation Tenant has relied in the execution of this Lease, that Landlord is the owner of the Leased Premises, in fee simple absolute, free and clear of all encumbrances, except for the easements, covenants and restrictions of record as of the date of this Lease. Such exceptions shall not impede or interfere with the quiet use and enjoyment of the Leased Premises by Tenant. Landlord further warrants and covenants that this Lease is and shall be a first lien on the Leased Premises, subject only to any Mortgage to which this Lease is subordinate or may become subordinate pursuant to an agreement executed by Tenant, and to such encumbrances as shall be caused by the acts or omissions of Tenant; that Landlord has full right and lawful authority to execute this Lease for the term, in the manner, and upon the conditions and provisions herein contained; that there is no legal impediment to the use of the Leased Premises as set out herein; that the Leased Premises are not subject to any easements, restrictions, zoning ordinances or similar governmental regulations which prevent their use as set out herein; that the Leased Premises presently are zoned for the use contemplated herein and throughout the term of this lease may continue to be so used therefore by virtue of said zoning, under the doctrine of "non-conforming use", or valid and binding decision of appropriate authority, except, however, that said representation and warranty by Landlord shall not be applicable in the event that Tenant's act or omission shall invalidate the application of said zoning, the doctrine of "non-conforming use" or the valid and binding decision of the appropriate authority. Landlord shall furnish without expense to Tenant, within [number] days after written request therefore by Tenant, a title report covering the Leased Premises showing the condition of title as of the date of such certificate, provided, however, that Landlord's obligation hereunder shall be limited to the furnishing of only one such title report.
- d. Licenses: It shall be the Tenant's responsibility to obtain any and all necessary licenses and the Landlord shall bear no responsibility therefore; the Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord of the fact that it has obtained the necessary licenses in order to prevent any delay to Landlord in commencing construction of the Leased Premises.

25. EXTENSIONS/WAIVERS/DISPUTES

OBJECTION MY LORD

- a. Extension Period: Any extension hereof shall be subject to the provisions of Article c) hereof.
- b. Holding Over: In the event that Tenant or anyone claiming under Tenant shall continue occupancy of the Leased Premises after the expiration of the term of this Lease or any renewal or extension thereof without any agreement in writing between Landlord and Tenant with respect thereto, such occupancy shall not be deemed to extend or renew the term of the Lease, but such occupancy shall continue as a tenancy at will, from month to month, upon the covenants, provisions and conditions herein contained. The rental shall be the rental in effect during the term of this Lease as extended or renewed, prorated and payable for the period of such occupancy.
- c. Waivers: Failure of either party to complain of any act or omission on the part of the other party, no matter how long the same may continue, shall not be deemed to be a waiver by said party of any of its rights hereunder. No waiver by either party at any time, express or implied, of any breach of any provision of this Lease shall be deemed a waiver of a breach of any other provision of this Lease or a consent to any subsequent breach of the same or any other provision. If any action by either party shall require the consent or approval of the other party, the other party's consent to or approval of such action on any one occasion shall not be deemed a consent to or approval of said action on any subsequent occasion or a consent to or approval of any other action on the same or any subsequent occasion. Any and all rights and remedies which either party may have under this Lease or by operation of law, either at law or in equity, upon any breach, shall be distinct, separate and cumulative and shall not be deemed inconsistent with each other, and no one of them, whether exercised by said party or not, shall be deemed to be an exclusion of any other; and any two or more or all of such rights and remedies may be exercised at the same time.
- d. Disputes: It is agreed that, if at any time a dispute shall arise as to any amount or sum of money to be paid by one party to the other under the provisions hereof, the party against whom the obligation to pay the money is asserted shall have the right to make payment "under protest" and such payment shall not be regarded as a voluntary payment and there shall survive the right on the part of the said party to institute suit for the recovery of such sum. If it shall be adjudged that there was no legal obligation on the part of said party to pay such sum or any part thereof, said party shall be entitled to recover such sum or so much thereof as it was not legally required to pay under the provisions of this Lease. If at any time a dispute shall arise between the parties hereto as to any work to be performed by either of them under the provisions hereof, the party against whom the obligation to perform the work is asserted may perform such work and pay the costs thereof "under protest" and the performance of such work shall in no event be regarded as a voluntary performance and shall survive the right on the part of the said party to institute suit for the recovery of the costs of such work. If it shall be adjudged that there was no legal obligation on the part of the said party to perform the same or any part thereof, said party shall be entitled to recover the costs of such work or the cost of so much thereof as said party was not legally required to perform under the provisions of this Lease and the amount so paid by Tenant may be withheld or deducted by Tenant from any rents herein reserved.

- e. Tenant's Right to cure Landlord's Default: In the event that Landlord shall fail, refuse or neglect to pay any mortgages, liens or encumbrances, the judicial sale of which might affect the interest of Tenant hereunder, or shall fail, refuse or neglect to pay any interest due or payable on any such mortgage, lien or encumbrance, Tenant may pay said mortgages, liens or encumbrances, or interest or perform said conditions and charge to Landlord the amount so paid and withhold and deduct from any rents herein reserved such amounts so paid, and any excess over and above the amounts of said rents shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant.
- f. Notices: All notices and other communications authorized or required hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given by mailing the same by certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, and any such notice or other communication shall be deemed to have been given when received by the party to whom such notice or other communication shall be addressed. If intended for Landlord the same will be mailed to the address herein above set forth or such other address as Landlord may hereafter designate by notice to Tenant, and if intended for Tenant, the same shall be mailed to Tenant at the address herein above set forth, or such other address or addresses as Tenant may hereafter designate by notice to Landlord.

26. PROPERTY DAMAGE

- a. Loss and Damage: Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of this Lease, Landlord shall not be responsible for any loss of or damage to property of Tenant or of others located on the Leased Premises, except where caused by the willful act or omission or negligence of Landlord, or Landlord's agents, employees or contractors, provided, however, that if Tenant shall notify Landlord in writing of repairs which are the responsibility of Landlord under Article VII hereof, and Landlord shall fail to commence and diligently prosecute to completion said repairs promptly after such notice, and if after the giving of such notice and the occurrence of such failure, loss of or damage to Tenant's property shall result from the condition as to which Landlord has been notified, Landlord shall indemnify and hold harmless Tenant from any loss, cost or expense arising there from.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- b. Force Majeure: In the event that Landlord or Tenant shall be delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of any act other than Tenant's obligation to make payments of rent, additional rent, and other charges required hereunder, by reason of strikes, lockouts, unavailability of materials, failure of power, restrictive governmental laws or regulations, riots, insurrections, the act, failure to act, or default of the other party, war or other reason beyond its control, then performance of such act shall be excused for the period of the delay and the period for the performance of such act shall be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay. Notwithstanding the foregoing, lack of funds shall not be deemed to be a cause beyond control of either party.

27. Assignment and Subletting

Under the terms and conditions hereunder, Tenant shall have the absolute right to transfer and assign this lease or to sublet all or any portion of the Leased Premises or to cease operating Tenant's business on the Leased Premises provided that at the time of such assignment or sublease Tenant shall not be in default in the performance and observance of the obligations imposed upon Tenant hereunder, and in the event that Tenant assigns or sublets this property for an amount in excess of the rental amount then being paid, then Landlord shall require as further consideration for the granting of the right to assign or sublet, a sum equal to [%] of the difference between the amount of rental to be charged by Tenant to Tenant's subtenant or assignee and the amount provided for herein, payable in a manner consistent with the method of payment by the subtenant or assignee to the Tenant, and/or [%] of the consideration paid or to be paid to Tenant by Tenant's or Sub-Tenant or assignee.

28. Fixtures

All personal property, furnishings and equipment presently and all other trade fixtures installed in or hereafter by or at the expense of Tenant and all additions and/or improvements, exclusive of structural, mechanical, electrical, and plumbing, affixed to the Leased Premises and used in the operation of the Tenant's business made to, in or on the Leased Premises by and at the expense of Tenant and susceptible of being removed from the Leased Premises without damage, unless such damage be repaired by Tenant, shall remain the property of Tenant and Tenant may, but shall not be obligated to, remove the same or any part thereof at any time or times during the term hereof, provided that Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall make any repairs occasioned by such removal.

29. OPTION TO RENEW

Landlord grants to Tenant an option to renew this lease agreement for a period of [number] years after expiration of the term of this Lease agreement at a rental of [amount] per month, with all other terms and conditions of the renewal lease to be the same as those in this lease agreement. To exercise this option to renew, Tenant must give Landlord written notice of intention to do so at least [number] days before this lease agreement expires.

30. Estoppel Certificates

At any time and from time to time, Landlord and Tenant each agree, upon request in writing from the other, to execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other or to any person designated by the other a statement in writing certifying that the Lease is unmodified and is in full force and effect, or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified (stating the modifications), that the other party is not in default in the performance of its covenants hereunder, or if there have been such defaults, specifying the same, and the dates to which the rent and other charges have been paid.

31. Invalidity of Particular Provision

If any term or provision of this Lease or the application hereof to any person or circumstance shall, to any extent, be held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease, or the application of such term or provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each term and provision of this Lease shall be valid and be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

32. Captions and Definitions of Parties

The captions of the Sections of this Lease are for convenience only and are not a part of this Lease and do not in any way limit or amplify the terms and provisions of this Lease. The word "Landlord" and the pronouns referring thereto, shall mean, where the context so admits or requires, the persons, firm or corporation named herein as Landlord or the mortgagee in possession at any time, of the land and building comprising the Leased Premises. If there is more than one Landlord, the covenants of Landlord shall be the joint and several obligations of each of them, and if Landlord is a partnership, the covenants of Landlord shall be the joint and several obligations of each of the partners and the obligations of the firm. Any pronoun shall be read in the singular or plural and in such gender as the context may require. Except as in this Lease otherwise provided, the terms and provisions of this Lease shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

33. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed or construed by the parties hereto nor by any third party as creating the relationship of principal and agent or of partnership or of a joint venture between the parties hereto, it being understood and agreed that neither any provision contained herein, nor any acts of the parties hereto, shall be deemed to create any relationship between the parties hereto other than the relationship of Landlord and Tenant.

34. Brokerage

No party has acted as, by or through a broker in the effectuation of this Agreement, except as set out hereinafter.

35. Entire Agreement

OBJECTION MY LORD

Additionally, any past due amounts under this Sublease shall bear interest at the rate of the lesser of [%] per month or the maximum rate permitted by applicable law. Sub lessee further agrees to pay Sub lessor any cost incurred by Sub lessor in effecting the collection of such past due amount, including but not limited to attorneys' fees and/or collection agency fees. Sub lessor shall have the right to require Sub lessee to pay monies due in the form of a cashier's check or money order. Nothing herein contained shall limit any other remedy of Sub lessor with respect to such payment delinquency.

46. Security Deposit

On execution of this Sublease, Sub lessee shall deposit with Sub lessor a sum equal to [amount] (the "Security Deposit") in order to provide security for the performance by Sub lessee of the provisions of this Sublease. If Sub lessee is in default, Sub lessor may, but shall not be obligated to use the Security Deposit, or any portion of it, to cure the default or to compensate Sub lessor for damage sustained by Sub lessor resulting from Sub lessee's default. Sub lessee shall immediately on demand pay to Sub lessor a sum equal to the portion of the Security Deposit expended or applied by Sub lessor as provided in this paragraph so as to maintain the Security Deposit in the sum initially deposited with Sub lessor. At the expiration or termination of this Sublease, Sub lessor shall return the Security Deposit to Sub lessee or its successor, less such amounts as are reasonably necessary to remedy Sub lessee's defaults, to repair damages the Leased Premises caused by Sub lessee or to clean the Leased Premises upon such termination, as soon as practicable thereafter. In the event of the sale or other conveyance of the Leased Premises, the Security Deposit will be transferred to the purchaser or transferee and the Sub lessor will be relieved of any liability with reference to such Security Deposit. Sub lessor shall not be required to keep the Security Deposit separate from its other funds, and (unless otherwise required by law) Sub lessee shall not be entitled to interest on the Security Deposit.

- c. Operational Permits: Sub lessee, prior to the Commencement Date, shall obtain and thereafter continuously maintain in full force and effect for the Term of this Sublease or any extension thereof, at no cost or expense to Sub lessor, any and all approvals, licenses, or permits required by any lawful authority as of the Commencement Date or imposed thereafter, for the use of Leased Premises, including but not limited to business licenses.
- d. Compliance With Laws: Sub lessee shall comply with all federal, state, county, municipal, or other statutes, laws, ordinances, regulations, rules, or orders of any governmental or quasi-governmental entity, body, agency, commission, board, or official applicable to the Leased Premises and Sub lessee's business.

UTILITIES AND TAXES

- e. Utility Charges: Sub lessee shall be responsible for and shall pay, and indemnify and hold Sub lessor and the property of Sub lessor free and harmless from, all charges for the furnishing of gas, water, electricity, telephone service, and other public utilities to the Leased Premises during the Term of this Sublease or any extension thereof and for the removal of garbage and rubbish from the Leased Premises during the Term of this Sublease or any extension thereof. Sub lessor shall not be liable in damages or otherwise for any failure or interruption of any utility service being furnished to the Leased Premises and no such failure or interruption shall entitle Sub lessee to terminate this Sublease.
- f. Personal Property Taxes: Sub lessee shall be responsible for and shall pay before they become delinquent all taxes, assessments, or other charges levied or imposed by any governmental entity on the equipment, trade fixtures, appliances, merchandise and other personal property situated in, on, or about the Leased Premises including, without limiting the generality of the other terms of this Section, any shelves, counters, vault doors, wall safes, partitions, fixtures, machinery, or office equipment on the Leased Premises, whether put there prior to or after the Commencement Date of this Sublease.

- i. levied or assessed against or with respect to the value, occupancy, or use of all or any portion of the Leased Premises (as now constructed or as may at any time hereafter be constructed, altered, or otherwise changed), or any legal or equitable interest of Sub lessor in the Leased Premises or any part thereof; or
- ii. levied or assessed against or with respect to Sub lessor's business of leasing the Leased Premises, or with respect to the operation of the Leased Premises; or
- iii. determined by the area of the Leased Premises or any part thereof, or by the gross receipts, income, or rent and other sums payable hereunder by Sub lessee (including, without limitation, any gross income or excise tax levied with respect to receipt of such rent and/or other sums due under this Sublease); or
- iv. imposed upon this transaction or any document to which Sub lessee is a party creating or transferring any interest in the Leased Premises; or
- v. imposed during the term of this Sublease or any extension thereof because of a change in ownership of the Leased Premises which results in an increase of real property taxes; or
- vi. any tax or excise, however described, imposed (whether by reason of a change in the method of taxation or assessment, creation of a new tax or charge, or any other cause) in addition to, in substitution partially or totally of, or as an alternate to, any tax previously included within the definition of taxes, or any tax the nature of which was previously included in the definition of taxes, whether or not now customary or within the contemplation of the parties.

Taxes shall also include all charges, levies or fees imposed by reason of environmental regulation or other governmental control of the Leased Premises, and all costs and expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees paid or incurred by Sub lessor in connection with:

- i. Tax Delinquency: Failure of Sub lessee to pay promptly when due any of the charges required to be paid under this Article shall constitute a default under the terms hereof in like manner as a failure to pay rental when due, and if Sub lessor shall elect to pursue an unlawful detainer action upon said default, then Sub lessor shall be entitled to claim as an amount of additional rent owed for purposes of said unlawful detainer the amount of such taxes due and payable by Sub lessee.
- j. All Other Charges: Sub lessee shall pay to Sub lessor any and all charges, fees, taxes, and other amounts due from Sub lessor to the master lessor of the Leased Premises prior to its due date, for sums due or owing on or after the date of this Sublease.
- k. Common Area Maintenance Charges: Sub lessee shall be responsible for, and shall pay to Sub lessor on demand, any and all costs, fees, charges, assessments, expenses or payments for which Sub lessor is obligated or liable under the Master Lease with respect to the operation, maintenance and repair of common area of the Leased Premises. MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS

- l. Maintenance by Sub lessee: Sub lessee shall, at its sole cost and expense, keep in good and safe condition, order and repair all portions of the Leased Premises and all facilities appurtenant thereto and every part thereof which Sub lessor is responsible to maintain or repair as lessee under the Master Lease, including without limitation, all plumbing, heating, air conditioning, ventilating, sprinkler, electrical and lighting facilities, interior walls, interior surfaces of exterior walls, floors, ceilings, windows, doors, entrances, all glass

If the Leased Premises are not so maintained, and such condition continues [number] hours after notice or exists upon expiration or termination hereof, Sub lessor may cause such maintenance to be performed at Sub lessee's expense and/or may obtain maintenance contracts for the Store and charge the Sub lessee for same. Sub lessor shall, when and if it deems necessary, make any and all repairs on the Leased Premises, and Sub lessee hereby consents to such actions by Sub lessor. Sub lessor may charge the Sub lessee for any of the foregoing repairs, if, in Sub lessor's opinion, such repairs are occasioned by Sub lessee's abuse or neglect. Sub lessee shall not modify, alter, or add to the Leased Premises without the prior written consent of Sub lessor.
- m. Damage; Abatement of Rent: Notwithstanding anything in this Sublease to the contrary, Sub lessee at its own cost and expense shall repair and replace as necessary all portions of the Leased Premises damaged by Sub lessee, its employees, agents, invitees, customers or visitors. There shall be no abatement of rent or other sums payable by Sub lessee prior to or during any repairs by Sub lessee or Sub lessor hereunder.
- n. Alterations and Liens: Sub lessee shall not make or permit any other person to make any structural changes, alterations, or additions to the Leased Premises or to any improvement thereon or facility appurtenant thereto without the prior written consent of Sub lessor first had and obtained. Sub lessee shall keep the Leased Premises free and clear from any and all liens, claims, and demands for work performed, materials furnished, or operations conducted on the Leased Premises at the instance or request of Sub lessee. As a condition to giving its consent to any proposed alterations, Sub lessor may require that Sub lessee remove any or all of said alterations at the expiration or sooner termination of the Sublease term and restore the Leased Premises to its condition as of the date of Sub lessee's occupation of the Leased Premises. Prior to construction or installation of any alterations, Sub lessor may require Sub lessee to provide Sub lessor, at Sub lessee's sole cost and expense, a lien and completion bond in an amount equal to one and one-half times the estimated cost of such alterations, to insure Sub lessor against any Liability for mechanic's and materialmen's liens and to insure completion of the work. Should Sub lessee make any alterations without the prior written consent of Sub lessor, Sub lessee shall remove the same at Sub lessee's expense upon demand by Sub lessor.
- o. Inspection by Sub lessor: Sub lessee shall permit Sub lessor or Sub lessor's agents, representatives, designees, or employees to enter the Leased Premises at all reasonable times for the purpose of inspecting the Leased Premises to determine whether Sub lessee is complying with the terms of this Sublease and for the purpose of doing other lawful acts that may be necessary to protect Sub lessor's interest in the Leased Premises under this

Sublease, or to perform Sub lessor's duties under this Sublease, or to show the Leased Premises to insurance agents, lenders, and other third parties, or as otherwise allowed by law.

- p. Plans and Permits: Any alteration that Sub lessee shall desire to make in or about the Leased Premises and which requires the consent of Sub lessor shall be presented to Sub lessor in written form, with proposed detailed plans and specifications therefor prepared at Sub lessee's sole expense. Any consent by Sub lessor thereto shall be deemed conditioned upon Sub lessee's acquisition of all permits required to make such alteration from all appropriate governmental agencies, the furnishing of copies thereof to Sub lessor prior to commencement of the work, and the compliance by Sub lessee with all conditions of said permits in a prompt and expeditious manner, all at Sub lessee's sole cost and expense.
- q. Construction Work Done by Sub lessee: All construction work required or permitted to be done by Sub lessee shall be performed by a licensed contractor in a good and workmanlike manner and shall conform in quality and design with the Leased Premises existing as of the Commencement Date, and shall not diminish the value of the Leased Premises in any way whatsoever. In addition, all such construction work shall be performed in compliance with all applicable statutes, ordinances, regulations, codes and orders of governmental authorities and insurers of the Leased Premises. Sub lessee or its agents shall secure all licenses and permits necessary therefor.
- r. Title to Alterations: Unless Sub lessor requires the removal thereof, any alterations which may be made on the Leased Premises, shall upon installation or construction thereof on the Leased Premises become the property of Sub lessor and shall remain upon and be surrendered with the Leased Premises at the expiration or sooner termination of the term of this Sublease. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, all heating, lighting, electrical (including all wiring, conduits, main and subpanels), air conditioning, partitioning, drapery, and carpet installations made by Sub lessee, regardless of how affixed to the Leased Premises, together with all other alterations that have become a part of the Leased Premises, shall be and become the property of Sub lessor upon installation, and shall not be deemed trade fixtures, and shall remain upon and be surrendered with the Leased Premises at the expiration or sooner termination of this Sublease.
- s. Removal of Alterations: In addition to Sub lessor's right to require Sub lessee at the time of installation or construction of any alteration to remove the same upon expiration or sooner termination of this Sublease, Sub lessor may elect, by notice to Sub lessee at least [number] days before expiration of the Term hereof, or within [number] days after sooner termination hereof, to acquire Sub lessee to remove any alterations that Sub lessee has made to the Leased Premises. If Sub lessor so elects, Sub lessee shall, at its sole expense, upon expiration of the Term hereof, or within [number] days after any sooner termination hereof, remove such alterations, repair any damage occasioned thereby, and restore the Leased Premises to the condition existing as of the Commencement Date or such other condition as may reasonably be designated by Sub lessor in its election.

INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

- t. Hold-Harmless Clause: Sub lessee agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Sub lessor, the property of Sub lessor, and the Leased Premises, free and harmless from any and all claims, liability, loss, damage, or expenses incurred by reason of this Sublease or resulting from Sub lessee's occupancy and use of the Leased Premises (other than as a result of the direct gross negligence of Sub lessor), specifically including, without limitation, any claim, liability, loss, or damage arising by reason of:
- i. The death or injury of any person or persons, including Sub lessee, any person who is an employee or agent of Sub lessee, or by reason of the damage to or destruction of any property, including property owned by Sub lessee or any person who is an employee or agent of Sub lessee, and caused or allegedly caused by either the condition of the Leased Premises, or some act or omission of Sub lessee or of some agent, contractor, employee, or invitee of Sub lessee on the Leased Premises;
 - ii. Any work performed on the Leased Premises or materials furnished to the Leased Premises at the instance or request of Sub lessee or any agent or employee of Sub lessee; and
 - iii. Sub lessee's failure to perform any provision of this Sublease or to comply with any requirement of law or any requirement imposed on the use by Sub lessee of the Leased Premises by any governmental agency or political subdivision.
 - iv. Maintenance of the insurance required under this Article shall not relieve Sub lessee of the obligations of indemnification contained in this Section.
- u. Liability Insurance: Sub lessee shall, at its own cost and expense, secure and maintain during the term of this Sublease, a comprehensive broad form policy of Combined Single Limit Bodily Injury and Property Damage Insurance issued by a reputable company authorized to conduct insurance business in the State of [state/province] insuring Sub lessee against loss or liability caused by or connected with Sub lessee's use and occupancy of the Leased Premises in an amount not less than [amount] per occurrence.
- v. Casualty and Fire Insurance: At all times during the Term hereof, Sub lessee shall keep the Leased Premises and personal property thereon insured against loss or damage by fire, windstorm, hail, explosion, damage from vehicles, smoke damage, vandalism, casualty and malicious mischief and such other risks as are customarily included in “all risk” extended insurance coverage, including coverage for business interruption, in an amount equal to not less than [number] of the actual replacement value of the Leased Premises and the personal property, fixtures, and other property on the Leased Premises.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- w. Workers' Compensation Insurance: During the term of this Sublease, Sub lessee shall comply with all Workers' Compensation laws applicable on the date hereof or enacted thereafter and shall maintain in full force and effect a Workers' Compensation Insurance policy covering all employees in any way connected with the business conducted by Sub lessee pursuant to this Sublease and shall pay all premiums, contributions, taxes and such other costs and expenses as are required to be paid incident to such insurance coverage, all at no cost to Sub lessor.
- x. Policy Form: The policies of insurance required to be secured and maintained under this Sublease shall be issued by good, responsible companies, qualified to do business in the State of [state/province], with a general policy holders' rating of at least “A”. Executed copies of such policies of insurance or certificates thereof shall be delivered to Sub lessor and to the Master Lessor under the Master Lease not later than [number] days prior to the commencement of business operations of Sub lessee at the Leased Premises and thereafter, executed copies of renewal policies of insurance or certificates thereof shall be delivered to Sub lessor within [number] days prior to the expiration of the term of each such policy. All such policies of insurance shall contain a provision that the insurance company writing such policy(s) shall give Sub lessor at least [number] days' written notice in advance of any cancellation or lapse, or the effective date of any reduction in the amounts or other material changes in the provisions of such insurance. All policies of insurance required under this Sublease shall be written as primary coverage and shall list the Master Lessor under the Master Lease and the Sub lessor as loss payees and as additional insureds. If Sub lessee fails to procure or maintain in force any insurance as required by this Section or to furnish the certified copies or certificates thereof required hereunder, Sub lessor may, in addition to all other remedies it may have, procure such insurance and/or certified copies or certificates, and Sub lessee shall promptly reimburse Sub lessor for all premiums and other costs incurred in connection therewith.
- y. Waiver of Subrogation: Sub lessee agrees that in the event of loss or damage due to any of the perils for which it has agreed to provide insurance, Sub lessee hereby waives any and all claims that it might otherwise have against Sub lessor with respect to any risk insured against to the extent of any proceeds realized from the insurance coverage to compensate for a loss. To the extent permitted by applicable insurance policies without voiding coverage, Sub lessee hereby releases and relieves Sub lessor, and waives its entire right of recovery against

Sub lessor for loss or damage arising out of or incident to the perils insured against to the extent of insurance proceeds realized for such loss or damage, which perils occur in, on or about the Leased Premises and regardless of the cause or origin, specifically including the negligence of Sub lessor or its agents, employees, contractors and/or invitees. Sub lessee shall to the extent such insurance endorsement is available, obtain for the benefit of Sub lessor a waiver of any right of subrogation which the insurer of such party might otherwise acquire against Sub lessor by virtue of the payment of any loss covered by such insurance and shall give notice to the insurance carrier or carriers that the foregoing waiver of subrogation is contained in this Sublease.

SIGNS AND TRADE FIXTURES

- d. Installation of Trade Fixtures: For so long as Sub lessee is not in default of any of the terms, conditions and covenants of this Sublease, Sub lessee shall have the right at any time and from time to time during the Term of this Sublease and any renewal or extension of such term, at Sub lessee's sole cost and expense, to install and affix in, to, or on the Leased Premises such items (hereinafter called "trade fixtures"), for use in Sub lessee's trade or business as Sub lessee may, in its reasonable discretion, deem advisable.
- e. Signs: Subject to any and all requirements now or hereinafter enacted by any municipal, county, or state regulatory agency having jurisdiction thereover and subject to Sub lessor's written consent, Sub lessee may erect at Sub lessee's cost, a sign on the Leased Premises identifying the Leased Premises. Sub lessee shall maintain, at Sub lessee's sole cost and expense, said sign.
- f. Removal of Signs and Trade Fixtures: In addition to Sub lessor's right to require Sub lessee at the time of installation of any sign or trade fixtures to remove the same upon expiration or sooner termination of this Sublease, Sub lessor may elect, by notice to Sub lessee at least [number] days before expiration of the Term hereof, or within [number] days after sooner termination hereof, to require Sub lessee to remove any sign or trade fixture owned by Sub lessee. If Sub lessor so elects, Sub lessee shall at its sole cost and expense, upon expiration of the Term hereof, or within [number] days after any sooner termination hereof, remove such sign or trade fixture owned by Sub lessee. If Sub lessor so elects, Sub lessee shall, at its sole cost and expense, upon expiration of the Term hereof, or within [number] days after any sooner termination hereof, remove such sign or trade fixture, repair any damage occasioned thereby, and restore the Leased Premises to the condition existing as of the Commencement Date or such other condition as may reasonably be designated by Sub lessor in its election.

OBJECTION MY LORD

CONDEMNATION AND DESTRUCTION

- g. Total Condemnation: Should, during the Term of this Sublease or any renewal or extension thereof, title and possession of all of the Leased Premises be taken under the power of eminent domain by any public or quasi-public agency or entity, this Sublease shall terminate as of the date actual physical possession of the Leased Premises is taken by the agency or entity exercising the power of eminent domain and both Sub lessor and Sub lessee shall thereafter be released from all obligations under this Sublease.
- h. Termination Option for Partial Condemnation: Should, during the Term of this Sublease or any renewal or extension thereof, title and possession of more than [%] of the floor area of the Leased Premises, and/or more than [%] of the parking area of the Leased Premises be taken under the power of eminent domain by any public or quasi-public agency or entity, Sub lessor may terminate this Sublease. The option herein reserved shall be exercised by giving written notice on or before [number] days after actual physical possession of the portion subject to the eminent domain power is taken by the agency or entity exercising that power and this Sublease shall terminate as of the date the notice is deemed given.
- i. Partial Condemnation Without Termination: Should Sub lessee or Sub lessor fail to exercise the termination option described in this Article, or should the portion of the Leased Premises taken under the power of eminent domain be insufficient to give rise to the option therein described, then, in that event:

 - i. This Sublease shall terminate as to the portion of the Leased Premises taken by eminent domain as of the day (hereinafter called the “date of taking”), actual physical possession of that portion of the Leased Premises is taken by the agency or entity exercising the power of eminent domain;
 - ii. Base Minimum Rent to be paid by Sub lessee to Sub lessor pursuant to the terms of this Sublease shall, after the date of taking, be reduced by an amount that bears the same ratio to the Base Minimum Rent specified in this Sublease as the square footage of the actual floor area of the Leased Premises taken under the power of eminent domain bears to the total square footage of floor area of the Leased Premises as of the date of this Sublease; and
 - iii. Except to the extent the Master Lessor under the Master Lease is so obligated, Sub lessee, at Sub lessee’s own cost and expense shall remodel and reconstruct the building remaining on the portion of the Leased Premises not taken by eminent domain into a single efficient architectural unit in accordance with plans mutually approved by the parties hereto as soon after the date of taking, or before, as can be reasonably done.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- j. Condemnation Award: Should, during the Term of this Sublease or any renewal or extension thereof, title and possession of all or any portion of the Leased Premises be taken under the power of eminent domain by any public or quasi-public agency or entity, the compensation or damages for the taking awarded shall belong to and be the sole property of the Sub lessor.
- k. Destruction: (a) In the event the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed and the total costs and expenses for repairing or reconstructing the Leased Premises exceeds the sum of [amount], Sub lessor, at Sub lessor's option, may:
- i. Continue this Sublease in full force and effect by restoring, repairing or rebuilding the Leased Premises at Sub lessor's own cost and expense or through insurance coverage; or
 - ii. Terminate this Sublease by serving written notice of such termination on Sub lessee no later than [number] days following such casualty, in which event this Sublease shall be deemed to have been terminated on the date of such casualty.
 - iii. In the event the Leased Premises are damaged or destroyed and Sub lessee will not be able to operate any business thereon for [number] consecutive days, Sub lessee, at Sub lessee's option, may terminate this Sublease by serving written notice of such termination on Sub lessor no later than [number] days following such casualty, in which event this Sublease shall be deemed terminated on the date of such casualty; provided, however, that such termination right shall not be applicable unless Sub lessor has a similar termination right under the Master Lease.
 - iv. Should Sub lessor or the Master Lessor under the Master Lease elect to repair and restore the Leased Premises to their former condition following partial or full destruction of the Leased Premises:
 1. Sub lessee shall not be entitled to any damages for any loss or inconvenience sustained by Sub lessee by reason of the making of such repairs and restoration.
 2. Sub lessor and such Master Lessor shall have full right to enter upon and have access to the Leased Premises, or any portion thereof, as may be reasonably necessary to enable such parties promptly and efficiently to carry out the work of repair and restoration.

OBJECTION MY LORD

1. Damage by Sub lessee: Sub lessee shall be responsible for and shall pay to Sub lessor any and all losses, damages, costs, and expenses, including but not limited to attorney's fees, resulting from any casualty loss caused by the negligence or wilful misconduct of Sub lessee or its employees, agents, contractors, or invitees.

SUBLEASING, ASSIGNMENT, DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

- z. Subleasing and Assignment: Sub lessee shall not sell, assign, hypothecate, pledge or otherwise transfer this Sublease, or any interest therein, either voluntarily, involuntarily, or by operation of law, and shall not sublet the Leased Premises, or any part thereof, or any right or privilege appurtenant thereto, for any reason whatsoever, or permit the occupancy thereof by any person, persons, or entity through or under it, or grant a security interest in Sub lessee's interest in the Leased Premises or this Sublease or any fixtures located on the Leased Premises, without the prior written consent of Sub lessor first had and obtained, which may be given or withheld in the Sub lessor's sole and absolute discretion. For the purpose of this Section, any dissolution, merger, consolidation or other reorganization of Sub lessee, or any change or changes in the stock ownership of Sub lessee, which aggregates [%] or more of the capital stock of Sub lessee shall be deemed to be an assignment of this Sublease. Sub lessee shall not mortgage, hypothecate or encumber this Sublease. Sub lessor's consent to one assignment, subletting, occupancy, or use by any other person, entity or entities shall not relieve Sub lessee from any obligation under this Sublease and shall not be deemed to be a consent to any subsequent assignment, subletting, occupancy or use. Any assignment, pledge, subletting, occupancy or use without Sub lessor's written consent shall be void and shall, at the option of the Sub lessor, terminate this Sublease.

Should this Sublease be assigned, or should the Leased Premises or any part thereof be sublet or occupied by any person or persons other than the original Sub lessee hereunder, Sub lessor may collect rent from the assignee, sub lessee or occupant and apply the net amount collected to the rent herein reserved, but no such assignment, subletting, occupancy or collection of rent shall be deemed a consent to such assignment, subletting or occupancy or a waiver of any term of this Sublease, nor shall it be deemed acceptance of the assignee, sub lessee or occupant as a tenant, or a release of Sub lessee from the full performance by Sub lessee of all the terms, provisions, conditions and covenants of this Sublease.

In the event Sub lessee wishes to assign this Sublease or sublet or allow the use of the Leased Premises or any part thereof, Sub lessee shall give Sub lessor not less than [number] days written notice thereof and shall, in such notice, provide the name of the proposed assignee or sub lessee, its proposed use of the Leased Premises, its background, such financial and credit information as Sub lessor may require to determine the business experience, financial stability and creditworthiness of the proposed assignee or sub lessee, and such additional information as Sub lessor may request. Sub lessee shall also pay Sub lessor a one-time administrative fee of [amount] to reimburse Sub lessor for its costs of reviewing, analyzing and processing the request for consent to assignment or subletting.

In addition to its right to consent or refuse to consent to a proposed assignment Sub lessor shall have the option, exercisable by written notice to Sub lessee within the [number] days after Sub lessee gives Sub lessor written notice of its desire to assign the Sublease, to terminate this Sublease with respect to the entire Leased Premises upon a date specified in said notice to Sub lessee not less than [number] days nor more than [number] days after the date of said notice and retake the Leased Premises for its own use. If Sub lessor exercises such option, Sub lessee shall nonetheless have the right, exercisable by notice given to Sub lessor within [number] days after Sub lessor's notice of exercise is given, to withdraw the proposed assignment from consideration, in which event the exercise of Sub lessor's option shall be of no force or effect and, except for the payment of the fee provided for in Subsection (c) above, the assignment shall be deemed not to have been proposed. If Sub lessor does not elect to exercise its option to terminate this Lease and consents to the assignment or sublease, said assignee or sub lessee shall pay directly to Sub lessor all rent or other consideration payable by the assignee or sub lessee in excess of the amount of rent or other consideration payable by Sub lessee to Sub lessor hereunder (whether denominated as rent or otherwise) and shall expressly assume Sub lessee's obligations hereunder.

As a condition to Sub lessor's consent to an assignment or subletting, Sub lessor shall be entitled to receive (i) in the case of a subletting, [%] of all rent (however denominated and paid) payable by the subtenant to Sub lessee in excess of that payable by Sub lessee to Sub lessor pursuant to the other provisions of this Sublease, and (ii) in the case of an assignment, [%] of all consideration given, directly or indirectly, by the assignee to Sub lessee in connection with such assignment. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "rent" shall mean and include all consideration paid or given, directly or indirectly, for the use of the Leased Premises or any portion thereof, and the term "consideration" shall mean and include money, services, property or any other thing of value such as payment of costs, cancellation of indebtedness, discounts, rebates and the like. Any rent or other consideration which is to be passed through to Sub lessor pursuant to this paragraph shall be paid to Sub lessor promptly upon receipt by Sub lessee and shall be paid in cash, regardless of the form in which received by Sub lessee. In the event any rent or other consideration received by Sub lessee is in a form other than cash, Sub lessee shall pay to Sub lessor in cash the fair value of Sub lessor's portion of such consideration.

- aa. Events of Default: Sub lessee's failure to timely pay any rent, taxes or other charges required to be paid pursuant to the terms of this Sublease shall constitute a material breach of this Sublease and an event of default if not paid by Sub lessee within [number] days of the date such rent, taxes or charges are payable. Events of default under this Sublease shall also include, without limitation, the events hereinafter set forth, each of which shall be deemed a material default of the terms of the Sublease if not fully cured within [number] days of occurrence. Such events shall include:

OBJECTION MY LORD

- i. Sub lessee's failure to perform or observe any term, provisions, covenant, agreement or condition of this Sublease;
- ii. Sub lessee breaches this Sublease and abandons the Leased Premises before expiration of the Term of this Sublease;
- iii. Any representation or warranty made by Sub lessee in connection with this Sublease between Sub lessee and Sub lessor proving to have been incorrect in any respect;
- iv. Sub lessee's institution of any proceedings under the Bankruptcy Act, as such Act now exists or under any similar act relating to the subject of insolvency or bankruptcy, whether in such proceeding Sub lessee seeks to be adjudicated a bankrupt, or to be discharged of its debts or effect a plan of liquidation, composition or reorganization;
- v. The filing against Sub lessee of any involuntary proceeding under any such bankruptcy laws;
- vi. Sub lessee's becoming insolvent or being adjudicated a bankrupt in any court of competent jurisdiction, or the appointment of a receiver or trustee of Sub lessee's property, or Sub lessee's making an assignment for the benefit of creditors;
- vii. The issuance of a writ of attachment by any court of competent jurisdiction to be levied on this Lease; or
- viii. Any event which is an event of default under the Master Lease or which would become so with the passage of time or the giving of notice or both.

bb. Sub lessor's Remedies for Sub lessee's Default: Upon the occurrence of any event of default described in Section 10.02 hereof, Sub lessor may, at its option and without any further demand or notice, in addition to any other remedy or right given hereunder or by law, do any of the following:

- i. Sub lessor may terminate Sub lessee's right to possession of the Leased Premises by giving written notice to Sub lessee. If Sub lessor gives such written notice, then on the date specified in such notice, this Sublease and Sub lessee's right of possession shall terminate. No act by Sub lessor other than giving such written notice to Sub lessee shall terminate this Sublease. Acts of maintenance, efforts to relet the Leased Premises, or the appointment of a receiver on Sub lessor's initiative to protect Sub lessor's interest under this Sublease shall not constitute a termination of Sub lessee's right to possession. On termination, Sub lessor has the right to recover from Sub lessee:

1. The worth at the time of the award of the unpaid rent and other charges that had been earned or owed to Sub lessor at the time of termination of this Sublease;
 2. The worth at the time of the award of the amount by which (a) the unpaid rent and other charges that would have been earned or owed to Sub lessor after the date of termination of this Sublease until the time of award exceeds (b) the amount of such rental loss that Sub lessee proves could have been reasonably avoided;
 3. The worth at the time of the award of the amount by which (a) the unpaid rent and other charges for the balance of the term after the time of award exceeds (b) the amount of such rental loss that Sub lessee proves could have been reasonably avoided; and
 4. Any other amount necessary to compensate Sub lessor for all the detriment caused by Sub lessee's failure to perform its obligations under this Sublease or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result therefrom, including without limitation any costs or expenses incurred by Sub lessor in recovering possession of the Leased Premises, maintaining or preserving the Leased Premises after such default, preparing the Leased Premises for reletting to a new tenant, or any repairs or alterations to the Leased Premises for such reletting, and all leasing commissions, reasonable attorney's fees, architect's fees and any other costs incurred by Sub lessor to relet the Leased Premises or to adapt them to another beneficial use. Sub lessee shall also indemnify, defend and hold Sub lessor harmless from all claims, demands, actions, liabilities and expenses (including but not limited to reasonable attorney's fees and costs) arising prior to the termination of this Sublease or arising out of Sub lessee's use or occupancy of the Leased Premises.
- ii. Sub lessor may, in any lawful manner, re-enter and take possession of the Leased Premises without terminating this Sublease or otherwise relieving Sub lessee of any obligation hereunder. Sub lessor is hereby authorized, but not obligated (except to the extent required by law), to relet the Leased Premises or any part thereof on behalf of the Sub lessee, to use the premises for its or its affiliates' account, to incur such expenses as may be reasonably necessary to relet the Leased Premises, and relet the Leased Premises for such term, upon such conditions and at such rental as Sub lessor in its sole discretion may determine. Until the Leased Premises are relet by Sub lessor, if at all, Sub lessee shall pay to Sub lessor all amounts required to be paid by Sub lessee hereunder. If Sub lessor relets the Leased Premises or any portion thereof, such reletting shall not relieve Sub lessee of any obligation hereunder, except that Sub lessor shall apply the rent or other proceeds actually collected by it as a result of such reletting against any amounts due from Sub lessee hereunder to the extent that such rent or other proceeds compensate Sub lessor for the non-performance of any obligation of Sub lessee hereunder. Such payments by Sub lessee shall be due at such times as are provided elsewhere in this Sublease, and Sub lessor need not wait until the termination of this Sublease, by expiration of the term hereof or otherwise, to recover them by legal action or in any other manner. Sub lessor may execute any lease made pursuant hereto in its own name, and the tenant thereunder shall be under no obligation to see to the application by Sub lessor of any rent or other proceeds by Sub lessor, nor shall Sub lessee have any right to collect any such rent or other proceeds. Sub lessor shall not by any re-entry or other act be deemed to have accepted any surrender by Sub lessee of the Leased Premises or Sub lessee's interest therein, or be deemed to have otherwise terminated this Sublease, or to have relieved Sub lessee of any obligation hereunder, unless Sub lessor shall have given Sub lessee express written notice of Sub lessor's election to do so as set forth herein.

- iii. Even though Sub lessee has breached this Sublease and may have abandoned or vacated the Leased Premises, this Sublease shall continue in effect for so long as Sub lessor does not terminate Sub lessee's right to possession, and Sub lessor may enforce all its rights and remedies under this Sublease, including the right to recover the rent and other charges as they become due under this Lease.
- iv. In the event any personal property of Sub lessee remains at the Leased Premises after Sub lessee has vacated, it shall be dealt with in accordance with the statutory procedures provided by applicable law dealing with the disposition of personal property of Sub lessee remaining on the Leased Premises after Sub lessee has vacated.
- v. Sub lessor may exercise any right or remedy reserved to the Master Lessor under the Master Lease (each of which rights and remedies are hereby incorporated herein), and any other remedy or right now or hereafter available to a landlord against a defaulting tenant under applicable law or the equitable powers of its courts, whether or not otherwise specifically reserved herein.
- vi. Sub lessor shall be under no obligation to observe or perform any provision, term, covenant, agreement or condition of this Sublease on its part to be observed or performed which accrues after the date of any default by Sub lessee hereunder.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- vii. Any legal action by Sub lessor to enforce any obligation of Sub lessee or in the pursuance of any remedy hereunder shall be deemed timely filed if commenced at any time prior to [number] year after the expiration of the term hereof or prior to [number] years after the cause of action accrues, whichever period expires later.
 - viii. In any action of unlawful detainer commenced by Sub lessor against Sub lessee by reason of any default hereunder, the reasonable rental value of the Leased Premises for the period of the unlawful detainer shall be deemed to be the amount of rent and additional charges reserved in this Sublease for such period.
 - ix. Sub lessee hereby waives any right of redemption or relief from forfeiture under any present or future law, if Sub lessee is evicted or Sub lessor takes possession of the Leased Premises by reason of any default by Sub lessee hereunder.
 - x. No delay or omission of Sub lessor to exercise any right or remedy shall be construed as a waiver of any such right or remedy or of any default by Sub lessee hereunder.
- cc. Receiver: Upon the occurrence of any event of default as defined in Article 16 b) hereof or in any action instituted by Sub lessor against Sub lessee to take possession of the Leased Premises and/or to collect Base Minimum Rent, or any other charge due hereunder, a receiver may be appointed at the request of Sub lessor to collect such rents and profits, to conduct the business of Sub lessee then being carried on in the Leased Premises and to take possession of any property belonging to Sub lessee and used in the conduct of such business and use the same in conducting such business on the Leased Premises without compensation to Sub lessee for such use. Neither the application nor the appointment of such receiver shall be construed as an election on the Sub lessor's part to terminate this Sublease unless written notice of such intention is given by Sub lessor to Sub lessee.
- dd. Attorneys' Fees: If as a result of any breach or default in the performance of any of the provisions of this Sublease, Sub lessor uses the services of an attorney in order to secure compliance with such provisions or recover damages therefor, or to terminate this Sublease or evict Sub lessee, Sub lessee shall reimburse Sub lessor upon demand for any and all attorneys' fees and expenses so incurred by Sub lessor, including without the limitation appraisers' and expert witness fees; provided that if Sub lessee shall be the prevailing party in any legal action brought by Sub lessor against Sub lessee, Sub lessee shall be entitled to recover the fees of its attorneys in such amount as the court may adjudge reasonable. Sub lessee shall advance to Sub lessor any and all attorneys' fees and expenses to be incurred or incurred by Sub lessor in connection with any modifications to this Sublease proposed by

Sub lessee, any proposed assignment of this Sublease by Sub lessee or any proposed subletting of the Leased Premises by Sub lessee.

- ee. Cumulative Remedies; No Waiver: The specified remedies to which Sub lessor may resort under the terms hereof are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of any other remedy or means of redress to which Sub lessor may be lawfully entitled in case of any breach or threatened breach by Sub lessee of any provision hereof. If for any reason Sub lessor fails or neglects to take advantage of any of the terms of this Sublease providing for termination or other remedy, any such failure of Sub lessor shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any default of any of the provisions, terms, covenants, agreements or conditions of this Sublease. The waiver by Sub lessor of any breach of any term, condition or covenant herein contained shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, condition or covenant herein contained. None of the provisions, terms, covenants, agreements or conditions hereof can be waived except by the express written consent of Sub lessor. Subsequent acceptance of rent hereunder by Sub lessor shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding breach by Sub lessee of any provision, term, covenant, agreement or condition of this Sublease other than the failure of Sub lessee to pay the particular rental accepted, regardless of Sub lessor's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of acceptance of such rent.

ESTOPPEL

At any time and from time to time, upon request in writing from Sub lessor, Sub lessee agrees to execute, acknowledge, and deliver to Sub lessor a statement in writing within [number] days of request, certifying that this Sublease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or, if there have been modifications, stating the modifications), the commencement and termination dates, the Base Minimum Rent, the other charges payable hereunder the dates to which the same have been paid, and such other items as Sub lessor may reasonably request. It is understood and agreed that any such statement may be relied upon by any mortgagee, beneficiary, or grantee of any security or other interest, or any assignee of any thereof, under any mortgage or deed of trust now or hereafter made covering any leasehold interest in the Leased Premises, and any prospective purchaser of the Leased Premises.

1. Force Majeure – Unavoidable Delays

Should the performance of any act required by this Sublease to be performed by either Sub lessor or Sub lessee be prevented or delayed by reason of an act of God, war, civil commotion, fire, flood, or other like casualty, strike, lockout, labor troubles, inability to secure materials, restrictive governmental laws or regulations, unusually severe weather, or any other cause, except financial inability, not the fault of the party required to perform the act, the time for performance of the act will be extended for a period

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

equivalent to the period of delay and performance of the act during the period of delay will be excused; provided, however, that nothing contained in this section shall excuse the prompt payment of rent or other monies due by Sub lessee as required by this Sublease or the performance of any act rendered difficult solely because of the financial condition of the party, Sub lessor or Sub lessee, required to perform the act.

2. Notices

Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, any and all notices or other communications required or permitted by this Sublease or by law to be served on or given to either party hereto by the other party hereto shall be in writing and shall be deemed duly served and given when personally delivered to the party, Sub lessor or Sub lessee, to whom it is directed or any managing employee of such party, or, in lieu of such personal service, [number] hours after deposit in the United States mail, certified or registered mail, with postage prepaid, or when transmitted by telecopy or facsimile addressed to the parties as set forth on the signature page hereof. Either party, Sub lessor or Sub lessee, may change the addresses herein contained for purposes of this Section by giving written notice of the change to the other party in the manner provided in this Section.

3. Amendments

No amendment, change or modification of this Sublease shall be valid and binding unless such is contained in a written instrument executed by the parties hereto and which instrument expresses the specific intention of the parties to amend, change or modify this Sublease.

4. Accord and Satisfaction

No payment by Sub lessee or receipt by Sub lessor of a lesser amount than the monthly rent herein stipulated shall be deemed to be other than on account of the stipulated rent earliest in time, nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check or payment as rent be deemed an accord and satisfaction and Sub lessor may accept such check or payment without prejudice to Sub lessor's right to recover the balance of such rent or pursue any other remedy provided in this Sublease or by law.

5. No Agency Created

OBJECTION MY LORD

Nothing contained in this Sublease shall be deemed or construed by the parties hereto or by any third party to create the relationship of principal and agent, or of partnership, or of joint venture, or of any association whatsoever between Sub lessor and Sub lessee other than sub lessor and sub lessee.

6. Brokerage Commission

Sub lessee represents that neither it nor any of its affiliates has engaged the services of any real estate broker, finder, or any other person or entity in connection with this lease transaction and therefore should Sub lessee be found to be in violation of such representation, Sub lessee shall indemnify Sub lessor against any and all claims for brokerage commissions or finders fees in connection with this transaction, and to indemnify, defend and hold Sub lessor free and harmless from all liabilities arising from any such claim, including without limitation, attorneys' fees in connection therewith.

7. Sole and Only Agreement

This instrument constitutes the sole and only agreement between Sub lessor and Sub lessee respecting the Leased Premises or the leasing of the Leased Premises to Sub lessee. Sub lessor shall have no obligations to Sub lessee, whether express or implied, other than those specifically set forth in this Sublease.

8. Severability and Governing Law

This Sublease shall be governed by the laws of the State of [state/province]. Whenever possible each provision of this Sublease shall be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision of this Sublease shall be prohibited, void, invalid, or unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition, invalidity, voidability, or enforceability without invalidating the remainder of such, or the remaining provisions of this Sublease.

9. Construction and Headings

All references herein in the singular shall be construed to include the plural, and the masculine, and the masculine to include the feminine or neuter gender, where applicable, and where the context shall require. Section headings are for convenience of reference only and shall not be construed as part of this Sublease nor shall they limit or define the meaning of any provision herein. The provisions of this Sublease shall be construed as to their fair meaning, and not strictly for or against Sub lessor or Sub lessee.

10. Effect of Execution

The submission of this Sublease for examination shall not effect any obligation on the part of the submitting or examining party and this Sublease shall become effective only upon the complete execution thereof by both Sub lessor and Sub lessee.

11. Inurement

Sub lessor shall have the full and unencumbered right to assign this Sublease. The covenants, agreements, restrictions, and limitations contained herein shall also be binding on Sub lessee's permitted successors and assigns.

12. Time of Essence

Time is expressly declared to be of the essence.

13. No Light, Air or View Easement

Any diminution or shutting off of light, air or view by any structure which may be erected on lands adjacent to the Leased Premises shall in no way affect this Sublease or impose any liability on Sub lessor.

14. Triple Net Lease

It is the purpose and intent of Sub lessor and Sub lessee that this Sublease be deemed and construed to be a "triple net lease" so that Sub lessor shall receive all rentals and other sums specified hereunder during the term of this Sublease, free from any and all charges, costs, assessments, expenses, deductions and/or set-offs of any kind or nature whatsoever, and Sub lessor shall not be expected or required to pay any such charge, assessment or expense, or be under any obligation or liability hereunder, except as herein expressly set forth. All charges, costs, expenses and obligations of any nature relating to the repair, restoration, alteration, maintenance and operation of the Leased Premises shall be paid by Sub lessee, except as otherwise herein expressly set forth, and Sub lessor shall be indemnified and held harmless by Sub lessee from and against such charges, costs, expenses and obligations.

15. Authority

OBJECTION MY LORD

Each individual executing this Sublease on behalf of Sub lessee and the Sub lessee (if Sub lessee is a corporation or other entity) does hereby covenant and warrant that (i) Sub lessee is a duly authorized and validly existing entity, (ii) Sub lessee has and is qualified to do business in California, (iii) the entity has full right and authority to enter into this Sublease, and (iv) each person executing this Sublease on behalf of the entity was authorized to do so.

16. Survival

All obligations of Sub lessee under this Sublease, including without limitation the obligations to pay Base Minimum Rent, shall survive the expiration or termination of this Sublease.

17. Waiver

Sub lessee hereby waives any rights it may have under the provisions of [law or code], if applicable, and any similar statutes regarding repair of the Leased Premises or termination of this Sublease after destruction of all or any part of the Leased Premises.

18. Recordation

Sub lessee shall not record this Sublease or a short form memorandum hereof without the prior written consent of the Sub lessor.

19. Transfer of Master Lease

In the event of any assignment or transfer of the Master Lease by Sub lessor to any other party or entity, Sub lessor shall be and is hereby entirely freed and relieved of all liability under any and all of its covenants and obligations contained in or derived from this Sublease arising out of any act, occurrence or omission occurring after the consummation of such assignment or transfer; and the assignee or such transferee shall be deemed, without any further agreement between parties or their successors in interest or between the parties and any such assignee or transferee, to have assumed and agreed to carry out any and all of the covenants and obligations of the Sub lessor under this Sublease. Sub lessee hereby agrees to attorn to any such assignee or trustee. Sub lessee agrees to execute any and all documents deemed necessary or appropriate by Sub lessor to evidence the foregoing.

20. Subordination, Attornment

Without the necessity of any additional document being executed by Sub lessee for the purpose of effecting a subordination, this Sublease shall in all respects be subject and subordinate at all times to the lien of any mortgage or deed of trust which may now exist or hereafter be executed in any amount for which the Leased Premises or Sub lessor's interest or estate is specified as security. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sub lessor shall have the right to subordinate or cause to be subordinated any lien or encumbrance to this Sublease. In the event that any mortgage or deed of trust is foreclosed or a conveyance in lieu of foreclosure is made for any reason, Sub lessee shall, notwithstanding any subordination, attorn to and become the sub lessee of the successor in interest to Sub lessor, at the option of such successor in interest. Sub lessee covenants and agrees to execute and deliver, upon demand by Sub lessor and in the form requested by Sub lessor, any additional documents evidencing the priority or subordination of this Sublease.

21. No Merger

The voluntary or other surrender of this Sublease by Sub lessee, or a mutual cancellation hereof, shall not work a merger, and shall, at the option of Sub lessor, terminate all or any existing subleases or subtenancies or may, at the option of Sub lessor, operate as an assignment to Sub lessor of any or all such subleases or subtenancies.

22. Right of Sub lessor to Perform

All terms, covenants and conditions of this Sublease to be performed or observed by Sub lessee shall be performed or observed by Sub lessee at its sole cost and expense and without any reduction of rent of any nature payable hereunder. If Sub lessee shall fail to pay any sum of money, other than rent required to be paid by it hereunder or shall fail to perform any other term or covenant hereunder on its part to be performed, Sub lessor, without waiving or releasing Sub lessee from any obligation of Sub lessee hereunder, may, but shall not be obligated to, make any such payment or perform any such other term or covenant on Sub lessee's part to be performed. All sums so paid by Sub lessor and all necessary costs of such performance by Sub lessor, together with interest thereon from the date of payment at the rate eighteen percent (18%) or the highest rate permissible by law, whichever is less, shall be paid, and Sub lessee covenants to make such payment, to Sub lessor on demand, and Sub lessor shall have, in addition to any over right or remedy of Sub lessor, the same rights and remedies in the event of nonpayment thereof by Sub lessee as in the case of failure in the payment of rent hereunder.

OBJECTION MY LORD

23. Modification for Lender

If, in connection with obtaining any type of financing, Sub lessor's lender shall request reasonable modifications to this Sublease as a condition to such financing, Sub lessee shall not unreasonably withhold, delay or defer its consent thereto, provided such modifications do not materially adversely affect Sub lessee's rights hereunder.

24. Sub lessor's Personal Liability

The liability of Sub lessor to Sub lessee for any default by Sub lessor under the terms of this Sublease shall be limited to the interest of Sub lessor in the Leased Premises and Sub lessee agrees to look solely to Sub lessor's interest in the Leased Premises for the recovery of any judgment from Sub lessor, it being intended that Sub lessor shall not be personally liable for any judgment or deficiency.

25. Breach by Landlord

Sub lessor shall not be deemed to be in breach in the performance of any obligation required to be performed by it hereunder unless and until it has failed to perform such obligation within [number] days after written notice by Sub lessee to Sub lessor specifying wherein Sub lessor has failed to perform such obligation; provided, however, that if the nature of Sub lessor's obligation is such that more than [number] are required for its performance then Sub lessor shall not be deemed to be in breach if it shall commence such performance within such [number] day period and thereafter diligently prosecute the same to completion. In any event, Sub lessee must bring an action for breach of this Sublease within [number] year of Sub lessor's breach or be deemed to have waived the breach and not harmed thereby.

26. Survival of Indemnities

The obligations of the indemnifying party under each and every indemnification and hold harmless provision contained in this Sublease shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Sublease to and until the last to occur of (a) the last date permitted by law for bringing of any claim or action with respect to which indemnification may be claimed by the indemnified party against the indemnifying party under such provision or (b) the date on which any claim or action for which indemnification may be claimed under such provision is fully and finally resolved and, if applicable, any compromise thereof or judgment or award thereon is paid in full by the indemnifying party and the indemnified party is reimbursed by the indemnifying party for any amounts paid by the indemnified party in compromise thereof or upon a judgment or award thereon and in defense of such action or claim, including attorneys' fees incurred.

27. OPTION TO RENEW

Subject to the receipt by lessee of an extension of the original lease agreement for a sufficient duration to include this renewal, at any time before the commencement of the last calendar month of the first term of this sublease agreement, sub lessee is granted the option and privilege of extending and renewing the term of this sublease agreement for an additional [number]-year period at an annual rental to be agreed on or arbitrated as provided in this sublease agreement.

28. Meaning of Consent

Whenever an act or provision contained in this Sublease is conditioned upon the consent or approval of Sub lessor, this shall be interpreted to mean, unless otherwise specified to the contrary, that the Sub lessor has the full unconditional right and sole discretion as to whether or not to give its consent, which may only be given in writing.

29. QUIET ENJOYMENT

If sub lessee performs the terms of this sublease agreement, lessee will warrant and defend sub lessee in the enjoyment and peaceful possession of the demised premises during the term of this sublease agreement without any interruption by lessee or lessor or either of them or any person rightfully claiming under either of them.

30. Master Lease

Notwithstanding anything in this Sublease to the contrary, the rights of Sub lessee shall be subject to the terms and conditions contained in the lease (“Master Lease”) between Sub lessor and the owner of the Leased Premises (the “Master Lessor”), as it may be amended from time to time. Sub lessee shall assume and perform and comply with the obligations of the lessee under the Master Lease to the same extent as if references to the Sub lessor therein were references to Sub lessee (all of which obligations are hereby incorporated herein), including, without limitation, the payment of any and all costs, expenses, charges, fees, taxes, payments or other monetary obligations (except for minimum rent and percentage rent) for which Sub lessor is liable or responsible under the Master Lease, as such costs, expenses, charges, fees, taxes, payment or other monetary obligations come due. Sub lessee shall not commit or permit to be committed on the Leased Premises any act or omission which shall violate any term or condition of the Master Lease. Notwithstanding anything in this Sublease to the contrary, the effectiveness of this Sublease shall be conditioned upon Sub lessor obtaining the written consent of the Master Lessor (if such consent is required under the Master Lease), in form and substance satisfactory to Sub lessor,

OBJECTION MY LORD

within ten (10) days of the date hereof. If the Master Lease terminates for any reason, this Sublease shall terminate coincidentally therewith without any liability of Sub lessor to Sub lessee.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first above written.

OBJECT: WE WANT TO WELCOME YOU!

Dear [Contact name],

You probably know already that the building where your offices are has changed hands. Tenants sometimes feel some apprehension when a changeover occurs, so we would like to take this opportunity to clear the air by letting you know exactly what you can expect in the future.

PAYMENT BY CHECK OR MONEY ORDER: Since it is unwise for anyone to keep or carry cash around in large quantities, we request that you pay your rent by check or money order (made payable to us). This will protect both you and the management.

PROMPT PAYMENT: You are expected to pay your rent within three days after the due date. For example, rent due on the first must be paid by the fourth at the very latest.

MAINTENANCE: We expect you to pay your rent promptly, and you can expect us to respond promptly to any maintenance problems that arise. Sometime within the next week, we will visit you to inspect for any building maintenance work that should be taken care of. You can help us by making a list of work that needs doing around the house.

RENTAL AGREEMENT: We will stop by soon to explain the standard rental agreement to you, and we will leave you a copy of your own.

We hope that this is the beginning of a long-lasting business relationship and we will do everything possible to answer your needs as promptly as we can.

CHECKLIST: INVESTIGATING COMPLAINTS OF HARASSMENT OR DISCRIMINATION

In most countries, the law requires a company to promptly and thoroughly investigate claims of harassment or discrimination. Remember that if a lawsuit is filed, many courts will require you to fully disclose your investigation. So don't rush through it! Depending on the individual situation, most or all of the following should be considered during an investigation.

- Remember your focus is to gather facts and commit to legal compliance.
- Be sure to understand that harassment and discrimination are very often about power, ignorance and fear.
- Address the psychological needs of those involved. Don't begin by telling the claimant they have no claim.
- Keep matters confidential but don't promise absolute confidentiality because of your need to investigate, communicate, discipline and terminate.
- Contact your attorney if you think the matter could possibly lead to a claim.
- Get the complete story from the claimant in writing.
- Keep all interview notes, forms, etc. in a separate file, not part of the personnel file and limit access on a need to know basis only. Mark all documents "CONFIDENTIAL."
- Don't spread rumors about the employee or the complaint. Resist the temptation to gossip about these matters. Share any information on a need to know basis only.
- Don't leap to conclusions! Perform a complete investigation. Interview the employee complaining, the person accused and any witnesses named by either. Take good notes.
- Make sure to ask for all facts, documents and witnesses supporting any claims made.
- Take detailed notes and consider preparing written statements for signature by the employee, harasser and witnesses signed under the penalty of perjury (see Witness Statement Form).

OBJECTION MY LORD

- This is serious business. If you feel uncomfortable performing the investigation, hire an outside investigator, consultant or attorney to do it for you. Check out their experience and qualifications.
- Consider using a third party mediator with an organizational psychology background to help resolve differences between two or more employees.
- Look for the motive behind the allegations and defenses. Things are seldom what they appear to be. Evaluate the credibility and weight of the evidence.
- Do your best to follow company policies and procedures that apply to grievances, discipline, privacy, etc. Treat all employees equally.
- Assure the complaining party that you have completed your investigation, inform them of the facts you gathered without divulging your sources. Offer claimants the opportunity to address your final factual determinations before taking appropriate action. Do the same with the accused.
- If warranted, engage in appropriate discipline ranging from a warning, to leave without pay, transfer, demotion or termination. Document the discipline. Make sure the discipline does not violate any contract or procedure. Seriously consider a neutral evaluation before termination and give the accused the right to appeal any decision.
- Make sure to warn and monitor the parties to avoid repeated claims or possible retaliation.
- Change any part of your personnel system that needs changing to avoid repeat scenarios.

CHECKLIST : PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE DOCUMENTATION

After a discipline session, you will want to make some documentation based on your notes. Use this checklist to make sure you include everything you need in your documentation.

Verbal Warning

Be sure that all verbal warnings are documented in writing. They are a building block to more formal warnings in the future. All documentation should include:

- the employee's name
- the date of the verbal warning
- the specific offense or rule violation
- a specific statement of the expected performance
- any explanation given by the employee or other information that is significant

Example of verbal warning documentation

"I talked to [employee] today about him/her attendance record and gave him/her a verbal warning. Since [DATE], [employee] has been absent from work on [NUMBER] occasions for a total of [NUMBER] days. [The employee] response was, 'You can't make people work when they are sick,' and he/she argued about the verbal warning. I told him/her that he/she could request a medical leave of absence if he/she needed it, but that I expected him/her to be here every day unless a doctor says otherwise.

Written Warning

A written warning is more serious than a verbal warning and represents a progression in the progressive discipline process.

In documenting a written warning, include:

- the employee's name
- the date of the conversation
- the specific offense or rule violation
- references to previous conversations and verbal warnings about the problem
- a specific statement of the expected performance
- any explanation given by the employee or other information that is significant

OBJECTION MY LORD

- a statement indicating your confidence in the employee's ability to perform properly in the future
- the employee's signature – if the employee refuses, include a note on the signature line indicating your attempt to get the employee to sign and his/her refusal to do so

CHECKLIST PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE

In order to ensure effective action, follow these steps in exercising progressive discipline with an employee:

Before the Meeting

- Arrange to meet with the employee privately. Do not discipline an employee in public or in front of other workers.
- Prepare for the meeting by reviewing your notes and files about both the specific incident or problem in question and any past discipline taken, either verbal or written.

During the Meeting

- Explain to the employee why you've called the meeting if the employee doesn't know already.
- State the specific problem in terms of actual performance and desired performance.
- Review your progressive discipline policy/program with the employee, and explain what steps have been taken already and what the next step is.
- Give the employee a chance to respond, explain and defend his or her actions.
- Acknowledge the employee's story and be sure to include it in your notes of the discipline session.
- Tell the employee that you expect his or her behavior to change. Give specific examples and suggestions.
- Indicate your confidence in the employee's ability and willingness to change the behavior.
- Have the employee repeat back to you or otherwise confirm that he or she understands the problem and is clear on what changes are expected.
- Explain to the employee that you will write a memo summarizing the session as documentation.
- Reassure the employee that you value his or her work and that you want to work with the employee to make sure that he or she can continue to work at your business.

After the Meeting

- Using your notes from the session, write a memo or other documentation that summarizes the conversation.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- If a written warning has been issued, be sure to give the employee the opportunity to sign any documentation for the file.
- Give the employee a copy of the document no later than the end of the day following the conversation.
- If the employee has other supervisors, distribute copies to them, but emphasize that the information is confidential and not to be shared with anyone else.
- Monitor the employee's behavior and performance to make sure that the problem has been corrected.

EMPLOYEE CORRECTION FORM

The purpose of this form is to help both you and the company communicate about how the conduct that warranted your warning notice can be corrected so that it won't be repeated in the future. To that end, we seek your positive suggestions as well as any support or resources you feel you may need. Please use the back of this form or extra paper if needed.

Please briefly describe the circumstances which resulted in your receiving a warning notice:
Please describe what you feel needs to be done to make sure the conduct you were warned about will not be repeated:
Please describe any support or resources you need from your supervisor or this company to assist you with resolving this problem:
Please provide us with any other positive suggestions that you may have to correct this matter:

OBJECT: EMPLOYEE SUGGESTION FOR COMPANY MEETING

Dear [Contact name],

There is such a high degree of anxiety about [Describe] that I can see the effects in my department daily. I do not feel that the newsletter put out last week helped assuage the fears of the other employees. There is a schism between employees and management that appears to be growing and presents a potential problem. OBJECT: SEXUAL HARASSMENT COMPLAINT

Dear [Employee's Name],

This will confirm that we met with you on [Date], to discuss your allegations of possible sexual harassment by [Alleged harasser]. This letter explains what the Company policies, as well as state and federal law, require us to do once we receive such a complaint. [Company] does not ignore sexual harassment in the workplace and is committed to preventing, investigating and, when appropriate, taking disciplinary and other action in response to incidents of harassment. For these reasons, we consider your allegations to be serious.

Specifically, you alleged that the following events occurred:

[Describe]

Our harassment policy requires that we consider both parties' understanding of the events about which you complain. Accordingly, we plan to conduct an investigation regarding the allegations, and we plan to interview [The harasser] and other individuals who may have knowledge regarding these matters. We will do our best to conduct this investigation in as sensitive and confidential a manner as the circumstances allow, and will contact you and [The harasser] once that investigation is complete. If you have other allegations that are not reflected above, please inform us immediately so that we have complete information before conducting the investigation.

In the meantime, please be assured that you will not be retaliated against because you complained about sexual harassment, and that we will take appropriate action if we determine that harassment has occurred. In addition, it is in all parties' best interests that disclosure of the allegations be limited only to those individuals who have a need to know them. Enclosed with this letter is a copy of [Company]'s sexual harassment policy for your information.

If you have any questions, or can provide further facts regarding this matter, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

OBJECT: NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE UNQUALIFIED FOR CHRISTMAS BONUS

Dear [Contact name],

Each of our employees who has been with our firm for a period of six months or more receives a Christmas bonus. Since you became a member of our sales department on [Date], you will not be receiving a bonus this year.

I wanted to be sure that you understood this company policy prior to our disbursement of the holiday paychecks to avoid any misunderstanding or disappointment on your part.

We are very pleased with your work and while we would like to bend the rules, this would be unfair to all of our other personnel.

OBJECT: NOTICE OF BONUS CANCELLATION

Dear [Contact name],

This has been a difficult year for [Company]. I am sure that you all know that the loss of contracts with [Company], due to [Describe], hurt us substantially.

In [Month], we had a major decision to make. The question we were faced with was whether to let some of our employees go, or to explore all other possible avenues of cost reduction, keeping everyone's job intact. We chose the latter course. Unfortunately, one of the policies we were forced to eliminate for this year, was our annual Christmas bonus to each of our employees.

This will be the first year since [Year] that we will be unable to thank you in this special manner for your hard work, loyalty and faithfulness. We are all hoping that [Year] will be a prosperous year and that we will be able to reinstate our traditional Christmas bonus policy.

EMPLOYEE JOB & MOTIVATION IMPROVEMENT MEETING

Open the discussion by saying something like:

Thanks for coming to talk with me. What I'd like to talk about is employee morale. I want to make this job as fulfilling and satisfying for you as I can. Before I can do that, though, I need to know how you feel your job could be made more fulfilling or what other steps we can take to make you feel satisfied in your job.

At this point, if the employee has definite comments or feedback, let the employee talk. Maintain eye contact, take good notes and occasionally nod or smile to let the employee know that you're listening. If the employee doesn't seem to have anything to say right off the bat, or seems hesitant to comment, you might say something like:

I want you to know that I'm really interested in what you have to say, and I don't want you to feel uncomfortable giving criticism, if that's what's necessary. This isn't a trap, and I'm not going to get angry or retaliate for any criticism you might make. This is really a team process and we're on the same side. If it's OK with you, I'd like to go through some specific questions, and get your thoughts.

If you'd rather not do this now, let me know. We can reschedule a time to meet or you can jot some thoughts down on paper if you'd rather.

If the employee seems really uncomfortable or uninterested, you might conclude the session now. If the employee seems to want to continue participating, you could then go through a list of questions or topics and ask the employee to comment about them.

Here's a sample of some topics that might get your discussion going:

- The good and bad habits of supervisors and coworkers
- The employee's future at the company and how he or she feels about it
- The employee's workload and the distribution of work in general
- The employee's working conditions and how he or she feels they could be improved
- The employee's feelings about the importance of the work he or she does
- How employees get along with each other
- The condition of the equipment with which the employee must work
- The pay and benefits the employee receives and how they compare with other companies
- The consistency and fairness of the way employees are treated and disciplined

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- Whether the employee feels that supervisors and coworkers tell the employee what the employee needs to know
- The potential for growth/advancement
- The employee's experiences with and feelings about coaching and feedback
- The usefulness and appropriateness of instructions and training received
- The effectiveness of communication among coworkers and between workers and supervisors
- The attitude of the managers/owners toward the employees

You might ask the employee to respond to each of these topics. Be sure to take good notes. After the discussion, sum up by saying:

Thanks very much for taking the time to let me know how you feel. I appreciate your honesty, and I hope you'll feel free to come and talk to me if you have questions, suggestions, or additional comments.

Let the employee know what to expect:

After I conduct some more meetings with other employees, I'm going to look at this information and try to figure out ways that we can change things to make your job even more fulfilling and rewarding. I hope to have some information back to you within two weeks that will tell you where we'll go from here.

Thanks again.

OBJECT: LETTER OF ENCOURAGEMENT TO SALES STAFF

Dear [Contact name],

There are two sides to the story, two sides of a coin, and two ways to face the day. There are always the prophets of doom and the cynics who will be happy to lead their followers through long periods of drought and famine.

When an unfortunate individual starts blaming his own failures on others, and on conditions over which he has no control, he can usually forget about achieving his goals. There are good times and bad times, but at all times there are sales that are made and sales that are lost. You have all proven that you are not only capable, but excel as salesmen. I am proud of the accomplishments of our sales force and know that nothing can hold back the motivated individual who has an excellent product to sell.

In the months to come, I feel confident that you will persevere in a manner that will result in an increase in sales and commissions to each and every one of you that will far exceed our projections. The outlook for the coming year is brighter than it has been for some time. With a positive, assertive attitude, nothing can stop us!

Sincerely,

PERSONAL FLEXIBILITY SKILLS TEST

Are You Ready for Change?

These sample questions come from one of several tools that we use in our assessment and development programs. The focus of this particular tool is on development. Each of the questions represent different types of actions you must take in your career and/or job, and relates to the business situation you might use. Within each section (A, B, C, and D), read the questions and choose the one response which most closely describes your behavior. To receive results, you must respond to every section (a total of four sections). Your feedback results will be more accurate and helpful if you are as truthful as possible. If you rate yourself at or beyond the midpoint, "a 3, 4 or 5", on any section, you should be able to describe and document an example of how and when you performed the activity.

Maximum score of 20: (4 sections) X (5 points per section)

SECTION A: Willingness and Ability to Change your Position on Issues Points
1	I am usually willing to change my mind when the majority of the group disagrees with me.
2	I modify my stance on issues when doing so would benefit others with whom I am associated.
3	I stay informed of various positions and scenarios and make changes as they are needed.
4	I quickly modify my stance when there is new and valid information.
5	I maintain or alter my position by considering how information and resources apply to situations.

SECTION B: Willingness and Ability to Initiate Action
Points
1	In most situations I seek additional information before choosing a course of action.
2	I insist on finishing all currently scheduled tasks before initiating action on additional work.
3	In unfamiliar situations, I readily seek assistance before taking action.
4	In most situations, I initiate action with just the immediately available information and resources.
5	I willingly consider and examine different methods to accomplish objectives.

SECTION C: Willingness and Ability to Make Decisions
Points
1	In unfamiliar situations I reach conclusions only after thoroughly studying the available information and resources.
2	I reanalyze all available information when presented with new, valid perspectives.
3	In new situations, I act only after considering possible outcomes and preparing to deal with contingencies.
4	I readily seek alternatives to ensure that I can make valid decisions.
5	I maintain or alter decisions by considering how information and resources apply to situations.

SECTION D: Willingness and Ability to Work with Others
Points
1	In difficult situations I almost always find that it is best to take the path of least resistance.
2	I consider others' views once they can provide me with all possible information and resources.
3	I seek others' input to support my decisions or suggested changes.
4	I actively seek opportunities to neutralize or turnaround difficult challenges.
5	I frequently offer effective ideas to others despite possible resistance or risks.

TOTAL POINTS: _____

Based on your responses, your current readiness for change appears to be:

17-20: Congratulations! You are ready now to deal with all expected and most unexpected changes. This score places you at the Expert Level meaning that you are extremely effective at managing change and leading individual, team, and organization change processes. At this level you are quite capable of helping individuals and teams effectively respond to change. Although you have few development needs, you will benefit from efforts to find additional opportunities to extend your Personal Flexibility strengths. We hope that you will continue your self-guiding and learning process.

12-16: Solid Performance. You are ready now to deal with routine, expected changes. This score places you at the Experienced Level meaning that you are good at managing change and working effectively with individuals and teams to incorporate new processes within your area of responsibility or expertise. At this level you work confidently with others to adjust to new situations and to improve individual and team performance. You have some development needs but, with a persistent and focused developmental effort, you will see marked improvement and you will be ready to advance to the next level when the opportunity arises.

OBJECTION MY LORD

4-11: Significant Development Needs. You are ready now to learn more about dealing with expected and unexpected changes. This score places you at the Entry Level meaning that you have a ways to go before you are considered effective at managing change and working effectively with individuals, teams, and organizations in new programs and situations. At this level you work hard and focus on ensuring current work procedures are followed. However, you are more reactive than proactive in dealing with your work environment and market changes. Although you have many development needs, you will benefit from pinpointing one or two areas for development which will help you focus and achieve better results faster.

Note: If you scored yourself particularly high or low in any one of the four sections, you may want to validate this finding by asking your coworkers or staff to evaluate and document your performance using this same assessment tool. For example, if you scored yourself low in "Working with Others", ask your staff or team whether or not they perceive you as slow or unwilling to seek and consider their input when experiencing change. If they do not validate your self-evaluation, ask them to explain their evaluation or to give you more information.

Being ready for change is a CRITICAL SUCCESS FACTOR and is recognized as important for success in today's challenging and re-engineered work environment.

- If your total is above 25, you're ready to start a new business now.

CHECKLIST HARASSMENT INVESTIGATION

Getting the employee to describe the claim:

- Listen to the charge. Don't make comments like, "You're overreacting."
- Acknowledge that bringing a harassment complaint is a difficult thing to do.
- Maintain a professional attitude.
- Gather the facts; don't be judgmental.
- Ask who, what, when, where, why, and how. Find out if the employee is afraid of retaliation. How does the employee want the problem resolved?

Conducting an investigation of the claim—general rules to follow:

- Investigate immediately. Delaying or extending an investigation can make witness testimony increasingly unreliable.
- Remember that the manner in which the investigation is handled can itself furnish grounds for a hostile environment claim, so carefully document every step.
- Treat all claims seriously—even those that seem frivolous—until you have reason to do otherwise.
- Keep the investigation confidential. Emphasize to those involved that your discussions are not to be shared with unconcerned parties. Warn of possible disciplinary action, if necessary.
- Limit the number of persons who have access to the information. Communicate strictly on a "need to know" basis.
- Ask questions so that information is not unnecessarily disclosed. For example, instead of asking, "Did you see Paul touch Joan?" ask "Have you seen anyone touch Joan at work in a way that made her uncomfortable?" Remember—the purpose of the investigation is to gather facts, not disseminate allegations.
- If there is more than one allegation, treat each separately.
- To avoid defamation liability, never broadcast the facts of a given situation or the results as an example to others or as a training tool.

Interviewing the complainant (Can be done when employee first reports charge):

- Get specific details. Find out what the complainant wants.
- Find out whether there was a pattern of previous episodes or similar behavior toward another employee.
- Get the specific context in which the conduct occurred. Where? What time?
- Determine the effect of the conduct on the complainant. Was it economic, non-economic and/or psychological?
- Determine the time relationship between the occurrence of the conduct, its effect on the complainant, and the time when the complainant made the report.
- Prepare a detailed chronology.

- Analyze whether there might have been certain events that triggered the complaint, i.e., promotion, pay or transfer denial.
- Determine whether there were any possible motives on the part of the complainant.
- Explain to the complainant that the charges are serious, that you will conduct a thorough investigation before reaching any conclusion, and that he or she will not be retaliated against for making the complaint.
- Don't make any statements about the accused employee's character, job performance, family life.

Interviewing the accused:

- Obtain a statement from the accused.
- Identify the relationship of the accused to the complainant.
- Was there any prior consensual relationship between the parties? How long have they known each other? Is there a history of group or individual socializing?
- If the individual was a supervisor, indicate the individual's job title, obtain a copy of the individual's job description, and determine the individual's specific duties at the time of the alleged harassment.
- Determine whether the accused directed, or had responsibility for the work of other employees or the complainant, had authority to recommend employment decisions affecting others or was responsible for the maintenance or administration of the records of others.
- You can expect the accused to deny the charges. Observe the reaction. Note whether there is surprise, anger, or disbelief. Describe the details of the allegation and note the areas of disagreement between the testimony of both parties. If the accused denies the allegations, probe further to determine with the accused the background, reasons, and motivation that could possibly trigger the complaint.

Interviewing witnesses:

- Obtain statements from any witnesses who support or deny any of the complainant's allegations. Be aware that witnesses are often reluctant to come forward out of fear of reprisal.
- Assure all witnesses that their cooperation is important, that their testimony is confidential and that they will not be retaliated against for testifying.

Resolving the complaint:

- Apologize for the incident occurring, if that is appropriate.
- When attempting to remedy the conduct, avoid requiring the claimant to work less desirable hours or in a less desirable location. If you offer to transfer the complainant, try to get the complainant's consent and make sure the transfer position is substantially similar to the complainant's prior position. This helps ensure that the complainant is not being illegally punished for reporting discrimination or harassment.
- Consider the severity, frequency and pervasiveness of the conduct when imposing discipline on the harasser. There are several disciplinary options available, including:
 - oral and written warning
 - reprimand

OBJECTION MY LORD

- suspension
 - probation
 - transfer
 - demotion
 - discharge
- When imposing discipline on the accused, any forms of discipline short of discharge should be accompanied by a warning that similar misconduct in the future may result in immediate discharge. If no discipline is imposed, document the reasons why.
 - Provide remedial counseling and training on sexual harassment, if appropriate. Also take the opportunity to re-communicate your policy.
 - Carefully and fully document the investigation, the discipline imposed, and any remedial steps taken.
 - Conduct follow-up interviews with the parties to inform them of the company's actions.

CHECKLIST: DOCUMENTS TO KEEP IN EMPLOYEES' PERSONNEL FILE

Some or all of the following documents should be maintained in an employee's personnel file. It is generally recommend that personnel file, payroll and other records be maintained for 3 years after employment. Other health and safety records should be maintained for 5 years.

- Resume
- Letters of Reference
- Employment Application
- Interview Record

MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

Our company greatly values its relationships with its employees. We realize that no matter how hard we may try, an occasional breakdown in the relationship may occur. The purpose of this Mediation and Arbitration Agreement is to help avoid the time, expense and emotions associated with dragging our problems through the litigation system.

1. Agreement to Mediate

You and the Company agree to first attempt a mediation of any dispute covered by this Agreement. Mediation is a non-binding process allowing the parties to resolve claims without extensive cost, time and emotion. This mediation shall be conducted pursuant to the Rules and Procedures of the American Arbitration Association for the resolution of employment disputes, or as otherwise stipulated by the parties.

The parties agree to make a good faith effort at mediating any dispute prior to filing a claim for arbitration.

2. Agreement to Arbitrate; Designated Claims

The parties agree that all references to the "Company" in this Agreement shall include and all of its subsidiary and affiliated entities, including all former, current and future officers, directors and employees of all such entities, in their capacity as such or otherwise; all benefit plans and their sponsors, fiduciaries, administrators, affiliates and agents, in their capacity as such and otherwise; and all successors and assigns of any of them. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Company and the Employee hereby consent to the resolution by binding arbitration of all claims or controversies for which a federal or state court or other dispute resolution body otherwise would be authorized to grant relief, whether or not arising out of, relating to or associated with the Employee's employment with the Company, that the Employee may have against the Company or that the Company may have against the Employee.

Claims covered by this Agreement include, but are not limited to, claims for wages or other compensation due; claims for breach of any contract or covenant, express or implied; tort claims; claims for discrimination or harassment on bases which include but are not limited to race, sex, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, age, marital status, disability or medical condition; claims for benefits, except as excluded in paragraph 6; and claims for violation of any federal, state or other governmental constitution, statute, ordinance, regulation, or public policy including but not limited to [LAWS/CODE/ACT] and their [STATE/PROVINCE] equivalents. The purpose and effect of this Agreement is to substitute arbitration as the forum for resolution of the Claims; all responsibilities of the parties under the statutes applicable to the Claims shall be enforced. We both understand and agree that we are entering into this Agreement voluntarily, and that this Agreement provides for the waiver of our respective rights to a trial by jury on the claims covered by this Agreement.

3. Neutral Mediator or Arbitrator

Any mediation or arbitration of disputes shall be conducted by a neutral mediator/arbitrator.

4. Governing Law

All arbitrations covered by this Agreement shall be adjudicated in accordance with the state or federal law that would be applied by a [COUNTRY] sitting at [the place of the hearing].

5. Location of Arbitration

The parties agree that any dispute shall be held in the [Place] pursuant to its [Rules for Arbitration Employment Disputes.]

6. Rights

Please understand that by signing this agreement, and except for those matters excluded, the Employee and Company waives any right that it, he or she may possess to have employment related disputes litigated in a court or by jury trial.

7. Claims Not Covered by This Agreement

This Agreement does not apply to or cover claims for workers' compensation or unemployment compensation benefits; claims resulting from the default of any obligation of the Company or the Employee under a loan agreement; claims for injunctive and/or other equitable relief for intellectual property violations, unfair competition and/or the use and/or unauthorized disclosure of trade secrets or confidential information; or claims based upon an employee pension or benefit plan that either (1) contains an arbitration or other non-judicial resolution procedure, in which case the provisions of such plan shall apply, or (2) is underwritten by a commercial insurer which decides claims. If either the Company or the Employee has more than one claim against the other, one or more of which is not covered by this Agreement, such claims shall be determined separately in the appropriate forum for resolution of those claims. Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude the parties from agreeing to resolve claims other than Claims covered by this Agreement pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

8. Statute of Limitations

Any claim governed by this Agreement shall be filed no later than one year from the date of discovery, or one year from the last date employment, which ever comes first.

9. Initiation of Mediation Process

Employee or Company can initiate the mediation process by filing a Request for Mediation with [Human resources, corporate counsel, etc.]

10. Initiation of the Arbitration Process

To initiate the arbitration process, the aggrieved party must file a written Claim. Claims can be filed with the office of [Name]. Service of the Claim upon the responding party shall be made in accordance with Procedures. Copies of the Rules for Arbitration are available upon request from the Human Resources Department in each of the Company's major facilities and from each of the Regional Offices, as well as from [Name] offices.

11. Arbitration Procedures

Arbitrations pursuant to this Agreement shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures set forth in [Rules for Arbitration], except where the Rules conflict with this Agreement, in which case the terms of this Agreement shall govern.

12. Representation

Each party may be represented by an attorney at any mediation or arbitration covered by this Agreement.

13. Fees and Costs

The Company will pay reasonable costs for up to two alternative dispute resolution procedures during a [NUMBER]-month period beginning [DATE]. All other arbitration costs shall be shared equally by the Company and the Employee. Each party shall pay for each party's attorneys' fees and costs, if any. However, the arbitrator may, in his or her discretion, permit the prevailing party to recover fees and cost to the extent permitted by applicable law.

14. Discovery

OBJECTION MY LORD

The parties shall be entitled to engage in reasonable discovery in the form of requests for documents, interrogatories, requests for admission, physical and/or mental examinations and depositions, in order to obtain information necessary to prosecute or defend the claims brought. Any disputes between the parties regarding the nature or scope of discovery shall be resolved by the Arbitrator(s) in his or her discretion.

15. Written Award

The Arbitrator shall issue a written award, setting forth the award and basis therefore. The award shall be final and binding upon the parties. The Arbitrator shall have the power to award any type of relief that would be available in court of competent jurisdiction. In addition, the Arbitrator shall have the authority to order any party found to have presented any claim or defense without substantial justification to pay the other party's attorney's fees and costs. Any award may be entered as judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction.

16. Motions

The arbitrator will have the authority to grant motions dispositive of all or part of any claim pursuant to the [Rules for Arbitration of Employment Law Disputes.]

17. Exclusive Remedy

For Claims covered by this Agreement, arbitration is the parties' exclusive legal remedy. The arbitrator has exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the applicability or enforceability of this Agreement. The decision of an arbitrator on any Claims submitted to arbitration as provided by this Agreement shall be in writing setting forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law and the reasons supporting the decision and shall be final and binding upon the parties, except that both parties shall have the right to appeal to the appropriate court any errors of law in the decision rendered by the arbitrator.

18. Consideration

In addition to any other consideration, each party's promise to resolve Claims by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, rather than through the courts or other bodies, is consideration for the other party's like promise. So too is the Employer's willingness to pay costs of the procedure as set forth in paragraph 13.

19. Not an Employment Agreement

This Agreement is not, and shall not be construed to create, any contract of employment, express or implied, nor shall this Agreement be construed in any way to change the status of the Employee from that of at-will employment.

20. Term, Modification, and Revocation

This Agreement shall survive the employer-employee relationship between the Company and the Employee and shall apply to any covered Claim whether it arises or is asserted during or after termination of the Employee's employment with the Company or the expiration of any benefit plan. This Agreement can be modified or revoked only by a writing signed by the Employee and an executive officer of the Company that references this Agreement and specifically states an intent to modify or revoke this Agreement.

21. Severability

A court construing this Agreement may modify, or interpret it in order to render it enforceable. If this Agreement is declared unenforceable and cannot be administered, interpreted, or modified to be enforceable, the parties agree to waive any right to a jury trial with respect to any dispute to which this Agreement applies. If any provision of this Agreement or the Code is adjudged to be void or otherwise unenforceable, in whole or in part, such adjudication shall not affect the validity of the remainder of the Agreement or the Code.

22. Sole and Entire Agreement

This is the complete agreement of the parties on the subject of arbitration of disputes, except for any arbitration provision contained in any pension or benefit plan. This Agreement supersedes any prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreement or understanding on the subject. In executing this Agreement, neither party is relying on any representation, oral or written, on the subject of the effect, enforceability or meaning of this Agreement except as specifically set forth in this Agreement.

EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT ACKNOWLEDGES CAREFULLY READING THIS AGREEMENT, UNDERSTANDING ITS TERMS, AND ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT VOLUNTARILY AND NOT IN RELIANCE ON ANY PROMISES OR REPRESENTATIONS OTHER THAN THOSE CONTAINED IN THIS AGREEMENT ITSELF.

EACH PARTY FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES HAVING THE OPPORTUNITY TO DISCUSS THIS AGREEMENT WITH PERSONAL LEGAL COUNSEL AND HAS USED THAT OPPORTUNITY TO THE EXTENT DESIRED.

WITNESS STATEMENT FORM

As anyone in business you want to offer a stimulating, creative, respectful, friendly, and fun work environment that encourages ideas, diversity of thought, hard work, uncompromising product quality, and dedication to providing good value and good service to every customer. It is important to thoroughly investigate any claim of harassment, discrimination, or violations of law or company policy. It is also important to obtain witness statements during the course of your investigation that can be used later on in a court of law if necessary. To this end, any witness statement, in order to be used in lieu of testimony, must contain a declaration under oath, pursuant to the penalty of perjury. You may also consider having the statement notarized. You should also consider consulting an attorney prior to conducting any investigation or interview.

Be sure to obtain witness statements of employees while they are still under your employ. Very often, an employee will view the facts related to a claim differently once they leave your company. Make sure to place the statement in a work product protected file created in anticipation of possible litigation. The file should be marked Confidential and not be placed with the employee's personnel file. If you are ever notified of an actual claim being filed you should immediately forward the work product file to your attorneys.

Make sure that the employee's understanding on the following subject areas is set forth: background with the alleged violator and/or claimant; background with any other essential witnesses; physical proximity to the alleged incidences; understanding as to claimant's concerns; awareness of facts, documents or persons related to the claimant's concerns; and additional facts not originally addressed by the claimant, including the facts, documents and persons related to the additional facts. You will find on the next page all the steps to write a good witness statement form.

HOW TO WRITE A WITNESS STATEMENT FORM

I, [Employee Name], hereby declare as follows:

The following is a list of subject areas that should be addressed in any Witness Statement. Use a separate paragraph for each essential fact, document or statement:

[Employee Name]

[Date of Statement]

[Employee's Title/Position]

[Date of Incident]

[Principals Involved in Incident]

[Employee's Statement Re: Relationship to Principals]

[Names of Other Essential Witnesses]

[Employee's Statement Re: Relationship with Essential Witnesses]

[Understanding as to Claimant's Concerns]

[Awareness of Facts, Documents or Persons related to Claimant's Concerns]

[Additional Facts not Originally Addressed by the Claimant, Including the Facts, Documents and Persons Related to the Additional Facts]

The following is a sample statement regarding documents or other materials used to support the witness' statement:

TELECOMMUTING SITE WORKSHEET

This worksheet should be completed before setting up your employee's office space. Ideally, the adequacy of the work space must be determined between you and the employees. The success of the telecommuting arrangement depends on the assessment of the work space and the ability of your employee to successfully complete the required work in this environment.

Tasks	Yes	No
Does the space seem adequately ventilated?
Is the space reasonably quiet?
Are all stairs with 4 or more steps equipped with handrails?
Are all circuit breakers and/or fuses in the electrical panel labeled as to intended service?
Do circuit breakers clearly indicate if they are in open or closed position?
Is all electrical equipment free of recognized hazards that would cause physical harm (frayed wires, bare conductors, loose wires, flexible wires running through walls, exposed wires fixed to the ceiling)?
Are electrical outlets pronged (grounded)?
Are aisles, doorways, and corners free of obstructions to permit visibility and movement?
Are file cabinets and storage closets arranged so drawers and doors do not open into walkways?
Do chairs appear sturdy?
Is the space crowded with furniture?
Are the phone lines, electrical cords, and extension wires secured under a desk or alongside a baseboard?
Is the office space neat and clean?
Are floor surfaces clean, dry, level, and free of worn or frayed seams?
Are carpets well secured to the floor and free of frayed or worn seams?
Is there a fire extinguisher in the home, easily accessible from the office space?
Is there a working (test) smoke detector within hearing distance of the work space?
The employee agrees to arrange for an energy audit of the home by the local utility company and fire safety inspection by the local fire department within 30 days of the signing of this agreement, provided they can be accomplished free of charge.
We agree that in our opinion this is an acceptable home office space that allows the employee a reasonable opportunity to meet the job requirements as a telecommuter.

PEER IMPROVEMENT FORM

One of this company's key values is constant improvement. By communicating and sharing the knowledge that all of us have regarding our jobs, clients, customers and other stakeholders, we can learn from each other to create a long-term profitability and a pleasant, even exciting work environment.

This form asks how a fellow employee can improve their value to this company, and likewise how you or the company can improve your value to that employee. A full range of subject areas are covered. After the subject area headings, you will be given an example of some of the sub-categories that can be considered in formulating your response. Do not consider this a limitation, but merely as an example. Some areas may have little or no application to the employee being reviewed.

For each of the subject areas listed, please indicate how the employee, company, or you can improve or add value to this employee's performance in that particular subject area. For example, you may say that John can "improve his communication skills by listening better and by speaking louder, especially during group meetings." Or, you may say that John, who is an engineer, can improve his customer services skills by "establishing a better relationship with the sales team by having monthly meetings." Or you may say that "John can help bring in new clients by giving speeches on how to protect computer access." In the last example, you may also add that "the company can support John's effort by allowing him to use some of the audio-visual equipment maintained by the sales department."

Be honest, positive, understanding and most of all, think about how the employee can improve. Try not to be vague. Cite specific suggestions and examples. If you believe the employee has shortcomings, focus on the conduct, not on the person.

Should you have any questions about the use of this form, please don't hesitate to contact your supervisor or the human resources department. You are to turn in this form within two weeks from today.

OBJECTION MY LORD

ANSWER KEY

- 1. B Quid pro quo harassment can include everything from the “casting couch” to subtle implications or promotion of favoritism in exchange for sexual favors.
- 2. D Many individuals, courts and juries will differ on whether or not these statements constitute sexual harassment. The point is, there are no hard and fast guidelines. Sexual harassment is viewed from a “reasonable woman” standard, and is open to wide interpretation.
- 3. B In a recent U.S. Supreme Court case, the court ruled that it was not necessary for a plaintiff to claim serious psychological injury to support a sexual harassment claim.
- 4. A The answer is true. The victim’s behavior is viewed from a “reasonable woman standard.” For example, if a claimant “overreacts” to an item that she considers to be sexually hostile, she cannot claim discrimination if it is “unreasonable” for her to do so.
- 5. A This can be considered sexual harassment if Julie had a reasonable belief that Mike was interested in her and to refuse could result in negative consequences related to her job. If an employee’s job requires after work client contact, meetings and dinners, state that specifically in their job description.
- 6. B Marcy cannot claim sexual harassment because she was not offended by Bob’s conduct.
- 7. A The fact that Bob’s conversation was intended solely for Marcy does not insulate the company from a claim by Carla.
- 8. A Companies can be held responsible for sexual harassment even if they did not know about it! The amount of exposure will differ considerably based on efforts made to avoid sexual harassment in the first place.
- 9. E Sexual harassers come in all forms, shapes and sizes. For example, a company which allows its customers or vendors to constantly flirt with the receptionist, despite her having expressed her discomfort with the activity, can open itself up to a sexual harassment claim.
- 10. E Sexual harassment can come in any form. The only issue is whether or not it is considered to be offensive, severe, pervasive, etc., by a “reasonable woman” standard.

OBJECT: ABOUT YOUR REQUEST FOR A LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

Dear [Contact name],

I was flattered to receive your call last week requesting a letter of recommendation.

Your skills as a [Function] are, I'm sure, very strong. Our association, of course, has been as [Function] for [Organization/Association]. In this capacity I could certainly vouch for your skills in the art of persuasion.

Yet we haven't always agreed on all issues; most recently, our views on [Specify] could not be more different. In light of especially this recent issue, I worry that I could provide a letter that displays no evidence of our conflict.

The bottom line, [Contact name], is that I believe you'd be better served to request such a letter from someone with whom you are not currently experiencing such a difference of opinion.

Good luck to you in your job search.

Sincerely,

CHECKLIST FOR PRE-LAYOFF GUIDELINES

Before considering a layoff or downsizing you should plan to address the following checklist:

- Prepare a layoff policy if you don't already have one. Emphasis on the importance of objective factors like company needs, financials, seniority, past work performance, anticipated needs for skills and experience, and compliance with laws. Create a "ranking" process using these factors, and follow it consistently through a form-based approach.
- Ask your lawyer and review team to analyze your Reduction in Force (RIF) procedure before and after it is implemented.
- Consider hiring an industrial relations statistician to review a RIF decision before they are implemented to prevent disparate impact discrimination claims.
- Analyze possible alternatives to downsizing such as wage reduction, benefit reduction, and elimination of overtime. Approach your employees and find out if they can think of new ways to generate business. Look for old projects that can be expanded or old clients that can be reactivated.
- Increase company communications including company and individual expectations, benchmarks, guidelines, and feedback mechanisms.
- Be open with information. Share your financial position with your employees through open book management.
- Assist those who will be leaving through severance packages, out-placement opportunities, consulting agreements, counseling services, employee assistance programs, etc.
- Offer early retirement or voluntary resignation with a severance package. If you want employees to stay beyond a certain date, state that the severance will be paid only if employees stay through that date. Require the signing of a release as consideration for any severance package.
- Offer counseling services for those who stay.
- Prepare an information sheet to hand out to employees explaining the layoff or downsizing process. Consider a question-and-answer approach.
- Restructure the organization. Involve your employees and create flexibility, performance agreements, and a compensation system that is based on the value contributed by each employee. Downsizing without restructuring is a formula for disaster!

OBJECTION MY LORD

- Avoid claims and litigation by departing employees through separation agreements, and a strict adherence to company guidelines. Be particularly sensitive to older workers, long term employees, women, and minorities.
- Remember that there is a cycle of change and loss that applies to the workplace as well as the home life. That cycle is denial, anger, bargaining, depression, and eventual acceptance.
- Use a grievance system, ombudsman or hotline program to handle complaints of unfairness.
- Provide departing employees with required handouts and pamphlets related to continued medical benefits and unemployment rights.
- Celebrate the emergence of the new company!

CHECKLIST: PRE-TERMINATION

Consider the following points prior to the termination of any employee. Obviously, not all items will apply to all employees or all circumstances but following this checklist will ensure you are not missing on important matters.

Find out if the termination is the fault of the employee or the system. If the latter, termination may not solve the problem and may lead to litigation, lowered morale and employee and customer defection.

Ensure that the employee's personnel file has been reviewed and there is proper documentation supporting the termination decision, including investigation, warnings and witness statements.

Any company policies and procedures violated by the employee are reasonably related to the operation of the business or the employee's job performance.

The termination procedure follows company policies and procedures.

Other employees have been treated similarly under the same or similar circumstances.

The employee has been subjected to progressive discipline where warranted.

If the employee is within a protected class, discriminatory motives have been ruled out.

All employee complaints have been fully investigated and the recommended termination is not the result of retaliation for communicating any grievance, claim or complaint.

Before recommending termination, have you considered: restructuring the job; moving the employee's work location; a demotion; a transfer; new supervision; leave without pay; referral to an employee assistance program; voluntary resignation; or other alternatives?

There are no implied, written or oral contracts with this employee governing the termination decision.

The termination has been independently reviewed and approved by the Human Resources Department or another third party.

Written notice of termination has been prepared.

A plan has been adopted for informing the employee of their termination in a brief and dignified manner.

You have considered consulting an employment attorney prior to the termination decision.

CHECKLIST WHEN SHOULD YOU FIRE AN EMPLOYEE?

These items are not meant to be determining factors in releasing an employee. Rather, they are listed as items to consider in determining the value or contribution of the employee to your organization. If you answer "yes" to many of these questions about your employee, you should think about how much or how little this employee is doing for your business.

- Constantly sidesteps problems that consistently happen.
- Blames others (including yourself) when things go wrong.
- Allows criticism of the company to go unchallenged
- Doesn't worry about when he/she is consistently late for work or meetings.
- Postpone completion of projects as long as possible.
- Avoids seeking clarification of misunderstands so he/she can criticize later.
- Never volunteers for an assignment when not absolutely certain of success.
- Does not worry about deadlines.
- Maintains same sources of information and bases decisions on opinions rather than facts.
- Tries to be as worry free as possible.
- Transfers or releases good people who disagree with him or her.
- Sees delegating as a way of getting rid of unpleasant chores.
- Keeps busy on current projects and is uncomfortable about future planning.
- Allows someone else to do his or her recruiting and selection.
- Tends to criticize others in public rather than in private.
- Is insulated from contact with subordinates.
- Frequently tries to let you know how much you depend on him/her everyday.
- Is not concerned about promotable people if they might take his or her place.
- Is uncomfortable when he or she must depend on subordinates to provide answers.
- Concentrates efforts on preferred tasks rather than on those he or she likes to do least.
- Compliments you frequently, even when a reason must be created.
- Downplays the competence of other people.
- Takes as few risks as possible.
- Waits as long as possible before delivering bad news.
- Limits efforts to "on-the-job" hours; rarely takes work home.
- Resists signing up for self-improvement programs not paid for by the company.
- Joins in conversations about the "good old days" as often as possible.
- Talks a lot about how difficult it is to measure his or her job.
- Hides talented people to further his or her own career.

OBJECT: ANNOUNCEMENT OF A LAYOFF

Dear [Contact name],

Unfortunately, and unexpectedly, [Company] was not awarded the contract for the [Product/service] for which, until recently, we thought we were a shoe-in. The customer preferred [Product/service] from [Competitor] because of [Specify]. We could not certify [Specify] and lost the contract on that basis.

Because that contract was projected to be a significant part of our total revenue over the next two to three years, we are enforcing a hiring freeze effective immediately and may be looking at layoffs for up to [%] of the staff within the coming months. At this time, we do not know for certain how many and which employees will be affected by the layoff. However, we want employees to be aware of this potential problem and to plan accordingly. Supervisors will be kept informed and will communicate the status of the situation to employees on a regular basis. Employees having concerns about employment status should see me or their supervisors.

Sincerely,

SEPARATION AND RELEASE AGREEMENT

This Separation and Release Agreement ("Agreement") is made and effective this [Date],

BETWEEN: [Employee NAME] (the "Employee"), an individual with his main address at:

AND: [Company NAME] (the "Company"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the [STATE/PROVINCE], with its head office located at:

Recitals

Employee is a former employee of the Company and the Parties wish to resolve any claim by Employee against the Company and all other existing differences completely and amicably, without litigation. Employee acknowledges that the payment to him under this Agreement is being made for the sole purpose of avoiding the uncertainties, vexations and expense of litigation.

The Parties represent that they have been advised about the Agreement by their respective counsel, are competent to enter into it, fully understand its terms and consequences, and enter into it knowingly and voluntarily.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the above recitals and the mutual promises and conditions contained in this Agreement, the Parties agree as follows:

1. No Admission

This Agreement is entered in connection with the compromise of disputed claims. Neither this Agreement nor any action or acts taken in connection with this Agreement or pursuant to it will constitute an admission by Company or any other person or entity of any violation of law, nor will it constitute or be construed as an admission of any wrongdoing whatsoever. In fact, Company, its officers, employees, agents and representatives specifically deny committing any unlawful act against Employee at any time.

2. Payment

Within three (3) days after execution of this Agreement, and in consideration for the promises and covenants contained herein, Company will cause to be delivered to counsel for Employee a check in the amount of [amount]. Except for this payment, Employee acknowledges and agrees that he is entitled to receive no other payments, benefits, or compensation from Company. Employee represents that there are no outstanding advances or other sums due to Company from Employee.

3. Tax

Appropriate tax deductions shall be made by the Company from the payment made under Section 2.

4. Release

Employee, on behalf of himself and his representatives, spouse, agents, heirs and assigns, releases and discharges Company and Company's former, current or future officers, employees, representatives, agents, fiduciaries, attorneys, directors, shareholders, insurers, predecessors, parents, affiliates, benefit plans, successors, heirs, and assigns from any and all claims, liabilities, causes of action, damages, losses, demands or obligations of every kind and nature, whether now known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which Employee ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall or may have for, upon or by reason of any act, transaction, practice, conduct, matter, cause or thing of any kind whatsoever, relating to or based upon, in whole or in part, any act, transaction, practice or conduct prior to the date hereof, including but not limited to matters dealing with Employee's employment or termination of employment with the Company, or which relate in any way to injuries or damages suffered by Employee (knowingly or unknowingly). This release and discharge includes, but is not limited to, [specify law], claims arising under federal, state and local statutory or common law, including, but not limited to, [specify law], claims for wrongful discharge under any public policy or any policy of the Company, claims for breach of fiduciary duty, and the laws of contract and tort; and any claim for attorney's fees. Employee promises never to file a lawsuit or assist in or commence any action asserting any claims, losses, liabilities, demands, or obligations released hereunder.

5. Known or Unknown Claims

The Parties understand and expressly agree that this Agreement extends to all claims of every nature and kind, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, past, present, or future, arising from or attributable to any conduct of the Company and its successors, subsidiaries, and affiliates, and all their employees, owners, shareholders, agents, officers, directors, predecessors, assigns, agents, representatives, and attorneys, whether known by Employee or whether or not Employee believes he may have any claims, and that any and all rights granted to Employee under [law] or any analogous state law or federal law or regulations, are hereby expressly WAIVED, if applicable. Said Section [name] of [law] reads as follows:

[retype paragraph]

6. Non-Disclosure

Employee and his counsel represent that they have not disclosed the terms of this Agreement to anyone other than Employee's spouse. Employee, his counsel and Employee's spouse agree to keep the terms of the Agreement, including the fact that a payment was made to Employee and the amount of such payment, strictly confidential and, unless required by court order or other law, will not disclose such information without the prior written permission of the Company to anyone except Employee's attorneys or tax advisors, if any, but only after informing those persons that they too must keep the information confidential. If asked about the status of the dispute between the Parties, Employee, his counsel and Employee's spouse may state only that "the matter has been resolved" or words to that effect, but will not otherwise disclose any information about this Agreement or its terms. Because a breach of this confidentiality paragraph would cause Company damages that are impracticable or too difficult to fix, in the event of such a breach, Employee shall be liable to Company for liquidated damages in the amount of [amount] for each breach, plus any attorneys' fees and costs owed pursuant to Section 18 herein and any equitable relief.

7. Employer property and trade secrets

Employee will return to Company any and all of its property and documents which he or she may have in his or her possession . including, but not limited to, documents, equipment, tools, computers, customer lists, correspondence, handbooks, manual reports, plans, projects, drawings, marketing materials, software, tapes, phones, cars, keys, security devices, inventions, formulas, and proprietary information within [days] from the execution of this Agreement.

8. No Future Employment

OBJECTION MY LORD

Employee promises not to seek employment or any other business relationship at any time in the future with Company or any of its parents or affiliates and he forsakes any right to be employed or to have any other business relationship in the future with Company or any of its parents or affiliates.

9. Non Solicitation of Clients and Customers

The Employee, on behalf of himself or herself, their agents and assigns, agrees that, for a period of [NUMBER] year following the execution of this Agreement, or so long as Company is in operation, whichever is less, he or she will not, for any reason whatsoever, directly or indirectly solicit the clients or customers of Company, without the written permission of Company. The Parties agree that any breach of this provision is a material breach of this Agreement.

10. Non Solicitation of Employees

The Employee, on behalf of himself or herself, his or her agents and assigns, agrees that for a period of [NUMBER] year following the execution of this Agreement, or so long as Company is in operation and in good standing, whichever is less, he or she will not, directly or indirectly, recruit any of the employees of Company then employed by Company for the purpose of employment in any outside business. The Parties acknowledge that any breach of this provision is a material breach of this Agreement.

11. No Disparagement

Employee agrees not to disparage Company or any of its officers, employees, agents or representatives and will not knowingly say or do anything that would have an adverse impact on Company.

12. References

In response to any request to Company from any prospective employer for an employment reference regarding Employee, the Company shall provide only Employee's dates of employment and final job title.

13. No admission of wrongdoing

This agreement shall not in any way be construed as an admission by the released Parties of any acts of wrongdoing whatsoever against Employee or any other person.

14. Further Documents

Each party agrees to execute or cause their counsel to execute any additional documents and take any further action which may reasonably be required in order to consummate this Agreement or otherwise fulfill the obligations of the Parties there under.

15. Dispute

Should a dispute arise concerning this Agreement or its performance, such dispute shall be resolved, at the election of the party seeking to enforce the Agreement, either by court action, or by binding arbitration administered by the [association/organization] under its commercial dispute resolution rules. If arbitration is initiated, the arbitration shall be held in [City], [State/province].

16. Modification and Waiver

Any modifications to this Agreement must be in writing and signed by duly authorized representatives of each of the Parties and must be expressly state that it is the intention of each of the Parties hereto to amend the Agreement.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

No breach of any provision of this Agreement shall be deemed waived unless the waiver is in writing signed by a duly authorized representative of the waiving party. Waiver of any one breach shall not be deemed a waiver of any other breach of the same or any other provision of this Agreement.

17. Construction

This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the [State/province]. The language of this Agreement shall be construed as to its fair meaning and not for or against either party.

18. Attorneys' Fees

Should any action be brought by any party to this Agreement to enforce any provision thereof, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover, in addition to any other relief, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and expenses of litigation or arbitration.

19. Integration

This Agreement constitutes an integration of the entire understanding and agreement of the Parties with respect to the matters referred to in this Agreement. Any representation, warranty, promise or condition, whether written or oral, between the Parties with respect to the matters referred to in this Agreement which is not specifically incorporated in this Agreement shall not be binding upon any of the Parties hereto and the Parties acknowledge that they have not relied, in entering into this Agreement, upon any representations, warranties, promises or conditions not specifically set forth in this Agreement. No prior or contemporaneous oral or written understanding, covenant, or agreement between the Parties, with respect to the matters referred to in this Agreement, shall survive the execution of this Agreement. Each party hereto assumes the risk of misrepresentation, concealment or mistake, and if any party should subsequently discover that any fact relied upon in entering into this Agreement was untrue, or that any fact was concealed from it, or that its understanding of the facts or law was incorrect, it shall not be entitled to set aside this Agreement by reason thereof. This Agreement may be modified only by a written agreement executed by both Parties hereto.

20. Binding Agreement

The Parties understand and expressly agree that this Agreement shall bind and benefit (as applicable) the heirs, employees, owners, officers, shareholders, directors, subsidiaries, spouses, affiliates, successors, predecessors, agents, witnesses, attorneys, representatives, and assigns of the Company and Employee.

21. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts and when each party has signed and delivered at least one such counterpart, each counterpart shall be deemed an original and all counterparts taken together shall constitute one and the same Agreement, which shall be binding and effective as to all Parties.

22. Headings

Headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and are not a part of the substance hereof.

23. Time for Acceptance and Revocation

OBJECTION MY LORD

If required by applicable law, Employee shall have up to [NUMBER] days from the date this Agreement is presented to Employee to accept the terms of this Agreement, although Employee may accept it at any time within those [NUMBER] days. If required by applicable law, after acceptance, Employee will still have an additional [NUMBER] days in which to revoke his acceptance. To so revoke, Employee must send the Company a written statement or revocation to be received by the Company by the end of the seventh day.

24. Statements to unemployment board and to others

Company agrees that it will not contest Employee’s application for unemployment insurance benefits. Notwithstanding this agreement, however, Company reserves the right to truthfully furnish information requested by the unemployment board or any other agency and to rebut false or misleading information submitted by the Employee, whether requested to do so or not.

25. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect, except that, should paragraphs 4, 5 or 6 be held invalid, void or unenforceable, either jointly or separately, as a result of any action by Employee, Company shall be entitled to rescind the Agreement and/or recover from Employee any benefits provided to her under Section 2 above.

Parties each hereby execute this Agreement as of [Date].

BY-LAWS OF [CORPORATION]

These By-Laws of [CORPORATION] (the “Agreement”) are made and effective [DATE].

1. CORPORATE OFFICES

1.1. Principal Office

The Board of Directors shall fix the location of the principal executive office of the corporation at any place within or outside the State of [STATE/PROVINCE]. If the principal executive office is located outside [STATE/PROVINCE] and the corporation has one or more business offices in [STATE/PROVINCE], then the Board of Directors shall fix and designate a principal business office in [STATE/PROVINCE].

1.2. Other Offices

The Board of Directors may at any time establish branch or subordinate offices at any place or places.

2. MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

2.1. Place Of Meetings

Meetings of shareholders shall be held at any place within or outside the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] designated by the Board of Directors. In the absence of any such designation, shareholders' meetings shall be held at the principal executive office of the corporation or at any place consented to in writing by all persons entitled to vote at such meeting, given before or after the meeting and filed with the Secretary of the corporation.

2.2. Annual Meeting

An annual meeting of shareholders shall be held each year on a date and at a time designated by the Board of Directors. At that meeting, directors shall be elected. Any other proper business may be transacted at the annual meeting of shareholders.

2.3. Special Meetings

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time, subject to the provisions of Sections 2.4 and 2.5 of these By-Laws, by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the President or the holders of shares entitled to cast not less than [%] of the votes at that meeting.

If a special meeting is called by anyone other than the Board of Directors or the President or the Chairman of the Board, then the request shall be in writing, specifying the time of such meeting and the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted, and shall be delivered personally or sent by registered mail or by other written communication to the Chairman of the Board, the President, any Vice President or the Secretary of the corporation. The officer receiving the request forthwith shall cause notice to be given to the shareholders entitled to vote, in accordance with the provisions of Sections 2.4 and 2.5 of these By-Laws, that a meeting will be held at the time requested by the person or persons calling the meeting, so long as that time is not less than [NUMBER] nor more than [NUMBER] days after the receipt of the request. If the notice is not given within [NUMBER] days after receipt of the request, then the person or persons requesting the meeting may give the notice. Nothing contained in this paragraph of this Section 2.3 shall be construed as limiting, fixing or affecting the time when a meeting of shareholders called by action of the Board of Directors may be held.

2.4. Notice Of Shareholders' Meetings

All notices of meetings of shareholders shall be sent or otherwise given in accordance with Section 2.5 of these By-Laws not less than [NUMBER] (or, if sent by third-class mail pursuant to Section 2.5 of these By-Laws, not less than [NUMBER] nor more than [NUMBER] days before the date of the meeting to each shareholder entitled to vote thereat. Such notice shall state the place, date, and hour of the meeting and (i) in the case of a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted, and no business other than that specified in the notice may be transacted, or (ii) in the case of the annual meeting, those matters which the Board of Directors, at the time of the mailing of the notice, intends to present for action by the shareholders, but, subject to the provisions of the next paragraph of this Section 2.4, any proper matter may be presented at the meeting for such action. The notice of any meeting at which Directors are to be elected shall include the names of nominees intended at the time of the notice to be presented by the Board for election.

If action is proposed to be taken at any meeting for approval of (i) a contract or transaction in which a director has a direct or indirect financial interest, (ii) an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation, pursuant to Section 902 of the Code, (iii) a reorganization of the corporation, (iv) a voluntary dissolution of the corporation, or (v) a distribution in dissolution other than in accordance with the rights of any outstanding preferred shares, then the notice shall also state the general nature of that proposal.

2.5. Manner Of Giving Notice; Affidavit Of Notice

Notice of a shareholders' meeting shall be given either personally or by first-class mail, or, if the corporation has outstanding shares held of record by [NUMBER] or more persons on the record date for the shareholders' meeting, notice may be sent by third-class mail, or other means of written communication, addressed to the shareholder at the address of the shareholder appearing on the books of the corporation or given by the shareholder to the corporation for the purpose of notice; or if no such address appears or is given, at the place where the principal executive office of the corporation is located or by publication at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal executive office is located. The notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time when delivered personally or deposited in the mail or sent by other means of written communication.

If any notice (or any report referenced in Article VII of these By-Laws) addressed to a shareholder at the address of such shareholder appearing on the books of the corporation is returned to the corporation by the [COUNTRY] Postal Service marked to indicate that the [COUNTRY] Postal Service is unable to deliver the notice to the shareholder at that address, all future notices or reports shall be deemed to have been duly given without further mailing if the same shall be available to the shareholder upon written demand of the shareholder at the principal executive office of the corporation for a period of [NUMBER] year from the date of the giving of the notice.

An affidavit of mailing of any notice or report in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.5, executed by the Secretary, Assistant Secretary or any transfer agent, shall be prima facie evidence of the giving of the notice or report.

2.6. Quorum

Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation, a majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders. The shareholders present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum, if any action taken (other than adjournment) is approved by at least a majority of the shares required to constitute a quorum.

In the absence of a quorum, any meeting of shareholders may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of the shares represented either in person or by proxy, but no other business may be transacted, except as provided in the last sentence of the preceding paragraph.

2.7. Adjourned Meeting; Notice

Any shareholders' meeting, annual or special, whether or not a quorum is present, may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of the majority of the shares represented at that meeting, either in person or by proxy.

When any meeting of shareholders, either annual or special, is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if its time and place are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. However, if the adjournment is for more than [NUMBER] days from the date set for the original meeting or if a new record date for the adjourned meeting is fixed, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting in accordance with the provisions of Sections 2.4 and 2.5 of these By-Laws. At any adjourned meeting the corporation may transact any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting.

2.8. Voting

The shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.11 of these By-Laws. Elections for directors and voting on any other matter at a shareholders' meeting need not be by ballot unless a shareholder demands election by ballot at the meeting and before the voting begins.

Except as provided in the last paragraph of this Section 2.8, or as may be otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the shareholders. Any holder of shares entitled to vote on any matter may vote part of the shares in favor of the proposal and refrain from voting the remaining shares or may vote them against the proposal other than elections to office, but, if the shareholder fails to specify the number of shares such shareholder is voting affirmatively, it will be conclusively presumed that the shareholder's approving vote is with respect to all shares which the shareholder is entitled to vote. The affirmative vote of the majority of the shares represented and voting at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present (which shares voting affirmatively also constitute at least a majority of the required quorum) shall be the act of the shareholders, unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by the Code or by the Articles of Incorporation.

At a shareholders' meeting at which directors are to be elected, a shareholder shall be entitled to cumulate votes either (i) by giving one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of votes to which that shareholder's shares are normally entitled or (ii) by distributing the shareholder's votes on the same principle among as many candidates as the shareholder thinks fit, if the candidate or candidates' names have been placed in nomination prior to the voting and the shareholder has given notice prior to the voting of the shareholder's intention to cumulate the shareholder's votes. If any one shareholder has given such a notice, then every shareholder entitled to vote may cumulate votes for candidates in nomination. The candidates receiving the highest number of affirmative votes, up to the number of directors to be elected, shall be elected; votes against any candidate and votes withheld shall have no legal effect.

2.9. Validation Of Meetings; Waiver Of Notice; Consent

The transactions of any meeting of shareholders, either annual or special, however called and noticed, and wherever held, are as valid as though they had been taken at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum be present either in person or by proxy, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the persons entitled to vote, not present in person or by proxy, signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to the holding of the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any annual or special meeting of shareholders need be specified in any written waiver of notice or consent to the holding of the meeting or approval of the minutes thereof, except that if action is taken or proposed to be taken for approval of any of those matters specified in the second paragraph of Section 2.4 of these By-Laws, the waiver of notice or consent or approval shall state the general nature of the proposal. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of and presence at that meeting, except when the person objects, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and except that attendance at a meeting is not a waiver of any right to object to the consideration of matters required by the Code to be included in the notice of such meeting but not so included, if such objection is expressly made at the meeting.

2.10. Shareholder Action By Written Consent Without A Meeting

Any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Directors may not be elected by written consent except by unanimous written consent of all shares entitled to vote for the election of directors. However, a director may be elected at any time to fill any vacancy on the Board of Directors, provided that it was not created by removal of a director and that it has not been filled by the directors, by the written consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote for the election of directors.

All such consents shall be maintained in the corporate records. Any shareholder giving a written consent, or the shareholder's proxy holders, or a transferee of the shares, or a personal representative of the shareholder, or their respective proxy holders, may revoke the consent by a writing received by the Secretary of the corporation before written consents of the number of shares required to authorize the proposed action have been filed with the Secretary.

If the consents of all shareholders entitled to vote have not been solicited in writing, the Secretary shall give prompt notice of any corporate action approved by the shareholders without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent to those shareholders entitled to vote who have not consented in writing. Such notice shall be given in the manner specified in Section 2.5 of these By-Laws. In the case of approval of (i) a contract or transaction in which a director has a direct or indirect financial interest, (ii) indemnification of a corporate agent, (iii) a reorganization of the corporation, and (iv) a distribution in dissolution other than in accordance with the rights of outstanding preferred shares, the notice shall be given at least [NUMBER] days before the consummation of any action authorized by that approval, unless the consents of all shareholders entitled to vote have been solicited in writing.

2.11. Record Date For Shareholder Notice; Voting; Giving Consents

In order that the corporation may determine the shareholders entitled to notice of any meeting or to vote, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than [NUMBER] days nor less than [NUMBER] days prior to the date of such meeting nor more than [NUMBER] days before any other action. Shareholders at the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice and to vote, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any shares on the books of the corporation after the record date, except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation or the Code.

A determination of shareholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting unless the Board of Directors fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting, but the Board of Directors shall fix a new record date if the meeting is adjourned for more than [NUMBER] days from the date set for the original meeting.

If the Board of Directors does not so fix a record date:

- i. The record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall be at the close of business on the business day next preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the business day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- ii. The record date for determining shareholders entitled to give consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, (i) when no prior action by the Board has been taken, shall be the day on which the first written consent is given, or (ii) when prior action by the Board has been taken, shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board adopts the resolution relating thereto, or the [NUMBER] day prior to the date of such other action, whichever is later.

The record date for any other purpose shall be as provided in Section 8.1 of these By-Laws.

2.12. Proxies

Every person entitled to vote for directors, or on any other matter, shall have the right to do so either in person or by one or more agents authorized by a written proxy signed by the person and filed with the Secretary of the corporation. A proxy shall be deemed signed if the shareholder's name or other authorization is placed on the proxy (whether by manual signature, typewriting, telegraphic or electronic transmission or otherwise) by the shareholder or the shareholder's attorney-in-fact. A validly executed proxy which does not state that it is irrevocable shall continue in full force and effect unless (i) the person who executed the proxy revokes it prior to the time of voting by delivering a writing to the corporation stating that the proxy is revoked or by executing a subsequent proxy and presenting it to the meeting or by attendance at such meeting and voting in person, or (ii) written notice of the death or incapacity of the maker of that proxy is received by the corporation before the vote pursuant to that proxy is counted; provided, however, that no proxy shall be valid after the expiration of [NUMBER] months from the date thereof, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. The dates contained on the forms of proxy presumptively determine the order of execution, regardless of the postmark dates on the envelopes in which they are mailed.

2.13. Inspectors Of Election

In advance of any meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors may appoint inspectors of election to act at the meeting and any adjournment thereof. If inspectors of election are not so appointed or designated or if any persons so appointed fail to appear or refuse to act, then the Chairman of the meeting may, and on the request of any shareholder or a shareholder's proxy shall, appoint inspectors of election (or persons to replace those who so fail to appear) at the meeting. The number of inspectors shall be either [NUMBER] or [NUMBER]. If appointed at a meeting on the request of [NUMBER] or more shareholders or proxies, the majority of shares represented in person or by proxy shall determine whether [NUMBER] or [NUMBER] inspectors are to be appointed.

The inspectors of election shall determine the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each, the shares represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, and the authenticity, validity, and effect of proxies, receive votes, ballots or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions in any way arising in connection with the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes or consents, determine when the polls shall close, determine the result and do any other acts that may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all shareholders.

3. DIRECTORS

3.1. Powers

Subject to the provisions of the Code and any limitations in the Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws relating to action required to be approved by the shareholders or by the outstanding shares, the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board may delegate the management of the day-to-day operation of the business of the corporation to a management company or other person provided that the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board.

3.2. Number Of Directors

The authorized number of directors of the corporation shall be [NUMBER].

3.3. Election And Term Of Office Of Directors

At each annual meeting of shareholders, directors shall be elected to hold office until the next annual meeting. Each director, including a director elected to fill a vacancy, shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which elected and until a successor has been elected and qualified, except in the case of the death, resignation, or removal of such a director.

3.4. Removal

The entire Board of Directors or any individual director may be removed from office without cause by the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on such removal; provided, however, that unless the entire Board is removed, no individual director may be removed when the votes cast against such director's removal, or not consenting in writing to such removal, would be sufficient to elect that director if voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes cast were cast (or, if such action is taken by written consent, all shares entitled to vote were voted) and the entire number of directors authorized at the time of such director's most recent election were then being elected.

3.5. Resignation And Vacancies

Any director may resign effective upon giving oral or written notice to the Chairman of the Board, the President, the Secretary or the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. If the resignation of a director is effective at a future time, the Board of Directors may elect a successor to take office when the resignation becomes effective.

Vacancies on the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, or if the number of directors then in office is less than a quorum by (i) unanimous written consent of the directors then in office, (ii) the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office at a meeting held pursuant to notice or waivers of notice, or (iii) a sole remaining director; however, a vacancy created by the removal of a director by the vote or written consent of the shareholders or by court order may be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented and voting at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present (which shares voting affirmatively also constitute at least a majority of the required quorum), or by the unanimous written consent of all shares entitled to vote thereon. Each director so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the shareholders and until a successor has been elected and qualified, or until his or her death, resignation or removal.

A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist (i) in the event of the death, resignation or removal of any director, (ii) if the Board of Directors by resolution declares vacant the office of a director who has been declared of unsound mind by an order of court or convicted of a felony, (iii) if the authorized number of directors is increased, or (iv) if the shareholders fail, at any meeting of shareholders at which any director or directors are elected, to elect the full authorized number of directors to be elected at that meeting.

The shareholders may elect a director or directors at any time to fill any vacancy or vacancies not filled by the directors, but any such election by written consent, other than to fill a vacancy created by removal, shall require the consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon. A director may not be elected by written consent to fill a vacancy created by removal except by unanimous consent of all shares entitled to vote for the election of directors.

3.6. Place Of Meetings; Meetings By Telephone

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any place within or outside the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] that has been designated from time to time by resolution of the Board. In the absence of such a designation, regular meetings shall be held at the principal executive office of the corporation. Special meetings of the Board may be held at any place within or outside the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] that has been designated in the notice of the meeting or, if not stated in the notice or if there is no notice, at the principal executive office of the corporation.

Members of the Board may participate in a meeting through the use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as all directors participating in such meeting can hear one another. Participation in a meeting pursuant to this paragraph constitutes presence in person at such meeting.

3.7. Regular Meetings

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice if the time and place of such meetings are fixed by the Board of Directors.

3.8. Special Meetings; Notice

Subject to the provisions of the following paragraph, special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, the President, any Vice President, the Secretary or any [NUMBER] directors.

address as it is shown on the records of the corporation. If the notice is mailed, it shall be deposited in the [COUNTRY] mail at least [NUMBER] days before the time of the holding of the meeting. If the notice is delivered personally or by telephone or by telecopier or telegram, it shall be delivered personally or by telephone or by telecopier or to the telegraph company at least [NUMBER] hours before the time of the holding of the meeting. Any oral notice given personally or by telephone may be communicated either to the director or to a person at the office of the director who the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the director. The notice need not specify the purpose of the meeting.

3.9. Quorum

A majority of the authorized number of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except to adjourn as provided in Section 3.11 of these By-Laws. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board of Directors, subject to the provisions of [SPECIFY] (as to approval of contracts or transactions in which a director has a direct or indirect material financial interest), [SECTION OF CODE OR LAW] (as to appointment of committees), [SECTION OF CODE OR LAW] (as to indemnification of directors), the Articles of Incorporation, and other applicable law.

A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

3.10. Waiver Of Notice

Notice of a meeting need not be given to any director who signs a waiver of notice or a consent to holding the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof, whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to such director. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. A waiver of notice need not specify the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors.

3.11. Adjournment

A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place.

3.12. Notice Of Adjournment

If the meeting is adjourned for more than [NUMBER] hours, notice of any adjournment to another time and place shall be given prior to the time of the adjourned meeting to the directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.

3.14. Fees And Compensation Of Directors

Directors and members of committees may receive such compensation, if any, for their services and such reimbursement of expenses as may be fixed or determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. This Section 3.14 shall not be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity as an officer, agent, employee or otherwise and receiving compensation for those services.

3.15. Approval Of Loans To Officers

If these By-Laws have been approved by the corporation's shareholders in accordance with the Code, the corporation may, upon the approval of the Board of Directors alone, make loans of money or property to, or guarantee the obligations of, any officer of the corporation or of its parent, if any, whether or not a director, or adopt an employee benefit plan or plans authorizing such loans or guaranties provided that (i) the Board of Directors determines that such a loan or guaranty or plan may reasonably be expected to benefit the corporation, (ii) the corporation has outstanding shares held of record by [NUMBER] or more persons (determined as provided in [SECTION OF CODE]) on the date of approval by the Board of Directors, and (iii) the approval of the Board of Directors is by a vote sufficient without counting the vote of any interested director or directors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the corporation shall have the power to make loans permitted by the Code.

4. COMMITTEES

4.1. Committees Of Directors

The Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the authorized number of directors, designate one or more committees, each consisting of [NUMBER] or more directors, to serve at the pleasure of the Board. The Board may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent member at any meeting of the committee. The appointment of members or alternate members of a committee requires the vote of a majority of the authorized number of directors. Any such committee shall have authority to act in the manner and to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board and may have all the authority of the Board, except with respect to:

- xv. The approval of any action which, under the Code, also requires shareholders' approval or approval of the outstanding shares.

Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of that notice or at any later time specified in that notice; and, unless otherwise specified in that notice, the acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any resignation is without prejudice to the rights, if any, of the corporation under any contract to which the officer is a party.

5.5. Vacancies In Offices

A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or any other cause shall be filled in the manner prescribed in these By-Laws for regular appointments to that office.

5.6. Chairman Of The Board

The Chairman of the Board, if such an officer be elected, shall, if present, preside at meetings of the Board of Directors and exercise and perform such other powers and duties as may from time to time be assigned by the Board of Directors or as may be prescribed by these By-Laws. 5.9. Secretary

The Secretary shall keep or cause to be kept, at the principal executive office of the corporation or such other place as the Board of Directors may direct, a book of minutes of all meetings and actions of Directors, committees of directors and shareholders. The minutes shall show the time and place of each meeting, whether regular or special, the names of those present at directors' meetings or committee meetings, the number of shares present or represented at shareholders' meetings, and the proceedings thereof.

The Secretary shall keep at the principal executive office of the corporation or at the office of the corporation's transfer agent or registrar, as determined by resolution of the Board of Directors, a share register, or a duplicate share register, showing the names of all shareholders and their addresses, the number and classes of shares held by each, the number and date of certificates evidencing such shares, and the number and date of cancellation of every certificate surrendered for cancellation. The Chief Financial Officer shall disburse the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the Board, shall render to the President and directors, whenever they request it, an account of all of his or her transactions as Chief Financial Officer and of the financial condition of the corporation, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or these By-Laws.

6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AND OTHER AGENTS

6.1. Indemnification Of Directors

The corporation shall, to the maximum extent and in the manner permitted by the Code, indemnify each of its directors against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding (as defined in [SECTION OF CODE OR LAW]), arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director of the corporation. For purposes of this Article VI, a director of the corporation includes any person (i) who is or was a director of the corporation, (ii) who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or (iii) who was a director of a corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation.

OBJECTION MY LORD

6.2. Indemnification Of Others

The corporation shall have the power, to the extent and in the manner permitted by the Code, to indemnify each of its employees, officers, and agents (other than directors) against expenses (as defined in [SECTION OF CODE OR LAW]), judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding (as defined [SECTION OF CODE OR LAW]), arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was an employee, officer, or agent of the corporation. For purposes of this Article VI, an employee or officer or agent of the corporation (other than a director) includes any person (i) who is or was an employee, officer, or agent of the corporation, (ii) who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as an employee, officer, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or (iii) who was an employee, officer, or agent of a corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation.

6.3. Payment Of Expenses In Advance

Expenses and attorneys' fees incurred in defending any civil or criminal action or proceeding for which indemnification is required pursuant to Section 6.1, or if otherwise authorized by the Board of Directors, shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the indemnified party to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that the indemnified party is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this Article VI.

6.4. Indemnity Not Exclusive

The indemnification provided by this Article VI shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any By-Law, agreement, vote of shareholders or directors or otherwise, both as to action in an official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. The rights to indemnity hereunder shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of the person.

6.5. Insurance Indemnification

The corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by such person in such capacity or arising out of that person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify that person against such liability under the provisions of this Article VI.

6.6. Conflicts

No indemnification or advance shall be made under this Article VI, except where such indemnification or advance is mandated by law or the order, judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, in any circumstance where it appears:

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- v. That it would be inconsistent with a provision of the Articles of Incorporation, these By-Laws, a resolution of the shareholders or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of the action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification; or
- vi. That it would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

6.7. Right To Bring Suit

If a claim under this Article is not paid in full by the corporation within [NUMBER] days after a written claim has been received by the corporation (either because the claim is denied or because no determination is made), the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall also be entitled to be paid the expenses of prosecuting such claim. The corporation shall be entitled to raise as a defense to any such action that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct that make it permissible under the Code for the corporation to indemnify the claimant for the claim. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the claimant is permissible in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct, if any, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its Board of Directors, independent legal counsel, or its shareholders) that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to such action or create a presumption for the purposes of such action that the claimant has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

6.8. Indemnity Agreements

The Board of Directors is authorized to enter into a contract with any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or any person who is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including employee benefit plans, or any person who was a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of such predecessor corporation, providing for indemnification rights equivalent to or, if the Board of Directors so determines and to the extent permitted by applicable law, greater than, those provided for in this Article VI.

6.9. Amendment, Repeal Or Modification

Any amendment, repeal or modification of any provision of this Article VI shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or agent of the corporation existing at the time of such amendment, repeal or modification.

7. RECORDS AND REPORTS

OBJECTION MY LORD

7.1. Maintenance And Inspection Of Share Register

The corporation shall keep either at its principal executive office or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar (if either be appointed), as determined by resolution of the Board of Directors, a record of its shareholders listing the names and addresses of all shareholders and the number and class of shares held by each shareholder.

The record of shareholders shall also be open to inspection and copying by any shareholder or holder of a voting trust certificate at any time during usual business hours upon written demand on the corporation, for a purpose reasonably related to the holder's interests as a shareholder or holder of a voting trust certificate.

A shareholder or shareholders of the corporation holding at least [%] in the aggregate of the outstanding voting shares of the corporation or who hold at least [%] of such voting shares and have filed a Schedule [IDENTIFY] with the [GOVERNMENT AGENCY] relating to the election of directors, shall have an absolute right to do either or both of the following (i) inspect and copy the record of shareholders' names, addresses, and shareholdings during usual business hours upon [NUMBER] days' prior written demand upon the corporation, or (ii) obtain from the transfer agent for the corporation, upon written demand and upon the tender of such transfer agent's usual charges for such list (the amount of which charges shall be stated to the shareholder by the transfer agent upon request), a list of the shareholders' names and addresses who are entitled to vote for the election of directors, and their shareholdings, as of the most recent record date for which it has been compiled or as of a date specified by the shareholder subsequent to the date of demand. The list shall be made available on or before the later of [NUMBER] business days after the demand is received or the date specified therein as the date as of which the list is to be compiled.

Any inspection and copying under this Section 7.1 may be made in person or by an agent or attorney of the shareholder or holder of a voting trust certificate making the demand.

7.2. Maintenance And Inspection Of By-Laws

The corporation shall keep at its principal executive office or, if its principal executive office is not in the State of [STATE/PROVINCE], at its principal business office in [STATE/PROVINCE], the original or a copy of these By-Laws as amended to date, which shall be open to inspection by the shareholders at all reasonable times during office hours. If the principal executive office of the corporation is outside the State of [STATE/PROVINCE] and the corporation has no principal business office in such state, then it shall, upon the written request of any shareholder, furnish to such shareholder a copy of these By-Laws as amended to date.

7.3. Maintenance And Inspection Of Other Corporate Records

The accounting books and records and the minutes of proceedings of the shareholders and the Board of Directors, and committees of the Board of Directors shall be kept at such place or places as are designated by the Board of Directors or, in absence of such designation, at the principal executive office of the corporation. The minutes shall be kept in written form, and the accounting books and records shall be kept either in written form or in any other form capable of being converted into written form.

The minutes and accounting books and records shall be open to inspection upon the written demand on the corporation of any shareholder or holder of a voting trust certificate at any reasonable time during usual business hours, for a purpose reasonably related to such holder's interests as a shareholder or as the holder of a voting trust certificate. Such inspection by a shareholder or holder of a voting trust certificate may be made in person or by an agent or attorney and the right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts. Such rights of inspection shall extend to the records of each subsidiary corporation of the corporation.

7.4. Inspection By Directors

Every director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records, and documents of every kind and to inspect the physical properties of the corporation and each of its subsidiary corporations, domestic or foreign. Such inspection by a director may be made in person or by an agent or attorney and the right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts.

7.5. Annual Report To Shareholders; Waiver

The Board of Directors shall cause an annual report to be sent to the shareholders not later than [NUMBER] days after the close of the fiscal year adopted by the corporation. Such report shall be sent to the shareholders at least [NUMBER] (or, if sent by third-class mail, [NUMBER]) days prior to the annual meeting of shareholders to be held during the next fiscal year and in the manner specified in Section 2.5 of these By-Laws for giving notice to shareholders of the corporation.

The annual report shall contain a balance sheet as of the end of the fiscal year and an income statement and statement of changes in financial position for the fiscal year, accompanied by any report thereon of independent accountants or, if there is no such report, the certificate of an authorized officer of the corporation that the statements were prepared without audit from the books and records of the corporation.

The foregoing requirement of an annual report shall be waived so long as the shares of the corporation are held by fewer than [NUMBER] holders of record.

7.6. Financial Statements

If no annual report for the fiscal year has been sent to shareholders, then the corporation shall, upon the written request of any shareholder made more than [NUMBER] days after the close of such fiscal year, deliver or mail to the person making the request, within [NUMBER] days thereafter, a copy of a balance sheet as of the end of such fiscal year and an income statement and statement of changes in financial position for such fiscal year.

A shareholder or shareholders holding at least [%] of the outstanding shares of any class of the corporation may make a written request to the corporation for an income statement of the corporation for the three-month, six-month or nine-month period of the current fiscal year ended more than [NUMBER] days prior to the date of the

A copy of the statements shall be kept on file in the principal office of the corporation for [NUMBER] months and it shall be exhibited at all reasonable times to any shareholder demanding an examination of the statements or a copy shall be mailed to the shareholder. If the corporation has not sent to the shareholders its annual report for the last fiscal year, the statements referred to in the first paragraph of this Section 7.6 shall likewise be delivered or mailed to the shareholder or shareholders within [NUMBER] days after the request.

The quarterly income statements and balance sheets referred to in this section shall be accompanied by the report thereon, if any, of any independent accountants engaged by the corporation or the certificate of an authorized officer of the corporation that the financial statements were prepared without audit from the books and records of the corporation.

7.7. Representation Of Shares Of Other Corporations

The Chairman of the Board, the President, any Vice President, the Chief Financial Officer, the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of this corporation, or any other person authorized by the Board of Directors or the President or a Vice President, is authorized to vote, represent, and exercise on behalf of this corporation all rights incident to any and all shares of any other corporation or corporations standing in the name of this corporation. The authority herein granted may be exercised either by such person directly or by any other person authorized to do so by proxy or power of attorney duly executed by such person having the authority.

8. GENERAL MATTERS

8.1. Record Date For Purposes Other Than Notice And Voting

For purposes of determining the shareholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any other lawful action (other than with respect to notice or voting at a shareholders meeting or action by shareholders by written consent without a meeting), the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than [NUMBER] days prior to any such action. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on the record date are entitled to receive the dividend, distribution or allotment of rights, or to exercise the rights, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any shares on the books of the corporation after the record date, except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation or the Code.

If the Board of Directors does not so fix a record date, then the record date for determining shareholders for any such purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board adopts the resolution relating thereto or the [NUMBER] day prior to the date of that action, whichever is later.

8.2. Checks; Drafts; Evidences Of Indebtedness

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

From time to time, the Board of Directors shall determine by resolution which person or persons may sign or endorse all checks, drafts, other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness that are issued in the name of or payable to the corporation, and only the persons so authorized shall sign or endorse those instruments.

8.3. Corporate Contracts And Instruments: How Executed

The Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws, may authorize any officer or officers, or agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation; such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Unless so authorized or ratified by the Board of Directors or within the agency power of an officer, no officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or for any amount.

8.4. Certificates For Shares

A certificate or certificates for shares of the corporation shall be issued to each shareholder when any of such shares are fully paid. The Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of certificates for shares partly paid provided that these certificates shall state the total amount of the consideration to be paid for them and the amount actually paid. All certificates shall be signed in the name of the corporation by the Chairman of the Board or the Vice Chairman of the Board or the President or a Vice President and by the Chief Financial Officer or an Assistant Treasurer or the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary, certifying the number of shares and the class or series of shares owned by the shareholder. Any or all of the signatures on the certificate may be by facsimile.

In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on a certificate has ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if that person were an officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

8.5. Lost Certificates

Except as provided in this Section 8.5, no new certificates for shares shall be issued to replace a previously issued certificate unless the latter is surrendered to the corporation or its transfer agent or registrar and cancelled at the same time. The Board of Directors may, in case any share certificate or certificate for any other security is lost, stolen or destroyed (as evidenced by a written affidavit or affirmation of such fact), authorize the issuance of replacement certificates on such terms and conditions as the Board may require; the Board may require indemnification of the corporation secured by a bond or other adequate security sufficient to protect the corporation against any claim that may be made against it, including any expense or liability, on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of the certificate or the issuance of the replacement certificate.

8.6. Construction; Definitions

Unless the context requires otherwise, the general provisions, rules of construction, and definitions in the Code shall govern the construction of these By-Laws. Without limiting the generality of this provision, the singular number includes the plural, the plural number includes the singular, and the term person includes both a corporation and a natural person.

9. AMENDMENTS

9.1. Amendment By Shareholders

New By-Laws may be adopted or these By-Laws may be amended or repealed by the vote or written consent of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote; provided, however, that if the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation set forth the number of authorized Directors of the corporation, then the authorized number of Directors may be changed only by an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation.

9.2. Amendment By Directors

Subject to the rights of the shareholders as provided in Section 9.1 of these By-Laws, By-Laws, other than a By-Law or an amendment of a By-Law changing the authorized number of directors (except to fix the authorized number of directors pursuant to a By-Law providing for a variable number of directors), may be adopted, amended or repealed by the Board of Directors.

9.3. Record Of Amendments

Whenever an amendment or new By-Law is adopted, it shall be copied in the book of minutes with the original By-Laws. If any By-Law is repealed, the fact of repeal, with the date of the meeting at which the repeal was enacted or written consent was filed, shall be stated in said book.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement on the date first above written.

CHECKLIST FOR ISSUING STOCK

OBJECTION MY LORD

If you are planning to issue stock, there are a number of important steps that should be undertaken, including the following. This document is not intended to substitute for legal advice nor legal wording provided by a competent advisor in the relevant legal jurisdiction.

Board & Shareholder Approval

The Board of Directors of the company should approve the offer and sale of the stock, any agreements for the sale and the filing of any needed governmental documents. This can be accomplished through resolutions adopted at a Board meeting or by written unanimous consent.

Approval of the shareholders may also be necessary, especially if the Articles of Incorporation of the company are being amended. Amendment of the Articles will typically require approval by the holders of the majority of the outstanding shares.

Review the Company Charter

The company's charter (Articles of Incorporation or Certificate of Incorporation) should be reviewed to ensure that you have enough shares authorized to allow the new issuance.

Review Compliance With Securities Laws

Before an offer or sale of stock can be made, you need to ensure that the proper steps have been taken to comply with the federal securities laws and the securities laws of the states where the offers or sales of stock are made. Typically, you will want to find a private placement type of exemption to avoid the costly procedures of conducting a registered offering.

Prepare Appropriate Agreements

The sale of the stock should be documented by appropriate agreements. When the transaction is not really negotiated, such as the sale of Common Stock to friends and family, a Subscription Agreement may be appropriate. If the transaction involves venture capitalists or strategic investors, then a more detailed negotiated Stock Purchase Agreement will be necessary.

Review How the Sale Will Affect Future Action

The company should review how this stock offering might affect future financings. Ideally, the stock issuance should not unduly restrict the ability of the company to issue additional stock in the future.

Price and Number of Shares

The appropriate price for the shares and the number of shares to be issued need to be established. The dilution to the existing shareholders resulting from the new issuance must be reviewed and determined acceptable.

Make Securities Law Filings

Make sure to make the required filings with the SEC generally within 15 days of the stock sale.

Stock Certificate

After the sale, the company should issue a stock certificate, signed by the appropriately authorized officers of the company. It will be useful to keep a copy of the stock certificate in the company records. The certificate should include any appropriate legends and be dated and numbered.

Stock Ledger

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

The issuance of stock should be recorded on the company's Stock Ledger, showing the date issued, consideration paid, name and address of each shareholder, certificate number and other relevant information.

LEGENDS FOR STOCK CERTIFICATES

Securities Act Legend

In typical start-up companies where the shares are issued under the private placement exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the following legend (or a variation thereof) should be placed on the front of the stock certificate or on the back with a notice on the front referring to the legend:

THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE BEEN ACQUIRED FOR INVESTMENT AND HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933. SUCH SHARES MAY NOT BE SOLD OR TRANSFERRED OR PLEDGED IN THE ABSENCE OF SUCH REGISTRATION UNLESS THE COMPANY RECEIVES AN OPINION OF COUNSEL REASONABLY ACCEPTABLE TO THE COMPANY STATING THAT SUCH SALE OR TRANSFER IS EXEMPT FROM THE REGISTRATION AND PROSPECTUS DELIVERY REQUIREMENTS OF SAID ACT. COPIES OF THE AGREEMENT, IF ANY, COVERING THE PURCHASE OF THESE SHARES AND RESTRICTING THEIR TRANSFER MAY BE OBTAINED AT NO COST BY WRITTEN REQUEST MADE BY THE HOLDER OF RECORD OF THIS CERTIFICATE TO THE SECRETARY OF THE CORPORATION AT THE PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE OFFICES OF THE CORPORATION.

Intrastate Offering Legend

If the securities have been issued in a transaction exempted from the federal registration requirements pursuant to the intrastate offering exemptions from the Securities Act of 1933, then the following legend should be placed on the stock certificate:

FOR A PERIOD OF NINE MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THE LAST SALE OF SECURITIES BY THE ISSUER IN CONNECTION WITH THE OFFERING WHEREBY THESE SHARES WERE PURCHASED, ALL REALES OF THESE SECURITIES, BY ANY PERSON, SHALL BE MADE ONLY TO BONA FIDE PERMANENT RESIDENTS OF THE STATE OF [name of state].

California Securities Legend

State securities laws may require the imposition of additional legends. For example, in California, if securities are qualified with the Department of Corporations, the following legend is sometimes required by the Department of Corporations on the certificate:

IT IS UNLAWFUL TO CONSUMMATE A SALE OR TRANSFER OF THE SECURITIES, OR ANY INTEREST THEREIN OR TO RECEIVE ANY CONSIDERATION THEREFOR, WITHOUT THE PRIOR WRITTEN CONSENT OF THE COMMISSIONER OF CORPORATIONS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, EXCEPT AS PERMITTED IN THE COMMISSIONER'S RULES.

Restrictions on Transfer

If the company and the shareholders have entered into an agreement imposing restrictions on transfer of the shares or placing rights of first refusal on sale of the shares, a form of the following legend is appropriate. Restrictions on transfer may not be valid as against a purchaser without actual knowledge of the restriction unless the restriction is conspicuously noted on the certificate.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

THE SHARE, TRANSFER, OR HYPOTHECATION OF THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE IS RESTRICTED BY THE PROVISIONS OF AN AGREEMENT AMONG THE ISSUER OF THESE SHARES AND ITS SHAREHOLDERS, A COPY OF WHICH IS ON FILE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF THE ISSUER.

Employee Restricted Stock

If the shares are issued pursuant to an Employee Restricted Stock Purchase Agreement that provides for vesting of the shares dependent upon continued employment with the company, or if the company or other shareholders have certain repurchase rights in connection with the shares, a variation of the following provision will be appropriate:

THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO REPURCHASE PROVISIONS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TERMS OF AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE ISSUER AND THE SHAREHOLDER, A COPY OF WHICH IS ON FILE AT THE PRINCIPAL OFFICE OF THE ISSUER.

Preferred Stock

If the stock to be issued is preferred stock, consider the following legend:

THE RIGHTS, PREFERENCES, PRIVILEGES AND RESTRICTIONS GRANTED TO OR IMPOSED UPON EACH CLASS OR SERIES OF SHARES OF THE CORPORATION ARE CONTAINED IN THE CORPORATION'S ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION, A COPY OF WHICH IS OBTAINABLE FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE CORPORATION UPON REQUEST AND WITHOUT CHARGE.

Other Legends

It may also be required by law or be otherwise appropriate that the share certificate reflect rights or liabilities attendant to the shares such as assessment rights, preemptive rights, special qualifications of persons who may be shareholders, restrictions on or assignment of voting rights, or rights of co-sale and the like.

Right of First Refusal

OBJECTION MY LORD

Each time a Holder proposes to Transfer (or is required by operation of law or other involuntary transfer) any or all of the Shares standing in such Holder's name or owned by him or her during the term of this Agreement, such Holder shall first offer such Shares to the Company in accordance with the following provisions:

Such Holder shall deliver a written notice (a "Notice") to the Company stating (a) such Holder's bona fide intention to Transfer such Shares, (b) the name and the address of the proposed transferee, (c) the number of Shares to be transferred, and (d) the purchase price per Share and terms of payment for which the Holder proposes to Transfer such Shares.

Within [NUMBER] days after receipt of the Notice, the Company or its designee shall have the first right to purchase or obtain such Shares, upon the price and terms of payment designated in the Notice. If the Notice provides for the payment of non-cash consideration, the Company at its option may pay the consideration in cash equal to the Company's good faith estimate of the present fair market value of the non-cash consideration offered. If the Company or its designee elects not to purchase or obtain all of the Shares designated in the selling Holder's Notice, then the Holder may Transfer the Shares referred to in the Notice to the proposed transferee, providing such Transfer (a) is completed within 30 days after the expiration of the Company's right to purchase or obtain such Shares, (b) is made at the price and terms designated in the Notice, and (c) the proposed Transferee agrees to be bound by the terms and provisions of this Agreement and to become a party to this Agreement immediately upon receipt of such Shares. If such Shares are not so transferred, the selling Holder must give notice in accordance with this paragraph prior to any other or subsequent Transfer of such Shares.

Notwithstanding Section 3(a), a Holder may Transfer Shares: (i) to a member of the Holder's Immediate Family or to a trust established for the benefit of a member or members of the Holder's Immediate Family, (ii) to an affiliate or equity holder of the Holder, (iii) to a person who is a constituent partner of the Holder on the date hereof, or (iv) to the estate of any of the foregoing by gift, will or intestate succession; provided that the Holder or his representative notifies the Company of such Transfer not less than [NUMBER] nor more than [NUMBER] days prior to the Transfer and that the proposed transferee agrees to be bound by the terms and provisions of this Agreement and to become a party to this Agreement immediately upon the receipt of such Shares.

No Transfer to Competitors

A Holder may not Transfer any Shares to a competitor of the Company, or to any shareholder, partner or other beneficial holder of an equity ownership interest in a competitor, other than pursuant to a merger, combination, or other transaction approved by the Board of Directors.

Governing Law

Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company's obligations to pay or complete payment for any Shares to be purchased by it under this Agreement is subject to its being legally permitted to do so under the tests contained in Sections [NUMBER] of the [STATE/PROVINCE/COUNTRY] General Corporation Law or any successor statute applicable thereto.

A COPY OF SUCH AGREEMENT IS ON FILE AT THE PRINCIPAL BUSINESS OFFICE OF THE COMPANY.

Under no circumstances shall any Transfer of any Shares subject hereto be valid until the proposed transferee thereof shall have executed and become a party to this Agreement and thereby shall have become subject to all of the provisions hereof; and notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, no such Transfer of any kind shall in any event result in the non-applicability of the provisions hereof at any time to any of the Shares subject hereto.

"Continuing Shareholders" means all Shareholders other than an Offering Shareholder.

Purchase for Investment

OBJECTION MY LORD

Each Shareholder represents and warrants that he is acquiring and has acquired his Shares for his own account for investment and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any distribution thereof or with any present intent of selling any portion thereof.

Transfers of Shares

A Shareholder may not transfer, give, convey, sell, pledge, bequeath, donate, assign, encumber or otherwise dispose of any Shares except pursuant to this Agreement.

Transfers to the Company

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, a Shareholder may give, sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any of his Shares to the Company at such price and on such terms and conditions as such Shareholder and the Board of Directors of the Company may agree.

Transfer to Others

Except as provided for in Paragraph 3.1 above, a Shareholder desiring to dispose of some or all of his Shares may do so only pursuant to a bona fide offer to purchase (the "Offer") and after compliance with the following provisions. Such Shareholder shall first give written notice to the Company and the other Shareholders of his intention to dispose of his Shares, identifying the number of Shares he desires to dispose of, the proposed purchase price per Share and the name of the proposed purchaser and attaching an exact copy of the Offer received by such Shareholder.

The Company's Right to Purchase

The Company shall have the exclusive right to purchase all of the Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell at the proposed purchase price per Share. The Company shall exercise this right to purchase by giving written notice to the Offering Shareholder (with a copy thereof to each of the Continuing Shareholders) within [NUMBER] days after receipt of the notice from the Offering Shareholder (the "[NUMBER] Day Period") that the Company elects to purchase the Shares subject to the Offer and setting forth a date and time for closing which shall be not later than [NUMBER] days after the date of such notice from the Company. At the time of closing, the Offering Shareholder shall deliver to the Company certificates representing the Shares to be sold, together with stock powers duly endorsed in blank. The Shares shall be delivered by the Offering Shareholder free of any and all liens and encumbrances. All transfer taxes and documentary stamps shall be paid by the Offering Shareholder.

The Continuing Shareholders Right to Purchase

If the Company fails to exercise its right to purchase pursuant to subparagraph (i) above, the Continuing Shareholders shall have the right for an additional period of [NUMBER] days (the "Additional [NUMBER] Day Period") commencing at the expiration of the [NUMBER] Day Period to purchase the Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell at the proposed purchase price per Share. The Continuing Shareholders shall exercise this right to purchase by giving written notice to the Offering Shareholder prior to the expiration of the Additional [NUMBER] Day Period that they elect to purchase his Shares and setting forth a date and time for closing which shall be not later than [NUMBER] days after the expiration of the Additional [NUMBER] Day Period. Any purchase of Shares by all or some of the Continuing Shareholders shall be made in such proportion as they might agree among themselves or, in the absence of any such agreement, pro rata in proportion to their ownership of Shares of the Company (excluding the Offering Shareholder's Shares) at the time of such offer, but in any event one or more of the Continuing Shareholders must agree to purchase all the Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell. At the time of closing, the Offering Shareholder shall deliver to Buyer certificates representing the Shares to be sold, together with stock powers duly endorsed in blank. Said Shares shall be delivered by the offering Shareholder free and clear of any and all liens and encumbrances. All transfer taxes and documentary stamps shall be paid by the Offering Shareholder.

Performance of Acceptance

When exercising the rights granted in Paragraphs 3.2 hereof, Buyer must elect to purchase all Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell for the price and upon the same terms for payment of the price as are set forth in the Offer; provided, however, that if said offer received by the Offering Shareholder shall provide for any act or action to be done or performed by the party making such Offer at any time before or within [NUMBER] days after the last day for exercise of Buyer's right to purchase pursuant to Paragraphs 3.2 hereof, then the Buyer shall be deemed to have complied with the terms and conditions of such Offer if Buyer does or performs such act or action within [NUMBER] days after the last day for exercise of Buyer's right to purchase pursuant to Paragraphs 3.2 hereof.

Sale to Third Party

If either the Company or some or all of the Continuing Shareholders do not elect to purchase all of the Shares which the Offering Shareholder proposes to sell, the Offering Shareholder may accept the Offer which the Offering Shareholder mailed with his notice to the Company pursuant to Paragraph 3.2 hereof and transfer all (but not less than all) of the Shares which he proposes to sell pursuant thereto on the same terms and conditions set forth in such Offer, provided that any transferee of such Shares shall be bound by this Agreement, and further provided that if such sale is not completed within [NUMBER] days after the date notice is received by the Company under Paragraph 3.2 hereof, all such Shares shall again become subject to the restrictions and provisions of this Agreement.

Right of Co-Sale

Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, in the event the Offering Shareholder receives an Offer from an unaffiliated third party (the "Offeror") to purchase from such Shareholder not less than [%] of the Shares owned by such Shareholder and such Shareholder intends to accept such Offer, the Offering Shareholder shall, after complying with the provisions of Paragraph 3.2 above and before accepting such Offer, forward a copy of such Offer to the Company and each of the Continuing Shareholders. The Offering Shareholder shall not sell any such Shares to the Offeror unless the terms of the Offer are extended by the Offeror to the Continuing Shareholders pro rata in proportion to their ownership of Shares of the Company (excluding the Offering Shareholder's Shares) at the time of such Offer. The Continuing Shareholders shall have [NUMBER] days from the date of the foregoing Offer to accept such Offer.

OBJECTION MY LORD

First Shareholder, Second Shareholder and Third Shareholder may each during their lifetimes transfer all, hut not less than all, of their Shares to said Shareholder's spouse or a lineal descendant of such Shareholder, so long as prior to such transfer (i) such person, the Company, and all the Shareholders amend this Agreement to the reasonable satisfaction of such person, the Company and all the Shareholders to provide the parties to this Agreement with the rights, remedies and effect provided in this Agreement as if no such transfer had occurred, and (ii) the proposed transferee agrees in a writing satisfactory to the Company and all Shareholders that such person shall vote for First Shareholder, Second Shareholder and Third Shareholder (or their nominees) as directors of the Company and shall be bound by all the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Right of First Refusal

Except in the case of Excluded Securities (as defined below), the Company shall not issue, sell or exchange, agree to issue, sell or exchange, or reserve or set aside for issuance, sale or exchange, any (i) shares of Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company which is convertible into Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company, (ii) any debt security of the Company which is convertible into Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company, or (iii) any option, warrant or other right to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire any equity security or any such debt security of the Company, unless in each case the Company shall have first offered to sell to each Shareholder, pro rata in proportion to such Shareholder's then ownership of Shares of the Company, such securities (the "Offered Securities") (and to sell thereto such Offered Securities not subscribed for by the other Shareholders as hereinafter provided), at a price and on such other terms as shall have been specified by the Company in writing delivered to such Shareholder (the "Stock Offer"), which Stock Offer by its terms shall remain open and irrevocable for a period of [NUMBER] days (subject to extension pursuant to the last sentence of subsection (b) below) from the date it is delivered by the Company to the Shareholder.

Notice of each Shareholder's intention to accept, in whole or in part, a Stock Offer shall be evidenced by a writing signed by such Shareholder and delivered to the Company prior to the end of the [NUMBER]-day period of such Stock Offer, setting forth such portion of the Offered Securities as such Shareholder elects to purchase (the "Notice of Acceptance"). If any Shareholder shall subscribe for less than his pro rata share of the Offered Securities to be sold, the other subscribing Shareholders shall be entitled to purchase the balance of that Shareholder's pro rata share in the same proportion in which they were entitled to purchase the Offered Securities in the first instance (excluding for such purposes such Shareholder), provided any such other Shareholder elected by a Notice of Acceptance to purchase all of his pro rata share of the Offered Securities. The Company shall notify each Shareholder within [NUMBER] days following the expiration of the [NUMBER]-day period described above of the amount of Offered Securities which each Shareholder may purchase pursuant to the foregoing sentence, and each Shareholder shall then have [NUMBER] days from the delivery of such notice to indicate such additional amount, if any, that such Shareholder wishes to purchase.

In the event that Notices of Acceptance are not given by the Shareholders in respect of all the Offered Securities, the Company shall have [NUMBER] days from the expiration of the foregoing [NUMBER]-day or [NUMBER]-day period, whichever is applicable, to sell all or any part of such Offered Securities as to which a Notice of Acceptance has not been given by the Shareholders (the "Refused Securities") to any other person or persons, but only upon terms and conditions in all respects, including, without limitation, unit price and interest rates, which are no more favorable, in the aggregate, to such other person or persons or less favorable to the Company than those set forth in the Stock Offer. Upon the closing, which shall include full payment to the Company, of the sale to such other person or persons of all the Refused Securities, the Shareholders shall purchase from the Company, and the Company shall sell to the Shareholders the Offered Securities in respect of which Notices of Acceptance were delivered to the Company by the Shareholders, at the terms specified in the Stock Offer.

In each case, any Offered Securities not purchased by the Shareholders or other person or persons in accordance with Section 4(c) may not be sold or otherwise disposed of until they are again offered to the Shareholders under the procedures specified in Sections 4(a), (b) and (c).

The rights of the Shareholders under this Section 4 shall not apply to the following securities (the "Excluded Securities"):

Any (A) shares of Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company which is convertible into Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company, (B) debt security of the Company which is convertible into Common Stock or any other equity security of the Company, or (C) option, warrant or other right to subscribe for, purchase or otherwise acquire any equity security or any such debt security of the Company (collectively, an "Equity Security") if the issuance of such Equity Security does not alter the respective proportions of ownership (on a fully diluted basis) by First Shareholder, Second Shareholder and Third Shareholder, as among themselves, of Equity Securities immediately prior to the issuance of such Equity Security;

Common Stock issued as a stock dividend or upon any stock split or other subdivision or combination of the outstanding shares of Common Stock;

Securities issued pursuant to the acquisition by the Company of another corporation to the stockholders of such other corporation by merger or purchase of substantially all of the assets whereby the Company owns not less than [%] of the voting power of such other corporation; and

Sale Or Redemption Upon Termination of Employment, Disability Or Death

Upon the termination of a Management Shareholder's employment or other relationship with the Company (including without limitation, any position as an officer, director, consultant, joint venturer, independent contractor, or promoter to or of the Company) for whatever reason, the Disability (as defined below) of a Management Shareholder, or the death of a Management or Non management Shareholder (any such event hereinafter a "Triggering Event"), such Shareholder (or his heirs, executors, guardian or personal representative) within [NUMBER] days after the Triggering Event shall offer to sell all, but not less than all, of the Shares owned by the Shareholder. Each offer shall be made to the Company in writing and shall exist for a period of [NUMBER] days after such offer has been received by the Company. If the Company fails to purchase all of the Shares offered, the offer to sell shall be made in writing to all of the Continuing Shareholders in such proportion as the Continuing Shareholders may agree among themselves, or in the absence of agreement, pro rata in proportion to their then ownership of Shares of the Company (excluding the Offering Shareholder's (Shares), and shall exist for a period of [NUMBER] days after the offer has been received by all of the Continuing Shareholders. For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" of a particular person means the inability, due to a physical or mental condition, of such person to maintain his employment or other relationship with the Company (including without limitation, fulfilling his duties in any position as an officer, director, consultant, joint venturer, independent contractor, or promoter to or of the Company) or to conduct his normal daily activities on behalf of the Corporation for any [NUMBER] consecutive month period.

Purchase Price

The purchase price for all Shares purchased pursuant to Paragraph 5 hereof shall be determined as follows: The Company or the Continuing Shareholders, as the case may be, within [NUMBER] days after receipt of any offer referred to in Paragraph 5 above, shall notify the Offering Shareholder of the price at which the Company or the Continuing Shareholders, are willing to purchase the Shares.

In the event the Offering Shareholder objects to the purchase price established in accordance with Paragraph 6(a) above, the Offering Shareholder shall have the right to solicit offers to buy the Shares in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 3.2. The right to solicit offers shall be subject to the terms and conditions of Section 3.2 and 3.3 hereof, including without limitation, the rights of first refusal and co-sale and the period during which any right of first refusal must be exercised but shall not be subject to the [NUMBER] day period referred to in Paragraph 3.2 of this Agreement.

Payment of Purchase Price

The purchase price for all Shares purchased pursuant to Paragraph 5 hereof shall be paid at the closing of the sale.

Put and Call Options

Each Shareholder shall have the right and option upon the written declaration (a "Declaration") by such Shareholder to the other Shareholders and the Company of the occurrence of an "impasse" (as defined below) to sell to the Continuing Shareholders all of his Shares, and the Continuing Shareholders shall have the obligation to either (i) purchase all of such Shares owned by the offering Shareholder in such proportion as the Continuing Shareholders may agree upon, and if they cannot so agree, pro rata in proportion to their then ownership of Shares of the Company (excluding the Offering Shareholder's Shares) or (ii) if the Continuing Shareholders are unable or unwilling to purchase all of the Shares owned by the Offering Shareholder, sell all of their Shares to the Offering Shareholder, and the Offering Shareholder shall have the obligation to buy such Shares.

Impasse

An "impasse" shall be conclusively evidenced by (i) either First Shareholder, Second Shareholder or Third Shareholder or their respective representative, voting opposite the others at a vote at a shareholders meeting or at a vote at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company (or failing to attend such meetings upon due notice if such failure results in the lack of a quorum making such vote impossible), which vote is on a material issue, not in the ordinary course of business, and affecting the business, assets or operations of the Company, including, but not limited to, a proposal to merge, liquidate, consolidate or dissolve the Company, or to sell, lease or dispose of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company or to amend the substantive provisions of the Company's bylaws or articles of incorporation, or to issue or redeem stock, or to declare dividends of any kind, and (ii) either First Shareholder, Second Shareholder or Third Shareholder notifying the others and the Company and any other Shareholders within [NUMBER] days after such meeting, proposed meeting or vote than an "impasse" has occurred. The put and call rights granted to each Shareholder under this Paragraph 8 are independent of the other rights granted to the Shareholders and the Company under the other terms of this Agreement and such rights are not mutually exclusive or inconsistent.

Exercise of Option

The Continuing Shareholders shall exercise any option provided for in this Paragraph 8 within [NUMBER] days after receipt of a declaration. Any closing of the sale of Shares pursuant to such exercise shall occur within [NUMBER] days after receipt of a Declaration.

Purchase Price

Any purchase or sale of Shares sold pursuant to this Paragraph 8 shall be at the price as set forth in the Declaration delivered by the Shareholder exercising his right to sell his shares and shall be paid at the closing of the sale of the Shares.

Rights Upon Registration

In the event that the Company shall register or qualify any or all of the common stock of the Company under the [CODE OR LAW], as amended (or any similar statute then in force), on an appropriate registration statement, the Company shall give the Shareholders written notice thereof, and upon written request of a Shareholder, received by the Company not later than [NUMBER] days after receipt by the Shareholder of such notice, the Company will include in the registration statement filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission all Shares held by such Shareholder with respect to which the Shareholder shall have so requested registration.

Agreement Binding on All Persons Interested in Shares

Each person who now or hereafter acquires any legal or equitable interest in any Shares shall be bound by the terms of this Agreement. No issuance or transfer of Shares shall be effective and the Company shall not enter any issue or transfer upon the stock books of the Company or issue a certificate in the name of any person unless the Company is satisfied that such person is, and in a manner satisfactory to the Company has acknowledged being, bound by this Agreement.

Closing

Except as otherwise agreed to or expressly provided for herein, closing pursuant to the exercise of a right to purchase or sell Shares pursuant to this Agreement shall be held at the principal executive offices of the Company.

Entry of Legend Upon Stock Certificates

The following legend shall be immediately entered on each stock certificate representing Shares owned by the Shareholders:

"The gift, sale, mortgage, pledge, hypothecation or other encumbering or transfer of the shares of the capital stock represented by this certificate is restricted in accordance with the terms and conditions of a Shareholders Agreement dated [DATE], a copy of which is on file at the principal executive offices of the Company. Said

OBJECTION MY LORD

Shareholders Agreement restricts the ability of the Shareholder to sell, give, pledge, bequeath or otherwise transfer or dispose of this stock certificate and the shares of capital stock represented by it."

Board of Directors

At each election of the Board of Directors of the Company, the Shareholders shall vote their Shares to elect three directors of the Company, one director being First Shareholder, or his nominee, one director being Second Shareholder, or his nominee, and one director being Third Shareholder, or his nominee.

Community and Marital Property Laws

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the following terms shall control to the extent community property laws or other marital property laws apply to the Shares of any Shareholder:

Lifetime Transfers

The provisions of this Agreement regarding restrictions against the transfer of Shares shall apply to any interest of the spouse of any Shareholder in such Shares (said spouse is hereinafter referred to as a "Spouse").

Transfers Upon Death of Spouse

If the Spouse of a Shareholder predeceases such Shareholder and has failed to bequeath to such Shareholder the deceased Spouse's entire marital property interest, if any, in the Shares held by the Shareholder, or if the Spouse of a Shareholder is adjudicated to be bankrupt or insolvent, or makes an assignment for the benefit of his or her creditors (collectively referred to herein as an "Event"), then to the extent necessary to divest the Spouse of any interest in the Shares of such Stockholder, within three months after the date of the occurrence of the Event, the Shareholder shall have the option to and must purchase such marital property interest of his or her Spouse or the estate of the deceased Spouse, as the case may be, in the Shares held by the Shareholder at a price equal to the lesser of either the value of the spouse's marital property interest in such Shares or the book value of such Shares.

Marital Dissolution

Any decree of dissolution, separate maintenance agreement or other property settlement between a Shareholder and his or her Spouse shall provide that the entire marital property interest of the Spouse in the Shares of the Shareholder shall be granted to the Shareholder as part of the division of the property of the marriage and the Spouse shall release and the Shareholder shall accept any marital property interest of such Spouse in the Shares. If payment for such Shares is ordered by the Court or demanded by the Spouse, no consideration shall be required, but if the Shareholder volunteers consideration for said release of interest it shall be no greater than the lesser of either the value of the Spouse's marital property interest in such Shares or the book value of the Spouse's marital property interest in such Shares.

Inclusion of Marital Property

Any purchase of the Shares of a Shareholder pursuant to any provision of this Agreement shall include without limitation or condition the entire marital property interest of the Spouse of such Shareholder in the Shares being purchased.

Determination of Value

Book value and the value of a Spouse's interest in the Shares of a Shareholder for purposes of this Paragraph 15 shall be determined by the Shareholder. The Company and the other Shareholders shall not be responsible for the determination of the value of the marital property interest of any Spouse of a Shareholder, the determination of book value, or the purchase of or payment for such Spouse's marital property interest in the Shares of a Shareholder.

Insurance

The Company may, if it so desires, purchase insurance policies on the life of any Management Shareholder for the purpose of payment for stock purchases or as key man insurance. If any Shareholder on whose life the Company owns an insurance policy shall at any time during his lifetime sell all of his Shares, then that Shareholder shall have the right to purchase from the Company the insurance policy or policies on his life at the cash surrender value, if any. The Company shall deliver the policy or policies on the life of such Shareholder upon payment of the cash surrender value, if any, and shall execute any necessary instruments of transfer and change of beneficiary forms.

Pro Rata Allocations

All items of income and loss of the Company shall be assigned pro rata to each day throughout the year. However, the Shareholders hereby consent to make an election pursuant to Section [NUMBER] of the [Code OR LAW] or Section [NUMBER] of the [Code OR LAW] in the event that the Board of Directors determines such elections to be in the best interest of a majority of the Shareholders.

Subchapter S Election

The Company may elect to be taxed as a small business corporation under Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended from time to time (the "code"), or such other provisions of law as may hereafter be applicable to such an election, and for state income tax purposes, if available (hereinafter, an "Election"). Each Shareholder and the Company agree to execute and file the necessary forms for making and maintaining an Election, and each Shareholder agrees to deliver to the Company the consent of the spouse of such Shareholder if such consent is required for the Election under any community or marital property laws or otherwise. The Shareholders and the Company agree that they will take such other actions as may be deemed necessary or advisable by counsel to the Company to exercise or maintain the Election. The Shareholders shall maintain the Election unless the Management Shareholders unanimously agree otherwise or in the event that the Board of Directors requests that the Shareholders revoke the Election, in which case the Shareholders shall promptly execute and deliver to the Company such documents as may be necessary to revoke the Election. None of the Shareholders, without the consent of all of the Management Shareholders, shall take any action or position, or make any transfer or other disposition of his shares of the Company which may result in the termination or revocation of the Election. In the event of an inadvertent termination of the Election as described in Section [NUMBER] of the [Code OR LAW] or other applicable law, the Shareholders shall agree to make such adjustments as may be required to continue the Election, as provided in Section [NUMBER] of the [Code OR LAW]

OBJECTION MY LORD

OBJECT: CHANGE IN OUR EMPLOYEE HEALTH COVERAGE

Dear [Contact name],

As of [Date] there will be a change in our employee health coverage.

Each year our insurance broker, [Insurance broker name], performs an audit of all our policies to help control corporate health care expenses. As the result of this year's audit, we will be keeping [Assuror name] as carrier but switching to one of their alternative plans to prevent health costs from spiraling out of control.

The coverage is nearly identical to the current plan, with [Number] exception:

- The deductible per illness has been raised from [AMOUNT] to [AMOUNT]
- [List exceptions]

Although having [a higher deductible] is not a positive change, there are other aspects of the change that compensate. We can afford to keep our private major medical plan with [Assuror name], enabling our employees to continue to be reimbursed while choosing the physicians and other health care providers they prefer. Without this plan readjustment, we probably would have been forced into an HMO or PPO, which in our recent employee survey the majority of you said you did not want. The new plan permits you to keep seeing your regular doctors and have the visits paid for.

The modified coverage will be in force effective [Date]. If you have any questions, call me at [Number] or e-mail me via company mail at [Address].

Sincerely,

POLICIES AND DOCUMENTATION

ABSENCE POLICIES EXAMPLES

The first sample policy is appropriate for businesses in which employee timeliness and attendance are critical. The policy is designed to impress upon employees that the needs of the business require them to get to work on time and that they need to let you know when they will be unable to make it in to work.

Absence Policy #1

Your timely attendance at work is crucial to making the business run smoothly. We must meet production requirements to satisfy our customer's demands. You need to do your part in achieving this goal, and one way is to maintain a good attendance record. Any absence or tardiness becomes a part of your employment record.

Punctuality requirements

Employees are expected to be at their work stations on time. Tardiness is defined as being at your work station at least [number] minutes past your scheduled starting time. You should also notify the appropriate person when you know you may be late for work. Being on time makes it easier for all of us because tardiness hinders teamwork among employees. Being tardy for work or leaving the job station before quitting time will be considered cause for corrective action.

Counting absences

Here are the rules for how absences will be counted:

An unscheduled absence for at least one-half the workday will be counted as one occurrence.

An absence for one or more consecutive workdays will be considered one occurrence. For example, if you're out two consecutive days, that will count as one occurrence.

If an employee returns from an absence (due to an illness) and goes out again due to the same illness after being at work for no more than one day, then the absence will be counted as one occurrence.

Repeated occurrences will result in verbal counseling, written counseling, and/or suspension or termination of employment.

Procedure

In the event that you are unable to come to work, be sure to call in and let the appropriate person know, in advance where possible, but no later than your regular starting time, so that arrangements for other help can be made.

Vacation days must be scheduled at least [NUMBER] hours in advance except in cases of emergency.

Employees may be granted excused absences for sickness/illness when the appropriate person is notified prior to the start of work. Pre-scheduled medical/professional appointments (lawyers, clergy, counselors, etc.) or other compelling reasons, with prior supervisory approval, may also be considered as excused absences. Absence of three or more consecutive scheduled working days without notifying the appropriate person will be considered as a voluntary termination, and you will be removed from payroll.

Authorized absence documentation

We may require documentation of authorized reasons for absence, such as sick leave or jury duty, and may also verify the documentation where appropriate.

Inclement weather

The facility must continue to operate during periods of bad weather. Thus, the need for employees to be on the job during such emergencies is of paramount importance. You are expected to make every effort to report for work. If you do not report for work when scheduled during a weather emergency, you will be considered absent. The second sample policy is more appropriate for businesses in which strict conformity to scheduled working hours is not as important. A less stringent policy may be a good idea when your employees are professionals, artists, and others whose performance is measured by timely delivery of results rather than by time spent performing a particular task.

Absence Policy #2

As an employee, you will be treated as a professional, which means that you will be expected to complete your work on time and at the expected level of quality. If extra hours are needed to complete your work, you will be expected to put in those extra hours. If, on the other hand, you are able to complete your work in less than a standard workweek, you are free to use those extra hours as you see fit. In return for being treated as a professional, we expect you to behave as one and not to abuse these privileges.

Even though you will be treated as a professional and will presumably behave as one, general absence guidelines are nevertheless necessary to ensure that we are able to conduct business in a predictable manner. Although we are not interested in monitoring your comings and goings, we need to know, in advance where possible, when you will be absent from work. Here are those guidelines:

Absences

Employees are expected to be at work and to work a full workweek, except for authorized absences. Authorized absences include the following:

vacation time scheduled in advance sick leave

time off for a workers' compensation injury

a death in your family jury duty

time off to vote

military leave

emergency situations beyond your control

Notification procedure

OBJECTION MY LORD

To obtain an authorized absence, call in, where possible, and let the appropriate person know that you are unable to come to work. The call should be made, if possible, no later than your regular starting time.

As for notifying someone that you will be late to work or will be leaving early in the event your work has been completed, we ask that you use your best judgment. If you know someone is likely to need to know that you will be coming in late or leaving early, you should call that person and let him or her know.

Failure to notify

If you don't come to work and don't call in, at some point we have the right to determine that you're not coming back. Thus, our rule is that unauthorized absences of three or more consecutive days without notice will be considered as a voluntary termination, and we will remove you from the payroll.

If you are repeatedly absent without authorization, you could be subject to counseling, suspension, and termination.

Inclement weather

During inclement weather, you should call to find out whether to report to work. Also, while the weather may be nice where you are, hazardous weather conditions could exist at or near the workplace. If you know hazardous conditions have been reported in the area, protect yourself and call work first.

- The above rules will be enforced. Periodic fire emergency drills may be conducted. Your life and the lives of others will depend on your cooperation.

Emergency plan:

This company has a responsibility for minimizing the danger to life, property, and job security arising from the effects of fire, riots, civil commotion, and natural and man-made disasters. To accomplish this purpose, a Quick Reaction Team has been developed to respond to emergencies.

Their responsibilities include the following:

 - Remain calm. Do not shout “Fire!” but instead pull the nearest fire alarm
 - Dial “911” on the telephone and give the operator the location of the fire, the floor, wing, and room number, if possible.

CHECKLIST FOR ERGONOMICS ISSUES

“Ergonomics” is the study of physical work and it has never been more important to business owners and managers. As new technologies become available to help us do our jobs better, we hear reports that the same technologies can cause repetitive injuries or cumulative trauma. Employees who develop cumulative trauma or repetitive stress disorders may seek compensation from their employers who failed to heed early warning signs. Proactive attention to ergonomics when your employees are first placed at new workstations could prevent serious workplace injuries down the line – which will prevent your company facing citations, fines, or litigation.

The following checklist can help you make sure every employee who uses a desktop computer is comfortable and healthy. This checklist can be downloaded to your firm’s Intranet site for your employees to use.

Can every employee answer “yes” to each of the following questions?

- It is easy for me to get in and out of my workstation.
- My chair adjusts so that my upper legs and lower legs form a right angle.
- My chair has armrests.
- The keyboard sits at my waist; my upper arms and lower arms form a right angle.
- My wrists are not bent while typing.
- A wrist rest is available if I want one.
- I can tilt the keyboard.
- I can easily reach the mouse pad.
- The chair back supports my lower back.
- The chair back supports my upper back.
- My feet rest comfortably on the floor.
- A footrest is available if I want one.
- An adjustable document holder is available if I want one.
- I have a color monitor that is adjustable for contrast and brightness.
- My monitor sits at or just below eye level and is not too close or too far from me.
- My monitor has a glare protection screen.
- There is plenty of light at my workstation.

- A desk lamp is available to me if I want one.
- My work surface easily accommodates the books and tools I use regularly.
- The telephone is near my chair—I don’t have to reach.
- A telephone headset is available to me if I want one.
- I am comfortable with my workload; I don’t do the same task all day long.
- I take advantage of breaks and my lunch period to get up and move around.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- I have received training about cumulative trauma.
- I know the telltale signs of repetitive stress and other workplace injuries.
- If my workstation became uncomfortable, I would tell my supervisor.

CHECKLIST FOR HOW TO BE AN EXCELLENT EMPLOYEE

- Understand that all relationships require trust, direction, communication and commitment to be successful.
- Keep yourself healthy, focused and alert at all times.
- Don't be afraid to admit mistakes. It is better to admit that you made a mistake, realize why you made the mistake, and then make sure you don't do it again.
- Don't be afraid to say, "I don't know." It is better to confess ignorance and learn the right way of doing things than to pass on, or rely on, false information that may be damaging to you and the company.
- Don't talk behind someone's back. If you decide to come to work for us we expect your loyalty and best efforts. You should expect ours in return. If you dislike your supervisor or the company then let us know what is bothering you and we will try to work it out.
- Don't just punch the clock. If you run out of things to do during the workday, find out if there is anything else you can do to help bring value to the company, its clients, customers and other stakeholders.
- Find the value in the diversity of our employees and customers.
- Dress correctly. Wear clothes that will make other people feel comfortable and that reflects your value to the company.
- Don't harass, discriminate, use profanity or tell off-color jokes.
- Be honest and trustworthy. Follow the Code of Ethics provided in the Employee Handbook.
- Think! Be creative and innovative. The company is willing to listen to any suggestions or ideas you have which would increase the quality and value of our products or services.
- Follow the Golden Rule! Act with respect and responsibility towards those around you.

5. PERSONAL USE

The computers, electronic media and services provided by [COMPANY NAME] are primarily for business use to assist employees in the performance of their jobs. As long as personal use does not interfere with the employee's duties, is not done for pecuniary gain, does not conflict with the Company's business, and does not violate any Company policy, occasional, or incidental use of electronic media (sending or receiving) for personal, non-business purposes is understandable and acceptable, and all such use should be done in a manner that does not negatively affect the systems' use for their business purposes. However, employees are expected to demonstrate a sense of responsibility and not abuse this privilege.

The Company assumes no liability for loss, damage, destruction, alteration, disclosure, or misuse of any personal data or communications transmitted over or stored on the Company's technology resources. The Company accepts no responsibility or liability for the loss or non-delivery of any personal electronic mail or voicemail communications or any personal data stored on any Company property. The Company strongly discourages employees from storing any personal data on any of the Company's technology resources.

6. ACCESS TO EMPLOYEE COMMUNICATIONS

- a) Generally, electronic information created and/or communicated by an employee using e-mail, word processing, utility programs, spreadsheets, voicemail, telephones, Internet and bulletin board system access, and similar electronic media is not reviewed by the company. However, the following conditions should be noted:

[COMPANY NAME] does routinely gather logs for most electronic activities or monitor employee communications directly, be it:

- i) Telephone Use and Voicemail: Records are kept of all calls made from and to a given telephone extension. Although voicemail is password protected, an authorized administrator can reset the password and listen to voicemail messages.
- ii) Electronic Mail: Electronic mail is backed-up and archived. Although electronic mail is password protected, an authorized administrator can reset the password and read electronic mail.
- iii) Descontractop Facsimile Use: Copies of all facsimile transmissions sent and received are maintained in the facsimile server.
- iv) Document Use: Each document stored on Company computers has a history, which shows which users have accessed the document for any purpose.
- v) Internet Use: Internet sites visited, the number of times visited, and the total time connected to each site is recorded and periodically monitored.

[COMPANY NAME] reserves the right, at its discretion and without notice, to review any employee's electronic files and messages to the extent necessary to ensure electronic media and services are being used in compliance with the law, this policy and other company policies, or to investigate misconduct, to locate information, or for any other business purpose.

- b) Employees should understand, therefore, that they have no right of privacy with respect to any messages or information created or maintained on the Company's technology resources, including personal information or messages. Accordingly, if they have sensitive information to transmit, they should use other means.

All messages sent and received, including personal messages, and all data and information stored on the Company's electronic-mail system, voicemail system, or computer systems are Company property regardless of the content. As such, the Company reserves the right to access all of its technology resources including its computers, voicemail, and electronic-mail systems, at any time, in its sole discretion.

Passwords do not confer any right of privacy upon any employee of the Company. Employees are expected to maintain their passwords as confidential. Employees must not share passwords and must not access coworkers' systems without express authorization.

Deleting or erasing information, documents, or messages maintained on the Company's technology resources is, in most cases, ineffective. All employees should understand that any information kept on the Company's technology resources may be electronically recalled or recreated regardless of whether it may have been "deleted" or "erased" by an employee. Because the Company periodically backs-up all files and messages, and because of the way in which computers re-use file storage space, files and messages may exist that are thought to have been deleted or erased. Therefore, employees who delete or erase information or messages should not assume that such information or messages are confidential.

7. The Internet And On-Line Services

The Company provides authorized employees access to on-line services such as the Internet. The Company expects that employees will use these services in a responsible way and for business-related purposes only. Under no circumstances are employees permitted to use the Company's Technology Resources to access, download, or contribute to the following:

- gross, indecent, or sexually-oriented materials;
- sports sites;
- job-search sites;
- entertainment sites;
- gambling sites;
- games, humor;
- illegal drug-oriented sites;
- personal pages of individuals; and
- politically-oriented sites or sites devoted to influencing the course of legislation or public policy.

Additionally, employees must not sign "guest books" at Web sites or post messages to Internet news groups or discussion groups at Web sites. These actions will generate junk electronic mail and may expose the Company to liability or unwanted attention because of comments that employees may make. The Company strongly encourages employees who wish to access the Internet for non-work-related activities to get their own personal Internet access accounts.

8. PARTICIPATION IN ONLINE FORUMS

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- a) Employees should remember that any messages or information sent on company-provided facilities to one or more individuals via an electronic network – for example, Internet mailing lists, bulletin boards, and online services – are statements identifiable and attributable to [COMPANY NAME].
- b) [COMPANY NAME] recognizes that participation in some forums might be important to the performance of an employee's job. For instance, an employee might find the answer to a technical problem by consulting members of a news group devoted to the technical area.

9. SOFTWARE

To prevent computer viruses from being transmitted through the company's computer system, unauthorized downloading of any unauthorized software is strictly prohibited. Only software registered through [COMPANY NAME] may be downloaded. No employee may load any software on the Company's computers, by any means of transmission, unless authorized in advance by [Company name]'s system administrator.

10. SECURITY/APPROPRIATE USE

- a) Employees must respect the confidentiality of other individuals' electronic communications. Except in cases in which explicit authorization has been granted by company management, employees are prohibited from engaging in, or attempting to engage in:
 - Monitoring or intercepting the files or electronic communications of other employees or third parties;
 - Hacking or obtaining access to systems or accounts they are not authorized to use;
 - Using other people's log-ins or passwords; and
 - Breaching, testing, or monitoring computer or network security measures.
- b) No e-mail or other electronic communications can be sent that attempt to hide the identity of the sender or represent the sender as someone else.
- c) Electronic media and services should not be used in a manner that is likely to cause network congestion or significantly hamper the ability of other people to access and use the system.
- d) Anyone obtaining electronic access to other companies' or individuals' materials must respect all copyrights and cannot copy, retrieve, modify or forward copyrighted materials except as permitted by the copyright owner.

OBJECTION MY LORD

- e) The Company has installed a variety of programs and devices to ensure the safety and security of the Company's technology resources. Any employee found tampering or disabling any of the Company's security devices will be subject to discipline up to and including termination.

11. ENCRYPTION

Employees can use encryption software supplied to them by the systems administrator for purposes of safeguarding sensitive or confidential business information. Employees who use encryption on files stored on a company computer must provide their supervisor with a sealed hard copy record (to be retained in a secure location) of all of the passwords and/or encryption keys necessary to access the files.

12. Confidential Information

The Company is very sensitive to the issue of protection of trade secrets and other confidential and proprietary information of both the Company and third parties ("Confidential Information"). Therefore, employees are expected to use good judgment and to adhere to the highest ethical standards when using or transmitting Confidential Information on the Company's technology resources.

Confidential Information should not be accessed through the Company's technology resources in the presence of unauthorized individuals. Similarly, Confidential Information should not be left visible or unattended. Moreover, any Confidential Information transmitted via technology resources should be marked with the following confidentiality legend:

"This message contains confidential information. Unless you are the addressee (or authorized to receive for the addressee), you may not copy, use, or distribute this information. If you have received this message in error, please advise [employee's name] immediately at [employee's telephone number] or return it promptly by mail."

13. VIOLATIONS

Any employee who abuses the privilege of their access to e-mail or the Internet in violation of this policy will be subject to corrective action, including possible termination of employment, legal action, and criminal liability.

14. Procedures

Procedures for accessing the Voicemail, E-mail and Internet system, as well as the guidelines for how to properly send and retain information, may be obtained by contacting [Name of the systems administrator].

The Voicemail/E-mail/Internet policies and procedures should be reviewed by each employee on a semi-annual basis.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Questions concerning the use of the Voicemail/E-mail/Internet system should be directed to the systems administrator. Questions concerning the improper use of the system should be directed to the employee's immediate supervisor, and if not satisfied with the response, to the systems administrator.

15. EMPLOYEE AGREEMENT ON USE OF E-MAIL AND THE INTERNET

I have read, understand, and agree to comply with the foregoing policies, rules, and conditions governing the use of the Company's computer and telecommunications equipment and services. I understand that I have no expectation of privacy when I use any of the telecommunication equipment or services. I am aware that violations of this guideline on appropriate use of the e-mail and Internet systems may subject me to disciplinary action, including termination from employment, legal action and criminal liability. I further understand that my use of the e-mail and Internet may reflect on the image of [COMPANY NAME] to our customers, competitors and suppliers and that I have responsibility to maintain a positive representation of the company. Furthermore, I understand that this policy can be amended at any time.

LONG-TERM DISABILITY PLAN

Introduction

If you are unable to work due to illness or accidental injury that lasts longer than [NUMBER] consecutive days, you may be entitled to benefits under the [COMPANY NAME] Long-Term Disability (LTD) Plan.

Established [DATE], the Plan covers eligible employees of [COMPANY NAME].

In a nutshell: Qualifying employees who are totally disabled receive a benefit equal to [%] of basic monthly compensation as defined in the Plan. Benefits may continue for up to [NUMBER] months if you are certified totally disabled and are unable to perform the duties of your regular job. Benefits may continue for longer than [NUMBER] months if you continue to be certified disabled and are unable to do any work consistent with your education and training.

This is a summary plan description. These regulations require that the rights, benefits, and limitations of a welfare plan be explained in ordinary, non-technical language capable of being understood by the average plan participant. This is, by its nature, a summary. If there is any conflict between this summary and the complete Plan and related trust agreement, the provisions of the Plan document and trust agreement will be controlling.

Copies of the LTD Plan document are available from [Name of person who keeps the LTD policy, if this is applicable].

1. Definitions

j) Plan administrator

[Name of plan administrator]

k) Qualifying period

The [NUMBER]-consecutive-day period during which a participant is totally disabled, commencing on the first day on which he or she is totally disabled. l) Rehabilitation program

m) Total disability

2. Participation

a) Eligibility

Active employees of [COMPANY NAME] are eligible to participate in the Long-Term Disability Plan once they have completed one full year of service and have satisfied the requirements for participation in the [COMPANY NAME] Consolidated Pension Plan (completion of [NUMBER] hours of employment in a [NUMBER]-month period marked by anniversaries of your date of hire).

In the case of [COMPANY NAME] full-time hourly and part-time hourly employees, participation in the LTD Plan is available once you complete [NUMBER] years of qualifying service.

LTD benefits are not available to retirees.

b) Commencement of participation

Participation begins on the date you satisfy the eligibility requirements. If you are absent from work for any reason other than approved personal leave or vacation on the date on which you become eligible, you become a participant on the date on which you return to active work.

c) Termination of participation

Participation in the Plan ends when one of the following occurs:

- i) You are no longer an active, regular employee of a participating employer.
- ii) The Plan is terminated (regardless of whether or not you are disabled).
- iii) You retire under the [COMPANY NAME] Consolidated Pension Plan.

d) Disclaimer of employment obligation

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Participation in the Plan does not limit [COMPANY NAME]'s right to discharge any participant from employment, nor does it give any employee the right to continued employment.

3. Entitlement to benefits

To qualify for LTD benefits, you must be totally disabled for a [NUMBER]-consecutive-day period, you must be under the regular care and treatment of a licensed physician and you must be certified disabled by [ADMINISTRATOR'S NAME], based on conclusive medical evidence. You must also have applied for Social Security disability benefits and for any benefits available to you through other disability programs, including those available through the state in which you reside.

a) Total disability and the qualifying period

You are considered totally disabled when you are unable to perform the material duties of your occupation solely due to sickness or accidental injury.

To qualify for Plan benefits, you must be totally disabled for a [NUMBER]-consecutive-day period. During that time, you may qualify for benefits under [COMPANY NAME]'s salary continuation/short-term disability program. Even in cases where short-term benefits are, you could be entitled to LTD benefits if your disability is continuous for [NUMBER] consecutive days.

b) Recurrent and successive disability during the qualifying period

All days from the onset of disability on which you cannot work will be considered to be "continuous" and "consecutive" days of disability if they are from the same cause, unless you are able to return to work for a period of [NUMBER] days or more during the qualifying period.

c) Unrelated disability

If during your initial total disability qualifying period you incur an unrelated total disability while you are unable to work, you may aggregate your periods of total disability for purposes of satisfying the [NUMBER]-day qualifying period.

d) Recurrent and successive disability after the qualifying period

If you return to work following a period of long-term disability and become disabled due to the same or related problems within six months following your return to work, you will not be required to complete an additional qualifying period.

e) Long-Term disability

As used in the Plan, the term "long-term disability" has [NUMBER] definitions:

OBJECTION MY LORD

- i) In the first [NUMBER] months of Plan payments, “long-term disability” means your inability to perform the material duties of your regular job solely because of sickness or accidental injury.
- ii) After the first [NUMBER] months of Plan payments, “long-term disability” means your inability to engage in ANY occupation for which you are qualified or could reasonably become qualified based on your education, training and experience.

f) Limitations

Long-term disability benefits are not paid for disabilities resulting from:

- i) intentionally self-inflicted injuries
- ii) participation in a felony or as a result of such participation
- iii) services in the armed forces of any country

g) Claims administration

Claims Administration under the Plan is handled by [Name of claims administrator].

As Claims Administrator, [Name of claims administrator] has been delegated the authority to approve or deny claims for long-term disability benefits, based on medical documentation. Forms for this purpose are provided to disabled employees.

[Name of claims administrator] will also advise on LTD appeals.

h) Claims for benefits

Claims for long-term disability benefits are made on forms provided by [Name of claims administrator].

These forms are forwarded to you automatically when your disability lasts longer than three and a half months if the Claims Administrator feels, based on a review of existing medical documentation, that your disability is likely to last longer than [NUMBER] days.

i) Conclusive medical evidence

To qualify for benefits under the Plan, total disability must be supported by current medical documentation. A claimant must be in the continuous care of a qualified physician under a course of treatment appropriate for the disability.

A claimant may be asked to undergo a medical examination by a physician designated by the Claims Administrator. For example, if a claimant’s doctor cannot substantiate a finding of total disability with objective evidence, an independent evaluation may be required.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

When a claimant cannot or will not provide conclusive medical evidence of total disability, LTD benefits will be denied or discontinued.

j) Ongoing certification of disability

Continuation of LTD benefit payments will require ongoing certification of disability based on updated medical documentation. Frequency of claim review is determined by the Claims Administrator.

k) Application for Social Security benefits

Except in cases where return to work will occur soon after the [NUMBER]-day qualifying period, all claimants for LTD benefits must apply for Social Security benefits.

Long-Term disability benefits are offset by benefits available from Social Security. However, these projected benefits are not offset against your monthly benefit until you actually receive a Social Security award.

When a participant receives the award which pays retroactively for the period during which he or she was eligible to receive Social Security benefits, the participant turns over those amounts to the Plan as repayment for benefits previously advanced. Participants are required to sign an agreement to this effect as a condition of receiving benefits under the Plan.

l) Application for state disability benefits

If you live in a state that maintains a disability program to which you and/or your employer are making contributions, please contact [Name of person who handles benefits] for information on how to file for these benefits.

4. Calculation of benefits

a) Benefit amount

The long-term disability benefit is [%] of base monthly compensation minus other disability income (see below), with base monthly compensation defined in the Plan as follows:

- i) for salaried employees: the average monthly earnings (base salary, bonuses and overtime, but excluding awards and special payments) for the last [NUMBER] months of full pay immediately preceding the first date of disability (the first day of the [NUMBER]-day qualifying period).*
- ii) for commissioned sales representatives: the average monthly amount of commissions attributed to the [NUMBER] months immediately preceding the first day of total disability. (For reps with less than [NUMBER] full years of commissions, benefit is based on the average of the total number of months on commission.)*
- iii) for employees paid on the basis of salary plus commission: the sum of the above (Any salary or earnings rate not determined on a monthly basis is determined using your normal monthly scheduled hours (exclusive of overtime) in effect on the day preceding the first day of total disability.)*

OBJECTION MY LORD

b) Minimum/maximum benefit

The minimum Plan benefit is [AMOUNT] per month.

There is no maximum dollar amount of benefit that you may receive under the LTD Plan's formula for calculation of benefits.

c) Offsets for other income

Long-term disability payments are reduced by any disability and/or income you are receiving including:

- i) any benefits you are eligible to receive as regular salary, commission, bonus, special payments, sick leave, vacation pay, or under any salary continuation plan
- ii) primary Social Security benefits
- iii) benefits you are eligible to receive under the Public Employees Retirement Law, the Railroad Retirement Act, or any other federal, state, county, or municipal retirement act or law
- iv) any employer retirement benefits
- v) any benefits you are entitled to receive under other government - or [COMPANY NAME]-sponsored disability or income or retirement plans
- vi) any benefits you are eligible to receive under worker's compensation or similar legislation
- vii) any wages attributable to the period for which benefits are being paid under the Plan, whether or not received from [COMPANY NAME]
- viii) any benefits you are eligible to receive under any plan or provision providing periodic payments for disability or providing benefits for loss of time or income

For example: Suppose your average monthly earnings are determined to be $2,000. Your LTD benefit would be [%] of that $2,000, or [AMOUNT]. Now, assume that you also receive [AMOUNT] monthly from Social Security. Your LTD benefit would be [AMOUNT] minus [AMOUNT], or [AMOUNT].

d) Increases in other income

Your monthly LTD payment is not recalculated if your "other income" (as described above) is increased due to scheduled or legislated increases under the Federal Social Security Act, workers' compensation, or similar legislation after you have received your first Plan payment. However, if retirement or disability benefits you receive under another program increase because you are disabled, your monthly LTD benefit will be reduced by the amount of the increase attributable to your total disability. In addition, if your primary Social Security benefit is increased because of a recalculation of your earnings (including earnings in the year you become disabled), your LTD benefit will be reduced by the amount of that increase.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

e) Partial monthly benefit

For any partial month of disability (generally the first or the last month in your disability period), you will receive one-thirtieth of your monthly benefit for each day on which you are totally disabled during the month. If you qualify only for the minimum benefit, this too will be calculated on a daily basis for partial months.

f) Vacation

You may at any time elect to take the vacation time remaining in your first year of disability and, thereby, receive full pay for those days instead of the [%] LTD daily benefit. In computing your monthly benefit for such months, days on which you take earned vacation will be subtracted from the number of days for which you are eligible for LTD benefits. If you take a full month of vacation, the minimum LTD benefit will not be payable.

5. Payment of benefits

a) Monthly payments

Payments of long-term disability benefits commence on the first day of the month following the first day of Long-Term Disability.

Thereafter, payments are made on the first of each month to cover all or part of the preceding month during which you are certified disabled.

b) Funding

LTD benefits are paid from the assets of the [COMPANY NAME] Employee Benefits Trust. The Trustee is [Name of trustee]. It is the intent of [COMPANY NAME] to prefund the Trust at the end of each year, projecting the Plan's financial needs based on recommendations of independent consultants.

6. Termination of benefits

With the exception of mental or nervous disorders, alcoholism or drug abuse, when all Plan conditions are met, LTD benefits continue for up to [NUMBER] months if you are unable to perform the material duties of your regular job. They could continue longer if you are unable to engage in any occupation for which you are qualified or could reasonably become qualified based on your education, training and experience. And they could continue in modified fashion if you engage in an approved program of rehabilitative employment.

a) Conditions for benefit termination

The foregoing rules notwithstanding, Plan benefits will be discontinued upon any of the following:

OBJECTION MY LORD

- i) your recovery from total disability
- ii) your failure to remain under the regular care and treatment of a qualified physician
- iii) your return to work, except with respect to a rehabilitative program
- iv) your inability or unwillingness to provide complete medical evidence of your total disability
- v) the expiration of the payment period is determined under the following schedule:

Participant's Age at Total Disability Benefit Payment Period
Less than 62	Up to 65th Birthday
62 but less than 63	36 months
63 but less than 64	[NUMBER] months
64 and older	[NUMBER] months

b) Special circumstances

Payment of LTD benefits is limited to a maximum of [NUMBER] months if the disability results from:

- i) mental or nervous disorders
- ii) alcoholism or drug abuse
- iii) addiction to or abuse of drugs or other substances including, but not limited to, substances identified by federal or state authorities as controlled substances

7. Retirement benefits

If you have completed [NUMBER] qualifying years of service in the [COMPANY NAME] Consolidated Pension Plan, you continue to accrue years of service for pension calculation purposes for the period of time during which you are receiving LTD benefits.

Additionally, if you are vested, you may decide to retire any time after [AGE]. If you retire, your disability benefits will stop and you will begin receiving your pension in any of the optional forms of payment provided under the pension plan.

8. Rehabilitative employment

The Plan also provides for a program designed to help you return to active, permanent work. However, such a program must be approved by [name of person who will approve rehab program] and your doctor. Rehabilitation programs may include training, physical therapy, or, where possible, part-time work in your old job or a new job.

You will be considered to be engaged in a rehabilitative program if the following conditions are met:

- i) You are totally disabled.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

- ii) The rehabilitative plan or program you are participating in is approved by a physician and [Name of person who approves rehab].

Your rehabilitative employment status will be reviewed at least every three months, unless your work duties change or you request a review.

While you are in a period of rehabilitative employment, your monthly LTD benefit is offset by [NUMBER]-thirds of your rehabilitation earnings. Your total income for that period, then, is:

- your rehabilitation income, plus
- the excess of your monthly LTD benefit from the Plan if your LTD amount was larger than [NUMBER]-thirds of your rehabilitation income (otherwise, a minimum Plan benefit of [AMOUNT])

Suppose, for example, that your monthly earnings prior to disability were [AMOUNT]. Your LTD benefit is [%], or [AMOUNT]. You engage in rehabilitative employment and earn [AMOUNT] a month. Here's what you receive for those months:

- rehabilitation earnings: [AMOUNT]
- excess monthly LTD benefit: $[AMOUNT] - ([\%] \times [AMOUNT]) = [AMOUNT]$

Your total earnings for that period of time would be [AMOUNT], of which [AMOUNT] would come from earnings and [AMOUNT] would come from the LTD Plan.

9. Appealing benefit determinations

If you disagree with a decision regarding the benefits to which you are entitled under the Plan, you have [NUMBER] days in which to file a written appeal with the Claim Administrator. Within [NUMBER] days, your claim will be reviewed and you will receive a written decision regarding your appeal. This [NUMBER]-day period may be extended for an additional [NUMBER] days if circumstances warrant such an extension. If your claim is denied, in whole or in part, you will receive all of the following:

- written notification of the reason(s) for the denial
- a reference to the Plan provision(s) which is the basis for the denial
- a description of what you need if you choose to file an amended claim
- an explanation of why that information is needed
- an explanation of the Plan's claim procedure

You will then have [NUMBER] days after receiving the decision to file a written notice to request review of that decision by [name of person who will review decisions]. Within [NUMBER] days of your written request, you will receive, in writing, notification of [Name of person who will review decisions]'s decision.

10. Plan administration

OBJECTION MY LORD

The [COMPANY NAME] Long-Term Disability Plan is administered by [ADMINISTRATOR'S NAME].

[ADMINISTRATOR'S NAME] has authority to make rules and regulations necessary for the administration of the Plan, to construe and interpret the Plan and to make sure that all Participants are treated uniformly and equitably.

[ADMINISTRATOR'S NAME] is empowered to delegate responsibility for Plan administration, including the appointment of a Claim Administrator to advise on eligibility for participation, eligibility for benefits, amount of benefits, etc.

Day-to-day responsibility for the administration of the Plan has been delegated to [ADMINISTRATOR'S NAME], who works closely with [Name of person who oversees benefits].

11. Plan amendment and termination

a) Plan amendment

The LTD Plan may be amended at any time with the consent of [COMPANY NAME].

b) Plan termination

While it is the intent of [COMPANY NAME] to continue this Plan indefinitely, [COMPANY NAME] does reserve the right to terminate the Plan at any time.

If the Plan is terminated, and if you are totally disabled on the effective date of the Plan termination and are otherwise entitled to benefits under the Plan, you will continue to receive those benefits in accordance with Plan provisions. However, benefits will stop if any of the following:

- you cease to be totally disabled
- you return to work for a period of at least six consecutive months in any capacity other than in rehabilitative employment
- you return to work for any period of time and become totally disabled from a cause unrelated to the total disability for which you were receiving benefits

SHORT-TERM DISABILITY PLAN

1. POLICY

- a) [COMPANY NAME] provides a Short-Term Disability Program available to eligible full-time regular employees as approved by [COMPANY NAME] designed to assist those regular employees unable to work due to extended illness or disability lasting up to [NUMBER] months.
- b) All regular employees with more than one year of continuous service based on date of employment as a regular employee are eligible for consideration of Short-Term Disability benefits.
- c) This plan is to be integrated with [COMPANY NAME] Employees' Long-Term Disability Plan, which provides benefit payments to regular employees with at least one year of service, after [NUMBER] months of total disability.
- d) Any illness or impairment of health verified by a certified doctor's written statement, that requires an employee to be absent from work for [NUMEBER] or more continuous working days, qualifies the employee for consideration of benefits under the Short-Term Disability Program.
- e) Benefits are available only to an employee who is under a certified physician's care. A doctor must certify the starting, continuing, and ending dates of the employee's disability on Disability Certification Form. Payment of the employee's Short-Term Disability benefits will be delayed or denied if we are unable to certify the initiation or continuing status of the disability period.
- f) Short-Term Disability benefits must be approved before benefits are paid. The fact that an employee presents a doctor's certificate indicating an illness/disability does not in and of itself establish eligibility for Short-Term Disability benefits.
- g) [COMPANYNAME] retains and reserves the right to request additional information from the employee or the employee's physician and/or to request the employee to obtain certification of the illness/disability from a physician of [COMPANY NAME]'s choice at [COMPANY NAME]'s expense, prior to granting approval of Short-Term Disability benefits under this program.
- h) Benefits under this program must be requested by the employee through [Name of person who receives requests] and approved by [Name of person who approves requests].
- i) [COMPANY NAME] may place employees on a medical leave of absence without pay if doubt exists as to the bona fide nature of the illness/disability or if additional medical information is required to substantiate the claim. When additional medical information is requested, employees remain on medical leave of absence without pay until the illness/disability is certified and an effective date obtained based on the additional information from the employee's physician or a physician of [COMPANY NAME]'s choice.

- j) Reconfirmation of disability or long-term illness by the patient's physician will be required by [COMPANY NAME] every two weeks unless a physician is able to project at the outset a total period of disability. These re-certifications may be subject to review by a physician called in at the company option and expense.
- k) Short-Term disability benefits start on the date of the doctor's certificate or the first day of the disability period as indicated by the effective date of the doctor's certificate, whichever is earlier.
- l) Maximum benefits under the Short-Term Disability Program are [NUMBER] working days at full pay or a combination of full and half pay totaling [NUMBER] working days, after which time a determination may be made regarding an employee's eligibility for company-paid Long-Term Disability benefits.

Short-Term Disability benefits are paid in accordance with the following schedule:

Length of Employment as a Regular Employee	Amount of Benefit
1-2 years	20 days at full pay followed by 20 days at half pay
3 years	30 days at full pay followed by 30 days at half pay
4 years	40 days at full pay followed by 40 days at half pay

- m) The basis for calculation of an account representative's or other incentive compensation employee's benefits is either:
- i) 80% of the total income of the prior 24 months divided by 52 bi-weekly periods (or, if newly eligible, the prior 12 months divided by 26) to determine the average bi-weekly paycheck; or
 - ii) 100% of the true total annual earnings divided by 26 to determine the bi-weekly paycheck, whichever is greater. These employees will be paid Short-Term Disability benefits based on the schedule in l) above. Commission payments cease while the incentive compensation employee is paid Short-Term Disability benefits.
- n) Regular employees are eligible for the different amounts as stated above according to length of service on their anniversary date. If an anniversary date occurs while an employee is receiving Short-Term Disability benefits, he/she will be eligible for the greater amount of coverage, as outlined in the chart in l) above.
- o) At the end of six months of continuous disability, an assessment will be made to see if the employee qualifies for disability benefits under the [COMPANY NAME] Long-Term Disability Plan. If at that time, the employee cannot be certified disabled by the Long-Term Disability Plan Administrator, his or her employment may be terminated with the option for rehire when the employee's health allows. If it becomes clear that the employee's return to work is imminent, after paid Short-Term Disability benefits lapse, a leave of absence without pay may be authorized by [Name of person or persons who authorizes leaves of absence].

OBJECTION MY LORD

- p) [COMPANY NAME] bases disability payments on an incident of disability, rather than on a calendar-year basis. A period of disability begun in one year could extend into the following year.
- q) When the employee returns to work following a period of extended disability or illness and has subsequent absences related to the original disability within [NUMBER] calendar days of the return to work, those absences will be considered part of the original disability period.
- r) Pregnancy is treated the same as is any other illness under the Short-Term Disability Program. Commencement of short-Term disability benefits for a maternity leave must be based on actual disability of the individual, not the mere fact of pregnancy.
- s) If the request for Medical Leave is determined by [Name of person who grants leave requests] to be unwarranted, the employee will be notified of the denial of the request. If the employee is not actively at work at this time, his/her failure to return immediately will be considered a resignation.
- t) If false claims for Short-Term Disability benefits are discovered at any time, or if an employee fails to report to work on the first regularly scheduled workday following absence under the Short-Term Disability Program, he/she will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.
- u) Employees receiving benefits under the [COMPANY NAME]'s Short-Term Disability Program will be eligible to continue participation in the [COMPANY NAME] Comprehensive Health and Life Insurance plans and continue to accrue service for purposes of the [Name of the company retirement plan, if applicable] in accordance with plan provisions.
- v) [Only if applicable] In states where employees are required to maintain disability insurance, [COMPANY NAME] will coordinate benefits available under this program with those available under state-mandated programs.
- w) Under no circumstances will the combined benefits from a State/Province Disability Plan or the Short-Term Disability program exceed the salary of the employee.
- x) The company may require periodic verification of an employee's inability or ability to work (including, for example, examination by a doctor designated by the company).
- y) Company policy provides that an employee's position may be filled while on a leave if this is necessary in order to meet business requirements. If this occurs, upon conclusion of the medical leave, every reasonable effort will be made to return the employee to the position formerly held or to one of similar responsibility and salary level.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

z) Exceptions to this policy will be determined by [Name of person determining benefits policies].

2. RESPONSIBILITIES

[Your company name]'s policy is intended to comply with all state laws governing drug and alcohol testing and is designed to safeguard employee privacy rights to the fullest extent of the law.

3. Selection

Not all [Your company name] employees will be asked to submit to drug and alcohol testing. Only those employees who [list criteria such as job titles or duties that will require drug testing] are subject to drug and alcohol testing.

4. Tested Substances

[Your company name]'s drug and alcohol testing program is limited to testing for [List what you'll test for, e.g., blood alcohol, specific drugs and drug types]. Any other substances that may be tested using the same method used to test for controlled substances will not be tested and, if found, will not be reported.

OBJECTION MY LORD

If the employee is asked to submit to a drug or alcohol test, [Your company name] will notify the employee of the results within [Specify time limit, e.g., “24 hours” or “one week”] after it receives them from the laboratory. To preserve the confidentiality [Your company name] strives to maintain, the employee will be notified by [Method of notification] whether the test was negative or confirmed positive and, if confirmed positive, what the next step is.

8. Positive Test Results

In addition, the employee may have the same sample retested at a laboratory of the employee's choice.

9. Adverse Employment Action

If there is reason to suspect that the employee is working while under the influence of an illegal drug or alcohol, the employee will be suspended [With or without] pay until the results of a drug and alcohol test are made available to [Your company name] by the testing laboratory. The mainstay of our strategy will be to offer a level of client focus that is superior to that offered by our competitors.

To help achieve this objective, [COMPANY NAME] seeks to attract highly motivated individuals that want to work as a team and share in the commitment, responsibility, risk taking and discipline required to achieve our vision. Part of attracting these special individuals will be to build a culture that promotes both uniqueness and a bias for action. While we will be realistic in setting goals and expectations, [COMPANY NAME] will also be aggressive in reaching its objectives. This success will in turn enable [COMPANY NAME] to give its employees above average compensation and innovative benefits or rewards, key elements in helping us maintain our leadership position in the worldwide marketplace.

1.3 CUSTOMER RELATIONS

Customers are among our organization's most valuable assets. Every employee represents [COMPANY NAME] to our customers and the public. The way we do our jobs presents an image of our entire organization. Customers judge all of us by how they are treated with each employee contact. Therefore, one of our first business priorities is to assist any customer or potential customer. Nothing is more important than being courteous, friendly, helpful, and prompt in the attention you give to customers.

ISAAC CHRISTOPHER LUBOGO

Positive customer relations not only enhance the public's perception or image of [COMPANY NAME], but also pay off in greater customer loyalty and increased sales and profit.

ABOUT THE BOOK

"Objection My Lord" is a phrase often used in court. This book covers all the nitty-gritty for one to practice law in the best and legal way possible within limits of good conduct and professionalism. Charles Dickens in "The Old Curiosity Shop" has spoken this of lawyers. "If there were no bad people, there would be no good lawyers." I have already listed how the good lawyers conduct themselves in my former book, "Professional Malpractice In Uganda;" this book will thence equip the reader with the practical tools of the legal profession, making them grasp these basic skills in addition to mastering legal professionalism.

This is a package to my Learned Friends, to know the must know and learn to practice within the legal limits and more so, discover the legal exceptions and present such in a legal manner; to distinguish precedents tactically and persuade intellectually where no such exist. It is a summary of legal principles requisite for one to properly establish their case before court. This book is a one stop masterpiece for a reader to grasp the other more practical duties of a lawyer apart from litigation and drawing deeds. By training consistency yet with honest dealings, this book navigates along the professional to the moral and most practical situations encountered by a lawyer while furnishing one with the gist and nothing less. It is a training for every "officer of court" to make use of their greatest tool "the tongue" to not only persuade but also assist court and the state in ensuring justice.

Be blessed to find all you seek and be gifted a package, so much more than you expect in this book.
